

Super Rich Dad Chapter 504-506

Chapter 504

Hearing this, Jiang Hao's heart was both shocked and a little sorry.

Although he did not know those people himself, after all, they were all his closest relatives with whom he had blood ties.

Jiang Hao also felt anger, anger at the insidiousness and ruthlessness of the Shen family overseas, and anger at the traitors who had turned against him.

Perhaps this was destiny. Jiang Hao sighed as he looked at his father, a hint of doubt suddenly rose in his heart, and he hesitated for a moment before asking, 'So dad, how did you you survive? Didn't you say. Did all of our Zong family die in the war?'

Being asked by Jiang Hao like this, Shen Haoting's eventful face reddened slightly as he hesitated. He didn't say anything for a long while.

Shen Haoting's face was ugly, as if he had remembered something unpleasant from the past.

'Dad? What's wrong with you?' Jiang Hao asked with a frown.

Shen Haoting shook his head, 'No I'm fine, I

Shen Haoting seemed to be hesitating as he walked over to the window and lit a cigarette and took a slow drag.

Only then did he say, 'Actually I wasn't actually present at the time of the duel in Pingyang Valley, I was out of town, and when I arrived home, the Zong family, as well as the several families that supported the Zong family, had already been slaughtered.'

'What about you? Have you never thought of revenge?' Jiang Hao asked with his hands clenched in fists, 'Such a great hatred

Shen Haoting froze again, he was unnaturally pressed by Jiang Hao's two sentences and looked a bit wretched before he spoke, 'I have certainly thought about revenge, and have tried. Only it failed.'

Jiang Hao became more and more puzzled, he looked at Shen Haoting, followed by asking, 'Dad, then how did you end up becoming the head patriarch of the overseas Shen family? This all seems a bit illogical, huh? The overseas Shen family slaughtered your relatives, and you still ended up

Jiang Hao's heart is indeed full of doubts about these questions, in his opinion, these questions are too difficult to explain.

How can someone kill your whole family and end up being the head of someone else instead?

But although Jiang Hao was puzzled, he didn't think much about it, because in his opinion, his own father would definitely give him a satisfactory explanation.

Shen Haoting sighed and hesitated for a while before he spoke: 'Actually it's actually a long story, in short, that ultimate secret of the Shen family's heritage was in dad's hands at that time. The only way to get a good deal is to make a deal with the overseas Shen family. I lied and said that I would give the item to them eighteen years later, but I needed money, a lot of money. In fact, Dad was only lying in wait for these. I know I am not as powerful as the other side, so I can only hope that in these ten years or so, dad will be able to accumulate enough power. One day be able to go past all the hatred to humiliation and return it all!'

After hearing Shen Haoting's words, although Jiang Hao didn't say anything, he ultimately felt uncomfortable in his heart.

And he even felt as if his own father was hiding something from him, but what exactly it was. Again, he did not know.

But Jiang Hao didn't say anything more, because he believed that no matter what the past was like, at the very least, his father now was bent on revenge.

At the very least, now his father. It was a man at the top of his game.

Will smiled at his father, got up and walked to his father's heels, smiling, 'Dad, then let's work together, and return all the hatred and humiliation from the past!'

When Shen Haoting heard these words come out of Jiang Hao's mouth, he looked very excited, he nodded heavily and said, 'Son, don't worry, Dad has been waiting for this day for almost twenty years. But we still have to wait for some more time, because tightly with our current strength, if we want to defeat the other side. There is still a lot to be done.'

Shen Haoting paused and then added, 'But soon, we will have enough power. As long as that day comes. We'll have endless power, and by then, whatever bullshit overseas Shen family we have will all be reduced to pieces!'

Jiang Hao smiled with curiosity. He looked up and asked, 'What's that?'

Shen Haoting smiled, 'Dad won't tell you for now, I'll personally take you to see it when I have time!'

Shen Haoting's words made Jiang Hao more and more curious, what exactly was the thing his own father was talking about?

He had to know that he and his father were facing the overseas Shen family and more than thirty Shen clan branches, the difference in strength between the two sides was a gulf, yet his father said that he would soon have the power to crush the other side, what exactly did he mean?

Jiang Hao was filled with curiosity and was pondering, when Ye Yunjie happened to enter.

She smiled and said that she had come to inform Jiang Hao and Shen Haoting that the reception banquet had been prepared by herself and had come to invite them downstairs.

The three of them then went downstairs, and by now, downstairs at the company, there was already a fleet of black SUVs waiting there.

Chapter 505

Chu Jiang, Xu Family.

As the number one family in Chu Jiang, the Xu family owns an entire mansion, which not only covers a large area, but the design and decoration inside are top-notch.

At this moment, Lord Xu was practising calligraphy in his study.

He had been in a good mood for the past few days, as he knew that the South of the City project was in his pocket.

Although it was Xu Tianlin who ran this matter, before and after, but everyone knew that without the tacit approval and support of Lord Xu, with Xu Tianlin. It is not yet that capable and face.

Without Xu Tianlin's tacit approval and support, Xu Tianlin would not have had the ability and face to engage in a big project that had been decided by the upper echelons of Chujiang, and the risks involved would have been huge. Even if they had a handle on the south of the city project in their hands, even if they had infiltrated the south of the city project a long time ago, it would have been absolutely impossible to fix things so easily.

The main reason behind this is Xu's operation, and after all, Xu's efforts did not fail him, and after Xu's difficult public relations efforts, the top figures of Chujiang finally agreed to his request.

At this time, Xu was very pleased with himself. He knew very well that as long as he won this project, his family would really be able to take the lead in Chujiang in the future.

In the past, although the Xu family has already had the reputation of being the number one family in Chujiang, but in fact in Chujiang its friends have several strong rivals, as long as their strength is not enough several times more than each other. Not only is there a risk of being overtaken from time to time, but even, in the end, people may find ways to make some small moves.

Although it is not so much that the Xu family will fall into the abyss, but it is definitely not a good time.

Only when you have reached the point where you are unbeatable will others be afraid of you, even if they have any intentions for you, they will be intimidated by your power!

With a final heavy stroke of his brush, Lord Xu finished writing the character 'Final'.

Xu Lords attainment in calligraphy is still very high, his brush strokes are calm and strong, and his strokes are strong. The strokes of the brush are so strong that they have the air of swallowing mountains and rivers.

The reason why he wrote the character ‘終’ was because, in Lord Xu’s opinion, the dust had already settled on the South City Project, and the matter had already ended.

In Xu Liao’s opinion, his words were very meaningful, but he did not think that the words he had written with his own hands were really meaningful. However, he did not expect that the words he had written with his own hand would really mean something, for the moment he put down his pen, a hurried figure came out. Immediately he ran in from outside the study.

The man was in his fifties and his face was a little flustered, so much so that he had forgotten to knock when he entered the door.

Seeing this, Lord Xu could not help but be a little unhappy, and his face was slightly gloomy as he said: ‘What’s wrong Old Ma, you’ve been by my side for so many years. Don’t you know that when I’m practising my calligraphy, no one is allowed to disturb me?’

Xu Liao’s tone was full of reproach, and with an irritated glance at the man, he lowered his head and went on to write.

But just as he lowered his head, before he could put down his pen, his wrist was violently grabbed by the man.

Xu Lords could not help but be startled. Very unhappily, he said, ‘What the hell do you mean, Old Ma? What do you want?’

The man’s face turned pale and he hurriedly shook his head at Lord Xu, saying, ‘Master, something has happened!’

Lord Xu’s hand trembled slightly as he hurriedly looked up at the man and asked, ‘What’s wrong, panicking.’

Although his mouth said so, but when Lord Xu saw such a nervous look on the other party’s face, he naturally knew that it must be apart from something unimportant.

After all, this Old Ma had been with him for almost twenty years, and had risen from a small follower to his current position as a butler. What kind of wind and waves had he not seen.

Nowadays, he would not even blink an eye when he encountered something trivial.

It seemed that something big must have happened here.

That old horse looked at Lord Xu. A trace of hesitation flashed across his eyes as he slowly said, ‘Master, it is that something has happened to the eldest young master’

Hearing these words. Xu lord’s heart thumped and he couldn’t help but feel more than a little nervous, he hurriedly asked, ‘What happened to him? Where is he now?’

The butler, Old Ma, lowered his head. Sighing, he said in a low voice, ‘Ai, you come with me’

After he finished speaking, Old Ma turned around and headed outside.

Seeing the other party like this, the doubts in Lord Xu's heart could not help but get a few points heavier, and he even grew more and more worried as he had more than a hint of an unsettling premonition in his heart.

Xu Lords pondered briefly and hurriedly followed in stride.

In the middle of the Xu family home, there was a Chinese white jade fountain surrounded by a small square covering an area of more than 100 square feet.

Around this small square, there were relatives and servants of the Xu family standing around.

Before he could even get close, he heard a heartbreaking cry coming from the crowd.

When he heard the cries, he was subconsciously stunned, because the cries were no one else's, but his wife's voice.

From his wife's miserable cries, he seemed to have sensed that something was wrong, and a huge boulder hung in his heart.

He looked at the circle of people in front of him, and surprisingly, he was a little afraid to go ahead, because he was afraid he would see something that he could not accept.

'Old old horse, what the hell is going on? You you quickly say!' Xu lord said with a trembling incomparable tone.

Chapter 506

That old horse pondered for a moment before finally saying in a low voice: 'Master, the eldest young master the eldest young master he has gone.'

The moment the old horse said this, Xu Liao immediately felt his heart was violently yanked by something, almost did not catch his breath, he swayed, almost fell, the old horse rushed forward to help. He said, 'Master, Master, you must take care of your health, the young master can't come back from the dead, you mustn't let anything happen to you again.'

Xu Liao was breathing heavily, obviously this sudden news had taken him by surprise. It was too much for him to accept.

At this moment, Lord Xu was hoping that it was all just a bad dream he was having.

But apparently it was not a nightmare, and Xu wept as he looked at Old Ma. With a somewhat pitiful expression, he said, 'Old Ma, tell me, this is all a lie, right? Tianlin was fine when he left in the morning, he even came to say hello to me and said he was going to get the south of the city project, but how did it end up like this'

Xu Tianlin looked at Lao Ma in despair, his eyes full of the pitiful look of a father who had suffered the loss of his son.

Old Ma sighed and hurriedly reached out to signal the crowd to disperse, while he assisted Xu Lords to walk inside the circle of people while saying, 'Master, you have to mourn, things things I don't know, just now a car stopped at the entrance of our house, then the youngest young master's youngest young master was pushed out of the car, and that car also took off, when we saw the youngest young master, he was already like this, his pupils were dilated to the edge

The more the Xu lord heard this. The more sad he felt, at this time, he had been assisted by Old Ma to Xu Tianlin's corpse.

At this time, Xu Tianlin's body was not intact, his whole body showed a blue and purple colour, and the lower part of his body was still covered with a large sack.

According to Old Ma, when Xu Tianlin came back, his whole body was wrapped in the sack, and it was only when they opened the sack that they saw that it was Xu Tianlin inside.

At this moment, when Lord Xu saw clearly that the person was his son Xu Tianlin, the only trace of thought left in his heart was completely extinguished.

He felt that the sky had collapsed in his heart, and he fell to his knees with a poof, hugging his son and crying out in grief.

'Who is it, who the hell did this?' Xu Lords roared out loudly, using almost all his strength.

He could not accept the fact that his only son had been lost. All he could think about now was who had done this to him and how he had lost his son in middle age!

But after Xu's wild cry, no one answered him, because no one knew who had done it.

At that moment, Lord Xu's wife looked up at him with tears on her face and said, 'Lord Xu, I owe my son's life to you, and I'm telling you, if you don't find my son's killer and avenge his death, I'm not finished with you!'

After saying her harsh words, Xu's wife once again hugged her son's corpse and cried out in pain.

Xu looked at his wife's heartbroken look, and his own heart became more and more uncomfortable.

He hurriedly called Old Ma and asked, 'Old Ma, send someone to the police station right now. I want to know who is so impatient to live in Chujiang that they dare to move the earth on my head. If he dares to mess with me, I will make his life worse than death, 10,000 times more painful than mine!'

As soon as Lord Xu finished speaking, Old Ma hesitated to move. He looked at Lord Xu and said indifferently, 'Master, this matter is clear now, why do you still want to investigate? You won't have forgotten. Where did the eldest young master go in the morning, right?'

With this reminder from Old Ma, Xu Lords immediately woke up as if from a dream and exclaimed, 'You mean, it was that woman surnamed Ye?'

Old Ma nodded, 'And the gold master behind that woman, that kid called Jiang Hao. Master, think, in this huge Chu River, who else is there who dares to touch the Eldest Young Master? Apart from them, there will be no one else. How can they not hate the Xu family and the young master? So, it's because we were too careless, but also because these people are desperate.'

After Old Ma said this, Xu Liao immediately had an epiphany.

He rounded his eyes and exclaimed, 'It seems that they did indeed do it, damn it, these bastards you now, you go now and mobilize all the forces you can, I want to go personally, my son cannot die in vain, I will make them pay in blood today!'

Although Old Ma was tempted to advise Xu Lords to think twice, after all, since people dare to get your son killed. After all, since they dared to kill your son, they must have some preparation.

So if you go there rashly, you might fall into their trap.

However, Old Ma looked at the angry expression on Xu's face and dismissed the idea of reminding him, because after all, it was his son who was dead. If he talked more nonsense, there was no guarantee that the angry Xu would do anything.

And he felt that there was no need to be too afraid, as the Xu family was a local family in Chujiang after all. Not only did they have a large network of connections in Chujiang, but their own power was not to be underestimated.

If the Xu family was not powerful enough, how could it stand for so many years in this huge Chu River without falling down?

After thinking about it, Lord Xu hurriedly added, 'You do this. Now, in my name, you can tell the big chapters in Chujiang that you have to do me a favor and ask them to use all their power to help me kill that b*tch Ye and that kid Jiang! Say that after it's over, I, Lord Xu, will have a big thank you!'

Old Ma smiled and nodded his head, 'Master, I understand

After saying that, Old Ma turned his head and left.

And at this time, Xu Lords, like a fierce tiger that has been cooped up for many years, his tiger body shook, his mane stood up, and he slowly rose from the stone platform where he was cooped up.

Admittedly, it had been a long time since Lord Xu had done anything in person, and since Xu Tianlin turned 18, he had almost always been behind the scenes, advising his son and guiding him.

But today's matter is one that Lord Xu must, and must, do himself.

At this moment, the flame of revenge was already burning in his heart.

And at this time, in the whole Chu River, almost all parties' forces were mobilized.

The number of to hundreds, a few dozens, countless forces, at this time all in one direction, in motion.

However, at this time, Jiang Hao Ye Yunjie and Shen Haoting, just walked into a restaurant.
