

Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 51

Shiyue's expression changed, and his whole body suddenly collapsed into a line.

"Liam?"

Liam Lu chuckled, as if he hadn't seen Shiyue's face full of horror, and leaned back on the bed.

"Dreaming last night, I suddenly dreamed of the days when I was still in Berven City a few years ago. At that time, Zoey Gu and I were still together."

Speaking of the past, Liam Lu's face slowly showed a look of nostalgia.

"I hadn't gotten sick back then, and didn't identify myself. Her father felt that his daughter shouldn't have to suffer with a poor boy and oppose us being together. For this, she almost fell out with her father."

"Once on my birthday, she was forcibly locked in her room by her father. In the middle of the night, she jumped out of the window and drove away from her car, insisting to take me up the mountain to see the stars. As a result, there was a heavy rain on the way back. Slippery, our car had an accident on the road."

Liam Lu said, looking sideways at Shiyue, "Do you know what happened afterwards?"

"I was injured and unconscious. She was a girl who walked on my back all night, her heels were worn away, and then she lay down for a month before we could get out of bed and walk. We lost our way and spent two days in the cave. , Water and food are helpless. When she couldn't hold on, she bit her hand and gave me her blood."

Until today, many years later, Liam Lu still clearly remembered the thin and thin girl hugging him tightly, and kept talking in his ear.

"Liam, don't be afraid. Drinking blood won't work. I'll give you my own meat. I will never look back in this life for someone I've identified by Zoey Gu!"

Even Shiyue felt that Liam Lu had survived because of Anna Yun's blood.

But in fact, without Anna Yun's blood, it would be uglier and more painful. What really made Liam Lu insist on was his hatred of Zoey Gu.

It was he who couldn't let go. How could the girl who loved him with her fate easily give up on him?

With a “plop”, Shiyue knelt to the ground without waiting for Liam Lu to say anything.

“Lu Shao, I’m sorry, I lied to you.” It was even more prejudiced against Zoey Gu from the beginning.

Liam Lu sneered.

“Anna Yun took away my phone and cut off all my contacts with the outside world. The financial news on TV was screened. Shiyue, do you really think I’m so foolish?”

“In the past few days, I have been waiting for you to take the initiative to speak and admit to me. Unexpectedly, you are very hardened!”

Shiyue straightened his back and knelt on the ground, his face full of regret.

“I’m sorry, Liam, I was too arbitrary, and I felt that Miss Gu was dragging you down, so... But you saved my life from the fire that year. If you drive me away, you will kill me first. Take away his life!”

As he said, he stretched out his hand and took out a sharp dagger from his pocket, raised his hand and passed it in the direction of Liam Lu.

“enough!”

Liam Lu’s eyes darkened, he raised his leg and kicked the dagger away. He seemed to feel tired. He leaned back on the bed, closed his eyes and asked in a low voice.

“Where is she?”

Shiyue didn’t dare to hide it, and said in a low voice.

“In the detention center in the suburbs...”

Liam Lu was stunned, a crazy coldness quickly rose from his body, and the air was stagnant.

For a moment, he didn’t know what he thought of, and he lowered his eyes and smiled.

“Since she is willing to go, let her stay there honestly...”
