

Super Rich Dad Chapter 511-513

Chapter 511

‘Prove what?’ Secretary Luo frowned, looking at Shen Haoting with a suspicious and impatient face, and said unhappily, ‘To prove how capable you are, or how ridiculous you are? Oh, I’d like to see. What the hell can you do to me!’

After speaking, Secretary Luo then looked at Shen Haoting, his eyes full of contempt.

Shen Haoting, on the other hand, looked at Ye Yunjie and asked, ‘Little Ye, what does he do here? Oh yes, didn’t he just say that. Wasn’t there a certain Chen Lao?’

Ye Yunjie nodded heavily and hurriedly told Shen Haoting in detail about the identity of this Secretary Luo, and then also shook out the details of that Chen Lao.

Shen Haoting only laughed after listening. He couldn’t help but shake his head and murmured, ‘Oh, now it’s really like anyone can climb on my head to provoke me, so be it, since that’s the case, I’ll make you all whole.’

As he spoke, Shen Haoting took out his mobile phone and rummaged around for a while before finding a number and dialing it out directly.

Shen Haoting was obviously very familiar with the person on the other end of the line, and the conversation was unusually warm.

After exchanging a few pleasantries, Shen Haoting then cut to the chase, directly telling him about Secretary Luo and that old man Chen.

The person on the other end of the phone, upon hearing this, acted very angry and said sternly, ‘There is still such a thing? Mr. Shen, you are a big foreign investor in the mainland, how did they screw up in Chu Jiang. A small Chu Jiang, how dare they do such a meticulous deed? Don’t worry Mr. Shen, I will call the higher management of Chu Jiang right away, this matter is very despicable and even nastier, it must be dealt with seriously, I will directly ask them in the provincial city if they can control it, if they dare to say they can’t, I will personally bring someone down to investigate, we must investigate the matter clearly!’

The man finally added angrily, ‘It’s simply shameful that such a thing happened!’

Shen Haoting did not say anything more, just thanked the person on the other end of the phone repeatedly, and finally said, ‘Then I’ll ask you to take care of the matter, in addition my investment in Chujiang’s south of the city project, now they have also been cut, to be honest. This project is greatly beneficial to both the business development of Chujiang and the people of Chujiang, but now you see this project’

The person on the other end of the phone sighed heavily and said, ‘Nonsense, these people in Chujiang are simply nonsense, don’t worry Mr. Shen, I’m going to call and let you know, as long as it’s for the good of the people of Chujiang, we will definitely raise our hands to support it, and for those who go against the people, they should also be dealt with firmly. Never be soft!

The two of them then spoke briefly for a few more minutes before Shen Haoting hung up the phone.

At this moment, Jiang Hao, who was standing beside Shen Haoting. He had just listened to all the contents of Shen Haoting's phone call and naturally heard the man's promise to Shen Haoting.

Only Jiang Hao became more and more curious as to who his father had actually called.

Finally, Jiang Hao was so puzzled that he looked at Ye Yunjie, who seemed to see through Jiang Hao's curiosity and hurriedly explained in a low voice, 'This time, you can rest assured. Previously, I had doubts about whether Mr. Shen would call this person, but now it seems that my doubts can be dispelled. Don't worry, this time, not only are all these people miserable, but the City South project will probably be fine as well.'

Hearing Ye Yunjie's words. Jiang Hao was obviously very surprised.

And he was also even more curious about who the person on the other end of the phone was.

'Sister Ye, what exactly is that person?' Jiang Hao asked without being incomparably curious.

Ye Yunjie only smiled lightly and spoke, 'That is a friend that Mr. Shen made many years ago, and at this time, that friend of Mr. Shen's is already one of the top!'

Although Ye Yunjie's words were very cryptic, Jiang Hao was naturally able to understand what he meant.

Jiang Hao couldn't help but subconsciously tremble a little, incomparably sighing at the magnitude of his father's energy.

At this moment, Jiang Hao also understood the meaning of Ye Yunjie's words.

Indeed, if his father could use this relationship, then it seemed that all the problems in front of him would not be a problem anymore.

Jiang Hao looked at his father and couldn't help but feel that he should look up to this man at this time. He was so capable and so well-connected that he might not be able to catch up with him in his lifetime.

And just as Jiang Hao was sighing. Secretary Luo on the side, however, snorted out a laugh, and he looked at Feng Ze behind him, smiling arrogantly.

'Little Feng ah. Did you hear what that man just said? Oh, do you think it's ridiculous or not?' Secretary Luo asked with a snicker.

Feng Ze certainly understood what Secretary Luo meant and hurriedly catered, 'Hehe. Of course it's ridiculous, in this world, there are really some people who don't know the sky is high and take themselves too seriously, probably because they blew their cowls out and felt their faces were dishonored, so they made up their own drama, right?'

Feng Ze smiled scornfully, followed by saying to Secretary Luo: 'Secretary Luo, I think we'd better go, don't waste words with these people here, turn around and trouble you to pass a message to the relevant departments, deal with these few people directly!'

Chapter 512

'Deal with it, of course we have to deal with it, and we have to deal with it seriously!' Secretary Luo coldly snorted, 'Some people are now in such a state and still dare to be so arrogant, maybe in his past, there are still some unknown secrets and evil deeds, I think this matter must be investigated properly, there is no guarantee that it can lead to some big case!'

Secretary Luo twisted his head and glared at Shen Haoting. He said in a conspiratorial tone, 'Let's see if we really find out what's going on, and if some people still dare to be so arrogant, and if they still dare to pretend to have connections and find someone!'

Secretary Luo obviously did not believe in the phone call made by Shen Haoting to the core.

He didn't think that a 'mourning dog' like Shen Haoting would be able to find any big shots.

What's more, even if he did, what could he do to himself and Chen Lao?

He, Secretary Luo, and Chen Lao, were able to climb up to their current positions step by step, which one of them was not because of their deep background. They were only able to sit on their asses because of their deep background.

Even if Shen Haoting had all kinds of skills, he would not be able to do anything to himself.

On the contrary, the way Shen Haoting acted just now really made Secretary Luo uncomfortable.

If you dare to be so arrogant in front of yourself, just wait and see how I deal with you!

With this in mind. Secretary Luo then prepared to step away, with a sarcastic laugh muttered on his lips, 'Oh, I'd like to see what you can do to me!'

But just as the words left his mouth and before he could take a step, his mobile phone rang.

Secretary Luo was stunned, thinking who would call him at this time?

But after he saw the caller's number, his whole body froze again.

The call was from a friend of his who was in charge of Chu Jiang's personnel.

Secretary Luo hesitated for a moment, but still picked up the phone: 'Hey, old Zhao ah, haha how leisurely today, remember me, how free weekend to go fishing

The other side spoke up in a tense voice, 'Fishing? The actual fact is that you'll be able to get a lot more than just a few of these. What have you done? What have you done? Do you know that you're in trouble, and it's a big deal!'

Hearing these words, Secretary Luo couldn't help but stare. Surprised for a moment, his mind raced, but he was somewhat confused as to what the other party's words meant.

'What's wrong Old Zhao? What the hell has happened?' Although he heard the other party's tone was a bit nervous, but Secretary Luo did not look too concerned, in his opinion, a person who was looking at entering the top of Chu Jiang's power, what could have happened to himself ah, and what could have happened?

'Oh, talk slowly, look at you nervous, why, to the level of you and me, what else is there that can make you so nervous? Don't worry, even if something is wrong, it won't be a big deal, I will find Chen Lao to solve it later!'

Secretary Luo seemed to have his mind at ease, not taking the other party's words to heart at all, in his opinion, he was at a high point in his life at this time, one more step forward. That is running towards the top of Chu Jiang to make the most of it, what else is there now, what people are able to pose a threat to themselves!

But immediately afterwards, the person on the other end of the phone threw a pot of cold water directly at Secretary Luo!

'You're still dreaming? I'm telling you, I'm not joking with you, what I said is true, something has happened to you!' The other party sighed and said truthfully, 'I've just received a notice from the higher authorities that you are now suspended and it won't take me long before the surveillance people find you.'

The other party paused and continued, 'And let me tell you, this time, it's no joke, so you have some idea in your own mind. I've just received a notice from above. I haven't reported to the old man yet, so I'm calling you first, so make your own preparations, there's too much to do. I can't really help you anymore!'

The other party sighed heavily and finally said, 'Well, you take care of yourself, hey, I have advised you long ago to do things in a low profile and hold back a bit, I guess you have offended someone

After saying the words. The other party hung up the phone in a panic.

And after listening to this call from the other party, Secretary Luo's entire body was stunned.

He muttered under his breath, obviously not believing the other party's words for the millionth time, 'I've been suspended? How is that possible?'

Although he knew very well that the other party would not necessarily be joking about this kind of thing, he could not figure out why on earth this was!

Secretary Luo spun around in his head several times, and couldn't help but feel a tinge of panic in his heart, before picking up his mobile phone. He was ready to find a few of his friends in the provincial town and help ask if things were true or not.

And if it was true, he felt that he should indeed do something about it, although he still had Chen Lao behind him, but he still had to plan ahead.

And just as Secretary Luo was about to make a call, Feng Ze, who was on the side, suddenly spoke up, 'What's wrong Secretary Luo? Is something wrong?'

Obviously, although Feng Ze had not heard everything on the phone just now, he had heard pretty much everything, which could not help but make him a little curious and nervous.

He said to himself, 'This Secretary Luo really won't be suspended, will he?'

Secretary Luo shook his head, feigned a calm smile and said, 'It's alright, a small problem, I can solve it with a phone call!'

In fact, Secretary Luo had encountered this kind of thing in the past. It was nothing more than a suspension and investigation, and as long as one used one's connections a little, the matter was easily resolved in the end.

So this time, although Secretary Luo was surprised, he was not particularly nervous. He was not particularly nervous, but only felt a little unsure in his heart.

However, just as he finished speaking, suddenly his mobile phone rang again.

This time, the caller was a bit stunned. It was because the person who came to the phone was clearly his top boss, the number one person.

'Hello Zheng Lao,' Secretary Luo answered the phone somewhat nervously, thinking to himself that at this time. Why is he calling, 'You'

'You what you! Surname Luo, what exactly have you done? Hmph!' The other party looked unusually angry, and then continued, 'I tell you, now you are suspended, and soon someone will come to investigate you have to!'

When these words came out of his friend Lao Zhao's mouth, Secretary Luo didn't take them seriously, but when they came out of his own boss's mouth, Secretary Luo immediately panicked: 'What did you say?'

The actual thing that made Secretary Luo nervous was the other party's later sentence that someone would soon come to investigate himself, if this came from someone else's mouth it would be just fine, but from the mouth of his own boss, that would be a big problem.

'Zheng Zheng Lao, what the hell is going on here? I do not know ah, I really did not do anything ah, you must believe me, must help me ah! For the sake of my so many years, no credit but also hard work'

'How do you expect me to help you when I don't even know what you've actually done? Help you with what? If you haven't done anything nasty, why are you so vain? I'm telling you, you're on your own, you had it coming to you!'

'But but' Secretary Luo seemed to be about to explain something else, but was directly cut off by the other party.

The other party said in a cold voice, 'Let me tell you the truth. I can't do anything about your matter, it's not something I can interfere with, can you understand when I say this? Who have you offended? They have called the provincial capital directly and want to have you punished by name!'

'Hey. Because of you, I just got a good scolding, I was out of options. You've done your own sins, so go ahead and carry whatever consequences yourself, be good to yourself!'

After saying the words, the phone was hung up at the other end.

And only then did Secretary Luo understand what desperation meant.

He was almost dumbfounded, he had never thought that the final result would be like this.

And it had been made very clear on the phone just now that this matter seemed to have stirred up too much trouble, so much so that even Zheng Lao was unable to do anything about it.

Even people were incapable of solving it, and his own pitiful connections were probably even more futile.

Secretary Luo suddenly felt as if his heart had been grabbed by someone, some palpitations, and his face instantly turned miserable white.

Feng Ze on the side frowned at the situation and hurriedly held him up: 'Secretary Luo, what happened to you? Are you all right?'

All right? How could it be fine.

Although just now his own superior just said he was suspended, but more importantly. It was he who said that someone would come to investigate himself, and that was the most crucial thing.

In that case, wouldn't all those fishy things about himself be discovered?

Just thinking about this, Secretary Luo couldn't help but tremble, as if he thought of something incomparably terrible, and shivered.

He stole a glance back at Shen Haoting at the side, and his face could not help but look more and more ugly.

He was somewhat afraid, and unwilling to be sure, that it was all Shen Haoting's doing.

But it seemed that no one but him could have done such a thing.

After all, although he had offended people in the past, the ones he had offended had no background at all.

The only person he knew was Shen Haoting, although he knew he was in cahoots with Jiang Hao and Ye Yunjie, he couldn't really figure out what this person was.

The most important thing is that just now Shen Haoting made a half-truthful phone call. Immediately after that, he received two phone calls.

These two calls were almost tantamount to giving himself a death sentence, so how could this not make Secretary Luo nervous and curious?

And at this moment, Shen Haoting's face was still bland, not surprised or happy as he looked at himself, and even with a bit of contempt.

Obviously, from this expression, Secretary Luo was able to see that Shen Haoting seemed to have a clear idea of what would happen to him.

It seemed that he could already conclude that this matter was undoubtedly done by Shen Haoting.

And just when Secretary Luo was full of doubts. But Shen Haoting spoke up.

His voice was calm and steady, and he said without hurrying, 'How about this result? Is it still satisfactory?'

When Shen Haoting asked this question, Secretary Luo himself, not knowing how, was shocked, then he looked at Shen Haoting and hesitated for a long time before asking, 'What. Did you really do it?'

Shen Haoting's face was expressionless as he said back, 'Do you think it was me?'

Is there any need to think? Now that things had become so clear, it was definitely Shen Haoting.

Secretary Luo couldn't help but feel a slight chill in his palms, and cold sweat was breaking out on his back.

He stared at Shen Haoting for a while, but felt more and more. This man seemed like he had seen him somewhere before.

'Who the hell are you?' Secretary Luo inquired with tightly locked brows, 'I how come I seem to have seen you before?'

At this time, Shen Haoting Fang smiled lightly.

'You've seen me? How come I haven't seen you before?' Shen Haoting chuckled, 'What's more, so what if you know or don't recognize me? So what if you know or don't know me? And to be frank, a character like you is not worthy of knowing me at all!'

Shen Haoting smiled lightly as he finished speaking, glanced at Jiang Hao and continued, 'What happened to you today is what you deserved, you shouldn't have done it in the first place. You shouldn't have gone against me, you shouldn't have targeted Oh's son, all of this. All this is my warning to you, and my warning to Shen Haoting is often only once. That is before you die!'

Shen Haoting's tone was indifferent, usually for a man like Secretary Luo, he didn't even bother to talk nonsense to him. It was only that today, as the occasion had come to this, he said a few more words, firstly, to give them a word of advice, and secondly, to let these people know for a moment that he was not someone they could afford to mess with.

But when Shen Haoting said this, he immediately scared Secretary Luo and Feng Ze silly.

What scared them silly was none other than the name that Shen Haoting unintentionally revealed in that last sentence!

'Shen Shen Haoting?' When Feng Ze heard this name, he directly subconsciously exclaimed, looking at Shen Haoting with an incomparable look of dismay.

He never expected, no matter what, that this person in front of him would be the reigning overseas Chinese richest man, Shen Haoting!

Feng Ze of course knew something about Shen Haoting, after all, the rumour that Shen Haoting was going to return to Chujiang to invest had long been spread like wildfire in the streets of Chujiang.

And Feng Ze had also heard through the grapevine that it was Shen Haoting who was actually behind the City South project.

But later on, when he learnt that the person behind the investment was Jiang Hao, Feng Ze and a group of people who thought that Shen Haoting was behind the City South project, they also put that idea to rest.

But now it seems that the rumours are not false. Since Shen Haoting is here, it is obvious that Shen Haoting is behind the City South project.

Moreover, Feng Ze had just heard Shen Haoting say that Jiang Hao was his son!

Damn, now everything seemed to be clear.

Although Jiang Hao was the one behind the City South project, it was still Shen Haoting's money that was actually used.

In fact, after everyone knew that Jiang Hao was behind the City South project, there was constant talk about who this Jiang Hao was and which family's top youngster he was.

Admittedly there were rumours, of course, that Jiang Hao was the illegitimate son of Shen Haoting, but at the time Feng Ze did not believe it.

But now, it seemed that it was impossible not to believe, this Jiang Hao was really Shen Haoting's son.

It seems that after all these days, they were actually dealing with Shen Haoting's business ?

If that was the case, then the matter would be a big deal.

Feng Ze couldn't help but feel his scalp tighten, because of course he knew what kind of existence Shen Haoting was.

Not to mention him, even the Chu Jiang Xu family, such a rich and powerful family, was not worth a mention in front of the Shen family.

So what the hell is he ? If they raised their hands, they would just crush themselves to death ?
