

Chapter 521

I look forward to Arron coming to the scene to suppress this wonderful show that is rare in 10,000 years!

Everyone cursed Suzi with all kinds of unlimited limits, while waiting to eat bigger melons.

For a while, the reporters at the scene, and the screen dogs outside the venue, were all excitedly looking forward to it.

However, some people seem to see the clues.

In this group of reporters, there are two picks.

“D*mn! Don’t do it! I resign immediately!”

“Why are you?”

“What a group of people is capable of bullying a woman, and they keep saying that this woman is calm, with a thick skin. How can she be uncomfortable, and can’t be forced with this group of people? If that’s the case, it can really show that this woman has Question, but now? What the hell is this Linda?”

The partner who brought this was originally going to beat this Suzi.

But the foreign guy instantly recognized Suzi as the person who had helped him.

This shows that Suzi is a good person!

Instead, it’s this Linda!

Slap yourself in the face, okay?

I now declare that I am a reporter, but I am not invited by Suzi!

Suzi didn't invite me at all!

If I'm not mistaken, there are so many reporters, none of them were invited by Suzi, right?

Don't you think it's too despicable and cruel to attack an unarmed girl together and to persecute a weak girl together with the power of everyone?

I quit! "

After speaking, the reporter picked up and left.

Not long after he left, another reporter followed.

This is a reporter with a little temperament and a little conscience.

However, most of them sneered: "What matters to him! I forgot my essential job!"

"We were originally journalists, we only believe in the surface we see!"

"I only know that when the information on this matter is out, I can get a very generous bonus, which can match my last year. If you don't report, you don't report. We are not telling lies. We see the facts."

Many reporters were comforting their conscience while finding reasonable excuses. As a result, most reporters stayed behind and continued to block the door to watch the excitement.

They waited for Suzi's counterattack.

However, Suzi didn't react at all to Siu's insult to her. She always just said one word: "Yeah."

It seems to only say 'um', nothing else.

Even if Daniel could not leave, Suzi stopped asking.

Because Suzi discovered that if she blindly drives Daniel to let Daniel go, it is estimated that Daniel will be on the hot search, and it will be more troublesome by then.

However, Daniel only needs to take Suzi away, she leads Suzi: "Suzi, follow me, I will take you out of here!"

Just as Daniel was about to take Suzi out of here, someone outside the door shouted: "Suzi, where are you Suzi?"

Everyone was attracted by the sound.

Including reporters, they also looked back.

At this time, Joan in a suit ran over here quickly and ran into the banquet hall. The moment he saw Suzi, Joan came to Suzi without hesitation and grabbed Suzi. .

"Suzi, follow me. I will take you and your child away and fly!" Joan looked at Suzi with firm eyes.

Chapter 522

Suzi: "..."

At this moment, she was dumbfounded.

She even wondered if someone would come again after a while?

Will Arron come?

This is just like six years ago when the old man of the Fu family invited her to the Fu family and let the whole upper class people suppress her together.

It's just that there were some older generations back then, but this time it was young people.

All the people who attacked her, destroyed her, and blocked her back then.

And now, Joan is here to save her.

Seeing Suzi not speaking, Joan once again stated to Suzi: "Suzi, I can do what your brother was able to do back then. Not only that, I can still give my life for you, I know You don't believe me, so I'm going to show it to you. We'll leave right now and go to the kindergarten to pick up your daughter. We will leave here on the earliest flight, no matter where we go, abroad, anywhere."

Suzi: "..."

"Joan!" Behind him, a pig-killing roar almost shattered the top ceiling of the banquet hall.

All reporters were stunned by the roar.

At this moment, Rayna was full of tears, gritted his teeth and looked at Joan and Suzi. At this moment, Walton's face was extremely hideous and terrifying.

"Joan, you are a dog! I curse you not to die!

ba5tard!

You are my fiance!

My fiance!

It's been six years, so it's fine if you and Suzi go together with me on your back!

Now I am here, Joan, do you think I am dead! After scolding Joan, Walton scolded Suzi again: "And you, Shen b!tch! You D*mn b!tch!

If others don't know you, I know everything about you!

I have shaken out all the dirty things you did six years ago!

When you see my cousin, you ask my cousin for money the first time!

You wore a hotel suit and got into the old Fu's house in an attempt to catch a big fish!

What did you do on the cruise ship by changing into another extremely cheap and extremely economical dress!

What did you do with that 70-80-year-old man Huo Jianshan!

Others don't know, but I, Walton, knows no more!

Shen watch!

You are a hundred times worse than a watch! "

Walton scolded hysterically, and the corners of her mouth were foaming, but Walton still couldn't understand her hatred.

Walton had been silent before because she felt that she really had no status among this group of noble ladies, so Walton had always been protecting herself.

But now, Walton can't care about anything anymore.

When she saw that Joan had to protect Suzi so hard to save her life, that jealousy made Walton's heart bleed.

All the tears she shed were bloody.

She has been engaged to Joan for six years!

In the past six years, Walton has never despised that the Chu family has fallen into the middle of her family in Nancheng, and she has never despised that Joan is not doing business and does not know how to do business. It's just the head.

Her original plan and goal was to marry Arron!

She later chose Joan, completely condescending to marry.

She didn't dislike Joan, she already looked up to Joan.
