

Chapter 5351

Charlie didn't expect that the reason Tianqi wanted to leave Aurous Hill was that he lost a bet on his Clinic.

What's more, he didn't expect that the reason why this old man bet with others was to win a medicine cauldron for himself.

He asked with some doubt: "Dr. Shi, who made the bet with you?"

"I don't know." Tianqi replied: "That man is quite crazy, he said his surname is Hong, and he is called Milo Hong."

"Milo?" Charlie frowned when he heard these two words.

After Sara sent Grandpa the Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill, he once heard her mention this name.

According to her, this person is a very senior Taoist priest in the American Chinese circle,

Known as Milo, who is very close to his grandmother, and at that time, his grandfather was critically ill, so he made a special trip to treat the old man.

After seeing the efficacy of the Pill, this person wanted to find the person who made the pill. After hearing from his uncle Marshal that there was a Rejuvenation Pill in Aurous Hill, he immediately decided to come to Aurous Hill to look for it.

Sara specifically reminded him at that time that he should be careful of this Milo in the future, but he was still in the United States at the time, so he didn't take this person seriously.

But now it seems that this person has indeed come to Aurous Hill, and has found someone close to him.

He made a bet with Tianqi. He didn't know whether he simply fell in love with Tianqi's Clinic, or he had found out a clue, so he especially found an entry point from Tianqi.

However, Charlie wasn't nervous at all. In his opinion, a person who can be shocked by the Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill has no great ability to judge him. Just can take him to the dog farm.

The reason why Charlie is so overbearing is not blind confidence, but some small details of the other party have penetrated his bottom.

If a person is horrified when he sees a Rolls-Royce, then the person's social status probably cannot afford a Rolls-Royce.

People who can really afford Rolls-Royce, even if they don't have Rolls-Royce, don't think Rolls-Royce is unattainable.

So, he asked Tianqi: "Master Shi, what have you compared with him?"

Tianqi sighed, "He wants to compare my pulse with mine, and he wants to randomly choose a female patient who has given birth for a test. There are three points in total."

"The first point is to indicate the actual age of the other party, whoever is closest to the actual age will win; the second point is to indicate the other party's menstrual date, and whoever is closest to the actual date will win; the third point is Number the number of pregnancies of the other party, and whoever is closest to the actual number will win... There are three rounds in total, and the two winners of the three rounds will win in the end..."

Charlie couldn't help but said awkwardly: "Doctor Shi, let me make a digression, Is it not inappropriate for you two doctors to guess the menstruation and pregnancy times of female patients?"

Tianqi hastily explained: "Master Wade, you don't know, these have always been the content of ancient imperial doctors' competitions, although it sounds a little indecent, but in fact, because women have many more physiological stages than men, gynecology can best reflect the ability of a doctor to call the pulse."

“A doctor at a higher level can guess the date of delivery of a pregnant woman through the pulse signal, and a doctor at a higher level can even tell how many times the other party has been pregnant and how many babies have been born of her.”

“It is said that there are top imperial doctors who could even judge the sex of the fetus through the pulse, but this kind of person had only been seen in ancient books.”

“Okay.” Charlie sighed helplessly, and asked him: “Two out of three games, how many games did you lose?”

Tianqi lowered his head and said in shame: “Mr. Wade, this old man lost three rounds...”

Charlie couldn't help frowning: “The other party is just a Taoist priest. As far as I know, his research is often on alchemy. You're really lost three rounds to him?”

Tianqi buried his head even lower, and said, “I don't know why this Taoist priest's medical skills are so outstanding, but I'm really inferior to others...”

Charlie asked again: “How did you choose the subject of the competition? Is there a possibility that this person arranged for a patient to come over in advance, and then came to the door to challenge you, proposed the method of the competition, and then won it?”

“This...” Tianqi pondered for a moment, and murmured: “I have no evidence to prove it, but I don't rule out the possibility.”

Then, Tianqi said seriously: “However, Master Wade, Taoists always pay attention to cultivating your mind and cultivating your character, then Milo shouldn't be so shameless, right?”

Charlie smiled meaningfully, and said casually: “If you are really a person who cultivates mind and character, why would you come here to bet with others?”

“Like the monks in the temple and the priests in the church, if they hang out with those dignitaries all day long and smell like copper, how can they really cultivate their minds?”

Charlie said this because according to what Sara said it is said that Milo has a lot of friendship with his grandmother.

In Charlie’s view, the first thing a person with true faith must do is to be indifferent to fame and fortune. If he spends all his energy on making friends with powerful people, how can his heart be pure?

Naturally, this Milo is also the same.

It is no exaggeration to say that it is absolutely impossible for a person like him to make friends with top dignitaries like his grandmother.

If he didn’t have to spend decades carefully managing himself, promoting himself, and packaging himself, how could he be in the eyes of grandma?

It can also be seen from this that this person’s utilitarianism must be very heavy.

Is there anything unusual for a person with a very utilitarian mind to do some tricks while betting?

Zhovia also suddenly realized this time, and blurted out: “Master Wade, you are right! I think that person is very shrewd!”

“His words were also very provocative. At that time, he just said a few words in front of those patients. Grandpa was made very difficult by him.”

“If he didn’t agree to him at the time, he wouldn’t be able to step down at all! So you said that it is possible for him to insert fake patients in advance, I think it is really possible!”

Tianqi sighed at this time: “It’s too late to say this now. At that time, there were so many patients who saw me lose to him on the spot. My name and my reputation would have been washed at that time in the whole city. And even if I know that he was cheating, there is no way to recover it.”

Charlie smiled slightly: "That's not necessarily the case."

After that, he remembered something, and asked Tianqi: "By the way, Doctor Shi, you said that he has an ancestral medicine cauldron, what kind of medicine cauldron is it?"

Tianqi said hastily: "It is a cauldron for Taoist alchemy, the whole is about the size of a football, it looks like it should be made of copper, and the shape of the vessel is three-legged."

"With cupolas and a matching lid, the entire surface of the cauldron has dragon patterns made of filigree, which looks very exquisite in workmanship. According to him, it was handed down by his ancestors and specially used for refining elixir."

Charlie raised his eyebrows with great interest, and said with a smile: "Maybe this thing is really a good thing for alchemy."

After that, he asked Tianqi: "Did that man say when he will come?"

Tianqi hurriedly said: "He said that he would come on time at eight o'clock tomorrow morning to hang up the plaque he left at the door."

Charlie remembered the plaque covered with red satin at the door, smiled slightly, and walked outside the door.

Standing still in front of the plaque, Charlie unceremoniously stretched out his hand and tore off the red satin on it, revealing three gold-plated characters: Milo's Clinic.

Charlie snorted, then pulled the ladder from the side over, picked up the Tianqi's Clinic plaque that had been taken off with one hand, and hung the plaque back again.

Tianqi said nervously: "Master Wade, you can't do it... If you hang up this plaque, wouldn't this old man become that old man who is willing to gamble but refuses to admit defeat..." Charlie said with a smile:

“It’s okay, The plaque is hung to let him know that something has changed in this matter, and he will definitely rush over to deal with it, and I will come to meet him when the time comes!”

Charlie knew that Milo came here for Rejuvenation Pill this time, since he has found Tianqi now, no matter whether he knows his identity or not, he can’t let him continue to stay like this in Aurous Hill.

Therefore, the best way right now is to take the initiative.

However, Charlie also thought about one thing, that is, since Milo was familiar with his grandmother, would he have met his parents as well?

If he had seen them, he might be able to guess his identity based on the similarity between his appearance and his father’s.

Charlie’s plan was that if Milo questioned his identity, he would not stop doing anything and directly detain him.

Immediately, he said to Tianqi: “Doctor Shi, you and Zhovia go home first, don’t worry about it here, I will come here on time tomorrow morning!”

“Master, this old man will come back tomorrow morning!”

Charlie waved lightly at Zhovia, called her to his side, and whispered something in her ear.

Zhovia immediately nodded without hesitation and said: “Okay Master Wade, I will definitely take care of it!”

Charlie nodded and comforted: “Don’t worry, I will definitely help you solve this matter, no matter what, I won’t let the signboard of Tianqi’s Clinic be removed!”
