

Super Rich Dad Chapter 547-548

Chapter 547

Chu River, Ming Cui Mountain.

It is not far from downtown Chujiang, with beautiful scenery, and used to be a well-known tourist destination near Chujiang.

Of course. It also had an identity in the past as the location of the Shen clan's ancestral hall.

Ming Cui Mountain is not very high, and at the top of the mountain, there is a not-so-large garden. Inside the garden is an ancient style hall, in which all the ancestors of the Shen clan family from ancient times are enshrined in their rows.

Shen Haoting was dressed in plain clothes. He walked into the hall barefoot and looked at the thousands of rows of ancestors in front of him, with a heavy face.

In the middle of the bottom row of the thousands of rows was his father's spirit tablet.

Shen Haoting walked forward, slowly knelt down, heavily kowtowed three times and murmured, 'Father, I'm back!'

The moment he said these words, Shen Haoting seemed to see his parents' voices and smiles again, as if time had once again returned to more than twenty years ago

But all of it. And his fate was completely changed because of the great battle seventeen years ago.

'I will not live long.' Shen Haoting sighed and said, 'I don't know if I can survive this time, and I don't know if I can avenge you all or not, but there is only so much I can do!'

As Shen Haoting finished speaking, his gaze once again fell on top of his father's spiritual tablet and he had already left.

Shen Haoting knew his own body very well, the poisonous nail that Zhang Xiangyu had shot. It had already inflicted an irredeemable and serious injury on him.

Shen Haoting knew very well that even with the power of Shang Dian, he would be able to delay for some time at most.

But sooner or later, what was to come was to come. He should have died 17 years ago, and after so many years, he was about to have his wish fulfilled, so perhaps he should really leave.

On the night Shen Haoting returned to the hotel, just one day short of the previously agreed time between Shen Tianyang and Shen Haoting. During the night Shen Haoting had already fallen asleep, but Ye Yunjie hurriedly called him up. And informed Shen Haoting of a particularly important piece of information!

Shangdian, has awakened!

Hearing this news, Shen Haoting's whole body seemed to be refreshed and he looked excited.

He hurriedly asked Ye Yunjie to call Jiang Hao. The three of them then hurriedly drove to the underground chamber at Cloud Mist Mountain.

When Shen Haoting's group arrived at the underground chamber at Cloud Mist Mountain, they were simply stunned by the sight before them.

Ye Yunjie looked dumbfounded at the sight before her and exclaimed loudly, 'This is what's happening?'

Jiang Hao was also surprised beyond belief, to the point that he was a little afraid to step forward.

Shen Haoting, on the other hand, had a pair of deep eyes. It was simply about to explode with light.

'This is what's going on ah dad?' Shen Haoting wanted to take a step, Jiang Hao hurriedly pulled him back, then warned.

The reason why Jiang Hao was like this was none other than being stunned by the sight in front of him.

In front of everyone, the underground chamber, which had been neat and tidy before, seemed to have undergone an earthquake, with countless cracks cracking on the walls of the chamber, and the instruments that had been placed neatly for research purposes. The instruments that used to be neatly arranged for research had either fallen to pieces or were malfunctioning and damaged.

The feeling. It was as if the place had gone through a cataclysmic event.

Soon, Ye Yunjie approached one of the people in charge who was present. Questioning what had happened.

The other person also had a distraught look on his face, and had bruises hanging from his body and face.

According to what the man said. Just as Shangdian was about to wake up, they immediately called Ye Yunjie to inform her, and then Shangdian burst out from the inside with a golden light wrapped in numerous mysterious inscriptions.

The light seemed to ripple like water, rippling out towards the periphery layer by layer.

Everyone present was astonished by the unparalleled spectacle.

And just as everyone was immersed in the dream-like beauty, suddenly a powerful light erupted from the canon, followed by a vast force a hundred times more powerful than the golden wave of light that had just erupted from the canon, which was like a huge wave, directly 'bombarding' everything in the room, and many people were directly knocked out of the room and suffered considerable injuries.

When they recovered, they rushed to send the wounded away and the scene was left in this state.

At this moment, as if it were a calm after a rampage, the canon was still emitting a dream-like golden light, which pushed out like ripples towards the outermost layer, followed by another layer of 'ripples' emanating from the canon.

And if one looks closely, one can see that there are many unknown runes interspersed with the image.

The waves of light seemed to be able to ignore any obstruction and directly penetrate a person's body.

Shen Haoting was simply stunned by the sight before him.

When he was very young, he had heard the old people of the Zong family tell about the scene when this Shangdian awoke, but he had never thought that it would end up being so spectacular no matter what.

However, just at this time, Ye Yunjie on the side shouted out as if something had caught in her throat, 'Mr. Shen, look at Jiang Shao

Chapter 548

Shen Haoting froze at his words, then his gaze followed Ye Yunjie's shocked eyes and looked towards Jiang Hao.

The moment he saw Jiang Hao, even though Shen Haoting had seen a lot, he was a little surprised and frowned tightly in disbelief.

'This is what's going on?' Shen Haoting muttered to himself.

And at this time, Jiang Hao, seems to have also found something wrong with himself. He hurriedly looked down at his own body.

But the moment he gazed down, his entire body was also stunned.

Because Jiang Hao saw that every wave of light emanating from Shangdian passed over everyone, and even every object, almost as if it had ignored everyone present.

But here was the strange thing. When the image struck Jiang Hao's body, it failed to penetrate, but instead it seemed to hit something solid. It was scattered, and as if there was some kind of suction force on Jiang Hao's body, the light wave was actually attracted to Jiang Hao's body.

In no time, Jiang Hao's entire body was wrapped in that wave of light, and his entire body shone with a brilliant golden light, and within the golden light, there were many inscription symbols shining.

This scene was unheard of and unseen by everyone present, and even Shen Haoting was stunned.

In addition, he hesitated to move, seemingly completely caught in a state of astonishment and unable to extricate himself.

And Ye Yunjie also covered her mouth and asked in a low voice, 'This Jiang Shao will be okay, right?'

Shen Haoting seemed to come back to his senses only then and shook his head, 'I don't know but have you noticed that these characters seem to have thoughts in general. They seem to like Jiang Hao a lot, huh?'

Indeed, those character inscriptions, after hitting Jiang Hao's body, it was as if they had a soul and began to swim around Jiang Hao's body, slowly.

The golden waves of light also seemed like an energy shield, wrapping Jiang Hao in it, but did not hurt him even a little.

Shen Haoting did not know what this was all about, but in his heart he could vaguely feel that perhaps this son of his was a bit different!

Perhaps he really had some kind of marriage with this Shang Dian?

If that was the case, it would be best if Jiang Hao could one day decipher the Shang Dian. It would be even better if Jiang Hao could one day decipher the information in this Shangdian

At this point Jiang Hao was all dumbfounded and shook his head hurriedly: 'No nothing, I just feel that this light wave that surrounds me seems to be a bit hot, I have a feeling of being roasted, but still able to accept this heat!'

Shen Haoting smiled and continued to ask again, 'Then did you feel any changes in your body? For example For example, have you felt that you are full of power? Or have you tried to see if you can use this power?'

Jiang Hao froze for a moment at the question. Immediately, he followed Shen Haoting's instructions and closed his eyes to sense it.

After a good while, Jiang Hao seemed to really feel a hint of something different in his body. It was as if his body was wrapped in a huge force, and that force, moreover, was constantly penetrating into his body, a feeling that made Jiang Hao feel comfortable, as if he was wandering under warm daylight.

Soon. Jiang Hao tried to guide that power, bringing it all together in his own hands.

At that moment, Jiang Hao slowly opened his eyes and discovered that a 'ball of light' with a faint glow had appeared in the palm of his right hand.

The colour of the ball of light was darker than the golden wave of light wrapped around Jiang Hao. But it was still transparent, and it was spinning continuously, and its speed was much faster than the golden wave of light that was wrapped around Jiang Hao.

This scene really surprised Jiang Hao, while Shen Haoting at the side was even more wide-eyed.

Perhaps Jiang Hao didn't know what it was, but he was naturally clear that although this tiny ball of light looked small, it contained a huge amount of energy.

In his lifetime, Shen Haoting had only been able to exert his true qi, but Jiang Hao's move was much stronger than his own.

It was a move that could only be done by those legendary masters of the late Transformation Realm.

It was hard to believe that this Shangdian's appropriate energy had instantly made his son. He had surpassed over ninety percent of the martial artists in this world and had directly leapt to the late stage of the Realm of Transformation?

If this was true, then Shen Haoting simply felt that. Even if he were to die, he would be able to rest in peace!

After all, back in those days, how powerful his own father was. It was only after a lifetime of strength that he had barely reached the peak stage of the Realm of Transformation.

Whereas his own son had only come into contact with Shang Dian and instantly had the strength of a late stage of the Realm of Transformation. If he was given ten, twenty or even fifty years, perhaps no one in this world would be able to compete with him again!

When Shen Haoting thought of this, he was overjoyed. He seemed to see the scene of his Shen clan's re-emergence in Jiang Hao's hands

But at that moment, the golden air mass in Jiang Hao's hand went up in smoke with a poof!
