

Chapter 5508

Ervin thought to himself, "When I was cheated in the Antique Street,"

"None of you looked down on me. Whoever yelled at me and talked about Ervin all day long?"

"Now I'm with Master Hong. You started calling me Brother."

Thinking of this, Ervin sneered, and said to the crowd,

"To tell you the truth, I am no longer with Master Hong."

"What?" Just now they enthusiastically called him Ervin Brother.

One man immediately asked, "Ervin, you are doing well with Master Hong,"

"Why did you suddenly say that you don't want to follow?"

"That's right." Another man said, "I'm talking about Ervin. Isn't it better for you to eat and drink spicy food with Master Hong than to toss these things in the antique street?"

A woman selling fake copper coins said with a smile, "Ervin, did you make a mistake and were kicked out by Mr. Hong?"

Ervin waved his hand and said casually, "Don't mention these things,"

"I'm going to come back and set up my stall again." Then, he looked at the man who greeted him first, and said,

"Louis, when leaving, I lent you my original stall for free."

"Look, I'm back now, and you still take my place. Give it back to me."

The man known as Louis Zhao immediately waved his hand and said,

"Hey, don't say that, Ervin, you made a promise when you left,"

"You won't come back to this antique street, so this stall was given up forever."

"I use it, this man is a big man, one spittle and one nail, you can't go back on what you say."

Ervin said with a smile, "Louis, you think I'm a tiger, don't you?"

"I might as well tell you, I got it from Master Hong."

"Leaving, it wasn't Master Hong who drove me away, but I, Ervin, wanted to leave."

"Blow it and you go." Louis curled his lips and said, "We have known each other for so many years, don't I know you?"

"You, don't I know how excited you were when you left the stall to talk to Master Hong."

"Now you say that you left Master Hong voluntarily,"

"Why do I not believe it?"

Ervin said with a smile, "I'll tell you the truth, Mr. Zhao, I used to have a good buddy who made a lot of antiques,"

"And now he has turned into a well-known Hong Kong businessman. He now asks me to cooperate with him to make antiques."

"Specializing in selling antiques to those Hong Kong bosses who are worth tens of billions,"

"Maybe they can earn tens of millions of them for a single order."

"Is it not better?"

When the few people heard this, their eyes widened.

Louis exchanged glances with the others, stepped forward, and said with an apologetic smile,

"Brother Ervin, I dare say that you have found a new way of making money, and you can't look down on working with Master Hong!"

"Hey!" Ervin raised a hand solemnly, pointed his palm at the crowd, and said solemnly, "It's not that I, Ervin, don't look down on Master Hong."

"The ancients said that good birds are good birds. I can only say that the big tree of Mr. Orvel is not suitable for my development."

"After all, I have been dealing with antiques for so many years,"

"And I am still the most handy in this business."

The other man stepped forward and gently pestered him with his arm

"Brother Ervin, since you have such a way to make money, can't you take me with you?"

"Look at your brother, I have been hanging around in the antique street for so many years,"

"And I haven't caught a big fish. I can't earn a Passat all year round,"

"If you have a good source of money, you can help your brother, okay?"

He said he took out a pack of cigarettes from his pocket,

Took out one and handed it to Ervin, and said courteously,

"Come, come, brother Ervin smoke a cigarette!"

Ervin took the cigarette, put it in his mouth, and said with a smile, "Tenner, if you really want to make money with me, you can't do it."

"Think about it, but I don't know if you're steadfast or willing to do it..."

The man called Tenner quickly took out his lighter, and while lighting Ervin's cigarette, said respectfully,

"Ervin, brother As long as you are willing to take me with you,"

"I will definitely work hard without complaint!"

Louis on the side also quickly said, "Brother Ervin, take me with you too!"

"I have no other advantages, just obedience! As long as you bring me I will be with you,"

"And I will absolutely obey you and fight wherever your point is!"

Others also expressed their sincerity to Ervin at this time.

It proves that he has definitely found a bigger source of income, and he also said that this new source of income itself is related to antiques.

Not only Ervin is handy, but everyone is also familiar with it, so everyone wants to share a cup of Ervin's soup.

At this time, Ervin said indifferently, "Everyone, I just came back here, and the new business has not been completely smoothed out,"

"So I don't need so many people, so at this initial stage, let Louis and Tenner start with me first."

"Don't worry if other people don't have their turn, when I get things straightened out, everyone will have a share!"

The others couldn't help being a little disappointed, but Louis and Tenner were extremely excited.

The two hurriedly pulled Ervin to a place where there was no one else, and Louis said obsequiously,

"Brother Ervin, if you want to use your booth, you can use it at any time. If it is not enough, you can even use mine."

Ervin took a puff of a cigarette and asked them, "You guys tell me the truth, how much money do you make a month now?"

Louis raised his hand and said, "Brother Ervin, let me tell you first. Well, you know my situation. I'm not as talkative as you,"

"And I'm not as good at fooling around as you. If I do well in a month, I can only earn 10,000 to 20,000. Sometimes I don't make much money in a month. I can't earn a booth fee..."

Tenner also said repeatedly, "Yes, yes, Brother Ervin, my situation is not much better than that of him. It's the end of August,"

"And I have a net profit of 3,000 yuan this month. Not at all, and the competition in the Antique Street is fierce now, and the goddamn ba5tards are all sold out."

"I used to sell a bunch of fake five emperor coins. Why don't you give them ten or twenty yuan?"

"If you encounter injustice, It's not impossible to ask for a hundred, but now those new gangs of idiots sell it for 1 yuan."

"Tell me, the purchase price of this string is 80 cents, and he sells it for 1 fcuking yuan. I can't get enough of this fcuking northwest wind!"

Ervin smiled, and said to the two of them, "Well, let's not say that Brother Ervin doesn't take care of you,"

"My last family will introduce some Hong Kong businessmen to come here one after another in the next two days, from now on, you two don't need to set up a stall,"

"One goes to the airport, the other goes to the high-speed rail station,"

"Hold a sign for me to pick them up!"

"Pick up?" Louis and Tenner looked at each other, the latter asked,

"Brother Ervin, the work of picking up people is too unskilled, how much can I pay for this pickup..."

Ervin smiled inscrutably, and said, "I tell you those who you pick up are all big customers who spend a lot of money."

"Sometimes they are not convenient to come forward, so they will send their people over. You two will hold signs and wait at the airport and high-speed rail station."

"My acquaintance has made an appointment with them. Now, as long as they see you when they arrive, they will take the initiative to meet you,"

"And don't think this job has no technical content, I will give you 3,000 yuan per person per day!"

"3,000 yuan per person?!"

The two were speechless, but at the same time, they couldn't help being a little excited.

Three thousand yuan a day, this income is much higher than that of their stall.

At this time, Ervin said again, "But, I'm not sure when the big client will come, so you have to go to the airport and the high-speed rail station every day to guard,"

"The two of you have to go early in the morning every day. You can go home and rest until the flight and high-speed rail stop."

"During this time, you can't miss any flight or any high-speed rail."

"If anyone receives a customer, I will reward 10,000 extra."

"If anyone misses a customer, I will never forgive him, do you understand?"
