

Chapter 5511

Jermo followed the little Taoist priest to the side hall of the middle courtyard of Changyun Temple.

This is the living room of Changyun Temple, which is specially used to entertain abbots,

Supervisors from other Taoist temples, or pilgrims who have made great contributions to the Taoist temple.

After placing Jermo here, the little Taoist hurried to report.

In Changyun Temple, most of the people who stay in the front yard for a long time are young Taoist priests with little experience,

So they are asked to maintain the order of tourists and believers in the front yard.

Therefore, if the little Taoist priest wanted to report the news inside,

He would have to pass it up layer by layer, and the number of layers to be passed on was more than the little Taoist priest thought.

Twenty minutes later, surrounded by the crowd, an old man in Taoist robes hurried over, both happy and surprised.

He rushed into the living room non-stop, glanced at Jermo,

And stood motionless at the door as if he had been cast in a body spell.

This person is the current head of Changyun Temple, a Qingxu Sanren.

Qingxu is the Taoist name given to him by his master who adopted him back then.

Since he was a child, his master has called him by this nickname.

After he took over as the supervisor, he added the word Sanren after it.

Jermo looked at him, stroked his long beard gently,

And asked him with a smile, "Qingxu, do you recognize me?"

Two lines of hot tears even came out of the corners of his eyes,

And he choked up, "Master Mateow...is it really you?!"

Jermo nodded lightly, "It's really me."

Qingxu Sanren was very excited, looking at him, Muttered,

"Master Mateow, you are younger than Qingxu now, could it be..."

"Could it be that you have really found the method of longevity?"

As soon as Qingxu said this, several older Taoist priests around him looked horrified!

These people are all core members of the Changyun Temple, and they all heard the story of the real Mateow told by Sanren.

Qingxu once told these people that the last time he saw Master Mateow was in the late 1950s.

Now, after nearly seventy years, he never expected that the real Mateow in front of him would look younger than himself.

In their view, Master Mateow really found the legendary method of longevity.

Daoist disciples are different from warriors in that warriors,

All use martial arts to enter Taoism, but there are many ways to enter Taoism.

Among the Taoist schools, there are also those who enter Taoism through martial arts.

The Quanzhen Sect, which is often mentioned in martial arts, is a model of entering just like many others.

The Taoist priests of Changyun Temple have used alchemy to enter the Tao for hundreds of years,

But because their cultivation base and alchemy are not exquisite enough, they have not produced any real great talents for so many years.

Jermo became a disciple of Changyun Temple at the end of the 19th century.

Until the 1940s, he stayed in the Temple for more than half a century.

In order to try the alchemy, he walked countless times before the gate of hell,

But he couldn't really master the spiritual energy.

It was also at that time that he was disheartened and decided to leave Changyun Temple,

And since then he gave up using pills to enter the Tao and looked for other methods.

Then, by chance, he joined the Warriors Den,

And with the instruction and help of the lord, he mastered the aura.

Over the years, he has returned to China several times with different identities, but he has never been to Changyun Temple.

The reason why he didn't come to the Temple was that he didn't want the disciples of the Temple to know that he had found the way of longevity.

In his opinion, he had gone through untold hardships before he finally entered the Tao.

This kind of secret must not be known to anyone who knows him.

But today, the reason why he chose to come to the temple was that he had not found Maria's whereabouts these days.

The Lord has been urging him to go to Aurous Hill.

He procrastinated for days, but not for a month. With the Lord's temper,

He will give himself an ultimatum in two or three days at most,

So he must find some helpers to help him in China. Find Maria's whereabouts within the range.

And he has never supported his own power in the Warriors Den in these years,

So the only people who he can use now are the Taoist priests of Changyun Temple.

At this moment, seeing Qingxu looking at him expectantly,

Looking forward to his answer, Jermo smiled indifferently and said to him,

"Qingxu, this is not a place to talk."

"Is the secret room in the backyard still there?"

"If so, let's move over there and talk in detail!"

Qingxu hurriedly said, "Still there, still there! Master Mateow, please follow me!"

The aged Qingxu led the way attentively, leading Jermo and arriving at the underground secret room in the backyard.

Several of his other juniors also wanted to go together, but Jermo played tricks at this moment.

He said to Qingxu, "Qingxu, what we want to talk about between you and me is very important."

"To be cautious, let's have a chat first in seclusion!"
