

Super Rich Dad Chapter 559-560

Chapter 559

Old man Zhang was sitting by the door, watching his granddaughter and Jiang Hao playing with each other, and felt a faint warmth in his heart.

He suddenly thought of Jiang Hao's movements in the courtyard just now, so he asked with some curiosity, 'Jiang Hao, ah. You didn't used to be a martial artist, did you?'

Jiang Hao heard this household and looked at old man Zhang for a moment, then thought that the less people knew about such things as Shangdian, the better.

After all, Old Man Zhang was just an ordinary person, so it was better not to involve him in these matters.

So he nodded with a smile and said, 'Well, when I was young, I used to learn martial arts from a master. So I have a bit of skill in my body.'

Old man Zhang smiled and nodded in relief, 'That's good, young people always need to have a skill. Otherwise, they will be like us, a crop duster for the rest of their lives.'

There are some things that can't be solved by force alone.

Thinking of this, Old Man Zhang sighed, then went back to his room and took out his hard-earned money of more than two thousand yuan and put it on the table.

Seeing this, Jiang Hao looked at old man Zhang with some confusion and said, 'Old man Zhang, what do you mean by this?'

'Nothing meaningful, while they haven't brought anyone over yet, you'd better leave, I'll sort things out here.'

After saying this Old Man Zhang sighed lightly and spoke with a somewhat sad face, 'You are still young, there are some things you don't know, this Xu Qiang is the brother-in-law of Yangcheng bully Wang Long.'

What kind of person was Jiang Hao? He held a lot of power at the time. He had countless brothers under his command, so why would he ever care about a mere bully!

Therefore, after hearing Old Man Zhang's words, he could not help but laugh lightly and said, 'It's alright, just leave this matter to me, nothing will go wrong.'

Old man Zhang knew that Jiang Hao had a mentality of repaying him for his kindness, so he just laughed bitterly and then looked at Ying Ying and said, 'Ying Ying, you go back to your room first, I have something to talk to your brother Jiang Hao about.'

Ying Ying, who was sitting on Jiang Hao's lap, heard this and looked at her grandfather's face, knowing that they had something serious to talk about so she obediently cleared the table and went back to her room.

Only after Ying Ying had left did old man Zhang speak to Jiang Hao, 'You are young and vigorous and have martial arts in your body. I understand that you don't take these people seriously, but you should understand that two fists can't beat four hands, right?'

After saying this, Old Man Zhang continued, 'There was a man in our 30 Mile Bay who didn't believe in evil and had to fight against Xu Qiang, do you know what happened to him?'

Jiang Hao looked at old man Zhang's serious expression and was laughing, but he had no choice but to cooperate with old man Zhang and asked, 'What happened to him?'

'He, a good family was torn apart by Wang Long, the old man died of anger, and his daughter-in-law was taken away and tortured for nearly half a month before she was released. After that, he threw himself into the well.'

After saying this, old man Zhang let out a deep sigh, 'These people. What a sin. A good, hardened man was tortured to madness by them!'

Jiang Hao had a slight contempt for these people at first, but after knowing these things, his face was clouded with gloom!

Jiang Hao firmly believed that people were called people because they had a bottom line in what they did. Knowing what things to do and what not to do.

But what Xu Qiang and the others had done was completely unworthy of being called human, and thinking about this Jiang Hao took a deep breath.

He looked at old man Zhang and said, 'Why didn't anyone bring them to justice after such an incident and let them run wild like this?'

Old man Zhang knew that he might be the next one to be unlucky, so he spoke with a sense of sympathy, 'Why do you think I let you go? This 30 Mile Bay is under the control of this Xu Qiang, so there is no place to say anything.'

After saying this, old man Zhang felt the urge to burst into tears, thinking that he had worked so hard to bring up Ying Ying.

He had never thought that he would be targeted by a bully like Xu Qiang, and what was even more terrifying was that there was a Wang Long behind Xu Qiang, which they could not deal with!

Right now the only thing Old Man Zhang can do is to let Jiang Hao go, after all these matters are still his own family's business in the end.

Even though he had saved Jiang Hao, he would never make Jiang Hao come and take such a risk with him, it would kill him!

Jiang Hao was silent as he looked towards Old Man Zhang who didn't say a word. He also sort of understood Old Man Zhang's thoughts.

The old man's doings were clear in his grudges and grievances, but there were times when this world was so helpless.

Jiang Hao took a deep breath before looking at Old Man Zhang and said in a deep voice, 'Old Master. From today onwards you are my grandfather and Ying Ying is my sister. I won't leave!'

After saying this Jiang Hao went to do his own thing, thinking in his mind that Xu Qiang and the others had better hurry up and get Wang Long here. Don't ever keep him waiting!

Such a scum, living wisdom caused more tragedies, in fact if it wasn't for the fear of old man Zhang and Ying Ying.

There was absolutely no way that person called Wang Long would survive the night, and now they had to wait for them to come to the door of their own accord.

Old man Zhang looked at Jiang Hao's busy back and didn't know what to say for a while.

After spending these few months together since Jiang Hao had awakened, Old Man Zhang had gotten to know Jiang Hao a bit.

Perhaps Ying Ying would only think that Jiang Hao was very easy-going, but Old Man Zhang could smell a hint of murderousness on Jiang Hao's body.

Such a person could never be an ordinary person, and it was because of this that Old Man Zhang wanted Jiang Hao to leave as soon as he had just woken up.

Just after the old man had finished talking to Jiang Hao about this matter of Xu Qiang and the others, Ying Ying ran out excitedly as if she had suddenly thought of something.

'Brother Jiang Hao, brother Jiang Hao, I've heard that people who practice martial arts also know some medical skills, right, you're so powerful then your medical skills must be very good too, right?'

Jiang Hao, who was tidying up his room, looked at Yingying with some consternation, and then said hesitantly after a glance with Elder Zhang, 'It's not bad, what's wrong, is there something wrong with you?'

Ying Ying shook her head and then glanced at her grandfather before speaking, 'Grandpa, since brother Jiang Hao is so powerful, why don't you let him take a look at my uncle?'

After saying this Ying Ying looked towards Jiang Hao and continued, 'My uncle's body has been coughing for years, and he even coughs up blood in autumn and winter, and the hospital can't give any solutions.'

When Elder Zhang heard Ying Ying's words for a while, his eyes became hot towards Jiang Hao, Ying Ying's uncle Zhang Tiansheng used to be a great person!

Chapter 560

Ying Ying's uncle was a businessman who followed her parents in the jungle and travelled to many places in the north and south.

However, because of an accident on the road, he was seriously injured and also killed Ying Ying's parents.

Although Master Zhang did not hold a grudge against Yingying's uncle. However, the uncle's family was worried that Master Zhang would use the incident to demand compensation from them.

So the two families hadn't come together for nearly a decade, although the old man thought we were all family in the end.

But the uncle felt ashamed to meet the old man, and over the years, he took the initiative to break off contact with him.

It was only during the New Year holidays. He would only ask people to give something to him as a token of appreciation.

Thinking about these things. Elder Zhang looked Jiang Hao up and down once before asking, 'Generally, people who run in the jianghu know a little bit about medicine, are you convenient to give Ying Ying's indisputable uncle a look?'

Jiang Hao looked at Ying Ying's expectant eyes, and then looked at Elder Zhang and fell silent.

There were many different kinds of prescriptions on Shangdian, but Jiang Hao knew that it was questionable whether the materials for those prescriptions could still be found after all these years.

Even if that was the case, given the current state of affairs, even if the ingredients could be found, I'm afraid that the efficacy of the medicine would be greatly reduced.

This is not because Jiang Hao thinks so for no reason, but because most of the Chinese herbs are now basically artificially grown.

It was because of this that Jiang Hao did not dare to agree to it.

In this area of medicine. Even the slightest deviation would produce completely unexpected effects.

Ying Ying looked at Jiang Hao expectantly for a long time before she tentatively asked, 'Brother Jiang Hao, can you go and see my uncle?'

Jiang Hao reached out and touched Yingying's head, and after a slight hesitation, he smiled and said, 'Why can't you go, our Yingying is so cute, for Yingying's sake you should go and see your uncle too.'

Yingying happily hugged Jiang Hao and smiled, only for Jiang Hao to still smile bitterly at old man Zhang just in case.

‘I’m definitely going to see him, but I can’t guarantee that I’ll be able to cure him, I have to say this up front or I’ll be sorry if I let you down.’

Old man Zhang smiled, nodded and looked at Jiang Hao and said, ‘It’s okay. He has been sick for so many years, he himself knows what condition he is in, so just go over and take a look.’

Jiang Hao smiled and nodded his head and agreed to this, and the little girl Ying Ying pulled Jiang Hao along and started to help clean up the dishes.

When they were all packed up, Yingying and Elder Zhang took Jiang Hao to Yingying’s uncle’s house.

The two families were actually only about ten kilometres away from each other, so when they boarded Master Zhang’s raft and went downstream, they soon arrived at the 30 Mile Bay market.

Since the two families had broken off contact after the incident, he had set up his home in this market.

Although he had no face to meet the old man Zhang. But in order to take care of a little, he also considered quite a lot of effort.

Ying Ying came to bring the set on first after taking out a look at it. This is what brought Jiang Hao to his uncle’s home under the slightly disgruntled eyes of his grandfather.

Jiang Hao surveyed the house of Ying Ying’s uncle’s house and shook his head slightly, it was not much better than the house of the old man’s family.

The old man noticed the look on Jiang Hao’s face, so he spoke after a slight sigh, ‘These years have not been easy for their family in order to cure him.’

Jiang Hao nodded slightly before following the old man and walking in. But they hadn’t even entered the house yet.

Jiang Hao and the others heard the sound of arguing from inside, and they not only stopped in their tracks.

‘Didn’t we agree on 50,000 before, why do we need 70,000 this time? Doctor Liu, we’re all villagers. You can’t take advantage of the fire to rob us!’

As soon as the female voice in the room finished speaking, a male voice spoke up and said slowly, ‘Alas, there is nothing I can do about it, this set of acupuncture methods is extremely damaging to the vital energy when it is performed.’

After saying this, Dr. Liu’s voice rang out again, ‘I’m trading my life for your husband’s. Do you still think two thousand dollars is too much?’

After hearing these words the woman reluctantly agreed despite being very helpless, just as TCM doctor Liu was about to place the needle.

Jiang Hao, however, pushed the door in. Looking into the room, Liu and Yingying, who were about to give the needle to their uncle, said, 'Wait!'

The Chinese doctor and aunt Liu looked at Jiang Hao with slight confusion, and the aunt even spoke in shock, 'Who are you. How can you come in without the owner's permission!'

Jiang Hao slightly looked at his aunt, who was about forty years old, probably because she was often at the fair. She did not do any farm work.

All her hands were properly maintained and her figure had a touch of charm.

In fact, there were quite a few men salivating over her at the whole 30 Mile Bay market. But this woman was a sickly man who was in love with her.

Although her uncle's strange illness had added to the family's woes, the aunt held the family together.

Master Zhang and Ying Ying slowly walked in, the old man looked at his aunt and pulled the corners of his mouth slightly.

There was a long silence before he spoke with a sigh, 'Sanniang, these years have really been hard on you.'

Auntie's eyes were moist when she heard the old man's words, and she knelt down directly to him without saying a word.

Only she knew how much hardship she had endured over the years as a woman who had supported a family.

Seeing this, Ying Ying hurriedly walked up, then helped Sanniang up and spoke, 'Auntie, this is brother Jiang Hao, he is very powerful!'

Dr. Liu looked at Jiang Hao and then asked with some confusion, 'This young man is not the one you brought back last time and then asked me to save him, is he?'

Old man Zhang smiled and looked at Dr. Liu and nodded and laughed, 'That's right, that's him, before you said he would take at least a year to wake up, this boy woke up in less than half a year.'

At this time, Dr. Liu didn't care about his uncle who was lying unconscious on the bed, he walked straight over and then looked Jiang Hao up and down and asked in wonder!

'I started practicing medicine at the age of twenty, and it's been more than forty years since then, and I've never seen anyone with such a strong recovery ability!'

Jiang Hao really couldn't stand being watched like a rare animal, so he bowed to Dr. Liu and smiled, 'I'm grateful to Old Mr. Liu for giving me a hand before.'

Jiang Hao was not a person who did not understand the world, and although he had some doubts about Dr. Liu's character, he definitely did not show it on the surface.
