

Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 56

When the voice fell, several men who grabbed Zoey Gu lifted her up, and dragged her forward.

“Let go of me, what do you want to do? Let go...”

In the next second, Zoey Gu felt his body vacant for a while, and his whole person was instantly thrown out.

thump.

She was thrown into a pit!

The moment the body fell, bursts of mud on her head hit her head, body and face.

Even her mouth trying to call “help” was instantly filled with mud!

Zoey Gu was trembling crazily.

With her hands tied, she kept smashing her teeth against the edge of the pit, and every time she tried to climb up, she was heavily hit by the scattered mud.

The whole body is getting thicker and thicker.

Her feet were firmly covered, and her body gradually lost the strength to struggle. As the soil continued to rise, her breathing became weaker and weaker.

At this moment, she finally understood.

Anna Yun gave her such a way of death to let her experience the painful and long struggle from life to death, losing breath every inch.

She began to feel choking.

As her consciousness slowly separated from her body, she seemed to hear the sound of a wheelchair slowly approaching from a distance.

Immediately afterwards, several figures flashed in the darkness, and the person who was still splashing the soil at Zoey Gu “plopped, plopped” and fell to the ground.

With a “pop”, dazzling light suddenly lit up all around.

Liam Lu was sitting in a wheelchair, pushed by Shi, and slowly walked over, followed by a tall Rong Rui.

By Zoey Gu's side, several men were stepped on the ground with their heads pressed on the ground, constantly struggling and wriggling on the ground, begging for mercy from Liam Lu.

"Lu Shao spare your life!"

"Young Master Lu, we are only observing orders, please forgive us this time?"

"Lu Shao, we don't dare anymore. This young lady still has a breath and can save him, Lu Shao..."

As if hearing a familiar name, Zoey Gu opened his eyes with difficulty.

When she saw the figure in the wheelchair, her heart suffocated.

Liam Lu.

Almost every time she was approaching hell and struggling in pain, she could always see him at the last minute.

Zoey Gu struggled to speak, but with difficulty only a short tone was heard between his lips.

"Ah..."

Under the light, Liam Lu's face was cold and terrifying, and his whole body exuded a compelling coldness. Looking at Zoey Gu's eyes, it was even more icy.

After a long time, he said coldly.

"Push me over."

Shiyue dared not delay, and hurriedly pushed the wheelchair forward.

Even Rong Rui, who was beside him, quickened his pace to keep up, and when he approached Zoey Gu, he took the initiative to speak up.

"Miss Gu, meet again."

With the appearance of Rong Rui, many things have become clear.

There is no such thing as Rong Rui repaying Zoey's resignation, but Liam Lu used tactful means to set her free.

While speaking, Rong Rui took the initiative to bend forward, motioning to his subordinates, while reaching out to the soil under Zoey Gu.

But halfway through his hand, he was suddenly stopped by Liam Lu.

Rong Rui was taken aback for a moment, frowning at him with some confusion.

“Liam, what are you doing? If you don’t save her, she may die at any time.”

Liam Lu pulled his lips.

“No life? No, Zoey Gu’s life has always been great.”

As he spoke, he raised his hand and waved, pushing the wheelchair forward as he signaled. Finally leaned slightly, slowly approaching Zoey Gu’s eyes, and asked every word.

“Zoey Gu, how does death feel?”
