

Super Rich Dad Chapter 561-563

Chapter 561

Dr. Liu smiled and then looked at old man Zhang and said, 'Old Zhang, what are you doing here?'

Old man Zhang casually pulled out a chair and sat down, smoking a dry cigarette without saying anything.

It was Ying Ying who walked up to Dr. Liu and bowed in front of him, 'Uncle's health has not been improving, and after Jiang Hao woke up we realised he knew a little bit about medicine. So.'

At this point in his speech, Dr. Liu also understood that this old Zhang Tou had brought someone to steal business from him!

After all, he was an old man, so he didn't say anything to old man Zhang after smiling and stroking Ying Ying's head.

Instead, he looked at Jiang Hao for a moment and said, 'Throat itch and cough, blood in the phlegm. The mouth is dry and the nose is dry, and the body has deficient heat. The tongue is red with little fluid, the moss is thin and yellow, and the pulse is counted.'

Although there were many prescriptions and some knowledge of Chinese medicine in Shangdian, he simply did not have the time to read them.

Seeing that TCM doctor Liu had given him a question, Jiang Hao scratched his hair and then said helplessly, 'I really don't know about this.'

Dr. Liu gave a light hum, feeling slightly pleased with himself, then continued to ask, 'Coughing fits. Blood in the sputum, pain in the chest and ribs, irritability and irritability, and a stringent pulse, how should I treat this?'

The successive tests made even Jiang Hao feel a tinge of irritation, but he had no choice but to bow his head in silence as he really did not know these things.

Dr. Liu looked at Jiang Hao who was bowing his head and didn't even bother to mock him, but turned his head to old man Zhang and said indifferently, 'I admit that he may have a body he knows about medicine. What an indifference!'

Although Ying Ying couldn't understand what Chinese doctor Liu had just said, she knew that the other party was probably testing Jiang Hao.

Seeing that Jiang Hao couldn't answer any of the questions, she couldn't help but have tears in her eyes, while old man Zhang looked at Jiang Hao with a trace of disappointment flashing in his eyes.

He couldn't help but think with a sigh in his heart that perhaps he had been too greedy, thinking that if a miracle happened once, it would happen a second time.

Sanniang looked at Jiang Hao and then at old man Zhang before she too fell silent, knowing that she had better not speak up at this time.

Otherwise, if she offended Dr. Liu, there would really be no one to save her husband's life!

The Chinese doctor Liu looked at Jiang Hao and spoke with a slightly smug look on his face, 'Although you kid lied about being able to do medicine. But I can also see that you like this line of work, so I'll let you open your eyes today.'

Although Jiang Hao had some disdain in his heart. But on the surface, he smiled and said, 'Then please let me open my eyes properly, Old Mr. Liu.'

Chinese doctor Liu snorted coldly and took out the silver needle pack from his own medicine chest, then ordered Sanniang to bring a table and set it at the head of the bed.

'Just watch this, kid, it's called the Twelve Golden Needles. It specialises in treating the inner lungs!'

As he said this, Dr Liu's hands moved swiftly, not at all like an old man in his sixties.

This was slightly surprising to Jiang Hao, but the more he looked on, the deeper the expression on Jiang Hao's face sank.

By the time TCM practitioner Liu had performed all of his acupuncture techniques. Ying Ying found that the unconscious uncle had opened his eyes.

'Phew, I feel like I've died once.'

Sanniang watched as Zhang Tiansheng's eyes opened and his waxy face gradually became rosy, and as soon as she opened her mouth, she couldn't help but cry out!

'Damn ghost, you finally woke up, if you went like this, would this home still be a home for you!'

Zhang Tian Sheng looked at San Niang's teary-eyed appearance and slightly twitched the corners of his mouth. Then he spoke weakly, 'What's wrong with me, why did I suddenly pass out.'

At this time, Dr. Liu stroked his goatee and looked at Zhang Tian Sheng with a smile and said, 'Don't worry. Your illness has basically been cured, so please ask Sanniang to settle my medicine bill.'

After saying this, Dr. Liu began to pack up his silver needles. He knew very well that this sick child in front of him would probably not last much longer.

At most, his own set of needles could only keep Zhang Tian Sheng for a little while longer. But it would not change the outcome.

When he came here, he knew exactly what Zhang Tiansheng's condition was, and he had come with the idea of making one more profit out of him.

Anyway, even the reincarnation of the magpie might not be able to save him from this illness, and the fact that he could force Zhang Tiansheng to take a breath was already impressive enough.

Sanniang didn't know about these twists and turns, and when she saw Zhang Tiansheng's body become rosy, she really thought he had been cured.

Even the consultation fee, which she thought was a bit expensive at the beginning, was given to Dr. Liu with great generosity.

But just as Dr. Liu was about to leave, Jiang Hao reached out to stop him and said, 'Wait, Dr. Liu, you want 70,000 yuan even for this trick?'

When he heard this, Dr. Liu's heart was shocked, but then he thought how could this boy who knew nothing about anything in front of him see that he had taken more money than he should have.

The doctor's face quickly turned cold as he thought of this, then he looked at Sanniang and then at old man Zhang and said in a deep voice, 'Does this mean that I don't deserve this money?'

Sanniang saw that her husband's illness was cured, so it didn't matter whether the money was there or not.

Moreover, she might have to trouble Dr. Liu in the future, so she hurriedly said, 'Why don't you deserve it? I gave it to him, and I'll match it when I say so.'

Zhang Tiansheng had no idea what was going on, but he was a real businessman in the end and just assumed that Jiang Hao was trying to leave a bit of money for them.

So after smiling, he reached out his hand and spoke, 'Forget it, you'd better let TCM Liu leave, I'm already content to get my life back this time.'

Old man Zhang watched Jiang Hao's action and did not frown, he was willing to believe Jiang Hao.

But just Liu Chinese medicine doctor out of the questions Jiang Hao one can not answer, he very of understand Chinese medicine, think of here old man Zhang can not help but silent.

The little loli is identified to be on Jiang Hao's side and when she saw that everyone did not believe Jiang Hao, she said, 'Brother Jiang Hao, they don't believe you, I believe you!'

Jiang Hao looked at the crowd and felt slightly helpless, if these people in front of him didn't have a relationship with Ying Ying and the old man, he wouldn't bother to pay attention to whether people were dead or alive.

Seeing that everyone was on his side and that a little girl was no longer relevant, Dr. Liu looked at Jiang Hao with some satisfaction and said, 'Kid, don't let me get out of your way?'

Jiang Hao smiled faintly, a cold glint in his eyes, 'I advise you to sit down and wait for a few moments now, if Ying Ying's uncle's health was really fine, you wouldn't be worried about sitting here for a while, would you?'

Chapter 562

After hearing Jiang Hao's words, Dr. Liu's heart was slightly startled for a moment, and he couldn't help but think, could this young man have seen something?

But although his heart was slightly shocked, Dr. Liu gave a cold smile on his face. Then he sat down calmly and said, 'Fine, I'll see what you can come up with today!'

Sanniang didn't want Dr. Liu to be angry, in case something was asked of him in the future, it would inevitably be a bit embarrassing.

The whole 30 Mile Bay was famous. There was only this one!

Old man Zhang smoked his dry tobacco and looked at Jiang Hao with some hesitation and said, 'Jiang Hao. You see, this is almost done, right?'

Zhang Tian Sheng sighed helplessly as he lay on the hospital bed, but just as he was about to say something, he suddenly spurted out a mouthful of blood!

His face instantly turned white, and Sanniang was taken aback by Zhang Tian Sheng!

'Tian Sheng, what's wrong with you?'

Ying Ying also rushed over and fell on the edge of the bed to look at her uncle, and the large area of bright red on his chest, and for a moment was so frightened that she forgot to cry!

When old man Zhang saw such a situation, he couldn't help but remember what Jiang Hao had just said, then he looked at Dr. Liu and said, 'Dr. Liu, didn't you say. Didn't you say that the person was already well, why did it turn out like this?'

Old man Zhang had been good to people all his life and had never lost his temper indiscriminately, but this time he just couldn't help it!

Sanniang's family had already taken out all the money to treat Zhang Tiansheng's illness, so it would be fine if this Chinese doctor Liu really couldn't cure him.

But he was so deceitful that old man Zhang almost didn't turn his back on Dr. Liu!

Jiang Hao watched coldly from the side as Zhang Tiansheng vomited blood and then passed out. In fact, although he was not sure exactly what illness Zhang Tiansheng had.

But he could feel that there was something in Zhang Tiansheng's body that seemed to be blocking his meridians, which caused this coughing blood and weakness.

In his heart, Dr Liu could not help but feel a trace of chagrin, why did Zhang Tiansheng become like this. He was the one who knew best!

Originally, Zhang Tiansheng was already hopeless, and the fact that he was able to forcefully renew that breath for Zhang Tiansheng with his own skills was already the limit.

He thought that as long as he had fooled Sanniang and the others, then when he was gone, the matter would have nothing to do with him.

However, he did not expect to be stopped by Jiang Hao when he was about to leave, and he did not expect that Zhang Tian Sheng was already gravely ill and had only been suppressed for such a short while.

The Chinese doctor sighed and took out the 70,000 yuan he had tucked into his pocket and looked at Sanniang and said, 'Sanniang. It's not that I have to lie to you, but you must let me treat him. But there's no cure for him.'

After saying this, he ignored Sanniang's indignant look and continued, 'I know what you're thinking, but I can't be blamed for this, the fact that I could keep him alive until now is already against fate!'

Ying Ying knelt by Zhang Tian Sheng's bedside with hot tears in her eyes. When she heard Dr. Liu's words, she turned her head and cursed angrily, 'You're a liar! You said you were cured! Why did it turn out like this!'

Hearing this, Dr. Liu's face got a little embarrassed and he looked at Ying Ying and scolded her angrily, 'What the hell do you think you are! What do you know?'

Old man Zhang had been working with people for so long, but it seemed that he had become the target of everyone's bullying.

After slightly tapping his dry cigarette, Old Man Zhang got up and walked over to Chinese Doctor Liu. Pointing at Zhang Tiansheng, who was lying on the hospital bed and vomiting blood, he said in a deep voice, 'Old Liu, we have known each other for 20 to 30 years, and you grew up watching Tiansheng, what do you think should be done about this?'

Dr. Liu rolled his eyes and said nonchalantly to old man Zhang, 'You think I want to know you, money is king with me, not to mention the fact that this kid can't be saved in the first place!'

Jiang Hao clasped his hands to his chest and sneered at Dr. Liu's words and said, 'What if I'm cured, what will you say?'

Dr. Liu snorted and didn't even bother to pay attention to Jiang Hao. He didn't even know the basic symptoms of dry heat hurting the lungs, let alone giving a prescription!

Such a punk. Chinese medicine doctor Liu felt that he would be insulting himself if he paid him a single word of attention!

Jiang Hao saw that Dr. Liu was ignoring him and shook his head and said, 'You like money, don't you? Fine, if I can't cure Zhang Tian Sheng. If I can't cure Zhang Tian Sheng, this matter has nothing to do with you today, and you can take the money as usual!'

Hearing this, Dr. Liu couldn't help but feel a bit moved, thinking that this kid didn't know anything about medicine anyway, let alone curing people.

The body of Zhang Tiansheng has been watched by himself all the time, could there be changes that he doesn't know about?

He said, 'If you really cure this sick boy, you can have my pharmacy!'

Jiang Hao snorted and didn't say anything harsh, but walked forward and gently picked up Ying Ying and said, 'Ying Ying is a good girl, don't cry, you go with grandpa to the next room and sit for a while, when brother comes out Ying Ying's uncle will be fine!'

After listening to this, Ying Ying turned her head and looked at Jiang Hao, then nodded and said, 'Okay, Ying Ying will do as she is told.'

When Sanniang heard Jiang Hao's words, a glimmer of hope gradually rose in her eyes, what if Jiang Hao could really do it?

If he couldn't, why could he tell that Dr. Liu was lying?

Old man Zhang had obviously thought of the same thing as Sanniang, and after a moment of contemplation, he gave Jiang Hao a deep glance.

'Jiang Hao, if you can really save this child Tian Sheng back, this matter today will be considered a return of my kindness.'

Jiang Hao laughed lightly twice, then looked at old man Zhang and spoke, 'Grandpa you don't need to be like this, although I don't know much about medicine, I happen to know a little trick.'

After hearing this, Dr. Liu gave Jiang Hao a disdainful glance, even he couldn't save the person, could a hairy boy who knew nothing save him?

After thinking of this, Dr. Liu sneered and said, 'I'd like to see what tricks you have to bring that punk back!'

After saying these words, Dr. Liu slammed the door and left, taking the 70,000 yuan with him as he left.

To him, perhaps this seventy thousand dollars was already in his pocket!

If he hadn't been worried that the death of this sick boy would ruin his own signboard, he wouldn't have even bothered to make this bet with Jiang Hao.

Originally, he was still wondering how to wrap up this matter, but now it was good that a fool had to jump out and take this hot potato.

Ying Ying watched with hatred as Dr. Liu walked out of the room and cursed, 'You bad man! Don't leave!'

Old man Zhang gestured at Yingying, then pulled Sanniang to look at Jiang Hao and said, 'Jiang Hao, no matter what, I'll leave Tian Sheng to you.'

As he said these words, there was a hint of prayer in Old Man Zhang's eyes, in addition to desperation.

Chapter 563

For Elder Zhang, the fact that Zhang Tiansheng was handed over to Jiang Hao at this moment was a dead horse.

Sanniang's whole body seemed to have lost its soul, a beautiful and charming girl was scared to death after seeing Zhang Tiansheng vomit blood.

For many years, Sanniang had been hoping that Zhang Tian Sheng would be cured, so that it would not be in vain that she had toiled for so many years.

Unfortunately, Dr. Liu had shattered all her illusions. He even laughed at her in a cool manner.

For many years she had faced the ridicule of others and had relied on this thought to hold her up, and now her only thought was gone.

Old man Zhang looked at Sanniang and sighed, slightly shaking his head and spoke, 'Sanniang, don't be discouraged, there is still Jiang Hao.'

After saying this, old man Zhang and Ying Ying helped Sanniang slowly walk out. Sanniang passed by Jiang Hao's side and paused slightly.

She turned her head and wiggled the corners of her mouth, one moment there was hope and prayer in her eyes, the next moment it was darkened.

'Little brother. You can tell that Chinese doctor Liu is lying to us, so you must have a bit of skill too.'

Speaking here, Sanniang looked back at Zhang Tiansheng, who was lying on the bed in a state of uncertainty about his life and death and continued to speak, 'If it really doesn't work, you just, you just give him a painful one.'

At this point in the conversation, it could also be seen how desperate Sanniang was for Zhang Tiansheng.

Jiang Hao was slightly silent for a while before looking at the old man whose face was a bit gloomy, and said in a low voice to Sanniang, 'Don't worry, you'll be able to see it when I'm done in a while.'

After saying this Jiang Hao sent them out of the room, Chinese doctor Liu stood outside the door with a strut, looking at Jiang Hao with a cold smile, carrying his own medicine box.

He was still the authority here, an unknown little brat was saved by himself, and now he dared to say that he could save someone he couldn't save!

Thinking of this, Dr. Liu could not help but sneer as he spoke to Jiang Hao; 'Don't rush, take your time, I'll be waiting outside.'

Jiang Hao nodded with a cold smile before closing the door behind him. He didn't care if Master Zhang and Ying Ying knew his secret, but Chinese doctor Liu and Sanniang were outsiders after all.

If they weren't, he would have just been able to make a direct move!

Although Zhang Tian Sheng's body looked serious on the surface, in reality, his body was merely a certain amount of foreign matter that had accumulated between his lungs and internal organs.

From what Elder Zhang had revealed to him earlier, it was likely that this Zhang Tian Sheng had been walking around in some dusty and foggy places for a long time.

This, coupled with the fact that he had accidentally injured his lungs before, had led to his current state.

Thinking of this, Jiang Hao had a plan in mind, so after moving his body a little bit, he looked at Zhang Tiansheng lying on the hospital bed with an evil smile, let's practice with this guy!

Jiang Hao closed his eyes and looked at the treatment for lung injuries in the Shangdian, and in no time he found dozens of treatments.

There were only three types of treatment methods, one was massage, one was acupuncture, and the other was Chinese medicine.

Although these methods could also save Zhang Tiansheng's life, the effect was too slow and Zhang Tiansheng could not wait that long for the treatment.

Just when he was feeling a little anxious about this, a solution suddenly appeared before his eyes.

'The human body combines the lifeblood of heaven and earth in one. It is the strangest in the world, but everything in heaven and earth has an aura, and the body is the same.'

These words were the first to be reflected in Jiang Hao's mind, and he couldn't help but be intrigued.

'Essence, vital energy and divine energy can all be the spiritual energy of the human body, and one of the three cannot be missing.

When he saw this, Jiang Hao almost burst out laughing. He might not have any other qi, but he had been cultivating this qi for a long time!

So he read this method carefully, so that true qi healing could have a miraculous effect on the patient. It is often used to unblock the meridians, detoxify the filth and eliminate poison!

Seeing this, Jiang Hao slowly came back to his senses, then sat down on Zhang Tian Sheng's bedside with a light smile and grabbed his hand, then concentrated on meditation.

Jiang Hao followed the secret method he had read about in the Shangdian and made his true qi flow slowly from Zhang Tian Sheng's palm, originally wanting to just help Zhang Tian Sheng heal and leave it at that.

But then he thought of how much Elder Zhang valued this man. So with a faint sigh, he gave a hard push to his true qi!

He knew that it was dangerous to do so, and that if he was not careful, he might not be able to cure Zhang Tiansheng, but he himself would be burdened by it.

But as long as he followed the secret method in Shangdian, nothing should happen, Jiang Hao still had great trust in Shangdian.

Outside the door, Dr. Liu sneered and looked at old man Zhang, who was sitting on the ground smoking a dry cigarette, and snorted, 'You were all witnesses to the bet that little brat made with me just now inside. It's not my business if that sick boy dies!'

Ying Ying leaned her head on Old Man Zhang's lap and when she heard this, Ying Ying looked at Dr. Liu with teardrops in her eyes and cursed angrily, 'Thanks to my grandfather who said you were a nice person, I never thought you were such a person!'

Sanniang leaned against the pillar of the room, turning a deaf ear to Liu's words.

To her, everything was meaningless now, and she didn't even think that Jiang Hao would be able to save Zhang Tiansheng.

All she could think about was what to do after Zhang Tiansheng's death and whether she should follow him to the funeral.

In this life, she had married Zhang Tiansheng, and she would die with him! Because this was the man she had chosen!

Sanniang was proud of herself, and in her life she had never felt remorse for anything she had done. But there was only one thing that made her feel guilty.

With this in mind, Sanniang turned to Master Zhang and Ying Ying and knelt down.

'Dad, what happened before. I was wrong, and I'm here to make amends with you and say sorry to Ying Ying as well.'

Old man Zhang barred his dry tobacco. Sanniang's kneeling made his whole person look as if he had aged ten years.

Ying Ying looked at Sanniang from the side and was slightly stunned, then she hurriedly held Sanniang's arm and spoke, 'Auntie. What do you mean by that? Get up quickly.'

Sanniang shook her head and gently pushed away Yingying's hand and smiled bitterly, 'Yingying, it's all our fault for what happened to your mum and dad. It's also because we didn't have the face to see you after so many years of not coming over to see Dad.'

When she said this, Sanniang looked at Elder Zhang and said, 'Tian Sheng is leaving today, so Sanniang is here to simply talk things out, so as not to leave any knots in your old heart.'

After hearing Sanniang's words, Elder Zhang sighed lightly and said, 'Let bygones be bygones, the living are always more important than the dead.'

Master Zhang was already half-dead in the earth, so when he heard Sanniang's words, how could he not know what she was thinking?

But he couldn't keep an eye on Sanniang 24 hours a day, he had seen her clearly from the day she married into the Zhang family.
