

Super Rich Dad Chapter 564-566

Chapter 564

Ying Ying was still young, but it was because she was a child that she was extra sensitive.

Hearing the conversation between her grandfather and her aunt, she seemed to have sensed something and looked at Sanniang blankly, 'Auntie. Are you going to leave Ying Ying alone?'

As she said this, Ying Ying's tears flowed down again, sobbing as she looked at San Niang pitifully.

She had lost both of her parents since she was young, and her remaining uncle had not visited her for many years because of this matter.

Only during the Chinese New Year and festivals did she ask people to send her some things. Only when Ying Ying met her at the market could she feel a little bit of family warmth.

To Yingying, this aunt rarely came home. This aunt, who rarely came home, was like her own mother.

Because of this, Ying Ying might be petulant to others, but she was always very good to her aunt.

'Auntie, please don't leave Ying Ying alone, I beg you, Auntie, Ying Ying is afraid.'

At these words, Ying Ying could not hold back any longer and threw herself into San Niang's arms, crying bitterly.

Tears were leaking from Sanniang's eyes, she didn't want to leave Ying Ying alone, but her man was leaving, so what was the point of living.

Dr. Liu laughed coldly twice at the scene before him. In his many years of career he had really seen too many lives and deaths.

All these things, he had already seen through them long ago and was even immune to them.

Old man Zhang could not help but have disgust in his eyes after he slightly glanced at Dr. Liu.

Previously, he thought that although this Chinese doctor Liu was a bit greedy for money, this scene today had made him completely see through Chinese doctor Liu.

Old man Zhang had always believed that what he feared most as a doctor was not letting the family down, but giving them false hope.

Looking at Dr. Liu, who seemed to be a bit upset, Old Man Zhang sneered and said, 'Old Liu, don't worry, I won't tell anyone that you did this today.'

Dr. Liu nodded arrogantly after hearing these words, but did not say anything.

Time passed slowly. After almost two hours, Dr. Liu could not wait any longer.

‘Why isn’t that little brat coming out, he can’t be dragging his feet in there knowing that it’s impossible!’

Ying Ying was tired of crying and was resting in Sanniang’s arms, when Dr. Liu’s voice was a little louder it woke Ying Ying up and she shrank back into Sanniang’s arms with a fearful look.

When Sanniang saw that Yingying was frightened by Dr. Liu, she turned her head like a lioness protecting her cubs and gave Dr. Liu a cold look.

‘I advise you to keep your voice down and don’t mess with me, or you will suffer the consequences!’

This 30-mile bay in Chinese medicine doctor Liu had seen a lot of things. To put it in a bad way.

He was also someone who had walked through great storms and waves, so how could he care about a mere threat from a woman!

But looking at Sanniang’s eyes. It was not like a living person’s eyes at all.

Dr. Liu couldn’t help but mutter, ‘If it’s smaller, it’s smaller, why is it so scary?’

As soon as the words left his mouth, the door to the room suddenly creaked, and it was Jiang Hao who opened it.

The four of them turned their heads to look at Jiang Hao almost simultaneously. Only the expressions on their faces were different.

Elder Zhang was expectant with his eyes, while Sanniang was desperate, Ying Ying had curiosity in her eyes, and Chinese doctor Liu.

He snorted and then looked at Jiang Hao and spoke, ‘Little brat. Can I go now?’

Jiang Hao sat on the threshold with a pale face, first looking to Elder Zhang and Sanniang and the others with a smile and a nod.

Only then did he breathlessly brushed his lips at Dr. Liu and spoke, ‘Go? Where do you want to go? Don’t forget the bet between us, so you can stay obediently with the money.’

At first, Dr. Liu looked a bit arrogant, but after hearing Jiang Hao’s last words, he faintly froze and couldn’t help but say angrily, ‘Kid, don’t forget the bet you made with me, the money is mine if you can’t save him!’

Jiang Hao smiled faintly and then looked at Dr. Liu sadistically and laughed, ‘Right, the money is yours only if the person is not saved, but now that the person is saved, who are you to take the money?’

After saying this, Jiang Hao paused. Then he continued to speak, 'Oh, right. I'll take over that medicine shop of yours, it seems to be right here in the bazaar, right?'

Ying Ying heard Jiang Hao say that people had been saved. While shouting loudly for her uncle, she trotted into the room!

Sanniang's entire body was dumbfounded. Looking at Jiang Hao for fear that something might be slightly wrong with his face.

After what happened to Dr. Liu, Sanniang couldn't take any more blows now!

He was worried that Jiang Hao was just like Dr. Liu, he just wanted the money so he came to cheat himself!

Master Zhang, who had been sitting on the side for nearly two hours, had the same expression on his face at the moment.

But soon Ying Ying's surprised voice came out!

'Uncle! Uncle how are you feeling?'

After a long silence, Zhang Tiansheng's voice rang out in the room, 'Uncle is much better, why are Ying Ying's eyes red, did she cry?'

Ying Ying wiped her eyes and said, 'Ying Ying is not crying, Ying Ying is just too happy, is uncle alright?'

After the sound of the two talking came out, Sanniang slowly stood up and walked in with staggering steps.

Old Master Zhang was also in tears as he followed behind Sanniang, Jiang Hao hadn't failed him! He hadn't failed ah!

Looking at Zhang Tiansheng who was leaning against the bed and was holding Ying Ying's hand, Sanniang and Elder Zhang also crouched down and cried with a headache.

Looking at the scene in front of him, Jiang Hao, whose true qi was nearly exhausted, also felt a great satisfaction in his inner heart.

Of course, only one person in the scene felt despair, and that was Chinese doctor Liu!

He looked at Zhang Tiansheng's appearance one after another and whispered that this was impossible, this was not possible.

Jiang Hao gave an evil laugh before looking at Dr. Liu and saying, 'What's impossible, if you don't believe me you can go in and take a look for yourself, I'm not the same as you.'

After taking a hateful look at Jiang Hao, who was sitting on the threshold with a pale face, Dr. Liu walked in and then spoke loudly, 'Get out of my way!'

With these words, he pushed Ying Ying away, and then grabbed Zhang Tian Sheng's hand to check his pulse without any further ado.

The more he took his pulse, the more astonished he became and the more he exclaimed that it was impossible!

Zhang Tiansheng's pulse was steady and strong, not at all like a person who had just recovered from a serious illness, not even like a person who had been seriously ill!

Such a situation was simply impossible, totally impossible!

But such a thing was happening hard before one's eyes, what would be the consequence of something completely impossible happening in front of one's eyes?

'Demonic magic! This must be a demonic spell! It's completely impossible!'

Old man Zhang and Sanniang looked at Chinese doctor Liu inexplicably, not wanting to talk to him much at all.

To Sanniang, as long as she got her man back, she didn't give a damn about demonic spells or not!

And Master Zhang was of the same mind as Sanniang, looking at the unacceptable look of Chinese doctor Liu.

Elder Zhang smiled before speaking, 'Old Liu, ah, you'd better be good and put the money down and leave.'

Chapter 565

The next morning, Jiang Hao woke up early and took Ying Ying, the little loli, with him for a stroll around the market.

Master Zhang followed behind the two of them and watched Jiang Hao and Ying Ying as if they were his own children.

Ying Ying held Jiang Hao's arm and had a great time playing in the bazaar. After a few moments she looked at Jiang Hao and spoke, 'Brother Jiang Hao, do we really have to go and take Chinese herbalist Liu's medicine shop?'

Elder Zhang, who was following behind, heard this and his heart tightened, then he looked at Jiang Hao to hear what he had to say.

Jiang Hao smiled at Ying Ying before speaking, 'Of course. Since Dr. Liu is willing to make this bet with me, then he must be prepared to lose. We're just going to get what we get in response.'

Elder Zhang's face looked slightly darker after hearing this, and then he could not help but speak, 'That Chinese medicine doctor Liu has not been in our Thirty Mile Bay for a year and a half, and has a very thick network of injured people.'

When he said this, Elder Zhang hesitated a bit, and although the latter words were not said, everyone understood.

Jiang Hao smiled lightly at his words, then looked back at Elder Zhang and spoke, 'It doesn't matter, I don't care about Xu Qiang, do I still care about him being a mere old Chinese doctor.'

Ying Ying also smiled delicately when she heard this, to her. What Chinese doctor Liu had done yesterday was completely disgusting to her.

Jiang Hao looked at Ying Ying and smiled faintly before speaking, 'Let's go, let's go take over TCM doctor Liu's shop now, I'll see if he'll give it up for me today!'

When the group arrived at Dr. Liu's shop, they saw that the entire shop was empty, and all the valuable things had been removed.

A faint trace of mockery flashed across Jiang Hao's face as he saw this and spoke, 'Look guys, this Chinese medicine doctor Liu has even given up his shop for me himself, so what reason do I have not to take it.'

He was very happy that Jiang Hao was able to settle down here, not to mention that Zhang Tiansheng was on the set, so he could take care of him a little more.

The days passed slowly. After Jiang Hao took over Dr. Liu's pharmacy, he reopened it without even fixing it up.

All these things were done by Zhang Tiansheng with his contacts accumulated from his previous business, and Jiang Hao had to thank Zhang Tiansheng for this.

After reopening the pharmacy, Jiang Hao sat in the courtyard of the pharmacy and had a drink with Zhang Tiansheng.

Since his health had been cured by Jiang Hao, Zhang Tiansheng's biggest hobby, apart from socialising, was to come and sit with Jiang Hao.

Jiang Hao looked at Zhang Tiansheng's smiling face and couldn't help but laugh, 'What's wrong with you, you're so happy all day long.'

Zhang Tian Sheng smiled and then said, 'You don't know, my benefactor. Since I got well, our family's business was very poor. But now it has started to get better again.'

Hearing this, Jiang Hao laughed lightly and said, 'Of course, Sanniang was a woman running a business before, so many things were not convenient for her at all.'

Zhang Tian Sheng nodded slightly and said, 'Yes, those days before were really hard for Sanniang. If it wasn't for her, I would probably still be lying in a hospital bed.'

This was true, after Zhang Tian Sheng had fallen seriously ill before, it was always San Niang who had been busy.

They had broken off contact with Elder Zhang. Nor did they dare to visit him again, so they could only look after themselves.

So much time had passed, if it wasn't for Jiang Hao saving Zhang Tiansheng back that day, I'm afraid that Sanniang wouldn't have bowed down meekly to Master Zhang.

After a few moments Jiang Hao looked at Zhang Tiansheng and asked, 'By the way, has there been any movement on Xu Qiang's side recently?'

When Zhang Tiansheng heard this, he could not help but be silent. According to their understanding of Xu Qiang, he had suffered such a big loss at Master Zhang's place last time, so he could not just swallow it.

Thinking of this, Zhang Tiansheng also spoke with some concern, 'There is no movement at the moment. That's what I'm worried about now, the pharmacy is opening tomorrow. What if Xu Qiang comes to cause trouble?'

Jiang Hao snorted, he was worried about Xu Qiang mainly because he was worried that he would take advantage of his absence from the Zhang family. Then he would make a move on Elder Zhang.

That was what he was most worried about, he wasn't worried about Xu Qiang coming to look for his own trouble.

Thinking of this Jiang Hao hesitated slightly. Then he looked at Zhang Tiansheng and spoke, 'I have something I want to discuss with you here, I want to bring Elder Zhang to the set.'

Zhang Tiansheng nodded after hearing this and said, 'That's good, it saves my dad from having to walk around all the time, it's just that my house is still a bit small.'

Jiang Hao smiled and said, 'That's okay, I'm going to let the old man live here, so I'll have someone to keep an eye on things if I'm not in the shop.'

After a short chat, they settled the matter and then sent Zhang Tiansheng away.

Jiang Hao opened the computer that Zhang Tiansheng had sent him and looked at it. After searching for a while, he looked angrily at the news on the webpage.

What had happened after he had fallen off the cliff was given a general idea on the internet, although it had been deliberately distorted.

But Jiang Hao still got the news he wanted. Looking at the news on the webpage, Jiang Hao's heart couldn't help but burst with anger!

His parents had died just like that, for no reason at all!

Jiang Hao punched the table heavily and roared in a low voice, 'Don't worry, I'll make you pay in blood!'

Right now he had just fused Shangdian, which still had many secrets he hadn't unlocked, so going back now would only lead to death.

Jiang Hao pressed down the hatred in his heart, then shut down his computer and rested early.

The next day was early in the morning, just in time for the market, and Zhang Tiansheng brought Jiang Hao the flower basket he had ordered.

Jiang Hao also woke up early and set off a roll of firecrackers at the door as if it was the opening of the business.

Many passers-by couldn't help but point when they saw Jiang Hao in TCM Liu's pharmacy: 'Who is this man, how come he's in TCM Liu's pharmacy?'

'Aiyo, you still don't know, right? I heard that it was this young man who made a bet with TCM doctor Liu that whoever cured that sick child of Sanniang's family would stay.'

'If you say so, then the young man won?'

'That's right, no one expected that, and that sick boy Zhang Tiansheng said so himself.'

Zhang Tiansheng led dozens of people to stop in front of Jiang Hao's pharmacy, then smiled and looked at Jiang Hao and said, 'Congratulations on the opening!'

Originally, Jiang Hao did not want to make some kind of show, but looking at Zhang Tiansheng's stance, Jiang Hao shook his head helplessly and said, 'You're welcome.'

Chapter 566

Elder Zhang followed behind the crowd and also walked out silently, then looked at Jiang Hao with a smile.

Little ninny Ying Ying stood by Zhang Tiansheng's side. Ever since Zhang Tiansheng had gotten better, Ying Ying was sort of clinging to Zhang Tiansheng more and more.

This was because she had received a long-lost fatherly love from Zhang Tian Sheng. Sanniang also took care of Yingying as if she were her own mother.

Zhang Tian Sheng looked at the crowd of people surrounding the pharmacy and said aloud, 'You all should know me, Zhang Tian Sheng, my illness is beyond the reach of Dr. Liu and it is thanks to Dr. Jiang that I am alive!'

Speaking here, Zhang Tiansheng paused before looking at Jiang Hao and said, 'So. I don't think I need to say any more about Dr. Jiang's skills!'

A trace of helplessness flashed across Jiang Hao's smiling face when he heard these words. He originally just wanted to get this done in peace and quiet.

At this moment, looking at Zhang Tiansheng and the whole street full of people, after a slight hesitation, he stood out and said, 'Today, we don't count the consultation fee, only the medicine fee, if you are interested, you can come in and try.'

Jiang Hao had his own intentions for saying this, and the reason he said he wanted to open a pharmacy was not just a random thought.

There were still a lot of secrets hidden in the Shangdian, but the true qi therapy he had learnt from his last treatment of Zhang Tiansheng made Jiang Hao think that he might be able to go further with a lot of study.

Although he had saved Zhang Tiansheng's body with very little true qi, after he slowly recovered, Jiang Hao found that his strength had increased!

Regardless of what Jiang Hao was thinking, the people in the crowd who heard Jiang Hao's words were happily lining up in front of the pharmacy.

Zhang Tian Sheng was also very happy to see such a scene. He thought that he had finally repaid Jiang Hao's kindness a little bit.

But what they didn't know was that among these people were Xu Qiang's men, who had been thinking of ways to get back at Jiang Hao ever since they found out that he had opened a pharmacy.

Although Xu Qiang is a bit thick, he has some plans for his position.

After learning of the official opening of Jiang Hao's pharmacy, Xu Qiang only gave it a moment's thought before asking someone to invite Dr. Liu over.

Looking at Xu Qiang, who was sitting opposite him, Dr. Liu spoke calmly, 'Xu Qiang, what do you want me to come over for?'

Xu Qiang looked at Dr. Liu for a moment before smiling broadly and said, 'There is a small matter, I have taken a beating some time ago and my body feels like something is not quite right. So I would like to ask Elder Liu to take a look for me.'

It wasn't the first time that Dr. Liu had treated Xu Qiang, after all, he was the only one with a good reputation in this 30-mile Bay.

Xu Qiang was often here, and the two of them could be considered as people who did not see each other.

As he started to take Xu Qiang's pulse, Dr. Liu observed his pulse and wondered if he could take revenge for himself through Xu Qiang.

He thought that the little thief Jiang Hao was only relying on a little bit of demonic magic to show off in front of him, but he was a real Chinese doctor!

If I do something, Jiang Hao will lose a layer of skin even if he doesn't die!

At that time, he would have to meekly give up his medicine shop. A wicked smile appeared on Dr. Liu's face.

Xu Qiang looked at Dr. Liu and sneered twice before speaking, 'I heard that Dr. Liu seems to be having some bad luck lately, I wonder if that's true.'

Dr. Liu was worried about how he should tell Xu Qiang about this matter. Unexpectedly, he took the initiative to ask about it.

After a moment of silence, Dr. Liu withdrew his hand and nodded indifferently before saying, 'It's a little bit unlucky, right, there's nothing serious wrong with your body, I'll prescribe a pair of medicine for you.'

Xu Qiang nodded and then waved his hand. The people below then brought up TCM practitioner Liu's consultation money and placed it on top of the table.

'I wonder what TCM Doctor Liu thinks of that Jiang Hao?'

Even though TCM Doctor Liu wanted to use Xu Qiang to avenge himself, Xu Qiang was no good, he still knew this in his heart.

So after hearing these words. Dr. Liu looked at Xu Qiang and said in a deep voice, 'Fortunately, I don't have much of an opinion, I'm just willing to gamble and accept defeat.'

Hearing this, Xu Qiang cursed an old fox in his heart, then put on a sincere face and said, 'To be honest, the injuries on my body were inflicted by this Jiang Hao!'

Who was Xu Qiang? He was a man who walked around 30 Mile Bay!

It was not only because he was a gangster, but also because Xu Qiang himself had two brushes, so ordinary people couldn't easily help him!

Among his men, there are even a few practised men. It was because of these people that Xu Qiang was able to rise up in this 30 Mile Bay!

When he heard that even Xu Qiang had been beaten up by Jiang Hao, Dr. Liu could not help but be thankful that he had been smart that day. He didn't get into any arguments with Jiang Hao.

'Xu Qiang, since you came to me. We both have a grudge against this Jiang Hao, so just say what you have to say clearly.'

Thinking of this. Dr. Liu was fortunate enough to be open-minded, as Xu Qiang had been so frank with himself anyway, so what did he have to worry about.

Xu Qiang said with a heated smile, 'I don't know if you want to teach this Jiang Hao a lesson, but I don't share the same fate with him anyway, but I don't have a good solution at hand.'

After hearing this, Dr. Liu stroked his goatee and smiled, 'It's not that there's no way to teach him a lesson, but it's just that it's a bit tricky.'

After saying this, Dr. Liu pondered for a long time and said, 'Zhao Laosan's mother at the Lower Bay is sick and has asked me to visit her, and her time is running out.'

Hearing this, Xu Qiang's heart chilled slightly, but his hatred for Jiang Hao made Xu Qiang lost.

So he nodded before looking at Dr. Liu and spoke, 'If you say how to do this matter, then we will do it.'

He could not wait to see Jiang Hao's downfall!

If he wanted his shop, then he had to be able to take it!

After a busy day, Jiang Hao and Ying Ying both slumped back into their chairs, and because it was a free medical check-up, an unusually large number of people came.

Master Zhang sat on the counter and looked at the account book and said helplessly, 'Although there are many people here today, there are not many people buying medicine.'

Jiang Hao originally wanted to exercise his abilities and did not expect to earn money from this.

After hearing Elder Zhang's words he smiled and said, 'It's okay, fame is made little by little, Zhang Tiansheng has pushed my starting point up a little, I'm already satisfied.'

After hearing this, Elder Zhang also expressed his appreciation for Jiang Hao's such mentality, Ying Ying lay on the chair and looked towards Jiang Hao and smiled, 'Brother Jiang Hao, Ying Ying wants to work for money!'
