

Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 57

He didn't seem to see the mud that imprisoned Zoey Gu's body at all, and he didn't even realize that she was in danger of suffocation at any time.

He is more like a killer than those people.

Zoey Gu's consciousness was weak, and he looked at him with red eyes, tears flowed out of his eyes, and his heart seemed to be cut by a knife.

Liam Lu like this can save her, but it makes her desperate as if she were in hell.

Seeing that she was too late to speak, Liam Lu straightened her lips and glanced at her with a smile.

"Why... I will give you a chance to let you experience this taste more?"

After Liam Lu finished speaking, he lowered his hand to push the wheelchair to slowly retreat from her, and walked to a few men not far away.

When the men saw him, they trembled violently.

"Lu Shao spare your life, Lu Shao spare your life..."

Liam Lu remained unheard of.

When he arrived at the head of the man, he leaned slightly to look at him, squinted his eyes and asked in a soft voice.

"Tell me, which hand did you touch her just now?"

The man shuddered suddenly.

"Liam..."

People who have seen Liam Lu's fierceness dare not risk his life at all, and stretch out one of his hands tremblingly.

"This, this one..."

Liam Lu didn't look back, Shiyue had already passed the baseball pole over with a tacit understanding.

In the next second, his hands rose and his hands fell, and the baseball bat hit the back of the man's hand heavily.

"Ah..." The man howl like a pig, resounded across the sky suddenly.

Liam Lu squinted his eyes, and the baseball bat in his hand swung to the man's lower body again.

"..."

The man stopped making a sound, rolled his eyes and passed out and passed out.

Seeing this scene, the men around them all looked ashamed.

Snapped.

Liam Lu threw away the baseball bat, glanced at the man on the ground coldly, and tilted his head slightly toward Shiyue.

"Throw out Berven City. As for the remaining ones, let them have a deep understanding of what they have done to Zoey Gu before."

The more time he answered.

"Don't worry Liam, I understand."

A group of men were dragged away.

The wheelchair changed its direction and then slowly turned towards Zoey Gu's direction.

Under the light, Zoey Gu's face was as white as a ghost, and her chest was pressed by the mud, and she couldn't see the ups and downs. Only the faint breath between her nose proved that she was alive.

Liam Lu held her body and stuck her neck, seemingly satisfied with how painful and unbearable she was at the moment, squinted his eyes and asked solemnly.

"How? How do you feel about this painful struggle between life and death? Huh?"

Zoey Gu opened his eyes with difficulty.

Her breathing was intermittent in her chest, and there was a suffocation pain, but she couldn't tell whether it was her body or her heart.

Before she left her consciousness, she finally struggled and shouted, "Liam..."

It was this cry with a cry that made Liam Lu's fingers stiff and his eyes trembled fiercely.

In the next second, Liam Lu Senhan's sharp voice suddenly rang.

“Shiyue!”

When the voice fell, the men who had been guarding the side rushed over, and within a moment, he pulled out Zoey Gu from the soil.

A group of white lab coats followed.

The surrounding light is dazzling, everyone else is human, Zoey Gu is surrounded, except for the occasional sound of the instrument, no one can see.

No one knows how it is.

Even Rong Rui felt suspicious.

“My buddy, I said you played a lot this time. She is not a hard-working Zoey Gu. You treat her in this way. Will she die, you are not afraid that she hates you?”
