

My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful

Chapter 571-580

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 571-
Thinking of Charmine's decision to end their partnership, Julian knew why she did so. He scoffed coldly, "Do you think Anthony will help you after this little rendezvous of yours, Charmine? Do you think this man will forgive you like I do? What family is President Bailey from? Why would he accept an unchaste woman like you? I'm looking forward to seeing how ugly you'd be crying. I'd like to see where you can get better materials from!"

Julian then took out his phone to dial Luke's number. Sure, he did not have Anthony's contact number, but having Luke's contact number was enough!

The call went through quickly, and Julian said to Luke, "Pass this message to President Bailey: Charmine is having a date with another man in Vineman Restaurant."

Luke, on the other end of the call, was so terrified that he almost dropped his phone.

Anthony had not been in a good mood in the past few days, yet Charmine was having a date with another man? 1

Back in the restaurant, Charmine was unfazed by Julian's act. Although she knew Anthony would get jealous, if he decided to hate her merely because she had dinner with another man and decided to cut off all the deals, then a man like him did not deserve her love.

It was along that thought that another occurred to her. It would be nice for Anthony to come; she wanted to talk to him after all.

Charmine placed her hands on her waist and waited languidly on the seat.

Julian expected Charmine to be scared or would ask Tristan to leave. He did not expect her to be so calm.

‘You don’t understand men, Charmine,’ sneered Julian. “The reason I was willing to forgive you is because I owed it to you. However, President Bailey doesn’t mind your past and cared for you for so long, yet you went on a date with another man? And you even ordered a couple’s set dinner? Do you think his patience has no limit?”

‘You speak so much nonsense. Can’t you wait quietly?’ Charmine sassed haughtily.

Julian felt his temperature rising with that comeback.

Frustrated, Julian gritted his teeth. “Alright, I’ll wait here with you. Let’s see if you’ll regret it! You better think of a way to make me less angry so I’ll take you in after President Bailey dumps you!” 1

Julian had done a background check on Anthony, and he knew that Anthony was more possessive than anyone else.

How would Anthony stand it if he found out Charmine was having a couple's set dinner with another man?

Hah! He would sit and watch Charmine getting dumped!

As for the man in front of him, it was apparent that he was a spoiled, second generation rich guy who had not even seen him! What help would he be able to give Charmine?

Tristan merely sat back, relaxed, waiting for a thrilling drama to unfold. 1

It felt like a heated fight would happen...

Not long after, a tall and well-built figure appeared by the door.

Anthony was dressed in his wrinkle-free customized suit. His handsome face was ice-like, emotionless.

He came closer, one step after the other, exuding a powerful and oppressive temperament.

Charmine wanted to test the extent of Anthony's generosity, but after seeing him walk in, she thought of the 'lesson' he gave her inside the wardrobe last night.

She instinctively glanced at the heart-shaped lamp chop on the table, and her heart skipped a beat as she grew unusually anxious.

She felt as if she was caught...

When Julian saw Anthony coming in, he stood up right away and walked toward him.

“President Bailey, you’re finally here. Charmine was having a couple’s set dinner with that man there. The two of them even had wine together;

they’re enjoying themselves!”

Anthony stopped when he was a meter away from the table. His eyes landed on Charmine for a good while before looking at Tristan who sat opposite Charmine.

Tristan’s skin was incredibly fair, and he looked rather...exquisite, to put it simply. He had a look that would lure one’s soul away, as if...he was a sugar baby!

Julian continued, “I saw with my own eyes that Charmine came here with the man’s car. The two of them talked happily, and they even hugged and held hands. President Bailey, she betrayed your kindness and affection, just like how she dumped me. She’s a despicable, promiscuous woman!” Julian added on as he raised an eyebrow, looking at Charmine. 1

Hmph! He wanted to see how Charmine would scramble to win back Anthony- surely he would not waste his time on a woman like her!

As expected...

Anthony scoffed coldly, “Get out of my sight.” 1

His low voice was full of authority.

Instantly, Luke came in with two other bodyguards and walked toward them.

The sight satisfied Julian immensely-Charmine had at last enraged Anthony. She would not be as arrogant with him anymore!

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 572-
Charmine would surely look for him once Anthony dumped her!

Frowning, Tristan spoke to Charmine, “Are you not going to explain yourself?
Or are you trying to get with me?”

Charmine kept silent as she eyed Anthony.

Was Anthony not even going to ask her anything? Would he not spare her one chance and, instead, wanted her gone? Where to? What would he do to her?

Charmine felt uneasy.

She did not expect him to be this kind of man!

At that moment, two bodyguards walked toward Julian, grabbed him, and pulled him away.

Everyone was shocked.

Anthony wanted Julian out of his sight?

Julian was just as shocked as he struggled. “Did you guys grab the wrong person? You’re supposed to grab Charmine!” he growled. “Charmine betrayed your President Bailey! President Bailey, please say something!”

Anthony looked at him with his dark and oppressive eyes, his lips parted slightly,

“They’re right. I want you out of my sight.” 1

Him?

Julain halted, still struggling to get away. He asked, “Why? President Bailey, Charmine betrayed you! Charmine went on a date with another man!"

"Since when do you earn the right to insult my woman?" Anthony glared at him darkly, his questioning tone intense.

Julian frowned. Why would he need to earn the right? He was kind enough to tell him Charmine was cheating on him, yet he said he had no rights to do so?

Meanwhile, Anthony continued, "Furthermore, I must've done something wrong for Charmine to go on a date with another man. It's my fault, not hers." 1

His low voice was full of care and love.

Everyone was shocked.

Tristan, meanwhile, was riddled with questions.

What kind of logic was that?

Charmine was shocked, too. Her pupils dilated with disbelief.

Not only did Anthony not blame her for it, but he even said it was his fault and not hers?

Since when had Anthony become so considerate and thoughtful?

Darn it. Her heart raced at a breakneck speed!

Meanwhile, Anthony walked toward Charmine and sat down beside her. His big hand clasped her waist naturally as he, with his husky voice, spoke," Please tell me if you're unsatisfied with me. Don't try to get on with another man; no man is like me.”

Anthony’s eyes then shifted to Tristan nonchalantly, cold and chilly.

His arm wrapped around Charmine’s waist while her ears were filled with his magnetic and loving voice.

She knew he was acting, that he did not want Julian to win, yet her cheeks felt hot as her heart thumped wildly.

It took her one second to calm herself down. She laid on his chest and said, “Of course I’m unsatisfied. You’re on a high pedestal! Some people said that I’m not good enough for you, that I don’t have the right to be with you. Apparently, you won’t help me, and you also won’t cooperate with the Jordan Group.”

Anthony’s eyes darkened. Was Julian trying to break them up? 1

Charmine was already not happy with him, and this was not the best time for a third person to stir things up.

Above all that, it was the first time his woman complained to him. How adorable!

He glanced at Julian coldly. “It seems that President Cabell has too much time in his hands. Bring him out.

Announce to the public that whoever works with Mile-End Corporation will be going against Anthony Bailey.”

‘Yes, Sir!’ Luke and his men pulled Julian outside.

Julian’s face was pale white like a dead man.

Was Anthony trying to block him from resources? Was he blocking the entire Cabell because of Charmine? 3

The Cabell family would be over!

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 573-
Charmine leaned against Anthony languidly, her hands on her waist as she raised her eyebrows at Julian.

Hah! Did he not say Anthony would dump her, that he would not support her?

She wanted Julian to realize how shameless he was! He wanted Julian to know what true love was!

Julian's assumptions, as she thought of it again, disgusted her.

The baffled, stunned Julian was dragged out of the restaurant.

Why was Anthony so protective of Charmine? Charmine cheated on him, yet he still chose to side with her?

"President Bailey, what do you see in her that makes you want to show her such kindness? I reported to you for your own good! How could you cut out the Cabell family just like this?!"

Anthony did not answer him as if he did not hear him, merely speaking to Charmine with his arm still around her waist, "Whatever the Jordan family needs, just tell me. I'll do my best to satisfy you."

His tone was saccharine sweet.

Charmine's red lips curled up. "There's nothing much actually—I only need some raw materials of higher standards."

While the Baileys did not produce raw materials, they had all kinds of connections, including producers of better materials from overseas!

Anthony looked up and ordered Luke who was by the door, "Arrange to sign a contract with Jordan Group. Release to the press that the Bailey Corporation will fully support the Jordan Group." 1

“Yes, Sir!” Luke dutifully answered.

Julian, dragged by Luke, was completely shocked and surprised.

Why was Anthony not mad when Charmine treated him badly and went behind his back? Not just that, even-why was he still so much in love with her?

The Bailey family had never fully supported any other family!

Was Anthony insane?

Julian could not care less. The most important thing was himself!

If they cut out the Cabels, Julian would be done for. He had to think of something! 1

The restaurant fell silent and peaceful once Julian was pulled out of the restaurant. Anthony’s arm tightened around Charmine as he threw an unfriendly glance at Tristan. ‘You’re still here? Do you need me to walk you out?’

His chilly eyes were extremely oppressive.

Tristan, meanwhile, was unperturbed as he merely grinned. “Mr. Bailey doesn’t even have enough time to spend with Ms. Jordan, so why would I expect Mr. Bailey to walk me out? We’ll meet again one day, sweetie.”

Giving a small nod, Tristan stood up and left.

‘Sweetie’? He did not see Charmine for a day, and she became so close with another man. He called her ‘sweetie’?

“Clear the space,” he spoke to the server, his displeasure evident in his voice.

‘Yes, Sir!’

The servers were so terrified that they left instantly, asking all diners to leave.

Even the couple who reserved the other side of the restaurant received a call telling them not to come anymore.

Instantly, the restaurant became dead silent.

Anthony’s muscular hands pull Charmine up on his lap. He glared at her.” Charmine, would you like to explain what happened to me?”

He wanted her to pay dearly.

His kindness and gentleness were all nothing but an act for Julian to make him look like a fool.

Charmine met his gaze calmly. “Tire punctured, took a free ride, treated him to a meal as a gesture. I hope

Mr. Bailey won’t hold it against me?”

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 574-Did this man have to be so possessive?

After Anthony gave instructions to his men, he looked at her and asked, ” Do you want others to know about our collaboration?” 1

He was willing to provide everything for Charmine, but he did not know what she felt about it.

He knew Charmine was just acting in front of Julian like he did.

Charmine said, “Of course we’ll officiate our collaboration, but... The collaboration between the Baileys and Jordans shouldn’t reveal our relationship no matter what.”

Anthony frowned. So she wanted his resources and not his person?

Was he not as good as his resources?

Unusually upset, Anthony muttered, "Charmine, we've been secretive about our relationship for so long now.

When do you plan on officiating our relationship? Am I such an embarrassment to you?"

His hoarse voice was laced with a hint of displeasure.

Charmine looked at him and felt as if she had treated him wrongly. 1

At the thought of everything that had happened, however, her eyes dulled."

Anthony, let's talk."

Talk?

Anthony felt somehow uneasy.

As expected...

Charmine's eyes fixed on the poster. 'The man told me about his past-his ex girlfriend reunited with her first love.

"She insisted on being with him in the beginning, but after going through many things and changes, she realized she still loved her first love."

Anthony's eyes darkened instantly. "So?"

"So..." Charmine gazed at Anthony solemnly and, with an equally solemn expression, spoke, "I hope that we don't meet in the next ten days. During the ten days, you, Chris, and Annabel must try to get along with one another. If you still have no feelings for her after ten days, I'll believe that you no longer have feelings for her."

Anthony's eyes were hauntingly cold. "Charmine, do you not trust me at all?"

"It's not about trust. Annabel is your first love and the mother of Chris. She had been through so much for you, and you three are meant to be a family. She had been through so much, thus she deserves a happy ending. The ten days of interaction will be beneficial to you, Annabel, and me. If you start to have feelings for her again, it would prevent a tragedy from happening, don't you think?" spoke Charmine. 3

Anthony tightened his arm around her waist and pulled her closer to him.

"The tragedy is all in your head. I know who I truly love," countered Anthony.

"Don't sound too confident. You have so much history with Annabel, but what do we have? Think carefully: Do we have any memorable or heart-racing moments?

The beauty of teenage years?" Charmine glared at him.

Anthony's brows furrowed.

He seemed to have shared nothing of such with Charmine...

They did not have any memorable or heart-racing moments, nor did they have any beauty of teenage years

It was just that when he first saw her, he somehow felt that it was her all along, that she was the person he would marry.

Somehow, this feeling grew stronger and slowly became a part of him.

The stars seemed to have aligned for him... Forthem.

Seeing that he did not speak, she recalled all their memories within half a minute.

Since they first met, it was Chris trying to ship them together. Without Chris, perhaps she would not come even close to Anthony.

Still, what did a child know? The child just so happened to like her and hoped that she was his mother.

Perhaps, it was not love that Anthony felt for her. Perhaps it was just a habit, merely for the sake of satisfying

Chris' need...

Thinking of that, Charmine's eyes darkened as she insisted, "Anthony, I'm not negotiating with you-I'm telling you. I'll never do anything that I'm not confident of. If you're confident, and you're certain that you won't fall for Annabel after spending ten days with her, then prove it to me. If not...I won't be with you." 1

Her words left no room for negotiation, cold as they were.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 575- Anthony gazed at Charmine's hardened expression for a moment, and it was only after a while did his lips part as he spoke, "Alright. As you wish."

Four words, spoken with a hint of repressed love.

Anthony found himself doing his best to fulfill her wishes, but...

I've got one condition, however. If I still don't fall for Annabel in ten days, we'll get married on the eleventh day, and announce our marriage to the public." 2

Charmine frowned. Get married that fast, and had it announced to the public?

However, Anthony did mention this before. It was apparent that he was insistent about it.

She met his gaze. "Deal! If you're still as certain in ten days, I'll wait for you at the place to sign for a marriage license."

Anthony's lips parted, "Remember your promise, Charmine."

He was certain-very certain he would never get back with Annabel.

He looked forward to that day. Ten more days.

Charmine got off his lap as she stood up. "I should get going."

There was a series of stuff to sort out in the Jordan family, especially since the Jordans no longer had collaboration ties with the Cabells. Things would get even messier.

Anthony glanced at the uneaten dishes on the table. He pulled at her wrist and made her sit.

"Dine with me once more."

Without waiting for her permission, Anthony pressed on the call-bell.

Without a choice, Charmine sat back down, though she sat next to him instead of on his lap.

It did not take long before a server hastily walked toward them and presented the menu to him politely. 1

Anthony ordered the couple's set dinner menu and looked at the server." It's the actual couple this time."

His low voice sounded as if he was telling the server off.

The server nodded his head rapidly, and he fearfully answered, "Yes, President Bailey! We've made a mistake, but we'll remember from now. We won't make the same mistake again!"

Anthony did not press on and waved it off.

The server walked away as if escaping from a disaster. His back was covered in sweat as if he had just been to hell.

The terror eventually subsided into one of surprise. 1

The well-known President Bailey had a girlfriend? Was that not Charmine Jordan?

Antony Bailey was in a relationship with Charmine Jordan?!

This was a huge secret! He could not tell anyone!

Charmine looked at Anthony. "Do you really have to? This is a small matter.

Look at how you scared the server!"

"As long as it's related to you, it doesn't matter if it's a small or big matter," replied Anthony in his mellow voice.

Charmine's heart skipped a beat uncontrollably.

This man was born for the flirting game, no doubt.

It did not take long before the server brought over the dishes.

There were beef steaks and red shrimps along, with a small dish of caviar. There were also nicely-cut oranges on a smaller plate.

Most importantly, the restaurant gave out a plate of mixed chicken wings with a fruit platter for free!

The bottom of the plate was filled with dark green vegetables while the chicken wings shaped exquisitely, entangling one another. Rose petals were scattered on the plate, an exotic, rare sight to behold.

An international chef with a white beard walked over and apologized to them fluently in English, "My deepest apologies, it was a misunderstanding from our end. This is the most special couple dish in Vineman. It's called the Wings of Love, celebrating the everlasting love of a couple. I hope Sir and Madam have everlasting love."

Anthony's cold eyes lightened up slightly, and he coolly replied, "Thanks."

Hearing Anthony's reply, the main chef sighed in relief before he went back.

They were worried that Anthony might shut down Vineman Restaurant anytime...

Charmine looked at the Wings of Love and frowned. "This is huge! How're we going to finish...?"

Moreover, what was that, symbolized everlasting love? They were not even married!

Anthony's lips curled up. He used a fruit fork to fork a piece of fruit and fed it to Charmine.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 576-
'There's no hurry; we can eat slowly. It doesn't matter if we finish late.'

After all, they would not be able to meet for the next ten days after this meal.
He would rather the time

stopped at this second forever. 1

Seeing through his intention, Charmine took the fork from him and forked herself another piece of fruit. She did not want to spend too much time on this meal. The longer it was, the harder it would be to part with him.

She would rather get it over with quickly. 2

With that in mind, Charmine ate much faster.

Anthony looked at her and frowned.

Was she that impatient to part with him?

He lost his appetite at the thought.

Charmine eventually finished the fruit pieces on her plate, but when she looked up, she noticed that the food on Anthony's plate did not decrease at all.

The untouched beef steak seemed to stare Charmine in the face as though it could have said, "If this meal is unfinished, does that mean we'd never have to part?"

Anthony's gaze never wavered from Charmine, his gaze darkening as he did.
4

Charmine's once relaxed mood was instantly affected by his behavior.

Charmine frowned. "You're a man, Anthony. Can't you make less of a fuss?
It's

merely ten days, and it's not like one of US is dying." 1

“Ten days, 240 hours, 14400 minutes, 864000 seconds. Does that sound easy to you?” Anthony glared at her, his tone sounded unpleasant. 1

Anthony’s behavior baffled Charmine.

Why would he be so serious about it?

If she did nothing about it, this could go on and on...

“Don’t speak anymore, just eat,” asserted Charmine. “I’ll allow you to send me back to Jordan Group with a surprise.”

A surprise?

Anthony looked at her. She did not look like she was lying, thus he regained his appetite again.

They both left the restaurant after they were done with their meal. 1

The usually swift and sharp Anthony walked significantly slower than usual, seemingly far less efficient than his usual self. 1

Charmine was dumbfounded when she noticed that. After getting in the car, she glanced at the speedometer-merely 20 kilometers per hour...

Was Anthony actually driving the luxurious car like it was some mundane, run of-the-mill car?

If it was not for the obvious car plate that nobody dared to offend, the sound of horning would have bombarded the entire road.

Charmine did not speak; she allowed Anthony to do what he was doing.

However long he was taking, the car would eventually stop below the tree outside the Jordan Group building.

The windows were down, and nobody could see through from the outside as the windows were tinted. 1

Charmine unfastened her seatbelt.

Anthony looked at her. "Where's the surprise?"

Was she leaving just like that?

Suddenly, Charmine got up and leaned toward him. She hooked her arm around Anthony's neck and lowered her head to kiss his lips.

Anthony's body jolted slightly. His mind went blank.

Was this real? Had she just kissed him on her own volition?

The kiss was deeper than usual... She seemed serious and emotional. 1

She did not know if they would meet again in ten days. She did not know if she could get back to him. She did not know if Anthony would fall for Annabel in the following ten days.

This might very well be their last intimate interaction.

Thinking of that, her lips roved his.

Anthony, overwhelmed by Charmine's forceful, passionate kiss, allowed her to do as she pleased.

After blanking out for a moment, he suddenly lowered down his driver's seat.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 577- Anthony's move startled Charmine.

The kiss lasted for a long while.

Out of the blue, Anthony's tug pulled Charmine's clothes open by her shoulder.

Startled, Charmine blurted, "Anthony, what-"

Before she could finish her sentence, Anthony suddenly lowered his head and forcefully bit her shoulder.

"Aah!"

The pained Charmine yelped, her expression scrunching in pain as her body stiffened.

Did Anthony just bit her? 1

Luckily, a moment later, Anthony let her go.

He looked at the bleeding mark on her shoulder, a look of concern appeared on his face as he, somewhat satisfied, spoke, "Remember: you're mine." 2

His low voice resonated in the car, firm and confident.

Anthony then sat upright and took a tissue paper to wipe off the blood on her shoulder. 1

Charmine gaped, stunned at what had just happened.

He bit her so hard, just to mark his territory?

Did Anthony not know how painful it was?

Furthermore, the bite mark seemed as if it would never vanish. Even if she did not end up with him, how could Charmine see any other man?

It was as though Anthony could see Charmine's thoughts, and his gaze on her sharpened. "Trust me, I'm ready to get married in ten days. Other than me, no other man is allowed to touch you." 3

Charmine looked at his determined look and felt somewhat secured.

“Okay.”

Perhaps they truly would end up together, genuinely so, in ten days.

With this thought in mind, Charmine recomposed her clothes and pushed open the door to get out of the car.

Anthony glared at her back, his eyes darkening with determination.

Charmine could only belong to him.

Charmine did not look back. His words and the slight pain on her shoulder made her unusually secured.

It was merely ten days; she was not too concerned.

However...

She was worried about Anthony. Would he hold his end of the bargain?

He climbed up her window last night... Would he do anything in the following ten days?

With that in mind, after entering the company, she sent another text to Anthony, [Don't find me in the following ten days-not even in private.

Otherwise, the countdown starts again.] 1

Anthony watched as Charmine walked into the building when his phone suddenly rang.

Seeing that it was a text from Charmine, his lips shifted into a small smirk.

No meeting?

Hah! A weak threat, that was.. 2

Charmine walked into the lift, her mind rattled with Anthony and Annabel. Just as she got to the top floor, however, she heard noises just as the lift opened. 1

“Let me see Charmine! Where are the other Jordans? I want to see them!”

Those voices... They were Mrs. Cabell and Mr. Cabell's!

Charmine looked up to see two people standing by the door to the office. They were making a scene trying to get in while security guards were blocking them.

Mitchell yelled at the office angrily, “Charmine, come out! Don't you think hiding from US would work! We'll destroy you if you don't come out!” 1 “Oh? And how would you destroy me?

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 578- Charmine spoke to the husband-and-wife pair as she walked closer.

Charmine's voice felt like cold water splashing them as they trembled in shock. They turned back to see Charmine walking toward them.

“Charmine, you're finally back! Tell me: Why did you cancel all the contracts with the Cabells? Why did you ask Anthony Bailey to block the Cabells from getting all of the resources? The Jordans and Cabells had been working together for many years, it's an established partnership from our ancestors! But a kid like you tries to break the promise?” Mitchell yelled at her. 1

“Even if you want to break the promise, you don’t have to force US into this position! You think you can do whatever you please just because you’re rich now? You’re just a newbie, and playing with new fire will burn you!” Mrs. Cabell added on.

The pair were home when they, out of the blue, heard that the Jordans were ending all contracts with the Cabells, that the Bailey family had blocked the Cabells from everything. How could they stay home and not fuss about it?

The ends of Charmine’s red lips lifted into a small smirk as she coldly countered, “Even if I burn myself, you two will be burnt before me anyway. Instead of spending time scolding me, why don’t you go home and think of ways to save your family?”

“What’s there to think about? You’ve climbed Anthony Bailey’s bed, and he’d listen to anything you say. You must call Anthony right away; ask him to take back his words! We won’t let you go otherwise!” threatened

Mitchell. 1

Everyone in the office stared wide-eyed, unable to comprehend what they had just heard.

Charmine, in a relationship with Anthony? She slept with Anthony?

Impossible! He was practically an untouchable god! How could Charmine seduce him?

Charmine could sense what everyone else was thinking, but she felt nothing of it. "Huh? Why did Julian offend Anthony?" gibed Charmine. "Why did Anthony block him? Only he knows the reason why. Instead of blaming others, why don't he spend some time figuring out what's wrong with himself?

"Someone drag them out, now."

She would waste not a second longer on the pair.

The security guards instantly sprang into action as they reached out and grabbed the two.

If Charmine truly shared a solid connection to Anthony, they could not afford to offend this new Director!

They could only respect the woman who won Anthony's heart.

Held back by the guards, Mrs. Cabell yelled out angrily, "Charmine, do you really have to be so heartless? Don't you forget, only Julian still chose your side when you gave birth to the bastard. Only Julian was willing to marry you! How are you not grateful at all?"

"If you don't help US Cabells, we'll tell everyone about your out-of-wedlock pregnancy five years ago and you sleeping with Anthony! We'll all go down together!" Mitchell threatened. 1

Charmine's eyes, the moment she heard about the incident from five years ago, darkened.

They were still trying to threaten her with that after all these years? If Julian did not have a deal with Tiffany, if Julian did not ask her to meet at the Royal Banquet Bar, would that even happen to her?

She glared at the two, her gaze ice-cold. "Go and tell everyone. By all means, feel free to contact all media. If you could expose even one word, you lose!"

Her voice was cold yet clear, strong yet fierce.

Charmine then took out her phone and phoned Kay, "Contact those from the Network Defence Department, and have them closely monitor any negative news related to me."

"Yes, Madam!" answered Kay.

Everyone stared at her, their jaws hung low in their bewilderment.

Network Defence Department? Charmine knew people from the Network Defence Department?

The Network Defence Department was the most powerful government department in the country, and they were in charge of everything on the internet. No matter if it was Twitter, Whatsapp, or even Facebook, the department was in charge of all the powerful platforms!

This department closely monitored every post made by netizens published within one second. Should it contain inappropriate materials, such posts would be disabled, unable to be uploaded or sent.

Even if the post was successfully made, there would be a second round of monitoring. Once they scanned an inappropriate text, the department would instantly delete the post.

Impossible... Charmine knew people in such a powerful department that she even sounded as if she was giving a command?

Everyone in the company looked at Charmine differently-they looked at her with respect and awe.

They felt that their new Director was not one to be crossed...

Mitchell and Mrs. Cabell, on the other hand, were so stunned that their faces turned extremely pale.

Was Charmine not afraid of their threat? She knew the people in the Network Defence Department? Did they really have no power to make Charmine help, only able to watch as the Cabells fall into bankruptcy?

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 579-Within half a day following that, the Cabell family was, true enough, blacklisted everywhere. Within half a day, all international luxurious brands withdrew from the Cabells' Mile-End Mall.

Mile-End Mall was known for having all kinds of luxurious brands; it was once a place for the wealthy to spend their money. Without the luxurious brands, the originally prosperous Mile-End Mall turned dead.

The big and spacious mall was instantly emptied as if it was a ghost town.

Not only that, but orders of raw materials from the Cabell family were canceled as well. Many materials were returned, piling up in the storage.

Mile-End Corporation, once worth a few hundred billion, collapsed within a day.

Headlines news all over the internet included:

[The Cabell family blocked], [The Cabell family going bankrupt], [Who did the Cabells offend?].

Many tried to figure what exactly went down, but they just could not crack it.

The only people who could block the Cabells from everywhere was the Bailey family. Nonetheless, why would a high-above family like the Baileys attack the Cabells?

The Cabells' world had changed completely.

Meanwhile, at the Jordan mansion...

Charmine just arrived home, and Joey handed her a pair of slippers enthusiastically.

"Charmine, it's nice to have you home. Dinner is ready."

Everyone else waited for Charmine in the dining hall for dinner. After going through bankruptcy, everyone had become more frugal than before. They no longer had expensive seafood-it was just a simple meal.

Charmine sat down beside Senior Jordan. Just as she was about to eat, Amelia could barely help herself as she began, "Charmine, the Cabell family is blocked everywhere right now. Is this one of your doings? If we don't collaborate with the Cabells, where will we get our raw materials from?" 1

Although Amelia never asked about the business, she still knew that the Jordans had been using raw materials supplied by the Cabells. Even though the two families had broken out many times, they never ceased their partnership.

How could Charmine, upon just becoming the director, screw up their partnership that had lasted for over a hundred years?

Adam said, "Charmine had been tired working for the entire day. Eat first, and we can talk after dinner."

"Right, let's eat first. We believe that Charmine would be able to sort out," Lily quickly added on as she threw a side glance at Amelia.

Amelia was not pleased. They tolerated Charmine because they were waiting for Jordans to get back on its feet before they...

If Charmine destroyed the company, what would they do in the future?

Felix was anxious-he did not want to go back to the days when he had to starve.

Just as the Jordans were slowly regaining the glory, how could they sever their ties with the Cabells?

He smiled dryly. "Why don't we settle such a serious matter like this first? I believe none of US have the appetite to eat, no? Charmine, just say a few words. Tell US what do you have in mind so that we can feel better, alright?"

Charmine saw that even Senior Jordan did not speak. She knew that he was worried, but he did not want to wear her out and so he did not ask.

She scooped him a bowl of soup and replied, "Don't worry, I'll pick the materials at the Baileys' storage tomorrow. After sorting out the details, we'll sign the contract in two days."

Bailey?

Everyone in the dining hall stared at her wide-eyed.

"Bailey? Which Bailey?"

"Is there any other Bailey in Burlington? Of course it's that Bailey! Anthony Bailey! Boss Bailey!"

"Charmine, are you really partnering with the Bailey family? Is this true?"

Charmine said calmly, if you don't believe, just wait and see."

With that, she started eating and no longer spoke to them.

She had been working for the whole day, and all they were concerned over was whether she had destroyed the company. All they cared about were the profits.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 580-Well, lucky for the other Jordans that there was Senior Jordan. Charmine would not have returned to this family otherwise.

Sensing Charmine's displeasure, Joey quickly placed a chicken wing on her plate. "Charmine, your Auntie and Uncle are too impatient. You've been working for the whole day, so please eat more."

Senior Jordan eyed Amelia and her parents as he ordered, "From now onward, separate business concerns from familial concerns. If you have any questions, go and ask in the company. Don't bring up work-related matters at home.” 1

‘Yes, yes!’ Lily quickly replied. All that mattered was that the Jordans would not plunge into bankruptcy again.

If Charmine truly partnered up with the Bailey family, the Jordan Group would be able to get better. The Jordan family would rank up in Burlington, and each of their social positions would increase as well!

Since Amelia was the only single daughter in the Jordan family, perhaps she would end up marrying into a wealthier family...

With that in mind, Lily and her family respected Charmine even more.

After dinner, Senior, out of the blue, spoke, “Follow me, Charmine.”

Charmine followed him as they walked to the private house.

It was likely that she would only live in this private house with Senior Jordan whenever she lived in the Jordans’ compound.

As some maids had returned to the residence, the mansion was cleaned and tidied. Under the night sky, the antiques in the private area seemed rather poetic.

When they arrived at the empty pavilion, Senior Jordan stopped working abruptly. He looked at Charmine and asked, “Charmine, tell Grandpa honestly...

Are you in a relationship with Anthony Bailey?”

Wait, what?

Charmine’s brows furrowed. Why would Senior Jordan ask this question?

Senior Jordan saw right through her as she tried to come up with an excuse.

“Charmine, don’t try to fool Grandpa. Your eyes already told me the truth. Your eyes told me that there must be something between you and Anthony Bailey.”

1

His hoarse voice was confident.

Charmine did not expect him to see through her. She asked, “Grandpa, how did you...”

‘Your Grandpa has lived for eighty years! How would you keep things from me?

On your wedding day, Anthony appeared with his son. I already sensed something, but I didn’t give it much thought. However, after what happened today, the Cabells being blocked by the Baileys, while you are partnering with the Baileys? Do you think Grandpa is a fool?” Senior Jordan asked her with an amused tone.

Charmine admired his sharp senses. Other than Senior Jordan, nobody else could put two and two together. 1

After all, Antony was the high-above godly figure, while she was a woman riddled with rumors.

Furthermore, Anthony did not publicize the partnership with Jordans. He was keeping it from the public... 1

Senior Jordan looked at her and asked concernedly, “Charmine, tell me the truth. What’s the deal between you and Anthony? If you don't tell me, I won't be able to sleep tonight."

"We..." Charmine's eyes narrowed, and after thinking of a way to put it, she said, "We're just friends who admire one another and have good feelings for each other. We're still in the early stage now, but if I've decided to be with him, I'll tell you right away."

"No. You cannot be with Anthony! Since you two are still in the early stage, cut it off right away!" Senior

Jordan's face darkened as he opposed it nervously yet gravely. 2

Charmine frowned. "Why so?"

"Do you remember the list I gave you last night?" Senior Jordan asked.

Charmine thought of the list. Right, there was a page of information on Anthony but he was crossed out.

Why would Senior Jordan and Dr. Weir cross Anthony out from the list they prepared?
