

Super Rich Dad Chapter 587-588

Chapter 587

After leaving the project department in the south of the city, Jiang Hao's eyes were already dizzy and he couldn't see how Qiao San was leading him.

He only had a vague feeling that someone seemed to be picking up Qiao San all the way. They had even switched between two cars.

After he had gotten a little better, Jiang Hao smiled bitterly as he took stock of the bandages he was wrapped in.

Qiao San sat opposite Jiang Hao and looked at him with a pale face and a hint of relief in his eyes.

Jiang Hao looked at Qiao San and nodded his head. For a moment there was some emotion not knowing what to say.

As a result, it was Qiao San who took the lead and said, 'You shouldn't have come back this time, there's no need for Chu Jiang to stay any longer.'

Jiang Hao shook his head. Despite being in great pain all over his body, he still managed to sit up with strength.

'There are some things I can never let go in my heart if I don't come back to take a look, I'm sorry for getting so many people killed.'

Qiao San shook his head and sighed, 'It doesn't matter, this was meant to be a line for you, the worry was that you would come back.'

After saying this Qiao San looked at Jiang Hao and continued to speak, 'We lost a lot in the battle of Ping Yang Valley, now you are our last hope, do you know that?'

Jiang Hao naturally knew this. He had always known it, ever since he had obtained and fused with Shangdian.

Jiang Hao even felt a little heavier with the responsibility he was carrying!

'Have you seen Yu Ning, and Yun Jie, after Ping Yang Valley?'

A hint of playfulness flashed across Qiao San's eyes before he looked at Jiang Hao and shook his head, 'I know Xue Yu Ning's words, she was brought to the Northern Province in a serious coma and I heard she was still recuperating.'

After saying this, Qiao San hesitated slightly before continuing to speak, 'But Yun Jie's case is more complicated, I'm not very clear about her whereabouts on my side.'

Jiang Hao frowned and shook his head somewhat helplessly before speaking, 'I contacted my classmates when I returned earlier, and someone told me that they had all been taken away by a group of men in black.'

Qiao San looked towards Jiang Hao and shook his head with a bitter smile. He could see the hopefulness in Jiang Hao's eyes.

But only a small portion of those men in black who took away Jiang Hao's intimacy were his own, the remainder were, basically, Chu Yuan's men.

But in the face of Jiang Hao's eyes, Qiao San really didn't know how to tell him about this matter.

So he simply kept silent, as if to leave Jiang Hao with a thought.

Jiang Hao looked at Qiao San's silent look and although he was a little disappointed in his heart, he knew that he must have done his best.

So with a slight shake of his head he fell silent, and the two men just stared at the floor face to face in disbelief.

The dimly lit room concealed Qiao San's increasingly pale cheeks. He looked towards Jiang Hao and opened his mouth to speak several times.

But in the end, he was interrupted by the pain of his wounds, and Jiang Hao looked at Qiao San's strange face.

Only then did he exit and ask, 'What's wrong. Are you alright?'

When Qiao San saw that Jiang Hao didn't notice the abnormality in his body, he took a deep breath and smiled, 'It's nothing serious, it's just a few small injuries, I have something I want to discuss with you.'

In the end, Jiang Hao was not a person who could not listen to words. Right now, the only person he could trust was Qiao San.

After nodding slightly at his words, Jiang Hao said, 'Go ahead, I'll listen.'

Qiao San looked at Jiang Hao in silence for a long time, and only after his body had slightly adapted to the pain of the wound did he say, 'The momentum on Chu Jiang's side is already gone, so you'd better not stay here. Leave early.'

As he said this, a hint of pleading flashed in the eyes of Qiao San as he looked towards Jiang Hao.

Although Jiang Hao saw it, he still had some nagging feelings about what Chu Yuan had done, and was unwilling to just walk away!

'If I just walk away, how will Chu Yuan be pleased and what will the people of Chu Jiang think of me?'

Jiang Hao emphasized his reason for staying with just a soft, rhetorical question!

Qiao San looked at Jiang Hao's stubborn look and said helplessly, 'You may think so, but do you think you're still living for gambling now?'

‘Your father could kneel for the continuation of the bloodline, can’t you save yourself for the blood feud of so many of us?!’

As he spoke. Qiao San violently spat out a mouthful of blood on the ground and looked tragically at Jiang Hao!

‘I’m almost out of it. Just think of me, Qiao San, as begging you alright, leave. You can’t stay in Chu Jiang any longer!’

Jiang Hao watched as Qiao San was stunned and hurriedly went up to wipe the blood from the side of Qiao San’s mouth with his hand, ‘Uncle Qiao what’s wrong with you. What’s wrong with you, don’t scare me!’

Qiao San laughed miserably and shook his head, ‘Let’s go, we can’t stay here any longer, hurry up and leave!’

After saying this, Qiao San took out a bank card from his body and handed it to Jiang Hao!

‘This is the one your father handed to me before, it has been laundered more than twenty times, it won’t be checked by anyone, you have to take it!’

Jiang Hao looked down at the bank card in his hand, slightly shook his head with mist in his eyes and looked towards Qiao San and said, ‘No, I don’t want it, just get well, let’s go to the hospital!’

Qiao San gripped Jiang Hao’s hand a few points tighter shaking his head and said, ‘I’m not saved, you have to remember what I’m going to say next!’

‘Cough cough cough, the password, the password is your birthday, there’s five billion clean dollars inside the card!’

Jiang Hao looked down at the bank card in surprise: ‘What’s all this money for, Uncle Qiao, don’t fall asleep, you tell me.’

Qiao San’s eyes were already a bit open, lying down in Jiang Hao’s arms with his lips twitching gently not knowing what he was saying.

Only when Jiang Hao helped him up and put his ear to his lips did he vaguely hear the two words that Qiao San had been chanting: ‘Revenge!’

These two simple words were perhaps Qiao San’s last words!

Jiang Hao looked at Qiao San, whose breath was fading, and hugged his corpse for a long time without saying anything.

Only tears fell onto Qiao San’s corpse!

‘Uncle Qiao, you go on your way first, I’ll send them to you soon!’

After saying this, Jiang Hao laid Qiao San’s corpse on the bed in a regular manner.

Then looking at Qiao San's corpse, he continued, 'Not one of them will be missing, not one of them will be missing! You can just watch from heaven!'

Having said this, Jiang Hao carried Qiao San out of the house, only to discover that they were in a deep mountain!

Jiang Hao buried Qiao San and then put his bank card in his pocket.

Then he changed his clothes and walked out!

He swore that even if he had to leave Chu Jiang, he would make the Chu family pay!

The Shen family overseas is very big, if they offend him, he will still kill the Shen family in the sky and turn the world upside down!

He couldn't accept Qiao San dying in his arms like that, Jiang Hao knew what he had to do!

Chapter 588

After burying Qiao San, Jiang Hao rested in the mountain for two days.

During these two days, Jiang Hao was not only using his True Qi to heal himself, but also to study the teachings of Shen Haoting.

At the beginning, Shen Haoting had wanted to teach Jiang Hao cultivation, but for various reasons Jiang Hao could not start well.

It was only during the battle of Ping Yang Valley that Shang Dian fused into Jiang Hao's body. Only then was he able to start his cultivation.

However, because he had just fused Shangdian, Jiang Hao was unable to use his true qi to carry out his entire body when his body quality was improved.

He took the opportunity to expand the meridians throughout his body to be able to run more true qi.

But then this time, Jiang Hao was able to make up for his serious injury!

How many secrets were there in Shangdian perhaps not many people from the Shen family clan had studied it thoroughly. But Jiang Hao found out.

In Shang Dian when, the body was like a well of water. By constantly tapping into one's potential, one's abilities would be improved accordingly!

This was something Jiang Hao was doubly amazed by, no matter what he discovered when he used his true qi to save people in the fishing village, or this time with his true qi cultivation!

In just two days' time, Jiang Hao's external wounds had already healed without medicine, and I believe that if Shen Haoting had seen it, he would have been amazed by it!

By the time the next evening came, Jiang Hao had carried an empty bag and then sneaked into Chu River.

Ever since Jiang Hao showed up in Chu Jiang, there were countless people who had flocked to Chu Jiang because of the bounty offered by the Shen family overseas!

They knew that Jiang Hao was not someone easy to deal with, and there were quite a few people who were not capable enough but dreamed of the what-if outcome!

These people might not be able to match Jiang Hao in terms of ability. But so many pairs of eyes also made it slightly difficult for him.

In particular, Chu Yuan was no fool, ever since Jiang Hao had injured himself on the South City project and fled.

He had sensitively noticed that Jiang Hao was different from before, it was as if he was a different person!

His fierceness, venom, and the red pupils that looked at him had made Chu Yuan unable to even sleep well in the past two days.

Every night Chu Yuan needed to check his safety through the intercom placed in his room and would hide at the slightest accident!

Perhaps Jiang Hao didn't even think that the young master of the Chu family had turned into a bird of prey because of what happened two days ago!

Time passed slowly, and when it was completely dark, Jiang Hao put on his mask and hood.

He followed the tide of people past the Chu family. Then like a deft cat, he scurried to a corner and hid.

Although he didn't know much about the Chu family, Jiang Hao took out the device that interfered with the surveillance apparatus and wore it on his wrist just in case.

This way he would just need to avoid the eyes of some people and there would be no problems.

Chu Yuan was looking at the information in his bedroom, not even noticing that Jiang Hao had already killed back, and he hadn't even realised the danger that was coming.

In the night, from time to time, people in the Chu family fell down in a daze, life and death unknown.

If the rounds were fought alone, the whole Chu River might not be able to find a few people who could stand up to Jiang Hao.

So after avoiding the eyes and ears of people outside. Jiang Hao naturally became more relaxed and sneaked along incomparably smoothly.

Just around the corner of a corridor Jiang Hao saw Chu Yuan's bedroom, and then a cold light flashed in his eyes.

After quietly turning off the lights in the corridor, Chu Yuan, who was sitting inside the room, had not yet noticed anything.

He casually picked up the intercom and asked, 'Report the situation at the gate post.'

There was a moment of silence over the intercom, and then a male voice answered back in a flat voice: 'The situation at the main gate is safe and sound.'

After hearing this reply. Chu Yuan's heart was relieved and he hatefully got up and walked to his big bed.

He muttered, 'I blame that damned wild dog, if it wasn't for him I would have become like this!'

After saying this Chu Yuan flopped down on his bed and drifted off to sleep, but not for long.

A strange voice suddenly sounded in his ears, 'Really. I didn't expect you to think of me so much.'

Chu Yuan opened his eyes the first time and rolled on the bed without even looking!

His hand sharply reached under his pillow as if he wanted to take out something, but he didn't feel it, so that a look of shock appeared on his face!

Jiang Hao sat on the sofa next to the bed looking at Chu Yuan like a clown, 'What, are you looking for this thing?'

As he spoke, Jiang Hao took out a gun that had been dismantled into parts in his hand and threw it in front of him.

'I thought you could still be as tough as you were that day, but I didn't expect you to have been cowardly enough to put something like this under your own pillow.'

With those words, Jiang Hao looked at Chu Yuan mockingly. It was as if he was looking at an animal to be slaughtered!

Chu Yuan looked at Jiang Hao in horror, 'You you you, how did you get in here?! No. This can't be!'

He said as he backed up until he was leaning against the wall Chu Yuan's eyes were still looking at Jiang Hao in terror!

'Don't you come any closer. There are all my men outside now, you'll die here if I call out!'

Jiang Hao snorted a laugh. Shaking his head slightly he sighed, 'You still haven't seen clearly what kind of situation you're facing.'

As he spoke, Jiang Hao walked up to Chu Yuan and viciously stomped on his thigh!

The full force of the entry-level intermediate force caused Chu Yuan's thigh to instantly shatter, and he looked at Jiang Hao in a dumbfounded manner.

Then looked down at his thigh for a moment as if he hadn't reacted!

'I told you, you'll pay the price, and today I'm here to collect what I deserve.'

As soon as the words left his mouth, without waiting for Chu Yuan to cry out in pain, Jiang Hao collected his sword and dropped it to collect Chu Yuan.

Carrying the bag in his hand, Jiang Hao easily walked to Chu Yuan's father's room.

He was not so frightened as Chu Yuan, lying on the bed as if he had seen everything.

After hearing the sound of the door he simply spoke in a hoarse voice, 'Is it coming?'

Jiang Hao turned and closed the door behind him, then put down the bag in his hand and sat on his knees in the doorway and nodded, 'Well, it's here.'

After saying this, he opened the bag and a spherical object rolled out from inside.

'I've already collected your son's, it's still missing yours.'

Chu Yuan's father laughed miserably twice when he heard this, 'I knew this day would come, a long time ago, but don't think you'll leave so easily either.'

Jiang Hao just shook his head with a bitter smile at these words, whether he could leave easily or not, this was something he had to do.

Only he had just gotten up and walked to the bedside when he was slightly surprised to find that the old man in front of him was already dead.

'Heh, you're quite decisive, only did you think I wouldn't take your head this way?'

A slice of knife light fell and put the two into a bag, Jiang Hao sat down on his chair and hesitated for a moment.

Then he walked to the old man's desk and took down a brush, dipping it in scarlet blood and writing, 'Collect the interest first today, Shen Tianyang, I will execute your whole clan in three years!'
