

Chapter 587

Here, Suzi also came to Rayna: "Here you are."

Rayna: "Thank you, Mrs. Fu."

"Go up. The eyes are red from crying. After a while, go up and wash your face with this facial cleanser and apply this skin care product. You can touch the tears you have cried." Suzi said.

She didn't ask a word about Rayna and her mother's housework.

Suzi doesn't gossip.

What does her family dispute have to do with her?

The so-called family has scriptures that are difficult to recite.

The three people got on the elevator at the same time, and the elevator doors closed.

Behind him, more than a dozen male and female colleagues appeared quietly.

They came just now, but no one dared to take the elevator with Suzi, so they all hid. This would allow them to see Suzi, Galia and Rayna go up.

"I think Suzi is really good. She has such a powerful husband. She didn't rely on pets and pride, nor did she use her husband to oppress others."

"I also think Mrs. Fu is pretty good. A few days ago, I thought she was reticent, but now it seems that she is actually quite cheerful."

"Moreover, it's very big. You see, she can forgive even Rayna, and she gave Rayna such high-end skin care products, which is really good."

"Hey, Ge Meilin, in fact, you don't need to worry. Look, Rayna treated Suzi the way he did. Suzi forgave Rayna. You just said a little bit of bad things about Rayna. I believe Mrs. Forgot."

The woman named Ge Meilin nodded with a smile: "I hope she can forgive me, anyway, I didn't do anything wrong."

The elevator came again, and a group of people went up together. This morning, the office is busy.

Suzi is also busy and fulfilling.

She hurried out several drawings last night, and as soon as she entered the office, she communicated with several designers in the company.

There were men and women, and she yelled together.

"Let's take a look together, what good advice do you give me, and you also take out your drawings, so that we can learn from each other's knowledge points, what do you think?" Suzi looked at My designer colleagues asked one by one.

Even the female colleagues who had squeezed her out, Suzi didn't care about them.

At the very least, she treats everyone equally at work and is very humbly asking for advice and teaching.

Several female colleagues were very moved.

They suddenly discovered that Suzi was actually right and wrong.

Moreover, as long as you treat her well, she will definitely remember it in her heart.

Female colleagues nodded one after another, willing to discuss together.

At this point, a professional woman with long wavy hair came to the design department with a box of coffee in her hand and shouted in a very high-profile manner: "Designer Shen, what do you think I gave you? Green Mountain Coffee. This is When I went abroad last time, I brought it back from abroad and gave it to you."

Suzi immediately pinched his nose and screamed without hesitation: "Stay away from me, I don't drink coffee!"

Ge Meilin: "..."

Ge Meilin was crying, nor was it time to laugh, but she heard the hurried shouts of the front desk behind her.

"Sir, sir, who are you looking for, sir..." As soon as the voice of the small front desk fell, a man in a suit and leather shoes had strode to the office where Suzi was located.

When Suzi turned around, Jing said that it was unfavorable: "You...what are you doing here?"

Chapter 588

As soon as Suzi's words fell, he heard footsteps coming one after another in the aisle.

Suzi was a little puzzled. He immediately put aside his work and came to the design department. At that end, he saw the vice president who manages the company's operations, the executive, the business, and all the top executives in the company. Came here in a hurry.

"What happened?" Ge Meilin, who just wanted to give Suzi Lvshan Coffee, looked out of the unknown. It didn't matter.

Actually saw the man standing at the door.

At this time, Suzi had already come to the man. She looked left and right, looked forward and backward, and then asked quietly: "You...Why did you come here? Why did you come to our company suddenly? What are you..."

Arron's tone was calm and cold: "Did you Suzi start the company?"

Suzi: "No."

"Then why can't I come?" Arron asked rhetorically, and then said: "I can come for many reasons. The Fu Group is first of all a client of this architectural design company. As a client, I will come to my next company. At first glance, it's normal!"

Suzi: "..."

Behind him, a group of executives nodded and bowed, looking at Arron.

"Four Lord, you...what brought you here?" This was the extremely complimentary tone of the personnel director, but even so, the personnel director was scared into a cold sweat.

Just kidding!

The king of the entire South City!

The largest company in Nancheng, the highest power holder of the Fu Group.

And it's a man who kills and talks and laughs!

At this moment, this man actually came to this small and medium-sized architectural design company similar to a studio?

The personnel director is very confused, Siye Fu is here, why are you here? He couldn't figure it out, so he was shocked in a cold sweat.

When the personnel director greeted Arron, other executives nearby also said it.

"Siye, you have everything in your hands, why did you come to our company suddenly, Siye, please come to the VIP room, where there are good tea and sofas, what do you need, if you check the accounts, our finance will accompany you. If you visit, we will follow you..." the company's executive vice president asked respectfully.

"No need." Arron made three short words.

His eyes were focused on Suzi's face.

She had just come to work for less than two hours, so why was she so busy, she was so busy with beads of sweat on her small and exquisite nose.

"Why are you so busy?" Arron lifted his wrist and took out a kerchief from his suit pocket and gently wiped the sweat from the tip of his nose for Suzi.

Suzi: "..."

Everyone present: "..."

At this time, a figure not far away was directly stunned at the moment.

That figure is Lanita.

Lanita was discharged from the hospital early in the morning yesterday morning for Master Shu. However, the discharge procedure was only half done. Darius came back to the hospital.

Seeing that his grandfather was discharged from the hospital so quickly, Darius naturally understood why.

He couldn't prevent the old man from leaving the hospital. She could only ask the people in the military hospital to do a full examination again before the old man was discharged from the hospital.

The old man finished his inspection, it was already more than three o'clock in the afternoon.

At seven o'clock in the evening, they took a plane from Kyoto to Nancheng, and arrived at Shu's house at night.

Lanita stayed at her grandfather's house all night, and the summer driver sent Lanita back to her home early the next morning.

Come in, I saw Moira's nose and face swollen. Not only that, Moira, who was lying on the bed, was lying with his legs spread out, and he didn't even pass the shorts.
