

Super Rich Dad Chapter 594-596

Chapter 594

Three days had passed since the last incident, and Master Zhang had become dazed after he woke up.

He would only occasionally shout 'Ying Ying be careful!' late at night. or something like that.

Jiang Hao knelt in front of Yingying's grave and smoked one cigarette after another.

'Ying Ying, brother Jiang Hao is useless. Didn't protect you well.'

After saying this, Jiang Hao looked at Ying Ying's tombstone and stroked it with his hand, 'Wait, brother will take revenge for you, I will!'

After saying these words. Jiang Hao got up and walked down the hill where Yingying was buried.

At the bottom of the hill Chen Qi sat in his car and watched Jiang Hao descend the hill, then greeted him and said in a deep voice: 'How about it. Have you thought about where you're going?'

Saying this, Chen Qi opened the car door, then took Jiang Hao's luggage and put it on.

Jiang Hao looked at Chen Qi and nodded, then spoke, 'I've already thought about it, if there's no accident I'll go to the Northern Province.'

Hearing Jiang Hao's words, Chen Qi frowned, those people in black hadn't completely left the place during this time.

They had even placed quite a few eyes and ears here, day and night!

Thinking of this, Chen Qi shook his head and said with a flat expression, 'The distance is a bit too far for me to send, you have to be careful, that group of people are still watching outside.'

Jiang Hao smiled after moving his body a bit. Then he lit himself a cigarette and said, 'Don't worry, I'm already grateful that you guys helped me last time!'

Chen Qi shook his head slightly and laughed bitterly, 'Don't be like that, if we had come a bit earlier, that little girl Ying Ying might not have died.'

Jiang Hao no longer wanted to delve into the right and wrong of the matter, just like what Elder Qian had said that night.

He was not a member of this circle at all, so what was the need to get involved in this muddle.

Thinking of this Jiang Hao shook his head with a bitter smile and stretched out his hand on Chen Qi's shoulder and said, 'As I said, I'm already grateful that you guys are here!'

Chen Qi looked at Jiang Hao's resolute face and shook his head with a bitter smile, then spoke back, 'Let's get in the car first.'

After waiting to get into the car. Chen Qi pointed to the box placed in the back seat and said, 'Inside are some documents, legal of course, that you can use on the road.'

Jiang Hao reached for the box and opened it, inside were some identity documents quietly placed, as well as a bit of money and cheques.

Of course, only the identity documents were the things Jiang Hao needed most, as for the money.

When Qiao San had died, he had left himself a whole five billion dollars. This was already enough for him to do something!

But Chen Qi and Qian Lao didn't know about this matter, so Chen Qi watched a strange look flash in Jiang Hao's eyes when he looked at the money.

So he said with a light laugh, 'This is Elder Qian's intention. They will inevitably need to use these things on the road, so consider it his investment in you.'

Jiang Hao laughed bitterly twice at his words, then shook his head and put the things away and said, 'Well, did he say anything else?'

Chen Qi nodded and spoke, 'Master Qian said so. He can only help you so far this time, the rest of the way you will have to walk on your own.'

But here Chen Qi hesitated slightly, then looked at Jiang Hao and continued, 'Are you sure you want to go to the Northern Province, there. It's a bit uneventful.'

Jiang Hao naturally knew what Chen Qi meant when he heard this, and guessed that Qian Lao had already told him all about his identity.

So looking at the worry in Chen Qi's eyes, Jiang Hao couldn't help but smile and shook his head as he spoke, 'Being watched by them, what place in this world is absolutely safe.'

Here Jiang Hao paused, then said in a deep voice, 'I have a reason for having to go to the North Mansion, tell the old man for me that I, Jiang Hao, will definitely pay back what I owe him.'

Chen Qi gave a bitter smile, 'I also hope you can pay it back, after all, Missy also told me before. Saying that we might one day ask for it back from you.'

Although this statement wasn't exactly flirtatious, it seemed a bit black humour at the moment.

Jiang Hao smiled along with a related laugh. Then he looked at Chen Qi and said, 'Don't worry, if that day really comes I won't hesitate.'

Chen Qi looked at Jiang Hao and let out a deep sigh. Although Jiang Hao said that he was grateful that they had come and so on.

But in the end, there was still a hint of grudge in Jiang Hao's heart ah.

After all, they were the ones Qian Lao wanted to invest in. Chen Qi pondered slightly for a moment before saying softly, 'With Ying Ying dead and Elder Zhang being taken care of by the Qian family, then have you thought about Zhang Tian Sheng and the others.'

Jiang Hao shook his head slightly, according to reason Zhang Tiansheng didn't have much to do with him.

It was just that thinking about Ying Ying's death, Jiang Hao inexplicably felt in his heart as if he had lost money to the Zhang family.

Then with some hesitation, he spoke, 'Is there any good solution on your side?'

Jiang Hao knew that the reason why Chen Qi said that must be because he had some solution before he opened this mouth.

As expected, Chen Qi smiled slightly after hearing Jiang Hao's words and then spoke, 'I plan to let them enter the Qian family as well, but not after that headless guy Qian Haowen.'

Jiang Hao looked at Chen Qi with some surprise, 'Do you know what you are talking about, Qian Haowen is also considered your half master, right?'

A cold light flashed in Chen Qi's eyes when he heard this, then he lowered his head and took a deep breath and said, 'Remember, I am not anyone's dog!'

Only after saying this did Chen Qi continue to speak, 'The reason for this is that I am worried that Qian Haowen will one day bring great trouble to the Qian family, so consider Zhang Tiansheng as my own investment.'

Jiang Hao nodded slightly before glancing at Chen Qi apologetically and said, 'Alright, I'm sorry for what just happened.'

Chen Qi waved his hand and spoke, 'Forget it, I also know that although I am nominally a disciple of the Qian family, I have a good idea of how the people below see me.'

Jiang Hao took a deep drag of his cigarette and exhaled a faint smoke: 'What does it matter, who lives in this world is not a pawn.'

He had seen through this point a long time ago, if he didn't have enough interest, Qian Lao wouldn't have said he was investing in himself.

And if Qian Lao didn't have enough interest, he wouldn't have made those men in black so scornful of him.

For three whole days, not only those men in black, but even Shen Tianyang could only hold his tongue down after knowing about this matter.

The crowd was so hard that they didn't dare to take a step into the 30-mile bay, so it was clear that Qian Lao's tactics!

Thinking about this matter, Jiang Hao looked at Chen Qi somewhat strangely and said, 'What exactly is that Third Section that Qian Lao called for that night?'

Hearing this, Chen Qi looked at Jiang Hao with deep meaning in his eyes before speaking, 'If you continue to hang around in this circle, you will know one day.'

Chapter 595

Chen Qi laughed and dealt with Jiang Hao before driving to Shangwan Railway Station, Lower Bay was no longer safe.

Those men in black had planted quite a few eyes in Ha Wan, Jiang Hao would only die if he showed up there!

Obviously Jiang Hao knew this too. Despite his reluctance, Chen Qi's route remained silent.

After waiting for almost two hours, Chen Qi brought Jiang Hao to a halt at the entrance of the train station.

'Some words are from my personal heart, if you can listen to them then write them down. If you can't listen to them, just think of me as nagging.'

Jiang Hao, who was about to get off the train, smiled slightly at his words. Then he sat down and looked at Chen Qi and smiled.

Chen Qi was a very interesting person, and thinking back to their first meeting, Jiang Hao couldn't help but be a little curious about Chen Qi!

Chen Qi looked at Jiang Hao and shook his head with a bitter smile, 'In fact, there is no right or wrong in this world at all, right or wrong only arises according to the position.'

After saying this, he paused then continued to speak, 'There are some things you don't need to take so seriously, but there are some responsibilities that you must remember!'

Jiang Hao nodded in silence, 'Don't worry, I'll write it down, is there anything else you want to say?'

Chen Qi smiled and took out a box from his body and said, 'This is what Qian Lao asked me to give you, he said you will definitely use this on your way.'

Jiang Hao took the box and opened it to look at it. Inside was a small prop box that could be used to disguise himself.

After touching his face Jiang Hao spoke somewhat helplessly, 'It looks like I'm like those men in black now, I can't even have my face.'

Chen Qi didn't know what to say for a while, but he could only reach out and pat Jiang Hao's shoulder as a comfort.

After Jiang Hao got off the bus, Chen Qi looked at his back and took out his mobile phone and called Qian Lao: 'Old Master, Jiang Hao has already departed.'

On the other end of the phone, Qian Lao was sitting in the back garden, watching the servants serving Elder Zhang and nodded: 'Well, did he say anything.'

Chen Qi shook his head slightly, 'No, he seems to have accepted his current situation, I'm just a little worried. Can he really listen to those words?'

Qian Lao smiled before speaking, 'Don't worry, he's not some unusual person, just come back, what we can do is done.'

Qian Lao then hung up the phone, this time to save Jiang Hao although he looked strong on the surface.

But secretly he didn't know what price he had to pay to uncover this matter!

Shen Tianyang was no ordinary person, he also had people he could control who could cause some trouble for him.

This was something he had already thought about when he first planned to save Jiang Hao, but when he thought that Jiang Hao had saved his life after all, he decided to take action!

Sitting in the back garden, Qian Lao looked up at the somewhat gloomy sky and sighed, 'It's really a troublesome thing.'

On the other side of the train station. Jiang Hao took out the document that Qian Lao had prepared for him and looked at it.

The photo on the document was of a strange man whose name was Shen Yan. He looked four or five points similar to himself.

After shaking his head with a bitter smile, Jiang Hao went to the bathroom, then took out his make-up box and began to disguise himself in comparison to the man in the photo.

After looking at his face in the mirror, which looked about twenty-one or twenty-two years old, with a slight moustache, he touched his cheek with some discomfort.

Then he closed his eyes and used his true qi to slightly modify the frontal bone of his face to make himself more similar to this man.

After doing all this Jiang Hao put his things away. He changed into a slightly straighter suit for himself.

He stretched out his hand and gently exercised his true qi, feeling the flow of true qi in his hand Jiang Hao knew that he had successfully advanced that night!

It was just that he was a little afraid to conclude whether he was at the later stages or had stepped over that hurdle and gone straight to the Realm of Transformation.

Slightly shaking his head. Now was not the time to delve into these matters.

Walking out of the washroom Jiang Hao went to the ticket hall and bought a ticket to the Northern Province, looking at the time there was still a while to go, he found a place to sit down and rest quietly.

Although Jiang Hao had his eyes closed, he could still feel the eyes of some people looking at him from time to time.

It was only after these gazes glanced at him for a while that they turned to other places.

Noticing this, Jiang Hao couldn't help but refresh his knowledge of these men in black once again, it didn't look like they were all idiots.

Knowing that not only should they watch the lower bay, they should also put some people in the upper bay to keep an eye on it.

I just didn't know if this move was made by Shen Tianyang or that mysterious team leader that day.

Waiting slightly for a while. A female voice suddenly rang out from the waiting hall.

'The d3358 train to Beifu is about to depart, so please prepare to board the train with your belongings if you want to get on.'

Jiang Hao opened his eyes and looked at his ticket. Then he picked up the case at hand and stood in line to board the train.

During this time he looked at those people sitting in the waiting hall with newspapers in their hands, occasionally glancing at the people passing by.

He thought to himself, 'Wait for it. Sooner or later I will come back and make you all pay!'

As he boarded the train, Jiang Hao went into the soft sleeper he had booked and put his luggage down.

Then he drew up the curtains and stared. He began to contemplate where he was going to look for Xue Yuning after he arrived at the Northern Province this time.

Jiang Hao didn't know if Qiao San had anyone in Beifu, and Jiang Hao was even more confused about their contact details before.

Before Qiao San handed him the card, he had said straight away that Xue Yuning was in Beifu, but had not said where she was in Beifu.

After all, it was a city with a population of several million, and to find Xue Yuning from it would be a nightmare!

After a slight hesitation, Jiang Hao took out his mobile phone and started to search for some famous Chinese hospitals in BeiFu.

He felt that with his current ability, it was not impossible to infiltrate the Chinese hospital, and he might be able to find Xue Yuning through it.

After taking a slight look at some of the Chinese hospitals in BeiFu, Jiang Hao locked his eyes on a Chinese hospital in the centre of BeiFu.

This was because people who could live here generally had a certain status and it would be more convenient for him to learn the information he needed.

There was also the fact that Qiao San knew how he felt about Xue Yuning, and he would certainly not arrange for her to stay in an ordinary place.

After thinking of what he would do next, Jiang Hao put down the things in his hands and lay down on his bed.

The events of these days had left Jiang Hao's entire body in a deep state of exhaustion.

Thinking about what Chen Qi had said to himself when he was leaving, was that something Chen Qi wanted to tell himself, or was it something Elder Qian had entrusted to him to pass on.

Shaking his head slightly, Jiang Hao put these matters to the back of his mind.

Right now, finding Xue Yu Ning was the most important thing, he really wanted to see her too much!

Chapter 596

The train slowly started up, and Jiang Hao sighed with relief as he looked out the window at the scenery flying by.

He had escaped Shen Tianyang's pursuit after all, but he didn't know what price Master Qian would pay for it.

Lying in bed, Jiang Hao slowly fell asleep, this was a two-day journey from the northern capital. He took advantage of these two days to rest and recuperate.

Just as Jiang Hao was heading to the Northern Province, Shen Tianyang looked at his men with a gloomy expression!

'I told you to bring him back to me, but this is how you do it? Where's the man? Ran away?'

'I could have kept an eye on him with two hundred f*cking pigs, what's the use of you guys?'

The continuous storm of angry speaking scoldings made a group of people below shudder. They knew that someone was definitely going to be unlucky this time!

Shen Tianyang looked at the leader of the black-clothed group kneeling below with gloomy eyes and said, 'What is the name of the man who saved Jiang Hao from your men that day. Qian Lao?'

The man in black nodded as he knelt on the ground and spoke, 'That's right, and he called Section 3 directly at that time, that's why I didn't dare to leave rashly.'

Shen Tianyang laughed coldly, grabbed a teacup in his hand and threw it directly at the head of the black-clothed team leader!

'So what if it's the third section! You're afraid of them and not of me, aren't you! From today onwards, you don't have to sit in this position anymore!'

The man at the bottom saw the leader of the black-clothed group fall to the ground motionless, so he hurriedly crawled over and tested his nostrils.

After trembling slightly, the man looked towards Shen Tianyang and said in a trembling voice, 'He, he's dead.'

Shen Tianyang shook his head slightly at his words, 'If he's dead, he's dead, drag him down, contact the people in the upper and lower bay and ask them if they have found any suspicious subjects!'

After he was out of breath, Shen Tianyang slowly regained his senses. Then he looked at the people below and said, 'Call this guy's family for five million dollars and tell them to shut up to anyone.'

Two people suddenly flashed out from below and knelt on the ground and bowed to Shen Tianyang and said, 'Yes!'

Then they dragged the corpse and retreated, not forgetting to dry the blood on the ground as they left!

Shen Tianyang looked at the people below and got a little distracted, these people didn't know anything at all!

None of them knew why they wanted Jiang Hao so desperately, nor did they even know how important Jiang Hao was to them!

That's why they made such a low-level mistake!

The third section? Jokes, he wouldn't believe that a mere provincial abdicator would have anything to do with Section 3!

It was just that Jiang Hao was gone after all, and if he used that person to vent his anger, he might attract some trouble again.

After taking a deep breath, Shen Tianyang left this matter to the people below, the other party should know how to give himself an explanation!

Just after he had finished dealing with these matters. Suddenly, a man in black appeared.

Then he knelt on the ground and said in a deep voice: 'Report, the people from the upper and lower bay of Thirty Mile Bay have sent news that the target person is missing!'

Shen Tianyang frowned and spoke, 'Have you searched carefully?'

The man in black looked down at the ground and replied in a deep voice, 'The other side suddenly lifted the restrictions, our men have searched carefully, but there is no news!'

Hearing such a reply, Shen Tianyang's anger that had just subsided surged up again!

Only this time, there was no telling who would be unlucky!

Two days passed in a flash, Jiang Hao, alias Shen Yan, got off the train and went straight to the downtown Chinese Hospital.

On the way to the North Mansion. He had already communicated with the people there through some small means.

All he needed to do at this moment was to get there as soon as possible and then attend the interview at the hospital!

Sitting in the taxi. Jiang Hao was holding a travel book on Beifu that he had bought in passing at the train station.

It only had some basic information about Beifu on it, but Jiang Hao could still get some of the information he wanted from it.

For example, there was still a Shen family in Beifu, one of the thirty-six Shen clans back then.

Although it was not as powerful as Shen Tianyang. But it was also among the powerful families in the Northern Province, and its strength was definitely not to be underestimated.

Jiang Hao remembered that his father had once told him that the one who had slaughtered the Zong family together with the overseas Shen family should have been the Northern Province Shen family. Jiang Hao pondered a little and seemed to have thought of something. Soon, the driver reminded him that the place he was going to had arrived!

Although the signboard of the Downtown Chinese Hospital was simple, there were only a handful of people who could pass it, all because there were fewer and fewer people willing to study Chinese medicine nowadays.

Jiang Hao, who was standing at the downtown Chinese hospital, looked at the door and froze slightly, although few people came. But the facade was quite atmospheric!

After walking in, Jiang Hao went straight to the dean's office, knocked on the door and heard please come in.

After knocking on the door and hearing that he was invited to come in, he tidied up his clothes a little. Then he opened the door and smiled, 'Hello Dean, I'm Shen Yan. We had contacted each other before.'

The dean was a tall, slim, middle-aged man who looked to be around forty years old.

After taking a slight look at Jiang Hao, he smiled and nodded back, 'Shen Yan. You really look like a talented man, not bad!'

As he spoke he got up and pointed to the sofa guest and said, 'Come, come, sit down and talk, which college were you at before?'

Jiang Hao sat down and put his things away, and deliberately spoke somewhat coyly, 'I was at the Chujiang City Chinese Hospital before, but then came here for personal reasons.'

After receiving this answer, the dean looked at Jiang Hao very happily.

Since he had already worked in a big city like Chu Jiang, he must have two brushes in his hands.

After a moment's consideration, the dean lifted his glasses and said, 'In that case, Shen Yan, you should take a rest for the next two days.'

Jiang Hao gave him a somewhat puzzled look and the dean seemed to feel a little embarrassed.

'It's like this, after all, you've just arrived, so I need to speak to the people below first right?'

Jiang Hao heard this before he nodded and spoke with a smile, 'In that case then I'll settle in first, I'll come back the day after tomorrow.'

The dean smiled and extended his hand to shake Jiang Hao's hand and said cheerfully, 'Well, that's the best, once again, I'd like to introduce myself, my surname is Jiao!'

Jiang Hao smiled slightly and said back, 'You're as polite as you are online, huh, I'll take my leave then.'

Dean Jiao nodded and watched Jiang Hao leave.

He waited until Jiang Hao was gone before he put away the smile on his face, then loosened his tie and picked up the phone to call Chu Jiang Chinese Hospital.

'Have you employed a young man surnamed Shen, aged around twenty years old?'

There was silence on the other end of the line for a while, as if they were rummaging for something.

Only after a long time did a female voice speak up, 'Yes, there was such a person in the file just handed in by the personnel department, but he left after not working for much time.'

After receiving these words, Dean Jiao's face suddenly relaxed a little, and then he opened his mouth and smiled, 'Well, that's good, it's okay.'
