

Chapter 603

After all, everyone knows that the road across the street only leads to that hotel, and at this time of year there would have been very few people passing by.

It would be silly if the other side was aimlessly grabbing random people here.

Squatting here for God knows how long it takes to get one.

And it's still snowing and it's so cold outside, there's no way anyone could be that stupid.

So it's likely that the other side already knew that someone would be passing by at this time of day here.

And who would pass by? Naturally, it was Evelin.

The other side had been watching her for a long time, sensing her closing time and making preparations here in advance, just waiting for her to pass by and get rid of the person.

Thinking about it, Snap took out his phone, clicked on his torch, and held it up to the alley as well.

After a few steps, I did find a car tyre print.

It was only three very evenly spaced prints, and the prints were still very clear because it had snowed and there was a thin layer of snow on the ground.

Judging by the print, it would have been left by something resembling a tricycle.

This justified why Emotion, after reacting to the situation, only stayed for ten seconds before chasing in, but found no one.

Because the other man had already moved the man into the car and left quickly in his tricycle.

And that reinforced what he had been thinking.

The other party should have known Evelin, and even, prepared a tricycle here in advance, just to facilitate transporting her away.

And why did they choose to be in this alley instead of out on the road?

After all, people are all the same less.

He looked up at the top of the alley, there were very few cameras on this side as it was an old town.

There is none in this alley anyway, but there is on the street outside, as you have to photograph passing cars.

The other side this was chosen to keep the cameras out.

So, the other side still has concerns!

Thinking about it, Snap Shea sank to the ground and asked, "Did you call the police?"

Emotion nodded repeatedly.

Snap Xie thought about it and said, "We need to inform the director's side of this matter, it's useless for us to stay here, the other party has already left, let's wait for the police to arrive first."

Emotion nodded evenly, but was a little worried.

"But what about Miss Evelin?"

Xie Snap frowned and looked deeper into the alley.

"I'm not sure if I'll be able to do that, but I'm sure I'll be able to do it in my own time," he said.

It was only after Emotion heard his analysis that he settled down and nodded his head.

They turned and walked out together, not sure if it was because they were distracted, thinking about something, or because they had just been frightened.

Within a few steps, the little love suddenly fell to the ground with an alas.

Snapshot was so shocked that he went back to look at her.

Just seeing a large boulder protruding from the ground, Emotion was about not paying attention and tripped over it, knocking her knee right on the edge of the prong, blood gushing out all at once.

Snap Xie instantly turned pale.

He crouched down to help her up off the floor and asked, "How are you? All right?"

Emotion's face was a little pale from the pain, and there was even a fine sweat coming out of her forehead.

But she gritted her teeth and said, "I'm fine."

Snapshot looked up, and a glance at her face told her that she was holding strong.

Since it was winter and she was still wearing thick pantyhose, she couldn't see how the wound was, and it wasn't easy to treat here.

Snap Xie could only remove his scarf and help her leg with a simple bandage before saying, "Bear with me, I'll take you to the hospital right away."

Emotion shook her head at the words.

"Don't, I don't need to, really, it's just a little fall, no need to go to the hospital so much, we'd better go to Miss Evelin first..."

"Obey!"

Xie Snap suddenly sank to the ground, his tone very serious.

Emotion had never seen him like this before, and was suddenly frightened.

Then, before he realized it, he suddenly saw him turn around, his back to himself, and crouch down.

Xie Snap turned his back to her and said in a deep voice, "Come up."

Emotion was stunned for a moment before she realized that he was going to carry himself.

The face burned red and the hands waved incessantly.

"Snap, Snap, no, I can do it myself..."

"No bullshit!"

Snap Xie was actually helpless, it was so late now and the place was so remote, even if he wanted to take a taxi, he couldn't.

The injury on her leg looked pretty serious, and if she didn't go to the hospital soon, it wouldn't look good if she fell into some kind of aftermath or got a big scar.

If you get a scar on your leg, how can you wear a skirt in the summer?

Snap has always been a gentleman and understands girls, he knows the importance of beauty in a girl.

So, it never felt like such a wound would be trivial.

Little Emotion saw his insistence and bit her lip, not daring to refuse any longer.

Hesitantly, I dared to take a cautious step forward and lie down against his rather broad back.

She Snap felt her on her stomach and with a slight push, she carried her up.

Emotion was on the thin side, lying on the man's back with little or no weight.

But Rao still made her blush with shame, her whole body shrinking there, not even daring to utter a sound, her whole body even more tensed straight up, simply nervous to the point of exhaustion.

Snap Xie didn't notice her abnormality, but felt her body stiffen a bit and thought it was painful.

So it was comforting to say, "Does it hurt? If you'll bear with me a little longer, there's a hospital up ahead that will take care of it right away."

This is a very remote location, but it does have a small hospital in front of it.

Usually if a crew member has a minor injury or cold and doesn't want to go to a big hospital because of the hassle, he will go to this small hospital that is closer.

It's not a serious illness anyway, it's treated the same, no difference.

Emo hmmm twice.

The sound of Snap Xie's feet on the snow could be heard in her ears, she was embarrassed and asked softly, "Snap, sorry to have gotten you into trouble."

Snap Xie spilled out a smile at the words.

"Say what you want about not getting involved, don't tell me you're Evelin's assistant, even if you're a dipshit friend, you can't see death, right?"

Besides, who can bear to ignore such a delicate girl with a knocked leg like this in the middle of the night?

Little Emotion didn't think so, she just felt that Snap Xie was an honorable and high ranking star.

Chapter 604

Now, but willing to condescend to carry himself and be so gentle, it's like a godsend.

When she thought of this, her heart was once again like a deer's, jumping with excitement.

Snap She had been carrying Emotion to the hospital, and it was good that there was a doctor on duty at this time.

Knowing that her leg was hurt, she sat her down and went to get iodine and medicine and gauze first, and let the nurse help her inside to take off her pantyhose and then take care of her wound.

When Little Emotion saw this, she said to Snap Xie, "Snap, my side is fine, I'll just have a doctor to help me with it, so go ahead and get busy with Sister Evelin."

She wasn't a delicate girl, and knew that at this point, this was just a little hurt.

The real danger was on Evelin's side.

Now, I don't know how Sister Evelin is doing.

Xie Snap heard her say that, looked at the wound on her knee, and then confirmed with the doctor that it was indeed nothing serious before nodding.

"Okay, then, when you're done with your medication, rest here, don't rush back yet, and wait for my call."

It was only after that that I remembered that Emotion didn't seem to have her own phone number.

So, she was told to get her phone out and save her number in it.

Emotion saw him enter a series of phone numbers into his own phone and dialed them until it went through on the other side before hanging up.

A heart that was excited and nervous all at once.

Oh, my God!What's she doing?

Not only did she get the man-god to carry her, she got the man-god's phone number!

Oh, God, please let a thunderbolt strike you awake. She must be dreaming. How is this possible?

However, Snapshot was completely unaware of her mental activity.

After depositing the number very calmly, she returned the phone to her.

Then, earnestly instructed, "After treating your wounds, be sure not to leave, wait for my call, if you really want to go back to the hotel, call and have someone pick you up, it's so late, it's not safe for you to go back alone, your boss is already in trouble, if you get in trouble again that's adding insult to injury, understand?"

Emotion nodded repeatedly.

It was so well-behaved.

Xie Snap watched, and for some reason, his mood, which had been a little anxious, suddenly improved.

He smiled, ghosting a hand, and touched her head.

After the touch, they both stiffened a bit.

Xie Snap was too busy quickly withdrawing his hand in hindsight and smiled awkwardly.

"That, and if there's nothing else I'll be over."

Emotion reacted and nodded, "Ummmmmm, you should go."

That's when Snap Shea left.

After he left, Emotion Fang only had time to go cover his already red face, screaming three times in his heart, before he covered his face with an embarrassed wince.

And the other side.

The police side is already here.

She Snap picked up with them and told them again what had happened, they had seen the marks on the ground and deduced the same as She Snap had assumed.

Then, a group of people were sent out first to look around the area, and the rest went back to check surveillance to see if there were any suspicious tricycles out on other roads in the area this evening.

Snap Xie thought of Little Emotion who was still in the hospital, so instead of going back with them, he went to the hospital to first pick up Little Emotion and take her back to the hotel.

Emotion hadn't expected him to come back, she was going to either take a cab herself or call a colleague from the crew that she knew better to pick her up.

I didn't expect to see him back before I had a chance to call.

The man was wearing a black trench coat, his whole body looking tall and handsome, striding in late at night in the snow.

When I saw her, I smiled and said, "Is everything okay? An investigation has been launched there, so I'll take you back to the hotel to rest."

Little Emotion only felt as if a layer of warmth was flowing through her heart.

She nodded evenly, "Yeah, it's fine, thank you."

Snap of Xie smiled and didn't say anything.

Carry her up and head to the hotel.

But it was less than ten minutes away and soon we were back in the hotel.

She Snap sent her back to her room and left.

Naturally, Little Emotion couldn't sleep, after all, Evelin hadn't been found yet.

But that didn't stop her from feeling good today because of Snap's appearance and actions.

But this good mood was suddenly lost when I thought of the danger that Evelin might be facing at this point.

On the other hand, Jenny was sleeping in a daze in the middle of the night when his phone suddenly rang.

She left the country a few days ago and came back yesterday.

We're jet-lagged today, and the average person wouldn't call her at 3:30 a.m. at this hour if they didn't have an emergency.

Jenny brought the phone over in confusion and looked at it carefully, but it was actually Xiao He.

Without frowning, a bad feeling rose in my subconscious.

Biden Lu also seemed to be awakened by the sound of the phone, rolled over and took her into his arms, and asked in a confused voice, "Who is it?"

Jenny's drowsiness was already mostly awake, and he casually replied, "It's Xiao He, I guess something urgent happened, you sleep first, I'll take a call and come back."

When he finished, he took his hand away, got up and took his phone and walked out.

It wasn't until she was out in the hallway that she picked up the phone.

"Ho, what's going on?"

Across the street, Ho's voice was urgent.

"Sister Jenny, something big has happened!"

Jenny frowned, the drowsiness that was only half awake, instantly woke up all at once after hearing this sentence.

She sank to her knees and asked, "What's the big deal?"

"Evelin is missing! After retrieving it this evening, on the way back to the hotel with Emotion, it was snatched halfway across the country and has not been located."

Jenny was ruthlessly shaken!

She never thought she would receive this news.

It took a few seconds for her to get over the shocking news and ask, "Did you call the police? What does it say over there?"

Xiao He replied evenly, "It's been reported, but there's no clue there yet."

Jenny tensed his lips, his fingers unconsciously picking at the railing handrail beside him.

Only after half a ring did he lower his voice and say, "First stabilize the crew side, don't let anyone know except the director, once any news leaks out from the media side, immediately intercept the news, never let this news be revealed."

Little He was busy responding.

Because there have been cases before where stars have been kidnapped and the other side was originally just trying to make money.

But it was because the news got out to the media, and the media followed with a big story and even followed up on the case.

Later, when the other side saw so much attention, the pressure was so great that they had to kill the man.

This soon did not help the victim, but instead became an accomplice in the victim's murder.

Xiao He was obviously aware of this possibility, so even if Jenny didn't tell her to do it, she would still do it according to the rules.

Chapter 605

Next, Jenny handed her a few things to look out for.

Xiao He promised one by one, and hung up the phone only after he had finished his explanation.

As soon as the phone hung up over there, on this side, Jenny told Biden Lu about it.

The piece of finding people in China, or Biden Lu's skills are greater.

After Biden Lu heard this, he immediately asked Vicky to give orders.

Soon, the people below moved on.

And now, the other side.

Tailor Feng specifically went to personally select a few qualified servants for the villa today, and was happily trying to tell Evelin the good news, when he unexpectedly got the news that she had been kidnapped.

Tailor Feng was so shocked that he couldn't care about anything right now and immediately ran to the police station.

He soon learned all about what had happened.

It was as dark as if it could drip in an instant.

Little Emotion, seeing his ugly face, was also a little scared and shivered, "Second Young Master Feng, Sister Evelin, she... she'll be alright, right?"

Tailor Feng looked at her with a blank expression, didn't say anything, and just turned around and left.

Everyone was a little confused when they saw his back as he left.

Nor did he know what that meant, let alone where he was going.

At that time, it just so happened that Snap Xie was there, and he came over with the director from the crew today to learn more about the progress.

At this point in time, it was not frowned upon.

Patting Emotion's shoulder reassuringly, he said, "Don't worry, she's auspicious, she'll be fine."

In fact, the mind was secretly wondering.

Why is it that when something happened to Evelin, it wasn't Jenny who stepped in, but Tailor Feng?

Although Tailor Feng is a shareholder of Anning International and is seriously considered Evelin's boss, there have been other artists in trouble in the past and he has never stepped in.

Now, however, he had come out to ask questions himself, even as if he was in a hurry.

Could it be...that there was something between them?

Naturally, Xie Snap wouldn't think of them in terms of a couple at this point, but she just found Tailor Feng's treatment of Evelin a bit strange.

But he didn't think too much about it, after all, the most important thing right now was to save Evelin, and the rest was unimportant.

And the other side.

Tailor Feng had just come out of the police station when he was suddenly grabbed by a figure.

There was a bang!

He was unaware that he was being attacked, caught off guard by the other man's collar, and pressed hard against the car.

"Tailor Feng! What about your promise to protect her? What about the promise that she wouldn't get hurt? What's going on now? Huh?"

One of Game's arms pressed hard against his chest and locked around his neck, and his eyes were red and angry as if they were about to burst into flames.

Leng Mei was coming with Tailor Feng, and was about to go forward when he saw the cold face.

However, it was stopped by Tailor Feng's raised hand.

He looked at Zhu Yi with an expressionless face and coldly said, "Loosen up!"

However, the various games did not move.

He also learned the news of Evelin's accident today on a whim.

At the time, his breath almost stopped, and he was instantly anxious and angry when he learned that she had actually been kidnapped last night.

It was only after checking around and not finding any half-truths that the angry man approached Tailor Feng.

Tailor Feng looked at him with cold eyes and said again, "I'll say it again, let go!"

The game of hate glared at him with no intention of loosening his grip at all, still tugging at his clothes with a death grip.

"You tell first.

Me? Where the hell is she?"

Unexpectedly, as soon as the words left his mouth, he suddenly only felt a pain in his arm, and Tailor Feng didn't know how he got it, but he suddenly twisted his whole arm back and threw him to the ground.

The game grunted in pain.

Only then did Leng Mei even move forward and stop Tailor Feng in front of him.

Coldly looking at Zhu Yi who was thrown on the ground.

Zhu Yi was simply furious, he never thought that Tailor Feng would actually dare to throw himself to the ground, how could he be so rampant!

He's the one who didn't protect Evelin, and now not only does he not admit his mistake, he's also so arrogant!

In his eyes, was Evelin's death or life so unimportant?

Zhu Yi was heartbroken and raged, "Tailor Feng! Evelin was really blind to fall for you in the first place!"

Tailor Feng tidied up his messed up clothes and then looked at Zhu Yi with the same disdain as if he was looking at a piece of trash.

"You're not in a position to come here and say that right now! It's not up to you to decide if she'll regret it later!"

Afterwards, no longer bothering to pay attention to him, he stepped into the car and left with coldness in his heart.

The game was directly and completely ignored, looking at the back of the car leaving and hammering the ground with his fist in hatred.

And in the car, Tailor Feng handed over a photo to Leng Mei and coldly ordered, "Go check on this person's whereabouts, and tell me immediately if you have any information."

Coldness looked at the man in the photo and was a little surprised.

"Second Younger, are you thinking..."

Tailor Feng faintly narrowed his eyes.

An acquaintance has committed the crime and has not yet contacted this side to ask for money, such a person can only be one.

That's Ho Si.

Lengmu apparently thought of this, and with a wry look, he nodded, "Yes."

At this time, in an abandoned factory in the suburbs.

Surrounded by dark, cold concrete walls and dirt from running water on the floor, the entire factory was filled with a pungent smell of mold.

In the middle is a relatively large open space, which is supported by a few concrete pillars.

One of the concrete pillars had a man tied to it.

Only her hands were tied behind her back, her hair was loose, and her clothes had been soiled with sewage.

The figure was thin and frail, and Herr was a woman.

There were footsteps outside.

The tied woman moved and struggled to open her eyes.

He Si came over with a bowl of rice and a cold face, crouched down in front of her, and then placed the bowl of rice on the ground in front of her.

"Damn, I've been looking for half a day, but I can't find that check you made last time, you can't be cheating me!"

Evelin looked at He Si, her body had little strength left from the day and night of hunger, and she could barely speak.

Her mouth was still duct-taped shut and she couldn't make a sound, so she could only look at him silently.

He Si thought to himself and greeted some men outside, "Hey, what's our next move?"

A slightly overweight man with large tattooed arms walked in.

"If you can't find the money, call and ask for it, doesn't she have a mother? She must know where the money is."

He Si sniffed and frowned, somewhat reluctantly.

"I don't want to call her, but if I tell her, then everyone will know that I have the girl, and how will I be able to clear my name then?"

The flower-armed man laughed at his words.

"Yoho, I dare you to expect to be cleared of any suspicion and go back to being Big Star her dad later? Do you promise, you cheap girl promise?"
