

Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 61

Snapped.

Zoey Gu's hand shook, and instantly knocked over the disinfectant bottle. She tensed her body and clenched her teeth, so that she could hold the scissors firmly and not let her emotions collapse.

Take possession of her virgin body and take away her innocent strange man.

Time after time, the blood was drawn from the body.

Live like an animal in the dark.

Such an embarrassing and painful past, how would she tell him?

Liam Lu noticed her abnormality, raised her eyebrows fiercely, stared at her pale profile coldly, and said Shen Shen.

"Zoey Gu, I only give you this opportunity. As long as you say it, I believe it. As long as you speak, I will do it for you."

At this moment, Zoey Gu's heart pierced and felt a familiar suffocation.

In the past, she tried every means to beg, hoping that he could listen to her and give her even a trace of trust. Now, everything is a foregone conclusion.

She only wanted to draw a line with him, so she couldn't tell him the truth.

Zoey Gu bit her lip, raised her head and looked at Liam Lu calmly, lying calmly.

"In those five years, Lydia Lin locked me up, threatened me with my father and younger brother, and slept with different men. Well... I think about it, it's about once a month, every time I come here is different The man. The reason, probably because I am a young lady who enjoys sleeping and is more valuable."

"Every time those men slept with me for one night, they would pay Lydia Lin a large sum of money. Counting it down, these years have been a lot of money..."

Before she could finish her words, Liam Lu suddenly picked up the glass at hand and slammed it on the floor!

"Zoey Gu, do you shut up for me!"

The man's face was blue, the blue veins on his forehead jumped "suddenly", his eyes seemed to be swept by a horrible storm that swallowed everything.

"You say one more word, believe it or not, I will strangle you?!"

Zoey Gu lowered his head, processed the wound methodically, and slowly looked up at him.

"You think I'm dirty like this, right? Even I think..."

"enough!"

Liam Lu stood up abruptly, kicked the medicine box beside his feet, and the contents scattered all over the floor.

He suddenly possessed her, and forced her to raise her head by jamming her chin.

"Do you want freedom? I can afford it!"

"I, Liam Lu, can spend money to play with a woman, and I can use money to kick her away. You abandoned me once, now I don't want you. You are right, like you are a...dirty woman, I really can't afford it."

Zoey Gu trembled all over and turned pale.

Liam Lu released her abruptly, walked away from her blankly, walked to the door and opened the door, turned sideways slightly, and asked coldly.

"Satisfying with this ending?"

Bang!

The door fell, and footsteps sounded outside.

he's gone.

Zoey Gu still maintained the posture she had before leaving, staring blankly in the direction where the man was leaving, his heart throbbed.

Obviously fortunate, finally draw a line on this.

But remembering his sentence "I don't want you anymore", she still blushed suddenly.

The elevator opened and closed, and Liam Lu's tall figure slowly walked out of the apartment building.

The wound opened three times, and the pain during pulling was heavier than before.

As soon as he left the unit door, he suddenly stretched out his hand and leaned against the wall beside him.

“Liam!”

The more I saw him when I was not far away, a gust of wind rushed over, reaching out to help him, but he was blocked by him.

He slowly stood up straight, looked up at the faint sky light not far away, and asked solemnly.

“Have you all asked?”

Shiyue was startled, lowered his head slightly, and said hesitantly.

“All accounted, this thing is indeed...Miss Yun did.”
