

Super Rich Dad Chapter 614-616

Chapter 614

Old man Bi smiled at the thoughtful look on Jiang Hao's face, 'It's not good for young people to be too proud, it will make you meet more villains.'

Jiang Hao shook his head unnecessarily, thinking of Shen Tianyang he couldn't help but say, 'I've already met one real villain, I don't care about a few more.'

Old man Bi nodded slightly after hearing this. Although he had only very much met Jiang Hao in passing.

But he saw in Jiang Hao's body what he was like when he was young, the same confidence, the same bravado!

Time passed slowly, as it was already a bit late when Lin Yan came over yesterday.

So there were many people who didn't know. Jiang Hao was back in charge of the second department.

But nurse Xiao Li knew about it, so she watched Jiang Hao walk into the office of the second department. She even made a special greeting to say good morning.

When the others heard this, they looked at Xiao Li in surprise, wondering why she was taking care of this unlucky man!

That's right, Jiang Hao was an unlucky man in their eyes.

The first day he was in charge of Section 2, the next day he was kicked out for offending Miss Lin and was sent to do odd jobs!

So many people who saw Jiang Hao couldn't help but whisper: 'Isn't that the unlucky guy, why is he here?'

'No, what's he doing back in Section 2, he can't have accepted the reality that he's been transferred to do odd jobs, can he?'

'Hey hey hey, don't say that, be careful he hears you!'

'So what if he hears you, he's just a loser!'

Dr. Ren, who was on the morning shift, heard what the two nurses were chatting about. So he walked up to them and said, 'What are you talking about, you're so excited?'

The two nurses looked at the person who looked at them and smiled when they saw that it was Dr. Ren.

'What else could we be talking about? It's just that loser who got transferred to do odd jobs.'

The other nurse laughed and then interjected, 'He came into the office of the second department at work today, I'm laughing my ass off, he doesn't think he's the head of the second department, does he?'

Dr. Ren also laughed lightly after hearing this, and his mind moved along with him.

There was nothing to do anyway, so it was just as well to go and have a chat with this loser to pass the time.

Thinking of this, Dr. Ren walked to the second department office and saw Jiang Hao sitting on a chair looking at the documents.

So he couldn't help but say, 'Yo. Isn't this our Shen Shen Shen, didn't you go to the pharmacy today?'

Jiang Hao looked up at Dr. Ren, his eyes were flat and dull.

Jiang Hao didn't intend to pick up on such goods, lest he spoil his fun.

He still had to find a way to check out all the hospital's case sheets and find out about Xue Yu Ning.

But that wasn't what Dr. Ren had in mind, and he saw that Jiang Hao wasn't paying attention to him.

He saw that Jiang Hao wasn't paying attention to him, so he couldn't help but feel a surge of anger after a slight daze: 'I'm talking to you, punk, do you know you're in the wrong office!'

As he said this in a louder voice. The other people in Section 2 could not help but be attracted by the commotion.

To be honest, the people in Section 2 had no idea about Jiang Hao's young boss.

It was impossible to say that they didn't have some thoughts in their hearts. That is impossible.

Everyone suspected that this young man had some kind of relationship with the dean, and that was why he had been parachuted in.

So when they saw Dr. Ren's outrageous act, no one stood up to stop it.

When Jiang Hao heard Dr. Ren's words, his hands paused slightly. Then he went back to work as if he hadn't heard.

Dr. Ren could not help but snicker when he noticed this, 'What, coward, scared?'

After saying this, he continued, 'Shen. Please, I might even be able to put in a good word for you in front of the dean!'

Jiang Hao couldn't hold back any longer, so he put down his work and looked at Dr. Ren.

'If you're so free, there are many patients over there you can help take over.'

Dr. Ren snorted, 'Yo, are you trying to kick me out? Do I need to remind you that you're no longer the head of the second department!'

Here, he couldn't help but curse angrily, 'Just a piece of sh*t like you. You really fooled me that day!'

Jiang Hao was a bit helpless, he didn't mind if someone shouted in front of him.

But he was annoyed with himself when he was doing something. Surprisingly, he was disturbed by a dirt dog.

Thinking of this, Jiang Hao let out a faint sigh. Then he got up and lifted Dr. Ren up with one hand!

Then walked to the door and threw him out: 'I'm doing my work, don't bother me!'

'The surname Shen! You're a f*cking piece of sh*t! I'll take note of this today. You'll wait!'

After saying this, he couldn't help but look at Jiang Hao's back in shock and anger.

His weight was close to two hundred pounds, and he had lifted himself up with one hand!

And no matter how much he struggled, he couldn't swing it, I really didn't know how inhuman his core strength really was!

The two nurses who were just talking about Jiang Hao had wanted to see how Dr. Ren was going to taunt this unlucky man.

Instead, they didn't expect to see how Dr. Ren was thrown out by him!

The two girls who had just called Jiang Hao a loser instantly felt in love again!

'Wow, he's so strong, he must work out a lot!'

Another nurse interjected, 'I wonder if he has eight-pack abs, I'd love to see if they're like chocolate!'

Dr. Ren's head was full of black lines, and he looked at the two nurses who were fancying themselves and called out, 'Hey! Can you two help me up first?'

Hearing this roar, the two nurses came back to their senses and then hurriedly helped Dr. Ren up.

Jiang Hao, who had finished reading the case list, wobbled out at this time.

Dr. Ren ducked back in fear: 'You, you, you, what do you want?'

Jiang Hao slightly sized up Dr. Ren: 'Well, I thought it looked very similar just now, but now that I'm closer it looks even more similar.'

Dr. Ren was slightly stunned at these words, 'Like? Like what?'

Jiang Hao puffed out a laugh: '167 height, 184 weight, really does look like a ball, fit to roll!'

'Jiang Hao! You're bullying people too much! Just wait, I'll have to sue you at the dean's place!'

After saying this, Dr. Ren left in a hurry!

What he was most sad about was his weight, even though he was already losing it.

But as if reality was playing tricks on him, the more he lost, the more weight he gained... what a tragedy!

The two nurse girls stood at the door, laughing and trembling while they began to fawn over Jiang Hao again.

Honestly speaking, Jiang Hao's face was in this hospital, which was basically full of old people.

It was definitely considered a unique sight, and Dr. Ren was the second sight.

The reason why I say that is because it's like Jiang Hao said.

What's wrong with this is clearly all a ball, right, walking as if it is rolling.

Jiang Hao, who walked out of the office, took the case list and first went through the situation of the ward he was in charge of.

Then he signed in again, and only then did he sit down and take a little break.

Chapter 615

But just when Jiang Hao was just taking a break, Xiao Li suddenly walked to the door of the office.

With a forced smile on her face, she spoke, 'Shen, Dr. Shen, ahem. The dean has informed you to go to the office for a while.'

Jiang Hao shrugged his shoulders and began to say back, 'Did that ball roll off to snitch on me?'

Hearing that, Xiao Li snorted out a loud laugh!

'Hahahaha, Dr. Shen, you're so annoying. How dare you say he's a ball!'

After saying this, Xiao Li closed the office door behind her. Flopping down on the sofa, she laughed her head off!

Jiang Hao got up and imitated the penguin's walk, walking while still holding a folder in his hand.

With his mouth open, he said, 'That's right! I'm Dr. Ren! I look like a ball!'

He made Xiao Li laugh again, then Jiang Hao spoke to Xiao Li, 'I'll go first.'

Xiao Li got up and nodded after hearing this, but there was still a bit of a full smile in her eyes.

When Jiang Hao walked to Dean Jiao's office, he was about to push open the door.

Suddenly, he heard Dr. Ren's voice coming from inside saying, 'Dean, that Shen is too crazy!'

'When I saw him go to the second department at work today, I thought he might have gone to the wrong office, so I kindly went up and reminded him.'

With Jiang Hao Ling Mei's double child, the dean seemed to be writing something in his office.

While writing something. Dean Jiao opened his mouth while saying, 'And then, what happened.'

Here Dr. Ren spoke with aggravation, 'He actually just lifted me up and threw me into the corridor, and said I was a ball!'

Here, Dr. Ren had a look of death on his face and said, 'I've lost all the people I could, today I've lost them all!'

Dean Jiao stopped his hand movements, his face slightly twisted.

But at least he forced himself to endure it, then looked at Dr. Ren and said, 'Ahem, you can go down first, I've asked Xiao Shen to come up.'

Hearing this, Doctor Ren, who had just been shocked by Jiang Hao's arm strength, hurriedly nodded his head.

But he had just opened the office door. Only to find that Jiang Hao was standing right outside the door!

He was so scared that he almost went weak on his feet!

'You! Why are you here?'

Jiang Hao looked at Dr. Ren and smiled: 'I'm here eavesdropping, what's wrong with that?'

Being able to talk about eavesdropping so righteously, Dr. Ren was confused instead.

Then he snorted coldly, walked around Jiang Hao and headed downstairs.

Jiang Hao coughed lightly, then walked inside the office.

The two men looked at each other with wide eyes before bursting into laughter!

'Hahahaha, Xiao Shen ah Xiao Shen, this mouth of yours is too damaging!'

Dean Jiao laughed out loud as he did so. While lifting his cup of tea, he took a slight sip.

Jiang Hao walked up and pulled out a chair to sit down by himself, then said somewhat helplessly, 'I'm just telling the truth. Brother.'

After saying this, Jiang Hao lit a cigarette for himself and took a deep drag.

He looked at Dean Jiao and spoke, 'I guess not many people know that I have been reinstated.'

Although it was said that this matter had already passed, however, Dean Jiao heard Jiang Hao's words.

A complicated look still flashed across his face unconsciously. Nodding his head, he spoke, 'Well, it was a bit late yesterday, so I didn't get notified.'

After saying this, Dean Jiao looked at Jiang Hao and said, 'I called you up today because there's something I want to talk to you about.'

Jiang Hao nodded and said softly, 'Mm. Dean, you speak.'

'It's like this, our institute is planning to form an event that is to explore the study of acupuncture.'

Speaking here, he looked at Jiang Hao with deep meaning in his eyes, 'I wonder if it would be convenient for you to attend then?'

Jiang Hao snorted at these words, then nodded slightly: 'It's just a small matter, I'll definitely attend then.'

Hearing Jiang Hao's answer, Dean Jiao was obviously relieved.

But when he thought of the original purpose of this matter, he couldn't help but blush again.

Then he spoke in a low voice, 'Don't worry. We will make it up to you.'

Jiang Hao shook his head slightly: 'No matter how good these things are, it's still used to heal and save people.'

Speaking of this. Jiang Hao paused: 'In my hands people are like this, and in other people's hands too.'

Thinking of this. Jiang Hao sighed and shook his head, 'But how many people can I save with my own strength alone.'

Learning medicine to save people was an ideal. It is also a kind of faith.

But how many people, after a long time, gradually abandoned their original intention?

Thinking of this Dean Jiao let out a deep sigh, 'We are not as good as you, it is no wonder that you have achieved such success.'

Speaking here he smiled and looked towards Jiang Hao as he continued, 'It's also no wonder you were able to learn these two great skills.'

Jiang Hao smiled and waved his hand: 'There's no need to say any more about this, by the way, I do have something here that I would like to trouble Dean with.'

The head of a hospital still understood the principle of returning a favour by throwing a peach to a plum.

But there was a limit to this, he couldn't just give Jiang Hao his position if he wanted it, could he?

So when he heard Jiang Hao's words, he smiled, nodded and said, 'Well, tell me, I will definitely satisfy you with what I can do.'

Jiang Hao smiled on his face, but in his heart he cursed the old fox!

'It's like this, Section 2's finances are a little tight this quarter, so I hope the dean will tilt a little towards us in terms of funding.'

Jiang Hao didn't mind handing over these two masterpieces.

But if he really wanted to hand them over for nothing, he wouldn't be happy about it!

There was no such thing as a free lunch in this world, let alone a fool who was willing to give it to others for nothing.

After Jiang Hao said this, he looked at Dean Jiao with a smile but not a word.

And called the director of the garden evidence while laughing without saying anything looked at Jiang Hao, the two looked at each other for a moment.

Dean Jiao took the initiative to lower his head and sighed: 'Alas, it looks like I am really old, from now on it will be the world of you youngsters.'

Jiang Hao knew the result when he heard that, so he smiled and said modestly, 'You can't say that, I still understand the truth that an old man is like a treasure in a family.'

Hearing this, Dean Jiao laughed out loud, then interjected, 'You'd better bully those people less in the future.'

Hearing those words, Jiang Hao hesitated slightly.

No matter what, this place was just a tool for him to find Xue Yuning.

It wasn't going to be a place where he stayed often, so there was no need to care too much about it.

But since the dean had said so to himself, Jiang Hao could only nod helplessly.

'Alright, I promise that if they don't come after me, I will definitely not go after them, alright?'

After hearing this, Dean Jiao nodded with a smile, 'Alright, I'm just waiting for this word from you, hahaha.'

He then took the statement in Jiang Hao's hand and looked at it, 'Well, the second department is still short of a few ventilators, right, allocate the money to do it.'

After saying this, he took off his glasses and looked at Jiang Hao and asked, 'What do you think?'

Chapter 616

After the fiasco since the last time, many people in the hospital knew.

Shen Yan, a new doctor had become the rookie of their hospital!

The first person who dared to smoke in front of the dean in his office, the first person who could be late at will.

The first as a doctor. Yet the one who gave training on acupuncture to all the doctors.

However, to Dean Jiao, Jiang Hao was the first to do all these things.

The most important thing was that he was the first person to get a banner for the hospital from such big families like the Lin family!

This wasn't just a banner, to those big families. It was more like a proof.

It was a proof that this hospital was more powerful and worthy of recognition than their own doctors!

It was because Jiang Hao had gotten this from Lin Yan. That was why among the people who came to the hospital during this period of time.

Every day, President Jiao looked at the business cards on the table.

Even when he was sleeping, he could open his mouth with a smile!

These were not business cards, these were contacts!

If one day he retired from this position, the people on these cards would call at random.

If one day he retired from this position, the people on these cards would call, and they would help him out for the sake of the past.

And Jiang Hao had a very fulfilling time.

As soon as he got to work, he started to check the case list through his own authority and made sure that there was no Xue Yuning.

Then he prepared to go to the class for his students who were a bit old but still very serious about their studies.

In the class, he taught everyone about the Life Renewing Needle and the Over the Mountain Fire.

Among them, old man Bi also rushed over, and then sat down in a disciplined manner. He listened to Jiang Hao's lecture.

When the lecture was over, Jiang Hao would decide how many patients to see based on his schedule for the day.

He had originally only set a limit on how many clients he would see each day to avoid trouble.

But under the influence of some people, his rule like this instead made the dignitaries go crazy!

Many people were abuzz with the rumour that Jiang Hao was the number one man in their hospital?

It was because of this that there were even people who specifically registered for Jiang Hao's number and then resold it to others.

Jiang Hao was a bit fed up with such a situation, but there was nothing he could do about it.

After a period of time, this day Dean Jiao suddenly looked somewhat grave and called Jiang Hao to his office.

When Jiang Hao arrived. Dean Jiao spoke somewhat heavily, 'Sit down, there's something I need to talk to you about.'

Jiang Hao nodded slightly, seeing such a gloomy look on the Dean's face, Jiang Hao pondered slightly for a moment.

'What's wrong, did the hospital encounter any troublesome matters?'

Dean Jiao nodded after hearing this, 'There is some trouble, you know the Xue family in the North, right?'

Jiang Hao faintly froze at his words, and the appearance of Xue Yuning's father couldn't help but come to mind.

'Well, I've heard of it slightly. What's happened?'

Dean Jiao saw that since Jiang Hao had heard about it, he stopped explaining.

Then he spoke directly, 'Xue Chongli, who is in charge of the Xue family, has an old relationship with me. That's why he found me yesterday.'

After saying this, Dean Jiao spoke somewhat heavily, 'And the other party wants me to take you to their house.'

Jiang Hao listened for a moment, then nodded and said back, 'Just go, it's no big deal. When?'

'The sooner the better, since you agreed, then pack your things, get ready and follow me downstairs.'

Jiang Hao sniffed and pondered slightly for a moment: 'Did the other party say what the patient's symptoms were?'

Dean Jiao shook his head slightly: 'It wasn't explicitly stated. You should try to bring them all with you, so that you don't have them when you need them.'

Hearing this, Jiang Hao nodded and walked out of the office to prepare his things.

Looking at Jiang Hao's back, Dean Jiao picked up the phone and pressed a number.

'Ahem, Chongli ah, my side is done, I'll be right over.'

There was a light pant on the other end of the line before he spoke, 'Hmm. I'll trouble you on this one, I'll meet you at the door.'

After saying that, he hung up the phone. Dean Jiao looked at the phone in his hand and fell silent.

The Xue family was now experiencing a storm, and what he was worried about was not going to treat someone else.

Rather, he was worried that he and Jiang Hao had gotten involved in this storm.

Thinking of this. Dean Jiao took a long breath along with him, not knowing whether he had done the right or wrong thing this time.

And on the other hand. Jiang Hao felt some vague excitement in his heart at the thought of going to the Xue family.

Although Qiao San hadn't said where Xue Yuning was in the Northern Province when he died, there was a good chance that she was at the Xue Family!

He hadn't tried to go near the Xue family before, just because there was no suitable reason to do so.

Thinking that the dean was going to take himself to the Xue family, Jiang Hao let out a soft sigh in his heart.

'Yu Ning, wait, I'll come to save you soon!'

After saying these words, Jiang Hao lifted his own package and walked out of the office.

Dean Jiao waited outside the door for a while and nodded slightly after seeing Jiang Hao come out.

'Everything is packed, right? How about it, did you leave anything behind?'

Jiang Hao shook his head and replied, 'Don't worry, I've brought everything I need, we're leaving now?'

Hearing this, Dean Jiao nodded in satisfaction and then waved his hand.

Nurse Xiao Li then drove out a car and parked it in front of them.

Jiang Hao looked at Dean Jiao and then at Xiao Li couldn't help but be a little surprised.

'Xiao Li, why are you going wherever the dean goes?'

Xiao Li, while driving, replied with a light laugh after hearing Jiang Hao's words, 'Because he's my dad.'

Jiang Hao heard this before he shut his mouth and then sat upright in his chair.

Dean Jiao glanced at Jiang Hao helplessly, then shook his head and said, 'When we get to the Xue family later, don't do anything rash, do you hear me?'

Jiang Hao heard this and said, 'What do you mean I shouldn't do anything, do I look like someone who does?'

Dean Jiao looked at Jiang Hao and was silent for a long time, during which he didn't say a word!

Jiang Hao was looked at a bit helplessly: 'Fine, fine, I'll listen to you all right.'

Looking at Jiang Hao's helpless look, Dean Jiao let out a faint sigh before speaking, 'I'm doing this for your own good.'

After saying this, Dean Jiao coughed lightly, 'The Xue family has been a bit unsettled for a while now, I'm worried that the two of us might run into trouble.'

Jiang Hao, with all his guts, had killed his way from Chu Jiang to Thirty Mile Bay, and then from Thirty Mile Bay to the Northern Province!

If he was not careful, his life could be lost.

If he really wanted to talk about trouble, he had never seen anything more troublesome than Shen Tianyang.

So after hearing Dean Jiao's words, although Jiang Hao agreed with his mouth.

But in his heart, he didn't have the two Xue families in mind.

To him, if it wasn't for the fact that Xue Yuning was likely to be here, he wouldn't have been happy to invite him here.

With such thoughts in mind, just after getting off the bus, Jiang Hao met the Xue family steward, Xue Chongli.
