

Chapter 63

Jenny was stunned, and when she looked up, she saw Biden Lu's handsome face.

She was slightly shocked and was about to sit up.

However, there was limited space in the car, and the man was already born tall, so she was held in his lap, and then straightened up, and her brain hit the roof.

"Watch out!"

Fortunately, Biden Lu was quick-eyed and stretched out his hand to protect the top of her head.

Jenny bumped into his hand, Biden Lu pressed her into a sitting position on his lap and said in a deep voice, "Don't move, we'll be home soon."

Jenny had to be good and still, and asked again, somewhat confused, "Did I fall asleep?"

"Well. You're a little cold, so let Aunt Liu cook you some ginger soup when you get home."

Jenny frowned and raised his hand to touch his forehead.

It seems to be a little hot.

When the car arrived home and they got out of the car, Biden Lu ordered the kitchen to make ginger soup, and ordered her to go back to her room right away to take a hot bath.

The house was heated, and a hot bath would help with the cold, so Jenny went as he was told.

But unexpectedly, just as soon as they went up, they heard a scream coming from upstairs.

"Ah-!"

Biden Lu's face turned pale and he went upstairs in a row.

The bedroom door was open, the bathroom door was closed, and the light inside was on.

Biden Lu frowned tightly and knocked on the door.

"Jenny, what's wrong?"

For a moment, a muffled voice from Jenny came from inside, "I'm fine! Don't mind me!"

Just listening to the voice, you could hear the obvious concealment and pain from it.

Biden Lu's face sank even more.

"Open the door!"

No more answering him inside.

There was a faint sound of a note.

Biden Lu's face sank further and further, and he couldn't care about anything else, so he found the key and opened the door.

The moment the door opened, the pupils shrank.

Simply laughable.

I saw Jenny wrapped in a towel, her entire body falling to the floor, her head still full of bubbles, her entire body lying in an extremely twisted position next to the bathtub.

Seeing him, Jenny's hand that had originally reached out to rub her leg immediately covered her face with an expression of wanting to die.

Biden Lu walked in.

"Mrs. Land, are you putting on a shower show?"

He crouched down beside her.

"Get out!Get out!"

Jenny wanted to die, couldn't even care to cover his face, and lifted it to push him away.

Biden Lu held her wrist in a smooth grip, saw one of her legs lying there in a weird and straight position, and reached out to hold her ankle.

"Leg cramps?"

Jenny didn't want to admit it, but he nodded anyway.

Face awkwardly twisted to the side, not looking at him.

Lu Jing's eyes were deep, and he picked her up across the room and placed her on the sink next to him.

Jenny was busy tugging the towel tightly around her body.

The man, however, did nothing else but take hold of her ankle and give her a press.

His technique was surprisingly good, not too light or too strong, and soon, a leg that had been so cramped that it couldn't move was much more comfortable.

"Better yet?"

He asked softly.

Jenny nodded.

The bathroom turned on a bath light, the temperature is hot, Biden Lu looked at her only wrapped in a towel, biting her lip with a face of humiliation and reluctance but also with a hint of a twisted helpless look, inexplicably feel a trace of dry mouth.

He straightened up and braced his hands on her sides.

"Mrs. Land, next time you try to seduce me, can you change the timing? I don't want to do it to a patient."

Jenny's little face, which was already a little red, suddenly burst red.

"Biden Lu! When did I seduce you?"

Lu Jing deeply smiled.

"Take it easy, and be careful of the towel falling off."

He said, and his eyes lingered meaningfully on her chest.

Jenny immediately put her hand over her chest and covered it even tighter.

The smile between Biden Lu's eyebrows was even deeper, in the end, considering that she was now dragging her sick body, didn't tease her anymore, carried her back into the bathtub and then turned around and went out.

When Jenny came out of the shower, there was a bowl of ginger soup and two cold tablets on the table in the bedroom.

Sitting on the sofa, Biden Lu pointed to the soup and medicine and said, "Drink it, not a drop left."

Jenny frowned.

She'd grown up hating drinking the spicy stuff.

Don't even like to have it in the dish.

Glancing at the man on the couch out of the corner of my eye, I saw that he didn't look up, just said quietly, "I don't mind feeding you myself."

Jenny was in awe.

Even brought it up and held his nose for a few gulps.

After you drink it, you take the medicine.

Biden Lu was only satisfied with this.

After sending the bowl down, come back, push her down on the bed and cover her with a blanket.

"Get a good night's sleep and you'll be fine tomorrow."

Jenny's head was so dizzy that he didn't have the strength to say anything else, so he quickly fell asleep.

I woke up the next day with a really good cold.

Biden Lu had already woken up and was waiting for her in the downstairs restaurant.

After Jenny went downstairs, he greeted Aunt Liu who was bringing up breakfast and smiled, "Aunt Liu, thank you for the ginger soup last night, I'm much better today."

Aunt Liu even laughed and said you're welcome.

Biden Lu looked at her with a cool whoosh.

Why wasn't he thanked when he was the one who ordered the ginger soup to be made?

Jenny deliberately ignored the dissatisfaction in his eyes and walked to sit across from him.

Aunt Liu brought her breakfast and she thanked her with a smile, during which she gave a provocative glance at the man across the room.

Lu Jing deep silence.

This little girl, now that she's convinced he won't do anything to her, is getting more and more reckless?

He felt that he needed to revive the husband program!

After breakfast, they went out together.

Jenny was going to report to Serenity International today, and when he went out, he saw Vicky standing next to the car door.

She greeted Vicky with a smile, "Good morning, Special Assistant Su!"

"Good morning, ma'am."

Smiling, Vicky pulled the door open for her, "Get in!Mrs..."

She looked back at Biden Lu and smiled, "No, I'll drive myself."

"Are you sure your car's at home?"

The voice of Biden Lu came from behind him.

Jenny was stunned.

Only then did I remember that I parked the car downstairs in Lu's last night, and later came back in Biden Lu's car, and I didn't drive at all.

There were plenty of cars in the basement, but they weren't hers.

She perked up slightly, eventually getting into the car helplessly under Vicky's smiling gaze.

Serenity International is right next to Land's.

Far apart, Jenny let Vicky stop the car.

She opened the car door, got out, patted her sit-wrinkled trousers and smiled, "Thanks!I'll get off right here, you guys go!"

Biden Lu looked at her, but there was no expression on his face.

Told Summers to drive and went to the land.

Jenny let out a sigh of relief.

When she first arrived, she didn't want people to know about her relationship with Biden Lu, lest word spread out to bring any bad effects.

All the way to the office, since she was already familiar with the personnel yesterday, she was able to skip a lot of the process today even though it was her first day on the job.

The departmental meeting was held straight away at 8.30am.

Chapter 64

She gave an analysis of some of the current cases being worked on in the firm, as well as past cases.

Work was assigned again, and the meeting was kept busy until 12 noon, when it was adjourned.

There were those in the company who were originally not convinced by her, and after a meeting, they were basically convinced as well.

After all, those cases that had once caused them a lot of anxiety didn't expect Jenny Jing to just come up with a solution in a small meeting.

And all of these solutions are absolutely implementable and never wrong right off the bat.

Under these circumstances, it didn't take long for Jenny to gain a foothold in the PR department.

Biden Lu was at first a little worried that someone would secretly trip her up because of her youth, and had been sending Vicky to keep an eye on the movements there.

However, in just half a month, it was discovered that the staff of the PR department not only did not marginalize Jenny, but also obeyed her and acted as if they were the only ones who followed her lead.

Receiving Vicky's report, Biden Lu lifted the corner of his lips.

He found that she was even better than he had thought.

It's obviously such a cold and indifferent nature, but as long as you enter the workplace, you can immediately turn into a stern and decisive, imposing model.

He is no slouch in terms of his ability as a person or his means of getting things done.

Someone had an unspoken sense of pride.

After all, so good, but his woman.

When the master was happy, Vicky was naturally happy as well.

He just still didn't quite understand the whole thing.

He aimed at Biden Lu's appearance and felt that his master was in a good mood today, which is why he asked curiously, "President, in the past, you've never quite approved of office romances and such, saying that it would affect your work, why this time..."

Biden Lu looked at him.

Something unfathomable under the eyes, a moment, a smile.

"You wouldn't understand if I told you."

Summers: ????

If you don't tell me, how can I understand?

Biden Lu waved his hand, "Alright, I have my own plans for this, so you don't need to ask any more questions."

Vicky saw the situation and knew that he couldn't ask anything, so he could only stop.

A month has passed in a flash.

Winter is coming.

Although Visterdem is located in Eastern China, winter comes early, and it has only been a month since winter began, and already a little snow is falling outside.

Today was the weekend, Jenny didn't have to work, and after making the rounds of Starlight in the morning, he didn't bother to go out in the afternoon, staying in the couch and reading.

Biden Lu had gone back to Kyoto a few days ago and had originally agreed to bring her back with him, but Jenny Jing had refused.

She hadn't decided if she wanted to go back with him or not.

It always felt like it would be a little awkward for the two of them to go to Kyoto with their current relationship.

Biden Lu didn't force her, he knew what she was thinking, and he also knew her temperament, forcing her to be anxious is counterproductive, so he could only give her time, and let her think slowly.

The good news is that people are always around him, they can't run away, and they don't have to worry about anything, right or left is just a matter of time.

Patience, he much.

It was five o'clock in the afternoon when Jenny received the call.

She looked at the caller ID and her eyes flashed with surprise.

Hastily picking up, I did hear a familiar voice.

"You're here?"

Biden Lu hmmm, "I just got off the plane, but I have a bit of urgent business to deal with back at the office, so I may not be able to go home right away, why don't you come to the office and wait for me, and we'll go to Green Water Villa for dinner tonight?"

Jenny thought, that's fine.

So it was agreed.

After hanging up the phone, she went back to her room to add a jacket and went downstairs to greet Aunt Liu again before going out.

There were still tiny snowflakes floating in the sky, and the air was filled with a bone-chilling chill.

Jenny drove downstairs to Lu's without going up, sent a message to the man, and sat in the car to wait.

Biden Lu returned the message and said he would be down soon.

Jenny was waiting, and his eyes suddenly glanced at the Christmas tree in the luxury shop by the roadside, before suddenly realizing that it would be Christmas in a short while.

The luxury shop is clean and tidy, with stylish and classy men's suits hanging in the windows.

Her gaze swept over the row of shelves next to the suits and she paused slightly.

Then, turn off the engine and get out of the car.

It was a dark grey cashmere scarf, quite a simple style, with the words of the logo embroidered by the same colour thread hand at the end, a very stylish look.

Jenny Jing had never seen Biden Lu wear a scarf, but looking at this one, she somehow felt that it suited him.

She had almost pictured the man wearing it in her head, and the more she looked at it, the more handsome she looked.

A clerk came over just then, so she just pointed to the scarf and said, "Can you get me one of these, please."

The clerk took one look at the scarf and smiled, "Yes, please wait a moment."

She had never given Biden Lu any gifts, but instead, after more than two months of marriage, he had procured a lot of things for her.

It's always a little hard on the heart, so let this Christmas be a surprise for him!

Following the clerk to the counter, I was about to pay, but a surprised voice suddenly came from behind me.

"...Jenny?"

She turned away with a slight flicker.

I saw a young couple walking down the stairs, and it was the girl who called out to her.

"Is that really you? I thought I was mistaken!"

The girl walked down quickly with a surprised look on her face, and Jenny Jing gave her a faint glance, an imperceptible coldness flashing across his brows, and didn't answer the question.

She drew a bank card from her wallet and gave it to the clerk so she could swipe it.

After the clerk swiped his card, he smiled, "A total of thirty-four thousand eight hundred dollars, ma'am, here's your scarf, please take it."

Jenny nodded his thanks and turned to walk out with the wrapped scarf.

The girl coming down the stairs snickered in disdain when she saw that she had actually ignored herself cleanly the entire time.

"What's the pretence? I heard you broke up with Mu Yan-taek? Is it some kind of big money thing now or something? You're even willing to buy a scarf that's over thirty thousand a piece, for the Kingpin, huh?"

Jenny's eyes brushed down cold.

She turned to look at the girl and said in a cold voice, "Niu Lili, I advise you to keep your mouth shut!"

Niu Li Li proudly said, "Didn't you just pretend you didn't know me? Know each other now?"

Niu Lili was a high school classmate from a different class in her grade, and Jenny did know her.

When she and Rovell first met, Niu Lili also liked Rovell.

It's just that Rovell has always been in love with her, and then he pursued Jenny Jing fiercely, and after they got together, Niu Li Li had a long period of time where she hated Jenny Jing with a passion.

But I didn't expect that after six years, she'd still take it to heart.

Jenny Jing gave her a cold glance, then revealed an ironic smile.

"I'm sorry, because I really don't feel like it's such a wonderful thing to know you, that's why I pretend I can't see it, is that a good answer for you?"

Chapter 65

Lily Niu turned pale, "You!"

The man she was with came up and asked curiously, "Your friend?"

Niu Lili was so angry, seeing the situation even busy holding his arm, aggrieved, "I am not friends with her! Yuan Hang, you don't know her yet! She was the outcast daughter of the King family who had been swept away.

Not only did she steal someone's boyfriend in the first place, she also stole her own sister's work in order to get into the Royal Academy of Fine Arts, such a shameless woman, you should stay away from her, don't let her cheat you!"

He Yuanhang was surprised.

The headmaster of the Royal Academy of Fine Arts was his grandfather.

So he had heard about that scandal five years ago, even though he hadn't seen it with his own eyes.

Originally, I had always thought that someone who could do such a thing must be extremely ugly, both in terms of character and appearance, but I never thought it would be this cold and elegant looking woman in front of me.

Jenny Jing hooked his lips and smiled.

"If I remember correctly, there's supposed to be surveillance in this shop, right?"

Oxley looked at her warily, "Why do you ask?"

"Nothing, just wanted to make a copy of the surveillance as evidence to sue you for slander in the future."

Lilly Niu: ....

"Jenny, don't you dare pretend here! I heard that Muyen Chak dumped you because of your misbehavior! I think you were able to leave the country five years ago because you were rich, right? Did people dump you again now that you're back in the grey?"

"It's okay, if people do dump you, just tell me, I know a lot of rich and generous people who will help you out, even if it's just for the sake of a classmate."

Jenny looked at her and smiled sarcastically.

"No need, Miss Bull had better keep the rich and generous ones to herself! After all, it's hard enough for a posture like yours to climb them, isn't it a pity to give it to someone else?"

"You!"

Niu Lili was furious, but Jenny didn't bother talking to her anymore and walked out with the wrapped scarf.

"Wait!"

Oxley suddenly called out to her.

Jenny was impatient.

She turned her head to look at her and said coldly, "You still have business?"

Lily Bull took a deep breath and stepped forward, suddenly giving her an extremely nasty smile.

"Jenny, you know what? There's something I really wanted to do five years ago, but I never got the chance, and now I'm finally able to do it with confidence."

"What..."

"Pop!"

With a loud slap, Jenny's head shifted slightly, and the right side of his face swelled up immediately at a visible speed.

Her face instantly dropped to ice cold.

The next second...

"Pah!Pop!"

Two crisp slaps.

Lily Niu covered her face, incredulous.

"Jenny, how dare you hit me?"

"Courtesy, although they say that when a dog bites a man, he can't bite back, but I always feel that some animals can't be habituated, and when they are, it's easy to forget what their last name is."

"Ah-!You b*tch!"

Niu Lili madly rushed towards her, the shop clerks were scared, did not know whether to call the police, or should first rush to stop people.

Jenny Jing's eyes were cold.

She took a step back and said sternly, "Mr. He, you're just going to let your date go crazy in here?"

Only then did He Yuanhang reacted, and even went forward to pull Niu Lili down.

"Lilly!Enough!"

"Don't pull me, this b*tch, how dare you hit me, I won't let you off the hook today!"

Niu Lili said, breaking away from He Yuanhang's block and continuing to pounce on Jenny.

Jenny Jing's face changed.

Forget about the dress she's wearing today.

A real fight is not advantageous, just Niu Lili's kind of mad dog-like momentum, but any normal person looking at it would not be able to help but feel scared.

Jenny retreated towards the door.

As if she had gone mad, Niu Lili suddenly grabbed a vase from the doorway and smashed it at her.

"b*tch, I'll fight you!"

Just then, someone grabbed Jenny's wrist and yanked her to the side.

Jenny was able to avoid it, and the vase passed over her and smashed into the ground, shattering into pieces.

Everyone was shocked and their faces changed.

He's just as crazy as he says he is. Why is he really like a mad dog?

Jenny also somewhat backward white face, to look back to see the person behind him, surprised out, "Biden Lu?What are you doing here?"

Biden Lu's face was gloomy.

In the shop, Niu Lili saw that it didn't hit Jenny, and dragged another vase over to hit her, but He Yuanhang snatched it away.

"Enough!Niu Lili, calm down!"

"How dare this b*tch hit me, how else do you expect me to calm down?"

Niu Lili is also from a rich family, or the only daughter of the family, she was used to being overbearing as a child, when did she ever suffer such anger?

She felt that she would never stop if she didn't get those two slaps back today.

He Yuanhang sank and was about to speak, when a low, cold voice suddenly came from the doorway.

"Since you can't calm yourself down, I don't mind helping you."

As I said, I suddenly saw a man leaping out of nowhere and slapped Niu Lili twice.

Niu Lili was dizzy and her head was confused.

He Yuanhang, however, turned pale.

Lu Jing-Shen?How could it be him?

Biden Lu walked in from the doorway with Jenny Jing in tow.

Vicky threw out his wrist and smiled, "President, this is the first time in my life that I've ever hit a woman, but I have to say, this woman really should be hit! I don't feel guilty at all."

Biden Lu hooked his lips.

Lili Niu had responded by now.

I screamed out as I touched my rapidly swelling face.

"Who are you guys? How dare you hit me? Do you know who I am?!..."

"Enough! You shut up!"

He Yuanhang white-knuckled her and pulled her back.

Niu Lili didn't know Biden Lu, but he did.

Although I didn't know what his relationship with Jenny was, but seeing him holding Jenny's hand all the time, I knew the relationship was strong.

He even stepped forward and apologized, "Lu Shao, I didn't know you were here, I'm so sorry, there was a little altercation between the girls."

"Oh? Will the altercation rise to hitting someone with a vase?"

He Yuanhang:....

"What are you apologizing to him for, Farscout? They're the ones beating people up!"

Oxley was still screaming and unforgiving.

He Yuanhang was going crazy, never in his life had he regretted bringing her out as much as he did this time.

He gritted his teeth and said, "This is Mr. Lu, the one from Lu's zaibatsu."

“What?”

Niu Li Li finally responded.

She couldn't believe her eyes as she looked at Biden Lu, like she was seeing some kind of monster.

The Niu family was also in business, and the elders of the family had mentioned this character in their regular gossip.

But in Niu Lili's heart, Biden Lu is a legendary figure, too far away from her, just like an unreachable star in the sky, not realistic at all.

So she never thought she'd actually run into him in real life.

Her eyes fell on the hands they were holding.

Lips moved, halfway to a sound.

“How, how is that possible?”
