Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 64

Zoey Gu hadn't reacted in a daze, when the people over there explained it.

"It's Uncle Lin and several other Gu's shareholders."

"Your father and brother are gone. Although Lydia Lin used to be in charge of the Gu family, she has a criminal record and suspicions. Now the huge Gu family has the most shares in your ranking. There are many things. We want to talk to you in person."

Zoey Gu pursed her lips.

When the home is gone, she naturally doesn't care about it. But Gu was the father's painstaking effort after all. After hesitating, she finally agreed.

"Okay, I'll come right away."

After hanging up the phone, she went straight to the road to take a taxi and went straight to the address on the text message.

After half an hour, the car slowly entered the city center.

The driver went around an intersection and turned around, and Zoey Gu subconsciously approached the window and looked out.

Seeing that the place was immediately reached, there was a "bang" in front of her, and the car shook violently.

She leaned forward in an instant, and fell heavily on the seat again.

Dizzy for a while.

"Damn! Bad luck!"

The driver in front cursed helplessly, and turned to look at Zoey Gu behind him, "Miss, are you okay? The car is rear-ending, I'm afraid I can't leave for a while, or you…"

Zoey Gu shook his head.

"It's okay, I walk over by myself."

After paying the money, she pushed the door open and got out of the car. When she looked up, she saw the front rear seat door open, and a tall and leaning figure got out of the car at the same time.

With eyes facing each other, Zoey Gu suddenly froze.

Liam Lu also saw her, and his eyebrows twitched coldly. But only for a moment, he looked away blankly and looked at Shiyue on the other side of the car.

"You stay and deal with it, I'll go first."

"it is good."

When Shiyue closed the car door and turned around, he was taken aback when he saw Zoey Gu, "Miss Gu, why are you here?"

Zoey Gu barely pulled out a smile.

He has been far from her life, even if he meets, he is like a stranger, everything is what she wants. But she still felt dull and oppressive.

She subconsciously raised her head to look in the direction of the man's departure. She didn't know what she thought of, her eyes flashed, and she immediately drew her legs to catch up.

"Liam Lu, wait for me! Liam Lu…"

Liam Lu in front of him suddenly stopped.

Zoey Gu couldn't dodge, and his whole body dodge aside suddenly, her feet slipped!

"Ah—" she screamed subconsciously.

In a daze, as if seeing a big powerful hand hurriedly stretched out towards her.

But the next second, she was empty of her hand, rubbing her body, and fell straight down instantly.

thump.

She was lying on the ground, knocking her elbows heavily on the marble floor, turning her face pale with pain.

Looking at Liam Lu again, he was looking at her condescendingly, with his hands in his pockets, and he looked as graceful as a gentleman, but his face was as cold as a sharp sword.

After a long time, he asked coldly, "Something?"

Zoey Gu felt a pain in his heart.

She gritted her teeth, stood up tremblingly from the ground, and rummaged in her bag for a while, then slowly handed him what she was holding.

"this is for you."

Liam Lu lowered his head and saw what was in her palm, his indifferent expression finally changed.
