

Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 65

A bank card.

A bunch of familiar keys and door cards.

Zoey Gu avoided Liam Lu's instantly frosty eyes, looked down at her palm, and said softly.

"When you bought me, you used 6 million. Now that we have nothing to do with me, I should return the money to you. I also give you the keys to the apartment. I have packed my things and moved..."

"Heh!" Liam Lu sneered over his head.

He raised his eyebrows, his gaze held Zoey Gu tightly, his eyes flashed with unknown coldness, "That's it?"

Before she could respond, he suddenly reached out and picked up the bank card in her palm, instantly folding it in half!

Zoey's heart sank.

He had already thrown his hand into the trash can not far away with the key and the door card in her palm.

Snapped.

Liam Lu suddenly smiled.

In his eyes, there were polar wind and snow and deep emotions that Zoey Gu couldn't understand.

"Zoey, you still don't know me enough."

After he finished speaking, he turned around and strode away without looking at her again.

"Liam Lu!" Zoey Gu red eyes suddenly, "What do you want?!"

She suddenly raised the volume and called his name tremblingly. The next moment, he stopped in place again in despair.

He was right.

Over the years, even though she loved him by her life, she never knew Liam.

Over the years, he used hating her as motivation. Now that I have finally come back, how can I give up because of a so-called misunderstanding...

Fainted and helpless, the elevator door not far away opened, and a middle-aged man walked out of it.

Seeing Zoey Gu outside the revolving door, his eyes suddenly brightened.

“Quiet, are you here?”

Before the emotions on Zoey Gu’s face could be stopped, he raised his hand and wiped his face in a panic.

“Uncle Lin.”

As a result, as soon as he shouted, the opponent grabbed his hand.

“I really didn’t expect that I haven’t seen you for so many years, the little girl who was still so stinky in the past was so beautiful, go with Uncle Lin!”

After speaking, he grabbed her and walked into the elevator.

Zoey Gu frowned subconsciously.

When my father was there, I never saw them treat her like this, but now she is so passionate and caring, which always makes her feel unreasonable.

She wanted to withdraw her hand without a trace, but was held tighter.

After leaving the elevator, they quickly entered the box at the end of the corridor.

As soon as the door opened, there was not a single figure in it.

The room was dimly lit, and there were a few bottles of awake red wine on a long table, and a thick stack of papers beside it.

Seeing this scene, Zoey Gu “cocked” in her heart and suddenly turned to look at the man beside him.

“Uncle Lin, where are the shareholders?”

Looking at the old man, he no longer looked serious on the phone, and when he looked at Zoey Gu, a light of wretched greed appeared in his eyes.

“They, wait for you to wait for a long time and leave first. If anything, Uncle Lin alone is enough to talk to you.”

Zoey Gu stared at the old man, chills rose from the soles of his feet, and couldn't help but retreat by the door.

“In that case, Uncle Lin, shall we talk to another place? The air in the box is not good, let's go to the cafe downstairs.”

After she finished speaking, she slammed to the door, and reached out to pull the door.

The moment the door opened, a tall figure was slowly flashing past the door.

Zoey Gu recognized the familiar face at a glance.

“Liam...”

She subconsciously wanted to ask him for help, but his stern and indifferent eyes could not help appearing in her mind. After a pause with her hand, her mouth fell silent briefly.

It was only a second, but the old man behind him instantly jumped up.

Bang!

The door was snapped instantly!
