

Chapter 650

what!

When he heard these words, the snake was dumbfounded, and the Fatty and others were all dumbfounded.

What do you mean?

Could it be said that what He Sheng was about to break his leg just now meant breaking the legs of the viper?

But how is this possible.

The people around were shocked, just in their shocking sight.

With a wave of He Sheng's palm, a big man in black immediately passed the baseball bat in his hand.

He Sheng took the baseball bat and walked towards the poisonous snake that was pinned to the ground step by step.

Da da da!

This step was steady and powerful, but it was like a burst of thunder, causing the cold sweat on the forehead of a viper to flow down.

"No...Brother-in-law, I am your brother-in-law, why are you treating me this way? Why!" The viper's voice was filled with boundless panic.

He Sheng was his backer, and now, his backer was about to break his legs, which made him panic and dying.

clatter!

Just as the horrified words of the snake fell, He Sheng had already walked behind the snake.

His eyes looked at the poisonous snake coldly, as if looking at a dead person:

"Some people, you can't afford to offend!"

Wow!

Hearing these words, no matter it was the poisonous snake or the fat man and others around, they couldn't believe their ears.

Can't afford to offend?

What does it mean?

The people that the poisonous snake provokes are just a group of ordinary people. Is there any special identity for them?

At this moment, everyone's gazes turned towards Lin Fan, Bai Yi and others.

More than them.

At this moment, even Bai Yi, Shen Yuzhi, and others are all at a loss.

Obviously, they didn't understand at all, why the big brother He Sheng didn't help his brother-in-law, but helped them instead.

Phew...

Just when everyone was startled and uncertain, a sound of breaking the wind suddenly resounded.

Then, click!

The cracking sound of bones, accompanied by the scream of poisonous snakes, spread to the ears of everyone around him.

They were amazed to see that the left leg of the poisonous snake had been completely deformed, the white bone spurs, even the skin of his leg and his pants, were completely pierced and exposed.

The scarlet flesh and blood and the white bone spurs above are so dazzling and so terrifying.

Broken... The viper was broken a leg by life and became disabled.

He kept crying in pain, and wanted to struggle painfully, but the palms of the two sturdy men held him like iron tongs, and he couldn't break free even with such force.

"No...Brother-in-law, stop fighting! Please, stop fighting!"

"I didn't provoke a big man at all, I just deal with a few ordinary people who are making trouble!" The viper screamed, full of boundless. Panic.

Even if one of his legs was interrupted, he couldn't figure out who he had provoked.
