

Super Rich Dad Chapter 654-656

Chapter 654

Just as the inside room was in an uproar, Jiang Hao walked in with his men.

Looking at the mess, Jiang Hao frowned and called out, 'Make way for me, the nurses come in and carry the patient to the stretcher!'

After saying these words. Jiang Hao saw that Lin Yan's face was streaked with tears and looked at her with a slight heartache, 'Do you want to go to the hospital with me?'

Lin Yan raised her head and glanced at Jiang Hao a little blankly, as if she hadn't come back to her senses.

Jiang Hao saw that she had not said anything, so he simply went forward and took Lin Yan's hand and helped her to stand up.

When Lin Nan saw this scene, he could not help but exhibit himself to Jiang Hao and said, 'What are you!'

Jiang Hao turned his head and looked. Seeing that Lin Nan was supporting an old lady, he said, 'I'm her friend, what's the problem?'

Lin Nan sneered twice and said, 'Friend? You are also worthy of being friends with our Lin Yan. What a joke!'

Lin Yan couldn't take it anymore, so she turned her head to look at Lin Nan viciously and shouted, 'Have you had enough! It's already time for you to make a scene!'

Although the old grandmother was somewhat dissatisfied, she also took Lin Yan's side this time.

'Yan'er, just follow the doctor, no, just follow your friend and hurry up and take your grandfather to the hospital, I'll be right there!'

Lin Yan looked at her old grandmother and nodded before leaving with Jiang Hao and walking out of the inner house.

After getting into the car at the front door, Jiang Hao asked, 'Has the patient ever gotten emotional before?'

Lin Yan frowned and spoke, 'It seems like there was and it seems like there wasn't, I'm not very clear.'

After saying these words. Lin Yan couldn't help but speak, 'What about it, is there any major problems with my grandfather's body?'

Jiang Hao put down the stethoscope and then spoke with a bit of a headache, 'This is already a big problem, how much more do you want, who is that man who was just yelling at me inside?'

'He's my uncle.'

Lin Yan spoke with a somewhat gloomy face, 'Arranging my marriage engagement was his intention, which means he wanted to drive me out of the Lin family.'

Jiang Hao frowned slightly, 'No wonder I see that man so badly, feelings turned out to be no good.'

Originally Lin Yan was looking at her grandfather with anxiety, but when she heard Jiang Hao's words, she almost laughed out loud.

On the other hand, the old grandmother looked at Lin Nan with some shock and anger and scolded, 'You know that he is not well, and you are still deliberately so angry with him, aren't you?'

Lin Nan knelt down and shouted, 'Old grandmother, I was wronged. It was the Shen family who wanted to come up to talk today, I wasn't the one who was colluding!'

Looking at the innocent look on Lin Nan's face, the old grandmother let out a deep sigh.

If it wasn't for the fact that Lin Yan was a daughter and would never be able to inherit the Lin family business, how could she have supported such two losers?

Thinking of this, the old grandmother let out a deep sigh, and for a moment she actually wondered whether she had done the right thing or the wrong thing.

After shaking her head, the old grandmother looked towards the door and said, 'Arrange a car for me, I need to go to the hospital now.'

Lin Nan agreed and then hurriedly went out to make the arrangements, but it turned out that before the old grandmother could reach the hospital.

What had happened to the Lin family was surprisingly known outside. Including the Shen family's people also knew the news.

However, the reaction of the Shen family to the news was very favourable to Lin Yan, because since the person in charge of the family had fallen. So the marriage could not be put on the agenda for the time being.

When the grandmother and the others arrived at the hospital, Jiang Hao was examining Master Lin's body, while Lin Yan was sitting quietly by the side.

Seeing this, the old grandmother hurriedly went up to him and asked, 'How is it doctor, is the patient doing well?'

Jiang Hao saw the anxious look on the old grandmother's face. So he smiled and said, 'Don't worry, it's nothing serious, go and check in first.'

Lin Nan stood behind his grandmother and looked at Jiang Hao and said angrily, 'What hospitalisation procedures, you must hurry up and treat me! If anything happens to the person'

Lin Nan's words had not yet ended. Jiang Hao glared at him and said in a deep voice: 'What, if something happens to him you can eat me?'

After saying this Jiang Hao violently threw his stethoscope to the ground and then angrily said, 'I'm telling you, don't give shame! If it wasn't for Lin Yan's sake, I wouldn't have treated you!'

Lin Yan stood by the side and heard Jiang Hao's words, a strange look flashed across her eyes.

The old grandmother, on the other hand, looked at Lin Yan with anger and laughter and said, 'Good, good, you've deliberately come to embarrass the wife, haven't you?'

Jiang Hao slightly sized up the old grandmother. With a cold snort he didn't want to talk to her at all.

Lin Nan, on the other hand, stood behind the old grandmother and also said angrily, 'Grandmother, why don't we just go? I don't believe that we can't find a better doctor than him in the large Northern Mansion.'

Dr. Ren, who happened to be passing by the infirmary, heard this and came over, then looked curiously into the room wondering what was going on.

Only after seeing the angry look on Lin Nan's face. He thought he had come across someone who was causing a medical problem.

Thinking that Jiang Hao was now in hot demand, he smiled and walked in and said, 'You don't say anything about this gentleman. The number one doctor in the Northern Province is Dr. Shen Yan, who is in front of you.'

When these words came out, many people looked at Jiang Hao with dumbfounded eyes!

Although he was the number one divine doctor, which of those Chinese doctors were not old enough to be listed as such?

Chinese medicine is not like Western medicine where you can train and mass produce, Chinese medicine can only be developed slowly, one step at a time.

Therefore, even Lin Yan could not believe it, not to mention Lin Nan and the others.

If one were to say that Jiang Hao was highly skilled in medicine, Lin Yan would definitely not object, after all, his own sister was born with a Yin vein and Jiang Hao could cure it.

But if she were to say that he was the number one divine doctor in the Northern Province, Lin Yan's heart was a little bit in doubt.

Lin Nan snorted when he heard this and looked at Jiang Hao disdainfully, 'You just blow it off, he might not be as old as my son at this age, he's still the number one divine doctor!'

Even the old grandmother's face became a little contemptuous when she looked at Jiang Hao, thinking that Jiang Hao was pretending to be a big shot in front of her.

When Dr. Ren saw that no one believed him, he looked at Jiang Hao, smiled and said, 'Don't believe me, just take a look at the sign hanging above the door.'

So the Xue family was also a large and powerful family in the Northern Province, hearing this, Lin Nan's face sank slightly.

He then looked at Jiang Hao and asked, 'Are you related to the Xue family?'

Jiang Hao smiled at this and did not deny it, but it was Dr. Ren who spoke up at the side, 'Dr. Shen is a guest of the Xue family, so what else can you not trust.'

Under Dr. Ren's cowhide, Jiang Hao's identity instantly became somewhat seemingly real.

Chapter 655

The old grandmother looked at Jiang Hao with some trust, so she walked over to Lin Yan and asked softly, 'Yan'er, is this true?'

Honestly speaking, Lin Yan was not very clear about these things either, but looking at her old grandmother's face. She still nodded slightly.

After all, she did know that Jiang Hao had cured the Xue Family's newly promoted young lady, Xue Yuning, and she had heard that that person had been in a coma for most of a year before Jiang Hao cured her.

Old Grandmother and Lin Nan looked at Lin Yan and both nodded their heads, so they were suddenly dumbfounded!

Lin Yan was a person who was a bit tit-for-tat with them though. But she never joked when it came to things.

Since she had nodded her head, it proved that what the doctor next to her said was most likely true!

No matter what time it was. People didn't like to offend doctors, because maybe they might ask for someone's head at some point.

Lin Nan looked at Jiang Hao's bemused look and couldn't squeeze out a single word with a blue face.

The old grandmother, on the other hand, pondered for a moment before stepping forward and speaking with a smile, 'That, Dr. Shen, it was my wife who was too anxious just now.'

Jiang Hao was very tired of Lin Nan, but for this old grandmother of the Lin family, Jiang Hao slightly agreed with her.

From the analysis of Lin Yan's words, this old grandmother in front of him was also for the good of the Lin family, it was just a pity that she was bound by the old generation's thinking, thinking that only men could take up the family business.

Jiang Hao sighed when he thought of this. He then nodded to the old grandmother before speaking, 'Don't worry, everything is normal for the patient now, but there are still some tests to be carried out.'

Lin Nan hid behind the old grandmother and after hearing this spoke with a slight cloth, 'Checking and checking, all you know is to check all day long, the person can't tell what's going on.'

This Jiang Hao did not open his mouth to speak, instead, the old grandmother turned her head with a disgusted face to look at Lin Nan and said angrily, 'You get out of here!'

Lin Nan looked at his grandmother, but after a slight daze, he lowered his head and skittered out.

Lin Yan looked at his back and gritted his teeth with hatred, Jiang Hao sighed lightly and said directly, 'It looks much more spacious with one less person.'

Jiang Hao then looked at his grandmother and said, 'Don't worry, I will give you an exact time when I have finished my examination and exactly when I will recover.'

Looking at Jiang Hao's so confident attitude. The old grandmother nodded slightly and then planned to leave, but as she was leaving she took a deep look at Lin Yan.

It was good that the old man was saved, but Lin Yan looked like she had some unexplained relationship with this doctor, and she didn't know what the relationship was.

This matter was on her mind and she planned to find someone to look into it if she had time.

The news of the Lin family's old man falling ill soon came out, and Chen Minggang, who was eating, pondered for a moment after learning the news.

He then spoke with a grim smile, 'Get ready to withdraw the funds for the project we invested in the Lin family.'

Just as Chen Ming's words fell, a butler-like figure suddenly stood out behind him and said in a deep voice, 'Young master. I'm afraid that doing so will put the Lin family in a difficult position.'

Young Master Chen snorted at these words, 'Since their Lin family did not agree to marry Lin Yan to me. Then they will have to cover whatever I do.'

After saying this, he lifted the red wine on the table and took a slight sip.

At first he was a bit hesitant about this matter, but he was concerned that the Lin family still had an old man who could hold up the stage.

If he did so, he would not be able to threaten the Lin family. It was likely that he would have gotten himself into trouble.

The butler behind him looked at his young master's face and sighed, then he bowed his head and promised and retreated.

And Chen Shao looked out of the window and smiled a little smugly for a moment.

Just because of Elder Lin's sudden illness, all sorts of contradictory problems occurred in the Lin family for a while were exposed.

Lin Dong was caught in a gambling scheme. Master Lin also fell ill.

Mr. Chen of the Jincheng Group withdrew his investment from the project because of Lin Dong's arrest.

Although there was a contract in place, the Lin family could not say anything because of Lin Dong's arrest.

The only one who could speak, the old man, had fallen ill and the Lin family was plunged into various problems.

Lin Nan spent the whole day looking at the contract report in his hand, his face turning blue to the point of turning into a cucumber.

The old grandmother of the Lin family had to step forward and take charge of the situation for the time being.

Unfortunately, people are too old to keep up with their energy, and although Lin Nan is very ambitious, his ability is limited. But his abilities were limited.

After thinking about it, the old grandmother decided to trust Lin Yan for once. To give her a chance to perform.

A quick phone call quickly recalled Lin Yan back to the family, and then threw all the various problems the Lin family was currently experiencing into her hands.

Lin Nan was a little disapproving of such things though. But after considering that he couldn't do it himself anyway.

If he just threw it to Lin Yan, one, he could exchange it for a good name of not fighting for power. Secondly, he could let her deal with all these problems.

If it's handled well, he'll have a good understanding of people, but if it's not handled well, he'll have an excuse to take his time to fix Lin Yan.

When Jiang Hao found out that Lin Yan was planning to go back, the first thing he did was to give her an analysis of what was at stake at home.

However, when Lin Yan looked at her grandfather, who was lying unconscious on the hospital bed, she still agreed with her teeth.

Jiang Hao looked at the determined look on her face and sighed slightly, 'You should know that if you handle these matters well, it's someone else's fault, but if you don't handle them well, it's your responsibility.'

Lin Yan looked at Jiang Hao and gave a bitter smile, 'What can be done, in the end that is also my father's legacy after all, I can't just stand by and watch it go to waste.'

After saying this Lin Yan ignored Jiang Hao's advice and returned to the Lin family ready to save the day.

The old grandmother of the Lin family watched as Lin Yan returned with a determined expression and began to sort these things out, and for a moment the feelings of regret in her heart grew even heavier.

If it wasn't for the fact that Lin Yan was a girl, how could she possibly have taken a shine to Lin Nan and his father and son?

The news that Lin Yan had started to take over the management soon came out again, and Chen Ming was just sitting in the company office looking at the report in his hand.

After hearing the news, a strange look flashed across his eyes.

He then looked at his housekeeper and asked, 'Did Lin Yan come to ask about our withdrawal of capital?'

The butler nodded and spoke, 'There has been, the enquiry was sent yesterday and we made an appointment with Miss Lin as per your instructions.'

Hearing this, Chen Shao nodded in satisfaction, 'That's good, what I fancy is still mine in the end, no one can snatch it away!'

He had already thought about it, as long as Lin Yan agreed to marry him, then he would be willing to step in to help the Lin family with their financial problems!

Chapter 656

When Lin Yan decided to meet with Chen Minggang, she already had a certain calculation in her mind about him.

Two days later, inside a luxurious restaurant, Lin Yan sat quietly on a chair looking out of the window.

Chen Minggang walked over wearing a slightly flashy suit. Then he sat in front of Lin Yan.

'The reason why I asked you to be at this place is because the steak at this restaurant is very special, you can have a good taste.'

Lin Yan looked at Chen Minggang and frowned, and then spoke, 'I didn't come here today to eat with you.'

Chen Minggang looked at Lin Yan's face with a chipped frown and smiled, of course he knew that Lin Yan had not come over to eat with himself.

But so what. He wanted to eat then Lin Yan had to obey and sit obediently to eat.

‘I advise you to better behave and listen to my arrangements, otherwise there are some things you are afraid you won’t be able to say.’

Lin Yan looked at Chen Minggang after hearing these words. She had the intention to retort but could not help but fall silent.

She then picked up the knife and fork on the table and ate in silence. For Lin Yan, her father’s legacy took up a large part of her heart.

Looking at Lin Yan being so obedient, Chen Minggang smiled contentedly before speaking, ‘I know the purpose of your visit today, but there is something I hope you will listen to me for a moment.’

Hearing this, Lin Yan put down the knife and fork in her hand, then wiped the corner of her mouth and spoke, ‘Strictly speaking we didn’t break the contract, it was you who took the lead in breaking it.’

Here Lin Yan paused and continued, ‘It’s enough that I didn’t sue you for violating the contract by withdrawing your investment at will, why do you have to make things so difficult for me.’

Looking at the aggrieved look on Lin Yan’s face, Chen Minggang snorted and roared, ‘Why, are you asking me why?’

After saying these words. He picked up the cup and slammed it on the ground, ‘Why don’t you know clearly in your heart, what else do you want me to do before you are satisfied!’

‘In order to chase you, I took out 50 million dollars to play with you, but you treat me like air?’

‘In order to chase you, I am the heir of the Jincheng Group, following behind you like a f*cking dog, but you don’t even bother to look at me!’

The enraged Chen Minggang stood up and propped his hands on the table.

A pair of eyes looked at Lin Yan as if she was looking at prey and said sorrowfully, ‘Do you know why now, do you still want to ask why?’

Lin Yan had always known how Chen Minggang felt about herself, but there were some things that could not be forced at all.

Looking at Chen Minggang’s frantic look, Lin Yan took a deep breath after a moment of silence and said, ‘We don’t fit, I don’t like you at all. You’ve always known that.’

‘I don’t care! I must have what Chen Minggang wants! There’s nothing in this Northern Mansion that I can’t have!’

Looking at Lin Yan’s face with some fear, Chen Minggang closed his eyes slightly to suppress his emotions.

He then looked at Lin Yan and said, ‘I can give you the capital, I can give you the project, I can also not want the profit, you marry me.’

‘What’s so good about marrying the Shen family, is my Jincheng Group inferior to the Shen family!’

Speaking of this, Chen Minggang looked at Lin Yan with a flash of mockery in his eyes.

‘Your family are selling you around like a bargaining chip, would you not know that?’

Lin Yan bit her lip as she looked at Chen Minggang. The pressure Chen Minggang brought her at this moment was too great, so great that she was a little breathless.

This was something she had known all along. Her own uncle and old grandmother were treating her like a bargaining chip, waiting for a price to be offered.

Whoever offered her a high enough price, she would be theirs.

I’m afraid that the only person left in the family who would look at herself like a human being was the old man, thinking of this. A layer of foggy water mist appeared in Lin Yan’s eyes.

Chen Minggang looked at Lin Yan and smiled before speaking, ‘I’m doing this because I really like you and I want your consent, not to talk to that dead old woman in your family.’

Lin Yan took a deep breath before looking at Chen Minggang for a while in silence, then spoke, ‘Is it true that as long as I marry you. You’ll help my Lin family out of their current predicament?’

Chen Minggang looked at Lin Yan as a hint of surprise flashed in his eyes, then he sat down and nodded slightly.

‘What is your Lin family’s current predicament, the biggest problem is nothing more than the financial aspect.’

After saying this, Chen Minggang lit himself a cigarette and continued, ‘The deficit on top of the finances as well as my disinvestment this time, the end of the year will soon give the board of directors dividends and profits again, I will help you out just fine.’

Lin Yan looked at Chen Minggang and couldn’t help but think of one thing in her mind, that is, why did he know about the financial deficit of the Lin family company?

The company’s financial shortfall was a matter of concern to her, and she subconsciously felt that something was not quite right about it.

So after a period of silence, she said, ‘Fine. If you want me to marry you, you can, but give me some time to think about it.’

Looking at Lin Yan, who was still as cold as ice. Chen Minggang agreed with a grim smile.

Lin Yan was already prey to him now anyway, and he didn’t believe that anyone else could help Lin Yan but him.

So after hearing Lin Yan's request. He agreed to this matter with just a faint smile.

When Lin Yan had gone, Chen Minggang sat in his chair quietly enjoying the feeling of victory.

Even the strongest wild horse. Didn't they still lower their haughty heads in front of him?

But just when he was pleased with himself, someone behind him suddenly stood up and whispered, 'Young master, will there be any trouble if the master finds out about this?'

Hearing this, Chen Minggang frowned and snorted back, 'What do you know, there are some things he knows but he has to act as if he doesn't know.'

After saying this, he looked at Lin Yan's back as she walked out of the restaurant downstairs and muttered, 'Those who can't get it are always stirring, those who are favoured are emboldened.'

While Lin Yan was being overwhelmed by the family pressure and the threat from Chen Minggang, Jiang Hao was still staring at the report in his hand.

While looking at it, he smiled at Elder Lin, who was lying on the hospital bed and could only blink his eyelids, 'Luckily, there's nothing particularly wrong with your health.'

Jiang Hao then leisurely administered the needles to Master Lin, and when he was done, he left the ward and went to the hospital rooftop to light a cigarette for himself.

While he was smoking, the sound of the door opening behind him suddenly startled Jiang Hao.

He turned his head to look and smiled after finding out that the person who came was Lin Yan: 'How is it? I haven't seen you for a while, have you dealt with the family matters yet?'

Lin Yan looked at Jiang Hao and froze, then reached for the cigarette in Jiang Hao's hand and lit it for himself and said, 'It's fine, how is my grandfather's illness
