

Super Rich Dad Chapter 659-660

Chapter 657

Jiang Hao looked at Lin Yan and was slightly stunned, Lin Yan was usually quite calm and collected in front of him and had never seen her smoking before.

Suddenly snatching the cigarette from his hand, Jiang Hao spoke with some confusion, 'There's nothing wrong with that illness of your grandfather. I have a way to treat it on my side, but what are you doing?'

After saying that, Jiang Hao looked at the cigarette butt in Lin Yan's hand, slightly puzzled.

Lin Yan looked down at the cigarette in her hand and smiled, 'It's nothing, I smoke occasionally. It's just that you don't see it.'

After saying this Lin Yan took a deep puff and then gave it back to Jiang Hao and said, 'I've been under a bit of pressure this time.'

Jiang Hao looked at the somewhat sad look on Lin Yan's face and couldn't help but fall silent. Because of some of the things the Lin family had encountered recently, he had also heard a little bit about them.

Looking at Lin Yan's difficult look, Jiang Hai spoke after a while of silence, 'Have you met a lot of trouble in the Lin family this time?'

After saying this, Jiang Hao regretted it, what kind of person was he to Lin Yan, and what qualifications did he have to ask about the Lin family's affairs in his current capacity?

However, when Lin Yan heard this, she felt a slight warmth in her heart, at least there was someone around her who really cared about her at such a time.

Thinking of this, Lin Yan shook her head and said, 'It's not that much trouble, it's not too bad, I just met a few villains.'

After saying this, Lin Yan leaned on the railing of the rooftop and looked at the city and said, 'Look at all these tall buildings everywhere, how many people are trying to climb up.'

Jiang Hao followed Lin Yan's gaze. Indeed, how many people in this city full of people were trying to climb upwards.

They were also all trying to gain a piece of heaven and earth for themselves in this way, so that they could live freely in their own world.

The Lin family had become one of the very few successful families, so why did Lin Yan suddenly say this again?

Thinking about this Jiang Hao looked deeply at Lin Yan and said, 'Has something happened to you recently, why do I always feel that you are strange.'

Lin Yan looked at Jiang Hao and remembered what Chen Ming had just told her, and her eyes turned slightly red for a while.

Jiang Hao looked at her face and felt a pain in his heart for some reason, and after a while of silence he didn't know where he got the courage from.

He took Lin Yan into his arms and said in a deep voice, 'What's wrong, tell me.'

Lin Yan leaned her head on Jiang Hao's shoulder and avoided saying anything. She really didn't want Jiang Hao to know those things.

The family treated her like a bargaining chip at the mercy of others, and she would have to marry whoever offered a high enough price.

People outside also seemed to see her as a status symbol, thinking that marrying a woman from the Lin family would be a matter of honour.

There were many things she could not tell others, and she could only swallow any bitterness she had.

Not to mention Jiang Hao, even when she herself faced something, she could only hypnotise herself to forget about it.

At this moment, Lin Yan listened to Jiang Hao's murmur in her ear and shook her head slightly before she said, 'It's alright. It's just that I've been a little too tired lately.'

After saying these words, Lin Yan left Jiang Hao's embrace. Then looking at the time she spoke, 'It's getting late, I have to go home and do my work, take good care of my grandfather.'

Lin Yan then looked at Jiang Hao's chest and saw that it was slightly wet, so she spoke with some embarrassment, 'I've soiled your clothes. I'm sorry, I'll go now.'

Jiang Hao stood on the rooftop looking at Lin Yan's back, and after a long silence he couldn't help but ponder.

He himself might be able to stay in hiding, but he always had to stand up for himself!

Those friends and brothers of Chu Jiang's he hadn't been able to protect. Couldn't he help the friends he knew in the Northern Province?

Thinking of this Jiang Hao's eyes became firm, and after smoking a cigarette Jiang Hao walked down to the rooftop.

Then he came to Master Lin's ward, and after seeing that there was no one there Jiang Hao locked the door of the room.

Then he sat at the head of Master Lin's bed and looked into his eyes, and was slightly silent for a while.

Jiang Hao opened his mouth and asked, 'Blink your eyes if you can hear me clearly.'

There was some confusion in Master Lin's gaze as he lay on the hospital bed, but he still blinked his eyes for a moment.

Then he looked at Jiang Hao in confusion, slightly confused as to what tricks this young man in front of him was playing with himself.

Jiang Hao looked at Elder Lin and blinked for a moment before speaking, 'The Lin family has encountered a lot of trouble this time after you collapsed.'

As he said this, Jiang Hao slowly took out his golden needle bag. Then he opened it and looked at the neatly arranged golden needles.

'But you won't be able to get well again in a short time, if you want to get well soon. Just blink your eyes a little more.'

This time, Elder Lin looked at Jiang Hao but hesitated slightly, then only reluctantly blinked his eyes.

Jiang Hao looked at him for a while in silence. Then he sighed and said, 'I can cure you as fast as I can, but you can't tell anyone about this secret.'

After saying these words, Jiang Hao slightly closed his eyes and mobilized the true qi in his body.

Since he had come out of Thirty Mile Bay, after this period of rest and recuperation, he found that he had reached the level of his father back then.

Although his reach was still not as good as Shen Tianyang's, the battle that night in the rain had shown him where his limits were.

The condition on Master Lin's body was not something that could normally be cured, and having a way to cure it was already very good, not to mention recovering as quickly as possible.

As he watched Lin Yan, a weak woman, hold up the Lin family's fortress, Jiang Hao thought of using his true qi to help Master Lin recover.

But after all, he did not want the secret of his true qi to be known by others, so that Shen Tianyang's minions would be more likely to find him.

Thinking of this, Jiang Hao only hoped that Elder Lin would keep it a secret for him.

After looking at Elder Lin to make sure of this matter, Jiang Hao slightly closed his eyes and sat in his chair.

One by one, the golden needle packets placed on the side actually flew out of the needle packets automatically, and then hovered in mid-air.

Master Lin, who was lying on the hospital bed, watched this scene with his eyes wide open!

It wasn't that he hadn't seen some strange people and hadn't heard of people being able to use their Qi to control things.

But when such a thing happened in front of his eyes, he still couldn't help but feel a moment of surprise!

Such a character could only exist in stories or legends, and no matter how one looked at it, Jiang Hao did not look like a person with great martial arts skills like those in the stories.

Just as he was thinking about this, Jiang Hao opened his eyes with a jolt.

The golden needles suspended in the air automatically pierced into Elder Lin's body like lightning, and then Jiang Hao used them to slowly input his true qi into Elder Lin's body.

Chapter 658

Master Lin, who was lying on the hospital bed, felt the sudden influx of true qi in his body and looked towards Jiang Hao in surprise.

However, he found that Jiang Hao's brow and face were already a little pale at the moment, I'm afraid it was because of the consumption of true qi.

In fact, Jiang Hao was not feeling well at all at the moment, such a treatment was the real Golden Needle Transition!

Using the metallic qualities of the golden needles to channel true qi more easily. Using the metallic nature of gold needles, it was easier to channel true qi into the patient's body, and a huge amount of true qi was continuously fed into the patient.

However, even the best gold needles could not achieve a tenth of the input, but only about two or three percent, which was already the best.

In other words, the true qi Jiang Hao infused into Master Lin's body was huge. But even more was wasted in his body.

It was because of this that Jiang Hao was slightly unable to support himself. Otherwise it would never have appeared in this condition.

Just as he thought of this, Elder Lin realised that he seemed to be able to move his tongue slightly, so he hurriedly spoke, 'Stop, stop.'

When Jiang Hao heard this from Elder Lin, he was startled in his heart and thought that something had gone wrong with the way he was inputting his true qi, so he hurriedly stopped and looked at Elder Lin.

'Young man, I don't know why you know these things, but you should take a rest first.'

Elder Lin, who had just regained his speech, was still speaking slightly weakly and intermittently, and if it wasn't for Jiang Hao's amazing hearing I'm afraid he wouldn't have been able to hear clearly what he had just said.

After smiling slightly, Jiang Hao looked at Elder Lin and said, 'Don't worry. I'll be fine, I just need to work a little harder.'

After saying this Jiang Hao intended to continue to cast again, but he was stopped by Elder Lin.

He looked at Jiang Hao as if he wanted to say something, but for some reason he couldn't say the words again.

He wanted to gesture but couldn't, so he had to helplessly close his eyes, declaring that he didn't need Jiang Hao's treatment for the time being.

Looking at Elder Lin, who was lying on the hospital bed resisting treatment, Jiang Hao faintly stared, then said with some hidden anger, 'If you don't get better soon, I'm afraid Lin Yan will die of exhaustion!'

The reason why Jiang Hao said this was definitely not in jest, but in all seriousness. It was because he was really a bit worried about Lin Yan's condition today as he watched.

After easing off a little, Elder Lin suddenly spoke somewhat weakly, 'Today, let's leave it at that, you can have Yan'er come over for a bit.'

Hearing this Jiang Hao faintly froze, then walked out in silence, then took out his mobile phone and made a call to Lin Yan.

Lin Yan's voice on the other end of the phone sounded very weak, and Jiang Hao couldn't help but feel a little worried.

But before he could say a word Lin Yan hung up and it was almost two hours later that she hurried over. Then she went straight to Elder Lin's ward.

Jiang Hao stood alone outside the ward and waited quietly until Lin Yan came out, then he walked up and looked at her and said, 'What's wrong with you lately? Your body will collapse if you continue like this.'

Lin Yan avoided Jiang Hao's gaze that was looking at her and went slightly silent, then she laughed lightly and whispered, 'It's fine, it's just these two days, thank you for what you did for grandpa.'

Jiang Hao looked at her rigid look and sighed before shaking his head and saying, 'I've always considered you a friend. But you never seem to treat me as a friend.'

After saying this Jiang Hao turned around and was about to leave when he suddenly heard Lin Yan behind him hurriedly speak, 'Shen Yan, wait, I'm not like this.'

As soon as the words left Jiang Hao's mouth, he heard a thumping sound and hurriedly turned his head to look at Lin Yan. Only to find that she had already fainted to the ground.

Jiang Hao hurriedly went forward to pick up Lin Yan and reached out his hand, and as soon as he did so, he found that Lin Yan's body temperature was a bit unusually high.

So after slightly reaching out to test Lin Yan's forehead, he said with a slight sense of shock and anger, 'You didn't even know to tell me that you had such a high fever!'

After saying this, Jiang Hao picked up Lin Yan and hurried into the infirmary, then began to give Lin Yan a transfusion.

Lin Yan laid down to rest for less than an hour before slowly waking up and looking at Jiang Hao sitting at the head of the bed looking at her with concern.

Lin Yan's first reaction was to get up, but she found that she had no strength at all.

So she smiled bitterly and said, 'I don't think I don't consider you a friend, it's just that there's been a lot going on lately and I couldn't take the time to talk to you.'

Jiang Hao shook his head and then reached for an orange, then peeled it for Lin Yan as he said, 'Don't say anything right now. Just rest well.'

Lin Yan looked at Jiang Hao helplessly, then raised her hand to look at her watch and said in surprise, 'What? It's already this time! Why didn't you call me!'

Looking at Lin Yan's anxious look. Jiang Hao frowned and reached out and then pressed Lin Yan down!

'Don't you know what condition your body is in right now. You'll collapse before you can do anything if you keep boiling like this!'

Lin Yan looked at Jiang Hao's shocked and angry expression. I don't know why a sudden surge of aggravation rose up in her heart.

'What do you know! Do you know how much trouble our family is in right now, the people of the Jincheng Group have withdrawn their capital privately, and the Shen family won't lend a helping hand, do you know how much I have to do!'

Lin Yan looked at Jiang Hao with tears in her eyes as she spoke these words.

She had always known her situation but had never imagined that one day she would actually stand in this position and fight for what her father had left behind!

After the two people looked at each other in silence for a while, Jiang Hao looked at Lin Yan and sighed and said, 'How big is the shortfall in your family's funds with the withdrawal of capital from the Jincheng Group?'

Lin Yan looked at Jiang Hao's silent look and smiled and said, 'So what if I tell you, can you still help me?'

Jiang Hao frowned, then reached out to break open the orange and carefully remove the meridians for a moment before shoving it to Lin Yan's lips.

'You just need to tell me how big the funding gap is, I'll take care of the rest, trust me okay?'

Lin Yan looked at the orange in her hand, as well as Jiang Hao's serious look, and subconsciously unconsciously treated Lin Yan as someone she could rely on.

Looking at Jiang Hao's serious and handsome appearance, Lin Yan unconsciously said, 'The funding gap has been filled, but there is still a shortfall of 50 million.'

It was only fifty million, which was not a big problem for Jiang Hao.

So he nodded and said, 'You should rest here today, and we'll talk about anything after you wake up tomorrow.'

After saying this, Jiang Hao took out a golden needle and stabbed it into an acupuncture point on Lin Yan's neck, and then Lin Yan slowly fell into a deep sleep.

Looking at the sleeping Lin Yan, Jiang Hao took out his wallet from Lin Yan's body, and then looked at the bank card account inside and transferred the money over.
