

Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 7

Time seems to be frozen in an instant.

Zoey's dismissal was irresistible, and when he met those cold, bloodthirsty eyes, the apex of his heart trembled and his eyes flashed instantly.

"I..."

She opened her mouth, "Liam" but couldn't say anything.

The man stared closely at Zoey Gu's face, his eyes swept through the stormy sea, like a deadly whirlpool, violently swallowing her inch by inch. With cold lips and teeth, she bit her name hard every word.

"Zoey! It's actually you?!"

In the next second, there was a crisp sound in the ear, and the bones on his shoulders seemed to be crushed, causing Zoey Gu to scream instantly, "Ah..."

She was smashed to the ground, screaming pain all over her body.

"father..."

Hearing his daughter's voice, Liam Lu seemed to return to his senses in an instant, turned his head abruptly and squatted down, hugged Alina Yin in his arms, and calmed down.

"It's okay Alina Yin, dad is here, don't be afraid."

Everything in front of me, even the crying and tears of the little girl, instantly pushed Zoey Gu to the target, as if she was the culprit who tried to take away Liam Lu's child.

Zoey Gu felt a sharp pain in her heart.

She gritted her teeth, got up tremblingly from the ground, and stumbled over.

"Liam Lu, I did nothing. Believe me, the little girl was fainted. Someone wants to take her away, not me!"

The little girl's cry was still there.

A four or five-year-old child could not tell the truth at all.

Liam Lu stood up holding Alina Yin with a terrible expression, and his eyes swept towards Zoey Gu, but he was speaking to the people around him.

“Bring her up, I have to say something to her personally.”

Zoey Gu stared blankly at the back of the man who had resolutely walked away, and suddenly fell to the ground.

He doesn't believe her.

Zoey Gu was dragged into the room by two tall men with arms all the way, and threw them on the floor.

In the corridor outside, Alina Yin's intermittent cries could be faintly heard.

Liam Lu rarely showed warmth, and while hugging her, he spoke to her warmly.

“Alina Yin doesn't cry, and Dad will not let others bully you. Dad will not let anyone who tries to hurt you.”

As he said, he raised his head and scanned the closed room not far away, his eyes became more cold.

Alina Yin had been crying for a long time, and he couldn't stop smoking.

The little girl only remembers that Uncle Shiyue went out to work and left her to play in the office. She ran away secretly, only to lose her way. On the road, I met three bad uncles who wanted to take her away. Later, she didn't know anything.

Just when she woke up, she met the face of a strange aunt.

“father...”

Alina Yin was about to tell her father all the time. When she raised her head, her eyes widened suddenly, staring directly at Liam Lu's face, and suddenly she said.

“Dad, what's wrong with your face?”

Liam Lu's expression flickered, and Shiyue's expression changed as he walked up immediately.

“Liam, today is the 15th!” It was the day when Liam Lu needed his blood!
