

Super Rich Dad Chapter 701-703

Chapter 701

On the other hand, just after returning to the villa, Sally sat at her desk and ignored the strange looks Old Black was giving her.

With a cold expression, she said, 'I asked you to inject three billion into the Lin Group within fifteen days, how is it going?'

Old Black coughed lightly. Then he took a folder over a thousand and spoke, 'Yes, this matter has been carried out to the general, and fifteen billion has been injected so far.'

'What is the situation on the Shen family's side now, has it continued to interfere with the Lin Group's West Spring Residence project project?'

After saying this. Sally sat down on the chair and tilted her head back and closed her eyes.

Old Black looked at Sally and respectfully spoke back, 'Everything is normal in the Shen family at the moment, although Shen Qingshu, the eldest son of the Shen family, is somewhat dissatisfied with you. But he has already withdrawn his hand.'

Hearing this reply, Sally let out a deep sigh, such a haul was enough, the request she had promised Jiang Hao had basically been completed.

Thinking of this a faint smile appeared on Sally's face, 'In that case the plan remains the same, and don't make more trouble, just inject all three billion into Lin's group one after another.'

Old Black looked at Sally's relaxed expression, and after a slight hesitation, he stepped forward and spoke, 'Miss, someone over at the Lin Group has asked, wanting to know why we should give them three billion.'

Speaking here, he hesitated slightly. Then looking at Sally he mused, 'What do you mean?'

'Don't reveal our cooperation with Shen Yan to anyone, and shut up to me about the Lin Group side as well, don't reveal anything.'

For some reason, Sally just didn't want Jiang Hao to have too much contact with Lin Yan.

When she looked at the brand new set of toiletries in the bathroom last night, only she knew how hard it was in her heart at that time.

After a slight sigh Sally opened her eyes, then opened her computer and spoke for a moment, 'One more thing, last night I went to a barbecue with Shen Yan and forgot to settle the bill, you go and settle the bill for me.'

Old Black nodded respectfully, then reacted, how come he was the one who had to settle the bill for a barbecue?

He was about to protest, but Sally had already taken the attitude of sending him away. Old Black had no choice but to leave in frustration.

At this moment, inside the Lin Group, Lin Dong was sitting on a chair and strutting around looking at the people who came to the company to talk about cooperation.

What they were holding were all contracts with very low profits. Lin Dong couldn't understand on what basis these people had the courage to stand in front of him.

'You guys are just some freshers, even if you want to seek investment you should at least come up with something useful, what are these?'

One of them looked at Lin Dong before angrily saying, 'We heard that the Lin Group was supporting us, that's why we came over, but we didn't expect to have someone like you!'

Looking at the other party's angry look. A hint of anger welled up in Lin Dong, then he pointed at the door and cursed loudly, 'If you're used to seeing it, look. If you don't like it, get lost!'

This was the first time the two sides had met and the conversation was like this, let alone expecting any cooperation in the future.

After the other party had left, the people from the customer department gathered around and then sat beside Lin Dong, talking left and right about their duties to the person who had just left.

It was not that they were not capable. It was to say that they were not good enough to do the job, and did their best to discredit them anyway.

Because Lin Dong's character was such that if he couldn't see someone he didn't like, his men couldn't see them!

The more he discredits people like this. The easier the promotion of his men would be.

It was because of this that the client departments of the Lin Group had basically moved to the subsidiaries to start their work.

Those who remained at the head office were all Lin Dong's lapdogs, who could not do anything except accompany him to fool around all day.

Lin Yan, as the newly appointed general manager, was very distressed by this situation, but Lin Dong had his old grandmother behind him.

So after hesitating a few times, Lin Yan put up with it and let it happen as if she hadn't seen anything.

As long as Lin Dong did not put his hand out of the client department, then she could tolerate what Lin Dong was doing now.

Right now, the Lin Group was not out of danger. Although the Shen family no longer interfered in the work on the Xichunju project, the funds were still somewhat tight up to now.

Although the work had only been stopped for a few days. But those few days cost Lin Yan almost a hundred million dollars just for the various consuming expenses and punctuality.

Now that the Xichunju project had started again, Lin Yan's heart was relieved. She then followed Elder Lin's instructions and reported to her former partners that she was working with.

Let them all know that the Lin Group would not collapse so easily. They could work with her with confidence.

After she had finally made contact, Lin Yan sat down in her chair and let out a deep sigh.

She had been working 24 hours a day to sort out all those work-related matters, fearing that there might be something missing.

When Lin Yan had easily finished dealing with these matters, she took a look at the time and saw that it was almost time to leave work, so she got up and returned home.

After taking a rest, she lay down on her bed and fell into a deep sleep. When she got up early the next morning, Lin Yan looked at herself in the mirror and looked a little more haggard.

After smiling to himself, Elder Lin suddenly walked to the door, then looked at Lin Yan and smiled, 'The company is closed today, so you should give yourself a day off too, your body may not be able to bear it after always staying up like this.'

Lin Yan shook her head with a bitter smile as she brushed her teeth and said, 'It's okay grandpa, there's still a little bit of work left, I'll get some rest after I'm done.'

With that said Lin Yan brushed her teeth, then walked out of the bathroom and squatted down in front of Elder Lin for a while in silence.

'There's something I want to discuss with you grandpa, this matter concerns our company.'

After saying this, Lin Yan looked at Elder Lin with some expectation, hoping that he would give himself a chance.

Looking at the somewhat difficult expression on Lin Yan's face, Elder Lin lowered his head after a while of silence and spoke, 'You want to talk about the matter concerning Lin Dong, right?'

Lin Yan sighed and smiled bitterly as she spoke, 'Since you have guessed it, then I won't hide it from you, grandfather, see if you can transfer Lin Dong.'

When she had decided to discuss this matter with Elder Lin, Lin Yan had already thought about it, if Elder Lin did not agree, she would not get up from the ground in any way.

And when Elder Lin looked at the look in her eyes, he shook his head slightly and spoke, 'This matter is a bit troublesome, that mouthpiece is not someone who is easy to deal with.'

Of course Lin Yan knew that her grandma wasn't very good to deal with, otherwise why would so many people be scornful.

Chapter 702

When Lin Yan saw that Elder Lin seemed to be a little afraid of his grandmother, he could not help but speak up with anxiety in his heart, 'But if we continue to let Lin Dong mess around like this, the company will all be in a mess!'

This was not lost on Elder Lin, as the Lin Group had just passed a hurdle. He was also a bit worried about Lin Dong's messing around.

However, in order to push Lin Yan up the ladder, at the moment, Elder Lin couldn't be bothered to argue with Lin Dong about these matters.

If he really played the game with his grandmother again, it would be a question of whether Lin Yan would be transferred down because of it!

Thinking of this. Elder Lin let out a deep sigh and turned his head to look at Lin Yan helplessly, 'Yan'er. You must know that it wasn't easy for me to support you up there.'

Lin Yan fell silent after hearing these words, it looked as if there was nothing that could be done about this matter.

Just as both of them were silent, the old grandmother suddenly wandered over and then gave Lin Yan a cold look in her eyes.

Only then did she turn her head and speak to Old Master Lin, 'I have something to discuss with you, it just so happens that if Yan'er is also here, let's listen to it together.'

Master Lin glanced at his grandmother with a headache, the family was in chaos because of her, yet she acted as if nothing had happened.

After taking a deep breath, Elder Lin shook his head helplessly and spoke, 'If you have anything to say, just come in and say it. Let the subordinates all go out.'

Upon hearing Elder Lin's words, the old grandmother snorted and said, 'What, are you still worried about being laughed at?'

Although she said that, she still waved her hand, signalling for those following her to exit.

Then she walked into the room and frowned before closing the door behind her, before sitting down and looking at Elder Lin and Lin Yan and saying, 'You decided to let Yan'er get engaged to that Shen Yan, this matter is absolutely impossible!'

Lin Yan clenched her small hands after hearing this, but with her grandfather here, she didn't dare to open her mouth to answer.

And Elder Lin was even more impatient as he waved his hand, 'We've talked about this matter before, you are not allowed to interfere in it!'

That day in the backyard. The old grandmother had almost offended someone, if she continued to interfere like this.

If she continued to interfere like this, that big shot might think that the Lin family was going to be their enemy, and when the two fronts were at war, it would be strange if the Lin family didn't collapse!

And it looked as if that person was very close to Jiang Hao, and he didn't know if he was Jiang Hao's friend or what.

Thinking of this, Master Lin did not take what his grandmother said to heart for a while, and instead pondered.

And when the old grandmother saw that Elder Lin had rejected her idea by speaking directly, she spoke with some irritation, 'Then have you thought about the consequences of this matter!'

Yan'er really couldn't help herself at this point. She looked at her old grandmother for a while in silence before speaking, 'I'm not a tool in your hands, you can't ask me to live my life with anyone!'

Seeing that Lin Yan even dared to defy herself. The old grandmother spoke angrily, 'Do you know exactly what you're doing, if it wasn't for your grandfather's sake, do you think you could sit in the position you're in now?'

Lin Yan fiercely slammed her bag on the floor, then slapped her phone on the table and said, 'Then what do you think I'm sitting in this position for. For my own sake!'

'Ever since I was little, no matter what I thought you didn't care, the only thing you cared about was throwing me into the water like a fish and then throwing me wherever you saw the bigger fish!'

'Do you know what those people outside are saying about me!'

Elder Lin was startled awake by Lin Yan's angry roar, after turning his head to look at Lin Yan he let out a sigh.

'This matter. You shouldn't have interfered in it, trust me on this.'

Originally she had expected to speak through this time, but seeing that Elder Lin was dead set on protecting Lin Yan, there was no better way to do it at the moment.

After a period of silence the old grandmother nodded reluctantly and spoke, 'All right, you will know who is right and who is wrong in this matter, and who is truly for the sake of this family!'

As soon as she finished speaking, the old grandmother slammed the door and left with hatred.

Lin Yan, on the other hand, was lying on the table and crying bitterly!

The company had Lin Dong messing around in the end, and many of the customers who had come back to cooperate before were provoked by Lin Dong's words. They simply never worked with Lin's Group again.

If it wasn't for the fact that the West Spring Residence project didn't have Lin Dong's share, I'm afraid that right now the West Spring Residence would have been shut down by Lin Dong even if he didn't stop work.

Thinking of this, Lin Yan's heart felt even more aggrieved.

Master Lin took a painful look at Lin Yan and after a moment of silence, he said, 'There is something I want to ask you. Do you know who has injected three billion into the company during this period of time?'

Although Elder Lin no longer took charge of the company's affairs, the company's books were regularly handed over to him every month.

The main reason for doing so was because he was worried that Lin Dong would not change his nature. He was worried that Lin Dong would not change his nature and would try to take advantage of the company's assets again.

But after looking at it for two days he was somewhat shocked to find that someone had transferred three billion to the Lin Group unnoticed.

And Lin Yan smiled after hearing this and nodded and spoke, 'I know about this matter, the one who gave us the money is the lady who lives in the Tianzhu Villa.'

Speaking of this matter, Lin Yan looked at Elder Lin with some curiosity and said, 'Grandpa, is there anyone in our family who is friends with that young lady from Tianzhu?'

Elder Lin shook his head with a bitter smile and spoke, 'That young lady doesn't need friends at all, she's quite a bunch of people all by herself!'

When Lin Yan heard this, a look of awe flashed across her eyes as she looked at Elder Lin.

In her heart, she couldn't help but sigh a little, 'If I could be half as capable as her, maybe Lin wouldn't even be in so much trouble.'

Instead, Elder Lin glanced at Lin Yan indifferently, thinking of what he had seen that afternoon.

After hesitating for a moment, Elder Lin spoke, 'Here's another thing I need to tell you, Shen Yan looks like he's very close to that person, you'd better ask Shen Yan to see what his relationship is with that young lady.'

Looking at Elder Lin's somewhat grave expression, Lin Yan was shocked and said, 'No way, that young lady has a relationship with Shen Yan?'

Master Lin nodded and then briefly described the events of that day, waiting until he had finished.

Master Lin spoke helplessly, 'Right now this matter is indeed a bit troublesome, so it's better to be careful, you should take time to go over and take a look.'

Lin Yan smiled as she listened and nodded, then went to freshen up, intending to go to Jiang Hao's place later to talk to him and see if the prize Jiang Hao had had a relationship with that young lady!

Time passed slowly, and when it was almost evening, Lin Yan walked out from the company, then got into the seat that had just been repaired to rush to the First Chinese Hospital in the city centre.

Chapter 703

Lin Yan had just walked to the door when she bumped into Dr. Ren, who happened to be dropping off a patient at the moment.

When he saw Lin Yan coming, he smiled heartily and then looked at Lin Yan and said, 'You're here to see Shen Yan, right?'

Lin Yan looked at Dr. Ren's somewhat jocular tone and nodded slightly as her face flushed.

Then I saw Dr. Ren look at Lin Yan with deep meaning in his eyes and say, 'You'd better keep a tight rein on men.'

At first glance, there was nothing wrong with this statement. Lin Yan looked at Dr. Ren and nodded and smiled before walking into the hospital.

But the more she pondered over the words, the more uncomfortable Lin Yan's heart became.

Was Dr. Ren's remark a piece of advice or a reminder?

When she thought about what Elder Lin had told her when she left the house, a feeling of unease suddenly rose up in Lin Yan's heart.

In silence, she walked to Jiang Hao's office. Seeing that he was currently playing with his colleagues, a complicated look flashed across Lin Yan's eyes.

Then she pushed the door in and spoke, 'Shen Yan. Do you have time today, can you accompany me for a walk?'

Jiang Hao saw that Lin Yan had actually come over to look for himself today, so he hurriedly stopped playing to look at Lin Yan somewhat embarrassed and said, 'There is time, ahem, when, now?'

A few colleagues around saw Lin Yan and an ambiguous look appeared on their faces, and they all looked at Jiang Hao with a joking smile and said, 'Yo, Shen Yan, do you still want Miss Lin to wait for you?'

A number of teenage colleagues also spoke up to cheer, 'Can you be a bit of a gentleman, you're so laid back at the hospital anyway!'

Jiang Hao looked at them and scratched his head a little embarrassed. Then, without waiting for Lin Yan to say exactly when, he said, 'Okay, let's go out now.'

After saying this, he took off his white coat and then put on his jacket and followed Lin Yan out of the hospital, then casually found a cafe and sat down.

Jiang Hao looked out of the glass window at the people coming and going, and after taking a sip of coffee, he smiled and said, 'Actually, I prefer to go to a teahouse than a cafe.'

Lin Yan looked down and stirred her cup thoughtfully, turning a deaf ear to Jiang Hao's words.

Jiang Hao waited for half a day and didn't see Lin Yan speak, so he looked back at her and said, 'What's wrong with you, what's wrong with you?'

Hearing this, Lin Yan hesitantly said, 'Did my grandfather tell you about the engagement party?'

Jiang Hao stopped drinking his coffee. He almost choked, 'Cough, that, I don't have any opinion on this matter, I'm just worried that I'll ruin your innocence.'

Lin Yan laughed at Jiang Hao's dumbfounded look, then took out a tissue and wiped the corner of his mouth for him and said, 'I don't have any idea about this matter at the moment, so I came to you to discuss it.'

After hearing this, Jiang Hao pondered for a moment and then tentatively said, 'My opinion is that we should not hold an engagement party, but just talk about it to the public. That way you can remarry later.'

Lin Yan looked at Jiang Hao as he stopped moving his hands, and a trace of pain flashed in his eyes.

Jiang Hao noticed this and said, 'What's wrong? Is there something wrong?'

Lin Yan smiled bitterly and withdrew her hand and said, 'No, there's nothing wrong, do you have a girl you like?'

Looking at the look on Lin Yan's face, Jiang Hao couldn't help but think of Xue Yu Ning.

So in silence, he lowered his head and nodded, 'Yes.'

Hearing this answer. The pain in Lin Yan's eyes intensified by a few points.

However, Jiang Hao continued to speak again, 'But she doesn't like me now, she doesn't even know who I am anymore.'

At this moment Lin Yan only wanted to sigh, life is really up and down!

‘It’s okay, I’m sure she’ll have a happier life in the future!’

‘You mean to say that I can’t give her happiness?’

Lin Yan’s face flushed. Looking at Jiang Hao’s joking look, she lowered her head and took a sip of coffee and muttered, ‘I didn’t say that.’

Jiang Hao looked at Lin Yan and laughed twice before asking, ‘By the way, how are things at your company now, has the situation improved?’

Hearing this question, a trace of doubt flashed across Lin Yan’s eyes as she looked at Jiang Hao.

The lady living in the Tianzhu Villa was not an ordinary person, nor was she some kind of Bodhisattva, there was no reason for her to help herself for no reason.

And the answer she got after asking Old Black was that someone had already paid the price for her for the three billion.

Who would do that for herself, Lin Yan thought of some people one after another. But they were all ruled out by her, leaving only Jiang Hao.

She thought about how close Jiang Hao had been to the young lady during the recent period. Lin Yan couldn’t help but feel a strange mood in her heart at the moment.

Thinking of this, Lin Yan looked tentatively at Jiang Hao after a period of silence and said, ‘An unknown kind-hearted person has raised three billion for the Lin Group. So the situation is much better now.’

Jiang Hao looked at Lin Yan with a smile in his eyes and said, ‘I really didn’t see that you were so well liked that a friend whose name you didn’t even know could give you three billion?’

Looking at the smile in Jiang Hao’s eyes. Lin Yan was also a little puzzled, could it really be that Jiang Hao didn’t do it?

While she was thinking this, Jiang Hao let out a light sigh and rolled his eyes at Lin Yan.

Do you really think that a pie can fall from the sky, that a random person whose name you don’t know can find three billion dollars to help you?

After just two sighs, Jiang Hao looked at Lin Yan and said, ‘There’s something I need to tell you, the owner of that fifty million last time was asking me about the dividend.’

Hearing this, Lin Yan then came back to her senses, then after a somewhat embarrassed glance at Jiang Hao, she opened her mouth and laughed, ‘I almost forgot about this matter, the dividends have already reached over two million at the moment.’

This figure was somewhat beyond Jiang Hao's expectation, as he had also briefly looked at the projects Lin Yan had worked on with the Xincheng Group and had not expected such a large harvest.

After pondering for a moment, Jiang Hao spoke tentatively, 'Then this project really looks quite profitable, doesn't it?'

Lin Yan laughed lightly at Jiang Hao with deep meaning in her eyes and said, 'Don't even think about whether it's profitable or not, it's a huge investment, so you should just be a good doctor.'

Jiang Hao, who had been embarrassed, touched his nose awkwardly, 'I don't know why, but I always feel like you've learnt something bad.'

As they spoke, the two left the cafe intending to have some good entertainment today.

During this time Lin Yan had also complained to Jiang Hao about what Lin Dong had done, after all, the only people she could confide in about these matters were Jiang Hao and Elder Lin.

Master Lin could not help with this matter and could only remain silent.

And Jiang Hao would at least talk to himself in righteous anger and rage against Lin Dong for two sentences before thinking about what bad things such a person would encounter.
