Chapter 729

Although Shen Qingshu was reading a book, he noticed out of the corner of his eye that his father looked a little off.

With a light smile, he put down the book in his hand and looked at Shen Wennian and said, 'Don't worry, father, I have nothing to do with this incident.'

Shen Wennian knew that his son would not lie to him. Ever since he was young, he would always tell himself whatever he did, so that nothing would slip through the cracks.

In order to train Shen Qingshu's ability to do things, he would always ask him for his opinion first, and then slowly guide him on how to look at things.

At this moment, after hearing Shen Qingshu's words. Shen Wennian took a deep breath and shook his head, 'If you didn't do it, then there's something wrong with the person who spread the rumours.'

Shen Qingshu faintly froze when he heard this. Then he also looked down and pondered, how did these people know that he had dealings with Lin Dong.

This was the problem, after all, the reason he went there for dinner that day was because Chen Minggang had invited him to go.

Otherwise, he would have been working in the office at that time, not following Chen Minggang out for dinner.

After a moment of contemplation, Shen Qing Shu opened his eyes and looked at Shen Wennian, 'Although it was some rumours, I did have a private dinner with Lin Dong.'

Shen Wennian looked at him and his eyes couldn't help but sink, and after the two of them looked at each other for a long time, he was finally sure of one thing.

There was a good chance that some changes were going to happen to their Shen family this time, and it was not good to say that that old dog Chen Jingdao would really set his sights on him.

'Qing Shu. You should not go out during this period of time, better stay at home, I reckon that old dog Chen Jing Dao should be looking for you.'

Hearing this, Shen Qingshu looked at Shen Wennian with some confusion and said, 'Why is this, you can't think that I did Chen Minggang's death just because I had a private dinner with Lin Dong, right?'

When Shen Wennian saw that he was still a bit unaware of the depths of the situation, a look of disappointment flashed in his eyes before he shook his head and said, 'Let me ask you, it's said outside that Rat was one of your men, right?'

Shen Qingshu nodded back, 'But there are so many of my men, how do I know if there is one called Rat?'

‘Let’s ignore those first, secondly, the main thing is that after you had contact with Lin Dong he had an additional friend nicknamed Ratty.’

Hearing these words. Only then did Shen Qingshu completely react, then looked at his father with a shocked expression and said angrily, ‘Grass, is this someone trying to set me up?’

After Shen Wennian closed his eyes and linked all the things he knew together, he suddenly realised that the Shen family had stepped into a trap.

And it looked like this trap was still a dead trap, and the only way to escape was to find that rat!

Just as he thought of this, Shen Qing Shu obviously reacted as well. Both father and son looked at each other before knowing what their next step should be.

But just as they were about to make their move, a news item was suddenly broadcast on the television.

‘Welcome to the news on this station. At three o’clock this afternoon, an old man found a body by the river, and after the police identified the deceased as a street hooligan nicknamed Rat.’

Watching the news played on the television. Shen Qingshu sat down all of a sudden, then muttered with a dull expression, ‘Impossible, it can’t be like this!’

Shen Wennian was a little better, but his gloomy face showed how angry his heart really was.

Just as a gloomy cloud was hanging over the Shen family. Chen Jingdao, on the other hand, was watching the news on the television and sneered twice muttering, ‘Well, well, you are all ruthless!’

On the other hand, the Lin family was also dumbfounded as they watched the news, the man who had kidnapped Lin Yan had died just like that?

Only Elder Lin was silent about this matter, because only he knew that the person who went to save Lin Yan that night was Jiang Hao.

After a while of silence, Elder Lin ordered someone to push him into the study, then after holding everyone back he took out his mobile phone and called Jiang Hao.

Jiang Hao, who was carrying documents, picked up the phone after hearing it ring. Seeing that it was Master Lin calling, he hurriedly answered and said yes.

Hearing Jiang Hao’s voice. Master Lin was a little relieved and then spoke after a while of silence, ‘Tell me honestly. Did you do the incident with Chen Minggang?’

Jiang Hao hesitated for a moment before saying in a deep voice, ‘No, his death had nothing to do with me.’

Jiang Hao's words were the truth. Chen Minggang had indeed fallen to his death on his own, and it wasn't like Jiang Hao had kicked him down, so it did have nothing to do with Jiang Hao.

But to Elder Lin's ears this meant something else, so he took a deep breath before muttering, 'In that case, then it looks like some people are trying to use this matter to target the Shen family, watch the news you.'

After saying this, Elder Lin hung up the phone and then watched the news on the television in silence.

The things that the Shen family had done to the Lin family before, Elder Lin still remembered them all now.

If it wasn't for his own rate accident at the time and his temporary inability to handle things, how could the Shen family have been able to inflict huge losses on the Lin family so easily.

Now it's a good thing that someone has come forward to take the initiative against the Shen family, it looks like the sky is about to change in this northern province.

And Jiang Hao turned on the TV and watched the news, the dead man on it was still recognisable as the rat who had held Lin Yan hostage that night, although his body had already started to decay.

After two cold laughs Jiang Hao did not have a sympathetic look in his eyes, but snorted and shook his head and sighed: 'Evil has its own rewards, the ancients are not deceived.'

As he said this, Jiang Hao turned off the TV, he had to continue to memorise the fake itinerary that Sally had prepared for him.

And inside the office, Old Black stood respectfully in front of Sally's office desk and said in a deep voice, 'The third stage is done, should we guide that Ning Kun now?'

Sally looked at the news and shook her head with a smile before speaking, 'No, since Ning Kun is so good, then he should learn to find his own prey.'

As she spoke, Sally took out the video of Shen Qingshu and Chen Ming just having dinner, then looked at Old Black and spoke, 'This video, it won't appear until the end, got it?'

Old Black took the video in Sally's hand and smiled sorrowfully and respectfully replied, 'I understand, I will go down and prepare now.'

After a nod Sally watched Old Black leave, then got up and walked out onto the balcony looking up at the cloudy sky.

'The Northern Province is about to change, now let's see if your Shen family, can hold up to the backbite of this old mad dog, Chen Jingdao, or not.'

And Lin Yan remained in the room at this moment, her mouth kept whispering, 'It was Chen Minggang who saved me, it was Chen Minggang who saved me.'

She had to carve this into her own bones, because in the next step, she was the key to the whole thing.

Chapter 730

Early the next morning, Old Hei, who was ready, knocked on Lin Yan's room door.

Looking at Lin Yan sitting on the bed with her legs in her arms, her eyes staring blankly ahead, Old Black sighed and walked over.

'Clean up and get up. Take you home today and remember what I taught you.'

Lin Yan turned her head and stared blankly at Old Hei, as if she hadn't come back to her senses, her eyes unfocused.

Old Hei saw Lin Yan's appearance and frowned. Then he continued to speak, 'I said get up, it's almost time. I'll take you home, remember what I taught you.'

Only after being yelled at by Old Black did Lin Yan come back to her senses, then nodded obediently and got up after putting on her clothes.

Jiang Hao got up early in the morning, then walked to the door of Lin Yan's room and watched her walk out after Old Black.

He then laughed lightly and looked at Lin Yan and said, 'It's okay, everything will pass.'

Lin Yan looked at Jiang Hao and nodded bitterly, then turned her head to look at Old Black before suddenly stepping forward and hugging Jiang Hao.

Old Hei looked at Lin Yan and sighed, shook his head and walked away with a helpless look, leaving Jiang Hao and Lin Yan hugging each other.

Sally, who was sitting in the office watching the surveillance, secretly bit her finger after seeing such a scene. Her expression was quite unhappy.

'If it wasn't for the sake of Shen Yan, I wouldn't bother with you, you bogeyman!'

Old Black, who had walked to the office, shook his head with tears and laughter upon hearing this, and then went forward and bowed to Sally and said, 'Everything is still according to the original plan?'

Sally nodded slightly before finally pulling her eyes back from the surveillance, then nodded and said in a deep voice, 'Yes, send Lin Yan back today and don't say anything.'

Old Black nodded before speaking, 'I know, if anyone asks, I'll have the other party come and talk to you directly.'

Sally looked at Old Black with a wry smile and said, 'It will be time for this video to come out, and for this scene, it will really come to excitement.'

The two of them laughed. Old Black got up and walked out of Sally's office after packing up a bit.

Seeing that Jiang Hao was hugging Lin Yan and whispering, he helplessly walked up and said, 'I say, are you two still having fun, this matter is not over yet, can't you have some tension?'

After hearing this Lin Yan hurriedly withdrew from Jiang Hao's embrace and then stood by Old Hei's side with her head bowed in a disciplined manner.

It was hard to imagine what Old Hei had used to turn Lin Yan into the way she was now, a submissive servant.

When Jiang Hao saw such a Lin Yan, his heart ached a little, but he also knew that there was nothing he could do about it.

The reason was that if Lin Yan showed even the slightest hint of a horse's foot. Then the whole thing would be ruined.

After looking up at Old Black's somewhat derisive expression, Jiang Hao shook his head and sighed, 'I'll leave Lin Yan in your hands. Make sure to send her home safely, and also don't make her too nervous.'

The old man gave a smile and did not reply, but turned around and left with Lin Yan in tow.

Sally, who had come out of the office, stood in front of the villa and saw Jiang Hao reluctantly watching Old Black drive Lin Yan away.

She said, 'Why don't you go along with him if you're so reluctant? What's the point of staying here with me.'

Jiang Hao turned his head and looked over at the voice, seeing Sally leaning against the door with her hands on her chest, looking unhappy and grimacing.

So he walked forward, smiled and said, 'Well, I'm just a little worried. After all, the success or failure of this matter is all on Lin Yan's shoulders.'

Sally shook her head slightly before turning around and walking while saying, 'All right, just leave this matter to Old Black and don't worry about it, I'm the final insurance here to be exact.'

After saying this, Sally stopped in her tracks, then turned back to Jiang Hao and said, 'Come in, I'll spot check the documents I gave you, how well have you memorized them now.'

Jiang Hao shrugged and followed Sally into the office, then sat down on the sofa with a big grin and said, 'I don't think Chen Jingdao and Ning Kun will set their eyes on me.'

Sally smiled and looked at Jiang Hao with some sympathy and said, 'Of course. After all, you're only a little bit famous in this Northern Province, so who would look up to you.'

'Hey, hey, hey. That's a bit much!'

Jiang Hao rolled his eyes at Sally and took out the document, then flung it on the table and said confidently, 'I've memorised the whole thing. Feel free to ask.'

Sally looked at Jiang Hao with some disbelief after picking up the document and looking at it, although she had asked Jiang Hao to memorise it all.

But so much of the time. But it was not easy to memorise all the time, place, places, things done and so on.

So after a moment's hesitation, Sally opened the file and asked, 'What were you doing at 3:30 pm the day before yesterday?'

'Looking at the maple trees in Red Valley, because that's what it's most famous for, and during that time I met four or five patients who knew me.'

'What about six o'clock last night, what did you do?'

'Took a shower and then went to the bar for a drink, during which I met an eighty point beauty, but unfortunately, I didn't get to see her.'

After saying this, Jiang Hao looked at Sally with some smugness and arched an eyebrow.

Sally, who was not convinced, picked more than ten questions and asked them again in succession to confirm that Jiang Hao had indeed memorised the whole book.

Then she looked at Jiang Hao with some horror and said, 'Your memory is simply a monster, how did you manage to do so much?'

Jiang Hao proudly took the book from Sally's hand, then smiled and said back, 'Because I'm the legendary genius, so I can do it, and you can't, hahaha.'

There was really nothing Sally could do about Jiang Hao's bragging, other than express her indignation.

On the other hand, after Ning Kun received the news that Lin Yan had returned to the Lin family, he ran and called the president's office without saying a word, and then reported it to Chen Jingdao.

Soon everyone in the entire North Mansion knew about the return of Lin Yan, the central figure in the whole matter.

The closer we got to the truth, the more depressed everyone's mood became.

Chen Jingdao did not look very touched after learning about the incident, everything seemed to be in order.

Even Ning Kun felt something was wrong, why things were going so smoothly.

But he had to ask questions, and after obtaining Chen Jingdao's consent, he used Chen Jingdao's name to enter the Lin family home.

He wanted to ask about what had happened that night, but when he entered the house, he was confronted by Lin Yan sitting at the table, eating and drinking like a starving ghost.

Next to him, Elder Lin was looking at Lin Yan with heartache, and there were even faint tears in his eyes!
