

Chapter 761: Vicious Spell

Who in the end betrayed me and revealed my whereabouts? But Lear, Lovett, the tracker in that new curling iron, or that strawberry smoothie?

The only betrayal Felix can be sure of is strawberry smoothie, and his stomach starts to hurt. Sure enough, he shouldn't eat cold food these days.

She wasn't in a hurry. Although this chase was unexpected, when you have been assassinated at least once a month since you were a child, and you can hide under the bed or closet within three seconds when you are sleeping, you may also be afraid of danger. feel numb.

But this time it was really a bit troublesome. She didn't expect Beverly to invite the notorious Vandel gang. In the entire country of stars, the Van Dyer gang is one of the three major gangs. Behind them are many nobles of the Imperial Palace. The ugly and stupid six-lamp masks on their faces are obviously the abyss surveillance helmets of the "Barrier Legion" Type I1 It has been transformed and has various monitoring functions such as air, heat, dust, and blood.

There are no gangs in Galeth, or in other words, the more nobles there are, the less likely it is for gangs to form. The base areas of the three major gangs are resource-based cities with large cities but few nobles, but ordinary people know very little about them. Even in the most rampant cities, it is extremely difficult for ordinary people to get in touch with gang members, because once they endanger the people, they will It's like declaring war on the nobles.

The nobles must protect the people, and the people are governed by the nobles. This is the law of the stars. So from the beginning of the gang, the customers and the target are the same group: the nobles.

Gangs are a tool used by nobles to exclude dissidents. There is a very interesting place here – the life safety of ordinary people is in charge of the police department, and the police department has every town; the life safety of the children of nobles is in charge of the noble house, but the noble house only has Gallosh.

The huge security vacuum exposed here is the business scope of the gang. Because of the blessings of the stars, the nobles of the stars are completely unable to commit crimes, and naturally they cannot “instruct” others to commit crimes, but the family members, children, and friends of the nobles will not be bound by the blessings of the stars.

Where there are people there is competition, and where there are people there are factions. Although all behaviors of the star nobles are constrained within the legal boundaries, they still have factional struggles, and naturally they also have direct conflicts of interest. After all, there is only so much power. If you have more, I will definitely have less, and there is no shortage of targeting and suppression.

You can't commit a crime, and it's not that you can't send nasty people to towns and villages for a lifetime. If the other party has poor ability, it is “you should stay in a place where you can use your talents”; if the other party is strong, it is “use your talents to build a better society”.

Seeing that your family is going to be defeated in the power struggle, and even the treatment of the entire family will be greatly reduced, and you are a powerful magician, who can be willing? But it is worth mentioning that even if you commit a crime for the noble family, you must not let the noble be aware of the slightest bit – as a noble, he is obliged to report all criminal activities, and even the family cannot have any favoritism.

The ending of all gangs is that they are detected and reported by the family members of the nobles and perish, without any exception.

Therefore, the gang is a special organization that is parasitic among the nobles and hidden in the shadow of society. They will neither interfere in social production nor be known by the nobles, they are transparent, they are only dispatched for power, like the darkness behind the stars, no one will see them.

In border cities, the struggle between gangsters can even determine the change of power in a city. Whichever faction supports the gangster wins, whichever faction can take control of the city, and the loser will die in a burglary, and the police will block the scene, waiting for a long investigation by the House of Lords.

In the beginning, the main backbone of the gang was the relatives of the nobles, but as time went on, the composition of the gang became more and more complex, and many magicians who did not obtain noble titles also participated. Cruel people vent the disgusting desires forbidden by orderly society.

Felix sometimes wondered if the royal church had deliberately left a hole for the nobles to kill each other, in order to attract the evil and extreme magicians into it. After all, there are only so many noble titles, there are always magicians who are unwilling to accept the blessings of the stars, there are always magicians who can't get on the shore, and these magicians are unwilling to enter private companies to work, so for society, they are pure negative assets, and it is difficult to control dangerous elements.

Hopeless losers are terrible, both ordinary people and magicians.

The meaning of the existence of the gang is to allow these sorcerers to find their own destination, to encourage them to throw their lives in meaningless death battles, and to minimize the negative impact of sorcerers on society as much as possible.

The Van Dyer Gang is such a group of sorcerers. In their base city, the Van Dyer Gang has already covered the sky with only one hand, and all noble families must join it, which is intertwined and silent. The aristocrats never imagined that their wives had contributed greatly to their position.

But this is the limit of gangs. Gangs have strong geographical exclusivity and cannot occupy multiple cities.

However, power itself is a resource, and the huge dark power of the gang will naturally become the target of other noble families, but the transactions between the gangs are not gold and silver property (the huge amount of property of unknown origin will also arouse the suspicion of the nobles), but "pillow" Edge Wind" and "Recommendation Letters".

Felix didn't know what Beverly had promised, so that the Fandell gang would send a dozen biplanes to hunt her down. However, just to win over the wife of "Star Casting" is enough to make the Fandel gang do their best.

Seeing that Fan Dyer's people began to check the bottom of the passenger search chair, Felix silently calculated the gap between the enemy and the enemy: five gunners, two swordsmen, two fist and claw masters, and two unknown magicians at the door of the carriage on both sides. Stationed...I'm on a speeding train and can't expect sect rescue...Stomach hurts....

can win.

Although Felix is only a bi-wing magician, the reason why she left Galeth this time is to receive another extremely precious inheritance from her mother. I just didn't expect that Beverly would seize the opportunity and actually send the Van Dyer gang to ambush on the returning train.

Since the age of five, this woman has tried to eradicate her own evil. No one understands more than Felix how undeserved she is, her birth was a mistake, she was a disgrace to Vosloda, and the whole family cursed her except her ruthless father and stupid big brother. Die asap.

But since she was five years old when she clenched the scissors and killed the maid who tried to strangle her, she was splattered with blood, and after calming down and changing her panties, she knew that if she wanted to pray for stability, she had to pray the same Safe people fight.

Her life is not made up of love, candy, and spices. The sea of corpses and blood is the only scenery she is familiar with.

At this time, the Van Dyer gangsters had already found this row of seats, and Felix's mind turned sharply, and glanced at the two men on the left and right.

On the left is a sickly handsome blond guy with a hint of perfume, and on the right is an unremarkable black-haired man wearing a mask, and she needs a shield, so the answer is about to come out: choose the right.

It's not that Felix pays attention to appearance, but the one on the right looks more resistant. She pinched the thighs, waist, arms, and pectoral muscles on both sides, all of which are better on the right side, and she likes the stronger ones.

And for some reason, when I touched the right side, my stomach became less painful.

Strange, Felix has only heard of legendary magicians who unwittingly emit mana auras, some auras will be frightening, some auras will be submissive, all if there is a legendary aura that is healing and not healing. Accident.

But compared to the probability of finding someone to be a legendary magician on the train, Felix believed that the person next to him was a painkiller addict, so he could feel some of the medicine.

Seeing Fandel's people approaching, Felix suddenly spit out his lips, and a silver needle shot at the six-lamp mask, but immediately triggered a defense miracle and exploded on the mask, and a cloud of blue mist shrouded the bandit's head!

Miracle Blue Poison Mist!

At the moment when the gangster's face was corroded by the poisonous mist and screamed, Felix lifted the back of the black-haired man's neck and blocked him in front of him, not only knocking the gangster in front of him flying, but also going straight Rush to the other gangsters!

"behind!"

"Don't mess around! Be careful!" "Just kill Felix!"

The gangsters roared continuously, but the attacks almost all passed by the black-haired man, and Felix was not injured at all.

It's funny, although it's a gang, but these gangsters dare not hurt ordinary citizens, but Felix can use ordinary people as a shield.

If only Felix dies, it is the internal affairs of the House of Lords, and I don't know how long it will take to investigate; but if some ordinary people die and die on the train, it is the business of the Police Department. An explanation is strange.

The swordsman and the fist-claw artist tried to go around to attack Felix, but the latter sneered, and another two-winged magic spirit appeared on his shoulders.

Its appearance is that of a woman in a black dress, and its wings are made of withered black roses. When it appears, the temperature of the entire cabin drops by several points.

When she fluttered her wings, a large black spot suddenly appeared on the skin of the gangster who was close to Felix.

“Defense miracle... didn’t trigger!”

“Be careful, Vosloda has... trump cards...”

Seeing the frightened expression of the Fandell gang, Felix was happy. This is the inheritance she just got – vicious magic spirit!

As long as it can generate “maliciousness for a specific target”, the vicious magic spirit can only bypass all defensive miracles and directly act on the opponent. The only problem is that the casting distance is extremely short. With this magic spirit, Felix is almost invincible under the sanctuary in close combat!

Chapter 762: trouble

“Don’t panic, Felix is only one person!”

“Kill him directly!”

The voices of the Van Dyers bandits were full of anger and fear. They no longer hesitated to attack with all their strength, and the bullets came bang bang bang bang. Felix could clearly hear the sound of the shield being shot, and knew that the bandits would no longer be concerned about the hostages.

So she pushed the black-haired shield to the gangsters with a hard push, and then drove multiple magic spirits to hurriedly perform a new miracle that she hadn’t practiced yet – “Endless Poison”!

A dark and vicious wind blew past, as if there were countless flies hiding in it, and the Vanderbilt gangsters were immediately corrupted by the viciousness and screamed and fled in a panic. Felix was about to chase after him, but suddenly there was a loud bang from behind. She had to hide in the seat next to her immediately, picked up the handgun that had fallen on the ground and shot it, shouting, “Do you also want to court death?”

The bandits at the back door also saw the tragic situation in the car, and they knew that the operation was a complete failure, so they retreated while hitting and suppressing Felix, and quickly fled to other cars and disappeared.

sigh.

Felix breathed a sigh of relief. She looked at the corpses all over the ground, and felt that her stomach not only hurt again, she even felt a little nauseous. The worst thing is that the air is still filled with a strange sweet smell. This is the strange smell generated by the further reaction of "vicious" with flesh and blood. If Felix has other poisonous magic spirits, he can arrange it through this smelly smell. "Vicious environment", but even if you do nothing, just smelling this sweet scent will make you irritable and mentally degraded. "Huh? "Strong sacrifice read sacrifice

She suddenly saw that the black-haired man who had just used it as a shield was not affected by the viciousness. It seemed that he had just avoided the attack of the evil wind. Now he is lying on the body of the Van Dyer gangster, and he still looks intact.

Felix was also apologetic in his heart, so he squatted down and squeezed the other's hand, and said softly: "I'm very sorry for involving you in the death incident, but you are also responsible for not wearing a body armor on the train. But I owe you one anyway. Favor, when I pray in the future, I will introduce you to a great god, and whether you can join our sect depends on your interview in hell."

After saying that, Felix turned his head to look outside, and found that the train was not far from Galese. She had no interest in lingering in the vicious stench of the train, so she pushed open the car window, unfolded her virtual wings, and prepared to fly out and escape.

But at this moment, a hand pressed her shoulder from behind.

"Let's change the reward. I am very familiar with the Four Pillars God, and I don't need your introduction."

Felix's heart trembled violently, she turned back and blew, and a dark and vicious wind suddenly blew behind her! Miracle · Poison is endless!

However, the evil wind separated in the air along a circular arc, and the black-haired man stood calmly behind her. There seemed to be an invisible circular barrier around him, perfectly resisting the flow of poisonous black color.

Sanctuary Warlock!

Felix's heart was like an ice cellar. At this time, a lazy voice came from the side: "Your best choice now is to pretend to be poisoned, or to really be poisoned."

I saw the handsome blond man leaning on the back of the chair, propping his cheek with his right hand, with an expression of watching the show, "If it were me, I would try the latter, after all, your poison art faction is quite high."

Another black-skinned curly-haired man had gotten close to the corpse of the Van Dyer bandit at some point, looked at the corpse and said, "Well, these corpses have been badly damaged, and there are not many parts that can be used... tsk tsk tsk , this corpse fluid has seeped into the carpet, I have to prepare a solution to be able to clean it up."

"Can your obsession with cleanliness at the corpse site give you a little bit of your daily life? For example, can you wash your hair more diligently?"

"I'm sure." Ash said, "A person who has just killed someone, has moral taint, and is still a local college student, there is no better tour guide than Felix."

"Although I don't know what you are looking for, my troubles are far more serious than you think." Felix tried his best to remain calm and said, "If you just want money, I can give you all the deposits. , you can also put forward other requirements, I am the second in line to the Fusloda family, and I will satisfy you if I can satisfy you."

"Well, Mr. Ash, I'm sorry for using you as a shield and attacking you just now. I'm willing to pay any price to make up for my fault. But if you continue to approach me, you'll only cause yourself serious trouble, and that's not a problem. A huge pressure that a sanctuary can resist."

"You don't want to get into big trouble, do you?"

Knowing it with affection, moving it with reason, enticing it with profit, and coercing it with power, Felix couldn't help but secretly praised himself for his persuasion. The world of the magician is not only about fighting and killing, but also the world's sophistication. Even in the face of the magician of the sanctuary, she can force the opponent back with a sword.

Yaxiu thought for a while, "You're right, I really shouldn't cause trouble for myself."

Just when Felix thought that Ash was about to compromise, he saw the other party bend down and light up the LCD light curtain behind the chair. It just so happens that the default channel of the LCD light curtain is the news channel.

"...The intruders are still wandering outside, and their activities cover the surrounding area of Gala. If you find any traces, please notify the Police Department immediately. These three vicious intruders are all sanctuary magicians, majoring in The factions are Swordsmanship Faction, Mind Faction and Fire Faction, and the wanted reward is 10,000 gold coins for each intruder. Because the target is extremely dangerous, there is no need to capture it alive and kill without amnesty..."

"If a citizen protects an intruder, he or she will be sentenced to imprisonment for not less than three years but not more than 10 years. If the circumstances are serious, it will be regarded as treason, and will be sentenced to the death penalty or life imprisonment... Note that if a citizen protects the intruder, UU reading www.uukanshu.com law enforcement forces can choose to kill immediately depending on the situation..."

Three wanted notices appeared in the light curtain. Although the photos were a little blurry, it was still clear that the three intruders were a black-haired mask, a handsome blond, and a black curly hair.

Ash looked at Felix, and Felix stared at the LCD light curtain, his heart was ashes. This time shUCanG.*CC Zhang Si

"In terms of who is in more trouble, I think we won." Ash shrugged, "Or can your trouble be more serious than being hunted down by all the stars?"

Felix raised his head and wanted to make a final effort: "Aren't you afraid that I will report you? At most, I will kill people."

“Oh, I’m not worried about this at all.” Ash patted Felix’s shoulders, “I know you very well, just like I know myself... Let me confirm again, you are Jianhua University. ‘s sophomore named Felix Vosloda, right?”

Felix nodded, these are public information, there is no need for her to deny it... Wait!

Didn’t these three people invade Fanxing only yesterday? Just now, the Fandell gang only said their name, how could they know their school?

“That’s right, I’m pretty sure that you won’t report us.” Ash said, “After all, I’ve never seen any Four Pillars of God who would be willing to cooperate with the police and the people.”

Felix’s pupils shrank suddenly, subconsciously covering the glove of his left hand. She suddenly remembered that she didn’t mention the Four Pillars just now, but Yaxiu knew directly that she believed in the Four Pillars! control the big lord

“What do you want?” Her voice trembled.

“I heard,” Ash said, “Felix your family is quite big.”

Chapter 763: The preparation of the sword gir

“It must be nice to watch the snow scene while soaking in hot springs in Xueman.

“I want to order a set of Master Ronan’s patterned rapiers.

“Can you guys take a long-term view and don’t just focus on this vulgar material enjoyment? I am different. I want to buy a suburban apartment. I heard that Gales is planning to develop a satellite city. Now buying a house can add value and also You can use it yourself.”

“But isn’t it inconvenient to buy a house in the suburbs?”

“I have to go to work even after I bought a house? I have to go to work before I buy a house, and then I have to go to work after I buy a house, so I bought it for nothing?”

As soon as Sonia returned to the dormitory after training, she heard the roommates discussing some very adult issues.

As she poured water, she said, “While it’s great to hear you’re looking into the future, given that even Adele is involved in the conversation – what’s the new drama about dreams coming out?”

“Hey!” Adele said, “I’m not a movie fanatic, so I won’t do anything just because a movie or drama is released!”

Sonia drank a large glass of water and asked, “How many times have you missed your bow and arrow club membership card co-branded with “Shooting Heart”?”

“99 times...but that doesn’t mean anything!”

“What were you doing last night, the night before, the night before, and in the early hours of this month?”

“Watching dramas...but this is the poisoning of ordinary people like me by the Galeth Film and Television Industry!” Adele spread her hands: “A group of handsome men and women staged a thrilling love-hate relationship in a light curtain to please me. Young and ignorant female college student, if I don’t get addicted, I’m sorry for those tens of thousands of big productions!”

“Young?” Lois was a little confused.

“Loy, I’m the same year as you.” Adele felt speechless.

“Sorry, because you usually like to talk about middle-aged jokes, and like the elderly, you wear pajamas all day and don’t like to exercise. I’m a little uncertain.” Lois said: “I always suspected that you came to the university to retire. Yes, or let the professors retire. I heard that the blood pressure of the professors in the medical examination report this year has risen a lot.

“It’s none of my business?” Adele blinked, “Isn’t it because something big happened in the virtual realm?”

“The virtual world can only torture the magician for a few hours at most, but you can torture them for a semester.” Lois said: “Failing the class now means another semester. I believe that when the professors reach the end of their lives, Sometimes, they won’t remember those bright and studious students, but they certainly remember you, the devil.

“Can you not be so off topic?” Adele looked helpless: “Let’s talk about the fact that I am a movie fanatic.

“We were discussing the three wanted criminals just now.” Ingurit explained to Sonia, “We talked about the bounty, and then we started to discuss how to spend the bounty.

Sonia took off her boots, inserted her thumb into the edge of her stockings, and pushed the black silk down from her thigh with a light stroke: “If I remember correctly, those three wanted criminals... all seem to be sanctuary magicians?”

“Yes.

“Then you discuss, what to do with the bounty for catching these three wanted criminals?” “Yes.

The village girl looked at the three of them, shrugged and said, “Fortunately, at least you have no disadvantage in numbers.

“If Sonny gets 30,000 gold coins, what will you spend it on?” Adele asked, “Do you want to buy a house, open your own studio, or invest in a movie with a heroine tailored for you?”

“If I have 30,000 gold coins, I will definitely buy the supernova life extension insurance from the Stellar Chamber of Commerce.” Sonia shrugged: “And the supernova is not the most expensive, my God...”

“You’re only under twenty years old, why did you start researching how to prolong your life?” Lois was very strange: “You don’t even plan to go to the abyss, and the only thing on the ground that can threaten you is the legendary magician, Qi Feng. Cake – are you getting fat?”

Luo Yisi stretched out her hand and pinched the belly of Juggernaut, who was not afraid at all, and let her squeeze: “I just got stronger, my belly is full of muscles, so I didn’t get fat!”

“Really, let me touch it too.”

“Damn, it feels pretty good, shouldn’t all of you swordsmen have bucket waists? You unqualified swordsman

Sonia clapped their hands away and said, “Speaking of money, Lois, if you can help me get a few more endorsements, I can consider any job that pays well.”

“Didn’t you say before that you can’t ruin your reputation and only take jobs you’re interested in?” Lois said, “You’re still a student, so you should enjoy your time at university. , there is no need to throw your precious youth on work. You don’t even need a job after graduation, anyway, the stars will support your sanctuary magician.

“It’s good, I can be raised by the state after graduation.” Adele pouted and said, “The only people who are willing to raise me are my father, my fiancé, and my neighbor’s five-year-old son—”

“It’s immoral to attack a child,” Ingurit said seriously.

“No, I just want to trick him into buying ice cream with pocket money.” Adele snorted: “Last semester spent too much money, when I was at home, my father didn’t give me a penny, but it was useless, there are always people willing to do it for me man who spends money!”

Lois raised her hand in surrender: "I take back the foreword, you are indeed very young, at least so young that a five-year-old child feels that he has an obligation to support you..."

"I want to make more money recently." Sonia said, "I want to buy more insurance for my mother, after all, she is not too young. I only found out that there are so many types of commercial insurance, storage type, after consulting in the past. Severe illness type, life extension type... Although I have saved a little money, it's not enough to spend."

The roommates fell silent, and Adele hugged the doll and said, "It's called not judging age, at least I can't bring up such a serious topic with a sense of life, and I'm so nervous that I feel a little anxious to urinate."

"Sonia, can't you just buy a few more important insurances? And I remember that these insurances can be paid as annuities, so you only need a small part of the annual expenses, and you can afford it." Lois Said: "Don't you want to buy it all at once?"

"A one-time buyout costs a lot less..." Sonia said faintly, "And my insurance plan is to hope that my mother can live to the age of 80 without declining physical function, so..."

"Sonia, you are your mother's best insurance." Ingurit said, "A sanctuary magician's daughter can protect your mother's quality of life better than any insurance."

"Well, I know." The village girl made a soft nasal voice: "But, be prepared, what if...? But

In any case, it's never wrong to make more money. Do you have any suggestions?"

Adele blinked, she clicked the light curtain, and said, "Then let's give you these three wanted criminals, do you want me to send you the real-time information mini-process of the wanted criminals?"

"No, I only do work with more money and less work." Sonia tilted her head: "It's better to use my dominant position as a magician to plunder money."

"I'm afraid it won't work," Lois said. "After all, there is a tax bureau. I don't really recommend you to fight for business with them."

At this time, the alarm clock rang, and the conversation was over. Lois and Ingurit were going to take a shower. Adele looked at Sonia and said, "Sony Sone, it is better to watch the latest "Cun Zhou Misblade" tonight. Remaining Voices of the World?"

Because Lois and Ingurit are going to the meditation building to enter the Void Realm, so only Sonia and Adele are left in the bedroom at night. In addition, both of them are movie fans, so naturally there will be a common moment. A night out watching a show.

Just when Sonia was thinking, her face suddenly changed, she stood up and said, "Wait!

Everyone was stunned, and Lois, who was about to enter the bathroom, also stopped, and then everyone watched Sonia walk to the bathroom door with a grim expression, pushed open the bathroom door, closed the bathroom door, and then Kosai narrowly undressed the sound of.

"Tonight I'll take a shower first, and Luo Yi will bring me the clothes! Luo Yi Si is so angry that she wants to curse: "Don't take it!

"Then I'll just come out naked!

"you...

Lois snorted and had no choice but to open Sonia's closet and pick out a set of clothes, walked over to the bathroom door and handed them in.

Sonia washed it unexpectedly fast this time, and she came out steaming hot after a while, hurriedly combing her hair and putting on her short boots, raised her head to lift up her long hair, tied it with a hair tie at will, and shook her head. Tossing the hair out, the scent of the shampoo spread in the bedroom.

"I understand!" Adele said decisively, "Your soul is convulsed?" "How did you know?" Sonia asked in surprise.

"Of course it's thanks to my amazing insight, outstanding analysis, and the blush that you just got out of the shower." Adele spread her hands and said, "You've done your best, but in my love faction legend in front of you, there is nothing to hide from you.

Sonia subconsciously held my hot face, "But it's really because I just took a shower!" "I understand, I understand." Adele nodded again and again, "If I take a shower for an hour, it will be the same.

"Are you taking a shower or playing a role-playing game with your boyfriend? 'Caught Investigator' Adele?" Lois said.

Adele glared at Lois and muttered, "All.

"Sonia, congratulations." Ingurit smiled: "In every sense.

"Thank you." The Sword Saint stretched out his claws, lifted his sword bag, and left the bedroom briskly. They heard Sonia greeting others in the corridor, and even left while singing. Every inch of wind in the night sky seemed to be filled with joy.

"What did she mean by 'in case'?" Ingurit asked suddenly.

"Is there any other option besides 'in case she's not there'?" Lois said, "Although I haven't met her boyfriend, my impression of him is very, very bad.

"Wait," Adele suddenly found a question: "You are all going to meditate tonight. Am I the only one left in that bedroom?"

"Isn't that bad? You can amplify your voice and watch the show.

"Of course not, I don't dare to sleep alone! I have to sleep with Debbie when I get home now!

“Who is Debbie?” My dog!

Lois spread her hands: “Pets are not allowed in the dormitory, it seems that you can only go to the kennel to sleep.

“No,” Adele bit her thumb, “Even if I don’t sleep alone, I have to become a magician!”

Lois: “Although I really want to encourage you from the bottom of my heart, if I am a virtual realm, I will never resonate through your knowledge.”

“Why?” Ingurit said in surprise, “Don’t you want to see how Adele will cry for a few days after being bitten to death by Zhanyulong?”

Lois shook her head: “What’s there to bet about... She must immediately use this as a reason to take a leave of absence from homework and watch the drama in the dormitory.

Adele gritted her teeth: “You two... Cursing me like this...”

“No, we’re not cursing you!” Lois shouted sincerely, “We’re all idiots who are full of good intentions and want to see you cry and cry after your bad luck!

“This is a curse!

Chapter 764: The witch is actually Lisdia

“I’m going to see Daddy! I’m going to see Daddy! I haven’t seen Daddy in a long time!”

In the Gospel Kingdom, Yisu Palace, Deya looked at the noisy little witch Liz in the mirror, and exchanged glances with the White Queen, Black Deacon, Red Dead Apostle and other sisters, feeling helpless.

I couldn't log in to the virtual realm for a full month and a half, not to mention Liz, Diya and the others were also a little out of spirits. I haven't replenished Yaxiu's energy for so long, and I don't have the energy to handle state affairs. In the worst days, I even played with building blocks all day to relieve my boredom, but when I played, I remembered that Yaxiu used to play building blocks with her, and the more I played, the more upset I became.

It stands to reason that it is not impossible to bring Liz into the virtual realm. After all, I have tried many times before, but it is just one and a half months. In this month and a half, a lot of things happened, such as the explosion of empty door magic, such as An Nan began to Adjust the boundaries of the Gospel system, such as "the lower and the upper" miracles have achieved initial results.

Although Diya can't control the gods of the gospel at this time, but through "Xia Ke Shang" as a medium, she has been able to spread the spiritual influence of the gods of the gospel to all the people, and is almost immune to the negative effects of the possession of gods.

To put it simply, she no longer needs to keep concealing that the witch is Lisdia, she can confess all the truth to Ash.

But Diya hesitated.

She has been thinking, is it really necessary to change the now stable interpersonal relationship and add chips to herself to bring Ash back?

Diya is actually very satisfied with the current state. Everyone is still teammates and can still explore the virtual world together every day. She doesn't have as many desires as Jian Ji, maybe because she has gotten too much from Yaxiu, or because she can't bear Yaxiu's sadness.

In fact, it may be that she is a little afraid of Jian Ji.

Obviously, according to her age, she is actually a little older than Jian Ji, and her social status is definitely higher than Jian Ji, but every time she sees that touch of red hair, Di Ya will subconsciously cowardly and obediently admit Jian Ji's absolute status.

And think about it carefully, if she confesses that the witch is Lisdia, what can she get? Let Ashe come back to the gospel? But even if he didn't say it, he would have come back for Liz.

Make Ya Xiu like him more? To be honest, Diya would rather maintain the current concentration of pure love than add a little family affection to this relationship, which is what she worries most about. If Yaxiu can't pass the test in her heart and can't accept falling in love with her daughter's sister, then Diya will really be in awe of Jianji for the rest of her life – the awe of her stepmother.

On the contrary, if you continue to hide it, you can maintain the current relationship. Even if you have to confess, you will have to wait for Ash to come back and talk about the gospel. At that time, even if he wants to run, he will not be able to run away.

That's why Diya has such a headache for Liz: Liz already knows that "Xia Ke Shang" is in effect. If she is allowed to enter the virtual realm, she may hold Yaxiu and call her father recklessly, directly turning the virtual realm into an unpredictable destiny. On the stage, the direction of their relationship will become blurred.

As for asking Liz not to reveal such a request, it's pointless, Liz would say "good, good", and then she turned her head and thought about whether to rub her face or bury her chest first when she saw Ash. She is a little witch character created by Deya herself. Selfishness and willful behavior are her essence. As for making her worry about her sisters and give up her core demands, I am sorry that she did not have the function of hindering survival from the beginning.

But it's not good without Liz going in. After all, you can leave it out today, but what about tomorrow, the day after tomorrow, and the future? If they don't bring Liz in and don't let Liz see Ash, then they are ready to meet Liz's early rebellious period – all the sisters can go to see Dad, but they can't go by themselves. Liz is the most intolerable of this kind of discriminatory treatment, she It would be strange if they didn't hate Shang Diya.

So after thinking about it, Diya and the White Queen and the others looked at each other and said seriously, "Lisi, I will never take you into the virtual realm to see Yaxiu in the future."

Liz was startled, then rubbed her eyes and cried.

“However, I will continue to keep the current young body.” Deya said: “Ashe loves the little girl Liz, and doesn’t know the grown-up Lizdia. When Ashe returns to the gospel, we will put the body Let it be, let you continue to be Liz for a month, you can act like a spoiled child, play as much as you want, and enjoy your time with Ash.”

“After you stay with Ash for a month, we will return to adult bodies, how?” Liz immediately raised three fingers: “Three years!”

The White Queen went directly and punched Liz’s head: “Your offer is too much!” “One and a half months!”

“One year!”

“One and a quarter three months...”

After some intense negotiations, the “Liss time” was finally set at three months. If Ash comes back to the Gospel Kingdom, then this body will be taken over by Liz, knowing that it will take three months for Deya to activate the normal body of a year ago.

After finally comforting Liz, Diya breathed a sigh of relief, and when it was almost time, she lay on the bed and waited for the connection to the virtual realm. At this time, An Nan, who was wearing purple gauze pajamas, came in, hummed a song and applied skin cream, then lay down on the bed and hugged Diya.

“Did something good happen? Why are you so happy?” Deya asked.

“Ban Ji called my mother today.” An Nan smiled and said, “Hee hee, when he recovers his memory later, I will be able to laugh at him for a long time.”

“Hey!?” Deya was surprised: “Then will he call my sister?”

“Okay, but you have to call him sister hundreds of times first.” An Nan shrugged, “I don’t care, anyway, he took care of me since I was a child, and I called him my mother a few hundred times without any psychological pressure – I even thought about it for a long time. That’s how I shouted.”

“I also treat Pan Ji as my sister!” Di Ya said, “Are you happy all day just because of this?”

“Neither.” An Nan said, “It’s just... Well, let’s put it this way, I have a friend A, she likes B, but A and B are not together. A recently learned that B has a C next to him, And B and C are very closely related.”

“But according to B, C should be a man, but after A meets C, he finds out that C is actually a woman! Not only that, but A and C will have to live together for a long time, your Majesty the Queen, guess what will happen ?”

Diya guessed: “A quarrel?”

An Nan took Diya’s little hand, smeared hand cream on the back of her hand, and said, “The word quarrel is too light, I think war should be more suitable, you don’t even know the scene on the first night they met. Spectacular...all in all, it’s very beautiful.”

Di Ya nodded, she thought about it and asked, “An Nan, I recently read a story in a picture book. There are two women and one man in the story. Their relationship is like this...”

“...Do you think the princess should confess or continue to hide?”

“Continue to hide it.” An Nan said: “Interpersonal relationships are like sawing wood, sometimes they get better.

Time will get worse in the future, and there will be disputes and conflicts, as well as gentleness and comfort, but generally speaking, they will develop in depth. The longer the sawing, the closer the relationship between them will become.”

“And confessing that I have another identity is equivalent to taking two saws to saw together, which may increase efficiency, but it may also conflict with each other and damage the saw.”

“Since the princess can stably eat the other party, why bother with extravagance?” Di Ya nodded heavily, “An Nan is right.”

“What’s the end of the story?” An Nan was a little curious, “Is it a confession or a concealment?”

Just when Di Ya was about to speak, suddenly her soul was pulled, and she said, “I’ll tell you tomorrow, I’m going to sleep.” The soul connected to the virtual realm, and the consciousness sank into the ruby mountain. The witch slowly opened her eyes, and the ruby mountains that were as red as blood came into view.

Snapped.

Diya turned her head and saw the red hair thrown into Ash’s arms.

Yaxiu was almost thrown over by Jian Ji, and turned around a few times in her arms, then the two looked at each other and hugged each other tightly, as if trying to rub each other into her body, constantly asking for questions that didn’t exist at all.

“I’m ready.” Sonia said in his ear: “You can come to Fanxing to find me at any time.” Ash was startled and asked, “What are you ready for?”

“Get ready for you to stay with me.” Sonia said seriously, “Or I and you leave temporarily.” “But your studies, career, and your—”

“So I said, I’m ready.” Sonia sighed. “Before you come, I will continue to prepare, ready at any time. But we will not leave forever, when we stand at the pinnacle of the magician, we can go wherever we want.”

Yaxiu blinked, knowing the decree No. 51, he naturally understood how determined Jian Ji was, and he couldn’t help feeling sour and moved. He pursed his lips, took a deep breath, and said, “I—”

“Etc., etc.”

Deya came over and pushed the two of them away, then looked at Ash and said seriously, "Ash, I'm actually Lisdie."

Chapter 765: double reunion

"Witch is the Queen of Gospel in reality?" Sonia opened her eyes in disbelief.

"Am I a lo*ic*n?" Yaxiu covered her head with a look of disbelief.

"It's not!" Deya held Yaxiu's shoulder and shook it hard, her face flushed with anxiety: "I am me, Liz is Liz, we are separated! What you like is the witch Deya, your favorite It's my daughter Liz, Liz's relationship with you is pure family, and the friendship and love between me and you are!"

"Actually, I think Liz and I are actually friends." Yaxiu's expression was complicated: "I always wanted Liz to change her name to call my brother, or just call her name, but she just didn't change... But the daughter said, 'Dad, let's be together Isn't it weird to look at the color picture of big tits?"

"But if you don't play games, that's all that's left. Liz just wants to get close to you." Diya said: "And we really want to see it. It's a shame that you found out that the Gospel system has such a function. ."

"Isn't this normal?" Ash said righteously: "Don't you want to ask "Gospel Gospel, who is the most beautiful person in this world"?"

"But would a normal person then ask 'more pictures of her'? Di Ya said, "An Nan would never have imagined that you would spend your points on this..."

"By the way," Ash immediately remembered the friends who had mixed the gospel kingdom into a pot of porridge with him, "How about An Nanbanji and the others?"

"It's all good, Pan Ji will call An Nan 'mother' today." Di Ya said, "An Nan is now the first witch in the new department of witch construction bureau, responsible for restricting the boundaries of the gospel system and adjusting social policies, we do not want to continue Relying on the Gospel system, we hope to create our ideal kingdom of our own will.”

She paused, “As for Faileen, Anfel, Aunt Nona, Aunt Jinna... they are all very good, and they have also joined the Witch Construction Bureau. Although they must have selfish intentions, at least they really want to help me. and Annan.”

“It sounds so tiring, you chose a hard road.” Yaxiu reached out and rubbed Diya’s head, and smiled softly: “The other Queen Yisu is not as troubled as you, it’s hard for you.”

“The other Queen Yisu doesn’t have the function of worrying at all.” Di Ya pouted: “I’m not Liz, don’t treat me as a child who needs praise. Next time I bring Liz to the virtual world, how will you spoil me? She’s all right.”

Even though she said that, she didn’t let go of Yaxiu’s hand.

“If Liz uses your current adult state, I probably won’t dare to get close to her.” Ash just thinking about the picture of adult Liz rushing towards her and acting like a spoiled child, she felt like she was slipping into the abyss of crime: “And How dare I treat the queen as a child, there are only two suns in the sky, and there is only one sun in my heart!”

“In Fanxing, we have three suns.” Sonia suddenly said.

Yaxiu and Diya were stunned, only to realize that they had unknowingly left Jianji aside.

“Oh, don’t worry about me, you guys continue to talk.” Sonia put her hands behind her back, stood upright, turned her head slightly and said, “After all, you and the witch have not seen each other for a long time, and Lisidia has not seen each other for a long time. So your reunion index is at least twice as high as mine, and it’s normal for you to be a little crooked.”

Ash blinked, “Aren’t you happy?”

“Why am I unhappy? I’m not happy that you meet again after a long absence, or that you have an intimate relationship that surpasses friends in reality, or that you have precious memories that only belong to you?” Sonia turned away and didn’t look at it. They, “I’m not a careful person, how can I be unhappy?”

Among the people we know, I am afraid that the only one who is smaller than you is Yingulla/Aunt Bojin...

Diya quickly distanced herself from the relationship: “I’m not really close to Yaxiu in reality! It’s Liz who wants Yaxiu to brush his teeth, sleep with him, feed him, and go to the amusement park, not me. Liz belongs to Liz, the witch. Returning to the witch... In short, what is the relationship between you and Yaxiu, Jianji, and what is the relationship between me and Yaxiu!”

The corners of Sonia’s mouth twitched, and she looked at Yaxiu with strange eyes: “You actually sleep with the little girl?”

“Don’t look at me like that, she’s very strong, and I’ve seen myself kicked out of bed by her several times when I came back from the virtual realm.” Yaxiu said with an unbearable expression: “Once her feet were almost stuffed into my mouth now...”

“Don’t worry, I don’t sleep like this,” Deya hugged Ash’s arm and said, “Lisi is so naughty.”

Yaxiu suddenly remembered: “When you become the queen, shouldn’t Liz stop studying?”

“How is it possible, although Liz really wants to do this, but the White Queen and Black Deacon have been urging her to play for an hour if she only learns for five minutes.” Di Ya said: “Our sisters are one soul, she is not really afraid of us. These sisters, or you and Aunt Borgin can suppress her temper... By the way, speaking of this, are Aunt Borgin and Uncle Harvey okay?”

“How can I say it?”

Yaxiu found a bulge and sat down on the ruby pile, raised his legs and said, “If you ignore that Yin Gula was almost smashed like a doll and Harvey had his whole body replaced once except for his right eye, then they're actually fine. .We have experienced a lot in the Senluo Wasteland this month... Wesser died."

Di Ya and Sonia were both stunned by the news of the sudden change. They were also wondering why Youlan Weisser was not there. Could it be that her soul was hurt particularly badly? Or was it that Yaxiu wanted to reunite with them on the first night, so he excluded Youlan Weisser?

As Ya Xiu spoke, they realized that the quiet and peaceful truth magician in the team was actually the silver lamp that ravaged Sen Luo.

And in the month they were apart, Yaxiu experienced several life-and-death crises, even more dangerous than the ghost trial. The world-annihilation ceremony, the three gods of the gods, and the ghost prophet Vichy came on stage. If the concept of the empty door was not born, and if Yaxiu had the key to the kingdom of a thousand wishes, then everything would have entered an irreversible tragedy.

"The wish center should be in Tamashi's hands now, and I won't be able to get it back for the time being." Ash said, "Although I believe that as long as Tamashi can survive in the Kingdom of Thousand Wishes, he will definitely keep it well. Return the wish center to me. But the kingdom of heaven is our common property after all, I gave it to others without your consent, sorry."

Diya shook her head, sat next to Yaxiu and said, "I have no problem, anyway, we can't make use of the Kingdom of Thousand Wishes for the time being."

"I don't mind either." Sonia pondered, "but that is to say, from the very beginning, Weisser planned to conceal her identity to deceive you. After all, you wanted to hunt her down and she learned your information from the virtual world. , and then counteract your actions in reality. Only at the end of her conscience did she decide to turn herself into a * and turn into a silver lamp to help you kill a god?"

"That's right."

"No, she didn't find her conscience at all. A strong-willed person like her would never regret what she did." Sonia lowered her eyelids, "You said before that Yin Deng was once strong in the God Fire Trial. Kissed you... she didn't want to protect the kingdom she was going to destroy, she just wanted to protect you."

“I still prefer to believe that she wants to protect the world.” Ash said, “Even if she really just wants to save me, when you are willing to save a person, you are already saving the world.”

Chapter 766: Self introduction

“So, Visser is the one who knows both the virtual world and the reality, just like a witch...”

There were subtle hints in Sonia’s tone.

Diya blinked and explained quickly: “Before you gave me the ‘spiritual spirit’ with a ‘secret concept’, Yaxiu, I didn’t even know that the viewer was Yaxiu! I didn’t want to hide it, but then After so many things happened, I became the incarnation of the Gospel Queen Yisu, and I had to rely on the power of keeping secrets in the ‘secret concept’ to resist the pollution of the gods. At that time, even if I wanted to confess, I couldn’t do it.”

“Now that’s why I used the ‘Xia Ke Shang’ miracle to barely contain the influence of the gods of the gospel, so I dared to say my true identity.”

Yaxiu was startled and asked, “Then when I met Liz for the first time, you didn’t actually know my true identity? Didn’t you recognize me in the virtual world?”

“Have you forgotten your silver blessing ‘Appearance of the Observer’? Diya asked back: “I couldn’t see your face in the virtual world at all... Until you left the Gospel Kingdom, your “observer appearance” finally became invalid in my eyes. ”

“And you deliberately didn’t reveal your reality in the virtual realm. How could I associate the audience with Ashura?”

Ash murmured, “I didn’t expect it to be like this...”

He paused, looked at the two and said, “Then I may have met another witch, another sword princess.”

He told him about the black and white of the 'no questioning pact' signed with him, and the death madman who once visited him in Broken Lake Prison, Sonia and Deya shook their heads when they heard it: "I haven't done anything like that. Wait a minute. ..."

Diya blinked and said thoughtfully, "Then I seem to have met another viewer."

"Me too." Sonia murmured, "He's been by my side two or three times..."

Yaxiu asked curiously: "I can't even notice it, can't you both notice the difference?"

"No, because..." Sonia pondered: "His tone and character are similar to yours, not as obvious as the death madness I told you. But think about it carefully, he is stricter and colder than you, but at that time I and I You are not very familiar, and at most you feel that your personality changes every five hours."

"After we got acquainted, he never showed up again."

"I'm the same as you." Ash said, "I didn't know each other very well at first, so I didn't think much about it, but after I got to know them, they stopped appearing."

Now Ash can be sure that there are hidden settings in "Aurora's Manual of Magicians" that he doesn't know about. Who is the death madman who led him into the world of magicians in the Broken Lake, the black and white who deliberately or unintentionally prevented him from recognizing Lisdia in the Gospel, and the spectator who was responsible for recruiting the Sword Princess and the Witch into the team smoothly?

their dark side? shadow? A new life born from the artist Rieri? Or are they all AI incarnations of Aurora's Manual of Warlocks, but the AI wears different holsters to better serve different objects?

Or has the avatar become a genius?

There are so many possibilities that Ashe can't judge at all. He called out the game interface and opened "Operator Management" to look for clues, but immediately saw a portrait of Orchid Wesser that had turned gray.

Yaxiu was slightly startled, and sighed softly: "This kind of brain-consuming work is obviously the responsibility of Wesser..."

On the other hand, Sonia was thinking about death madness.

She remembered that Yaxiu had a strong sense of closeness to herself from the very beginning, and even relied on her unabashedly. At that time, she felt how this 'legendary reincarnation' was like a child. Now it seems that Yaxiu really relies on the one who helped him through the toughest years in Broken Lake, not her Sonia Servey.

It turned out that even the beginning of everything came from a misunderstanding...

"Do you remember the viewer said that he planned to help Liz realize his wish in the weaving ceremony?"

The witch suddenly walked beside her and said close to her ear.

"Remember." Sonia bowed her head: "He really pampers you."

"It's Liz, not me." Deya said, "Also, helping Liz is actually his second choice. He was just afraid of realizing his wish, so he gave it to Liz."

"Fear?"

"He said that he has a person he wants to meet in another country. If he can make a wish, he actually wants to see that person." Diya said softly: "It's just that he feels that he is not ready, and he also feels that the other party is not ready, so he is afraid to meet. It will destroy the other person's life, so I want to continue to maintain the status quo."

"You hate me for knowing Ash in reality first, and I also hate you for knowing the viewer in the virtual world first."

Sonia was stunned for a while, then walked slowly to Ashe. In Yaxiu's puzzled eyes, she pressed her right hand on her chest and introduced herself: "I'm Jianji, a second-year student at Jianhua University in the Star Kingdom, Sonia Servi. Just call me Sonia."

Yaxiu blinked and replied seriously: "I am a viewer, a social idler, Yaxiu Heath. Call me Yaxiu."

"Axiu, Axiu, Axiu, Axiu..." Sonia chewed the term carefully, as if she could taste sweetness from it. She handed her hand gently, and Yaxiu grabbed it subconsciously. First, the palms were aligned, and then the fingers were inserted into the fingers and sewed together. Because they are swordsmen, they naturally don't have fingernails, and they won't hurt each other if they try their best to hold them.

"Hello, Ash."

"Hello, Sonia."

They looked at each other and couldn't help but burst out laughing. Yaxiu said: "It feels weird to be called by your real name, and there is an inexplicable sense of shame... How about we go back to the spectator sword princess witch?"

"No, it's up to you how you want to shout, but if Lisdia calls your real name, I will too." Sonia said, "Ash, have you finished talking about the reunion?"

"I shouldn't, but you can talk about your topic, Sonia first. UU reading www.uukanshu.com" Yaxiu said: "We still have a lot of time, we can talk slowly."

"I'm still on that topic." Sonia gently scratched his palm with her fingers: "I'm ready, are you ready to come to Fanxing?"

"Speaking of which," Deya sat next to Yaxiu and took his arm, and said, "Axiu, you did not enter the Kingdom of Thousand Wishes, but were sent to other places by the spatial chaos caused by Vichy, so where are you now? Paradise, Diyuan, or return to the Blood Moon Kingdom?"

Yaxiu blinked and said: "By the way, have you noticed that I have a routine for crossing the country several times. Although the reasons for crossing the country are different, I was a death row prisoner who escaped from prison in the Blood Moon. Nan, the blasphemous destroyer, is chasing the silver lamp in Senluo..."

"No matter what country I'm in, I'm a traveler who can't settle down. Either I'm being hunted down, or I'm chasing others."

Dia and Sonia blinked, not understanding what Ash was talking about.

"So..." Yaxiu said slowly: "Jianji, do you know that there are three wanted criminals in the Sanctuary recently appeared in the kingdom of stars?"

Chapter 767: I really lost the first half of my life

"You live at Felix's house now!?"

Sonia was dumbfounded. The witch revealed that she was Yaxiu's daughter a few months ago, but this news was not as shocking. After deliberating for a while, she seemed to search her mind for the lines suitable for this moment, and finally said, "Are you crazy?"

"Don't you think this is a very good idea?" Ash was puzzled, "We were still thinking about how to settle in Gales, when Felix appeared, and he fell down just as he was ready to be jealous. Just pull fat!"

Diya thought for a while, "If I remember correctly, isn't Felix just a cultist who wants to persuade Jian Ji to join the Four Pillars Sect?"

“So this is the wonderful thing!” Ash said, “Normal people can’t accept our three sanctuary wanted criminals, and I don’t want to implicate those innocent people. The kingdom of stars has no repercussions for us foreign travelers. There is room for it, but it is also impossible for the kingdom of stars to tolerate the Four Pillars of God!”

“Although it is risky to come into contact with the Four Pillars of God, compared with the kingdom of stars, the Four Pillars of theology that follow the route of high-end private clubs is at most a small workshop with the nature of a triad. Although we have quite a lot of “enemy against the world” We have experience, but we are not inferior in terms of ‘being an enemy of the Four Pillars’, this time it is rare to be able to freely choose the difficulty, and of course I choose the easy difficulty of the Four Pillars.”

“What’s more, do you think we are afraid of the Four Pillars, or are the Four Pillars afraid of us?” Ash spread out his hands: “If they insist on dealing with us, once the three of us sanctuary magicians make trouble, the worst result will be It’s just that we lost our precious lives, but the Four Pillars of God will be discovered by the kingdom of stars and uprooted!”

“The Four Pillars of God are not well-known in the country of stars. Obviously, hiding is their specialty, and we just need the help of local forces to hide. This is simply a two-way run, a win-win!”

Di Ya tilted her head: “How did you win?”

Yaxiu made a V-sign gesture: “The Four Pillars of God help hide our traces and win once; the Four Pillars of God are disgusting enough to even have a chance to frame them and win again.”

Yaxiu’s decision is not to slap on the forehead casually, even if he slaps the forehead, there is still Igula staring at him. Coercing Felix to use the Four Pillars of the Gods did get the unanimous approval of the wanted criminal trio. After all, he had to fight against the local state organs, so he naturally had to choose a local criminal organization with rich confrontation experience.

And to be reasonable, they have been entangled with the Four Pillars of God in the Senluo Wasteland for so long, and they have long since exorcised the Four Pillars of God. They even killed the Senluo Sizhu, who ruled half the wasteland, seven in and seven out. Could it be that they can’t provoke the underperforming Fanxing Sizhu?

We trouble you because we look up to you, so don't know what to do!

Another point, although Yaxiu and the others didn't say it and couldn't admit it, was that they all felt that they couldn't avoid the Four Pillars religion anyway.

Yaxiu of the Blood Moon, Eternal Tribulation of the Gospel, Sen Luo's Mercury Trojan... If they came to the Kingdom of Stars this time and would not have anything to do with the Four Pillars of God, I am afraid that even the cautious Igula would not have this confidence.

Of course, the most important factor is the strength of their sanctuary magicians and their bizarre experiences. After all, they are all travelers who have experienced the blood moon escape, fought against the evangelists in Yisu Palace, and witnessed the destruction of gods in the wasteland. There are few legendary magicians in the world with richer experience than them.

In the past, they might not dare to use the Four Pillars of God, but they participated in so many major events. Ash slaughtered the gods, Harvey killed the legend, and Igula defeated the sense of touch. How could they still be afraid of the Four Pillars of God? ?

"But why didn't you come to me?"

Sonia shook her head and said, "You know I'm a sophomore at Jianhua University, you don't need to use Felix at all."

"But don't you live in the dormitory?" Ash smiled: "Do you still want to hide me on the bed in your dormitory? Is your roommate willing?"

"I can go to the hotel to open a room!" Sonia said, "It's not that I have no money. Even if it is a more hidden hiding place, I should be able to find a way to help you find it."

Ash smiled and said: "I know you are well-intentioned, but it is a big sin to protect us, and we don't want to hurt innocent people. It's different like Felix. For us, it would be better if we could implicate the Four Pillars of God. ..."

“I’m not innocent.”

Yaxiu was stunned, raised his head to meet Qiushui in Jian Ji’s eyes, and suddenly felt a little dry lips.

“What was your original plan?” she asked. “You didn’t really want to tell me tonight that you came to the country of stars, did you?”

The atmosphere suddenly became solemn, Yaxiu was silent for a moment, then lowered his eyelids and said slowly, “I want to see the situation first.”

“Look at what?”

“It depends on your attitude.” Yaxiu said, “For example, in the virtual world, I discuss with you my plan to come to Fanxing. If you really want to stay in Fanxing Kingdom, you can’t let go of everything in Fanxing Kingdom, and Fanxing Kingdom can’t accommodate me. This stranger...then I will meet you once I find a way to leave the stars.”

Sonia: “But there is only one side?”

“Not necessarily,” Ash shrugged, “there may be two sides... but I won’t let you choose, and I won’t ask you to give up anything.”

“I actually regret it. I was confused by your beauty just now, so I couldn’t help but say it.” He lowered his head and closed his eyes, and said softly, “My correct approach should be to hide it to the end and leave without meeting you. ... Jian Ji, you are too impulsive, but so am I.”

Sonia only felt an anger burning from the soles of her feet to her head: “Yes, it’s all my impulse. But you don’t want to keep your promise, don’t notify me immediately when you come to Fanxing, and even prefer to stay with Felix instead of looking for me. Help, does that make you cautious?”

“The impulse I say is that you want to leave the kingdom of stars with me.” Ash said, “This is the future I want to avoid the most.”

“Not long ago, you said you wanted to trust me and not interfere with my future, but now it’s your turn to point fingers at my decision?” Sonia pursed her lips and seemed to be in a hurry: “Do you want me to call your father too? ?”

Diya: “Hey!”

“I think it’s my fault,” Yaxiu said, “I usually tell you about those life-and-death adventures, but in reality you only have mediocre study and cultivation. I may unintentionally make you yearn for life and death. The adventure of death makes you yearn for life outside the campus... that’s why you feel that you can accept the price of leaving the starry country.”

Sonia’s shoulders trembled, her eyes misted: “You mean I’m just on a whim—you don’t even know what preparations I’ve made, or how determined I am!”

“I know-”

“You don’t know! Do you think I’m an ignorant girl who changes every day, or a fool who watches romance dramas, you presume that I will regret it in the future—”

“I don’t assume you will regret it, but I know that I will regret it myself!” Ash looked at Sonia, took a deep breath and said, “I can’t afford your sacrifice.”

Sonia and Dia were stunned.

“You gave up everything and eloped with me to go to another country. How could I not like it? I wish we would fly far away tomorrow and spend the day and night together. It’s better to spend a few years with the witch on our honeymoon.” Yaxiu held her forehead. , said almost self-sacrificingly: “But you are not me, nor Igula or Harvey – you are not like us, carefree travelers, you have family, friends, and career.”

Yaxiu glanced at Diya, “My home is in Gospel, in Yisu Palace. But Jianji, your home is in Fanxing, in Gales, you already have many important things in your life, and I’m just one of them. .”

“But I know what’s most important to me.” Sonia said softly: “Don’t worry, what I paid for, I will definitely get it back from you tenfold and tenfold. When have you ever seen me suffer? You Don’t worry about not being able to afford it.”

“Even if you don’t give anything, I will give you ten times as much.” Ash smiled: “I will give you all the best...”

Facing Deya’s staring eyes, Yaxiu blinked, “...you.”

“Isn’t that ok?” Sonia spread her hands, “I gave the first half of my life and gained the second half of my life.”

“This is the biggest problem.” Ash said, “I am reluctant and unable to accept you sacrificing the first half of your life.”

“Why do you do so much?”

“Because I really lost the first half of my life.”

Facing the blank eyes of the two of them, Ya Xiu took a long breath: “I used to have parents and brothers, friends, and a career... Although my life is very good now, I have met you and gained a lot, but I still have a lot. Precious things are left out in the past.”

“But I can’t go back. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com may never go back.”

Yaxiu raised his head, looked at Sonia and said seriously: “Your life should not only have one important thing, parents, friends, career and other beautiful things are also important parts of you. I like the one who shows off to me and achieves. The sword girl with what grades, I like the sword girl who said what furniture I ordered for my mother today, and the sword girl who complained about her roommate in sharp language.”

“In addition to the ten times I gave you, you are also worthy of embracing more beautiful futures.”

“I don’t want you to experience the grief of losing my past, and I don’t want me to be yours.”

The more Yaxiu said, the smoother he said, and the more determined his mind became: “I will meet you at Fanxing, but I will never take you away from Fanxing. It doesn’t matter if you hate me, I will definitely slip away quietly.”

Sonia closed her eyes, shook her head slowly, and sighed softly.

“It’s too foul,” she said. “You know I won’t hate you.”

Chapter 768: let's fight

“But what if I hid you in a little dark room in the basement?”

Sonia suddenly asked: “You don’t usually go out and stay indoors for practice and entertainment. Only me will come to see you, so that you will not have any risk of exposure. It will not affect me, but we can be together.”

This suggestion suddenly sounded ok, but Yaxiu always felt strange, his heart palpitated, and he quickly shook his head: “No, I’m going back to Gospel to find Liz!”

“But you can’t go back right away,” Sonia’s eyes flashed strangely, “During this time—”

Deya raised his hand and said: “I actually have a way to build an empty door from the Gospel to the stars, but the empty door of the stars is a random location. But if you give me a few days, it is not impossible to build an empty door to Galax. .”

Yaxiu was stunned for a moment, and then reacted: “Gospel system?”

“The concept of the empty door is a new world rule. Even the gods of the gospel need to spend a certain amount of time to familiarize themselves with its internal laws.” Diya said: “The empty door magic must have better support to establish a directional empty door, but it requires a magician. As the development of their intelligence, the Gospel system can only use big data analysis, similar to the exhaustive method, to forcibly calculate the approximate scope of the empty doors established in different environments and at different times.”

“If you want to return to the Gospel, Ash, I will arrange it within three days.” Deya said seriously: “Now that the Gospel Kingdom is under my rule, the Omniscient Weaver has never given you any special instructions to you otherworldly travelers. As long as you When you come back, not only will I be able to protect you, but the inventory of the 700-year Yisu royal family will also be open to you.”

“You have been wandering for so long,” the witch said softly, “now you can finally go home.”

Ya Xiu was stunned by this sudden surprise – can they leave from Fanxing? Don’t need them to go deep into the abyss, don’t need them to slowly open the empty door, just wait for Diya to open the empty door?

He, Igula, Harvey, finally don’t need to continue to rampage on the earth, can stay under the protection of Queen Yisu and rest well?

Their long journey... finally reaching the agreed end?

“Can the empty door be fixed forever?” Sonia asked with wide eyes.

Diya shook her head: “No, no related miracles have been researched.”

“Can that create frequent empty doors, such as letting me go to the Gospel Kingdom two or three times a week?”

“No, the creation of a directional empty door also consumes a lot of the Gospel system, because there are too many factors affecting the empty door, virtual environment fluctuations, environmental factors, and even flowing gold... Every time a directional empty door is created, it will squeeze a lot of Gospel computing power, once Twice is okay, but if it is carried out for a long time, it will have an indelible negative impact on people's livelihood and economy."

"What about twice a month? Come in once, leave once, and I can take a month off."

"Neither."

"why not?"

"Because I didn't intend to tell you the news."

Diya lowered her head, looked at her toes, and said, "If Yaxiu was in another country, I would secretly tell him the news. But he is in Fanxing, so he can't hide it from you, so he just confessed."

Yaxiu hesitated, his eyes swept between the two girls.

"...Aha."

Sonia folded her hands on her chest and said calmly, "One of you didn't plan to tell me that I was in Fanxing, and the other didn't want to tell me that I could connect with Fanxing. It's really not bad... father and daughter?"

"I said it," Deya pursed her lips, "Liz is Ash's daughter, I'm Deya! I'm the princess, Ash is my knight!"

"It can be heard that you have been trying to avoid this. You are afraid that he will treat you as a daughter and purify your feelings into family." Sonia said: "But you and Liz have many souls, you are in the Time Continent. At that time, there was no love for the 'viewer' beyond friendship, so you actually fell in love with him from Liz's point of view, right?"

"Axiu said that your Yisu royal family does not seem to have a paternal line, and your matrilineal line is a doll occupied by the gods of the gospel, so your princess must lack fatherly love and motherly love.

Although you have always wanted to avoid it, your emotional starting point, In fact, you are infatuated with the fatherly love he gave, right?”

Yaxiu stood up nervously: “Jianji...”

Jian Ji directly reached out and pressed him back, stared at the pale-faced witch and said: “Although my spiritual faction is shallow, I also know that one body and multiple souls will affect each other, and Liz’s feelings for Yaxiu will affect your sisters, and your sisters are the same. Your feelings for Ashe will also affect Liz... You can really tell whether you are looking for a lover or a father?”

The witch’s lips trembled, and water mist appeared in her eyes, as if she was about to cry in the next second. At this time, her hair color suddenly changed, switching between black and white and red, and finally changed into a dirty hair with distinct hair color, gritted her teeth and said, “This is why we don’t want you to come to the gospel.”

“The virtual world is the limit of our tolerance. We don’t want to continue to see you in reality.”

Sonia laughed angrily: “Tolerate? What are you forbearing?”

“Forbearance, are you the first to break the promise and cross the boundaries of friends? Forbearance you sneaking around when I’m not paying attention? Forbearance, do you intentionally or unintentionally block me from getting close to Ashe?” Almost took away all the shares of being alone in the virtual realm, you ask me what I am enduring?”

“You don’t want to take the initiative and don’t fight or grab, why are you relying on me again?”

“I don’t want to take the initiative? I don’t dare to take the initiative!” The witch shook her head heavily, and her messy hair drew muddy colors: “I don’t want to quarrel with you, I don’t want to affect the atmosphere of the team, and I don’t want to destroy what we finally formed. Stable relationship, but you always take everything for granted, you always want to take more, you always fill up the candy and keep taking it!”

“But then I can comfort myself. As long as Ash comes back to the gospel, we don’t have to worry about your eyes. We will have time for princesses and knights. We... At least we don’t have to be so humble as dust.”

“You should be humble.” Sonia said word by word, “Because I came first!”

“Oh, is that right?” The witch pointed at Yaxiu and said, “If he suddenly drops a childhood sweetheart from the sky, would you also know and take the initiative to withdraw?”

“That assumption doesn’t make sense.”

“But you always only know the viewer in the virtual world. You don’t know Yaxiu in reality at all. You don’t know what he likes to play, what he likes to eat, and who his friends are... From this perspective, I like everything about Ash before you, you just like that side called the viewer!”

“Not to mention that you can’t even protect him in Fanxing, and I can provide him with all help in the gospel. If you really want to talk about who should be humble, it’s definitely not me who can give a kingdom!”

Sonia’s anger almost burned through her belly, she almost subconsciously clenched the hilt of the sword, her eyes were as red as blood: “You—”

“You are very selfish.” Not to be outdone, the witch drew a sharp dead line with her ten fingers, “But it doesn’t matter, we are all selfish people, but you can’t be selfish enough to think that everyone is selfless.”

“Is the seed that missed the season not allowed to germinate, and the late love can only be handed over? There is no such reason!” She said loudly: “Jianji, I never thought of defeating you or letting you retire, because I know this is impossible, we are destined to be comrades-in-arms who live and die together, and our destiny threads have long been entangled with each other... More importantly, it is impossible for Ashura to give up on you.”

“But you think that you can cut off the relationship between me and Ash.”

"I have had enough of this kind of treatment in the virtual world. I will not continue to endure your bullying in reality. I will not take you to the gospel kingdom, never."

"That's because I deserve everything!" Sonia blushed, "I didn't do anything wrong!"

"Then what did I do wrong?" The witch clenched the dead line in her hand: "The mistake is that I like the knight who saved me from falling from the building, and the prince who took me out of the palace? Why do I have to swallow my voice in front of you? Don't think about my feelings...you don't even think about Ash's position."

Sonia bit her lip, and she was about to cry, pearly tears slid down the corners of her eyes, but she still held her head up stubbornly, and the red-haired ponytail fluttered proudly:

"I am right!"

Snapped!

The sword's edge was leaning heavily on the ruby ground, and Yaxiu stood up and leaned on the long sword, unfolded the virtual wings, and unfolded the sanctuary. The sword's color and magic power fluctuated violently.

"Speaking of which," he said suddenly, "I haven't seen you for more than a month, and I don't know how much your strength has improved."

"Let's fight and do our best."

“Is Angel’s mood so stable this month?”

Micah, the director of the Blood Prison Research Institute, sat on the pile of rubies. He looked at the sky full of stars and remembered the torrential rain he encountered on the first day he came to Ruby Mountain.

There is a ‘gravity buoyancy phenomenon’ in Ruby Mountain. The surface gravity of Ruby Mountain is the lowest, but when it is separated from the surface of Ruby Mountain, the gravity will increase rapidly. The higher the altitude, the greater the gravity. will fall to the ground.

That feeling, as if being overwhelmed by an unseen huge terror.

This phenomenon is not only effective for magicians. All natural phenomena in Ruby Mountain will be affected by gravitational buoyancy. The wind will blow through the heart, the hail will turn into a rain of bombs, the sunlight will intensify into a poisonous light, and the rain will change even more. into ecstasy rain.

Micah, who had just climbed to the Ruby Mountain, was so excited that he thought this rainstorm was a trial mechanism. He didn’t even deploy the hard top of the Sanctuary. As a result, his soul was corroded by nearly half before he realized that it was not good, and it was enough to return to reality. It took three years of cultivation to recover.

The ruby mountain, which hundreds of millions of magicians have longed for throughout the ages, is but a cage that has been tempered.

However, the magicians would continue to climb the Ruby Mountain one after another, standing on the top of the virtual realm and looking up at the sky. Their sight was not blocked by the silver fog, not blocked by the countercurrent golden rain, and not filled by the dream bubble. They could see everything clearly, but couldn’t see the road.

Micah has already condensed his own blood-colored virtual wings, which is the most perfect ratio of 7 guns and 3 blood. As the oldest gunsmith, pure gunshot color is too extreme, pure blood color is not suitable for him, compound color can play his strength just right, it is reasonable to say that he has reached the theoretical limit of the magician and there is no need to continue to work hard, but he still Insist on logging in to the virtual world, no matter how bad the weather is.

No one knows how the weather on Ruby Mountain is formed, and even the most brilliant meteorologist can't find any clues. The legendary magician joked that the weather of Ruby Mountain is related to the Ruby Angel, and the Ruby Angel is quite unstable, sometimes the sun is sometimes hazy, sometimes crying and sometimes the wind is howling, like a little girl who has lost love.

So when Micah stared at the starry sky for a month, he faintly felt that something was happening in a place he couldn't see.

The weather at Ruby Mountain may not have anything to do with the Ruby Angels, but the sudden stabilization of the chaotic weather system is clearly a sign of some kind of upheaval.

But he didn't worry too much. No matter how the virtual world changed, could it still close down?

Moreover, Micah's life focus is no longer in the virtual world. Compared with the starry sky in Ruby Mountain, he will have the next annual financial meeting.

Because of the outbreak of the empty door concept, style="display:inline-block;widthdisplay:inline-block;wdata-ad-client="ca-pub-12data-ad4185134"" data-ad-region="cont_mid" data-ad-slot="6246767822" data-ad-adsbygoogle=w[]).push({}); Next, the research focus of all research institutes in the blood moon country must be to explore the potential of the empty door concept, but the empty door magic spirit It is a scarce resource, so resource tilt and state support in financial meetings are particularly important.

As the director of the Blood Prison Research Institute, Micah naturally only has the other four research institutes as his competitors.

Among them, the Blood Crime Research Institute is nothing to worry about. After all, the deputy director Bajiju has a poor record in the ghost inheritance, and has lost all face for the blood crime; only the Blood Cry Research Institute makes Micah feel quite difficult, mainly because of the Blood Cry Research Institute. There has been a candidate for the Empress—in less than half a year, the genius magician who went straight from Silver to Sanctuary, Sifline Gewen!

Even if the Blood Saints practiced extremely fast in the early stage, it was unheard of for them to be so fast.

Since Severin's Blood Embrace Ceremony was held in Broken Lake Prison, all research institutes have sent medics to Broken Lake Prison in the past few months, hoping to recreate the birth of a genius. Severin's medic number "222" It has become a popular number, and the number of medics in Broken Lake Prison even surpassed that of prisoners for a time.

Geniuses always get preferential treatment, even those around them.

Not only the living legends of Micah were disturbed, but even the old antiques of the 'pre-epoch' were unveiled. Everyone checked it carefully and found that this genius is not a big problem except for the ignorance of letting go of the death row prisoner. Overall, she is still a good girl.

Not to mention that Siflin is still a direct student of the director of the Blood Crying Institute. When she was under investigation, the deputy director Se Lei supervised the whole process, which shows Blood Cry's protective attitude. When Old Antique lay back, he said 'Well done Bloody Cry' three times in a row, and his eyes were full of doting as he looked at Severin, as if he wanted to love Wu Jiwu.

Although Micah's Blood Prison Research Institute is not as humiliating as Blood Crime, it is obviously dwarfed by the * cry that made the limelight. Bloody Cry occupies a little more, and Blood Prison naturally occupies a little less. If Bloody Cry takes this opportunity to establish a leading position in empty research, then the four major research institutes may not become one of the top three.

It's just that the birth of a genius is an accidental black swan event, and Micah can only admit that he is unlucky when he encounters it.

However, he wasn't completely helpless.

Because he discovered that genius is not accidental.

It's funny, the reason why Micah found the loophole was because of the short guard of the Blood Cry Research Institute. Bloody Cry accepted that everyone should review their own genius, but also asked for compensation. Blood Moon should open the inventory to reward Siflin.

Everyone has no choice. Micah kept an eye on it and looked at the list of rewards for the magic spirit proposed by Severin, and found a very strange place – she actually asked for the three-winged spiritual magic spirit!

Although the blood saints are good at blood, mind, and illusion, but according to the investigation report, Siflin is a pure blood magician.

Of course, this doesn't explain anything. After all, Severin's senior sister, Sele, is a spiritual sanctuary. Although Severin's mentor is not a major in spirituality, she also has a sanctuary realm. It can be said that the spiritual faction cannot be discarded. It is reasonable for Severin to want to practice the spiritual faction as well.

What's more, even if she doesn't practice the spiritual faction, she can still use spiritual magic.

She is Tu Yile, and she wants the magic spirit to come and eat it, and Micah can't control it.

But Micah thinks of a small thing: Severin has a Veela, and that Veela happens to be a two-winged psychic.

He did a little research and found that this Veela was quite outrageous, and it took half a year to become a two-winged magician from scratch. It's just that compared to the blood saints, this achievement is uncommon, but it's not particularly noticeable. After all, the blood saints' highest mana absorption efficiency in the sea of knowledge is 830% of that of ordinary wizards, even if they don't encounter a whirlpool. , the blood saints can also quickly complete the accumulation of silver mana.

Like Micah himself, it only took seven months to reach the Time Continent from zero, and he was bitten to death by a fish dragon in the middle.

Although it is said that people are divided into groups, the two magicians who practice at an extremely fast speed happen to be inseparable good friends. Naturally, Micah couldn't help but think about whether that three-winged psychic spirit was given to Mei by Severin. baby gift?

This is absolutely impossible to prepare in advance. After all, who can guarantee when he will become a sanctuary? Like the story of a genius who advanced by leaps and bounds in the early stage, and then stuck in front of the Sanctuary for a lifetime, Micah got tired of hearing it a hundred years ago.

Although it is also possible that it was a crazy show of love by Severin who fell under the Veela skirt, after all, the pillow wind also works for women. But Micah is more willing to believe in another crazy possibility – Veela, in fact, is also a sanctuary magician.

The two of them shared the secret of rapid promotion.

If this is uncovered, it will definitely allow the headquarters to reopen the investigation. When the secret is important to a certain extent, genius is not a sacrifice that cannot be sacrificed.

Micah wasn't hesitating whether to offend Blood Cry, but he was hesitating whether it would be too wasteful to use only the annual financial meeting. However, he hasn't determined the truth yet, and he hastily brought it up but found it to be a misunderstanding, then it's the blood prison's turn to be ashamed.

Let's steal the Veela first, thought Micah.

If she shows sanctuary resistance, she is revealing secrets; if she does not show sanctuary, she is hiding secrets deep.

It's just a veela anyway.

While thinking about it, Micah suddenly felt a slight tremor from the ground. UU reading www.uukanshu.com

The gravity of Ruby Mountain is related to the number of magicians. When a magician enters Ruby Mountain, the mountain will vibrate due to the change of the gravity coefficient.

He picked up a ruby and crushed it.

A list appeared in front of him, with no names in it, just rows of colors. Some colors are bright, some are dim, and the more in the front, the brighter the color, and vice versa, the more monotonous.

Micah caressed with his right hand, and a name immediately appeared on about one-tenth of the color. But except for a few real names, most of them are nicknames, such as 'The Alchemy King of the Stars', 'Gospel Flame Dragon', 'Paradise Cursor', etc...

"Um?"

He swiped through the list and found that there were three lines of very faint colors at the bottom, which were in sharp contrast with all the colors, and Micah's eyes lit up.

"Rookie? Or weak?"

Chapter 770: You are so despicable!

Ruby Mountain is different from the previous virtual realm.

When a magician walks on the ruby mountain, it is impossible to increase his magic power.

Because the fourth virtual wing is composed of the color of the magician himself, unlike the first three virtual wings that can seek the virtual realm, the magician can only seek it inward.

To put it simply, the magician relies on his own knowledge to arouse the resonance of the virtual world, which is derived from the magic power of color. The specific method is to fight and produce in Ruby Mountain and drive the magic spirit to perform miracles.

This is also why most legendary magicians can only obtain composite color virtual wings. After all, it is too difficult for legends to use only a single faction magic spirit to complete the battle. And ordinary battles are not enough. If the legendary magician can't be "brave and diligent" and "feeling" in the battle, it can't be derived from the magic power.

A battle that learns nothing, like crushing and being crushed, doesn't add to any experience. Legendary Warlocks must constantly explore their own limits in order to get feedback from shocking the virtual world.

But even if it's so troublesome, legendary magicians can't fight if they want to fight.

Illusory creatures and magician projections, Ruby Mountain also has them, but...it depends on the mood of the angel.

Yes, the weather will greatly affect the refresh of the virtual creatures and the projection of the magician. For example, the rainstorm and windy weather will attract creatures such as Yu Wenglong, Storm Zhanlong, Thunder Roaring Dragon, Fengshui Magician projection, etc., and the poisonous weather is more prone to fire. Magician projection, the pure black night will refresh the dark magician projection, shadow evil dragon and other dangerous existences... It can be summed up in one sentence, the worse the weather, the more dangerous enemies will appear.

Even so, the legendary magician is not unacceptable.

But the problem is that most of the time, there are no monsters in Ruby Mountain, and there are only legendary magicians on the whole mountain.

Like the starry sky this whole month, Micah never encountered any monsters in Ruby Mountain. As long as the starry sky continues, the legendary magician will not be able to increase his magic power for one day, and everyone is stuck here.

In the vast era before the epoch, Ruby Mountain was so bad, endless accidents would become obstacles for the magicians.

But after the era, the magicians solved this problem, or the solution has always existed: since there are no other enemies in Ruby Mountain, can the magicians also become each other's enemies?

This plan has a pain point that cannot be avoided: Ruby Mountain is infinite. Whether it goes up, down, left or right, the mountain of Ruby Mountain will always extend, and it is extremely difficult for legendary magicians to meet each other.

So when the eras converged, a crucial concept was born in the world of magicians: the Gospel.

The Gospel is a concept rooted in the virtual realm. By connecting all the magicians with the virtual realm, it can naturally connect to the legend. Ruby Mountain has been completely changed by the concept of Gospel. Legendary magicians only need to crush any ruby to call up the list of magicians and check the status of all legendary magicians, whether they are in the virtual realm or not.

Of course, the list of magicians will not display names, only color codes that can metaphorize the strength of magicians. The method of using the magician list is very simple. As long as you pour mana into the color code, and the target is in the virtual world, it will guide you to find the target. During this process, the ruby mountain will not expand between you, so you can meet have a fight.

An appointment is the original purpose of the list of magicians.

But after so many years of development, many new concepts have been born one after another, further deepening the user experience of the artist list, and extending many "pain points" uses.

For example, the investment mechanism formed by the "sharing concept" of the park.

As long as you pour a certain amount of mana into any target, you can form an "investment contract" with the target. When the other party improves knowledge and skills, some pure knowledge will flow into your mind; at the same time, your pure knowledge will also be acquired by the other party.

However, investing in alliances will squeeze the connection between the magician and the virtual world, which means that if you choose to invest in other magicians, the virtual world will reduce the investment in your inspiration. Investors will not have such troubles.

If you invest in a lot of magicians, then the virtual world will basically block you.

The legends at the top of the magician list cover almost the vast majority of investors. Every time they improve a little, they can extract dozens of times the amount of knowledge from dozens of legends. Therefore, whether to be an investor or be an investor is a question that every legend needs to think about.

In addition, there is a gambling mechanism formed by the Blood Moon's 'corpse-eating concept'.

The same is to pour a certain amount of mana into any target, and after forming a 'gambling contract', if you cannot log in to the virtual realm for ten consecutive days (our side is defeated), your essential knowledge will flow into the opponent's mind, which is equivalent to eating dozens of an experience orb;

In the same way, if the opponent cannot log in to the virtual world within ten days (the enemy is defeated), then the essence of knowledge of the opponent will also be owned by you.

This large amount of knowledge circulation will also affect the connection between the magician and the virtual world. Whether it is winning or losing, the investment in the virtual world inspiration will be reduced to the limit in the next period of time. Moreover, the loss of a large amount of knowledge will also have a serious negative impact on the magician, and even lead to the regression of the realm.

There are many ways to use the magician list, but the most commonly used ones are investment and gambling. It is worth mentioning that the effect of the magician list is mandatory, whether you want it or not, whether you are in Ruby Mountain or not, as long as someone wants to invest in you or bet against you, you must accept it.

The list of magicians has nothing to do with the words 'peace', 'freedom', and 'compromise' since its birth. It is a tool to force combat. If you avoid fighting, the battle will come to you, how can it still be with you? Negotiable?

This is also why the vast majority of legendary magicians are reclusive and ignorant of world affairs, and why Micah, a blood saint who has become famous, has to log in to the virtual realm every day, because the competition in Ruby Mountain is even more terrifying than the first three floors.

No matter how big a setback you encounter in the first three layers of the virtual realm, the big deal is to quit the virtual realm and lie down.

But Ruby Mountain is different. If you stay in reality all the time, other legendary magicians will soon empty your knowledge through gambling and other means, until one day you suddenly find that your faction realm has fallen.

Legendary magicians were unable to accept the coercive pressure of the magician list at first, but soon everyone would get used to it, and in the end they would even be glad that they lived in this most beautiful era.

Because there is no legend, I don't want to continue to explore the pinnacle of the magician.

It's just that the road in front of Ruby Mountain is gone. If they want to open up a new road, they must overcome obstacles by themselves. But the power of a single unit is too limited, and the knowledge is infinite. It may be a lifetime for a legendary magician to study other magic factions from scratch.

The significance of the artist list is that it makes it possible to circulate knowledge efficiently.

In the past, a top legendary magician could only master one legendary spell and one holy domain spell at most, but now a peak legend can master two legendary spells and three holy domain spells!

Compared to the lifeless ruby mountain before the epoch, this competitive ruby mountain is more likely to give the legend a glimpse into the realm of the demigods. Of course, the magicians have another way, that is to find the ruby angel to open the trial of God, but just like the modern magician did not expect the golden fish, the colorful tail, and the eclipse dream, the legends would rather pin their hopes on competing with each other, instead of fantasizing about being favored by angels one day.

As an extremely cautious blood saint, Micah seldom acts rashly whether it be gambling or investing. But this time, seeing the dull colors of these three lines, he immediately poured mana into one of them to launch a 'gambling contract', and immediately chased the target's current position!

It's cheap like this, if you don't hurry up, it's too late!

Color, as the code name of the list of magicians, is the best way to reflect the strength of a magician. A pale color like this only composed of black, white and gray means that the realm of the opponent's faction has not reached the legendary level at all!

I don't know if these three are newcomers or old people who have lost everything.

Every once in a while, there will always be legends in gray tones in the wizard list. These people are often the losers who have lost everything in the gambling. Not only did they die, but all the magic spirits were taken away.

It's just that some people can rise again, and some people are directly defeated and sinking.

But Ruby Mountain is so cruel, you have to step on * to become an angel!

If Micah starts a bet with the target and successfully kills the opponent, he will get double pure knowledge!

After being blessed by the miracle of movement, Micah groped for the opponent's location in a short while, and heard an exhilarating voice – the opponent has fallen into battle!

He turned into a pool of blood and flowed on the ruby ground. He got closer to the battlefield and found that three magicians were fighting, one man and two women.

The man in the dark red trench coat is a long-range swordsman, and the sword scar traps woven by the heart sword fill the entire battlefield; the red-haired woman is a traditional swordsman, and the wave sword miracle traverses the audience; the other black and white lady with chaotic hair shoots death with her hands and fingers. Suspended wire, the attack is hard to prevent.

Micah observed for a moment, feeling a little confused—although their attack methods were a bit monotonous, their attack power was much higher than he imagined.

He thought that these three were the bottom three on the list of magicians, but in addition to the target he chose to bet against, the other two women's miraculous powers were already able to squeeze into the middle reaches of the Ruby Mountain, which means that they drive magic Spirit's magic power is close to pure color.

'Are they also here to pick up bargains?' Micah couldn't help thinking.

He carefully observed and found more clues: First of all, the man in black is indeed the weakest, but he just barely persevered in the chaos. And whether it is a red-haired woman or a black and white woman, as long as they have the opportunity, they will pour out miracles and beat the man in black, but when they see the other party attacking the man in black, they will immediately turn the offensive to attack each other.

Obviously, these two women want to monopolize all the interests of this man, and do not want the other to succeed. It is precisely because of this that the man in black can survive the successive offensives, and the three of them form a delicate balance.

Triangles are really stable structures.

But the situation was quite favorable for Micah: he saw that the two women had already made a real fire, and his attention was all on the competitor. Now the man in black can breathe for a while, but it is also a great opportunity for him!

This great experience pack should be destined for me!

After a short period of deliberation, Micah suddenly changed from blood to his real body, and took out a simple flintlock gun to aim at the head of the man in black!

At the moment when the flintlock appeared, it seemed as if thousands of troops were coming, and the majestic army suppressed the opponent on the spot, and the sound of the projectile was like the judgment of the gods! Obviously everyone is a soul body without blood, but the man in black bleeds from seven holes, and the blood vessels all over his body burst!

Miracle Bloody Verdict!

The targets targeted are all souls with hearts, so they can be shocked; the targets targeted are all beasts with blood, so they can boil!

The projectile was shot out, the sanctuary could not be blocked, and all the soul beasts should penetrate!

As long as he is approached by Micah to a certain distance, let alone a sanctuary magician, even a legendary magician has the confidence to kill him with one blow!

Bullets, they will find their home!

At the moment when the bullet came out, the black-and-white woman and the red-haired woman both looked over.

Then-

Miracle · Three thousand six hundred one second!

The water of the flowing gold river was consumed violently, and the power of the time magic spirit was exerted to the extreme. It was delayed 3,600 times in one second, giving Diya enough time to see the trajectory of the projectile!

Miracle Queen's Sight!

Using eyes as a medium, Diya wrapped ten suspension wires around the air-breaking projectile, abruptly delaying the shooting from 0.01 seconds to 0.5 seconds!

But it was enough.

Sonia stood in front of Ash, she held up her long sword, and countless silk threads enveloped her body. When the projectile touched her, she was like a disturbed poisonous spider, dancing at an incredible speed, and the hidden blade traced the trajectory of the projectile all the way—

Miracle-Meteor Tribulation!

Micah only felt that his chest was pierced by a sharp blade, and the UU Reading www.uukanshu.com Sanctuary had no blocking effect! He snorted and unfolded his virtual wings to retreat quickly. Most of his magic power was used to establish gambling contracts, and he had no spare power to continue fighting!

This is the price of initiating a bet – the initiator has to fight the opponent in a bad state!

If you win, that's fine, but if you lose, you'll find your own way!

But now is Micah able to leave if he wants to?

Witness magic spirit, torrent magic spirit, spiral magic spirit, time shock magic spirit...

Diya crossed her hands and grabbed, ten silk threads extending along her fingertips, the thickness of the silk threads gradually expanded to the size of her fingers, turning into countless whips entwined with torrents and lashing at Micah's sanctuary, not only scattered Micah many The miracle of defense shocked him for three breaths!

Miracle Queen's Flogging!

A stand-in exactly like Ash was thrown over and directly hit Micah's sanctuary, splashing ink marks all over the space! Those ink marks are not only damaging the Sanctuary, but also greatly slowing Micah's speed!

Miracle · Substitute Splashing Ink!

Micah turned his head and saw Sonia holding a scarlet sword light as big as Ruby Mountain, piercing through the world and dividing the world! When she swung down the sword light, it was like a lake pouring down and the blood moon overturned!

Miracle Blood Moon Broken Lake!

“Trap!” At the moment before the sanctuary was shattered, Micah roared, “You are so despicable—”

The blood fell, completely drowning the blood moon legend.
