

Super Rich Dad Chapter 769-770

Chapter 769

Looking at Jiang Hao's surprised look, Xue Chongli's heart flashed a trace of unpleasant feeling.

'That young lady also knows about this matter, did she not tell you that the Northern Province Shen family and the overseas Shen family are of the same origin.'

Just as the words fell, Xue Chongli saw Jiang Hao's face pale, and everything seemed to become able to explain.

It turns out that the northern Shen family and overseas Shen family is the same clan and the same origin, looking at Xue Chongli, it seems that the relationship between the northern Shen family and overseas Shen Tianyang is somewhat uncomplicated!

Thinking of this, Jiang Hao lowered his head and carefully hid the hatred in his eyes.

Silence for a long time, sensing that something is not right Xue Chongli looked at Jiang Hao hesitantly said 'you, what is wrong with you, did I say something wrong?'

Jiang Hao shook his head slightly, suddenly opened his mouth and laughed 'No, you did not say wrong, you are right about many things and even woke me up!'

Back then, the Shen clan was so beautiful that Jiang Hao did not experience it, so he naturally did not know what had happened.

Even he still doesn't know how many branches there were under the Shen clan back then!

At the beginning, Shen Haoting did not elaborate on this matter, but there is one thing Jiang Hao is clear, that is, anyone who stands with Shen Tianyang is his enemy!

This point has never changed, and now it seems that his enemies have added one more Northern Province Shen family.

Jiang Hao closed his eyes and took a deep breath, before wondering if this Shen family would have some relationship with Shen Tianyang.

If not for this consideration, he would not have been careful to hide his identity until now.

After a long silence, Jiang Hao looked at Xue Chongli and asked, 'Right, Uncle Xue, when did you know about this matter?'

Xue Chongli looked at Jiang Hao asked these words at the same time, a strange color flashed in his eyes, so a long time of silence before smiling bitterly 'for a while.'

Saying this, he turned his head to look at Shen Qingshu who was socializing with people and smiled 'It was because Shen Wennian told the old man about this matter that the old man agreed to the marriage between Shen Qingshu and Yu Ning.'

Jiang Hao smiled and turned his head to follow Xue Chongli also turned his eyes to Shen Qingshu, but his eyes were cold.

Shen Qingshu suddenly shivered, seemingly sensing that something was wrong.

But with his current position, if he is still worried about being cynical, then there is no need to sit in this position.

So Shen Qingshu did not take this icy feeling to heart.

The two were silent for a while, Xue Chongli looked at Jiang Hao and said in a deep voice 'You'd better leave, this is really not a place you can stay, besides, Shen Qingshu has been trying to find trouble with you.'

Jiang Hao some moved to Xue Chongli nodded, was about to speak back when Sally suddenly walked over.

The evening gown she was wearing looked elegant yet not losing a touch of allure, plus Sally's status was unspeakable, the most eye-catching person in the room besides Shen Qing Shu was this one.

When the crowd saw her walk softly to the side of Jiang Hao, the hand actually directly on the arm of Jiang Hao, shocked down a ground of eyeballs!

Even Xue Chongli was surprised to look at Jiang Hao, although that day in Xue Yu Ning ward to see Jiang Hao directly dialed Sally's phone, and the other side also connected to feel that his relationship with Sally is not simple.

But did not think that Sally could treat Jiang Hao so, so the face hesitated several times, but finally endured.

And many of the surrounding upper-class people noticed this, but also have secretly look this way, between the words to each other and the people around to inquire, Sally hold the person in the end is who!

The person who can make Sally so treated to say that it is not a rich man's brother, afraid to death they will not believe!

But after asking all over the room, not many people knew Jiang Hao, after all, he had only been here for a few months.

Although the name of the doctor is out there, but who would be fine to see a doctor who is good, it is not a prayer to be sick!

And while the crowd was talking, Sally looked at Xue Chongli as if she didn't notice anything, smiling and saying 'Uncle Xue, what were you guys talking about.'

If you look at the age, Sally called Xue Chongli an uncle Xue is not wrong, but the identity between the two sides is a world of difference!

So Xue Chongli heard the words and quickly shook his head and waved his hand, 'I dare not dare, you can call me Xue steward, the word uncle is really not dare to be ah!'

Jiang Hao looked at Xue Chongli's appearance some helpless sigh, and then looked down to Sally holding his hand, his face a somewhat complex look.

I don't know why, when Sally walked up a feeling that if nothing else suddenly emerged.

As if he has known Sally for a long, long time, this looks slightly ambiguous action, can also do so rightfully.

But this is only Jiang Hao's feeling, following Sally's behind the old black but look at the eyes are popping out!

'Why did you come over, just now also see you over there to entertain customers?'

Since Sally came over, there are some things naturally not good to say, Jiang Hao can only put down the heart of the question to turn the topic away.

Sally shrugged her shoulders, the fragrant shoulders moving lightly at the same time hard let the crowd resounded a swallowing sound.

'Nothing to entertain, just happened to see them after, go over and say hello.'

After saying this, Sally some curious look to Xue Chongli continued 'you two just talking about what topic ah, convenient to tell me not?'

In fact, Sally just came over when she had vaguely heard a little, just two people seem to be talking about the relationship between the northern Shen family and the overseas Shen family.

She knew that if she did not stand out, let Jiang Hao know too much, I'm afraid the consequences are somewhat difficult to control, which is why she had to stand out.

Now although she is asking the two what the topic is, but looking at Xue Chongli's eyes have surfaced a touch of warning.

Xue Chongli is an old man, if not brainy and smart how can always stay in the Xue family, rather than with the Xue family sons were sent out to do business.

After a period of silence, Xue Chongli shook his head with a bitter smile and said, 'Nothing to talk about, just talking about a friend of mine who may have run into some trouble recently.'

After saying this, Xue Chongli eyes burning look at Jiang Hao smiled and said 'Do you think I'm right?'

Jiang Hao and Xue Chongli stared at each other for a moment, the two were silent, if you count Sally, who stood beside the two with a wicked face, the atmosphere between the three was rather awkward.

‘Maybe, but who knows that the one causing trouble is not your friend’s opponent?’

After saying this, Jiang Hao turned his head to look at Sally with a slight smile and said ‘Let’s go, take me to your private room to see.’

Chapter 770

Sally looked at Jiang Hao and nodded graciously, then gently stretched out her hand and naturally took Jiang Hao’s arm, and the two of them left in front of the eyes of the hall.

During this time, Shen Qingshu also glanced at Jiang Hao thoughtfully, but the two of them just looked at each other before they both misplaced their eyes.

Jiang Hao was not worried about Shen Qingshu, but he was trying to suppress the anger in his heart from being noticed by Shen Qingshu.

And Shen Qingshu moved his eyes because he felt that there was no need to waste his eyes, his time, on a small person like Jiang Hao.

Don’t look at Jiang Hao standing beside Sally now, but maybe the next moment he would be kicked away by Sally, after all, on an occasion like this evening.

Sally had invited Jiang Hao to come, and probably just hoped to hide someone who could block the knife.

I have to say that Shen Qingshu’s wicked idea saved him a lot of heartache, otherwise perhaps what little jealousy he had left would have flooded him!

Sally led Jiang Hao to the private room on the first floor, the entire room seemed to protrude from the wall and was set on top of the first floor, with high-strength one-way glass underneath his feet.

Jiang Hao looked at his feet, the corners of his mouth split into a mocking smile and said ‘The person who designed this place must not be a good person, he must think of stepping on other people’s heads every day!’

Sally tightened her skirt and then leaned back on the sofa to look at Jiang Hao and smiled ‘Oh? Really, tell me more.’

Jiang Hao looked back at the smiling Sally, and suddenly something Xue Chongli had said rang in his mind.

Perhaps he could get something out of Sally, as she knew that the Northern Shen family was connected to the overseas Shen family.

Jiang Hao coughed lightly, then walked to the chair beside Sally and sat down, looking at her and smiling, ‘Don’t tell me that you designed this place.’

Sally shrugged her shoulders, plucked a grape from the fruit plate on the table and put it into her mouth, laughing ‘How could I? I don’t have time to do such a boring thing, but I do think this design is quite good.’

After saying this, Sally pointed to the other boxes and said, 'The people here are basically all the really powerful local people, they have the ability to stand at the top and can crush anyone, including me.'

Jiang Hao was silent for a while and suddenly laughed 'Aren't people the same as people?'

To Jiang Hao's comment, Sally replied with a light laugh, but did not say anything else.

Sally looked at Jiang Hao and smiled for a moment, 'Shen Yan, do you know that I like you?'

The sudden question not only scared Jiang Hao, but even stunned Old Black who was standing behind Sally.

Before Jiang Hao could open his mouth to answer, a violent coughing fit rang out in the room!

'Cough cough cough, why is this throat always uncomfortable lately, forget it, you guys talk, I'll go out and eat something.'

With those words, Old Black slowly slipped out of the room, God knows if Sally would find an excuse to gag him forever if he continued to stay.

As a bodyguard, he was meant to keep Sally safe, not act as a light bulb who didn't know the slightest bit about love.

Jiang Hao watched the way Old Black looked at himself as he left the room, the hint of flirtation making Jiang Hao sit on pins and needles.

When Old Black had left, Sally continued to look at Jiang Hao as if she didn't notice anything and asked 'You know I like you, right?'

Jiang Hao nodded in silence and looked at Sally with some confusion, not understanding why the other party was suddenly talking about this matter.

Sally's eyes flashed with surprise after she confirmed Jiang Hao's nod.

Then she continued, 'Since you know that, there are some things you have to choose to get used to, and that includes acknowledging that people are not equal to each other.'

Perhaps it was Jiang Hao's illusion, but when Sally said these words, a trace of vicissitudes flashed in her eyes, which even made his heart ache a little.

What exactly had she gone through to make this young girl less than twenty years old in front of her able to have such a vicissitudes in her eyes.

'You shouldn't go thinking too much about it, the higher the strength, the higher they stand, but they also bear more responsibility.'

As she said this, Sally stood up and walked over to the window of the room, looking down at the people who were responding to each other at their feet.

‘The absolute fairness is that we all have responsibilities on our shoulders, heavy, heavy responsibilities, and we never live for ourselves.’

If it had been the old Jiang Hao, he might have dismissed Sally’s words with disdain.

With his life in his own hands, why wouldn’t he live for himself?

But after experiencing so many things, especially after, what happened at the Thirty Mile Shop, Jiang Hao had also slowly started to change.

His life was no longer his own. His life belonged to the little girl who had died to protect him.

His life belonged to the little girl who had died protecting him. His life belonged to the friend who had died faithfully for him.

His life had long since been equated with responsibility, a fact that had been predetermined from the day the Shen clan was destroyed, but only after experiencing what happened at the 30 Mile Shop did Jiang Hao understand this.

After a long silence, Jiang Hao pulled the corner of his mouth and looked at Sally helplessly, smiling, ‘Are we talking too much?’

Sally looked back at Jiang Hao, and at this moment, an impulse suddenly sprang up in her heart.

She wanted to recklessly tell him the truth about everything, and then see how the other party would react, and what kind of look he would give her.

After a long silence, Sally finally resisted the urge to play with fire.

After closing her eyes and gathering herself a little, Sally looked at Jiang Hao and smiled and said, ‘It’s okay, by the way, do you have anything you want to photograph tonight?’
