

Chapter 771: Sword Demon, Queen, Silver Lantern

The warm light of the shining star shone on Gales, and a whole piece was cut out by the window of the villa, like a pudding shining on Asau.

Yaxiu slowly opened his eyes, he sat on the bed for a while, picked up the kettle on the bedside table and poured half a glass of water into the glass, then picked up the glass and took a sip, the vibrating glass splashed water droplets on his face superior.

The water glass is not shaking, but his hand is shaking.

"I'm still alive..." Ya slender let out a long breath, wiped the cold sweat from his forehead, and lay back on the bed, "I'm alive..."

Recalling the first night of Ruby Mountain, Ash still had lingering fears.

No one thought that when the three of them were in civil war, a blood legend would suddenly appear.

At the moment of being aimed at by the gun mouth, Yaxiu felt as if he had become a weak mortal again. The trembling from the depths of his soul paralyzed all the nerves in his body, he lost all strength, and even his life fled with blood in a hurry His body, the overwhelming darkness drowned him, as if the whole world was about to leave him.

This is death.

Pain is just the touch of death, and loss is the essence of death.

Therefore, the magicians are lucky, even if the magician loses everything, there is still the only destination of the virtual world.

It was at this time that Ashe realized the gap between himself and the true legend. In the face of the legendary ultimate move, he couldn't even react. The most grassy thing was that he was obviously only a soul body, but he also condensed his body for a short time, and then was completely suppressed by the rebellion of hormones and blood, and the seven holes bleed continuously. !

From this, we can also see the tip of the iceberg of the legendary magician – if the one-winged magician is 'what's the use', the second-winged magician "creates miracles with his heart", and the sanctuary magician can start to "deal with all kinds of situations", then the legendary The sorcerer is 'the limitless wins the boundless'.

The world is infinite, the virtual world is infinite, the magician system is developing every minute and every second, even if you are a legendary magician, it is impossible to keep up with the development of the times all the time, and the ancient magic has a new vitality, and the unpopular magic has suddenly emerged. rare.

Not all miracles can be deciphered. When an excellent miracle is just created, there is often no restraint, and when it encounters it, it will inevitably collapse. This period is also known as the miracle's "dominant monopoly period".

Many low-level magicians believe that legendary magicians must master the "unsolvable miracle" of the killer level. Although legendary magicians do have such trump cards, the real power of legends is that they can deal with unsolvable miracles.

When sorcerers advance their spells to the legendary realm, they will not be satisfied with the game of spells, because the game of spells is an endless arms race, and there will always be miracles that they cannot solve, not them Incompetence, but each faction spell is the limit of flaws.

So the legends took another path: they wanted to turn the chessboard into their own, so no matter how clever their opponents were, it was impossible to escape the constraints of the chessboard.

Excellent miracles are 'skills', excellent combat systems are 'laws', and changing any environment into one's own home field is 'potential'.

The gun that Ash encountered was the beginning of the situation.

If he was shot, his whole body would burst into a blood lotus, and the blood that sputtered would be the medium for the blood magic legend.

So let alone at this moment, even if Yaxiu reaches the legendary pinnacle in the future, he will probably only be weakened and cannot avoid this shot. As a tactical starting point for a legendary magician, if there is a way to crack it, it means that all subsequent tactical deployments will be scrapped.

The power of the legendary magician lies in cutting the connection between the enemy and the world.

When even your blood is going to betray you, what else can you rely on?

Then, two beautiful answers appeared, becoming the only two colors in Ash's * vision.

After some thunder and fire, the legend of blood art was scattered with the wailing of the loser. But he definitely won't die, but it's hard to say how many years he will be in a vegetative state in bed.

Although I don't know why it was so easy to kill an old legend, the joy of defeating a strong enemy and surviving in a desperate situation still made the three of them excited to give each other high fives, but the atmosphere soon became awkward again.

When Yaxiu said, "The three of us are really good," the two of them glared at him fiercely.

Therefore, Yaxiu is very grateful to this legend of blood art. Although he was killed, at least the Sword Princess Witch can't fight anymore!

At this time, Deya remembered to popularize the common sense of Ruby Mountain. The three of them chatted while trying to climb Ruby Mountain, and learned about survival information such as the list of magicians, Ruby Angels, and the weather. Sonia also supplemented her knowledge of the legendary magician experience, so that everyone can quickly integrate into the new workplace of Ruby Mountain.

Just when Ash thought he could get away with it, Sonia inadvertently said, “You live in Felix’s villa, right? I know where it is, I’ll come to you tonight.”

Before Deya could speak, Ash immediately objected: “It’s too dangerous to have a relationship with me!”

“I’m not looking for you, can’t I look for Felix? It just so happened that Professor Trozan asked me to inform Felix that it was reasonable for me to have a relationship with him; for Felix, I can also say that I came to consult. The matter of the Four Pillars Religion will not arouse his suspicion, when you tie him up and knock him unconscious and lock him in the basement, he will not know if I entered the villa or not.”

“And if I don’t look for you, do you still dare to go to Jianhua University to look for me?”

Yaxiu was speechless. Naturally, he did not dare to go to Jianhua University to find Jianji. Once others found out, Sonia would have no choice but to run away with him – she might still want to take this romantic route. .

Having said that, Sonia held her head up, the corners of her mouth turned up, and squinted at Diya, she almost wrote the words ‘little man’s success’ on her forehead, as cute as a kitten stealing candy.

“Three days later, I will open the portal of the Gospel to Gales.” Deya Yoyo said, “Miss Anfield misses Aunt Borkin very much. Uncle Harvey is so seriously injured, he should receive proper treatment.”

Diya quietly hugged Yaxiu’s arm, glanced at Jian Ji without a sound, her lips curved into a contemptuous arc, her eyebrows were full of complacent smiles, and she was as charming as a little fox who succeeded in a conspiracy.

Sonia immediately frowned—even though she hadn’t seen Igula and Harvey, she knew the weight of these two men in Ash’s heart.

For example, Sonia once jokingly asked Ash, "If Igula and I fell into the water, who would you save?" Ash's answer was, "Can the question be replaced by you and Harvey falling into the water?" All of them are men, but on Sonia's alert list, these two are only slightly less threatening than Witch and Weisser.

So as long as these two people are used as bargaining chips, Ash will definitely be fooled!

As expected, Ash did not hesitate: "I will take them back then."

Sonia couldn't object, she couldn't even ask Ash to stay alone – it's too dangerous – so she immediately said, "I'm going too!"

"But Jian Ji, you can't give up your career in Fanxing, your connections, and your family, right?" The witch smiled and said, "When will you be able to master Fanxing Kingdom, will Yaxiu be a guest at Fanxing?"

Sonia was so angry that she was about to burn through her belly. She grabbed Ash's wrist, pursed her lips, her face was puffed up, and her eyes were full of grievances and stubbornness: "You won't want me, will you?"

Diya's tone was also full of expectation and sorrow: "We are all waiting for your return... You promised us."

These two sentences suddenly sounded okay, if you ignore them grabbing one of Ash's hands, if you ignore them using a miracle to bind Ash's arm, if you ignore them, you're about to split Ash...

Ash had forgotten what he said to survive that kind of trial and torture. After struggling to return to reality, he thought he was about to die.

It's just that he still has to enter the Void Realm after 17 hours, and before that, Jian Ji will come to arrest him in advance.

what can we do about it?

After three seconds of thinking, Yaxiu felt that his brain did not provide such powerful thinking operations, and decided to face life with optimism.

Why worry so much, life is an unpredictable stage, what if he dies in the next second!

After doing a good job in psychological construction, Yaxiu simply took a shower and opened the "Aurora's Manual of Magicians" again, and suddenly saw three messages pop up.

It is a long-lost growth report.

Yaxiu hasn't seen the growth report for a long time, probably because he stopped setting the training strategy, the growth report did not appear again, and I don't know why it appears now.

"Growth Report 7.4~10.17 of the Dead Sword Girl"

"Bound level: 4 (75% experience sharing

"Sword Faction: Gold → Sanctuary"

"Light Faction: Silver → Silver"

"Water Art Faction: Silver → Gold"

"Time Faction: Gold → Gold"

"Space Faction: Silver → Gold"

"Magic Power: Sanctuary One Feather → Legendary Zero Feather"

"Cultivation Evaluation: SS!"

“Because of the SS rank rating, Death Crazy Sword Princess has obtained the occupational enhancement of the Wizard’s Manual: Sword Demon!”

“Sword Demon · Occupational Feature: When the Sword Demon locks on any target, the target undergoes a will judgment every 10 seconds. Once the judgment fails, it will fall into a state of chaotic fear for the next 10 seconds, greatly increasing the miracle failure rate; If it fails, the target will fall into absolute fear of being unable to control itself for 0.5 seconds.”

“Because the magic power has been improved, the talent of Death Mad Sword Princess has been enhanced!”

“Because of the SS-level evaluation, Dead Crazy Sword Princess won the professional assessment task ‘Sword Demon’!”

“Sword Demon: In the next 360 days, use the Sword Demon feature to intimidate and defeat more than ten Sanctuary Warlocks or three Legendary Warlocks, and the Sword Demon professional feature can be permanently solidified! The current progress (0/10)/(0/3).”

Gan!

Yaxiu people are numb, and the professional characteristics of this sword demon are too strong. It is equivalent to a legendary spiritual miracle, and it does not require mana to be driven. It is triggered once every 10 seconds, and once it succeeds, it directly enters a state of chaotic fear.

He also wants to have such powerful professional characteristics!

More importantly, now that Jian Ji has this sword demon profession, will she stare at herself so that she does not dare to resist and be obedient?

But Ash was relieved very quickly—even if he didn’t have this profession, he wouldn’t dare to resist Sword Princess.

Jian Ji's talent has also undergone some noun changes:

"Inherent Talent: Sword Princess (Heaven): Gain an additional 250% swordsmanship experience, a low chance to gain 10,000% swordsmanship experience, and occasionally trigger the phantom that wipes out the resentful dragon (the talent level can be unlocked after the strength is improved)

The dragon species bound by Jian Ji evolved from the Resentful Huanglong to the annihilation of the Resentful Huanglong, but it is strange that even though Yaxiu has come to Ruby Mountain now, he has never heard of the Resentful Huanglong.

"The Black and White Witch's Growth Report 7.4~10.17"

"Bound level: 4 (75% experience sharing)

"Spiritual Faction: Silver → Silver"

"Fist and Claw Faction: Gold → Sanctuary"

"Time Faction: Gold → Sanctuary"

"Water Art Faction: Silver → Silver"

"Space Faction: 0 → Silver"

"Magic Power: Sanctuary One Feather → Legendary Zero Feather"

"Cultivation Evaluation: SS!"

"Because of the SS rank evaluation, the Black and White Witch has obtained the occupational enhancement of the Wizard's Manual: Empress!"

“Queen · Occupational Feature: When the Queen is on the field, all friendly units gain spiritual inspiration based on their loyalty to the Queen, and the speed of mana recovery/resonance probability of magic spirits/the frequency of virtual inspiration increases significantly. At the same time, the inspired friends The loyalty of the party units to the Queen will continue to deepen and increase.”

“Because the magic power has been improved, the black and white witch’s talent has been enhanced!”

“Because of the SS rank evaluation, the Black and White Witch won the professional assessment task ‘Queen’!”

“Queen: In the next 360 days, recruit 100 followers with the Queen’s characteristics. After completing the task, you can permanently solidify the Queen’s professional characteristics! Current progress (0/100).”

Ash blinked, he didn’t expect Diya’s new profession to be a group gain aura, and it was extremely powerful.

Let’s not talk about the recovery speed of magic power. The resonance probability of magic spirits is equal to the probability of critical strikes. Increasing the frequency of inspiration in the virtual world is equivalent to increasing the chance of magician’s flash of inspiration. It can be seen that Yaxiu wants to stay by Diya’s side all the time.

Moreover, the queen’s assessment task is easy for her—she is the real queen, and if you want to recruit a hundred followers, the Gospel family will be defeated, right?

However, the characteristics of the queen will actually make other people continue to increase their loyalty to the queen...

Ash pondered for a moment, feeling that there was nothing to worry about—his loyalty to Liz and Deya was already full!

The Witch’s talent has also undergone some changes:

“Inherent Talent: Witch (Heaven): Gain an additional 250% time experience, a low chance of gaining 10,000% time experience, and occasionally attract the help of Zhongming Bronze Dragon (the talent level can be unlocked after the strength is improved).”

The bronze dragon evolved into the Zhongming bronze dragon... But Yaxiu had seen the phantom of the resentful dragon once, but he had never seen the witch’s bronze dragon.

After the two growth reports were over, there was another piece of news.

Axiu had a vague expectation in his heart, and summoned the courage to open it:

“Youlan Weisser’s Growth Report 7.4~10.17”

“Magic Power: Sanctuary Kazuha →???”

“Because of the SS rank rating, Youlan Weisser has obtained the occupational enhancement of the Wizard’s Manual: Silver Lamp!”

“Silver Lamp · Occupational Feature: The areas illuminated by the silver lamp will be continuously silvered, and everything after the silvering will be controlled by the silver lamp, destroyed, purified, changed, reorganized, reconstituted... The specific effect is waiting for the silver lamp to further excavate.”

“Because of the increase in mana, Youlan Weiser’s talent has been enhanced!”

“Because of the SS-level rating, UU Reading www.uukanshu.com Youlan Weiser won the vocational assessment task ‘Silver Lamp’!”

“Silver Lantern: In the next 360 days, completely purify the corrupt green beasts in the Senra world. After completing the task, you can permanently solidify the professional characteristics of Silver Lantern. The current progress is 0.8%.”

Yaxiu was stunned for a while, then suddenly punched him, causing faint ripples on the interface of the wizard’s manual.

“This is a broken game...” The corners of his mouth twitched, revealing a smile that was uglier than crying: “Are you mocking me?”

People have become gods... Trapped in the darkness of the abyss, what’s the point of continuing to give her growth report? Pretend that she will still meet us in the virtual realm?

Yaxiu lay on the bed with her forehead supported, sighed softly, and swiped to the operator interface.

“Inherent Talent · Destiny (Heavenly Position): Gain an additional 250% truth experience and destiny experience, a low chance to obtain 10000% truth experience and destiny experience, and occasionally attract the eyes of the reincarnation mirror dragon (the talent level can be unlocked after the strength is improved)”

He stared at Youlan Weisser’s portrait for a long time, suddenly sat up and patted his face to wake up, took a deep breath, his eyes lighted, “Yeah, I didn’t even give up the manual for the magician, here I am. Low what?”

“I must save you from Sen Luo’s last days,” Ash clapped his hands gently, closed his eyes and said to himself, “I will never give up my operator.”

After checking the information, Ash just wanted to close the manual for the magician, but he suddenly remembered something and opened the “Operator Search” interface.

Chapter 772: 1 group of warlocks!

Contrary to what Ash had expected, there was no new search activity in the Manual for the Artificer.

Because when he first arrived at Gospel and Senluo before, a new search activity would be refreshed immediately. Ash thought that as long as he ran away, the search activity would inevitably be triggered. It turns out that this is not an objective law.

However, he now also knows that this so-called search activity has nothing to do with region and time, but rather has something to do with the people around him.

He will draw the black and white witch because he will meet Lisdia;

He would take out Orchid Weisser because he had just met Yin Lan.

So now is it because Yaxiu hasn't been able to meet someone who can be recognized by the operator system?

He also thought that if a new operator joins, it might be able to buffer the conflict between the sword princess and the witch... After all, if the problem cannot be solved, new problems will be added!

Thinking of this, Yaxiu blinked and clicked on "Purchasing Center", and saw that he had enough money to buy a box of Origin Crystal for 20 raffles, but he thought about it and finally only bought one Origin Crystal. Tian signed two more source crystals, just enough for one draw!

A miracle alone!

If there is an operator, it will definitely appear in one draw, so there is no need to waste it!

With unreasonable self-confidence and fluke-filled expectations, Yaxiu chose to “seek it once”, and the game interface suddenly changed, and he seemed to hear the system’s disgust.

Golden light!

Ash immediately stood up and saluted – really only pulled out a miracle!

However, as the golden light dissipated, what appeared in front of Ash was not a new operator, but...

“Small Four Pillars Gate: A small artifact made with the efforts of the Four Pillars of God. It can enter the virtual realm with the same magician with the same progress. It is required that no more than four people enter, and the team members should not be more than five meters away from the holder.

The small four-pillar gate can be used as the gate of truth, and through the small four-pillar gate to enter the virtual realm, team members can obtain up to 5% of experience sharing.

Remarks: The small four-pillar gate looks like a cube shelf on the outside, and it is small and cute. However, who can take the four pillars of God’s efforts to make artifacts? ”

Yaxiu pondered for a moment and came to a conclusion – this is an ultra-low version of the “Void Realm Exploration” system.

“Virtual Realm Exploration” does not require players to have the same progress in the virtual realm, and they can use the old to lead the new; there is no limit to the distance between players, and different countries can team up to explore the virtual realm together; as for the 5% experience sharing of the small four-pillar gate, it is more convenient in the face of fetters. is not worth mentioning.

The only thing that makes sense is that the small four-pillar gate can be used as the gate of truth, which means that even if Axiu still does not have an autonomous magic spirit, he can enter the virtual realm alone – although he has no interest in working overtime.

Somewhat useful, but not entirely useful.

However, for other magicians, the Small Four-Pillar Gate is worthy of the evaluation of its artifacts. Except for Yaxiu and the others, it is extremely difficult for other magicians to form a team to explore the virtual realm. Such a convenient team formation tool might be able to set off the Six Nations War if it is placed outside.

Yaxiu looked at the search interface, luck is good today, do you want to...

He shook his head violently, gave up this stupid idea of gambling, stood up, stretched, and pushed open the door to go out.

Yaxiu lived in a room on the second floor, and there was no one outside. It was not that they expelled the servants, but that the villa was usually not managed by servants. He just took two steps when he saw Felix wearing a scarf making breakfast in the open kitchen.

Isn't there a kitchen on the first floor too... Yaxiu approached and asked, "What's for breakfast?"

Felix raised his head and glanced at him, slightly absent-minded—why can this guy ask so naturally? Is he shameless?

"...full meal of Lala Fat Pavni."

"What drink?"

"Just coffee and milk."

"Harvey and I want milk, and Igula wants coffee."

Felix was silent for a moment, "Aren't you afraid of me poisoning? I am a faction proficient in poisoning."

“In Igula’s words, I like to get along with smart people.” Ash said next to the dining table: “As long as you have no problem with your mind, then you will only think about how to send us away as soon as possible, not to lead our relationship. To the stage of unpredictable destiny.”

“If there is trouble, we will just continue to flee, while your Four Pillars will be exposed under the starry sky. Now the entire starry kingdom, except for ourselves, is the last thing you want us to be caught. Felix, You don’t want the Four Pillars to be exposed, do you?”

“Since we have the foundation of mutual trust, why should we act hostile to each other? Isn’t it good for everyone to spend this short cohabitation life together?”

“You are actually so calm just because you are a Sanctuary Warlock.” Felix broke through.

“Not only that, but also the reason why you are not a Sanctuary Warlock.” Ash shrugged, “It feels so good to be bullied! When will breakfast be ready?”

Felix said calmly: “Have you ever heard the saying that when you speak ill of the waiter, you should be prepared to eat saliva.”

Ash blinked and declared his surrender: “Okay, then you only need to be Igula and Harvey, you teach me, and I will do my share.”

Felix: “...?”

Yaxiu really did what he said. He read Felix’s practice and only made one for himself. Felix silently took a note in his heart: These three people are very similar in appearance, have a normal relationship, and are difficult to threaten.

“Will you kill me when you are going to leave?” she asked suddenly.

“Why do you ask that?” Ash asked rhetorically.

“Because you are not good people.” Felix said bluntly: “They are all a group of warlocks. Warlocks kill without any reason.”

“You have to pay attention to your words,” Ash narrowed his eyes. “You can insult me, but if you want to insult my friend... then you can’t insult me.”

Felix shook his hand, and a sun egg flew out directly. Ash glanced, “Don’t waste it, leave it to Alice.”

To Ash’s surprise, Felix didn’t ask who Alice was, but nodded and picked up the sun egg.

“Why do you think we are sorcerers?” Ash continued the topic: “We didn’t do anything bad when we came to Fanxing? And we also implicated your Four Pillars of God, we are doing good deeds.”

Felix’s face was flushed with anger, and the kitchen knife slashed the lunch meat, as if it was Ash’s meat: “You didn’t do anything bad, it’s just that it’s too late to do something bad.”

“A person as cautious as Mr. Bogin of the Sanctuary of the Spirit, as long as possible, he must establish a secret criminal organization in Galleth to cover himself; Mr. Harvey of the Sanctuary of the Necromancy’s thirst for corpses is even more visible to the naked eye. Time, the entire Galeth cemetery is his prey, and it is not impossible to even kill himself.”

“What about me?” Ash pointed to himself and said, “I don’t look like a sorcerer, do I?”

“You are more heavyweight.” Felix said coldly: “Mr. Borgin’s caution is due to his vigilance against the environment, and Mr. Harvey’s greed is due to his pursuit of magic, but you don’t have any needs, but I don’t care about being wanted by the kingdom of stars. A freewheeling person like you who sees the laws of the kingdom as nothing is the most difficult warlock.”

“Although I’m very grateful for your attention, but I’m really not as light as you think...” Ash shrugged, “As long as you’ve been chasing, being hunted, crises, big crises, etc. for several months in a row. In the ups and downs of fantasy life, you will be like me, and you will not care about anything. In fact, it is not indifferent, but you are tired, and you don’t even bother to complain.”

“Don’t look at me as a sanctuary magician now, I would rather not have this experience and just want to be an ordinary magician quietly.”

“Oh...Is that so.” Felix took a serious look at Yaxiu and found that his eyebrows were indeed a little tired. This indifferent expression reminded her of herself who was assassinated since she was a child—the first assassination was panic, the tenth assassination was indifferent, and the hundredth time was tired.

Felix believed a little in his heart, and couldn’t help but feel a little pity for Ash. What kind of turbulent encounter was it that made this person even want to be wanted by the whole country?

Yaxiu made his own breakfast and put it on the plate. Felix asked, “Where are you going?”

“Go to the first floor to eat.” Ash said, “Speaking of which, why did you come to the kitchen on the second floor? Isn’t there a kitchen on the first floor?”

Felix glanced at him and stepped out to motion for him to follow. The two walked beside the stairs on the second floor, overlooking the lobby on the first floor from above.

I saw that the hall was tidy and empty last night. At this time, it was crowded with a steady stream of ants, cockroaches, centipedes, and maggots. A coffin was placed in the center of the hall, and all the living creatures rushed into the corpse inside the coffin. It suddenly looked like insects and ants were devouring the corpse, but upon closer inspection, it seemed that the corpse was devouring insects and ants. Countless Gu insects swarmed inside the coffin. , like a sea of white flowers.

Harvey sat in front of the coffin and seemed to close his eyes.

“So you know why I think you are warlocks?” Felix took two steps back, covered his mouth and nose with his right hand, and asked calmly.

Ash looked at the hall, then at Felix, tilted his head, and showed confusion on his face.

“What’s wrong with this?”

Felix's mouth twitched, and he pointed to the hall on the first floor and shouted, "Do you still need me to explain?!"

Yaxiu didn't know, so he looked at Felix who lost his temper, shook his head, and went down to the first floor with his plate and Harvey's plate. He avoided the bugs on the ground and handed the dinner plate to Harvey: "That sun egg was for Alice and fell off the ground."

"Thanks."

"Yours was made by Felix."

Harvey looked up at Felix, waved his thanks, and sat down to breakfast in the worm-riddled central area.

Yaxiu sat on the dining table where no bugs would crawl, completely ignoring the disgusting scene and the rotten smell next to him, opened the light curtain in the living room to watch the movie, and enjoyed the breakfast very peacefully.

That's it, I've fully understood it.

Felix, who saw this scene on the second floor, was suddenly enlightened.

It turns out that these guys are all sorcerers who thought they were normal!

Chapter 773: 1st date

Clap.

The door of the villa was suddenly pushed open, and a blond man in casual clothes walked in with a shopping bag. The long blond hair is casually tied on the shoulders, and the sleeves are rolled up to half sleeves to reveal the slender forearms. The collar of the shirt is not fully buttoned, revealing a swan-like neck and an elegant collarbone.

Ash glanced at him and asked strangely, "Why are you dressed as Felix?"

"How can I go out to buy things if I don't dress up like him?" Igula closed the door and locked it, pulled up the curtain next to him, and wiped it, and his appearance suddenly changed back to his body.

"You won't be discovered if you dress up like him?"

"Even if he is discovered, he is the one who suffers first. We at least have a buffer time."

Igula had time to pay attention to the spectacle of the undead in the hall on the first floor, and couldn't help frowning: "This is someone else's home, what are you doing, Harvey?"

Great!

Felix on the second floor breathed a sigh of relief. Hearing Igula's rebuke, she was so happy to directly forgive Igula for pretending to be her behavior, thinking that there is still a normal person!

Yes, she remembered that Igula went to take a two-hour bath as soon as she came in. She was obviously a severe cleanser. How could she endure Harvey's filthy and rotten necromantic ritual?

Quick, insult him, stop him, trample him, fight!

The cheater strode forward, straddling the centipede spider along the way, and slapped the necromancer on the back of the head.

“Go to the dining table to eat breakfast. Who cleans the scraps you eat like this? This is not our place. Be polite.” Igula asked seriously.

Felix was so angry that his anger burned from the soles of his feet to the Tianling cover, his toes bent and he grabbed the slippers fiercely. The wordless insults were stuck in his throat and he dared not speak out—who told you to pay attention to such trivial details!

Harvey was a little impatient, but he still picked up the plate and went to Ash’s side. When passing the coffin, he threw the sun egg into the coffin and said, “Felix made it for you.”

The sun egg was devoured by the worm and ant vortex within a second, the figure in the coffin slowly raised his right hand, and countless maggots, centipedes and cockroaches entwined in his arms and waved friendly to Felix on the second floor.

Click.

In a trance, Felix felt that a string in her mind collapsed, and then she lost control of her body. She watched clearly as her physical body rapidly lost its elasticity and tension, her pupils were dilated, her body became incontinent, and her body Muscles become stiff, and colored scars appear on the skin where blood accumulates, forming eerie corpse spots full of the beauty of death...

Igula walked up to the second floor to take breakfast, and saw that Felix’s pupils lost focus, his body was emitting a grayish-white tone, leaning against the railing in a daze, as if his soul was pulled into another chaotic world. The fraudster wondered if he had gone too far, after all, the other party made breakfast for them.

“Hey?”

When Igula sat down at the dining table on the first floor, the three of them were immediately distracted by the emergency notification in the light curtain.

A wanted notice pops up on the news channel, but it has nothing to do with the three of them.

“...The intruder is wandering in the eastern area of Galos. If you find clues, don't follow it. Please report it to the police immediately. The specific information of the intruder has not yet been obtained, but the intruder is a legendary magician and is extremely dangerous. Report it. Valid information will be rewarded with 500 gold coins, and the wanted reward will be 500,000 gold coins. At present, the Star Guard has been dispatched, please reduce your going out, pay attention to the surrounding environment, if you encounter a gangster, don't resist, compromise to protect yourself...”

Legendary Wanted!

In addition to the three of them, there were actually legendary magicians who broke into the kingdom of stars during this time!

“Is it Vichy?” Ash immediately remembered the source of all evil, the resurrected monster, the crumb of a demigod.

“According to what you said, Ghost Prophet's combat power is only Sanctuary, right?” Igula ate Pavni and said, “But this kind of monster that has been reborn, it is not enough to climb to Ruby Mountain in a short period of time. strangeness.”

“If I have to say it, I hope it is not a ghost prophet, and the more such intruders, the better.”

Harvey said: “Let the kingdom of stars have no time to worry about our three sanctuaries?”

“No, it's forcing Fanxing to change the national policy.” Igula said, shaking his fork: “All policies pay attention to a cost of law enforcement. When the cost of law enforcement far exceeds the benefits, there is no reason for the Kingdom of Fanxing to continue.”

“If there are enough high-ranking magician invaders, Fanxing will definitely realize that the Great Transcendence Era is an unstoppable historical trend, and the official attitude will naturally change from 'no room for maneuver' to 'peaceful development, cooperation and win-win'.”

Igula glanced at Yaxiu, “At that time, you may have a way to become an honorary star and get a long-term residence certificate in the country of stars, aren't you very happy?”

“Nothing...” Yaxiu was a little bit squeamish, “I’m also a legendary magician now, how can I be so unreserved and insist on being naturalized in Fanxing Nation? It should be Fanxing begging me!”

“If Fanxing Nation issued an amnesty to you, as long as you handed us over to Fanxing, you could become an honorary citizen, what would you do?”

“What do you mean, Igula!?” Ash got angry, “Do I look like a betrayer!? Our unbreakable friendship was cultivated from breaking out together!”

Igula caught the words: “So...”

“So you shouldn’t have forgotten your unique skills?”

Yaxiu blinked, “I don’t mean anything else, it’s just that you have lingered in Blood Moon Prison, Gospel Prison, and Senluo Prison. If you don’t challenge Fanxing Prison, it always feels like your adventure is incomplete...”

Harvey picked up the sun egg and swallowed it, nodding his head: “Indeed, the prison and the Four Pillars of God are the only important achievements that we can’t miss during our journey.”

Yaxiu watched them eat most of their breakfast before giggling, “By the way, Felix made your breakfast.”

“Um?”

“But that’s what I forced him to do for you. He said that even if he didn’t dare to poison, he would probably spit in it.”

Harvey glanced at him and ate the rest of the breakfast with a blank face. Igula Yuzai drank coffee and said, “I took the breakfast that Felix prepared for himself.”

Felix on the second floor finally took a breath from the fear of death and was eating breakfast in the kitchen. She was stunned for a moment when she heard this sentence, and she couldn't help pursing her lips, her expression a little depressed.

Igula snapped her fingers, and the miracle of silence spread like ripples, covering the dining table area. These little miracles of life that are necessary for murder and arson are basically the business scope of the fraud master, "Stop talking, Ash, what do you have next? plan?"

"Well," Ash said casually, "Jianji will come to see me tonight, and then I will send you back to the gospel in three days. Don't ask why I can send you back to the gospel, you will understand by then. ."

"Oh?" Harvey turned his head sharply, "Is her name Jianji?"

"She's coming to see you tonight?" Igula raised his eyebrows.

"Shouldn't your focus be on returning to the Gospel after three days?" Ash said, "So we won't go to the Starry Prison, let alone continue to entangle with the Four Pillars, we will return to a peaceful life together, everyone in the Gospel Kingdom is here. Wait for us to go back."

"It's okay to do that kind of little thing." Igula tapped the table with her index finger, "The point is your meeting tonight!"

"What's wrong with meeting tonight?"

"Have you seen each other in reality before tonight?"

Yaxiu was startled, UU read www. uukanshu. com "...nothing."

"So tonight is your first date in reality!"

Igula glanced at Yaxiu, her face full of disgust: "Can you take care of yourself? Are you planning to greet your first date with this honorable face?"

Yaxiu looked at Igula with wide eyes, her heart seemed to be tightly grasped, and she couldn't breathe for a while, infinite grievance and sourness came to her heart, and she was so sad that she couldn't say it.

How could Igula say that about him? This is too much!

He has clearly cleaned himself up!

Chapter 774: you take off your clothes first

"Lisdia"

"Age: An old woman one year older than me"

"Feature: Split Personality"

"Advantages: Dominates the Gospel Kingdom, is almost as beautiful as me, has a daughter Liz as a hostage, and has personalities such as the White Queen, Black Deacon, Red Dead Apostle, etc. She can be four girlfriends by herself. , A man with a sense of excitement has a different kind of charm."

"Weaknesses: The Electra complex is very heavy, and biting her to death can sink her; Liz can't be separated from her for the time being, so it greatly limits the depth of intimacy between Ash and her; What kind of intimacy I want to achieve with Ash is just subconsciously wanting to possess it."

"Conclusion: Not a big threat in the short term, but it needs to be addressed as soon as possible."

In the girls' dormitory of Jianhua University, Sonia closed the countermeasure notes, opened the light curtain and thought about the next countermeasures while browsing the short video.

There is no doubt that Ash will definitely return to the gospel in three days, and Sonia can't stop it and doesn't want to stop it.

When he arrives at Diya's territory, Sonia can't do anything, but the delicate relationship between Yaxiu and Diya determines that they will develop family affection at most in a short period of time. Perfect monopoly is impossible.

But compared to the psychological obstacles of the queen, there are practical obstacles on the village girl's side. Unless Sonia can go back and forth between Gospel and Fanxing freely, or Yaxiu can settle in Fanxing, they will always be a long-distance relationship separated by a national distance and can only meet in a virtual world.

Damn, Sonia sighed in her heart, she is already a legendary magician, why can't she lock her beloved in a small dark room, block his contact with everyone else, and turn him into a coquette that only likes to treat me good partner?

In the end how much power do you have to have in order to hold happiness?

At this time, Lois, Adele, and Ingurit came back from their morning class, and Adele rushed over and hugged Sonia from behind: "Sony, tonight is girls' night, you won't be absent, right? ?"

Sonia blinked, and then she remembered that tonight was a girl's night once every two weeks, and she went to the secret garden to drink and chat. In addition to their dormitory, there are Leonie, Celia and other influential figures, and occasionally even Aisha from the University of Truth will come.

Of course, in the eyes of others, Sonia is no longer a high-quality network, but an ace network. When Sonia graduates, except for the prophet Aisha, it is impossible for other people to make friends with the Sword Saint in normal social situations.

"Sorry," Sonia said, "I have something to do tonight."

"Isn't it alright to go to Void Realm later or miss Void Realm for a night?" Adele pursed her lips, "You promised us last time that we would go!"

Sonia did promise before, after all, it's nothing to be absent from the virtual world for one night, and girls' night is also very fun. Although she has become diligent and motivated now, it does not mean that she has given up low-level interests such as gossip, talking about people's black farts, and discussing other people's romances.

She is a legendary magician, can't you enjoy it! ?

"Can you postpone until tomorrow night or a few days later? I do have important things tonight and I can't accompany you." Sonia sighed, "I actually have important things I want to consult with you, but ..."

Seeing that the village girl didn't seem to be perfunctory, Adele had to say, "Okay, but you must come next time!"

"Mmmm, next time definitely!"

"Actually, we can move the reception to 7 o'clock." Lois said, "This way, it will not conflict with your journey to the virtual world."

"Actually, it has nothing to do with the virtual world. I'm going to see Yaxiu tonight, so—"

Sonia suddenly realized something and got stuck in an instant.

The dormitory became quiet, and the Sword Saint stretched out his claws and slowly turned his head, and saw three female beasts with red light in their eyes, radiating heat with excitement.

"Who is Ash!?"

"You want to see your boyfriend tonight!?"

"Does he know swordsmanship?!"

Lois and Adele glanced at Ingurit who asked such a boring question with disgust, then surrounded Sonia from left to right, and their eyes glowed and asked, “Are you going to have candlelight dinner tonight? Did you spend the night with him? Have you prepared any security measures?”

Sonia didn’t know whether to laugh or cry: “This is the first time we meet tonight, so we won’t—”

“the first time!?”

“The stars bless you, you haven’t seen him before? Is this your first date?”

“How did you fall in love before!?”

Sonia blinked, and her love brain regained her high ground. Because she was thinking about how to deal with Diya just now, she suddenly realized that tonight is an extremely important date for both her and Ashiya.

Lois opened her closet directly, pulled out dozens of outfits in her, and shook her head: “You wear all these clothes—then you have no clothes to wear. When are you going to meet?”

“8pm...”

“Then there are only 9 hours left!” Adele said anxiously: “Sisters, time is pressing, our task is very heavy!”

“Don’t worry, plan today’s itinerary first,” Lois said. “Hairdressing, beauty, manicure, buying shoes, buying clothes, it’s best to stop by the dentist’s office to clean your teeth—”

Ingurit reminded: “Sword masters don’t have long fingernails.”

“But we want to do manicures!” Lois and Adele said in unison.

“The only commercial center with all the above facilities is...Xizhao Hall!” Lois clapped her hands, “There is no class in the afternoon, let’s go!”

“Adele has a retake class in the afternoon.” Ingurit reminded again, “You need to attend school.”

Adele looked at Ingurit blankly, “When did I offend you? Are you going to take revenge on me like this?”

Sonia sighed helplessly and asked, “Who is your retake professor, Adele?”

“Yes...” Adele blinked, turned her head to look at Ingurit: “Who is the professor of my retake class?”

Ingurit: “Professor Wesley.”

Sonia said: “Professor Wesley has a good relationship with me. I should be able to ask you for a day off in the name of auxiliary research.”

Adele hugged Sonia so happily, ‘mua’ kissed the village girl’s face, rubbing her face while acting like a spoiled child: “Wuwuwu, I can’t bear to dress up the sweet Sonia and give it to a man to spoil—”

“So are you still going?” Lois asked.

“Go, go, go!” Adele was so excited that she pulled Sonia up, and took Ingurit to go out together: “Girls’ night has been canceled, I announced that today is a date day, and the concentration of love has risen sharply!”

.....

“I apologize for what I just said.”

In the clothes room of the villa, Yaxiu stood in front of the floor-to-ceiling mirror, and Igula looked at Yaxiu and sighed: "You have indeed worked hard, and I didn't expect that it was not a problem of hard work, but that you are a person yourself. There is a problem. It's my fault that I accuse you of not trying hard."

Yaxiu: "Can you give me some effective advice besides hurting me?"

Igula lifted up Yaxiu's bangs with her fingers, "If you cut a good-looking shape, you should be able to add a lot of points."

"Come on then!"

The fraudster pointed to his long blond hair, "If I could cut my hair, why would I keep it so long? It's hard to wash my hair, and it's easy to sweat. It's really..."

Saying that, Igula took off her hair tie, pulled up the long golden hair behind, revealing the white back of the neck oozing with sweat, and casually tied the long hair into a wolf's tail, then looked in the mirror, spread her hands and said: "Look, good-looking people look good no matter how they change their look."

"I can cut my hair," Harvey said suddenly.

Yaxiu and Igula glanced at the necromancer, and then switched to the next topic after a moment of silence: "It seems that the hairstyle can't be solved for the time being, are there any extra points?"

"Gift." Igula said seriously: "A suitable gift is comparable to a miracle of fascination. When she looks at you, she will wear filters in her eyes!"

"Gift?" Ash scratched his head, "I don't have anything to give – can a magic spirit?"

Igula was speechless for a while: "Anyway, you understand some women's psychology... A gift that is too expensive and practical will put a lot of pressure on women; a gift that is not expensive but practical is closer to a tool, without many gift attributes; not expensive It's not practical, let alone, it's a shame to send it out."

"Then the avatar that gave me?" Ash asked: "It's a little expensive, a little practical, and it means a lot to me. It should be a gift value, right?"

"It's okay if it's your first anniversary, but it's the first time you meet, so it's not suitable to send a significant gift, it will make your love seem heavy." Igula said: "The suggestion is Choose expensive luxury goods that can be purchased on the market, have certain practical attributes, and let her show it off, so that she can proudly show off your relationship to others."

Yaxiu was already confused, tilted his head and looked blank, "...Is it so complicated?"

"Need help?" Harvey said. "I have a great gift for you."

"Really!?" Ash's eyes lit up.

"This is a gift from Alice and I." Harvey said, "Alice will definitely not mind giving you a coffin as a token of love! This is a coffin I made myself, and Alice has been warmed up for months. , is absolutely precious, and also has certain practical attributes, your sword princess can also show off to others that you have a coffin buried together!"

Yaxiu nodded again and again, and leaned over Harvey's shoulder, "Harvey, I'm going out to discuss something with you."

Ash pulled the necromancer to the stairs on the second floor, then directly picked up Harvey and threw it into the coffin below, shouting: "Alice hug Harvey for me, don't let this guy make trouble!"

The corpse in the coffin hugged Harvey obediently, and by the way closed the lid of the coffin.

Yaxiu returned to the room, bowed directly, folded his hands and begged the fraudster: "Aunt Bo Jin, help me!"

Igula put her hands on her chest and sighed: "I really can't help you. However, let's solve the problem of your clothes first. Compared with dating, your clothes are more suitable for killing people and throwing corpses."

"But I can't go out to buy clothes." Ash said in distress, "We are still wanted criminals."

Igula pondered for a moment, suddenly remembered something, and the corners of his mouth slanted upward.

"Actually, you don't have to buy clothes."

.....

...

Before they leave, go out less often to avoid them having more contact.

In the bedroom, Felix sat on a chair, his hips pressed into a round depression on the chair cushion.

She recalled the wave of Alice's hand just now, and still had lingering fears.

Even without active spellcasting, the malice of this group of sorcerers can destroy her mental defenses in daily life. These three sorcerers were able to eat and chat beside the corpse that was churning with maggots and flies, as if they couldn't smell a bit of odor. It could be seen that they were all completely psychopaths, and their three views were far from normal people.

But no matter how perverted they are, it doesn't matter to her, the three sorcerers won't stay here for too long, as long as they leave.

Thinking of this, Felix couldn't help but be glad that he had the protection of the Four Pillars of God. If not, these sorcerers would not even let her go.

But you still have to prepare a little, lest these three sorcerers kill people and set fire to them...

Felix, you have experienced such dangerous setbacks since you were a child, and you have finally come this far. How can you be defeated by a few foreign sorcerers? Just get through this and everything will be back on track!

Felix regained his composure, and only then did she realize that she was in a cold sweat from the fear of death, and her body was sticky and uncomfortable. She stood up and undressed, ready to take a shower—

Snapped!

Felix sat back on the chair in an instant, clasped his jacket to cover himself with both hands, and looked at the two sorcerers who broke into her bedroom. The almost exposed shame and anger made her so angry that she couldn't even care about the difference in strength between the two sides, and shouted. : "Aren't you going to knock on the door!?"

"Sorry." Igula closed the door, knocked and then pushed it open again, "Are you free Felix, we need your help here."

Felix took a deep breath and forcefully suppressed the anger in his heart: "What help do you need?"

At this time, Ash suddenly said: "I think Felix looks fine. UU reading www.uukanshu.com"

Igula looked at it for a moment and nodded lightly: "Indeed, Yaxiu, your aesthetics are not bad."

Felix was stunned for a moment, and a bad premonition struck her heart, and then she heard the demonic words from the warlock:

"First of all, Felix, take off your clothes first."

Chapter 775: I can't either

“How about this set? The fresh and soft combination of fluffy fur and floral skirt is very suitable for female college students, the feeling of first love.”

“The windbreaker, short skirt, detective hat, the same style of Dedalus’ latest hit suspense drama “The Eight Wonders of Silver Blood”. You dress better than Deedalus, and you will definitely attract his attention!”

“A jacket and sweatpants with a single ponytail, who can resist the sweetness of a sports girl?”

“How about the cold salt system? A little abstinence can arouse the desire of the opposite sex.”

“Sexy attack directly, miniskirts, vests, knee socks, full of youthful vitality!”

“Why don’t you just wear a school uniform? But remember to wear a full set of underwear. As for * underwear, you must wait at least a few dates before considering it.”

In the Shining Stars Nuan Nuan store in Xizhao Hall, four young and beautiful female college students changed into sets of clothes in front of the full-length mirror, attracting the attention of the men waiting for their girlfriends in the lounge area, and even female customers. Can’t help but peek and study.

At the back, it was not just about helping Sonia choose a date suit, but Lois, Adele and even Ingurit also dressed up by the way.

Unlike Adele who often flaunts her fiancé, the shy and rosy beginning of a love affair with a village girl can even stimulate the female college student’s yearning for love. Original can also be’.

A group of people left the clothing store and were about to go to the hairdresser to get a beautiful hairstyle. At this time, everyone saw the customers in the central lounge area of the mall looking up at the skylight.

“Hey?” Ingurit said in surprise, “It’s only 4 p.m., how come Gales has entered the dark night?”

Everyone raised their heads and saw the stars from the skylight and the Milky Way hanging upside down.

Adele opened the light curtain and looked at the weather forecast. She shook her head and said, "The Bureau of Meteorology has not notified... The weather adjustment system has failed?"

The national astronomical phenomenon is uniformly regulated by the Meteorological Bureau. If it rains, it will rain, and if the sun is big, the sun will be big. Some special agricultural towns can even have no rain for half a year and rain in the second half of the year.

Everyone was a little strange, but they didn't think much about it. The customers even thought it would be fun to enter the dark night in the afternoon. This has never happened in the past, maybe it is a once in a century, so they took pictures.

Sonia suddenly stopped and stopped in front of the gift shop.

Lois: "You want to buy a present?"

"Um."

"In general, a * a first date should only need to receive a gift, right?" Adele said: "I should wait for him to give you a gift first, and then you will return the gift on the next date – I bought so many snacks in the cabinet as a gift in return. use."

"What if the other party doesn't prepare a gift?" Ingurit asked, "Isn't this game unplayable?"

Adele shrugged: "I don't know, my boyfriend is not that stupid. I suggest changing it. Bye bye bye, the next one is better..."

Lois patted Adele on the head and said to Sonia: "Don't listen to this guy's nonsense, buy it if you want. Although girls need to be reserved and self-love, it is also precious to want to be good to others. Saying you like it 10,000 times can't compare to a heart-pounding blush."

As if some button was pressed, Sonia responded instantly: "In the thirteenth episode of "Cun Zhou Wrong Blade", 11 minutes and 26 seconds, what Dedalus said to her friends."

Adele was stunned for a moment, "Although I remember that this sentence seems to be from "Cun Zhou Cuo Blade", and I also remember that it seems to be the thirteenth episode, but it is absolutely impossible to be specific in a few minutes... Sonny, what will you do? How many times have you watched this show! Also, Lois, don't you like watching Dedalose's dramas?"

Lois turned her head: "You've read it so many times, I just remember this sentence when I pass by occasionally."

Although Adele was not very supportive before entering the store, she was still the most active one to help Sonia pick gifts after entering the store: "How about this crystal pendant? It's like a shackle around his neck!"

"This bracelet is also good, let him wear it on his hand, like a dog tag to declare that he has an owner!"

"This toiletry set is also good, it smells very fresh, and once it mixes with other smells it becomes obvious, you will immediately know if he is in contact with the opposite sex."

Sonia stopped, her face slightly moved.

Ingurit took a few steps behind, pulled Lois and asked in a low voice, "Is Adele deliberately picking some bad gifts to frame Sonia?"

Lois: "Have you met her fiancé?"

"No."

"If you've seen it, you'll know that she acts exactly as she looks, and she's a * like a mirror." Lois said, "Whenever her boyfriend has an 'Adele Exclusive' stamp on her face, I'm also Not unexpected. However, she also likes each other very much. There are many men and women in Jianhua University who have marriage contracts, but she is the only one who often mentions her fiancé to avoid impure heterosexual contacts.”

At this moment, Sonia suddenly stopped in front of a counter and looked at the goods in the glass cabinet with bright eyes.

Adele was stunned for a moment, and quickly grabbed Sonia: “You don’t want to give this, right? But normally, this should be bought for you by a boy, Sonny, calm down, what about the restraint of your swordsman? !”

Lois couldn’t help but persuade: “It’s your first date. Even if you want to give this kind of gift, you should consider it after a few dates, right?”

Ingurit glanced at it and asked, “Sonia, do you really want to buy it?”

“Um.”

“Then buy it, you are not a swordsman.” Ingurit said: “You must strive for what you want, and do what you want. A swordsman should face his feelings calmly, Don’t make the people you like sad, and don’t let your heart down.”

Hearing these words, the sword saint stretched his claws and claws finally made up his mind, and greeted the counter attendant and signaled to buy this gift.

But at this moment, the village girl’s miracle bracelet suddenly vibrated violently, the light curtain popped up directly, and a message appeared directly in her sight without permission.

However, other people’s bracelets did not have this abnormality. Lois pulled Sonia aside and asked quietly, “What happened? Can you tell us?”

Sonia took a closer look and her face changed slightly: “Emergency notification from the throne room.”

Throne Room! ?

Everyone kept their eyes wide open—the Throne Hall, the House of Nobles, and the Surveillance Fortress are the three major violent institutions on the bright side of the Starry Kingdom. The Star Guards under the Throne Hall are the most elite, the Griffin Company in the House of Nobles is the most widely distributed, and the number of fortresses who monitor the fortress. Most of them, the Throne Hall is the most mysterious, and the Star Guards are only for guarding the royal family of stars.

How could Sonia, a noble swordsman, deal with the throne room?

“A number of exotic legendary magicians have broken into the kingdom of stars. The Throne Hall urgently summoned all the legends of the Sanctuary of Gales, and together with the Star Guards, they will destroy two of the invaders.” Sonia said slowly: “According to the magic power Fluctuation detection, the last activity area of these two intruders is... the lonely diamond area?!”

Everyone could hear the strangeness in Sonia’s voice, and Adele thought for a while and said, “Why does the Lonely Diamond area sound familiar... Ah, isn’t that the famous merchant villa area?”

“Yes,” Lois said, “and we also went to the Lonely Diamond area, do you remember?”

Ingurit suddenly realized: “Yes, the last time we were invited to Felix’s house was a villa in the Lonely Diamond District.”

“Is Felix going to be okay?” Adele said with a smile: “For example, a legendary magician who was in distress was held hostage or something...”

“Don’t talk nonsense.” Lois tapped Adele on the head and turned to look at Sonia, her face a little uneasy: “Sonia, can’t you refuse this summoning order? Your date tonight...”

The others only reacted at this time, and Sonia will have an appointment in a while!

The summoning order from the Throne Hall completely collided with her date!

Adele's bad idea was almost at hand: "You pretended to be in a virtual realm and didn't receive this message!"

Lois: "...This is a built-in message system, and it will display the "read function". As long as Sonia looks at it, the throne room will know that she has received the message."

"What, hasn't such an inhumane function been canceled yet?" Adele said angrily: "The guy who designed this kind of function should be tied to a street lamp and hanged!"

"I can't refuse," Sonia let out a long breath, shook her head and said, "This is a mandatory summoning order from the Throne Hall. Among the rights and obligations of the Sword Lord, there is also 'assist state agencies to hunt down dangerous suspects', refusing to be regarded as treason, not only withdrawing All noble rights will be jointly judged by the Throne Hall and the Noble House, even if I cannot fight, I must respond to the summons and explain the reason."

"and..."

Sonia looked at the "Lonely Diamond Area" and "Two Legendary Magicians" in the message, and her heart was already turning upside down.

How could she not know that Yaxiu was implicated this time!

Because an alien legend broke into the lonely drilling area, the mana fluctuation detection will focus on the lonely drilling area, and as a result, Yaxiu was also found out... And the reason why Yaxiu failed the test was because he gathered in the battle last night. A little sword-colored magic power!

This mana fluctuation detection must be aimed at the different-color mana. If Yaxiu still only has seven-color mana, it will be fine. It is normal for a few Sanctuary magicians to stay in the lonely diamond area. The reason why the three of Yaxiu were regarded as sanctuary magicians before was also because Yaxiu did not show the fluctuation of different-color magic power at all.

The hidden difficulty of legendary magicians and sanctuary magicians is not the same level at all. There are more than 20 sanctuary magicians in Galese, and sanctuary magicians are basically nobles. There is no prohibition on national exchanges. Who knows if you can detect it. Whether the sanctuary magician is a foreigner or a foreigner, if he is caught wrong, the sanctuary magician will complain that Gales discriminates against foreigners.

But the legendary magician is different. Several legendary magicians usually don't move their nests at all. If you detect a different color magic power in an abnormal place, it is definitely a foreign friend who can exchange it for 50w gold coins!

Therefore, Sonia cannot refuse the summoning order, and must also participate in the summoning order!

But this time, the Throne Hall brazenly dispatched the Star Guards and summoned all the legends of the sanctuary in Galese... They were determined to kill the legendary invaders, and it was impossible to leave any escape space... In case during the encirclement and suppression process, she really Meet Ash...

"You inform your boyfriend first and cancel your appointment tonight?" Lois said, "After all, you can't do anything about it. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com"

"Who could have predicted that an important date night would be exploited by the royal family?" Adele shrugged. "It's all these foreigners who suddenly broke in."

Ingurit noticed that the village girl seemed strange, "Sonia, are you all right?"

The Sword Saint stretched out his claws and shook his head: "I'm fine."

At this time, the waiter handed over the wrapped gift box.

Sonia took the gift box and gently pushed it away with her thumb, revealing the couple's ring wrapped in red velvet.

"You are right."

Sonia closed the box and held it tightly in her hand, the corners of her mouth were slightly upturned, and the ruby's eyes showed the ease of letting go of all restraints, and smiled:

"I can't do it either."

Chapter 776: Arriving at Ruby Mountain

"It's getting dark at four o'clock in the afternoon for you Gales?"

Felix, who was holding his clothes beside him, turned his head and glanced at the starry sky outside, shook his head, and his face was a little confused: "It's October now, and the nighttime in October is 6:30 to 7:00 pm... this The time should be the blazing star, and it will never be dark."

Yin Gula used an eyebrow pencil to help Yaxiu thrush her eyebrows, and asked casually, "Could it be that Fanxing sent someone to arrest us?"

"If someone is really sent to catch the wanted criminal, it's impossible to let the whole city go into the night to notify you, right?" Felix said angrily, "Probably the weather system has malfunctioned."

"Meteorological system?" Yaxiu was about to turn around and ask, when Yin Gula grabbed her chin and forced it back.

"Wind, rain, frost, snow, day and night, the national weather is adjusted and arranged by the weather system."

Felix said: "Galace is the most pleasant living area, and it does not serve the agricultural industry at all. Like agricultural towns and industrial cities, the temperature is either too hot or too cold, and the weather is either too rainy or too sunny."

“Everything can be adjusted, including day and night?”

“Of course, there are also cities with year-round night and year-round day. Those places often produce some special fruits, and some magicians like to go to such places to study light and dark magic.”

Ash frowned slightly, “But the sun—”

“There is no sun here,” Yin Gula took out the eyelash curler, curled Yaxiu’s eyelashes, and then brushed the eyelashes to make a base, “Only Yaoxing.”

Yaxiu was stunned, and nodded thoughtfully: “There are only stars in the kingdom of stars...”

“I know what you’re thinking, but what you need to pay attention to is not the starry sky, but your own image.” Ingula said calmly: “Everything in this country has nothing to do with us.”

Yaxiu heard Yingula’s warning that they would return to the Gospel Kingdom in three days. Just hide it in Felix for these three days, and don’t do anything. Yaxiu was just a little curious, so he didn’t care about other kingdoms.

Unless Jian Ji wants to manage.

“I don’t need false eyelashes!?”

“It can make your eyes look bigger and more three-dimensional.”

“No, no, no!” Ash’s head shrank back desperately.

“Whatever you want.” Yin Gula put the false eyelashes back in the box, glanced at the bottles and jars on the dresser, and asked casually: “As a man, Felix, your cosmetics are really complete, Isn’t it a little weird?”

Yaxiu complained: "As a man, you can use 90% of the cosmetics here, who is strange?"

Felix said calmly: "I had a girlfriend before, and this is the dresser she arranged. I occasionally used the skin care products and masks in it later, and I didn't change much."

It's an impeccable reason... Yingula's eyes swept from Felix's toes all the way, and Felix turned his head away and didn't dare to look at him.

However, it's none of our business.

Yin Gula motioned Yaxiu to stand in front of the full-length mirror, "This is the limit of what I can do. If you want to continue to break through, you can only develop in the direction of biological transformation."

Felix looked at the mirror and couldn't help but light up.

Sword eyebrows and star eyes, valiant, handsome yet masculine, with a bit of sexiness mixed with abstinence, she never thought that her clothes could look so good on others.

However, Ash was not very satisfied.

"You dress me up like a male veela...I don't really like this style...I like the more handsome ones!"

"If you say handsome, you mean the dark wind that adds a few chains to yourself, then I won't have any expectations for your aesthetics in the future." Ingula looked at Felix: "What do you think?"

"Huh?" Felix didn't expect them to ask his opinion, he hesitated for a moment and then replied: "...It's pretty."

Yaxiu pointed at Yin Gula and asked, "Then who am I good-looking with?"

Felix blinked. To be fair, Yin Gula's absolute beauty is undoubtedly crushing Yaxiu, but because Yin Gula is a bit similar to her elder brother Di Mi, she is hated even with Yin Gula.

In comparison, the type of Yaxiu is more and more beautiful, and Felix wants to provoke their infighting, so he immediately replied: "You look good!"

Yaxiu said: "He hesitated for a second, not sincere enough."

Ingula said, "But Felix hesitated for a second."

Yaxiu thought about it for a while, then nodded his head: "Indeed, you can actually make others hesitate between you and me for a second. It seems that I have indeed reached the peak of my appearance."

He beckoned to Felix: "I'm really bothering you this time, and I also borrowed your clothes. Come here, Yingula and I are going to give you a gift of thanks."

Seeing that they were quite polite, Felix walked over and said, "No need, as long as you can leave as soon as possible, it will be the best gift for me."

"Don't refuse, it's not an expensive gift." Ash waved his hand, "I just want to give you a sweet dream."

I saw Yingula patted Felix's head, the latter closed his eyes, fell back on the bed, and fell asleep directly.

Ash and Ingula left the bedroom and went into the hall, where they saw Harvey sitting on the lid of the coffin, with a pale slender right hand sticking out from the coffin – Harvey was trimming Alice's nails.

The necromancer glanced back at Yaxiu and shook his head: "If you add a few more chains to decorate it, it should be more handsome."

Yin Gula watched Yaxiu spread her hands, Yaxiu lowered her head in shame, and took the initiative to confess: "It seems that my aesthetics are indeed broken."

“Has Alice recovered?”

“It has basically recovered, but it needs to be in the sun, otherwise osteoporosis will occur.”

The crowd sat around the coffin, only the sound of Harvey clipping his nails.

After a few minutes, Ash asked, “Are you okay?”

“Do you want to watch the afternoon drama?” Ingula asked.

“Actually, I have something embarrassing to discuss with you.” Yaxiu’s tone was not embarrassing at all:
“When I meet Jian Ji, can you avoid it?”

Harvey stopped and asked in surprise, “Aren’t you going to introduce her to us?”

“Of course I did, but at least on the first date I didn’t want to spoil the atmosphere.”

“How did we ruin the atmosphere?”

Ash looked at Harvey who was holding hands with Alice in the coffin, “...No way, who made you breathe?”

Harvey: “Actually I have a way of not breathing...”

“Okay.” Yin Gula interrupted: “During that time, Harvey and I will go to the virtual realm, and stay in the remote airspace for at least three or four hours. This long time should be enough for you to toss?”

“Not enough, but I’m willing to make concessions to take care of you.” Ash giggled, “As a thank you gift... Ah, my thank you gift has already been given to you.”

“what?”

“Do you remember, I was in the Kingdom of Thousand Wishes, and the gods who woke up from the dream performed miracles on you.” Ash said: “That is a miracle, delayed awakening, and it will be triggered immediately when you enter the virtual realm.”

“Simply put, like me, you will trigger the eclipse dream and leave the remote airspace and climb the Ruby Mountain!”

Both Yingula and Harvey used the cursed seven-color tail feathers to cross the threshold of the sanctuary and climb directly to the remote airspace, otherwise they would not have been promoted from two-winged to three-winged in just a few months. .

But as a price, they are unable to establish a connection channel with the fourth floor of the virtual realm, that is to say, even if they upgrade the magic realm to legendary in the future, they will not be able to summon even a four-wing magic spirit, and naturally they will not be able to open the way to Ruby Mountain. door of truth.

After Yaxiu got the awakened gods, he kept thinking about how to help them overcome this curse. Delaying waking from a dream was the topic he left to Xiaomeng. He didn't expect that the gods really had such a strong subjective initiative, and he actually researched miracles by himself.

Fortunately, after entering the Kingdom of Thousand Wishes, Yaxiu immediately asked Xiaomeng to impose a delayed awakening on the two of them, otherwise the promotion of Yingula and Harvey would not be put on the agenda until the next time Yaxiu returned to the Kingdom of Thousand Wishes.

Both the cheater and the necromancer were so stunned by the news that they couldn't react for a while, and Yaxiu urged: “You can be promoted to legend now while you are free. I'll be watching you outside, just when we change shifts.”

Only Yaxiu entered the virtual realm last night, and Yingula and Harvey were responsible for vigilance; now it was Yaxiu's turn to be vigilant and let Yingula and Harvey enter the virtual realm.

“Axiu, you...” Yin Gula opened her mouth, but she was speechless for a while.

“Remember to say hello to the Ruby Angel for me,” Ash smiled. “Our biggest regret is that we reached the top of Ruby Mountain, but didn’t see the legendary angel.”

The two didn’t say anything, and immediately closed their eyes to connect to the virtual world.

Ash opened “Aurora’s Manual of Magicians” – “Operator Management”, and kept an eye on the changes in “Plosion Dream Secret Poison”.

After a while, he saw that the number of people infected with the eclipse dream secret poison increased from 10 to 12!

“Blood Dream Secret Poison”

“Number of people infected with the secret virus: 12”

“Secret Poison Reinforcement: 12%”

“The current effect of the secret poison: 1. You can convert the seven-color mana into the main-color mana, and the conversion ratio is 62:38; 2. When you use the main-color mana to drive the magic spirits lower than the four wings, you can play the same amount of four-color mana. The effect of wings; when you hold this secret poison, all your colorless mana will be converted into the main color mana, and the same color magic will be enhanced. (When the enhancement degree reaches 51%, it will turn into a negative effect, and when it is reduced to 10%, you will gain extreme big gain).”

Yaxiu made a comparison, and found that the Phantom Dream Secret Poison had less effect on reducing mana consumption and mana consumption, and the conversion ratio was a little lower, but it was still acceptable.

Fortunately, the secret poison was not weakened too much, otherwise he wouldn’t know how to explain to the sword girl witch. After all, the secret poison is a zero-sum game mechanism. More people means less of them.

At this moment, Yin Gula and Harvey opened their eyes almost one after another, and they looked at each other with very ugly faces.

“We didn’t get into Ruby Mountain,” said Ingula.

“what?”

“I triggered the eclipse dream, and the entire remote airspace began to shatter.” Harvey said: “But the next second we were forced to exit the virtual realm and return to reality, and we failed to enter the Ruby Mountain at all.”

“How could this be?” Yaxiu murmured, “Obviously we reached the top of Ruby Mountain directly after triggering the Secret Poison of Discoloration Dream—”

“Because you are not cursed by the colorful tail feathers.” Yin Gula said calmly: “We can’t establish a connection channel with the fourth floor of the virtual realm. The real meaning of this sentence may be that we can’t establish our own door of truth with Ruby Mountain.”

Yaxiu suddenly realized something: “Wait, can you go back to the remote airspace now?”

The two tried and shook their heads.

“The virtual realm has always been only allowed to move forward, not to retreat.” Yin Gula said softly: “Now we are out of the remote airspace, and we can’t enter the Ruby Mountain... Just like our current situation, we have left the Blood Moon and are not allowed to be attacked. Fanxing admits that we can only become wanted criminals in the cracks.”

“We can no longer log in to the virtual world.”

Yaxiu was slightly absent-minded, he lowered his head and looked at his hands blankly.

Harvey said calmly: "It's none of your business, it's our bad luck."

"At least we have witnessed the eclipse dream." Yin Gula said in a relaxed tone: "We are already more powerful than most of the magicians in the world."

"do not talk."

Yaxiu stood up abruptly, no matter how beautiful clothes and makeup, it couldn't hide the loss on his face.

"I'm going to the bathroom."

Watching Yaxiu leave as if running away and slam the bathroom door shut, Yingula and Harvey fell silent one after another, the relaxed smiles on their faces disappeared, leaving only expressionless masks.

"Necromancer, do you hate it?" After a while, Yin Gula asked suddenly.

"I don't hate it." Harvey said calmly: "I never thought that I could become a sanctuary magician, and I am lucky to be able to reach this stage. What's more, when I use the colorful tail feathers, I am ready to bear the price. awareness."

"Yeah." Yin Gula leaned against the soft chair, her voice soft, "What's there to hate?"

He stared at the ceiling, as if staring into the distant past, "When I was in Broken Lake, how could I ever hope that I could become a Sanctuary magician? After experiencing the weaving ceremony and witnessing the end of Sen Luo, my life has become better than I imagined. It's so much more exciting, what can I complain about?"

"But I hate it."

The fraudster pursed his lips and took a deep breath: "I hate that our journey is coming to an end."

“He is a legendary magician now, and he may be a demigod in the future. He will reach the top that we can’t look up to even if we try to stand on tiptoe. We can only stand below and listen to his glory, without even looking at his back. qualifications.”

“Maybe death can’t separate us, but now is the time.”

“I hate that I’m just a sanctuary magician, and I also hate... he is no longer a sanctuary magician.” Yin Gula closed his eyes and whispered: “How much power does it take to hold happiness? At least, I know that the answer is not a sanctuary magician.”

Harvey said nothing, Alice quietly squeezed the necromancer’s hand.

Snapped!

The door of the bathroom was suddenly kicked open, and Yaxiu hurried over, hooked their necks with one hand and pulled them together, excitedly shouting: “There is still a way! It admits you, we still have a way!”

“Ash, calm down...”

“Since you can’t establish your own gate of truth with Ruby Mountain, then you can enter Ruby Mountain through my gate of truth!” Ash could hardly contain his joy, and his words were a bit incoherent: “You have crossed the eclipse dream. , although it is impossible to enter the Ruby Mountain, the virtual world has already regarded you as the master of the Ruby Mountain!”

“You guys have the same progress as mine, and I can take you to Ruby Mountain!”

What Ash was talking about was the prop he just pulled out, the “Little Four-Pillar Gate”!

This item is tasteless for him and the operators, but for Yingula and Harvey, it is a key item to change the trajectory of their destiny! As long as they can be brought into Ruby Mountain, they can continue to grow, and they are even expected to challenge the demigod realm!

Yin Gula and Harvey were slightly startled. They didn't doubt that Yaxiu could bring people into the virtual realm. After all, they already knew that the Kingdom of Thousand Wishes was obtained by Yaxiu and his teammates.

It's just that Yaxiu has always kept a close eye on it. They all thought that the conditions for bringing people were extremely harsh, so they didn't mention it.

It turns out that Yaxiu can really bring them into the Void Realm together?

Because Ashe moved too much, a small box fell from him. He immediately squatted down and picked it up, Yin Gula glanced and asked, "What is that?"

"...Gift."

"Didn't you prepare a present? Steal it from Felix?"

"I bought it in Heipao Town a long time ago." Yaxiu's tone was a little evasive, "I planned to give it later... But since I will return to the gospel in three days, I can't buy other gifts, so I can only give this one."

Yin Gula's expression suddenly became a little subtle: "couldn't it be in this box..."

Seeing that the fraudster had guessed it, Yaxiu sighed and had to open the box: "Yes, it's the ring."

In the small black box, the shiny couple rings lie quietly in black goose down.

"You already wanted to buy a couple's ring when you were in Heipao Town!?"

"I actually bought three pairs..."

Yin Gula snorted and couldn't help but widen her eyes: "What?"

“Can you give me a pair,” Harvey asked. “Alice said she wanted it too.”

“No, I want to buy it myself.” Yaxiu said: “Okay, okay, UU reading www.uukanshu.com Now the focus is to take you to Ruby Mountain to see, if you are ready, we will—”

“We’re not in a hurry, you are waiting for the date.” Yin Gula smiled and said, “Let’s talk about it tomorrow.”

“There are still a few hours before the appointment time, and if you don’t go to Ruby Mountain, you will definitely eavesdrop on my appointment.” Ash said: “The sooner this matter is resolved, the sooner I can feel at ease.”

He closed the small black box and put it in his shirt pocket, “When you’re ready, we’ll start the Ruby Mountain tour.”

“Explore the virtual realm with you,” Yin Gula tilted her head: “It always feels strange.”

“We still don’t know if death can be separated.” Harvey lowered his head and kissed the back of Alice’s hand, smiling: “But at least the virtual world cannot.”

“Newcomer, follow the seniors, don’t get lost in Ruby Mountain.” Yaxiu smiled: “The next stop is Ruby Mountain!”

The small four-pillar gate, activate!

The Last Watcher, the Deceiver, the Necromancer... come to Ruby Mountain!

PS: Two more eight thousand words!

Sorry for being so late, but this episode is so long, I have to finish it before I dare to post it...

Chapter 777: When are you going to submit?

“The great end-watcher, Ashe Heath! The good follow you, the evil adore you! The light longs for you, and the dark desires you! You are the transcendent being, the color that God paints on all things. !”

“The great end-watcher, Ashe Heath...”

Ashe sat on the cold stone seat, watching a large group of weirdos in black robes, kneeling on the ground and praying to himself. Under his sullen expression like waking up from a dream, a huge question mark is slowly forming.

(⊙?⊙)?

When he saw that there was a pair of thighs next to him, he slapped him directly.

“Um?”

Ash raised his head and found that standing beside him was not Igula or Harvey, but a girl he didn't know. She has dark blue and waist-length hair that is as deep as a starry sky, her eyes are as clear and blue as Qinghai Lake, her lips are red and her teeth are white, her skin is better than snow, and she is looking at herself curiously.

“Why did you hit me?”

I thought you were a deceiver or a necromancer... Ash asked, "Does it hurt?"

Girl: "It hurts."

"Then I'm not dreaming." Yaxiu held her forehead with a look of disbelief: "I'm... reading a file?"

"You're a little strange." She said calmly, "I was still muttering about Ruby Mountain, Four Wings, Legend, Heaven, and Void Realm. They are all messy terms. You make me very worried about you. If it's okay, please stick to it. , the event is almost over."

Ash looked up at the ceiling, wondering if Geralt was about to jump down and cut someone.

His thoughts gradually became clearer – he obviously used the small four-pillar gate to bring Igula and Harvey into Ruby Mountain, how could he suddenly jump here?

Could it be that the small four-pillar gate is a trap?

No, this is an item drawn from "Aurora's Manual of Magicians". If there are even traps in this, then Ashe will not dare to use the "Virtual Realm Exploration" mechanism to form a team in the future. God knows if he will He and the sword princess witch were locked in a small dark room.

And if it is really a trap set up by the Four Pillars or other great beings, they will just cut their waists, why should they fall into the illusion of rebirth?

Or, he was already dead when he activated the Small Four-Pillar Gate, so he just started over? It turns out that he is not simply crossing the other world, but reading the file stream in infinite reincarnation?

At this moment, all the lights in the basement turned on, and the praises of the believers stopped abruptly. They stood up respectfully, facing Ash and exiting the basement one by one, until everyone left, the ceiling was not smashed, which made Ash a little disappointed.

Only Ash and the dark blue girl were left in the basement. At this time, he had faintly realized that this was not a rebirth file, but another situation that he could not understand. Although it is said that you should be careful to investigate the information now, but Yaxiu sensed the inner soul, the magic power can operate normally, and the magic spirit can also be driven, that is to say...

He is still a legendary sorcerer.

In this case, there is no need to be careful.

Ash asked directly, "Who are you? Who am I? What is our relationship? Which year, which month, which day is it now?"

"I am Rose Lena, you are Ash Heath, we are childhood sweethearts who grew up together, I am also your assistant now, and it is October 18, 1668." The dark blue girl Rose stared at Asia Xiu, with curiosity on his face: "You these questions... It seems that only people who have traveled through parallel worlds will ask, is this your new character design?"

Ash pointed to the basement: "Then what's going on with this sect? I'm the leader of the cult again?"

"It depends on how you define a cult." Rose said: "If you say that you worship a specific person infinitely, treat him as a spiritual idol, practice his ideas, and spread his theories, it is a cult, then it is true Yes."

"But if it is at the level of social definition, no, they are just members of your fan club. We have reported this event to the nearby police agency, and the club is also a public welfare organization that is widely recognized by the society."

Yaxiu's eyes widened with disbelief: "The club? But why is the club's activities to worship me, praise me, and fear me?"

"The full name is "End Viewer Study Group"." Rose said: "As for why the event is like this, it has something to do with your appearance in "Blood Moon Judgment". Because your role as the leader is too brilliant, every fan meeting will be the same. There are many fans who spontaneously worship you, and many people even want to be scolded by you."

“In the public vote of fans, “Sect Worship” became the club’s permanent event with overwhelming votes. ”

Ash pointed to himself, “I’m... an actor?”

“Not only.” Rose opened her sleeves to reveal her watch and looked at it, “It’s almost time, let’s go have lunch.”

Rose walked out of the basement, and Ash also followed, and found that the basement was under a villa, and although the furniture in the villa was very different, the basic structure was very familiar to him.

“Isn’t this Felix’s villa?” Ash murmured.

“This is my villa.” Rose said, “I will lend it to you as a club venue.”

Suddenly, Rose felt her shoulders being grabbed suddenly, and Ash was almost touching her face, her dark eyes staring straight at her sapphire pupils.

“Do you know Felix, Igola and Harvey?” he asked.

Rose thought about it very seriously and shook her head: “I’ve never heard of it.”

Yaxiu looked at her for a while before letting go: “I’m sorry.”

“Nice name.” Rose rubbed her shoulders and said calmly, “Are they the characters in your next work?”

“You’re weird.” Ash frowned, “I should be completely different from the childhood sweetheart you know? Why aren’t you afraid of me?”

If a friend is occupied by an unknown soul crossing, a normal person's reaction should be disbelief or fear. It is impossible to accept it calmly, and it is even more impossible to communicate with Yaxiu calmly. UU read www.uukanshu.com Yaxiu was ready for violent interrogation, but Rose didn't have any doubt or resistance at all, and answered all his questions very obediently.

"I really have to explain it every time... You say that you are completely different from my childhood sweetheart, which is not true." Rose said, "After all, you used to be like this all the time."

"How often?"

"Occasionally, it's like you wake up suddenly, your mind is full of amazing ideas, and then you lock yourself in a room for a few days to create excellent works that are sure to sell well. You used to say that you usually it is asleep, and the soul goes to the world called 'Blood Moon' to study and draw materials, and it is only when it comes back occasionally that it is awake."

"But every time you go to the 'blood moon', you will forget that you have been in this world, so it is not the first time that you have asked me who you are, what year, month and day are you now, and it is not the first time you have asked me "you Why are you not afraid of me?" "

Rose shrugged, "Although I don't know why you like this kind of role-playing so much, as your assistant, I can only play with you."

"You told me last time that there is no need to go to the 'Blood Moon' in the future. Next time, you will stay here forever. As a result, you only came back after 'sleeping' for more than half a year."

"Speaking of which." Rose took out a notebook, turned a few pages, and said, "The only project that you agreed to cooperate with before you left last time was the romantic comedy "100% Warlock", although you only wrote half of it, But the partner is very satisfied, since you've 'woke up', when are you going to submit the manuscript?"

Chapter 778: Stars and Stars

After contacting the eternal catastrophe of the gospel and Sen Luo's mercury Trojan horse, Ash would occasionally think about a question in the dead of night—

If he really became the touch of the Four Pillars, what was his touch ability?

He actually already has the ability to touch, and the only clue he knows so far is that Schilling once said that "the only way to become full of touch is when Ash Heath is dead".

Ash always thought that Heath's tactile ability was a death whisper effect, and it could only be effective when he died, such as becoming a world-destroying undead creature of Harvey's ecstasy.

But now it seems that Hiss' tactile ability does not seem to affect reality.

If Rose didn't lie, Heath has been sneaking into this world for the past few years, bringing in the entertainment works of the Blood Moon Kingdom to earn fame and capital for himself.

According to Hiss' original plan, he no longer intends to stay in the blood moon kingdom, so he instructs Schilling to report the Four Pillars, and then he will probably die under the sword of Gerald or in the blood moon trial, and then become complete. The sense of touch will remain in this world forever.

It's just a little mistake in the middle, maybe it's this kind of frequent travel that consumes the soul of Hiss, or maybe it's just unlucky... Hiss's soul dissipated, leaving only an exotic wandering soul named Yaxiu.

Heath should have come here half a year ago, and now it's actually Ash half a year late.

Yaxiu's face was gloomy and uncertain, he suddenly looked at his fingers and stroked with his nails.

A drop of blood flowed out from the wound on the pulp of the finger.

He is not a soul body now, but a flesh and blood body?

Yaxiu closed his eyes and tried to find the soul thread connecting him to reality, but he couldn't find it at all. His soul fits perfectly with the body, as if this is his body.

Is this world inside the virtual realm or outside the virtual realm?

Suddenly, Rose grabbed his injured finger and put it in her mouth, gently licking his wound with the tip of her tongue. Yaxiu quickly pulled out: "What are you doing?"

"If you're injured, you should lick it and use saliva to stop the bleeding." Rose looked at him with a puzzled expression: "Don't you know this common sense?"

"I'll do it myself, don't bother you..." Ashe said, he put his finger in his mouth. The next second, he suddenly realized that the finger had just been covered by her, and quickly wiped it with his clothes.

In order to escape the embarrassment, Ash said: "Although it would be strange to say that, I am not the Ash Heath you know, whether it's 'usually asleep' or 'occasionally awake'. But I'm going to mine now. Friend, I need your help."

"I'm used to it," Rose said. "Anyway, your role-playing time will last the entire cycle. As long as you don't point to every glass of water and say it's poisonous, I'll be satisfied."

Yaxiu frowned slightly and explained in a serious tone: "The Yaxiu Heath you know should be just an ordinary person, but I am a legendary magician."

Rose tilted her head: "What is a legendary magician?"

Yaxiu was startled. He looked around and saw that there were LCD TVs, electric lights, refrigerators and other electrical appliances in the living room, and even a huge box computer.

Only there are no magician creations.

“Is there no magic spirit, magic power, and magician in this world?”

“If you mean the setting in your book, there is. But in reality, there is no.” Rose said: “Even if there is, you must be notified. After all, you have registered the copyright.”

“Then what is your strongest weapon?”

Rose showed a handgun gesture to Yaxiu’s head: “Bang! All beings are equal!”

In this world, there is no magic spirit and magic power?

“So, if you are really a legendary magician, then you should have magic spirit and magic power?” Rose asked curiously, “Let me see.”

As you can see, Yaxiu has nothing to do with it, but just as he was about to call out the magic spirit, an indescribable fear suddenly hit his heart, making him freeze in place.

“What’s wrong?” Rose reached out and pinched her childhood sweetheart’s face, “Anyway, it’s a trick?”

“...never mind.”

“Ha, you can’t change it, you really are role-playing.”

“Have a chance to talk.”

Yaxiu still believes in his hunch. After all, his truth faction, time faction, and mind faction all have at least the golden realm, and they can already perceive threats to a limited extent. When he just wanted to summon the magician to appear before the Holy Spirit, he had a very strong premonition that doing so would have serious consequences, and he must not easily show his strength.

But...what are the consequences?

Yaxiu pondered for a moment, glanced at Rose, who was paralyzed but could not hide her beauty and cuteness, and suddenly realized – yes, he is going on a date with Jian Ji tonight, and now if he pretends to seduce other beautiful girls, once he waits for the date Exposed, I'm afraid it wasn't directly hacked to death by Jian Ji.

And unlike the silver lamp, he is passive in getting along with the silver lamp, but he takes the initiative to appear before people. They are about to establish a relationship with Jian Ji offline, and they must not mess with flowers and raise the already difficult emotional relationship to the level of hell.

Yaxiu, Yaxiu, Sword Princess and Witch have not cleared the two main lines, so don't even think about opening a branch line!

Misunderstood by Rose, he is not at a loss anyway.

"I need to find two people, can you do anything?"

"Yes." Rose said with great certainty: "A fan who attended the worship service just now is a police officer. He must be happy to take the risk of being dismissed and help you call the internal resident database."

"...Then please." Ash said: "The two names are Igula Borgin and Archibald Harvey."

If the two of them can't be found, Ashe will be relieved – in reality, they will definitely take good care of Ashe's body.

But if the two of them can be found, it means that the Small Four-Pillar Gate is really effective, and some of Yaxiu's conjectures can be confirmed.

And... suddenly thrown into a strange world, don't look at Yaxiu so calm and calm, in fact, he was panicked to death, even if the legendary battle strength was not damaged, he could only slightly reduce his worries.

But if he can join the deceiver and the necromancer, even if this is hell, he can muster the courage to step down.

Under Yaxiu's watch, Rose took out a 24-button slider phone, edited the message for Yaxiu to look at, and sent it out after confirming that the name was correct.

"Okay, it should take a while, let's go to lunch first." Rose looked at her watch: "Although I don't know your specific role setting, but I have a strong time anxiety, we have already reserved a seat and can't be late."

Yaxiu also felt a little hungry, so he threw the leader's robe on the sofa and asked, "What to eat?"

Rose picked up the robe, hung it on the wooden hanger next to it, and replied, "The restaurant I frequent has a new chef in the past two days. He is especially good at barbecue. The guests who have eaten it all said yes."

Ash blinked and asked, "Do I need to prepare anything?"

"You don't need to prepare anything. I'm your assistant and will help you with everything." Rose picked up her handbag: "But I don't like to eat meat with bones. You have to help me eat it."

"Okay." Ash asked, "By the way, what is the name of this world?"

"The meaning of names is to distinguish specific objects from plural objects." Rose said: "Unlike those who like role-playing like you, we normal people have only one world, and we won't name them specially."

"But..." She tilted her head: "You did name this world before."

She pushed open the door of the villa and walked into the star-lit courtyard.

“You named our world, the kingdom of stars.”

Yaxiu raised his head and saw the stars hanging in the sky, the stars lining up, and the Milky Way hanging upside down, as bright as day.

“Are we... going to lunch?”

“Yeah.” Rose walked into the driver’s seat of the sports car next to her, “Come in.”

As if he didn’t hear Rose’s words, he stared at a star with a red arc in the sky, and slowly raised his right hand, as if to hold it in his hand.

.....

...

The Kingdom of Stars, a temporary command post outside the Lonely Diamond District.

Hidden Sword Saint Trozan noticed that his students seemed a little restless, so he comforted: “Don’t worry, we are just supporting characters from the side, the real protagonists are the Star Guards and our principal ‘painter’.”

“But...” Trozan frowned slightly, “Why did the legendary magician only come to the headmaster, and the Alchemy King can’t come, but Duke Voslodar, the Pope, and the Night King should all be in Galleth...?”

“There are also invading legendary magicians in other places, and they may have to be stationed in various places to avoid accidents.” Sonia analyzed.

“Well, it makes sense. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com” Trozan nodded slightly and patted Sonia on the shoulder, “Tonight is a legendary battle that cannot be missed. It is of great benefit, watch and learn, but don’t rush to confront the legendary magician.”

“You’re just a Sword Lord, it’s not your turn to take your life,” she warned.

Sonia was both amused and moved, and nodded heavily: “I understand, professor. If you are in danger, I will save you.”

Trozan did not refuse: “After all, you are also a sanctuary sorcerer, so maybe you really have a chance to protect me.”

At this time, the dark clouds in the sky dissipated, and Sonia looked up, and the sky was full of stars.

She suddenly felt something, stared at one of the shining stars surrounded by two stars, and slowly raised her right hand, as if to hold it into her palm.

Chapter 779: Block Ruby Mountain

The Gospel Kingdom, Isu Palace in Nabistin. “Modola has a power outage throughout the city.

Jinna and Falin are not really that close to Diya, but Sennheiser and Bell Zangchi are too closely bound to Diya, and they all know An Nan. An Nan once told them that Xinsi Diya will create a new era'.

An Nan is Qinna's daughter and Falin's best friend. They don't believe in Lisidiya, but they are willing to believe in An Nan, the purple moth.

More importantly, even if you stand on the opposite side of Diya, the best result is just to continue the pattern of the gospel for thousands of years, but if you follow Diya closely, it is possible to obtain thousands of times the benefits.

Although Jinna and Falyyn are vastly different personalities, they have two things in common—they both have a sexual interest in Ash, and they're both gamblers. What bet is better than betting on an emperor?

It is precisely because of the disturbance of the two major families that Diya can stay in the palace quietly, instead of being forced to face the inquiries of the major families. She was lying in An Nan's arms at this time, her hair was messy, and she was possessed by all the sisters at the same time.

Queen Yisu, who holds the Gospel Spirit, has the right to access the underlying information of the Gospel system, and can even patch loopholes if necessary. At this time, even Liz didn't dare to make trouble, so she obediently helped her sisters watch Zi Xian.

I don't know how long it took, Diya frowned slowly and said, "Hold a remote meeting at Diyin Palace and contact all honorary advisors." An Nan Yizheng, "Is there a solution?" "No way, But it works." "Would you like to discuss with us first—__

"Take me to the Diyin Palace for a meeting," Diya rubbed her eyes, leaned against An Nan's soft female body, and said lazily, "I don't want to say it twice." I don't want to explain it twice, or I don't want to say the order twice. ?

Although it sounded like a child acting like a spoiled child, An Nan felt a shudder in his heart, and suddenly realized that he was holding the emperor who ruled over hundreds of millions of sentient beings in the gospel. Even if there is such a big mess, Nabistin is still calm as usual, and the Queen of Diyin still has unlimited power.

Diya's order was quickly carried out. She sat on the dry seat of the Xindi Yin Palace. There were dozens of light curtains in front of her. Some of them were serious, some were calm, and some were even smiling. Since they can become the royal family's advisers, they are all high-ranking people who can influence the future of the gospel.

"Four legendary magicians, except for one who was still recovering from injuries in the Thousand Wishes Inheritance, the other three died, one was injured, and one was gone." Without any preheating, Diya directly smashed a blockbuster bomb. . what!?"

Three shouts sounded in the light curtain, it was the family of the three legendary magicians.

Diya yawned, adjusted her posture, and leaned against the throne lazily, "It's the order of the omniscient weaver."

The Diyin Palace instantly became silent, and everyone in the light curtain seemed to have lost the ability to speak, and even dared not breathe, lest the impolite breathing be misunderstood by the omniscient Weaver Master as dissatisfied. "The three legendary magicians were sent to perform tasks by the omniscient weaver." Diya rubbed her temples and said slowly; "The way to perform tasks is to reach other countries through the empty door. Where to go and what task to perform, I don't know anything about it, but the Gospel system has left their traces – the omniscient organizer has used 95% of the computing resources in the country, and even advanced computing resources in the future to open up a directional empty door for them."

"This is not something that just happened today. From a month ago, the Omniscient Weaver asked the Gospel to use all the free resources to analyze and calculate the empty door... But today seems to be the deadline, so the Gospel system does not hesitate to pay the price of social paralysis, We must also complete the task of the weaver."

"Even so, there are two errors in the three empty doors, 'Your Excellency The Poetry of Darkness was smashed by the turbulent space."

The Poem of Darkness is the legend of Mercury. Patriarch Mercury's face was ugly like a cloud of ink, but he still squeezed out a wrinkled smile, and said with great difficulty: "I am in charge of weaving, it is the Mercury family. pleasure."

These high-ranking people who dared to yin and yang strange air to the palace to Diya, all digested the information obediently and quietly at this time, and after a while, someone asked in a low voice: "When will the gospel system be restored?"

In fact, it will be restored tomorrow. Di Ya just wanted to speak, but the black butler and the white queen suddenly had new ideas.

"It will take three days to recover." Queen Yisu said lazily, "But tomorrow, we can allocate a little bit of resources to assist the minimum social operations." Everyone breathed a sigh of relief, but the blood pressure was pulled up by the Queen in the next second, "However, this Such things may become the norm." "What!?"

"Empty Gate was born, connecting the six countries. This is an irresistible historical trend, and it is a change unseen in a thousand years." Di Ya said: "In the past 1668, no matter what happened to the Gospel Land, the Omniscient Weaver did not take the initiative to interfere with all living beings. fate, but now it is an exception."

“Even the gods are starting to end, do you think you can live in peace? Today may become the dividing point between the pastoral era and the new era!” Everyone’s faces were gloomy and uncertain, Falin suddenly asked: “But us mortals, What can you do?” “Look at me, admire me, follow me!”

Diya opened her eyes and glanced at every pair of nitrile in the light curtain; “The greatest * can only dominate heaven, and cannot interfere in the world. I, who are in charge of the gospel, are the gods in the world! Only I can protect them in the future. The Gospel Kingdom, or even... the unification of the Six Kingdoms!” With a sound of Peng, Diya unfolded three virtual wings, showing her identity as a Sanctuary Magician! Don’t forget, she is still a young girl at this time!

This scene is undoubtedly a great shock to the consultants. You must know that most of the family owners are only two sinners. Seeing that this white-haired young girl has completely three wings, they are about to feel that they will live to be fat at their age. up.

“Glory to Your Majesty Diyin!” Qin Na took the lead in shouting to show her attitude, and then the Six Emblem family also expressed their position. “Glory to Your Majesty Diyin!” “Glory to Your Majesty Diyin!”

At the end, UU Reading www.uukanshu.com The Diyin Palace was full of sympathy for Xinsi Diya. Diya knows that most of them are following the trend, not really surrendering, but it doesn’t matter, she just wants to gather power, further advance her plan to conquer the gods, and completely conquer the gods of the gospel. The collapse of the gospel system is both a crisis and an opportunity!

After this cataclysm, the leaders of various forces found that their social order was actually built on a mess of loose sand. How could they have no idea? You must know that the omniscient weaver does not even have malicious intent. How could they not have a sense of crisis when they are gone?

Compared with the omniscient weaver in the kingdom of heaven, Lisidia in the palace is undoubtedly more worthy of their following. At least when the entire gospel kingdom collapses, the palace will certainly not be able to escape—they believe that Lisidia is at least in the gospel. The country doesn’t slam on the accelerator when going downhill.

Originally, they were quite dissatisfied with Lisidia’s new policy of “reducing the interference of the gospel and increasing the adjustment of the plan”, but now that such a thing happened, even if Lisidia did not mention it, they would take the initiative to ask for a higher limit of government power, at least again. In the face of such a cataclysmic collapse of the Gospel system, the royal family had a way to maintain social stability. An Nan, who was next to him, looked at Diya in surprise, but immediately saluted Diya as well.

Although the centralization of power was further completed quietly, Diya was not very happy, but a little more worried. When inquiring about the underlying information of the Gospel system just now, Deya also discovered a piece of new information, which she has personally verified—the magician of the Gospel Kingdom cannot enter the Ruby Mountain. “This is the magic spirit you want.”

In the Affiliated Hospital of Kaimon City Comprehensive University, Siflin looked at the blood-eyed nun who was wearing a nun’s uniform but her body was exposed to sin, and took the box carefully; “Thank you, senior.”

“No thanks, you deserve it.”

Chapter 780: Chef Harvey and Igula the Tramp

“I came to this city two days ago, and won the boss’s approval with my first-hand barbecue cooking skills, and successfully got this job.”

“Hey? How do you know I still like to handle ingredients? Although I can understand what you mean, it’s lunch time. Please try not to use the word corpse.” Of course I love my job, cooking with flames The ingredients, the ingredients gain new meaning in the flame, and death is transformed into the nourishment of life, I am proud of my work! “Ah? You ask me why I like to laugh.... I am born like this If you don’t like the guest, Then I won’t speak, sorry. Ash can’t listen to it, “Wait, why are you listening to people’s advice Harvey?” “Isn’t it a matter of course to take care of other people’s emotions and pay attention to other people’s experiences?”

The black curly hair tilted his head: “And my name is Boulder Harvey, you can just call me Boulder.” Ash’s face was red with anger: “You even changed your name into such a convenient name Pronunciation!? Black Curly blinked and turned around suddenly.

Yaxiu breathed a sigh of relief, and he would still lose his temper anyway, at least let him regain a little impression of Bo Xi, otherwise a neat, sunny, and talkative person would take care of people. Harvey, the necromancer who doesn't like to tell corpse jokes between meals, will make Ash wonder if he has entered some crazy dream.

At this time, the black-skinned curly hair turned around and put a cup of small green mandarin lemon tea in front of Yaxiu, "This is a private gift from me, the guest seems to be a little troubled, and a cup of small green mandarin can make you feel better.

I can't accept it!" Ash slapped the table angrily.

Rose touched Yaxiu's head, "Yes, it's a lot better than last time, at least you didn't say this drink is poisonous." Boulder, it's very generous, Mr. Heath sometimes gets watery, please be patient with him rude. ""No no, I enjoyed chatting with Mr Heath, he's an interesting man. "

Yaxiu took a sip of the small green mandarin lemon tea, and found that it was delicious, not the smell of corpse fluid. At this time, the black-skinned curly hair was grilled for several skewers, and Yaxiu grabbed it directly and couldn't help crying while eating – it was delicious, and it didn't smell like rotting corpses!

Seeing Yaxiu eating barbecue meat, she was crying, and the black curly hair couldn't help but be moved: "I didn't expect Mr. Heath to like my cooking so much." The manager next to him took this photo, and Rose reminded: "Use For commercial promotion of the portrait, please contact the Studio of the Ultimate Viewer." "Absolutely!" The manager said quickly, "Just because His Excellency Heath enjoys our cooking so much, we will never be stingy with expenses!

Next, Yaxiu stopped talking and ate the skewers silently. When he was about to leave, he said that he wanted to chat with Curly Black outside the store, and Curly Black would follow Ash out of the store, "Is there anything Mr. Heath is looking for me?"

Ash pulled Harvey into the side alley, pushed him against the wall, and slapped him vigorously back and forth, "Wake up, Harvey, wake up, you're Archibald Harvey, not What chef, you are a necromancer who is sullen, dark, evil, self-centered, taciturn, and likes to talk about corpses while everyone is eating..." Rose helped Ash to block the sight of passers-by outside, and even Turn on the phone's ringtone to cover up his slaps. "All right."

"It's not enough, the person you liked, Narbel, died. You escaped with me in Broken Lake Prison." "I said, okay." Harvey said, "I'm awake." Ash winked. , let go of his hand: "Just wake up."

"I was awake when you said 'Archibald 'Harvey|'," said the necromancer, "and you seem to be aware of it." No!" Ash quickly denied: "Do you think I'm deliberately taking the opportunity to speak ill of you and slap you?) "Of course not," Harvey said.

Rose turned off the ringtone of her phone and asked curiously, "You know each other? So you don't need to lose money to settle the case of intentional wounding?" "Who is she?" Harvey asked, "Jianjiehu?

Ash: "No, I just met her too. She is my assistant in this world, and her name is Rose." Rose suddenly realized: "You are role-playing friends."

"Let's take it as it is." Ash said casually, looking at Harvey: "How did you become a chef?"

"I don't know either." Harvey shook his head: "I only have a little vague memory, and it is quickly dissipating, just like waking up and forgetting dreams." Ash looked at Rose; "Do you know his information? ?"

Rose gave an OK gesture, walked out of the alley, and came back after a while: "I asked the boss, he is an orphan, and he was a homeless two days ago, so he took the initiative to apply for a chef, and the boss thought he was good and hired him.

Two days before the orphan..." Yaxiu frowned slightly: "It's really a useful setting. Wait a minute, Rose, you told me we were childhood sweethearts, what about our parents?" You are an orphan, my parents are very early Just dead." Rose replied.

"Orphans should also have information on their parents by blood, right?" Ash said, "Are my blood parents dead?" "I don't know." Rose shook her head: "Are you looking for it?"

"Forget it, I'm just asking." Ash looked at Harvey: "Now we're looking for Igula, do you have any clues?"

"I was just woken up by you, what do you think?" Harvey asked. "Why don't you explain to me why I didn't even see a ruby. Is this really Ruby Mountain?"

"I'm not sure if it's my fault." Ash said, "Thinking is not my business, and there are still many things that I can't figure out... The only one among us who has the potential to be a detective is the fraudster.

Ashe paced back and forth, pondering: "Orphan...Two days ago... Rose, did you meet a handsome blond guy recently? It should also be an orphan who appeared only two days ago." Rose thought for a while: "Blonde does have it. , but I'm not sure if it's the handsome guy. Come on, take us to him. As soon as Ash and Harvey got in the car, the restaurant manager ran out and yelled, "Boulder, aren't you coming back to work? Haha Wei asked, "What work?" "Barbecue!

"Oh? What meat? Elves, orcs, goblins, or humans? Age, gender, how long was dead?

Ash kicked the necromancer into the car and apologized to the manager: "Sorry, he was hired as a private chef by me." The manager was not dissatisfied, and hesitantly asked: "Then the photo I took ..."
"Of course, you still have to contact the End Viewer Studio!"

Rose in the driver's seat turned around and glanced at him, then faced forward, the sports car started abruptly, and the strong push back made the two legendary magicians sit up straight. Five minutes later, next to the filthy and stinky river bank, Ash and Harvey looked at the man under the bridge from a distance, and both fell into self-stunned.

Not to mention Yaxiu, even the necromancer, who was almost assimilated to the dead, had his eyes wide open and his mouth was about to fall. "You said that the blond I met in the past two days, I can only think of him." Rose asked, "Is that the person you are looking for?" "It's a big help, Liz." Ash waved his hand , "Although I don't know what property I have, you can take whatever you want." "I could have taken it as I wanted." Rose said, "Can you recite your bank card password?"

At this time, Harvey wanted to walk over, but Ash quickly grabbed him: "Don't you want to look at it for a while? At least you have to take a picture... Rose, take a picture! Harvey: "He will be angry. "

Ash glanced at him, "But you can laugh at him." The necromancer thought for a while, "It's really hard to refuse."

As Rose pressed the shutter, a new photo of the blond tramp under the bridge” came out—yes, Igula turned into a scruffy, shriveled, shriveled, grey-haired man, curled up on a dirty quilt. Dread-faced, homeless living in the bridge hole!

Yaxiu looked at this photo with great emotion. He didn’t expect that in addition to the cemetery, there would be a crazy place where Harvey was better than Igula.

Okay, time to laugh at him

At this moment, a stone suddenly hit the homeless man’s head and woke him up. The homeless man got up in a hurry, but was hit by more stones and ran out of the bridge hole in pain. I saw a few half-aged youths laughing and walking towards the homeless person. They held burning wooden sticks in their hands. When they loosened their hands, they threw the sticks on the dirty quilt, and it quickly burned.

The homeless screamed, not even caring about being stoned, so he rushed over and threw himself on the burning quilt, only to see his clothes on fire, stammering and howling; “A-ah-burning-burning -_”

When the homeless man rolled on the ground to put out the flames, the young men also laughed and kicked him.

At this time, the gangsters lifted him up and prepared to throw him into the Huanghe River. At this moment, a cry cut through the starry sky, Igula Borgin!

Ash and Harvey rushed over and kicked the gangster away with one kick. Originally, Yaxiu wanted to directly unfold the Void Wing or shoot the Heart Sword, but when he was about to do it, his body was again dominated by fear and he was unwilling to execute the order.

Although I don’t know why, Ash still told Harvey not to use any magician abilities, so they could only rush over to fight.

Seeing that these two guys dared to provoke them, the thugs naturally came over to besiege them. But even if Yaxiu and Harvey don’t have the skills of a magician, UU reading www.uukanshu.com itself is a battle-hardened, especially Yaxiu, who is a physicist. With a little skill, he can break a few teeth. Seeing that the situation was not good, the other gangsters hurried away after a few harsh words.

When Ash and Harvey finished their fight, they realized that the surroundings were a little quiet, and when they turned around, they found that the tramp had been thrown into the stinking river in the melee just now.

He stinks, is covered in sewage, and his beautiful blonde hair is stained with dirty colors. He stood in the river, with his back to Ash and the others, his shoulders trembled slightly, staring at the river without knowing what he was thinking.

Ash thought for a while, and suddenly said to Harvey, "Hey, your * is on fire."

Before the necromancer could ask 'what', he kicked Harvey into the stinking river and jumped in, "I'm on fire too."

Sing wow, Yaxiu found that his nose in this world has not been trained by Harvey, and this imperial taste can no longer be tolerated. As soon as he swam beside the homeless man, he couldn't help but vomit, "No way, hello emperor!"

"However, we are also stinky." Ash smiled and suddenly fell into deep thought: "Wait, are we embarrassing the legendary magician? We may be the only three legendary magicians who will fall into the Huanghe River, right?"

The necromancer snorted: "Hmm."

The fraudster glanced at the two of them and sighed helplessly: "Two fools."
