Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 78

Have a baby?

Zoey Gu steadied her body, stared at the little nurse incredulously, and laughed directly.

"Miss nurse, I am grateful that you helped me twice in a row. But it's not funny that you made such a joke with me."

Except for the time when she was forced by a strange man five years ago, even if it was her and Liam Lu, that was only recent.

Give birth? The Arabian Nights!

The little nurse was taken aback for a moment, and then looked at Zoey Gu with a displeased face, and then she was confused, then lowered her voice and began to accompany her.

"I'm sorry, Miss Gu, I didn't mean to spy on your privacy. In fact, when you were drawing blood last night, you passed out for a while. I accidentally saw the incision on your lower abdomen and realized that you had a child by caesarean section. I don't mean anything…"

Seeing that the little nurse looked serious and didn't mean any jokes, Zoey Gu's heart sank and her face suddenly changed.

She bent down abruptly and opened her shirt, and she found a long pale pink scar on the lower abdomen.

It may have been a long time, the scars faded, if you are not careful, you will not see any traces at all.

Suddenly, like an electric shock!

Her fingers began to stiffen, and her body trembled uncontrollably. She pointed to the lower abdomen and asked the little nurse.

"Is this really… a scar that comes from having a child?"

The little nurse's eyes widened suddenly, "You didn't know that you had a baby? God…"

Before she finished speaking, the little nurse realized that she had broken the secret of Zoey's greatness, and instantly changed her face, giving her a strange and terrified look.

"Miss Gu, I'm sorry, I said the wrong thing. The scar may be from another operation, and it must be…"

"Anyway, don't worry, I haven't seen you, and I don't know anything!" After speaking, she turned and flew away.

Zoey Gu stared blankly at the direction the nurse was leaving, her legs softened, and she collapsed along the wall to the ground, with no blood on her face.

impossible…

This is impossible!

More than four years ago, she was in a coma for half a year. But that was because she was dizzy due to long-term anemia, accidentally fell off the stairs and knocked her head.

But after waking up, apart from her body becoming weak, Lydia Lin was still pumping blood again and again, and she did not feel anything abnormal.

Is it possible that she really gave birth to a child during that period of unconsciousness?

Zoey Gu was cold all over, and didn't dare to think anymore.

She gritted her teeth and got up from the ground, leaning on the wall all the way to the elevator not far away, and went directly to the obstetrics and gynecology department downstairs.

She wants to know the truth!

You know what Lydia Lin did to her during most of her coma? !

When I arrived at the obstetrics and gynecology department, there was an elderly female doctor sitting in the consulting room. She took the empty medical record book in Zoey Gu's hand, gave her a frown and asked in a low voice.

"Where are you uncomfortable? What do you want to see?"

"I…"

Because of tension, Zoey Gu's lips were fighting, and her face was as white as wax paper. It was a long time before she gritted his teeth tremblingly.

"I just want to know, did I have a child a few years ago?"
