

Super Rich Dad Chapter 791-793

Chapter 791

Looking at the bank card handed over by Elder Lin, Jiang Hao was slightly dazed 'Why would you give me money to help Chen Jingdao, how could I possibly be suitable for such a thing?'

Elder Lin looked at Jiang Hao and shook his head slightly 'I believe you are the most suitable person, right now the Shen family is not as strong as before, but there is still a great threat, I am not suitable to stand out.'

After saying this, Elder Lin looked at Jiang Hao and spoke in silence for a long time 'And why I will give you the money is because I believe you will choose to help Old Dog Chen, because you and Shen Qing Shu were born at odds!'

After saying this, Elder Lin got up and left, leaving Jiang Hao sitting alone in the room in a daze.

He didn't understand why Elder Lin could see through his own disharmony with the Shen family at a glance, was it because he had gone too far last time in making a fuss over the Xue family?

With a confused little mind, Jiang Hao left the Lin family and hurried to the Tianzhu Villa according to Old Black's message.

Just walked in and found that there were suddenly a lot of people around the villa, of which Jiang Hao could even detect that some of them were even Level 3 martial artists!

To know that at the time he was just this, and a villa inside the hidden so many experts, so that Jiang Hao a time are some suspicion of Sally's identity.

Old black see Jiang Hao came after hurriedly went over, a grabbed Jiang Hao spoke 'you finally came, you do not come again I am going to catch you.'

Jiang Hao cried and laughed at his own hand grabbed by the old black laughed and said 'you do not grab me now, that can not grab my hand, two big old men holding hands how the picture is so weird.'

At first hearing this old black also did not react for a while, wait until he reacted after looking at the bad smile on Jiang Hao's face.

Old black rolled his eyes and quickly let go of Jiang Hao's hand angrily said 'you kid can not be serious, now it is already the matter at hand, you are still so hanging what decency!'

Jiang Hao looked at the old black nervous look slightly puzzled, but the face is still very relaxed smile 'at ease, since things have come to a head, top it is!'

As we speak, the two walked to Sally's office door, and then old black took a deep breath and looked at Jiang Hao and said in a deep voice 'the boss may not be in a good mood now, you have to be careful.'

Jiang Hao smiled and nodded and said, 'Don't worry, it's not facing any flood beast, I don't believe she can still eat me.'

After saying this Jiang Hao knocked on the door of the office, see no one speak inside he directly pushed open the door and walked in.

'Sally, so anxious to find me is something again ah?'

Sitting at the desk, Sally's eyes were slightly lost in thought, and only after seeing Jiang Hao walk in did she slowly come back to her senses and look at Jiang Hao in silence for a long time.

'Hmm? Oh, you're here.' After saying this, Sally slightly tired rubbed her eyes and said casually, 'Sit down.'

Jiang Hao looked at Sally nodded, then sat down and said 'Why, are you too tired lately, this is not like your style ah.'

Sally yawned and got up and went to the sofa and flopped down, then hugged the pillow and said tiredly 'I am indeed tired because of some things, today I asked you to come here to talk to you about one thing.'

Jiang Hao nodded and then opened his mouth and laughed 'Well, go ahead, I'm listening, it's rare that you want to talk to me about something so serious.'

'I know your identity, Jiang Hao, or rather, should I call you Shen Hao?'

Jiang Hao's pupils shrank, his body aura instantly erupted, but Jiang Hao quickly suppressed it looked at Sally and laughed 'What Jiang Hao ah, why do I somehow do not understand, my name is Shen Yan ah, you forget my name?'

Sally eyes flat, although only for a moment, but she still felt the Jiang Hao body of that tragic killing aura.

'You don't need to hide in front of me, after all, I'm not your enemy, exactly I'm here to help you.'

Looking at Sally's eyes, Jiang Hao knew that he was really exposed this time, and he suddenly had some trouble thinking.

'The identity I came to the Northern Province with is my real identity, and my face has been maintained with disguise, how did you judge that I am Jiang Hao?'

Sally heard these words sat up, then poured a cup of tea to himself faintly said 'Shangdian told me, since you have fused with Shangdian for one, then about it some things I think you should also know, right?'

Jiang Hao looked at Sally nodded in silence, in fact Jiang Hao had a period of time every day before going to sleep to take a good look at the Shang Dian.

As a result, the more he looked, the more surprised he was.

Shangdian is like an encyclopedia in this world, which contains things that Jiang Hao may not be able to read even in his lifetime.

Just thought of here Jiang Hao came to understand, then bitterly smiled and shook his head and said 'I understand, is it because of the two prescriptions?'

Looking at Jiang Hao's expression flashed a trace of bitterness, I do not know why, Sally felt as if she had caught a small fox like some smug.

'That's just one of the reasons, the main reason is that the timing of your appearance and the timing of your fame in the Northern Province is just a bit too coincidental.'

After saying this, Sally took out a folder and threw it to Jiang Hao and said, 'In fact, from the time I first contacted you, your investigation has already begun, this is just some small news.'

Jiang Hao opened the folder and read it, including when he got on the car from 30 miles, what position he was sitting, who had a conversation with, what is his identity.

Jiang Hao closed the folder after looking at it for a while, and looked at Sally with some anger as if he intended to get angry.

But after taking two deep breaths Jiang Hao still suppressed a bitter smile and said 'it looks like your identity is not as simple as it seems, right?'

Sally smiled and nodded, and even a little surprised to speak 'I had thought you would look at these things to get angry.'

In fact, Jiang Hao did intend to be angry, but after careful consideration, Sally has mastered so many things about himself, but the northern Shen family or overseas Shen family have not moved.

It can be seen that Sally and himself are not enemies, and it is for this reason that Jiang Hao held back.

However, looking at Sally's somewhat surprised look, Jiang Hao heart playful, then some deep speak 'If not you, perhaps I have already shot.'

Chapter 792

Sally was already somewhat moved by Jiang Hao, at this moment looking at Jiang Hao's eyes, and then listening to the other party's words, for a moment Sally suddenly surged with a hint of impulse.

'Don't joke with me, I'm talking to you seriously, the reason why I'm talking to you about this today is because Shen Tianyang sent someone to the North Mansion.'

After saying this, Sally sighed lightly and said; 'If it wasn't for this matter Tippeligaen, I wouldn't have suddenly confessed to you.'

Jiang Hao looked at Sally with a helpless look on his face, so he laughed lightly and said, 'In that case, what are you going to do, I think you should be on my side, right?'

Sally nodded slightly, after a long period of silence, she said, 'This matter is slightly complicated, at present I can do is try to protect you, but if you are caught by the Shen family people what pain, do not blame me.'

This point Jiang Hao certainly understand, sometimes the philosophy is also an art.

Thinking of this he let out a deep sigh, then a pair of eyes looked at Sally said in a deep voice 'Since you now know my identity, so I can know who you really are?'

This question has actually been held in Jiang Hao's heart for a long time, Sally in the North House is like a character who wanders from the edge.

She didn't seem to have anything to do with anyone in the North House, but in reality she seemed to have something to do with anyone.

Some times Sally gave him the feeling like a predator, she lurked in the shadows silently watching those people, the slightest movement will pounce on them.

Thinking about it, Jiang Hao was even more interested in Sally's.

Sally looked at the look in Jiang Hao's eyes and smiled faintly, then spoke 'my identity in fact you should know, after all, can confront with Shen Tianyang has been very few people.'

Sally said this after looking at Jiang Hao still some puzzled look, so lightly laughed twice and said, 'I do not know if you have heard of the name thirteen sections.'

Jiang Hao listened to a moment of confusion, and then shook his head ruthlessly and said, 'No, technically speaking, I just stepped into this circle.'

Sally frowned, then reclined on the sofa to reveal a beautiful line to look at Jiang Hao said 'Section 13 is a department, a department for any department that may affect the domestic peace.'

After saying this Sally continued to laugh 'In fact your true identity we have always been very clear, but considering that you did not affect the peace of Chu Jiang, so no one has come forward.'

Jiang Hao snorted after hearing this, and a flash of anger suddenly appeared in his eyes.

'In that case what about Shen Tianyang, what do you think of Shen Tianyang, did he not affect the peace in the Slanted Sun Valley war?'

Jiang Hao finished these words, for some reason, suddenly thought of his friends who had disappeared.

Then pointed at Sally and said angrily 'What about my friends, what did they do wrong, can they disappear so quietly just because they are related to me?'

Sally looked at the angry Jiang Hao and sighed lightly in her heart, in fact she didn't know what the person in charge of Chu Jiang's side was thinking.

Although she was internally designated as the successor of the thirteen sections, but right now she was not yet after all, and could only be in charge of these matters in the North Mansion.

And after such two words from Jiang Hao, Sally also suddenly realized a problem, perhaps Ning Kun was not joking with himself.

Chujiang side may really have someone has fallen, otherwise why Shen Tianyang can be so wanton in Chujiang?

Thinking of this Sally lowered her head, her face somewhat gloomy and spoke 'I can't manage those things in Chujiang for the time being, but look at the Northern Province has such a thing?'

Jiang Hao slightly froze and then calmed down, then got up and walked to the window and turned his back on Sally and said 'In that case, what do you want to call me here today.'

Sally hesitantly looked at Jiang Hao, pondered for a moment and then said 'I hope you can cooperate with my people to keep Shen Tianyang's men out of the North Mansion, otherwise I'm worried that something will happen if we let them in.'

In fact, what Sally was really worried about was that Jiang Hao would be like in Chu Jiang, or in the 30-mile store, Jiang Hao would break out in conflict with the other side in the city regardless.

At that time, even if she wanted to suppress this matter can not be suppressed, it is because of this reason Sally wants Jiang Hao simply follow Ning Kun a piece out.

With Jiang Hao's current status as a level 4 martial artist, he can easily deal with those people, so as not to cause trouble in the city.

Jiang Hao froze for a moment after hearing this, then looked at Sally with some incredulity and said 'You want me to take the trouble out as far as possible, right?'

Sally lowered her head and did not open her mouth to answer, some things do not have to say too frankly, she must consider for some ordinary people.

Looking at Sally's lowered head, Jiang Hao sighed softly in his heart, then skipped the matter and threw the bank card given to him by Elder Lin to Sally's face and said, 'This is the money given by Elder Lin to help Chen Jingdao.'

Sally looked at the card and nodded and spoke, 'In fact, my side also intends to take action, if we continue to wait, Shen Tianyang's involvement in the North will be more and more.'

Jiang Hao lit himself a cigarette, took a deep puff and then frowned and said 'How many people did Shen Tianyang send over this time, are you clear on your side?'

'There are about seventy people in the first level, twenty-three in the second level, and the leader is a third level, which is the backbone of Shen Tianyang's men.'

Hearing this, a bloodthirsty glint flashed in Jiang Hao's eyes.

'Quite lively, Shen Tianyang looks like he intends to establish a firm foothold in the Northern Province, these people are the front-runners for him if nothing else.'

Sally nodded and said, 'Because of this, I want to leave all these people behind at once, Shen Tianyang simply fear, otherwise the more we delay the more dangerous.'

The words just fell, Sally clapped the palm of her hand, has been standing outside the door, Ning Kun walked in, then looked at Jiang Hao and smiled 'Hello, need to get reacquainted?'

The smile on Ning Kun's face was very bright, but Jiang Hao did not know why, but some disgusted up.

'Forget it, after all, I can't believe you guys will use your real names in front of me, so just save the unnecessary trouble and talk about the business.'

Ning Kun slightly narrowed his eyes, looking at Jiang Hao's eyes flashed a dangerous cold aura.

'Well, very interesting words, in that case then I'll say it straight.'

As he said this, Ning Kun came forward and sat down, then took out his cell phone from his arms and spoke 'Tomorrow those people will arrive, my men will use your message to lure the other side to a place.'

Chapter 793

Jiang Hao looked at Ning Kun silent for a long time, while smoking a cigarette and said 'According to your words, I became your bait?'

Ning Kun nodded and laughed, 'You should know that only you are what Shen Tianyang wants the most, other than that I can't think of anything else that could move him.'

After a while of silence, Jiang Hao nodded slightly, then looked at Ning Kun and said 'You also know my true identity?'

Ning Kun Jiang Hao this question some silence, in fact the first to find out Jiang Hao's true identity is Sally, later he also knew.

After taking two deep breaths, perhaps worried that Jiang Hao will misunderstand himself, so Ning Kun bitterly smiled and said 'You have to be clear about one thing, I am not standing against you, just to avoid things like Chu Jiang happen again.'

Thinking of this, Ning Kun turned around and walked away.

His terms had been offered, and the plan had been completely told to Jiang Hao, what to do next was Jiang Hao's business, and no longer had much to do with him.

Sally went to the balcony in the office and quietly looked out at the scenery.

This time, after she picked apart the identity layer, she suddenly felt a little unsure of how to get along with Jiang Hao.

If Jiang Hao was really just an ordinary person, Sally didn't mind being with him, but the issue of Jiang Hao's identity made her a little confused at once.

Jiang Hao looked at Sally, who had her back to herself, and then looked at Ning Kun before speaking in silence for a moment, 'Okay, call me when you think the time is right, I'll be there.'

After saying this Jiang Hao turned around and left, with a trace of loss in his eyes, he did not expect that Sally would have been hidden from him.

Ning Kun looked at Jiang Hao and nodded with a smile, saw him leave Sally's office and walked to the balcony and lit himself a cigarette.

'I thought you would have kept it to yourself, but I didn't think it would be just two days before you picked things up with him.'

Sally nodded with a bitter smile and said 'If I don't do this, I'm afraid that soon you will also take the initiative to break the matter with him, right?'

To Sally's words, Ning Kun responded only a moment of silence, because some things are too much to say is meaningless.

By doing so, Sally also released a signal to herself that the misunderstanding she had about herself last time had been cleared up, which gave Ning Kun's heart a little comfort.

'In fact I am grateful that you can choose so, because I am indeed a little too tired to continue like before, too tired.'

Ning Kun took a deep smoke, then smiled bitterly and continued 'There are many times I was thinking about a problem, if you continue to go on then you may sooner or later do not even know where you are buried.'

Such a downfall is not a joke, because Sally has seen too much.

Hearing such words from Ning Kun, a look of mockery suddenly appeared on Sally's face.

'I'm curious, since you're so worried about dying now, why did you choose to accept a mission like that in the first place, there's one and then there's two I'm sure you won't not understand.'

Ning Kun lowered his head and exhaled a deep breath of smoke, and then put the cigarette butt into a small bottle he was carrying and laughed, 'When I was young and full of vigor, now I'm a little more subdued, it's over, thank you.'

After saying this, Ning Kun also quit Sally's office, after all, he may be the busiest one next.

The body that sent over all these people left behind, this plan from the beginning is what he set, and Sally just expressed agreement.

All the actions of the plan all the problems need him to be responsible, if it succeeds then it is a great achievement, but if it fails, the person responsible is also him.

In order not to be sent out again in the future to do a fish, Ning Kun felt he could take such risks, he was too tired.

Old Black stood outside the office and watched the two men leave one after another, the two men had different expressions on their faces so that Old Black's heart sank.

After walking into the office and saw Sally still standing on the balcony with her back to herself, so Old Black went up and stood three steps behind Sally and said in a deep voice 'Chief, things have all been discussed?'

Sally softly um, head did not return to speak 'you go down to see, if there is any place can help Ning Kun, you will help.'

Speaking here, Sally paused slightly, then turned to look at Old Black.

'Although he is not willing to serve me, but I can't bear to see him destroyed like this.'

The old black nodded somewhat silently and then withdrew, not forgetting to close the door as he left, leaving Sally alone in the large office again.

She may have long been used to such loneliness, no matter how many people around her, she can only trust herself.

This is the sadness of the top, but also she must get used to things.

Some people say why the emperor's dragon chair is so wide and so big?

Because it is to let the emperor know that he has nothing to rely on but himself!

After leaving the Tianzhu Villa Jiang Hao was in a somewhat down mood, originally he had always thought that he had hidden himself well, but never thought that he would be discovered by Sally after all.

Thinking of this Jiang Hao heart slightly sullen, Sally to him what the mind Jiang Hao actually understand.

But the issue of Sally's identity makes Jiang Hao a little worried, intuition tells him that Sally's identity is somewhat uncomplicated, even uncomplicated to the point that he does not want to explore the truth behind Sally.

After remembering what Ning Kun said to himself, Jiang Hao's mouth gently pulled out a slightly gloomy smile.

‘I’ve already retreated here, and you guys still dare to catch up with me and force me step by step! Since this is the case, then don’t blame me for not being polite.’

Saying this, Jiang Hao turned his head to look at the scenery outside the car window, this should be the second gift he gave to Shen Tianyang.

At this time, Shen Wennian’s face was slightly embarrassed, because although Shen Tianyang promised to help himself, but the price he had to pay was really not small.

Shen Qingshu looked at his father as if he had aged ten times as old as sitting on a chair, and could not help but speak with some concern ‘Dad, what’s wrong with you?’

‘Overseas Shen family’s family head Shen Tianyang has promised to help us, the money is on the way, in addition they will also send people over.’

Shen Qingshu heard this and nodded in silence, he knew that his family would have to pay a heavy price next, so he had the sense not to ask this question.

Shen Wennian looked at his son and smiled with some relief ‘Qingshu, I know the pride in your heart, because that is what I have cultivated for you since you were a child, but that is not a reason not to bow down.’

People living in this world always need to bow down, even the strongest people will eventually.

But the question is, after you’ve bowed your head for the first time, do you have that courage to lift it up again!
