Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 80

Anna Yun was carrying an exquisite food box, still in that elegant and moving appearance. But only when looking at Zoey Gu, cold eyes flashed everywhere.

"Why are you still here?! I warned you, stay away from Liam and Alina Yin, you…"

Before she could finish her sentence, Zoey Gu stretched out her hand to push her away, and walked forward without looking back.

"Step aside!"

"Anna Yun, there is no one else here, you don't have to be wronged and angry to do a full set of dramas, and I have no time to watch you perform!"

Anna Yun did not expect that she would make a move, and took two steps back off guard, her face turned blue with anger.

"Zoey Gu, you give me…"

As soon as she raised her head, there was no figure of Zoey Gu in the empty corridor.

Anna Yun clenched her fists secretly, turned around to leave, took two steps forward, and stopped abruptly.

In my impression, Zoey Gu rarely lost control in this way, and the only few times were related to her father and brother.

Could it be…

After passing the nurses' station, Zoey Gu rushed to the ward of the missing detective like a gust of wind.

But wait for her to open the door…

The window of the ward was half open, the bed was empty, the quilt was half opened, and the instruments beside the bed were still ticking, ticking, except for the detective who was missing!

Zoey Gu's heart suddenly lifted up, is it possible…

Footsteps suddenly sounded inside the door not far away.

Zoey Gu turned her head abruptly, and saw a tall figure slowly coming out from inside.

The man leaned against the door leisurely, holding a bottle of yogurt in his hand, and was sucking happily with his head down.

At the end, he frowned and said in disgust.

"It's too sour, but the taste of hand-ground coffee is better." There was a trace of hoarseness in his voice.

Zoey Gu stared at the man blankly for a long while, suddenly jumped up excitedly, and instantly rushed towards the man.

"Detective Detective, are you awake?!"

The man was caught off guard by her violent force. He slammed into the wall, raised his hand to his chest and coughed violently.

"Ahem! Calm down, calm down! I don't want to be beaten to death by you as soon as I wake up."

Zoey Gu reacted and immediately retracted his hand awkwardly and stood up straight in embarrassment.

"Sorry! I just saw you wake up, so happy for a while…"

The man breathed a sigh of relief and raised his eyes to look at her.

"Rogan Fu is my name. Although I know I am very good, but you keep calling me a tracing detective, which will make me feel like a part-time worker and not worthy of my noble status."

Zoey Gu: "…"

She pursed her lips for a moment, then turned and walked outside the ward.

"I'll call a doctor for you."

After not taking a few steps, Logan Fu's chuckle suddenly sounded behind him, "Okay, little girl, don't hold back."

"I know that on the day of the car accident, you helped me pay a large amount of medical expenses, and waited until I was out of danger before leaving. Just rush to this. What do you want to know from me? Ask."

Hearing this, Zoey Gu paused, his eyes drooping silently.

She turned to look at Logan Fu, and said in a low voice.

"The day of your car accident, my father and brother died. They were misled and drove into the sea. I want to know…"

Before she finished speaking, Logan Fu twisted his brows and suddenly cursed.

"X! The attack is so cruel, it is a viper."
