

Chapter 801: you left me no choice

“Axiu Xiu Xiu Xiu...”

In the indoor library of the villa, Ash turned his head and saw Rose wearing elk pajamas standing at the door. The latter rubbed her eyes and held a very weird doll in her hand.

“Did I wake you up?”

Rose shook her head: “What do you want to drink? Coffee, juice, or milk tea?”

“No, go back to sleep.” Ash smiled, “I’ll read a book here for a while.”

“No, I’ll be awake when you’re awake, so that I can meet your unrestrained needs at any time, lest I don’t even know if you kill anyone.”

Rose yawned and came over. She noticed that Ash was staring at the doll in her arms, and introduced: “This is Mr. Fish, my good friend. Mr. Fish, this is my employer, Ash Heath. .”

In Rose’s arms is a huge golden eyeball doll. The golden eyeball is wrapped around eight white wings, and the white wings are covered with eyeballs.

Yaxiu hesitated to speak, but finally felt that he should not express his opinion: “Hello, Mr. Yu.”

Rose put Mr. Fish aside, walked behind Ash with a sullen face, stretched out ten slender fingers and gently pressed the back of Ash's head. It's like a pianist touching a Steinway, a chef touching Lala Fat, Yaxiu almost felt that his head was made for her fingers, and when she pressed it at will, Yaxiu felt a sore numbness in his head. Extremely comfortable pressing touch.

He smiled wryly: "Go back to sleep, I just can't fall asleep and read the information again, I won't do anything random."

Rose responded ummmmmmmly, not at all thinking of leaving. Yaxiu was helpless and asked, "How do you know that I haven't slept?"

"Intuition," she said. "I'll wake up as soon as you wake up."

"I thought I had a monitor in my room or something..."

"Those can only be used as an aid at best."

"what?"

"You seem very distressed, do you want to talk to me?" Rose immediately changed the subject: "You and your friends seem to be 'unfamiliar with this world' setting. And I happen to be very familiar with this world, I should Can help you—and I'm not giving away your secrets, just other people's secrets to you."

Yaxiu made up his mind to check whether there is a camera in his room as soon as he went back: "I'm not really worried, but... I encounter some things that are beyond my ability and beyond my control, but I have to get a good result. ."

Rose blinked, "...In this world, this kind of situation is usually called distress."

"I don't know if you can understand."

Yaxiu supported her forehead, her face showing a little tiredness: "Although Igula and Harvey didn't show any concern, this time... I really did something bad with good intentions."

"It happened that when we were wanted by Fanxing, I brought them here. Now our bodies are stuck in Fanxing and can't do anything. Maybe we have already fallen into the control of Fanxing authorities at this time, even if the next second suddenly It's not surprising to die suddenly."

"Even if there is no problem in reality, it is not easy to struggle to survive here. The legends of the Five Kingdoms have sneaked in, Vichy is just the tip of the iceberg, and there are unstable factors such as demons and angels... But we are all just Chess pieces, the real chess player is the God Lord outside the starry sky."

"I used to be able to say that I could run away if I couldn't fight, but now I'm trapped here, and I can't escape." Ash's voice gradually became lower: "Although there is still the option of not doing anything and waiting for everything to end, but..."

"If Nia is really an angel..."

"The world view and emotional line of your game are quite complicated." Rose said: "All in all, you are in danger now, and the only way to survive is to win, right?"

"Almost so."

"Then do you have any advantage now?"

"These are the advantages." Ash clapped the notebook on his hand, "His's previous records and accumulations, most of the others are homeless or ordinary people, but I am the only one who is successful in the kingdom of stars. , I can use social status and monetary power to influence the situation."

"This is also the reason why I can't sleep to review at night..." He smiled: "It would be nice if Heath left a guide to clear the level in his notes."

“If that’s the case, aren’t you sure to win?” Rose asked suspiciously: “The other party is a homeless person or an ordinary person, so I’ll just buy a murderer for you, won’t that solve the problem? You don’t even need to hire a murderer. , creating traffic accidents, etc. can achieve the goal, even the National Police Agency will not pay attention.”

The other party is a legendary magician, how could it be possible to buy a murderer and kill—

Ash just wanted to refute, but the words suddenly fell back in his throat.

In the outside world, if you want to deal with the legendary magician, you need at least a few legends of the same class to encircle and suppress, but even this is very likely to be run away by the opponent.

But the stars are different. There are mysterious chains here. If the legendary magician is really attacked by ordinary people, if he dares to perform miracles to avoid danger or even counterattack, the result will be to trigger the mysterious chains and be locked!

It’s not that he really wants to buy murder, but Rose’s words reminded Ash that Heath’s accumulation of the past eight years is by no means useless. Even if the Lord of God created a demon in order to unlock the chains of the legendary magician, whether it is a demon or a legendary magician, after all, it is only an outlier in the kingdom of stars.

The stars are always the stars of mortals!

Suddenly, Ash finally understood why Heath was qualified to be the touch of the Four Pillars of God. Although he was only able to enter the Kingdom of Stars eight years earlier, the eight years alone were enough for Heath to operate the Kingdom of the Stars as his home, and to steal the fruits of the Master of the Stars!

Hiss is the bayonet created by the Four Pillars of God for the Master Fanxing!

He himself is an anti-god Noble Phantasm!

Yaxiu thought for a while, then his body gradually relaxed, “Thank you.”

“It is the assistant’s duty to relieve your worries.” Rose said calmly.

Only then did Ash notice that he was unknowingly leaning against the back of the chair, and the back of his head was lightly pressed against two * of soft bullets. But he didn’t have any charming thoughts. He only felt that the whole person was very relaxed, and all the worries in his heart were swept away.

In fact, even if there are social resources, it is not easy to deal with the legendary magician. After all, the latter is not a fool, and there is a very important question here: how can he make use of his home field advantage?

But the answer to this question is standing behind Ya Xiu.

As Ash Heath’s assistant, Rose can coordinate all his resources and perfectly implement all of Ash’s illegal intentions. If Heath is the bayonet aimed at Master Fanxing, then Rose is the knife cover for maintaining the bayonet.

And it’s amazing that it only took Rose a day to gain Ash’s trust, and even the suspicious fraudster thought she was a ‘tool to use’.

Ash didn’t even have to adapt to the new world. He found Harvey and Igula shortly after entering the stars, met Nia the ‘dead maniac’ in half a day, and brought a maid back in the evening, among which Rose played a role. The role of Jue Gong to great.

Without Rose, it would have taken a lot of time for Axiu to be autistic.

Yaxiu never thought that he would actually trust someone who he had just known for less than a day. You must know that this kind of psychological counseling is basically Igula’s responsibility, and even the sword girl may not be qualified – he doesn’t want to be in front of the person he likes. Expose your weak side.

“Although you are my assistant, is there a reason why you and Heath were childhood sweethearts when you take care of me so much?”

Rose was noncommittal: "Maybe."

Ash asked, "Heath was kind to you when you were young, so do you want to repay him when you grow up?"

"No, I usually protected him when I was young." Rose gently rubbed Ash's head: "I'm three years older than him."

"Until he suddenly said that he was 'from the Blood Moon', he was a very unlucky child. He was beaten on the street, hit by a car when he went out, and the lid of the funeral coffin would suddenly slide towards him when passing by."

"Compared to when I was a child, being your assistant is actually not that hard."

Ya Xiu suddenly realized: "So, do you think that I am your family and you are my sister, so you take care of me like this?"

"No, no." Rose shook her head: "We have a pure money relationship, very clean, nothing like that."

Ash was a little confused, but Rose was relieved to say that. If Rose really regarded him as family, he didn't know how to get along with her – he was neither the real Heath, nor would he stay here for long, and Rose was just a projection of reality.

Thinking of this, Ash raised his head and looked at Rose, "You haven't dyed your hair or plastic surgery, have you?"

"no, what happened?"

"It's nothing, I'm just surprised that I don't know you in another world." Yaxiu thought that the role-playing setting was so convenient. He spoke: "I used to think that the relationship between the star kingdom is a projection of reality, but Your relationship with me is enough to disprove my guess, I don't take care of my sister like you do."

“I’m not your sister, we’re just working,” Rose corrected.

“Mmmmmmm.”

“He is a touch for the stars, and I am a companion for him.”

Daedalus smiled and said to Yan Yan, “Many years ago, we have already formed an eternal bond under the Four Pillars, and our fates are entangled with each other like a spiral.”

“Now, please get out of the way. Whether it is him or his companions, the Four Pillars of God will take good care of him.”

Facing the idol she had admired since childhood, Sonia narrowed her eyes slightly, and softly spit out a word from her moist and lovely cherry lips:

call.

There was a sudden wind in the room, and the turbulent fluctuations of mana tore apart the calm atmosphere. Felix stood by the door and shivered.

On one side is the sword girl with red hair and single ponytail, and on the other side is the singer with dark blue and long hair. Starlight seems to be divided into two camps for them, and the invisible murderous intent makes the glass windows begin to tremble.

Felix thought to himself that the house could not escape the fate of being demolished, but the problem is, the trophy of your battle is the man on the bed!

She wanted to film this scene, and then send it to the Claw Club and the Bite You Support Club, to let fans know that these two most praised independent women in the starry country are actually robbing a mediocre man!

Really, is this man made of gold, as for that? Thinking like this, Felix glanced at Yaxiu on the bed. At this time, Yaxiu was still wearing her clothes, and what was even worse was that he was actually a little more handsome than her...

"I can give you everything you want." Daedalus said quietly: "Fame, resources, social status, and the ritual of breaking away from the blessings of the stars. As long as you want, I can make you a marquis right now, and there is no any The stars are bound, but the benefits of the blessings of the stars are not much at all."

"Of course, if you are interested, I can also make you a national actress. Although I can't reach my height, I can take the initiative to stop acting and make room for your development. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com"

"You should also know that Yaxiu is the legendary magician who was searched in the Throne Hall. Being with him will only cause you endless trouble, but if you hand him over to me, not only will he be safe and sound, but you will also gain unlimited benefits." Da Rose's voice became softer and softer, looking at Jian Ji with sincerity: "If you really like Yaxiu, then you should think more about him."

"There is a love called letting go."

"Furthermore, it is impossible for the Four Pillars of God to control him. If he wakes up and wants to find you, can we still stop a legendary magician? Is it for a better reunion, or do you think your relationship is the only one? So vulnerable?"

The village girl quietly stared at the first beauty under the stars, and suddenly smiled: "As expected of the idol I admire the most."

“I’m tempted by profit, I know it by reason, moved by emotion, and excited by faith. I was really shaken for a moment.”

“But do you know that I am a village girl from a remote village and town, and I have always been a short-sighted petty citizen.”

Daedalus’ smile gradually faded: “So?”

“So we will hold on to the happiness in our hands.” The sword saint stretched his claws with blood in his eyes, and said word by word: “No one can take him away from me, not even death. We can’t be separated.”

“I’ve made my choice, now it’s your turn.” Sonia’s left hand gently put on the hilt of the sword, “Kill me, or be killed by me.”

Felix’s legs were weak, and he turned his head to look at the corridor, thinking that he would flee the battlefield as soon as he started.

“Sonia Servey, you left me with no choice.” Daedalus said calmly, “but the four-pillar oracle must be executed, and I can only...”

“...I invite you to join the Four Pillars of God.”

Chapter 802: The new boss of 4 Pillars of the Stars

“Don’t be too busy to refuse.”

Daedalus voluntarily gave in and walked to the other side of the bed. Sonia immediately half sat on the bed and hugged Ash tightly in her arms.

Felix made a secret snort, quite disdainful in his heart. The village girl’s action is simply to be wary that the number one beauty under the stars will break the window and run away, but how could Miss Lena—

“Tsk.”

Hearing Dedalose’s resentment that her plan was revealed, Felix was about to kneel—you should be more reserved!

“You still don’t know why Ash and the others fell into a virtual state and couldn’t return?” Daedalus said: “This is accidental and inevitable. As a spectator of the end, Ash’s mission is to participate in this Four Pillars of Gods. The long-awaited game.”

“He has left the Four Pillars Religion.” Sonia said coldly: “And he has been harmed by your Four Pillars Religion many times.”

“The sense of touch cannot be separated from the Four Pillars,” Daedalus laughed. “Have you heard that the eyes escape from the body, the blood escapes from the blood vessels, the direction deviates from the arrow, and death betrays life?”

“First of all, let me ask you a question. Do you know that the starry sky above us is fake?”

Seeing that the village girl was silent, the first beauty under the stars was a little surprised:

“You actually know something... It’s amazing. People living in a starry country, without the guidance of the Four Pillars of God, will have a hard time accepting that they live under a false starry sky.”

“I knew in the Time Continent that the concept of the stars was destroyed once,” Sonia said. “Then when I returned to reality, I found that the stars were broken... The white tower to stabilize the starry sky is still standing there.”

“Since then, I have known that the starry sky is a mirage shaped by miracles.”

“In this case, I don’t need to waste too many words to reshape your three views.” Daedalus said: “First of all, our starry sky is the sky that Dharma Master Fanxing stole from hell, and the entire country of stars is in the sky. Underneath, no one has really seen the outside world.”

“As for the stars in the sky, they are both fake and real. They are fake because they are not real stars, but the result of miraculous disguise; they are real because they are real, not empty. one thing.”

“But when it comes to this, we have to introduce the second concept.” Dedalus said seriously: “The sky of hell, the main body is a channel that connects to each other.”

“After being refined by Dharma Master Fanxing, the sky curtain forms a mirror that reflects each other. He uses one sky curtain as the cage of the starry kingdom, and presses the other sky curtain inside the Ruby Mountain.”

“After a complex mirroring miracle, there will be projections of starry creatures inside Ruby Mountain, and these projections even form a new kingdom. In order to distinguish it from the stars, we call it the kingdom of stars.”

“The kingdom of stars, like the kingdom of stars, has a starry sky with stars shining brightly.”

Sonia gradually came back to it, turned her head and glanced at the starry sky outside the window, “Could it be...”

“That’s right,” Dedalus said in a very romantic way: “If Ash was looking up at the stars now, you might be looking at him right now.”

“The starry sky of the stars is the stars, and the starry sky of the stars is the stars.”

Tianmu Unicom, mutual stars!

Even though she has seen many big scenes, Sonia can’t help but be shocked by the generosity of Master Fanxing. Using two hells, digging a ruby mountain, and even using a real country as a material, it took thousands of years to achieve such a miracle!

The village girl's heart sank, she knew that the Master Fanxing must have done a lot of effort. Although Yaxiu is now a legendary magician, but stepping into the vortex of the God Lord, I am afraid it will be difficult to escape.

At this time, Sonia's miracle bracelet suddenly vibrated. She looked down and saw that it was Lois who sent the audio call.

"Well, it's me."

"...Nothing happened last night."

"Yes, although I didn't come back all night, but..."

While Sonia was focusing on the call, Felix saw Dedalus quietly crawling onto the bed, inch by inch approaching Ash in Sonia's arms.

When Dedalus almost grabbed Ash's arm, Sonia ended the call, and the first beauty under the starry sky immediately returned to her place, as if nothing had happened.

touch seat... can you pay attention to your image in my mind...

Sonia asked: "So, after Ash and the others entered the Ruby Mountain, they were pulled into the kingdom of the stars, so they couldn't exit?"

"That's right." Daedalus affirmed: "Now that the Ruby Mountain has been blocked, the legendary magicians of other countries cannot log in to the virtual realm except the starry kingdom; and the legendary magicians of the stars will be pulled once they log in to the virtual realm. Once you enter the kingdom of stars, you cannot leave."

The swordsman who stretched his claws and claws suddenly realized: "No wonder the legendary magician who was encircled and suppressed last night was sitting still – he entered the kingdom of stars and could not escape!"

“There is also Decree No. 51. No wonder the only way to kill outsiders is to kill without mercy. Obviously, Fanxing Kingdom’s attitude towards outsiders was not so decisive before.”

“These are the arrangements of the Master of the Stars.” Dedalus said: “Only astralists can enter the Ruby Mountain, but outsiders entering the Ruby Mountain in the stars will risk being hunted by the Throne Hall, and the hunter is also the prey. All kinds of arrangements are for Master Fanxing to completely control Ruby Mountain.”

“The sky is connected, the millennium plan, everything is to block this moment of Ruby Mountain, because it symbolizes that the Master of the Stars has finally fulfilled his long-cherished wish – to lock the angels in the cage of the stars.”

“Angel...”

Sonia was a little confused: “The angel sitting on the top of Ruby Mountain?”

“That’s right, it is it.” Daedalus nodded: “I don’t know what it is, nor can I explain its meaning. You just need to know that all the gods and the four-pillar gods are desperate for its death. .”

“The spectator of the end and I are both the senses used by the Four Pillars of God to invade the kingdom of the stars, with only one goal – the hunting angel.”

Sonia frowned slightly: “Those legends that invaded the stars...”

“They are all hunters sent by other gods.” Dedalus said: “It is impossible for the throne room to catch all the invaders. There are always legends from other countries who enter the kingdom of stars to participate in this hunt. No matter who killed the angel in advance , will bring infinite benefits to the God Lord behind the scenes.”

Seeing the changing expression on the village girl’s face, the first beauty under the starry sky smiled slightly: “So you know where the real battlefield is?”

“If you want to go in and help Ash, then you can’t protect him in reality; if you want to protect him in reality, you can only let him accompany death in the kingdom of stars.”

“But as long as you hand him over to our protection—”

“roll.”

Looking at Sonia, who was incapacitated, Deedalus was also a little discouraged: “I haven’t heard that the spectator of the end has the effect of a love potion, why are you fascinated by him?”

Felix nodded, and she wanted to ask for a long time.

“Maybe it’s because you want it too.” Sonia said casually: “What even Deedalus wants is too attractive to me.”

“By the way, let’s add a friend first.” Deedalus nodded on her wristband, showing a picture of a cat being bitten by another cat in the air, “Don’t forget it later.”

Sonia has nothing to do, so she operates the miracle bracelet and clicks on the friend interface—

Whoa!

With the electric light flint rabbit rising and falling, which even Felix couldn’t see clearly, the first beauty under the starry sky threw himself on the bed, but the sword saint with claws and claws had already retreated to the window with the cult leader in his arms.

Obviously, if Deedalus were to launch an attack, Sonia would not hesitate to run away with Ash.

After looking at each other for three seconds, Deedalus returned to her place, and Sonia also carried Ash back to the bed, as if nothing had happened.

“But it’s not that you can’t help Ash.” Didalus continued, looking as usual, “Since Ash is trapped in the sky, just tear the sky to shreds.”

“Tear apart the sky?” Sonia was startled.

“Our canopy and the canopy of the stars reflect each other. The advantage is that the stars can be projected onto the stars. You can’t trap Ash.”

“That is to say, as long as we break the false starry sky above our heads,” Dedalus said seriously, “you can save Ashit.”

“Here, I extend my sincerest invitation to you, Sonia Servey.”

“Join the Four Pillars of God and smash the stars together.”

Sonia was silent for a long time, and did not bother with the details, but only asked the most crucial point: “You are the leader of the Four Pillars of the Stars. If I join the Four Pillars of God, wouldn’t I be under your control? You will send me there when the time comes. Performing a mission and forcibly separating me from Ash, can’t you do whatever you want with him?”

“Do not.”

Dedalus shook her head: “I am no longer the leader of the Four Pillars of the Stars.”

“Who is that?”

Sonia was stunned, and then looked at Felix who was equally shocked—

“Of course it’s the man in your arms.” Daedalus said angrily: “The four-pillar oracle is to welcome the return of the ‘Looker of the End’, which means that Ash Heath will become the leader of the four-pillar of stars!”

Sonia frowned: “Isn’t this still the same as you control the Four Pillars of God? How could Ashe command the Four Pillars of God in this state?”

The first beauty under the starry sky was about to speak, when she suddenly stared at the village girl, with an expression of sudden realization: “So that’s what the Four Pillars of God meant...”

“That’s right, “The Watcher of the End” Ashe can’t issue orders now, so... whoever owns Ashe is the leader of the Four Pillars of Stars. ”

Felix’s eyes gradually widened, and his jaw was about to fall in shock.

Under her gaze, Daedalus, the “Singer of Chaos”, reluctantly knelt on one knee beside the bed, facing the sword girl who embraced the moving natural disaster, and asked helplessly:

“Sonia Servey, are you willing to be the leader of the Four Pillars?”

Chapter 803: The final watcher returns

How can I be the leader of the Four Pillars?

Just rely on me to hold Yaxiu to command the Four Pillars of God?

Sonia felt quite absurd for a while, and strongly suspected that this was an excuse for Dedalus to coax her to shelve the dispute and hand over to Ashe for joint development.

Taking a ten thousand steps back, even if it is true, why should the members of the Four Pillars Sect listen to her?

Daedalus also seemed to have heard the doubts in the heart of the Sword Saint, and laughed softly: "The highest position of the Four Pillars of God has always been in the hands of the Four Pillars of God. It's the 'touch of the Four Pillars'. We're infinitely close to power, but not really having it."

"The Four Pillars have decreed that the leadership of the Stars and Four Pillars will be handed over to the Watcher of the End. Whether he is awake or not, my chaotic songstress, Daedalus, has lost her leadership."

The village girl looked at her coldly: "Do you think I don't know the difference between 'status' and 'power'? It can be seen from Felix that even if you really lose your position, power is still firmly in your hands. in hand."

"The premise is that the spectator of the end does not return to his place."

The first beauty under the starry sky smiled and said: "Once Axiu takes over the Four Pillars, his will is the main line of the Four Pillars, and his orders are the fate of the Four Pillars. The power is reshuffled, if he wants, he will I can only do so when I'm transferred to be his personal assistant."

"Don't even think about it." Juggernaut with claws and claws bared his teeth like a kitten's fur.

"He's really asleep right now," Diva said, "but he's made a decision before that. Seats are allotted before the competition."

Daedalus spread her hands: "I know you still have doubts, but if you let me complete the homing ceremony of the End Viewer, you will understand that you can indeed take over the authority of the leader in his place."

Sonia's expression changed, but she didn't immediately refuse, but asked calmly, "What is the homing ceremony?"

"You don't need to take him away from you, just let me touch him." Daedalus said, "He's been away from the Four Pillars for too long, and the great map of fate has lost his thread, the Four Pillars. The picture scroll of the world that God is watching is lacking his color."

Jian Ji's eyes sharpened: "The Four Pillars want to dominate him again!?"

"It's a return." Daedalus' voice gradually became lighter: "I repeat – the sense of touch cannot be separated from the Four Pillars. From beginning to end, his fate is under the gaze of the Four Pillars."

"Impossible, he has been the enemy of the Four Pillars of God twice in the Gospel Kingdom and the Senluo Kingdom."

"How do you know it's not the arrangement of the Four Pillars of God?"

"You are nothing but sophistry of infinite nesting dolls."

Sonia held Yaxiu in one hand and held down the hilt of the sword with the other: "Now the fact is that the Four Pillars God has to send you to take Yaxiu back! He is no longer a sense of touch, let alone your final watcher, he is... Ash Heath!"

"There's nothing to talk about, I'm tired of listening to your rhetoric. Whether it's the throne room or the Four Pillars Religion, you can't get your hands on Yaxiu." The sword saint with his claws stepped back to the window step by step, "I'm very happy today. To meet Miss Deedalus late, then... farewell."

Deedalus tilted her head: "Do you want to take him away just like that?"

"The worst result is just to kill Gales." Sonia said calmly: "I have already realized it."

The first beauty under the starry sky sighed and walked to Felix: "It seems that I can't take back our sense of touch from your hands."

"Looks like I can only..."

She smiled sweetly: "Take a good look at you."

What?

Sonia just wanted to break through the window to escape, but found that her body was stiff and completely unable to move, and even the magic and magic were instantly sluggish!

Out of the corner of her eye, she saw Deedalus staring at her—the most beautiful woman under the stars took off the white silk glove on her left hand at some point, revealing a hole in her palm. Her dazzling eyes were staring at Jian Ji through the strange round hole in her palm.

Stunning eyes!

Sonia had been stared at once by Felix's astonishing eyes before, but she was too indefensible and too efficient, and she couldn't prevent it at all! It's only the second time now that Sonia feels the details that she didn't notice before—

Her flesh and blood, her magic power, her soul, and her magic spirit were actually immobilized because of fear!

The amazing eyes seemed to be just Deedalus' eyes, but her eyes were distorted, disassembled, reshaped, and re-constructed after being blessed by the round hole in the palm of her hand, as if... as if it was some kind of ignorance and nowhere. The gigantic thing that was not there, was watching Sonia with the help of Deedalus' eyes!

Although there is no evidence, Sonia believes her intuition very much: the stunning eyes are actually the vision of the Four Pillars!

But even if it is the sight of the Four Pillars of God, it is impossible to directly kill a legendary magician!

With Sonia's violent resistance, her flesh stopped shaking, her magic power returned to calm, her soul gradually calmed down, and her magic spirit realized that she was not in danger, and it only took a second for her to regain her body. dominance—

“The final watcher is mine.”

While watching Dedalus, she walked to Sonia lightly, Xinxin stretched out her hand, and took the medicine to take Asher away.

At the moment when her finger touched Yaxiu, the long-buried far-off ritual was quietly activated, the curtain of origin fell, thousands of worlds shattered, and all colors returned to nothingness. This bedroom seemed to be the only loophole in reality. In endless darkness.

In a trance, Sonia, Daedalus, and Felix found that they and Ash had stripped all their clothes and were naked in the dark ocean.

There was no panic, no confusion, they quietly floated in the darkness, watching the graceful threads of countless colors stretched out around them, like conscious tentacles wrapped around the comatose final viewer.

When Yaxiu was about to be re-woven with colored silk threads, several phantoms suddenly appeared on his body, taking the initiative to bear the coverage of silk threads instead of Yaxiu.

The first to be woven was a man in a trench coat.

The second woven is a woman with blood-red eyes.

The third one to be woven was a woman with turbid hair.

The fourth woven is a woman with bright silver.

The fifth knitted is a maid in a short skirt.

“Is it gone? That’s it?”

“It was too early for him, but it was just right for us.”

“Thanks to the Four Pillars of God without saying a word, I can finally come out and breathe.”

“Won’t it arouse their suspicion?”

“The probability that they will find something wrong is as high as the probability that Vichy can break the chains.”

“Why do you have to use that chain? Instead of wasting time letting them run in, it’s better for me to replace Vichy directly. I promise that I will be extremely obedient and cooperate in guiding Ashe’s actions—”

“Because if there is not only one chain, I would like to get one for you. A wolf like you who has been hungry for too long will never be able to fill his stomach.”

The three of Sonia stared blankly at the repatriation ceremony that ran away halfway. They had neither the will nor the ability to remember, so they could only wait for the ceremony to end.

It wasn’t until the shock like cold water hit their faces that they found themselves lying on the floor. Yaxiu didn’t know when he had returned to bed, and the bedroom was so quiet that only the stars wandered, as if nothing had happened.

But the chaotic feeling that the whole body seemed to have just been salvaged from the water, as well as the extremely blunt memory deprivation, all proved that they had experienced a dark and mysterious ceremony.

“You... how dare you...”

The enraged Jian Ji’s eyes flashed fiercely, and UU reading www.uukanshu.com surging magic power set off a gust of wind.

She clenched her teeth and clenched the hilt of the sword. There was no doubt that she would cut her idol and classmates into dozens of pieces in the next second.

But at this time, Deda Rose didn't feel nervous. She ducked down on the carpet, looking at the back of her hand and sighed softly, "I lost."

The first beauty under the stars raised her head: "Look at the back of your dominant hand."

Sonia frowned slightly, looked down and found a red mark that she had never seen before on the back of her right hand.

The main body of the imprint is made up of two swords crossed, and in the middle is a crown inlaid with five gems.

Chapter 804: "Queen" Death Crazy Sword Princess

"This is the seal."

Daedalus showed the back of her right hand. The back of her hand also had a mark whose main body was surrounded by a star ring, with a crown inlaid with four gems in the middle.

"Although he can't speak, but according to the fetters he holds, the power he has will be distributed to the people he values through the seal. Five gems represent the "queen" who shares power, the "prime minister" who is in charge of governance, and the five gems. Refer to "advisors" for advice, "agents" for carrying out tasks, and "messengers" for delivering orders. "

Daedalus looked at the back of Sonia's hand: "You are the supreme 'queen', and I am the lower 'prime minister'. We are all in the power chain of the Doomsday Viewer, and you should feel your suppression of me, Queen. "

It does.

Unbelievable, but Sonia did feel as if she was above Daedalus in status. The raid by Felix and Daedalus just now also made her extremely angry. As soon as she thought about it, Felix knelt on the ground with a snap.

Miss Fusloda felt very aggrieved. She never knelt down when she grew up, thinking that she might as well fight Jian Ji directly.

But when she looked up, she saw Daedalus also kneeling on the ground. Just different from her, the chaotic singer looked at Sonia with tears in her eyes, her face full of regret and sincerity.

"I'm sorry, Queen, it's Daedalus who has no vision. I didn't know that you are the lover's favorite, most valued, and most wanting to spend a lifetime partner." Daedalus knelt down and moved in front of Sonia, holding Jian Ji in her arms. His thighs begged for forgiveness: "From now on, I will work hard for the queen's happiness, and never let outsiders get close to the final viewer. There will always be only the two of you in the secret garden."

Small speakers!

Although Sonia really wanted to be angry, she looked at Daedalus pitifully bowing her head and apologizing, a gesture of surrender like I was wrong, I lost, Sonia is the best in the world, and she said so many nice words, She really can't get angry!

Damn, as expected of the woman who is best at acting, she is so good!

The village girl forcibly suppressed the joy in her heart and shouted coldly: "But what's the use? Yaxiu... he was controlled by the Four Pillars God again!"

"No." Daedalus shook her head: "If Ash is really controlled by the Four Pillars, then the queen... ahem, then he will definitely give me the queen's position by accident, because he and I are indeed the Four Pillars. entangled companions of fate."

"I don't know if he was influenced by the Four Pillars of God, but since he still gave you the queen's position, it means that you are still the most important person in his heart, so important that he is willing to analyze his authority, life and everything with you. "

"You still don't know if death can separate you, but at least the Four Pillars can't separate you."

Speaking of which, Deda Rose's eyes sparkled with adoration: "It's amazing, even the gods don't dare to act like this in a movie, you will definitely become the hero of countless people in the future. The enviable model couple!"

These remarks almost touched the heart of the sword saint who stretched her claws and claws. She was comfortable, sweet, and a little shy in her heart, and even felt that her trust had not been thrown away – Yaxiu and I are personally certified by the Four Pillars God, the witch Diya You are lost!

"In order to rescue Ash, and to better use his power..." Daedalus asked, "You must be willing to take charge of the Four Pillars of God, Queen, and advance our plan to destroy the starry sky, right?"

She paused, "If you give up, then I, as the "prime minister", can only be the acting leader—"

"In order to save Yaxiu from the kingdom of stars, it is my duty."

Sonia said decisively: "I am willing to become the new leader of the Four Pillars!"

Before, Sonia was reluctant to join the Four Pillars Religion. First, she was afraid that Yaxiu would become the ban of the Four Pillars again. Second, she was afraid that she would not be able to control the Four Pillars Religion. Third, she was afraid of being coaxed by Daedalus.

Now that the boat is done, Ash has completed the homing ceremony, but since his position in his heart has not changed, it means that at least he is still saved; the "queen" Lingyin can make her perfectly control the power, and there is no need to be afraid of being overtaken by Daedalus.

Conversely, if you refuse to cooperate, not only will it be difficult to protect Ash, but the Four Pillars of God will fall into the hands of Daedalus—that is Ash's thing, which is mine, how can I let it go!

Sonia was a decisive person. She had made up her mind to betray her country before. Now, the trivial matter of becoming the female leader of a cult organization is naturally not worth mentioning.

Daedalus kissed the back of Sonia's hand: "The Chaos Diva meets the new leader."

Felix stared blankly at this scene, and in the end he could only bow his head helplessly and say, "Duke Eude meets the new leader."

Not long ago, Felix was thinking about how to abduct Sonia into the Four Pillars Sect, and even prepared a new set of persuasive speeches. But in a blink of an eye, Sonia actually became the leader of the Four Pillars?

Is it better to start teaching early than to start teaching late, and it is better not to start teaching late?

This historical process and personal efforts are really unpredictable...

But... Felix looked down at the two-star hat mark on the back of his hand, thinking that Yaxiu is really strange, and he actually gave the seal of "agent" to someone he didn't know. Does he trust me?

"But I still have a question." Sonia sat beside the bed and asked, "Even without Ash, you would have planned to break the starry sky, right?"

Daedalus nodded: "Smashing the sky has always been the core thread of the Four Pillars of Stars."

"But you just said that the starry sky is the key to imprisoning the angels. The four pillar gods yearn for the death of the angels, but breaking the starry sky will cause the starry sky to collapse..." The village girl frowned: "Isn't this inconsistent? Die, but shattering the canopy will free the angel..."

Daedalus didn't answer right away, she lowered her eyebrows and asked, "Queen, can Felix and I get up?"

"Can."

Instead of sitting on the edge of the bed like Sonia, Dedalus moved a soft chair to sit opposite Sonia, and Sonia could just block between her and Ash. This gesture made Sonia very satisfied, let alone anger, she even began to like the chaotic singer again.

“The appeal of the Four Pillars of God is different from that of the Lord of God.”

Daedalus explained: “Other gods not only want to kill the angel, but also want to take the angel’s personality. The Four Pillars just want the angel to die.”

“That...”

“However, the Four Pillars God does not want the angel to die in the cage of the stars.”

The first beauty under the starry sky said seriously: “The angel who died in the cage and the angel who died in the virtual world will have completely different effects.”

“The death of an angel will surely lead to the arrival of a great era, but death in a cage will limit the influence of the death of an angel, and the great era will be delayed by a hundred or even thousand years. Taking advantage of this time difference, the gods will take the lead. Development, without leaving the slightest opportunity for latecomers.”

“But dying in the virtual realm can become the fuse of the great era, and the entire virtual realm will be blocked. The gods can no longer suppress the development of magicians, all kinds of frost and heaven are free, and everything will be reshuffled, and the latecomers also have the opportunity to fulfill the position of the Lord of God.”

“Even if we smash the sky, Dharma Master Fanxing and other gods will never miss this opportunity. They will kill angels at all costs, but angels can fall into the virtual realm, thwarting the conspiracy of gods to suppress the great era.”

Sonia raised her eyebrows: “The Four Pillars God is so great, it benefits all the magicians and fights against the God Lord who closed the door after getting in the car?”

“Your prejudice against the Four Pillars Sect is too deep, Chief.” Daedalus shook her head: “Although you may not believe it, the Four Pillars Sect is indeed the organization that most hopes for the development and growth of the civilization of magicians.”

“The more brilliant the artisan civilization is, the more powerful the Four Pillars are.”

“Let’s take it as it is.” The Sword Saint stretched out his claws and claws noncommittally. He lowered his head and caressed Axiu’s cheek with the back of his hand. “But in any case, at least you all sincerely want to smash the sky.”

“Yes.”

“I don’t care if the angels escape, but as long as Ash can escape.” Sonia looked at Daedalus: “I am in charge of the Four Pillars, and I will shatter the sky at all costs, even if I sacrifice you all. Never hesitate.”

“This is exactly what we need.” Daedalus smiled. “You are a qualified queen.”

Speaking of this, Sonia couldn’t help being a little shy: “Don’t call me the queen, he’s not the king... I’m not his queen yet.”

“There are usually pronouns within the Four Pillars Sect. For example, I’m the chaotic songstress, and little Feili is the Duke of Virtue.” Daedalus suggested with interest: “What pronoun are you going to use? Sword princess?”

“But doesn’t Jian Ji directly remind people of me?”

“You may not know that your Professor Trozan was also known as the “Sword Girl in Black” ten years ago. UU reading www.uukanshu.com” Chaos Song Ji laughed: “Every outstanding female swordsman will have the title of sword princess, you are just one of them. ”

“Also, there are members in the organization who have the nickname “Sword Princess”. Of course, if you want this exclusive title for the leader, you can ask her to change her name. ”

“No need.” Sonia said, “I just use my nickname...”

She paused, recalling what Ash had originally called herself.

“Death Crazy Sword Princess.” Sonia said seriously: “My name in the Four Pillars Sect is called Death Crazy Sword Princess.”

Chapter 805: Crazy Ash

I am still an ordinary little red fox so far, but what will become in the near future... No one can predict, of course, it will not be the “fox spirit” that humans think, we can’t become “fine”. Human beings have always had prejudice against the fox clan. Insidious, cunning, suspicious, flamboyant, etc., as long as they are derogatory words, they will be given to us without hesitation. This is unfair. As for me, I didn’t come to rehabilitate the fox clan, and I’m not that great. I still feel puzzled about why I was chosen as the “spirit fox”! What is a “spirit fox”? Well, before the mission starts, it is necessary to explain clearly what “spirit” is. This word is very important and will be used throughout the whole story.

Since the birth of human beings, everyone’s spirit has been closely related to the spirits of other creatures on earth. What is the connection? match each other. In layman’s terms, a complete spirit is divided into two parts, one half is in the human and the other is in the corresponding creature. This is not based on human preferences. Maybe the other half of a person’s spirit is attached to the cockroach he hates the most. On the body.

What’s even more amazing is that the probability of encounter between humans and creatures with matching spirits is absolutely zero! This is strange, why not let the two meet? It is very simple, once they meet, the spirits will merge to produce a new species, and human beings will have the ability of corresponding creatures and activate their own hidden genetic code, thus evolving into mutants, that is, special functional humans or superhumans recognized by modern humans; Corresponding creatures will also undergo qualitative leaps, but it is unknown what they will become. This is a great thing for human beings, who doesn’t want to be superman! However, this is only the idea of man, not of the Creator! His old * family made the rules, so the probability is zero. how could I know? This is the meaning of the existence of “Linghu”. What’s the point? Nature is our task. what task? Don’t worry, listen to me slowly.

First of all, we must understand why the Creator wants to prevent this “good thing”?

Only the “secret” of the fusion of spirits and mutation is not only known to the fox clan, but the entire earth’s creatures, except for the arrogant human beings, actually know it. Logically speaking, this is a good way for lower creatures to escape the human “table culture” on an equal footing. There are no written and historical records of animal races on earth. All animals listen to the “legends” handed down orally by their ancestors from generation to generation. There is no credible evidence or practice. The biological world is similar to the human world. For things like “legends”, most of them just listen to them, and they will not be “stupid” to seek truth; even if there are people who want to verify, they will be beaten to death or eaten before they can find their spiritual master, and even more so. The sad thing is that the furs of some animals are not spared by humans, and they are made into their “fashionable” coats... Some classic experiences have even become “warning words” for educating future generations. However, in the long history of the earth, it is also heard that there are people with “special functions”, but where did the animals corresponding to them go, there is no legend or record left... This is a better proof that animals and humans are in harmony The “benefits” don’t exist.

To sum up, even if it were true, pragmatic creatures would not make fun of their short lives to facilitate cruel humans. Therefore, almost all creatures have tacitly reached a consensus: it is not in line with the three views of creatures other than human beings to find people to “come together”! Don’t laugh, we also have three views, but human beings don’t understand it.

Therefore, all species on the earth are the same as they are now: people are people, animals are animals, plants are plants, water is water, qi is qi... In short, according to the laws of the earth, they are proliferating and proliferating endlessly. , the cycle goes on and on, birth, old age, sickness and death...

Some readers may question that the total number of creatures on the earth is much more than that of human beings, and a single ant population is more than all human beings. How to define the matching spirit between creatures and humans? They have different lifespans and physical tonnages... For example, can the spirit of an elephant and the spirit of a ladybug merge with the corresponding human beings?

First of all, spirit is an invisible and tasteless energy substance. It is not distinguished by the size or mass tonnage of the substance. It is determined by a certain law, or it was originally designed by the creator, and we can only accept it.

Furthermore, not all creatures’ spirits can match with human beings, and there is no earth creature that must satisfy the principle of matching with human beings. To put it bluntly, the creator has mixed the principle of “true and false, false and true”. It is estimated that this is also an invisible barrier that restricts creatures from verifying this “legend”.

Even if there is a “barrier”, there must be rules for spiritual matching, right? This is similar to the law of “the strong eat the weak” in the animal world, and follows the principle of “select the strong at the same time”. “Same moment”: It corresponds to all the creatures that were born at the same time; “Selected and strong”: As the name suggests, it is to choose the spirit with the strongest energy among the spirits of all creatures randomly born at the same moment. It is said that creatures with such matching “spirits” will have a certain smell on their bodies that only the same kind can recognize, and will naturally have supreme status and honor in this group, as well as the priority of this group. What is the right of preference? Of course it’s about food, mating, territoriality, election of kin chiefs, and a whole bunch of other things that have to do with animal races. Similar to the “privileged” class in human society. Of course, creatures with this “privilege” don’t know what their mission is, they only think that they are natural selection and will be reincarnated.

What about the other spirits of animals that cannot be matched with humans?

Automatic sleep. If there is no accident, most of them will die together with the deity. What is an “unexpected situation”? It’s the spare tire, don’t worry, let’s talk about the role of the spare tire:

Do you think, what if a creature that can match the human “spirit” dies? After all, on earth, except for a few species such as trees and turtles, most creatures have shorter lifespans than humans. At this time, the “spare tire” with a spirit creature comes in handy. The spirit of the dead creature will automatically look for the young species of the spare tire before its deadline. Why is it young? There is no need to explain it; then it covers the original dormancy in its body. The spirit continues to attach to the living body of the same kind in its place, until the spirit of the matching human dies. Of course, the new host will also “inexplicably” become the “leader” of the group. What is “covering”, it actually means extermination.

On the contrary, will the human spirit die first? This is easy, and the spirit of the corresponding matching creature will die after the host is dead.

Can creatures of different races with matching spirits be distinguishable from each other? It’s unknown, but I don’t think it should be. For example: a hungry civet cat catches a spirit mouse. In order to fill its stomach, it will not mercifully let go of the spirit mouse. This is the survival instinct given by the creator to every creature, and it is above the matching spirit.

Can plants also match the human spirit? I am very sure of that. What I have always emphasized is “creature”, and nature also includes plants.

What is the difference between plant spirits and animal spirits? Plant spirits are connected to the earth, so they can only stay still, and the spirits stay quietly in their roots, and the root is not dead, and the spirits of plants are said to be not dormant, but “awake”. False, but judging from the relatively gentle and submissive nature of herbivores, it should be true. However, I do not mean to encourage everyone to be vegetarian. Human vegetarians are still fundamentally different from herbivores. Most of what he (she) eats is cooked food, and the cooked plants will lose their spirituality. Of course, I don't encourage everyone to eat raw plants, so please do your own research.

Whether the vegetarian's spirit is related to the plant spirit or not, I don't know. Who knows what the creator and his old * family thought, and besides, this story is not about matching spirits.

Long-winded, what's so special about the "spirit" of the fox clan? Yes, that's the key!

Chapter 806: Insider Operations

There is no special encounter between the two. Fili met assistant Demir on the first day of college, and she began to like this young man with the same hair color as herself.

With his modesty, his excellence, his brilliance, his gentleness and kindness, it's not that Fili has never met an outstanding peer, but no one can give her a strange attraction like Demir.

However, there are many people who like Demir. On the first day of college, Fili heard more than five people who want to pursue Demir, and not only women. But she was so nervous in front of Demir, stuttering and speaking in a low voice, even if Demir would listen to her gently, she still felt ashamed, and usually did not dare to touch Demir. god.

At this time, Phili suddenly remembered something and asked, "Senior Demir won the award?"

"should be."

Sister Lia replied: "I saw that the award-winning project of our school is "New Carbon Allotrope Single Crystal" announced on the Internet. This is a project that Demir and his team have been studying for a long time, and there is no one else except him. Even if it is placed in the total list of winners of the University Cup, this is the most valuable project."

Fili nodded as if she understood. The University Cup is a competition organized by the Jia World University Alliance. The most praiseworthy thing is that it is rich in prize money and attracts attention from all walks of life. Except for particularly niche fields, most projects will be heavily invested in and even Commercialization is a shortcut for college students to reach the sky in one step.

Even the Ministry of Education will use the University Cup award-winning index as the educational achievement of higher education institutions. Simply put, the more award-winning universities, the more financial allocations for the next year.

So it's no wonder that the award ceremony of Nebula University is so grand. After all, there are reporters with long guns and short guns watching, and the laboratory building explosion happened two days ago. Isn't it time to rejoice?

Feili also participated in the "Fashion Design Project" of the University Cup, but it was purely focused on participating in mixed credits, and there was no chance of winning.

As the bell rang, the noise of the students gradually subsided, and a professor came to the stage and said loudly: "Leaders, students, teachers, and visitors from all walks of life, good morning everyone. With the successful conclusion of the University Cup, our school It's an honor to be nominated for eight awards..."

"Eight items?"

"Isn't there only seven items?"

Not to mention the students, even the reporters who had already done their drafts were a little confused. The professor continued: "... Among them, seven are regular nominations, and one is a temporary additional special nomination. Because the published projects of our students are too excellent, they have been strongly recognized by the special advisor of the University Cup Committee, in order to recognize the outstanding students of our school. As a result, the committee decided..."

Fili didn't hear it after that. She could speak at least a few minutes in the opening speech. She took this time to go to the bathroom. When she took care of her personal hygiene, she suddenly heard footsteps of leather shoes outside.

and male conversations.

“Did you see his expression?”

“I see, I die of laughter.”

Why is there a man talking in the women’s bathroom? unless...

Fili looked around, and in the “cheating ads” and “disclosure ads” in the corner, she saw a “Sao School Girl Dating Ads”—obviously, the target group of Sao Xuemei dating ads did not include real school girls.

It was the first time she came to the restroom of the auditorium. She didn’t look at the signs outside, but she accidentally went the wrong way...

“It’s like the results of several years of hard work have been robbed. Who told him to be so careless? He really doesn’t care about publishing papers except for experiments.”

“He actually came to the scene. If I were him, I would be autistic, let alone come to the scene to watch others win awards.”

Hey?

Fili pricked up her ears, thinking that she could still eat melon after going to the wrong toilet. Someone’s University Cup winning project was robbed by someone else?

“Deserved, there are many people who don’t like him at school. Do you think he is really popular?”

“But I’m a little surprised. Isn’t his father the director of the hospital? He should also have some social energy. Aren’t Urus and the others afraid...”

“His father disappeared more than a month ago. At that time, it happened to be the awarding stage of the University Cup. I guess Urus and the others just knew this before they dared to do it, otherwise they would be somewhat scruples.”

As the shush sound ceased, the discussion between the two outsiders also faded away.

Feili thought that they didn't wash their hands... No, the person they were discussing was Senior Demir?

But as a candidate for the award, whose father is also the director of the hospital, there should be only Senior Demir.

The senior's father disappeared a month ago? But how could the director of Tangtang Hospital suddenly disappear?

And the project that the senior has been working on for several years is completely robbed by others because he is not careful? The senior clearly knew this, but he still insisted on coming to the awards ceremony and watched others take away his honor?

Fili opened the door while thinking, but at the same time, the toilet next to her also opened.

The blond girl thought it was over. This time, I was afraid that she was not going to be mistaken for a saucy schoolgirl, and she must not meet any murderer. Rumors of a fight in the men's bathroom would definitely haunt me throughout my college years.

When she turned her head, she saw the same bright blonde hair as hers.

But if she could, she would rather see a bald man with a ferocious face.

"Miss Feili?"

Demir was stunned for a moment, then smiled and said, "You went to the wrong bathroom."

"Senior Demir," Feili said blankly, "You...just now..."

“Well, I know.” Demir nodded: “Go out quickly, staying in the men’s bathroom is not good for a lady’s reputation.”

Fili lowered her head and nodded slightly, went over to wash her hands and took out the paper towel to wipe, but before she went out, she stopped again and gathered up her courage to look at him.

“Senior...Are you all right?”

“Thank you for your concern.” Demir smiled slightly: “I’m fine.”

Phili stopped talking, and lowered her head all the way back to her seat.

Senior Sister Lia glanced at her, “Why have you been here for so long? I thought you were taken away by the bad students and drilled into the woods. Now I’m praying that you will have the courage to resist.”

“Senpai, don’t watch that kind of thing.” Fili said gloomily, “But you can continue to pray.”

Soon, as an award-winning student stepped down, the professor at the rostrum said loudly: “The present awarding project is the project “New Carbon Allotrope Single Crystal” that won the University Cup Chemistry Award. Let’s applaud and congratulate the two of you. The winning students – Urus Kamisher and Laskas Valentine!”

There was an uproar in the audience, and many people looked back at Demir who was behind.

As a prominent figure in Nebula University, many people naturally know that the main person in charge of this project is Demir Vosloda.

“Urus and Raskas?” Sister Lia was also startled, and then suddenly realized: “No wonder...”

Phili asked, “What’s no wonder?”

“Urus is the principal’s nephew, and Laskas is the dean’s son, that is, they dare to take away Demir’s project.” Sister Lia said calmly: “Especially Demir’s family has had some troubles recently. ...But even if there is no situation, the temptation of the University Cup is so great, it is estimated that they will take action, anyway, the hospital can’t reach the university.”

“Quiet, quiet.” The professor took the initiative to applaud: “Invite two students to come to the stage to give their acceptance speeches.”

“Whoever makes any more noise will be thrown out.” The dean stood up and shouted sharply, “Remember a major demerit!”

There were a lot of students who knew the details of Urus and Laskas, plus the dean of the school made such a statement, the students quickly quieted down. If you dare to make trouble, you will really be recorded as a major demerit, or even be persuaded to retire.

And the people who are familiar with Demir are always in the minority, even if they are friends of Demir, would they dare to take the risk of finishing their studies and appeal for justice for him? Moreover, the other party is the school leader. Urus and Laskas dare to come to power to show that everything has been arranged. Will their opposition be useful?

“I am very honored to receive this award.” Urus said shamelessly on the stage: “The new carbon isomorphous single crystal is a project that Laskas and I have been studying for a long time...”

The professor next to him suddenly corrected: “It’s a new type of carbon allotrope single crystal.”

“That’s right, it’s almost the same.” Urus continued: “We spend every day in the laboratory, working hard and forgetting meals, but it turns out that sweat and hard work will not be in vain. We can get this award, in addition to talent There is no capital other than effort...”

In the auditorium, few people were willing to listen to Urus’ nonsense. Everyone was quietly watching Demir behind, as if expecting the hero to draw his sword, or expect the madman to roar for revenge... But nothing happened, blond The young man sat quietly in his seat, looking down at his knees, like a mass of burnt ashes.

No one was surprised by this result.

Demir is excellent, has a good family background, and is impeccable in his dealings with others. There is only one shortcoming – he is too soft.

To put it more directly, he was too cowardly. He never fights, doesn't fight, doesn't quarrel or make trouble, like a ball of cotton to be beaten by others, even if someone steps on his face, he will never raise his mind to resist.

Urus and Laskas must know or understand Demir, so they made him their target. There were seven winners this time, and they were going to grab Demir's, obviously they came well prepared.

"...Finally, I would like to thank my family, my classmates, and all the school leaders for their support." Urus said emotionally: "Without you, I would not have won this award—"

"Yeah, without them, how could you grab this award?"

A voice penetrated the auditorium, and everyone was startled. They all looked at the blond young man behind, but they quickly realized their mistake—this voice was obviously a female voice.

The person who spoke was another touch of gold.

The entire auditorium was so silent that even a drop of fat would turn into a loud noise. Everyone looked at Fili who stood up, like a monster.

Leia-senpai stared at Fili blankly and rubbed her eyes.

Feili didn't know why she stood up. She has never been such a brave and decisive person.

But when she heard the two men discussing Demir so viciously, she saw Demir force a forced smile, and watched Urus and Laskas, the two shameless thieves who plundered the achievements of others, showing off their power on the stage, watching Demir Mir was sitting on the stage as humble as dust, and for some reason she felt a huge anger in her heart.

It shouldn't be.

It cannot be so.

It must not be so!

It was clear that Demir didn't have much interaction with her. He said less than ten sentences in two years, and he didn't even change his mobile phone number... But she was willing to help him out!

Urus' face was so dark that he couldn't even cover it with light, the dean stood up and shouted, "I reported the name of a professional student, but I actually made trouble on an important occasion. Do you know what you are doing!?"

"Fashion design major, 680435, Phili Lena!"

Fili replied loudly: "I know what I'm doing, I'm publicly complaining about the insider operation of the University Cup award – there are people who shouldn't be awarded this award!"

"Presumptuous, the University Cup is selected by the committee, which is absolutely fair and just. How could you, a student, question it!"

Professor: "That..."

Demir suddenly stood up and bowed heavily towards Fili, "Thank you very much for Miss Fili's righteous words, but I don't want to implicate you." He turned around and said loudly: "It has nothing to do with Miss Fili, I question the existence of the University Cup selection. The insider is Demir Vosloda, and I am now publicly reporting Urus and Laskas for usurping my research results."

“Kick them out!” The dean shouted loudly, “Let’s go through the formal channels for questioning and complaining, instead of making trouble here! Today’s students really don’t know what to do!”

Professor: “That...”

Sister Lia suddenly stood up: “I also want to report. Urus and Laskas, these two idiots, know * about chemistry. Can they explain the chemical properties of carbon?”

The dean waved his hand suddenly: “Security guard, UU reading www.uukanshu.com will take care of all these troublesome students—”

hum—

A harsh voice penetrated the entire auditorium from the loudspeaker. When everyone stopped talking, the professor on the stage finally said with satisfaction: “Sorry, Professor Ambide, Phili Lena can’t leave.”

The dean was startled: “Why not?”

“Because she will be on stage to accept the award next.”

The professor cleared his throat: “Now the award-winning project is the project “The Myth of the Star and Moon” that won the University Cup Special Costume Award. Let’s congratulate the award-winning student – Philip Lena!”

Leah was stunned.

The dean is stupid.

The whole auditorium fell into an eerie silence—a special costume award?

Of course, the most embarrassing one is Feili. She knows her level, so how could she possibly win the prize just for the entry she just spent three hours rushing to work on?

“In order to recognize Feili’s outstanding works, the special advisor of the University Cup Committee came to honor Feili.” The professor stretched out his hand: “Now we have our presenters—”

“Mr. Ash Heath.”

When Ash appeared on the rostrum and waved to herself with a smile, Fili realized very clearly—

There is indeed an insider operation in the University Cup.

Chapter 807: lure

“Are you sick-”

Although Feili wanted to say this for a long time, she didn’t expect that she would actually speak her heart out in front of Ash.

In the small private room of the school cafeteria of Nebula University, facing the incompetent and furious Fili, Yaxiu turned to look at Rose next to her: “Look, I said that there should be no additional awards, and the clothing award should be awarded directly to her.”

While eating steak, Vichy said, fearing that the world would not be in chaos, “One award is not enough to shock her, so she should be given several more awards. It’s better to break the record for the number of awards won by a single person, and then there are still more awards at the bus stop sign in the newspaper network. A giant banner is pulled up outside the building, and then you make a high-profile announcement that she is the heroine of your next movie, and that's what makes her an instant hit, you're still too conservative."

"That's right, that's right," Ash patted Vichy's pink-haired dog's head: "I didn't expect your mind to be useful other than bad water."

"It was a sinking shot!"

Feili felt like she was going crazy: "Seriously, Mr. Heath, are you playing a variety show to trick me? I didn't offend you, did I?"

"What's the matter?" Ash was puzzled: "Isn't it good, you're famous! And just call me Ash."

"But it's a bad name."

The blonde girl let out a long sigh: "I don't have the level to win an award, and it's an award you added yourself... Everyone must be guessing whether I have a deep family background now!"

Ash suddenly realized and nodded: "I understand, I will solve the problem."

Phili raised her head expectantly: "Will you cancel the award?"

"Ross, find a way to sign Fili for a high-level work, and let her win the award," Yaxiu said earnestly: "Internet public opinion and school forums need to build momentum, and report at a large scale about Fili's hard work and talent. No matter how high it is and the fever is more than 40 degrees, I still study hard, and there can be no murmurs that slander Fili!"

"Okay." Rose nodded.

"That's not what I meant!" Feili became numb, "I don't want to win awards, I don't want to be famous, I just want to graduate quietly and become an ordinary fashion designer."

"I got it." Ash asked Rose, "Is there a clothing brand under my name?"

"Only those who hold shares," Rose replied, "but you can buy them."

"it is good—"

"not good at all!"

Fili patted the table hard, took a deep breath, and looked at the three in front of her.

On the left is Miss Rose, who has dark blue hair and is so beautiful that she can be a star. Even her expressionless face is shameful. I had red hair last night, but now I have pink hair.

The innocent-looking man in casual clothes in the middle is the special advisor of the University Cup Committee, who is even impossible for Nebula University, Ash Heath.

"Don't you like it?" Ash asked, "Prestige, status, honor, whatever you want, I can help you save decades of struggle and get to the end directly."

"It's not that I don't like it, it's just that I, Mr. Heath—"

"It's Ash."

"Ash," Feili lowered her head and looked at her chest, "I don't deserve these. They're not mine, and even if I get them temporarily, I won't really have them."

The room fell into a brief silence, and the blond girl felt a little uneasy and a little scared.

Naturally, he was uneasy because he had rejected the conditions of the famous Yaxiu, and the fear was due to the power that Yaxiu possessed—it was over, wouldn't he let the psychic brainwash him and train himself into a sow who asks for anything? Or let the necromancer turn himself into a corpse, and then slowly use the transformation?

And being rejected by himself, Ash would definitely be embarrassed, right? What if he loses his temper and the school expel me? What if he asks the apartment to evict me? What if he sends someone to arrest me?

Just when Feili's imagination reached the stage of the little black house, A slender sighed deeply.

"I said two days ago that I would give a sincere offer, but now it seems that I have broken my promise." He took a mouthful of Chiyen Lala Fat and said, "You are a smart girl, you can tell at a glance. The conditions I gave were not sincere."

Fili was startled, then shook her head quickly: "No, Ash, you did give good conditions, it's just me—"

"But it's all just vanity." Yaxiu said, "regardless of status, company or honor, you all know that you don't get it by your own strength, and you won't gain a sense of security or feel that way. Self-worth realized. I would have liked to impress you with vanity, but you have the wisdom not to be tempted."

Feili blushed a little: "I'm not that good either..."

"Actually, my situation is very similar to yours. I am also involved in an unpredictable stage, and I am also wrapped in a huge temptation." Ash said: "I am not the real Ash Heath, you can understand that I am a parallel A traveler who has traveled through the world. You may not believe it. A few days ago, I was a wanted criminal wanted by the whole country. I was in a precarious situation and was in danger. I even robbed others of the clothes on my date. "

Feili thought that I didn't believe it either. After all, you have cheaters and necromancers by your side. You can't be a serious person at first glance. I heard Ash speak.

Not to mention Rose, even Fili herself doesn't really believe what Ash said. It sounds too much like someone who is addicted to creation has suddenly gone crazy, or the protagonist of a certain sci-fi movie.

"I feel like I'm dreaming these two days. I'm a highly respected and successful person here, more people ask me to meet for dinner every day than I know, I have many high-powered followers, I The property that can be used can even buy half a lifetime, and countless people admire and respect me."

Yaxiu put his left hand on his cheek and said leisurely, "I could only sleep in the wild a few days ago, but now I can sleep comfortably on the big bed in the villa until I wake up. If I say that I don't miss this identity for a moment, it is Lies. But do you know how I overcome temptation?"

Fili was fascinated: "How do you get a uniform?"

"You don't need a uniform." Yaxiu spread her hands: "I'm here just to live the life of a successful person, but as long as I can go back alive, I can live the life of a king."

"But didn't you just say that you are a wanted criminal!?"

"I am a wanted criminal in one country, but in another country, I am the Queen's closest relative." Ash blinked, "The temptation cannot be subdued, but it can be covered by more advanced temptations."

"That's why I threw Heath's property unscrupulously. After all, I will leave this world sooner or later, so everything in this world is a mirror image to me, not worth nostalgic, and no need to cherish it."

"But it's different for you. For you, the world is real." Yaxiu said seriously: "I'm happy to slowly train you, arrange career planning for you, arrange suitable trial positions for you, and gradually Raising you to be a good, confident, successful woman—that's probably the best I can offer."

"But I don't have that much time, so I can only give you what you want, honor, status, career, love, tell me what can tempt you, as long as Heath can do it, I will not hesitate to give."

Phili was silent for a moment, then asked, "What do you want me to do?"

"Fight for me." Ash said, "May even die because of me."

Fili quietly squeezed the tablecloth: "What is the probability of death?"

"With bad luck, there may be four teams like us, and in the end only one team will survive." Ash said, "So the probability is...80%."

Fili lowered her head, her blonde hair hanging down to cover her face.

Seeing this, Ash sighed in his heart. He didn't understand why Fili was a demon, but the demon obviously didn't affect her character—she was just an ordinary young man after all.

Not a lunatic, with no disability, and no imminent crisis, who would participate in a game with an 80% mortality rate?

Ash would rather that Feili was a death row prisoner, a conspirator, a religious fanatic. Although he didn't want to admit it, he was really good at dealing with scumbags, and he could use any means when necessary. But for an ordinary person like Fili, enticing is already the limit of Yaxiu's bottom line. It's not that he can't do it by coercion, brainwashing, and threats, but he can't do it.

Rose and Vichy next to him have been winking at him. The former suggested something more intense, that is, tying up Fili and slowly training him;

"I promise you."

Feili's answer was beyond the expectations of the three.

She raised her head and said seriously, "As long as you agree to one of my conditions."

"you say."

"I want to find my biological father." Feili said, "That's all."

Yaxiu nodded, he didn't ask any more questions, and motioned Rose to write down: "Anything else? Really, you're welcome, for me, meeting your requirements is the highest priority, I don't want you to fight I fished here because I was treated badly."

"And..." Phili hesitated, "If possible, I hope you can let Senior Demir get the award he deserves."

"Demir Vosloda?"

Ash blinked. He had already noticed this person. After all, he had learned from Jian Ji in the past that there were two Voslodas, one was Felix and the other was Timi. Demir is obviously the projection of Timmy, but Felix's projection seems to have disappeared. Demir is the only child and has no younger brother.

According to Jian Ji, Dimi is a very popular school grass in Fanxing, and it is not surprising that his projection Dimir is admired by many people in the kingdom of stars. However, compared to Di Mi, Di Mi is not confident enough or even too cowardly. If the information on the concentric chains of Hiss is true, then it means that the body Di Mi has taken both confidence and bravery away, so All that was left for Projection Demir was inferiority and weakness.

Just like Niya is so vigilant and manic, it may be because Jian Ji is too comfortable and gentle in reality.

"Do you like Demir?"

Fili's face flushed, and she quickly waved her hand: "I didn't... I just can't see it. They are too much. I want to protect the rights and interests of seniors..."

"You want to protect him?" Vichy, who ate the fifth steak, summed up: "The desire to protect only occurs between pets, partners, and relatives, not among friends, because friends are not 'your' Something'. The synonym for protectiveness is possessiveness, which means there is an unbreakable bond between you and the other person."

For a demigod who lived out the third world, Vichy's casual words were a dimensional blow to Fili, who had just turned 20. The blonde girl blushed so blushed that she bluntly changed the subject: "Axiu, who are we going to kill?"

“There is only one target for now, and she should show signs soon.” Ash said, “That’s why I’m so eager to tempt you—I really don’t have much time.”

“Who?”

“Death mad’ Nia Servey, you may know her, she is—”

“Niya?” Fili was startled: “She... We took the same class, and I copied her notes. Are you going to kill her?”

“Do not.”

Ash slowly shook his head, with soft colors in his eyes: “I want to protect her.”

Chapter 808: 1 date

“But why is the target Nia?”

Feili asked cautiously, “Is it because of her... serial murder?”

“That’s right.” Ash nodded: “In simple terms, we are all looking for an existence called ‘angels’, and angels are characterized by abnormal three views, anti-social, and contempt for life. The murderer is clearly the most suspect.”

Feili raised an objection: “But aren’t some leaders of underworld forces also eligible?”

Chapter 809: Resistance demigod

“Hey, isn’t this the big celebrity of our school, the University Cup winner, Mr. Heath’s intern assistant, the promising Miss Phili!”

Senior Sister Liya pushed open the door and walked into the bedroom. She saw Feili painting eye shadow and asked curiously, “Wait?”

“See a movie.”

Phili picked out a lipstick that would match eyeshadow, and took out pearl earrings from the jewelry box to go with an apricot pencil skirt. Although they are all cheap, the overall look is refreshing and refreshing, which highlights her rosy youth as a college student.

Feili had to admit that Leah was right, she spent ten times more time on women’s clothing than men’s clothing, but she always matched her men’s clothing just right, completely transforming her girlishness into a juvenile feeling. Under the strong request of the senior sister, she went out with the senior sister wearing men’s clothes several times, and each time she was mistaken for a super high school-level beautiful teenager. Someone even took pictures of her men’s clothes at school and sent them to the campus wall to confess. The following replies are also a full row of confession sequences, both male and female.

“Don’t you have class this afternoon? Where are you going?”

“Well, the elective class is over.” Feili hesitated for a while, but replied honestly: “I want to go to the movies.”

“now?”

“Um.”

“Let’s go then,” Leah said.

Feili glanced at her, “Not with you.”

“Then who are you going with? You’re not one of those weird people who are single and withdrawn. You go to the movies alone.” Senior Sister was a little puzzled: “Besides me, you don’t seem to have any friends you can watch movies with... Could it be Di Mir!”

“No!” Phili said, “I’m just going with new friends...”

“Aiming at Demir while seducing other people?” Leah patted Fili on the back: “Amazing little Fili! After a year, you have finally transformed into a promiscuous mature and * female college student. !”

“It’s not!” Feili became impatient, “I have a mission!”

“Task?”

Fili nodded, recalling the last conversation she had with Ash last night.

Yesterday, everyone agreed to Vichy’s dating drill, but before parting, Ash secretly pulled Fili aside and sneered, “This demon finally shows a fox’s tail.”

A demon with a fox tail?

Fili imagined the image for a moment, and then came back to her senses: “What do you mean? Could it be that Miss Vichy has a conspiracy?”

“Except for her complete death, she is breathing in treacherous air and spitting out the embers of conspiracy.” Ash snorted: “I suspect that even when she fell asleep, she was thinking about how to fry me and tear me apart.”

“The witch told me that there are five stages of grief: denial, anger, bargaining, depression and acceptance. But for a rational to crazy person like Vichy, she will only enter her sixth stage very quickly – revenge. ”

Even the witch appeared, and Ash became more and more in line with Fili’s image of a lunatic. If Ash said he had saved the world and countless people, then Fili really had to consider whether she was deceived.

“Igula had long anticipated this situation,” Ash said, unaware that the blond girl’s doubts about him increased, “He said that Vichy would rebel against my rule at first, which was a denial; then it would not cooperate with me. Any order, it’s anger; but soon she’ll try to negotiate a good relationship with me, it’s bargaining; then she doesn’t say a word, it’s depression; but in the end she adjusts to herself The new identity, began to please me to fight for better treatment.”

Phili said, “So Miss Vichy is now at the fifth stage?”

“No, she’s already at the sixth stage.”

Yaxiu’s eyes flashed with wisdom: “She pretended that she had accepted the result and gradually increased her affection for me, but she never gave up and controlled me. Now she proposes a date in the name of giving you advice, It’s her attacking horn.”

“why?”

“She wants me to fall in love with her.” Ash snorted coldly, “I put * chains on her, and she wants to put love chains on me.”

Phili blinked: “But Heath

Clothing store.

“Master, I’m out!”

Vichy came out of the changing room and changed into a dark-colored short dress. His long white legs were tied with straps to make him feel sensual. He looked youthful and cute, but he couldn’t tell that this was a demon that killed countless people. She also bent down slightly, put her hands behind her, tilted her head and stared at Yaxiu, the girlish feeling burst out, and Yaxiu was slightly absent-minded.

But at this moment, Fili’s voice sounded in the dressing room next to her: “Axiu, I’ve changed too!”

Yaxiu woke up from a dream, heaved a long sigh of relief, looked at Feili’s matching carefully, and shook his head: “I don’t think it’s very good, do you want to try the blue one just now...”

Dessert shop.

“Master, don’t move.”

Ash was slightly startled, watching Vichy stretch out his fingers to himself. The maid smiled and said, “You see ice cream on the corners of your mouth...”

Fili took the lead and wiped the ice cream from the corner of Ashe’s mouth with her fingers, and put it into her mouth, “Yes, yes, Ashe, you are too careless.”

Dining room.

“Master, ah~” Vichy forked the beef and stretched it out, “It is the maid’s responsibility to serve the master’s meal.”

“But Miss Vichy, you’re not wearing a maid outfit now.” Fili stretched out her fork and took a mouthful of shrimp. “You don’t need to perform the duties of a maid.”

Ash nodded again and again, chewing while saying, “No feeding, eat well!”

“But it’s boring not to feed each other,” Vichy shrugged. “There’s nothing to talk about between us. After all, you and I are magicians, but the two of them aren’t—”

Feili: “Speaking of which, can a magician really be as good as in the movie?”

“Yes, but it is not something that a one-winged magician can do.” Ash explained: “At least that kind of miraculous effect can only be achieved by a two-winged magician.”

“Then, can you do it?” Feili asked expectantly, “For example, strengthening other people’s miracles...”

Yaxiu thought for a while: “I can do it, but the light and shadow effects are definitely not as good as in the movie. Next time I’ll let you experience it.”

Fili looked at Ash with admiration: “Really!? It’s great!”

Vichy waited quietly for them to finish talking about the movie, and suddenly said, “It’s time to go. Next is the last stop on the date – the amusement park.”

“Vichy, your dating skills aren’t very good,” Ash said, “I thought you would have some unexpected plans, but every step turned out to be ordinary.”

“Hmph, you underestimate me too much.” Vichy laughed: “This amusement park will definitely surprise you.”

“How is that possible.” Yaxiu said with disdain: “I’m a legendary magician, what scene have I never seen before?”

.....

"I didn't expect that a legendary magician could scream so terribly."

Coming out of the Sky Veiled Giant Beast Roller Coaster, Ash and Fili were swaying, standing against the wall beside the drain, looking like they were about to vomit. Vichy and Rose have nothing to do with each other, and the maid even has the mind to tease her master.

"If it wasn't for the fact that I couldn't use my magic power..." Ash covered his mouth: "A mortal body... has its limits."

Vichy: "But it's fine if you shout, why are you calling Harvey?"

"Because I suspected that I was going to die, I called Harvey to come and collect the body."

"Then why did you call Igula again later?"

Ash raised his right hand, there were ten clear fingerprints on it: "The last person who would grab me like this was Igola."

"I'm sorry." Phili's face turned pale: "I'm too nervous."

Vichy blinked his eyes: "Put both hands together, do you think he is a life-saving straw?"

"That's right, if Igula is the one, he'll grab the spiral fingerprints, and I suspect he'll twist the towel when he's nervous." Ash finally calmed the upside-down internal organs in his body, "I said in advance that I won't play such intense games. Mobile game."

“Then let’s go back after riding the Ferris wheel.” Vichy pointed to the huge Ferris wheel standing in the distance in the starry sky, “In the dating guide I read, the Ferris wheel is the end of the date...”

The maid realized that she had slipped her tongue halfway through, and Yaxiu immediately reacted: “You also copied the online strategy!”

“Otherwise,” Vichy didn’t hide it when he saw it, and broke the jar, “I’ve only been here for a few days, and I don’t even know the customs here. How can I arrange a date?”

“If you don’t, you won’t, why do you have to grab this task?”

“Otherwise, how can I lead this date?” Vichy said confidently, “Master, haven’t you already seen my thoughts? Come on, master, let’s ride the Ferris wheel together~”

“No, the four of us sit together.”

“But sitting with four people and sitting with two people is a completely different atmosphere. Fili has a date with someone two days later, and in the end, it must be two people sitting on the Ferris wheel together. They spend 15 minutes in a confined space. An embarrassing 15 minutes in jail.”

Fili couldn’t help but nod her head, not to mention Demir-senpai, among her friends, only Sister Leia was the only one she could get along with without any embarrassment. If she was suddenly locked in a secret room with other people, she would be like a quail, afraid to raise her head and speak.

Vichy patted his chest: “It seems that I can only—”

“Rose, you sit with Vichy, and I sit with Fili.” Ash immediately said.

“Understood.” Rose immediately went over to torture Vichy.

With the fast entry and exit tickets, they quickly got on the Ferris wheel. As the Ferris wheel slowly rotates, the capital of Jiashi under the stars is unreservedly displayed in the eyes of tourists. The sky and the earth seem to be connected, the Milky Way hangs upside down, and the stars are on the ground.

When everyone was deeply fascinated by the beauty of this scene, there was a passenger in one of the carriages who didn't look outside at all. The two looked at each other silently and didn't say a word.

"Although I have never been 100% sure about analyzing human behavior," Rose suddenly said, "But you should create opportunities for the two of them, right?"

"Almost." Vichy leaned against the seat lazily, "At least everything is going according to my plan."

"What is the best way to increase the relationship between two people? It's not dating, but fighting. If there is a common hostile goal, with mutual help, the favorability of both parties will rise."

"He shouldn't have asked Igula how to deal with me. The spiritual faction is the field with the most severe level suppression. Compared with the magician who has not been involved in the spiritual faction, it is easier for me to control a person like Igula. "

Rose said, "I thought you wanted Ash to fall in love with you."

"It's not that I can't do it." Vichy said honestly, "but it won't last long. His fear and vigilance towards me will soon wipe out that little desire. But I don't really need him to love me, as long as I can. To control the people around him is to control him."

Rose nodded: "The essence of a person is the sum of social relationships. But is it really okay for you to be honest with me like this?"

"You won't tell me,"

Vichy said calmly, "Because you are on my side."

“Although you don’t know the details, but you know Ash’s desire for Fili. Now I’ll help match them, and let Ash use the chains of love to trap Fili. How can you object to those who only serve Ash’s interests?”

“For me, it was the best choice for Ash to get Fili, so that he would be eligible to participate in the Hunting Angels. Whether it succeeds or fails, it is an opportunity for me to escape. Moreover, it is really difficult for him Manipulation, but Phili is different...”

“But you are also a bit strange. Your tool attributes are too strong, even projection can’t have this level.” Vichy looked at Rose and pondered: “In addition, Yaxiu is a four-pillar sense of touch... I can probably guess your identity.”

Rose looked at her and tilted her head, as if she didn’t understand what the maid was saying.

“Forget it.” Vichy raised his head and looked at the carriage diagonally above, “Now, our little sheep should also understand his heart...”

.....

...

“We succeeded!”

Ya Xiu let out a long sigh of relief: “I wasn’t charmed by Vichy. We saw through all her routines and successfully resisted her attack! I have developed resistance to Vichy!”

“Yeah.” Feili said, “She is so powerful that I almost missed it several times.”

“It’s really thanks to you today.” Ash was also frightened for a while: “If you hadn’t watched, I might have a good impression of that * now...”

Feili said: “I think if you really don’t like her, even if you have a good feeling for her, it will fade away quickly; but if you really like her, you can’t resist even if you don’t want to.”

Yaxiu was slightly startled, turned to look at the silver street lamp in the distance, and said softly, "Maybe you are right."

"But this guy Vichy still has to be vigilant. Compared with you, she is the real devil, and she must not be given any chance to break free from the chains."

He paused for a while, then scratched his head suddenly: "Speaking of which, this is obviously your dating drill, but you have been interrupting Vichy's spellcasting for me all day..."

"It doesn't matter, after all, your business is much more important. After all, I promised to be your... devil." Fili shook her head: "My business is just a trivial matter, and..."

The blond girl glanced at the bright starry sky and the starry sea outside: "Today... I'm also very happy."

"Well, me too, except for the last roller coaster." Ash smiled: "At least it proves that the dating guide Vichy copied is correct."

Fili looked at Ash, and the cult leader also looked at the blonde girl. The carriages of the two were sent to the starry sky, and in the gentle silence, traces of starlight wandered on them, making them glow with dazzling colors.

Suddenly, Feili felt her cheeks get hot, and she quickly avoided Ash's gaze and looked down at her knees, but she still couldn't hold back her pounding heart. She suddenly discovered that she watched a movie with Yaxiu today, went shopping, a dessert shop, had dinner together, and finally rode the Ferris wheel alone.

Aren't these... behaviors between couples! ?

There was a minty fragrance in the air, the smell of Yaxiu shampoo, she smelled it while watching a movie. It smelled fresh, but Feili felt dizzy, her toes couldn't help bending, her whole body started to get hot, and her breathing became shallow and fast.

I...

Do I...

But he's Ash Heath, and I'm just an ordinary Phili Lena...

"Today is also my first date."

Feili raised her head suddenly: "Impossible?!"

"Why is it impossible." Yaxiu rolled her eyes at her and looked at the starry sky outside: "I always said that I was a fugitive in the other world, either fleeing or chasing, how could there be such a peaceful time, even if Yes, I don't have a date either."

Hearing these words, Feili felt like an iceberg with more than 100,000 roses in her heart, every strand of hair was full of joy, and her whole body seemed to be warm in a hot spring. She lowered her head and whispered, "Today is also my first date."

"It now seems that if the Vichy guy is deleted, our first date should be very successful, right?"

"Well. UU reading www.uukanshu.com"

"that would be great."

Feili felt that her heart was about to jump out. She looked up at Ash, and suddenly an uncontrollable urge surged in her heart. She has been indecisive and dare not move forward in her life, and never dared to make any decisions, but since Ashura, she had two impulses that were completely inconsistent with her.

The first impulse was for Senior Demir to collide with the school leaders;

And the second impulse is now.

To speak out.

Must say it.

Otherwise, from now on, I can only hide it silently in my heart, and bring it into the coffin as regrets and funeral objects!

The impulsive legion had reached her throat, Phili closed her eyes, opened her mouth, and the words full of emotion were about to blurt out—

“If only my date with the Sword Princess and Witch could be so successful.”

All the excitement faded like a tide, and Fili stared at Ash in a daze, seeing the stars reflected in his eyes. Yaxiu’s face had longing, anticipation, and tenderness that she had never seen before.

He looked at Fili, clenched his fists and said, “Your date will be successful in two days, come on!”

Fili looked at him quietly, and nodded lightly after a while.

“Um.”

The corners of her mouth turned up a little, but the light in her eyes dimmed a little.
