

Super Rich Dad Chapter 811-813

Chapter 811

Jiang Hao looked at Ning Kun for a while in silence, then shook his head slightly.

In fact, he knew what Sally intended to talk to the Lin family, but Ning Kun's current state, he was worried that after telling Ning Kun may cause some changes.

So he simply shook his head and said, 'Don't bother with this matter, when we have everything ready on our side, we will move with you.'

Although the long wait made Ning Kun a little anxious. But the current situation, he did not know what to do, so he had to nod.

Just as he fell silent, Sally suddenly walked out of the office, then faintly glanced at Jiang Hao and smiled: 'Can you please accompany me for a shopping trip?'

Jiang Hao looked at Sally wearing a long white dress, draped in a fluffy coat. The eyes couldn't help but light up!

At this moment, Sally does not have a strong sense of oppression just in the office, but rather makes people feel as if a little princess!

'Very happy, if you do not mind. Please allow me to let you hold my left hand, can I?'

Sally looked at Jiang Hao pretending to be a gentleman could not help but cover his mouth and lightly laughed twice, then playfully nodded and said: 'I agree, Lord Knight.'

Ning Kun by Sally and Jiang Hao made a goose bumps, looking at the two quickly rolled his eyes and said: 'Okay, okay, you guys go busy, I go back to sleep for a while, something call me.'

Sally looked at Ning Kun, a trace of apology flashed in her eyes, and then spoke to Jiang Hao: 'Shen Yan, go out and wait for me for a while, I'll call you when I come out later.'

Jiang Hao shrugged, then glanced at the red wine on the table and said: 'This wine is quite good, how much is a bottle, do you mind if I take it?'

Sally glanced at Jiang Hao somewhat helplessly. Nothing was said, she is not a petty person, even if she is, she will not be petty to Jiang Hao.

Seeing Sally's somewhat helpless look, Jiang Hao laughed out loud a few times before picking up the opened wine on the table and walking out.

Ning Kun looked at Sally with some embarrassment, and then lowered his head, not knowing why.

Every time Ning Kun faced Sally alone, perhaps out of his instinctive reaction that he had worked out over the years, he felt as if he was facing a tiger that was sniffing at the roses.

‘I know that you have given a lot for your plan during this period of time, and are also very haggard.’

After saying this, Sally gently walked to Ning Kun’s side and sat down, then said lightly, ‘But you should know that for the greater good, some things must wait.’

Ning Kun lowered his head after hearing these words some dissatisfaction spoke: ‘But if you continue to wait so much, maybe there will be some changes. What if the plan fails to catch up with the changes by then?’

There are some opportunities to start a preparatory plan, but this matter, Ning Kun has planned perfectly, he could not think of other backup plans.

Sally faintly glanced at Ning Kun, then spoke: ‘You have to be clear about one thing, the most threatening thing right now is not the hundred or so people sent by Shen Tianyang, but Shen Tianyang itself.’

After saying this, Sally continued somewhat helplessly: ‘Chujiang side has lost part of its control, I have to find a way to choke Shen Tianyang’s power in Chujiang, can not let him continue to develop.’

Ning Kun fell silent, and his heart finally eased a sigh of relief after hearing Sally’s words.

For him, anything as long as Sally reason to explain to him. He is also very willing to go with Sally.

Fear is that her side does not say anything, and they are ready for all things, looking at the action. Suddenly come to a stop action.

This is like watching the cooked duck fly, and not only the reason for frustration, but also part of the suspicion of Sally.

Now hearing Sally say this, Ning Kun then reacted, then silent for a moment spoke: ‘So, what are you going to do?’

‘How to do without you to care. Old black has already started to take charge of this matter, in addition I have another thing, want to ask you.’

Ning Kun looked at Sally’s serious look, nodded and spoke: ‘You say, I can do what I can definitely do.’

‘You should know about Hedong, a city with a resident population of more than thirty million but a crime rate of thirty-eight percent.’

Ning Kun looked at Sally with some doubt and nodded: ‘Yes, I know. This city is a bit dirty, before my instructor once let me deliberately go deeper understanding, is considered social practice learning it.’

Sally nodded slightly after saying in a deep voice: ‘There is also a Shen family in Hedong, right now it seems as if there is no connection with Shen Tianyang, but in that environment, I find it hard to believe that they are clean.’

‘Are you worried that the Shen family over in the east of the river will unite with Shen Tianyang and then slowly eat away at our circle of influence?’

Sally nodded back: ‘Although there seems to be no such sign now, but I have to guard against it, the Shen family in the north no longer has the need to exist, this is a warning to Shen Tianyang.’

‘Then the hundred or so people sent by Shen Tianyang, what do you mean from your side?’

‘Of course, all of them are disposed of, together with the North Mansion Shen family, I think. It is necessary to let Shen Tianyang know that there is not no one who can deal with him.’

Looking at Sally’s calm demeanor and decided on the lives of a family and hundreds of people, Ning Kun had to admit one thing. The Sally in front of him had become more and more of a lordly temperament.

After a long time of silence, Ning Kun suppressed the excitement in his heart and said: ‘Okay, I will immediately start to do this matter. When this matter is over, I will follow your arrangement and rush to the east of the river.’

Sally saw this and nodded her head in satisfaction. Ning Kun was like an eagle flying in the sky.

If he could not be convinced, even if he said that he would serve himself, but what he would actually do, that was another matter.

Have to admit that Ning Kun is very good, but he also has a shortcoming, that is, the lack of the big picture.

Perhaps this is not his shortcoming, but because of his training, he does not need to have the big picture from the beginning, only that he can complete the task properly.

And Sally is different from Ning Kun, the education she received since childhood is the big picture, the more the situation is unclear, the more she can show her ability.

It’s like something the emperor learned in ancient times, as a leader must learn something!

After seeing that she had talked through Ning Kun, Sally slowed down her breath, knowing that now Ning Kun would not have any more hard feelings in his heart.

So lightly smiled and nodded and spoke: ‘Okay, then I’ll go shopping first, you have a good rest, when to do it and wait for my message.’

Ning Kun nodded slightly then watched Sally leave, his eyes really flashed a trace of old black look at her, that is, respect!

Chapter 812

After solving Ning Kun’s problem, Sally obviously also put down her heart, as long as nothing goes wrong on Ning Kun’s side, she will not have any worries.

Thinking of this. Sally's pace out of the villa became two points easier.

The old black and Jiang Hao is standing at the door smoking, see Sally walked out briskly, with a smile on his face, so they have looked at Sally nodded.

Sally looked at Ning Kun and old black smiled and then said: 'Old black. Go drive, take us into the city for a trip. I have some things to do.'

Old Black nodded slightly after hearing this and then went to drive, while Jiang Hao looked at Sally and smiled without saying anything.

When the old black left, Jiang Hao extinguished the cigarette in his hand, and then looked at Sally and smiled: 'Just talked to Ning Kun what, how do you feel as if the whole person has become a little more relaxed?'

Sally on a thousand hands naturally held on the arm of Jiang Hao laughed: 'Nothing ah, just enlightened that silly boy, let him not look too tightly at everything.'

After saying this Sally shrugged and continued: 'His plan is very good, but in the end is not the effect I want, since to fight. That will simply kill at once.'

Jiang Hao nodded after a period of silence: 'Yes, the snake is not dead, I still understand this truth, said where are we going later?'

Sally smiled mysteriously at Jiang Hao and said: 'Where else can we go, of course, to the Lin family to visit Elder Lin, the matter is now urgent, no time to waste.'

As soon as the words fell, Old Black drove up to Sally and Jiang Hao, then lowered the window and smiled at Sally and said, 'Chief, ready.'

Sally nodded gently after opening the car door and sat on it. Then smiled and looked at Jiang Hao, the eyes of some unknown taste.

After Jiang Hao sat up somewhat helplessly, Old Black consciously separated the driver's side from the back seat directly, and then concentrated on driving.

'Do you think the Lin family will agree to our strike against the Shen family, if you do so, will not it upset the balance of power on the side of the North, will there be more serious consequences then?'

Sally thought about this and pondered for a moment, then nodded, 'Perhaps there is this aspect of concern. But if I don't, then the unlucky one will be me.'

Said this. Sally shrugged, and then turned her head to look at the villa opened: 'I think you have seen today, some times even if I do not go against others, others will start to target me.'

As a higher power. Sally has long been used to everything that happened today.

If it wasn't for Jiang Hao taking the initiative to find himself today, I'm afraid Sally would have done a little more than that and wouldn't have given anyone face at all.

Although Ning Kun's plan is very good, but in some aspects is really some lack of consideration. Simply thinking about the more than 100 people left behind by Shen Tianyang, and did not consider what to do later.

Thinking of this Sally some helpless light sigh, if not Ning Kun in some things above a unique insight, she has some doubts about whether she has seen the wrong person.

Jiang Hao saw a trace of worry flashing between Sally's eyebrows from time to time, so some curious spoke: 'What are you bothered about, right now things have been dealt with, now just need the Lin family agreed to join forces.'

Sally shook her head and then said: 'I'm not worried about the Northern Province, but I'm worried about the other side of things. That is Hedong.'

In fact, it was not the first time Jiang Hao had heard about Hedong, and many people in the interior saw Hedong as a criminal city. Nearly 40 percent of the 30 million resident population are criminals.

This figure just thinking about it makes people's heads explode. What's even more frightening is that in such a city there is such a huge thing as the Shen family.

Thinking about it, Jiang Hao was also a bit disturbed, he did not know this He Dong Shen family. Is not the same as the North House Shen family, is also one of Shen Tianyang's accomplices.

If it is true. In a city like that can take root and rise, the strength must be extraordinary.

Sally looked at Jiang Hao heard his words and fell silent, looked carefully twice before realizing that Jiang Hao was also considering this issue at this time.

So lightly laughed twice and said: 'Don't worry, I will send people to assist you, sooner or later, the East side of the river will have to do some cleaning to do, otherwise it is basically ruined.'

Jiang Hao nodded and said: 'Indeed, a city like Hedong, if you don't do some cleaning, you can't stay at all!'

The two talked, and soon the car drove to the entrance of the Lin family.

At first there were two people from the Lin family who wanted to see who dared to park in front of their house.

When they saw Jiang Hao get down from the car, they smiled and dispersed, they were already used to Jiang Hao's arrival.

And also heard some rumors that this Dr. Shen Yan is in love with his own young lady, for this, they can also see some.

Jiang Hao looked at the crowd and smiled, then spoke to Sally inside the car, 'Please come down, Master Lin is probably inside.'

Sally shrugged after getting down from the car while looking at Jiang Hao and said, 'I'm just a little worried about meeting some bad people in the Lin family like you did last time.'

Jiang Hao heard and laughed a few times, he knew that Sally was remembering the difficulty between Lin Nan father and son to himself.

So looked at Sally slightly shook his head after speaking: 'This point you can rest assured, Lin Nan father and son is no longer in the Lin family, they all moved out, now the Lin family is only the old man Lin and the old grandmother Lin family.'

Sally listened and nodded slightly, but soon looked at Jiang Hao with some confusion: 'No, you're not lying to me, right?'

'What did I lie to you about, what's wrong with it?'

'Isn't the old grandmother of the Lin family the most protective of the Lin Nan father and son, how come they are no longer in the Lin family?'

Sally, despite valuing intelligence in certain aspects and having excellent sources, she didn't care at all about these family matters.

When Jiang Hao heard this, he gave a bitter laugh and looked at Sally, signaling that this was in the Lin family, and even if she didn't put the Lin family in her eyes anymore, she couldn't say such things in the Lin family.

Sally is the kind of person, a look over naturally understood Jiang Hao's meaning, then lightly spit out a tongue and then no longer ask questions.

In the subordinate's guidance, Jiang Hao soon found the old man Lin.

It seems that since Jiang Hao had cured Master Lin's illness last time, he began to slowly cultivate his body and soul, and basically ignored many things, leaving them directly to Lin Yan to handle.

Chapter 813

Sally and Jiang Hao looked at each other and then walked forward, then said in a deep voice to Elder Lin, who was even more in the middle of tasting tea: 'Hello, Elder Lin.'

Master Lin opened his eyes and glanced at Jiang Hao and Sally, then held out his hand and gestured, 'Sit down and talk, try how about the new tea I have recently recovered.'

Master Lin had never heard of his love of tea before in the Northern Province. But Jiang Hao was aware of it, and it was all because of the cup of tea he had invited himself to drink when Jiang Hao came to beg Elder Lin for an errand last time.

Jiang Hao looked at old man Lin nodded after picking up a cup of tea into his mouth. After closing his eyes and tasting a few times, Jiang Hao opened his eyes and smiled: 'Good tea. I guess it cost Lin Lao a lot of money again, right?'

Sally, who is also a tea drinker herself, picked up the cup and tasted it before nodding: 'Well, top quality, Mr. Lin Lao really knows how to enjoy it, it looks like you've almost completely left the company's affairs alone now, right?'

Master Lin laughed bitterly twice after hearing this, in fact he wanted to manage the company's affairs, but as soon as he intervened, Lin Yan would not stand out against it.

But no one can accept that when they do something, there is always a pair of worried eyes beside them looking at them.

Thinking about it, Master Lin sighed somewhat helplessly and said: 'Right now, the Lin Group is handed over to Yan'er, I have not been to the company for a long time.'

After saying these words. Elder Lin nodded at Sally, then looked at Jiang Hao and smiled: 'Why did you want to come up to me today, I heard you quit your job at the Chinese hospital?'

Jiang Hao touched his nose a little embarrassed, that time is not thought to cooperate with Ning Kun's plan, so simply resigned from the Chinese hospital work, so as to free up time.

The result did not expect Sally's side of the mouth, the whole plan was called off, now that he thinks about it he feels like a stupid pig!

'Uh, there was a slight problem, so I simply resigned. I've been resting and playing around this time.'

After saying this, Jiang Hao rubbed his head a little embarrassed and spoke: 'After all, since I've been in the Northern Province for so long, I haven't had a good time yet!'

Master Lin looked at the embarrassed look on Jiang Hao's face and laughed twice, and then opened his mouth as if no one else had: 'Kid, do you want to come to my company to play, I'll give you a position, a monthly salary of 50,000.'

Jiang Hao listened with some surprise and looked at Elder Lin. Then nodded with a big smile and said: 'Yes, when the time comes, Mr. Lin Lao don't blame me for eating and sleeping all day and not caring!'

Master Lin smiled and nodded back: 'It's okay. You just need to play chess with me when you have time, there is no one I can get along with in this big courtyard.'

Thinking of this, Elder Lin shook his head somewhat sadly. It seems that no matter what he does, all these people in the courtyard think he just wants to hold the full power in his hands.

Only Lin Yan knew that he just really wanted the cause inside this family to have someone to stand out and pass on peacefully.

Sally couldn't help but be concerned after looking at the somewhat uncomfortable look on Master Lin's face: 'I heard that the recent situation of Lin's Group regarding the West Spring Residence project has been completed, right?'

Although Master Lin did not bother with those small things. However, he was still as precious about his family's property.

After hearing Sally's words, Master Lin nodded and said: 'In fact, it has already been completed, Yan'er is planning to sell it during this time, why?'

Sally smiled and nodded after hearing this, then glanced at Jiang Hao who was sitting beside her, Jiang Hao smiled and nodded then lowered his head and started to make tea.

'Once the West Spring Residence project is out of the way, soon you will be able to ease up from the current state like this, when the time comes, has Elder Lin thought about doing something about it?'

After hearing this, Master Lin even looked at Sally with some doubts: 'This has not been thought of yet. Why, is Miss Sally here to talk business with me today?'

Sally nodded slightly and then said, 'That's right. Today I want to talk to Mr. Lin about a big deal!'

Master Lin looked deeply at Sally, about Sally's identity. He had heard an old friend say a few words before.

Although that friend of his was not considered high and powerful, but he still had some weight to speak in this northern province.

And even so. The other party is still in awe when facing Sally, so you can imagine how surprising Sally's identity really is.

Now they even want to start doing business with themselves. Thinking of this, Elder Lin pondered for a moment and then nodded his head and said, 'Okay, tell me, let me hear what kind of business it is.'

After receiving such a reply, Sally quickly spoke: 'About the Shen family's business, but also about the first business in the North, to see if you intend to follow.'

After saying these words lightly, Sally snickered and picked up a cup of tea, hesitating for a moment before drinking it all.

Then continued to speak: 'If you do not have the confidence to follow, today just pretend that I have not come.'

At this time, although the surface of the old man Lin can not see what, but the heart of the god has long been shocked!

It's not that he didn't think that Sally would make a move against the Shen family, because the Shen family in front of him was already falling apart with a lot of holes.

Not to mention in other places, just in the North House these few things, the Shen family played a role is not very good, thanks to Shen Qingshu's nonsense!

If Shen Qingshu is considered to be the proud son of a family in the North, then he may have developed an arrogance since childhood.

Facing anyone has never lowered his head, which led to Shen Qingshu offended a lot of people.

Now Chen Jingdao, that old mad dog, is watching the Shen family all day long, and as long as the Shen family wants to do something, he is definitely the first to stand out and get in the way.

If he can get a certain amount of revenue that's fine, the point is that Chen Jingdao that old mad dog many times is simply standing out regardless of the cost, never consider the profit!

Thinking of this, Elder Lin pondered for a moment and then nodded: 'Xue family such a thing will not stand out, although they also have some superficial dislike for the Shen family, but will not be out of the way.'

Sally looked at Elder Lin and smiled, and did not open her mouth to answer.

And when Jiang Hao heard this, the movement of making tea in his hand paused, but quickly covered it up.

'Chen Jingdao words although the head of the bird, but do things so regardless of the cost, it is estimated that even if he will be Shen to collapse himself will not be able to support for a long time.'

Sally nodded in satisfaction after looking at the old man Lin smiled: 'So the question comes, this North House among the most suitable for cooperation with us, is you.'
