

Chapter 813

Moreover, when the two elders in the family knew that their eldest son and daughter-in-law, who were most admired for them, had a plane crash, the two elderly couples, who were over 70 years old, died of heart disease due to distress and anxiety.

For a time, the Min family was originally a family of eight with three generations of young and old, but there were only four left in an instant.

Among them, there is a seven-month-old child who lost his parents and grandparents.

At that time, the Shu family was still in Kyoto, and Darius's parents were also abroad, so that the seven-month-old child was temporarily taken care of by his uncle and aunt.

However, at that time, Min Xiaolian's wife had just given birth to a child for a month and lacked milk. Because of her selfishness, she could only eat with her child first. If she had eaten enough, the rest could be for a seven-month-old baby. Rice mouth.

As a result, until Rayna was one and a half years old, her size and weight were the same height and weight as Walton, who was only one year old.

Even Rayna was not as tall as Walton, and not as strong as Walton.

Not only that, because Min Xiaolian and his wife are generally recognized, and Min Xiaolian's wife wants to feed the two children alone, so there is no way to go out to work, so the life of Min's family is stretched.

Life has always been extremely difficult.

Just after the sixth year of such hardship, when Min Xiaolian's wife even gave Rayna away, Shu's family came.

Darius's mother came to see his niece.

Moreover, Darius's mother said to Min Xiaozhong and his wife: "I know it's not easy for you. I want to take my niece to Shu's house to support. If you agree, I can buy you a property in Nancheng. Then I will buy you a small yard in the countryside. This way, your husband and wife's lives will be guaranteed, and when you are in your grade, you can leave the house to your daughter, and you will live in the country." "That... .." At first, Min Xiaolian couldn't bear it. After all, he brought up the two children: "Can we still see children in this life? She is the only seedling of my dead brother and sister-in-law!"

Upon hearing this, Darius's mother smiled gracefully on the spot: "Don't worry, I will take Galia away. Naturally, I will give her the best in South City. I will raise her as a little princess, not only that. Our Shu family's family style is obvious to all in Nancheng. Galia living in our Shu family will definitely be an elegant little lady. Since childhood, we will let her go to the best school and teach her. Her mother is as versatile and accomplished as her mother. In the future, she will find a good family for her, so that her beautiful family will be honorable and elegant for a lifetime."

Min Xiaolian was shocked when he heard Darius's mother say this.

After a long time, Min Xiaolian said to Darius's mother: "The child and her aunt, you...look, the child has always been in our house, and her aunt and I love her so much. Can you let her The child will stay with us for two or three days, and then let her go with you?"

Darius's mother immediately said gratefully: "You are good people as uncles and aunts. I also want to lighten your burden, so I want to pick Galia away. Even if we pick her up, you will still be able to come and go. , You can still see the child, you will not miss it, and you are still the child's relative uncle and relative aunt."

Min Xiaolian and his wife looked at each other without telling each other.

"We will look at her for three more days, just three days. From now on, we won't be able to see her every day, so we can't worry about it."

"Okay, I can understand this. I'll be coming in three days." After speaking, Darius's mother left.

Three days later, she came to Min's house again to pick up her niece, and by the way, took Min Xiaolian and his wife to the notary office and gave them a house in the city and a small house in the country. After the transfer was completed, Darius's mother left Min's house with his younger sister's daughter.

However, when Darius's mother didn't expect it, what she took away was not her sister's biological daughter.

And Walton, the daughter of Min Xiaolian and his wife.

The couple looked forward to seeing their biological daughter being taken away by the bag, and the wife said with a look of yearning: "Our Galia will become rich and wealthy in the future."

Chapter 814

"Haha!" Hearing this, Rayna suddenly laughed wildly.

After laughing, she said sarcastically: "Should I call your parents now, or your uncles and aunts, or even your enemies?"

"Rayna, we..." Min's father Qiqi Aiai said, "We have hurt you too."

"Do you love me?" Rayna asked back: "I was taught to be a maid since I was a child, and your biological daughter, Walton, is the queen who loves me like this?"

Or have I been told since I was young that I am Walton's thug, no matter what she does is right or wrong, I have to lead her?

Love me, will you let me pick Walton's clothes to wear from childhood?

And she put it on me because she thought it was ugly.

Love me, why don't you support me for school? But let me grow wild like a street shrew?

These are the ways you love me? "

Min's father said nonchalantly: "Rayna, you didn't do well in school since childhood..."

"I didn't get good grades since I was a kid, because you either asked me to play mahjong for you or let me cook for you!" Rayna scolded, "When I grow up, I have thoughts of learning, but As soon as I want to study, you say that I don't need it, and that my cousin is a wealthy eldest lady. In the future, she will be married to the Fu's family, the number one family in Nancheng. If anything, as long as my cousin flies Huang Tengda, she will definitely take me to fly!

My cousin will at least find me a senior manager who works in the Fu family.

These are what you have instilled in me since I was young, right? "

Min's father and Min's mother: "..."

Having said this, Rayna cried: "I suddenly understand now. The reason why you have educated me like this since childhood is because you are afraid that one day when I grow up and doubt you, I will go for a paternity test. , So you guys do everything possible to raise me up!

As long as I am raised and abandoned!

I can't think of a paternity test, right? "

Min's father and Min's mother really thought so.

So at this moment, they have nothing to say. Now that all the treasures were placed on his biological daughter, that elder brother's biological daughter naturally couldn't excel and could no longer be an excellent girl.

Therefore, from the very beginning, they wanted to put Rayna abolished and let Rayna become Walton's follower.

He even became Walton's servant.

Rayna was an inferiority existence in front of Walton.

In this way, Rayna would never be able to stand in Walton's way in this life.

This is the wishful thinking of the couple.

"It's a pity! Mr. Min and Mrs. Min!" Rayna smiled and shed tears. Her smile was uglier than crying.

At this moment, she is love-hate.

This painful contradiction strangled Rayna.

After all, hatred is still greater than love. She wiped a tear and continued: "It's a pity Mr. Min and Mrs. Min, no matter how good your abacus is, it is still not as good as heaven."

What this said was simply poke the heart of Min's father and Min's mother.

Min's father and Min's mother suddenly cried.

Because the facts are here.

"You want to exchange my innocence for one million for your biological daughter. In the end, I was rescued, but your daughter was tortured all night.

What is this called?

God is clear, retribution is unhappy!

Retribution is unhappy!

Pushing me into this abyss, is it also your love for me?

Ah!
