

Chapter 813

Mrs. President, don't say that. Since the President saves you, he definitely doesn't want you to be in trouble. So the most important thing for you now is to take care of your body, know? If you don't cherish yourself, The president will be angry.

Xiaotian persuaded painfully, he knew that these persuasion was useless to the stubborn president's wife, so he still wanted to give it a try. Because the president's wife is important to the president.

The president cares about the president's wife so much and is willing to file disasters for her, and he certainly doesn't want her to be in trouble. And he didn't want her to be in trouble, so who would take care of the president after the operation? The president must only want to see the wife of the president who is alive, and the first time he wakes up, he must also want to see the wife of the president. Therefore, he is not alone caring about the president's wife, but he is protecting the president's wife for the president. He just hopes that she will be well.

I know, I will be fine, and wait for him to come out. Her own body knows that she just didn't eat a meal. She often forgot to eat a meal before, and it didn't matter to her. The most important thing now is to guard him well. When he comes out, she wants to let him know that she has been by his side and that she has been with him.

Yin Luo continued to stare at the door of the operating room, Yi Yan was inside. Without confirming that he is okay, even if she leaves, she will not feel at ease for a moment, so she prefers to guard him here.

Then or else, I'll go out and bring two meals back. You will eat a little bit here to store your energy? Xiaotian asked cautiously. This method should not be the best method currently.

Seeing Yin Luo seriously looking at the door of the operating room, Xiaotian didn't dare to disturb her any more. After taking a deep look at her, he left alone to buy food. The president's wife is alone, so she should be fine. And this is the city hospital, and Bo Chengcheng is here again.

So Xiaotian turned around and walked straight to the corner of the corridor. Suddenly a tall man in a black suit pulled him over.

Xiaotian didn't panic. This is a hospital, there are cameras everywhere, the man will certainly not do too much. And even if he has to do excessive things, he shouldn't be approached. He looked like a poor assistant in this way.

Are you Mr. Xiaotian? the man asked.

Xiaotian stared at the man vigilantly, he was handsome, and he didn't look like a bad person. So Xiaotian nodded, "Yes".

Hello, I am President Yin's bodyguard, and the person President Yi asked to protect President Yin. You can call me Xiaohuo. Xiaohuo reached out to Xiaotian.

Xiaotian held Xiaohuo's hand, and the two greeted him. Xiaotian asked him strangely, "Since you said Mrs. President's bodyguard, why don't you go over and protect her?"

This...because the other bodyguards and those who went to the construction site with the president have already returned to the company. We called the president before, but she refused to let us over. If she found out that I did not follow her orders, I don't know if I can still work in the Yin family. But Mr. Yi also asked me to protect her at all times. I have to hide here.

Xiao Huo explained in detail that he was afraid that Xiao Tian would not believe him. After all, he was a stranger to Xiao Tian, and it was normal to be vigilant.

And the reason why he wants to protect Yin Luo so hard is because this matter is entirely his responsibility. It was he who was too careless and was easily deceived, and he really left the president alone.

Therefore, he is the one who is sorry for the president, and even more for Mr. Yi. He was making atonement for himself and wanted to make up for it. Of course, if Mr. Yi wants to blame and punish him in the future, he will leave it alone without complaining. After all, this is all his own fault.

That's it. Xiaotian nodded, and then asked again, "Since you have followed, why do you still have a dangerous opportunity for Mrs. President?"

I'm not good. Xiao Huo lowered his head and said guiltily. The hateful thing is that nothing can make up for it now.

Xiaotian also felt Xiaohuo's loyalty to the president and his wife. He certainly didn't want the president to be injured. It's just that these are unpredictable things, and he can't be completely blamed. So Xiaotian advised, "I don't know your responsibility alone in this matter, and now it's not the place to be held accountable. The most important thing is to try our best to make the president and his wife better."

Xiao Huo nodded and asked, "How about Mr. Yi? I didn't dare to get too close just now, I didn't hear clearly."

I still don't know. Xiaotian shook his head, then looked at him and asked, "Then what do you want to stop me for?"

Xiao Huo frowned, his face full of worry, Yin Luozheng sat motionless on the bench. If you look at her for a long time, you really think she is the kind of fake model who won't move.

I think she needs someone to accompany her. Look at her now, I'm afraid that something should happen to her. So leave it to me to buy food. I can't show up to comfort her this time, you just stay with the president, she also needs someone to take care of her now.

Xiaotian also looked at Yin Luo, and indeed, she seemed to have lost her mind, only knowing that she was there waiting for the door of the operating room to open. In the unlikely event of an accident by herself, the president must not kill him after waking up. I am afraid that the president's hatred will not be solved even if she whips the corpse. So what this little fire said is very reasonable.

Okay, just do as you say, leave it to me to accompany her, you have to go and get back soon when you buy food. Xiaotian agreed to Xiaohuo's suggestion, so that's good, he can accompany the president's wife. .

Xiao Huo glanced at Yin Luo uneasy, and then asked, "You must take good care of her, and you can't let her make any mistakes."

Don't worry. Xiaotian thinks he can still take care of the president's wife. Now it seems that Xiaohuo is also a good person.

It was not too late to finish, and Xiao Huo hurried to buy food.

After a while, Xiaohuo's rice was bought, and he carefully walked to Xiaotian and handed it to Xiaotian. Fortunately, the president was watching something intently, and did not notice his arrival. After the meal was delivered, Xiao Huo quickly withdrew to the corner and continued to watch them secretly.

After getting the food, Xiaotian said softly to Yin Luo, "Mrs. President, I have someone bring the food, you can eat something."

Yin Luo turned his attention to the food when she heard Xiaotian's words. She really can't eat now, but when she thinks about the need for someone to take care of after Yiyan's surgery, she wants to stay with him all the time, and she still has to store some physical strength, so she still Bite the scalp and ate a few bites.

She didn't eat much at first, this time it was as if she hadn't eaten at all. However, it is better than nothing.

Xiaotian found another piece of porridge from the big bag of food. The porridge should be delicious, so he handed it to Yin Luo, "If you can't eat it, drink some porridge?"

Yin Luo nodded, took the porridge and drank it. The porridge drank a lot smoother, and he had no appetite when he was not eating.

After eating, they were anxiously waiting again, Xiao Huo was also waiting in the dark, and the wait was always long.

Fortunately, there is always a result of waiting. After about an hour and a half, the door of the operating room finally opened.

The first person who opened the door and came out was Bo Cheng Cheng wearing a blue disinfectant.

Seeing that the door of the operating room was opened, and the red light during the operation had also gone out, Yin Luo couldn't wait to run to Bo Chengcheng. But because of sitting for too long, Yin Luo's legs were completely numb, and she didn't stop at the first stop, and she was about to fall to the ground.

Upon seeing this, Bo Chengcheng hurried to Yin Luo to support her. Fortunately, they were not far away, otherwise she would definitely fall. When Xiaotian reacted, the president's wife had been rescued by Bo Chengcheng.

Thank you, how is Yi Yan? Yin Luo couldn't manage that much anymore, standing upright with Bo Chengcheng's arm, and asked anxiously.

Don't worry about the operation I performed? Bo Chengcheng said proudly, his medical skills really weren't covered.

Bo Chengcheng thought that his father and mother firmly disagreed with him to study medicine. In the end, they managed to persuade him to succeed, and they threatened him that if they were not particularly good at medicine, they would go home and inherit the family property.

He has lived in a pile of money since he was a child, and he is used to extravagance, so he naturally disdains money. Because there are so many possessions, it is not very sad to not have that life flower. He has more and more patients, and he doesn't regret his studies in medicine. Medicine is really a great and very proud profession.

After I transfer to the ward and stay in the hospital for a while, because of the effects of the anesthetic, she will probably sleep for half an hour or an hour before waking up. You take good care of him, he does not rule out the possibility of danger now. And try not to Excuse him, let him rest. Bo Chengcheng said professionally.

Well, I remembered, why hasn't he come out yet? Yin Luo asked anxiously, looking inside the operating room. After waiting for so long, she now wants to see him immediately. No matter what he looks like, she wants to see him well. He is everything.

Bo Chengcheng clapped his hands and shouted, "Come out, then go to the ward."

There were two female doctors inside, and the two male doctors walked out wearing sterile clothes pushing Yi Yan. Yin Luo hurried over and looked at Yi Yan who was lying down. Although he was wearing a hospital gown with drips on his hands, his face was a little pale, and his face was covered with a transparent breathing mask. But still can't cover up that strange aura. In any case, in Yin Luo's eyes, he is always the most handsome.

At that moment, she could keep looking at Yi Yan, but Yin Luo felt inexplicably sad. He was so high and unbelievable. He didn't expect to lie here like this now, knowing nothing, and letting others kill him. And all this is because of her.

Yin Luo and Xiaotian followed the doctor to the ward. Everything inside was relatively complete, and Yi Yan was already lying on the bed.
