

Super Rich Dad Chapter 817-818

Chapter 817

The time passed slowly, during this period of time, basically no major events happened in the North.

All days are as simple as normal, Chen Jingdao still fights with the Shen family as if in full swing, some small families still stand on the sidelines watching the fun.

Both families are the giants of the Northern Province. No matter who wins or loses, it's a feast for the people of these small families!

Each winner will take out a portion of the benefits to appease those on the sidelines, which is considered a reward for them. It is also a threat of sorts.

Warn them not to presume to challenge their authority, as many giants do. Appropriately releasing some of the benefits can get a better harvest.

On Lin Yan's side, she took advantage of the Shen family's fight with Chen Jingdao's Xincheng Group to secretly complete the Xichunju project and then slowly cash out for much-needed funds.

And take advantage of the New Year's holiday to do some appropriate activities to better benefit the family.

Many people are privately speculating, seeing that the New Year has arrived, Chen Jingdao does not know how long he will fight with the Shen family.

If we continue to let him go on like this, I'm afraid the Shen family will not even want to spend a peaceful year.

And at this moment Shen Wennian sitting at home, is also thinking about this matter, because he suddenly found that Shen Tianyang turns out to be just hanging on his appetite.

Although nominally said to help him to bring down Chen Jingdao. But in reality, only a portion of the money was given each time so that he would not be played to death by Chen Jingdao all at once.

But it was also obvious that he seemed to be deliberately allowing Chen Jingdao to consume Shen Wennian's strength.

On this point, although Shen Qingshu did not put much thought into it, he could also feel it.

He had already talked to his own father many times before, and from the beginning he did not believe that this Shen Tianyang would really be on their side.

Only to think that his father had already paid the price, so he chose to hold his tongue.

But I didn't expect to get such a result in return!

At Shen's home, Shen Qingshu sat below Shen Wennian, quietly handling the documents on the desktop, frowning at the things on it from time to time.

'Recently the company's money in and out is really too big. I'm afraid it will attract the attention of quite a few people, do you need me to split the books out?'

After reading the documents in his hand, Shen Qingshu looked at Shen Wennian who was sitting on it, and a hint of a different color flashed in his eyes.

There are three colors in the world, black, white and gray, and the same is true for business people.

One hundred percent of the profit is the white zone, two hundred percent of the profit is in the gray zone, and five hundred percent of the profit is the black zone.

They are also the same for the Shen family in the North, for these things Sally has long had evidence in her hands. But just the thought that if you move the Shen family at will, the problems caused is not something that can be easily handled down.

It is for this reason. So Sally and the old black they have not been this thing to stab, otherwise the Shen family would have already been dealt with in the open.

Any place will not lack a brain iron enough, as long as the Sally hands of those things dumped in front of them, the rest of the matter just need to watch the show.

Shen Wennian sitting not chair is quietly contemplating. He was thinking about what he could use to get the much-needed funds for the Shen family.

Not to mention the New Year, Chen Jingdao is still biting them like a mad dog, if not take advantage of this time for the Shen family to accumulate a certain amount of money.

If you don't take advantage of this time to accumulate some funds for the Shen family, relying on the little that Shen Tianyang has, Shen Wennian fears that he may very well end up with the whole BeiFu Shen family on his back.

After hearing his son's words. Shen Wennian looked back at Shen Qingshu and said, 'Well, the account book is divided into three copies, you take the bright copy, the remaining two copies to me.'

Shen Qingshu nodded slightly after listening, this is a way for Shen Wennian to protect Shen Qingshu.

Not to mention the black, even things that are related to the gray business, Shen Wennian will not let him deal with it, because he is worried that this will then plant hidden dangers for Shen Wennian's future.

Shen Qingshu is naturally clear about his father's meaning. After a moment of silence, he said: 'Dad, I think we don't need to rely on that Shen Tianyang anymore. He's just trying to swallow our Shen family.'

‘I don’t know, but where are you going to find so much money in a short period of time. How about you think of a way for me?’

After saying this, Shen Wennian looked at his son and said: ‘Right now, we can only rely on Shen Tianyang first. Otherwise, if that old dog Chen Jingdao pulls in any foreign aid at this time, we’ll be finished as well.’

The Shen family has already invested a lot in the stock market, if they continue to do so, I’m afraid the consequences will really develop as he thought before.

While Shen Wennian was thinking about these things, Shen Qingshu’s secretary suddenly came up with a small note, then leaned on his ear and said a few words softly and left in a hurry.

After hearing his secretary’s words, Shen Qing Shu’s face suddenly changed, and with an embarrassed face, he bowed his head and said, ‘The Lin family has actually gotten involved in this matter!’

After that, Shen Qingshu put the note in front of his father, then looked at Shen Wennian and said in a deep voice: ‘The Lin family had someone hand over a sum of money to Chen Jingdao, and it looks like the amount is definitely not small!’

Shen Wennian picked up the note on the table and looked at it for a while, then let out a deep sigh and said, ‘I’m afraid I forced them a little too hard last time, that’s why they are like this, what do you think?’

What can Shen Qingshu think? He can’t think of anything right now, he just wants to personally go to the door and ask Master Lin to see if he really wants to get involved!

Chen Jingdao they admit that he is crazy, after all, that old man white hair to send black hair, crazy normal!

But their Lin family in the end is a few guts, how dare they interfere into this matter, they Shen family even if it is not good, but also not anyone can step on a foot!

Thinking of this, Shen Qingshu looked at his father and said: ‘No, I have to visit the Lin family in person to see if they are determined to oppose me!’

Previously, the Lin family’s repentance had caused a lot of trouble for the Shen family in the north, and their reputation had been tarnished from that time on.

Shen Qingshu was young and frivolous, so he had to find a way to retaliate for such an insult, so that he could have his mind clear.

However, what he experienced later made Shen Qingshu understand a deep truth, they are not the strongest, even if their Shen family ranked first in the Northern Province, the strongest relationship.

But if you rashly declare war with any family, I’m afraid the consequences will not be much less than the retaliation of the Lin family.

Remember that at the very beginning, there was a girl who offered a bounty on Shen Qing Shu's life, declaring that how long as she could get his life, how much money she would give!

Chapter 818

Since ancient times, the right to fame and fortune is a very powerful force, especially for business people who have fought for profit all their lives.

Money is not only a number, or a means. When it suits them, they definitely will not pity the money in their hands.

If the Lin family really jumped to the wall, the consequences are not the Shen family can afford.

Shen Wennian looked at his son who had begun to take over the company, a trace of disappointment flashed in his eyes, because he now realized.

His own baby son does not seem to be as perfect as he imagined. In the face of some things will still be overwhelmed.

Perhaps it was because he had supported Shen Qingshu to that position too early that he had become like this. He had a mindset of giving up on everything.

'You'd better be peaceful with me during this period of time, the reason why the Lin family is falling down the well like this, it definitely looks like it's not just as simple as helping Chen Jingdao on the surface.'

After saying this, Shen Wennian pondered for a moment and then opened his mouth, 'Have someone ask around, how many other people have been dealing with Chen Jingdao during this time, it would be best to see if they have provided help to Chen Jingdao.'

Shen Qingshu looked at his father, slightly hesitated after shaking his head back: 'This is difficult to inquire at present, I'm afraid, because the New Cheng Group itself operates in many aspects, this period of time they have begun to shrink funds.'

Speaking here, Shen Qing Shu slightly paused. Then only continued to speak: 'I'm afraid it's hard for us to do something from Chen Jingdao's books, and it's also hard to find out if there's anyone else behind him.'

Chen Jingdao had a high reputation in the North Mansion in his early years, because among the many businessmen in the North Mansion, he was considered one of the most compassionate and righteous.

And not only to his own people with love and righteousness, even to competitors never to fall into the well.

Since the death of Chen Minggang, many people in the North House look at Chen Jingdao's gaze, more or less with a touch of pity and sympathy, so much so that the eyes of the Shen family are somewhat indignant.

This is even, the key is even Shen Tianyang side because of this matter, seems to have some dissatisfaction with the North House Shen family. Think they did a little too much.

After all, although Chen Jingdao this is just not long beside Shen Tianyang, but he did things real, absolutely no little dragging effect.

This makes Shen Tianyang satisfied at the same time also can not help but to this old man up a trace of interest, which makes Chen Jingdao in Shen Tianyang's door under the status of rising!

To put it mildly, if the person who called Shen Tianyang was not the North House Shen family, I'm afraid that after Shen Tianyang learned of this matter, without saying a word, he would take full responsibility for himself.

Then feed Chen Jingdao to get rid of those eyesore nails, so that he can then rest assured to come back to continue to work for themselves!

But the person who called Shen Tianyang was Shen Wennian. And Shen Wennian is willing to pay such a big price, so he also had to help the Shen family a little.

Hanging the North House Shen family Shen Wennian appetite at the same time. Also waiting for the meaning of Chen Jingdao side.

Whose price is higher, then who is qualified to get the final result at his place, this is what Shen Tianyang's idea.

Although Shen Wennian also clear Shen Tianyang in the end how to think, but the situation at present he is also really no other way. Not to mention that the Lin family also provided so much help for Chen Jingdao!

After taking two deep breaths, Shen Wennian got up and walked to the door, looking at the snow-capped picture outside, his heart was as cold as snowflakes.

He really can't figure out how in the end he came to this point today. Is it because of his own son, or is there someone in the dark silently watching the planning of all this?

Seeing his father's sad frown, Shen Qingshu also felt some heartache in his heart, so he reached out and took a coat and walked to the door, then said in a deep voice: 'Dad, go inside, it's cold outside.'

'You say, how on earth did we become this way now. Obviously everything is fine, why would it become this way now?'

After Shen Wennian opened his mouth without looking back and said. Squatting down, looking at the snowflakes under the feet laughing: 'Is it really bad things will be retribution. But why can't retribution in the body of the person, but must be in my body.'

After finishing this sentence with a bitter smile. Shen Wennian took a deep breath and slowly left towards the door.

Shen Qingshu stood in the study and looked at his father's back, he had the intention to go up and stop, but thinking of the pressure everyone was under these days, he had to give up.

Then, according to Shen Wennian's idea, he called his men to inform them to try to find out some information about Chen Jingdao's accounts!

Just when he was doing all this, at this time, Chen Jingdao's office, a woman was sitting quietly on the sofa looking at the old man who was making tea.

'Old Mr. Chen, I respect you as a senior, so this time I want to show you the plan, and if you think it's feasible, I still hope you can participate.'

After saying the words, Sally quietly dropped the folder to Chen Jingdao's desktop again, and saw that he still did not move to make tea.

So Sally lightly laughed and roared and said: 'Think carefully, the only person who can wrestle with the Shen family in the entire North House is me, the others are basically uninspiring guys, what is the point of you doing this?'

Perhaps persistence can make people earn respect, but such purposeless persistence as Chen Jingdao, there is no effect at all!

Chen Jingdao's character is like a lone wolf in the desert wilderness, when he sees his prey, he bites down and never lets go, chasing the other party closely.

The Shen family has become Chen Jingdao's prey at this moment, perhaps because Shen Qingshu took the lead in hurting, so he will bite each other regardless of the time!

And at this time Chen Jingdao picked up Sally's desktop file after looking at it, nodded slightly and said: 'The plan is very good, but afraid of Shen's father and son how do you plan to deal with?'

Honestly speaking, Sally did not think about dealing with the Shen family, she simply wanted to completely screw up the North House Shen family!

As long as the North House Shen family collapsed, then Shen Tianyang can no longer tear a hole in the North House, which can try to avoid the situation like the Chu Jiang side.

Slightly send a person, the other side will begin to suspect, and then directly exclude that person from the Shen family's circle of power.

Thinking of this, Sally sighed somewhat helplessly, 'If there wasn't a problem on Chu Jiang's side and the person who communicated with us wasn't there, do you think I really had to come to you?'

Chen Jingdao listened to a slight smile, then spoke: 'Since you came over today, then I ask you, if it is your old Lai got son, met with a treacherous business has this kind of thing, you can do?'
