Chapter 824

The two people hastily turned around in a panic, seemingly wondering why they were just like that.

The good thing is that Ning Kun did not notice the ambiguous smell in the air, see two people did not look at each other, so some strange opened his mouth and asked: 'What were you doing?'

For the first time in his life, Jiang Hao had the impulse to kill someone. If Ning Kun had come in a little later, perhaps not directly, things might have turned out differently.

And Sally at this moment inside is ashamed and angry, if resentment can kill. At this moment, Ning Kun has a thousand holes.

Jiang Hao in the end is a man, heard Ning Kun's words after a light cough to hide the embarrassed look on his face said: 'This is not the New Year. I was discussing with Sally how to start a plan against the Shen family after New Year's Eve.'

Sally heard this and took two deep breaths, then suppressed the shy look on her face and said in a pretend flat voice: 'Well, do you think I can relax anytime like you guys?'

The words just fell, the door suddenly came a somewhat thick voice: 'Missy ah, long time no see, I miss you to death!'

Following the voice came in a fat mountain of meat, the person who came in was Fatty Fu, who I hadn't seen for a long time!

Jiang Hao was still a little happy to see Fatty Fu, if it weren't for this fatty pestering himself, maybe he wouldn't have known Sally by now.

Just when Jiang Hao wanted to say hello to Fatty Fu. Sally's face was darkened, then roared: 'Fatty Fu you kneel down!'

Flop! It's hard to imagine how funny it is to pay the fat man's tonnage, a sharp brake plus both knees prostrate and sliding three or four meters.

Before Jiang Hao laugh out it, Ning Kun is laughing loudly pointing at Fatty Fu and said: 'I told you, you will definitely suffer this time back, now you know it!'

Sally white glance at Ning Kun, little girl style let sitting next to the Jiang Hao so a froze.

'Words do not say, farts do not release, a departure is three or four months, you tell me what you have been doing this time to me?'

Sitting on the sofa, Sally looked at Fatty Fu who was prostrate at his feet. Although there was anger in her eyes, Jiang Hao could still see a trace of worry in them.

She didn't seem to be as domineering as she appeared, perhaps just simply worried about Fatty Fu's safety.

Coupled with Ning Kun's reaction, it looked like Sally's treatment of Fatty Fu seemed to have gotten the crowd used to it.

Jiang Hao's guess is not wrong, in fact, this is not the first time, as to exactly how many times Fatty Fu himself are a little unclear.

Only know that his knees begging for forgiveness is becoming more and more skilled, can be said to have become a habit!

'That, Miss, do not be angry ah. I took advantage of the opportunity to recommend a talent to you, so I thought there was nothing left for me to do. I went abroad for a walk.'

'Do you need to turn off your phone to go abroad? To go abroad with the need to turn off the positioning? To go abroad with the need to cut off all contact channels?'

After saying this, Sally sneered twice and looked at Fatty Fu and said, 'Do you know what the situation in the North is now, do you know how many people are secretly watching me, in case something happens to you how I am responsible!'

Listening to these words. Fatty Fu was in his thirties, but he was kneeling like a child in front of Sally, not daring to open his mouth.

Ning Kun looked at Sally's frightened look took two deep breaths, and then comforted: 'It's not back, and Brother Fu brought back a lot of news this time.'

Sally gasped twice and then said impatiently: 'Every time you make a mistake, you come with me to this trick. Do not hurry up and get up!'

Fatty Fu hurriedly stood up, and then clasped his hands like a schoolboy who made a mistake and stood anxiously in front of Sally.

'Tell me what you have gained this time after disappearing for several months, if I am not satisfied at all, watch your skin!'

Fatty Fu listened and nodded and laughed: 'Don't worry, you will be satisfied, first of all, about the Shen family, the main news is that Shen Tianyang has secretly sent three ways to contact the Shen branch of the year.'

Speaking of which. Fatty Fu took out the diary he carried with him, and then presented it to Sally.

At the same time spoke: 'These three ways are contacted by the He Dong Shen family. Ducheng Shen family, and Beijing Wan Shen family. These three Shen Tianyang are the first time to contact.'

Sally heard these words eyes unconsciously glanced at Jiang Hao before saying in a deep voice: ‘How long did the people of the He Dong Shen family go?’

‘More than a month ago. It looks like Shen Tianyang into the inland this time was prepared, but you can rest assured that I have used the right to stop all three ways.’

Speaking of this, Fatty Fu’s eyes unconsciously glanced at Jiang Hao while laughing, ‘I really didn’t expect the person who saved me in the first place to be a big shot.’

Perhaps other people would only feel a little funny when they saw Fatty Fu, but for the first time, Jiang Hao actually felt some chills for this unattractive fatty in front of him.

What he holds in his hands means to others, that is simply unimaginable!

This is such a fat man, every time he disappears to bring back the news is often more than Ning Kun lurking a year and a half to bring back, no wonder Ning Kun loves to be close to him.

Thinking about it, Jiang Hao looked at Fatty Fu and laughed: ‘Brother Fu, you’re talking a little too much, what do you mean big shot, I’m just a little fart.’

Sally looked at Jiang Hao and Fatty Fu eye to eye, seems quite interesting look.

Slightly shook his head after still spoke: ‘All put away, there is one thing I want to ask, the He Dong Shen family now mainly in the operation of what connections how, you check it out, Uncle Fu.’

I don’t know if it’s Jiang Hao’s illusion, but Fatty Fu, after hearing Sally’s voice called Uncle Fu, looked at Sally almost as if she was looking at her own daughter!

‘Long ago checked, nearly twenty years from from the Shen clan family after the incident, He Dong Shen family this year has been low-key, the hands of the business transactions are also very clean.’

Ning Kun skimmed his mouth after sitting aside and opened his mouth: ‘The hell place like Hedong, he Hedong Shen family on hand will be clean? You lie to the devil!’

Sally some dissatisfaction glanced at Ning Kun: ‘If you do not know the situation, you go to see the file, if not read the file, do not interfere.’

Ning Kun had the intention to protest, but was suppressed by Fatty Fu’s eyes!

‘Back then, among the thirty-six Shen families, the reason why the He Dong Shen family chose to settle in He Dong was to control it well.’

Fatty Fu said here eyes with a deep meaning glanced at Jiang Hao continued: ‘If not for the He Dong Shen family in, I’m afraid that now He Dong will be even more chaotic!’

Jiang Hao for some reason, after hearing these words heart surprisingly surged a warm current!

Chapter 825

Ning Kun sat on the side after listening could not help but lose a laugh spoke: 'Listen to you say so up, this He Dong Shen family in He Dong looks like the hands can not be low ah?'

Pay fatty this time has not been in the North, the main reason is to go to investigate the situation in the East of the river, which is also for Sally to play the front.

Usually when Sally has any plan at hand. Fatty Fu need to go over to do a little investigation, and then according to the situation to decide whether to act.

Otherwise, in case something goes wrong, not only Sally's side, but also his side will have something to keep up with.

Jiang Hao took two deep breaths and then looked at Ning Kun. Then he poured himself a cup of tea and took a small sip.

'I have the same idea as Ning Kun, if we look at it according to what you said, Brother Fu. This Hedong Shen family's position is still relatively stable, so they should not have much to do with what happened back then, right?'

Fatty Fu shook his head slightly and laughed: 'This is not necessarily, right now I can only investigate the information on hand, but from the Shen Tianyang also sent people to contact with the Shendong family, they should not have much to do with each other.'

This sentence also from the side of the He Dong Shen family from the year in the matter out, and Sally sat next to the calm nodded casually: 'How long have you been investigating over there, they are now dry hands?'

'Compared to some of the other families in the east of the river, they have a lot of clean hands, not tainted with any bad things, but also can not say particularly clean.'

This point is understood by everyone here. After all, in a place like Hedong, if it was really that clean there would be no one to have dealings with them.

Thinking of this Jiang Hao could not help but sigh, then looked at Sally nodded and smiled: 'So it seems that when we go over there we may be able to start something from their side.'

Ning Kun also relaxed after rubbing his temples, and then opened his mouth and laughed: 'Right, I won't be as tired as I was in the northern province.'

Sally gave Ning Kun a white glance, as if to mock him in the North House also did not suffer much tired.

In general, if anything happens, it is Old Black to deal with, and Ning Kun basically did not bother with anything, but he worked a little harder on the matter of the Shen family in the North.

After a brief chat about some information about the Hedong Shen family, Jiang Hao got up and walked out of the office outside and lit himself a cigarette. Then quietly smoked.

Ning Kun looked at Jiang Hao's back some worry, after all, the more it comes to this kind of time, the more they are worried that Jiang Hao will not be able to control his emotions, what problems.

Sally also has some worries in her heart at this time, the northern side of things are not yet how clear the end, and the river east side has already made plans.

Thinking of this, Sally lightly sighed after looking at Ning Kun lightly said: 'You go out to see how Jiang Hao, I worry that his emotions will be a little bad. We'll talk about the details when you get back.'

Ning Kun nodded and walked out of the office, then stood with Jiang Hao leaning against each other in the doorway smoking. From time to time, the two of them simply chatted a little.

Fatty Fu sat in the office and saw Sally looking at herself, so she spoke up rather uncomfortably: 'Miss, why are you looking at me so often? It makes me up and down.'

Sally looked deeply at Fatty Fu and then said: 'I think you should know why I am looking at you, now so many things have happened in the North, you think I will not keep an eye out?'

After saying this, Sally was silent for a long time and then saw that Ning Kun and the others still hadn't come in. So she spoke to Fatty Fu: 'You came back this time besides telling me these things, is there anything else to do?'

Fatty Fu shook his head at his words, in fact, what he needed to do, Sally had already arranged for him.

The reason why Fatty Fu would be so dead set on working for Sally, apart from the things Sally did, there was a big part of the reason.

The most important reason is that Sally will arrange all the things she thinks of in advance so that he doesn't come back with much embarrassment.

'Nothing in particular needs to be done, just want to take advantage of this long vacation. Come back to see you guys, by the way a piece of dinner meaning a little.'

Looking at the naive look on Fatty Fu's face. Sally smiled and nodded: 'I'll assume you're telling the truth, anyway, it's just a few things.'

After saying this. Sally took out a folder, and then threw it to the fat man and said: 'You look carefully. If you find anything wrong, tell me about it.'

After taking the folder and looking at it for a few moments, Fatty Fu hastily closed it and said with a pale face: 'Size gold, you don't play me like that, I just want to mix peacefully until retirement is enough, I really don't want to die in the streets!'

Sally smiled at the fat man: 'I did not say what to do with you, why are you so afraid of it, you have these information is just your experience during this time.'

Looking at the thick stack in his hand, Fatty Fu nodded helplessly and said, 'In that case, what else can I say? Wait, you are not trying to bring me into this matter, right?'

At first, Fatty Fu did not put Jiang Hao in his eyes, after all, how could a person so skilled in medicine still have the heart to study other things.

But what he never expected was that Jiang Hao, with a false identity, was able to make a living in the North, and even he didn't see through it!

Thinking of this, Fatty Fu smiled and nodded, temporarily agreed to Jiang Hao to stay, but also explicitly explained that if you don't follow his rhythm to go, don't blame him if you lose.

Fatty Fu reason to think is to fix the circuit inside the house first, and then take a dagger to drive those people away will be good, so there will be no problem, right?

Thinking of this, Fatty Fu look to Sally hesitantly opened: 'Now the North House your side in the end what is the situation, why I now some more and more can not see it?'

Sally laughed bitterly twice before shaking her head and said, 'Now the situation on the North Province side is quite serious compared to the East of the river, but the only thing to be thankful for is that this layer of turmoil will only develop at our level.'

Just like what Jiang Hao said before, different people have their own circles, and people like Sally, naturally, have circles that belong to her as well.

After a slight glance at Fatty Fu, Sally casually spoke: 'You love this time you'd better make some preparations, when the time comes, when this side of the Shen family collapsed, the next is the time for you to take the field!'

Chapter 826

Fatty Fu nodded and then glanced at Sally, then got up and walked to the office door, and left after glancing at Jiang Hao and others who were smoking at the door.

Seeing such a situation, Ning Kun hurriedly walked in. Then he opened his mouth to Sally and said, 'Have you finished talking?'

Sally nodded gently and laughed after glancing at the door: 'What, Jiang Hao is still outside and didn't come in, he doesn't care about your next trip?'

Ning Kun looked at Sally helplessly: 'It's hard to say he won't care. I think he just temporarily some did not think over it, I'm afraid he also did not think about it. There are still people in the Shen family who are on his side.'

Sally put away some identity questions about Fatty Fu on her desk, then got up and walked over to her desk to put the folder in.

‘You wait, I didn’t say that the Hedong Shen family must be the people who are on Jiang Hao’s side, if things are different from what we envision now then you don’t find me responsible.’

After saying this, Sally sat down, and then opened the computer while casually speaking: ‘What is the situation on the side of the Lin family, tell us.’

‘The old man of the Lin family has now begun to raise funds, it seems that he has decided to participate in this matter, but right now there is a small trouble.’

After saying this, Ning Kun looked at Sally and frowned: ‘That is, I am afraid that the matter of the Lin family’s West Spring Residence project has already reached Shen Qing Shu’s ears. And Chen Jingdao has spread the word that the Lin family has given him financial assistance.’

After hearing this, Sally frowned a little helplessly and said, ‘This is not a way to go on, the later the change, I worry that the more we delay, the more variables there will be.’

Ning Kun does not know this point, looking at Sally helplessly said: ‘I know, so I will continue to follow up this side, in addition to that on behalf of Shen Tianyang over to help the Shen family Sanniang I also began to control.’

For this person Sally is put on the heart, because she hopes to use this three niang to Shen Tianyang to pass some false information that she needs.

‘This point you did a good job, now first let this what Sanniang temporarily settle down for a while, do not let her affect the plan we have in hand.’

Speaking of this. Sally was silent for a while before shaking her head, ‘No, not for now, see if you can find a way to get the other side to let down their guard against the Lin family first.’

Some things are easy to say, but to do that is another matter.

To make Sanniang lose her guard against the Lin family is not something that can be done just by talking about it, after all, Sanniang is not a brainless person.

If it was so easy to dispel the other party’s doubts, Shen Tianyang would not have let Sanniang Dao Beifu to take charge of these matters.

Thinking about this, Ning Kun some headache up. But still helplessly nodded and said: ‘Okay, I will find a way to do this matter. It looks like you plan to make a move on the Shen family recently, right?’

Sally nodded and then pointed to the computer and smiled: ‘Yes, the time was not quite ripe before, but now it is almost time, there is no need to continue to waste time.’

Jiang Hao, who was standing outside the door, also walked into the office at some point. After hearing Sally’s words he looked at Sally and said, ‘So you have decided to act?’

Sally looked up at Jiang Hao who walked into the office, then sighed helplessly, 'Next time when you come in at least knock on the door, there is no need to act like a thief.'

Jiang Hao looked at Sally and shook his head and continued to ask: 'Are you telling the truth, are you planning to start your plans for the Shen family?'

'You just stood in the doorway should have heard it. I do not need to repeat it to you, understand what I mean?'

Perhaps in normal times Sally seemed very easy-going and didn't put much pressure on Jiang Hao.

However, when faced with this kind of business, Sally audit Siang's temperament will be a change, so that people in front of her unconsciously will feel a kind of oppression.

Jiang Hao and Sally looked at each other for a moment and then hesitantly nodded: 'Okay, I'll wait to see what you do, I'll keep watching this time, until everything is over.'

Sally looked at Jiang Hao's face with a troubled look. Frowned and said: 'Don't worry, I know you can't let go of those things. I'll give you an explanation for all the North House here.'

After saying that, she watched Jiang Hao leave, and only then did she lean back in her chair and let out a deep sigh.

Ning Kun stood by Sally's desk and saw her looking tired. So he opened his mouth and laughed: 'It looks like Jiang Hao is not very happy with the Shen family in the north.'

Sally smiled lightly at her words. After a complicated look at Ning Kun, she murmured: 'Who would look past the enemy who is not in common with them.'

After saying this Sally will send the whole thing down the plan of action, and then let Ning Kun began to mobilize the fifty men transferred from the beast camp, they are currently the strongest strength of Sally's hands.

After special training methods layer by layer screening out of people, definitely more tough than the general level two martial artists, but also has their vulnerable side.

That is, when they really start fighting, they tend to fall into a state of berserk that does not distinguish between friend and foe.

Ning Kun previously refused to enter the beast camp because of this, otherwise he would not have gone to those schools, but directly into the beast camp out.

During the period Jiang Hao had the privilege to have a brief contact with those people in the beast camp, they are always if not hidden a trace of blood smell, which makes Jiang Hao feel a little uncomfortable.

And Ning Kun to this trace if the smell of blood is smiling, as if nothing is perceived in general.

In Sally's words, if their bodies did not smell of blood, it would be more useful to have 50 dogs.

While Ning Kun was mobilizing more than fifty experts from the beast camp, Lin Yan had finally transferred all the funds she could gather to the account of Lin's enterprise.

The company's main goal is to provide the best possible service to its customers.

As if overnight, a number of small companies in the North against the Shen family have come forward to join Chen Jingdao's war against the Shen family.

At this time, Chen Jingdao looked at these small companies have come to their own side, in addition to the heart of joy there is an indescribable pride.

I think he did so many things in the North, although the surface does not seem to be useful, but in fact, these people have always remembered him, has never forgotten him!

Even including the Lin family such a powerful family, also began to gradually on the Shen family, this proves that his Chen Jingdao's prestige as far as this one can be against the Shen family!
