

Chapter 828

Usually, they stay out of the castle for safety, but on this day, how could two devout and truly in love couples give up such a great opportunity to not go out and pray for their love?

So there was a reason for her to go out on this day, and she believed that the lack of movement on the other side for a month by no means meant that she had given up on her already.

In fact, the other side was looking for the right time, and this day was the best time for them.

Therefore, they will definitely do it, so that they can take down this group of people with ease, and then check out the power and purpose behind them.

Just a pity....

Thinking of something, Georgie laughed sarcastically.

The day she went to the Fight Gym to find Gu Siqian, she originally wanted to tell him about this plan.

But I didn't expect to run into him and Yusra Lin together then and there, disheveled.

She was also angry at the time, so she didn't say it, and then thought, it's better to get down to business, and to say it when she came across Yusra Lin again to find fault, and he actually just stood on Yusra Lin's side without hearing about it.

In fact, until now, Bella Qiao didn't understand why a man as smart as Gu Si Qian would be fooled by Yusra Lin's little trick again and again?

Those clumsy things she didn't even bother to play with when she was ten, and he really couldn't see them at all?

Bella Qiao didn't understand, or perhaps, it really was a mess of flowers.

In his heart, he was truly in love with Yusra Lin, so much so that he let love blind him to such obvious calculations.

In short, for whatever reason, Bella Qiao was very disappointed in Gu Si Qian.

And I don't want to count on him to play along with my acting.

Today was the begging festival, and she didn't want to wait any longer.

So with or without him, the door that should be out, she's still out, and as to whether or not they fall for it, it's all up to God's will.

Thinking that, she sighed.

To Xiao Yue, he said lightly, "You don't have to ask about these, in short, make sure a lot of people know that the woman who lives in Gu's castle is going out to the Begging Festival Lantern Festival today, understand?"

Xiao Yue nodded her head in succession, "Understood, don't worry, when I was buying things, I even asked them about it deliberately, pretending not to understand.

Because I was afraid no one would notice this, I even asked about the day's program and fun places to go, and later, while visiting a jewellery shop, told them that I would be out with Miss Jo today and would drag you over to buy their jewellery then.

I also followed what you said, and deliberately exaggerated the difficulty of your going out, saying that you were suffocated at home, and would not refuse the chance to go out for a breath of fresh air, and I am sure that with this they will not suspect anything."

Bella Qiao sniffed and nodded.

"That's good."

She looked at the time, it was ten o'clock in the morning.

The Beggars Festival is said to be a festival of lights, so the event begins, naturally, at night.

So there is no rush yet.

Bella Qiao thought so, and let Xiao Yue go down first, while she went back to her room to rest and refresh herself, after all, there might be a tough battle to be fought in the evening.

And while she was resting, in another room in the same building.

Peach found that Yusra Lin, who was lively and full of pride yesterday, seemed a bit listless today for some reason.

Although, as soon as she left the room, she still had that toe-curling, smug look, as soon as she returned to the room, she could see that the smug smile on her face would immediately sink at a visible rate.

Peach didn't know what had happened that would make her the way she was.

You know, last night, in the face of her and Bella Qiao's fight, the young master was clearly on her side.

Wasn't that enough to make her happy?

Thinking this way, Peach became more and more confused.

So he went forward and asked curiously, "Miss Lin, what's wrong with you? Why do I get the feeling you're not very happy?"

Yusra Lin looked at her and smirked.

Happy? What do you mean?

Gu Si Qian was simply playing a trick on her before, he was giving her away, and she was still happy?

Thinking about the man, she hated biting her teeth again.

Gu Si Qian – are you really heartless?

She was all so attached to him, and not only was he not impressed in the least, he never even thought to ask her to stay and stay with him.

Even if, she endured the humiliation and promised to go to Nan Mu Rong's side for him.

But he still had that same impersonal coldness.

It was only in front of Bella Qiao that he would pretend to be concerned about himself.

But Yusra Lin knew that it was only because, he wanted to make Bella Qiao jealous, wanted to see jealousy appear on her face.

He wasn't even doing it for himself, he was doing it all for that woman!

Thinking of this, Yusra Lin's eyes rose with a touch of anger.

Peach didn't know what she was thinking, and shuddered slightly in fright when she saw her lying there, her face ugly and her eyes like knives.

And then had the audacity to shout, "Miss Lin?"

Yusra Lin only came back to her senses.

Looking up, she looked at her and asked, not looking too good, "What for?"

Peach was relieved.

She brought over a box of good red bean pastry and placed it in front of her, saying softly, "I saw that you didn't eat anything this morning either, in case you were hungry, so I brought you a pastry, if you're hungry you can pad your stomach, and in another hour and a half you can have your meal."

Yusra Lin glanced at the plate of red bean pastry.

The eyes showed disgust.

Without even thinking about it, she raised her hand and skimmed the plate of red bean soufflé, saying coldly, "I don't like this, so go to the kitchen and bring me a bowl of silver ear lotus seed soup."

It's summertime, and the silver ear lotus seed soup is perfect for her as it has the ability to help with the heat and whiten the skin.

Peach heard the words and responded, "Yes, I'll go get it right away."

Afterwards, he turned and hurried away.

It was only when Yusra Lin saw how well-behaved and obedient she was that she felt a lot smoother in her heart.

Soon after, Peach came with a bowl of silver ear lotus soup.

There was a hint of joy on his face as he walked through the door.

As soon as she saw Yusra Lin, she took a few quick steps and put down the towel in her hand and smiled, "Miss Lin, guess who I just went out and met?"

Yusra Lin glanced up at her with little interest and asked, "Who?"

"I met Moon in the kitchen, and that little b*tch, seeing me with eyebrows not eyebrows and eyes not eyes, made me angry. It just so happens that she went to the kitchen, also to serve the silver-ear soup to the one on her side, just as I saw that there was only one copy in the kitchen pot, so I even grabbed it, here it is, the one on their side didn't get to drink it, if you want to drink it again you have to wait for the cook to make it again, the soup is not good at all if it doesn't simmer for three or four hours, so let them wait and go."

Chapter 829

Yusra Lin couldn't help but smile even after hearing that.

The frustration in my chest was relieved more and more.

She lifted the bowl of silver ear lotus soup and smiled, "So does Bella Qiao know?"

Peach's eyebrows danced, "Moon is so angry and green, I'm sure she'll go back and talk to her ah, she'll make sure she knows."

Yusra Lin was even happier when she heard it.

But then I turned to think of Bella Qiao's cold nature, and my eyes darkened again.

The man, it's not clear that he cares about the little things.

Probably wouldn't have cared, after all, if she hadn't been sure she liked Kuskan, she wouldn't have even been able to tell if there was any living emotion left in her or not.

Thinking this, Yusra Lin snorted again.

So what if she liked Gu Siqian?

Aren't they still together?

As long as they weren't really together yet, they still had a chance, and besides, if Gu Siqian and Bella Qiao really had no grudges as he himself said, then why hadn't they picked up on it and just got together?

Rather, it was to side-step and use herself to prove to him whether or not Georgie had him in her heart.

Thinking of this, her eyes, which had dimmed down, only then did a glow rise again.

With a grunt, I spooned a mouthful of soup into my mouth.

Not to mention, it's worthy of the soup you stole from Georgie.

After just one sip, I really thought this bowl was better than anything I'd ever had before.

The sweetness has a very peculiar, yet fragrant, hint of flavor.

Yusra Lin quickly finished the bowl, and after finishing it, she licked the corners of her mouth and said, "They must be mad now, right? Let's go, let's see the fun too, even if we can't do anything to her, it would be a great pleasure to add to her troubles."

When you're done, you put the bowl down and stand up.

Peach was glad to see it.

After all, in order to keep herself from falling a bit short of Bella Qiao, even if she was just going to the castle every time, Yusra Lin had to dress up delicately and flamboyantly as if she was going to a banquet.

This time, naturally, it was the same.

However, she didn't expect to suddenly see her face change and bend down as soon as she picked up her handbag for Yusra Lin.

She froze for a moment and ran over to help her.

"Miss Lin, what's wrong with you?"

Only Yusra Lin's face instantly turned pale and unsightly, and her forehead was even sweating like rain.

The words were broken, and a hand reached out, shaking slightly from the pain, and grabbed her arm at once.

It was so strong that it was as if she wanted to embed her entire hand in her arm.

"My stomach hurts!"

She said with difficulty.

Peach turned pale and panicked all of a sudden.

"What's with the sudden stomach ache? Take your time, come sit down first."

After even helping Yusra Lin to sit down, she saw her face suddenly turn from white to red, and the corners of her lips became a little green.

Within a few seconds, Yusra Lin felt a knife stirring in her abdomen, as if a giant hand had tugged on her intestines and was pulling them viciously.

She almost fainted from the pain, and Peach saw that she didn't look right and realized that something was wrong.

He even said, "Miss Lin, hang in there, I'll call a doctor, you must hang in there, I'll call a doctor right away!"

After saying that, he hurriedly ran outside.

It didn't take long for the doctor to arrive.

Not only the doctor, but also Ober was alarmed and all came running.

By this time, Yusra Lin had passed out from the pain.

As soon as the doctor saw her face, he immediately sank and quickly began examining and treating her.

Bella Qiao also heard the commotion over here and ran over to take a look, only to see Yusra Lin's room crowded with people.

She didn't frown.

By this time, the doctor had already had Yusra Lin carried to the bed and was beginning to administer treatment.

And Ober, turning back to see her, came over quickly.

"Miss Jo."

Kitty Qiao frowned and asked, "What's going on?"

Ober's face wasn't too good either, and he said in a deep voice, "I don't know, I just heard that something happened over here, so I rushed over, supposedly..."

He paused and his brow furrowed, "Poisoning."

"Poisoning?"

Kitty Jo surprised out loud.

Ober nodded.

"It's just poisoning, the exact cause of the poisoning hasn't been found out yet, the doctors are testing it, but I'm sure we'll have the results soon."

Bella Qiao nodded.

There was some confusion, it was reasonable to say that all aspects of Gu Si Qian's castle should have been checked very strictly, how could something like poisoning happen?

And still, to Yusra Lin.

Yusra Lin she didn't know much about, but she knew roughly that it was just a vase with big breasts and no annoyance, and she didn't threaten anyone's interests on this side.

What kind of person would want to harm her?

Bella Qiao was baffled, not only by her, but also by the others who were equally incomprehensible.

But it's happened, and there's no use thinking about it at this point.

Bella Qiao looked at Yusra Lin, who was lying on the bed in the room, her eyes closed and pale, and asked, "Can it be saved?"

Ober nodded.

"The doctor says it's okay, although it's very toxic, because it was found early, so it should be fine."

Bella Qiao was just putting her mind at ease.

Even though Yusra Lin had troubled her several times, she didn't like this scheming woman.

But also don't really want to see a human life die again in front of their eyes.

She was silent for a moment and said, "Inform Gu Si Qian, he should know about this as soon as possible."

I don't know if it was her delusion or not, but she always felt that it would never be a coincidence that Yusra Lin's poisoning appeared on a special day like today.

Perhaps, it was directed at Gu Siqian.

So informing him is a must.

Ober nodded, "That's what I thought, but I was in a hurry and didn't care, I'm sending someone now."

Afterwards, he went out to make a phone call.

On the other hand, Georgie sat and watched for a while until the doctor informed her that there was no more risk for the time being, and that she would be fine with just moving the person to the medical room over on the main floor to have their stomach pumped.

Back in the room, Georgie's brow remained locked.

That uneasy feeling in the back of my mind was growing, and I didn't know why.

The good news is that it wasn't long before Ober sent someone over to inform her.

It said that Gu Siqian already knew about it and was on his way back.

Originally, it had nothing to do with Bella Qiao, but Ober still sent someone over to inform her of this.

It is evident that in Ober's eyes, he takes Bella's position very seriously.

Comparable to the mistress of this castle.

Bella Qiao sniffed and didn't have much to say.

It looks like indifference.

Chapter 830

Until Gu Siqian returned to the castle, he came back so quickly that he almost got the news and was home in half an hour.

On the medical side, stomach lavage was also completed, putting Yusra Lin out of danger for the time being.

After testing, the poisoning has been analyzed.

This result, however, was beyond everyone's expectations.

When the doctor announced the results, Georgie was there, pushed over in a wheelchair by Moon.

She didn't look at Kuskan, they didn't even meet eye to eye, they both just stood there, quietly waiting for the outcome.

I saw the doctor coming out of the medical room, looking very ugly.

He said quietly, "The results came back, and it was arsenic."

What?

Arsenic?

Everyone was taken aback.

Gu Siqian and Bella Qiao's eyebrows locked up as well.

Immediately afterwards, the doctor looked at Peach, who was standing to the side, and asked, "Did Miss Lin drink the silver ear lotus seed soup today?"

Peach was stunned and nodded, "Yeah, I'm still serving that soup in the kitchen, so what's up?"

The doctor brought out a report, his face pale.

"The poison was in that bowl of soup, and here's the toxicity report from the top of the silver fungus taken from her stomach, so you'll see."

Without waiting for Peach to react, Gu Siqian had already snatched the report away first.

At first glance, the face was instantly gloomy.

However, Xiao Yue, who was standing behind Bella Qiao, seemed to suddenly think of something and her face suddenly changed.

Peach is still there, panicking and explaining.

"How so?The soup was brought out from the kitchen by my own hands, and Miss Lin drank it after it was brought to the room, and it definitely didn't go through a third hand again in between, so how could it be poisonous?"

After saying that, he suddenly turned his head to look at the cook, Zhang Feng, who was standing on the other side and was also similarly called over.

"I know, it must be you!You poisoned it, didn't you?"

When she shouted like this, everyone's eyes suddenly looked over at Zhang Feng.

Peach shrieked, "I know, it must be because you secretly hated that Miss Lin shouldn't have wrongly accused you of stealing the bird's nest yesterday, so you poisoned her today to try to kill her, why are you so cruel?"

After saying that, he seemed to be about to pounce over and pester Zhang Feng.

However, with so many people here, how could she really hit it?

Gu Si Qian snapped coldly, "Enough!"

Immediately, someone stepped forward to stop her.

His gaze darkened as he looked at Zhang Feng and asked, "Did you make this soup?"

Zhang Feng was also confused at this point, and did not expect that the silver ear soup she had made would be poisonous.

She fidgeted and waved her hand, explaining, "I didn't, although I made this soup, I didn't poison it, the conscience of heaven and earth, although I don't like Miss Lin, but she is your guest, I'm just a cook here, how would I dare to harm her?"

Peach squealed at the news, "Who else could it be if not you? You're the only one here who has a history and opportunity with Miss Lin?"

Zhang Feng had never thought that she would one day be in such a mess.

To say that she's also been unlucky these past two days, she's either been falsely accused of stealing a bird's nest or being framed for poisoning and killing someone.

It's simply like a walk in the water, with all the bad luck coming together.

She suddenly thought of something and her eyes lit up.

"Ah, right, this silver-ear lotus soup was not originally stewed for Miss Lin at all, if I really wanted to poison her, why didn't I put it in the food she ate for lunch and put it in this bowl of silver-ear soup, did I Could I have predicted beforehand that she would want to drink this morning?"

Everyone was stunned by that and didn't seem to understand what she meant.

That's when Moon came out.

She said in a deep voice, "I can testify that this bowl of silver ear lotus seed soup was originally made by me early in the morning when I went to the kitchen to order Sister Zhang to make it to relieve Miss Qiao's heat, but I didn't expect that after the soup was ready, when I went to the kitchen to get it, it was snatched away by Xiaotao."

She paused and turned to look at Peach, her face expressionless, "So if we really want to talk about the murderer, it shouldn't be Sister Zhang, but Peach who stole that bowl of silver ear soup for her."

Peach was shocked at the news.

Never thought it would come to this.

She snapped, "I didn't! Miss Lam is so nice to me, why should I hurt her? Don't you dare talk nonsense!"

After saying that, he suddenly remembered again and turned to look at Bella Qiao incredulously.

"So the poison in this bowl of soup wasn't originally placed on our Miss Lin, it was placed on you?"

At this point, almost everyone reacted, and she was the only one who had been so backwards to this point.

Gu Si Qian's face grew darker and darker.

He looked coldly at Peach, and only after a half-hearted moment did he say in a deep voice, "Qin Yue!"

Qin Yue came up from behind him and answered respectfully, "Boss."

"Send someone to investigate, find out who has been near the kitchen lately, who poisoned it, and all the people who have been to the kitchen today, every single one of them, make sure to catch this poisoner!"

Qin Yue's heart was in awe as he replied, "Yes!"

That's when the crowd dispersed.

Self with Ober assisting Qin Yue, he went to conduct a one-by-one check of the castle's servants and security guards.

Bella Qiao saw that everyone had dispersed and also let Xiao Yue push herself around and leave.

Because it was now clear that the person who poisoned her was coming for her, she and Moon, in fact, were the only two people who had picked clean in the matter.

She was in a wheelchair and headed for her room.

Without noticing, behind the scenes, there was a deep and complex gaze that was watching her intently.

Yusra Lin only woke up in the afternoon.

After a bout of poisoning and a therapy session, a person who had been doing well actually paled a bit, as if he had a serious illness.

She lay down on the bed, saw Peach sitting on the edge of the bed, and asked, "What's wrong with me?"

Peach was still crying quietly, and immediately looked up when she heard her voice.

In the next second, a look of surprise bloomed in his eyes.

"Miss Lin, are you awake?"

Yusra Lin was a bit confused.

It took a moment to respond and ask, "What happened?"

Peach was busy telling her everything that had happened today.

Yusra Lin listened and fell silent.

Peach cried in a small voice, "Miss Lin, you scared me to death, I thought that I would never see you again in my life."

Yusra Lin barely tugged at the corners of her lips, but at this time, she had faded from her usual high and mighty self, appearing to be a little more approachable in a rare way.

She whispered, "You're the only one who still cares about me, who else in this castle cares if I live or die but you?"

Peach was startled when she heard the party.

Seeing the pallor in Yusra Lin's eyes, it actually felt a little strange.

Was this still the same, ever-fighting Yusra Lin she knew?
