

Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 83

In an instant, the lights in the entire corridor were bright, and the voices were full of people, completely chaotic.

Logan Fu is a patient with a special status.

However, in just a few minutes, the alarm system in the entire inpatient department was ringing everywhere.

The loud and harsh sound awakened Alina Yin who was sleeping in the ward on the top floor.

The little girl opened her eyes and looked at Liam Lu beside the bed, and said nervously.

“Dad, the alarm is ringing, and Alina Yin is terrified.”

Liam Lu raised his eyebrows and touched Alina Yin’s head, his voice seemed to have soothing power.

“Don’t be afraid, you lie down and don’t move, dad go out and see.”

He got up and walked outside, and as soon as he opened the door, he saw a few white coats passing by the door hurriedly.

Liam Lu grabbed one casually and asked Shen Shen.

“what happened?”

The little nurse gave him a flustered look, and said anxiously.

“Lu, Mr. Lu. It was the tracing detective Logan Fu who turned into a vegetative downstairs and suddenly woke up. Maybe he knew too many secrets and someone wanted to kill him. Now the alarm system in the whole hospital is activated, and the perpetrators are being caught everywhere. Who is it!”

When the little nurse finished speaking, she suddenly said “Oh”.

“By the way, with him, there seems to be Miss Gu who gave your daughter a blood transfusion that day. I heard that Logan Fu was in a car accident to find out the truth about the death of her relatives.”

The little nurse finished speaking and ran away.

Liam Lu stared blankly in the direction where the little nurse disappeared, his thoughts were suddenly split, and something became clear in an instant.

He once gave Zoey Gu six million.

I always thought that the six million was spent in the hospital to keep the little white face that was seriously injured in the car accident.

It turned out not to be.

The person who was seriously injured in the car accident was Logan Fu. Her six million was only used to buy the truth about the death of her relatives.

He misunderstood her again...

Thinking of this, Liam Lu suddenly turned around and ran to the ward, and said coldly to the nanny who had already stood up beside Alina Yin.

“Lock the door and watch Alina Yin.”

After he finished speaking, he turned and strode towards the elevator not far away.

As soon as he reached the corner, a staggered figure rushed out of the stairwell.

“Liam...”

Liam Lu turned his head suddenly, and saw Zoey Gu crawling towards him all the way.

He took a few steps, clasped her waist with his big hands and lifted it up. She turned away from her blood-stained hands, her eyes gleamed.

“what happened?!”

Zoey Gu trembled all over, almost all the strength of her whole body attached to Liam Lu, and he looked at him with scarlet eyes.

“You help me, you must help me!”

“Logan Fu, who helped me find someone, woke up. He knew the truth about the deaths of my father and younger brother. He knew who that person was! But when that person wanted to kill him, he didn’t run far in the hospital. Liam... “

There was a broken cry in Zoey Gu’s voice, looking desperate and pitiful.

“Now in Berven City, only you can help me, and only you can find that person. Even if I beg you...”

Liam Lu's eyes were cold, and his body exuded a powerful, bloodthirsty and cold aura.

He clasped Zoey Gu's shaky body in his arms with one hand, took out the phone with the other, and quickly made a call.
