

Chapter 831

She couldn't help but ask carefully, "Don't say that, Young Master he still cares for you, he knew you were poisoned and ordered a thorough investigation of the entire castle."

However, this time, it was rare that she didn't hear Yusra Lin's concurrence.

Where was he doing it for himself, Yusra Lin thought to herself?

This matter made it clear that the other party was coming for Bella Qiao.

He was merely taking an arrow for her because he had robbed her of her silver ear soup.

If he really cared that much about himself, why hadn't she seen him when she woke up?

Even in the entire room, Peach was alone, not even Ober was there.

For the first time, Yusra Lin felt that the room that she had always felt small before suddenly felt bigger.

It's empty and makes you feel bad.

However, she deftly hid the loss and sadness from the rest of the world.

Then he turned to Peach and said, "I'm okay, don't cry, now I'm kind of hungry, go see if there's anything to eat."

Peach nodded at the words, "I'll be right there."

In the end, because Yusra Lin had just finished cleaning her stomach and couldn't eat anything else, so only half a bowl of porridge was brought over to her in the kitchen.

Although Yusra Lin hadn't grown up wealthy, she was considered a rich family, so where had she eaten such light porridge?

Not frowning for a moment, but thinking of something, she didn't resist anymore in the end and ate it.

And the other side.

Jackie had been sitting in her room since lunch.

Although it had been known for a long time that the other party was coming for himself in this poisoning incident.

But it's like she's completely unresponsive to the whole thing, knowing full well that someone is trying to kill her, and she's calm as usual.

The time to eat, the time to drink, the time to take a nap.

Causing the other servants in the castle to wonder if there was something wrong with her.

And only Jocie knew that she was normal.

She was just a little surprised, she had always thought that the other party wouldn't do it, but they did, and they lurked inside the castle.

Now, she was thinking about two things.

The first one is, which of the two waves that did it this time, was it the last one?

The second is, by what means, or by whom was the other party poisoned?

After this incident came out at noon, Gu Siqian first checked the surveillance.

But because the kitchen was overcrowded, the silver ear soup was simmering there, and several people besides the cook, Zhang Feng, had been near that pot as well.

And if the other side really wants to poison it, it doesn't have to be in the soup.

Even if it goes down in the bowl she uses to fill the soup, or the water she uses to cook the soup, or even if it's on the ingredients, it will do the same thing.

So, it's hard to check this one.

And the first one, to say nothing of it.

How can you tell who is trying to kill her when you haven't even found the letter that is the killer.

However, it can't be said to be completely unproductive.

After all, the arsenic was so poisonous that a healthy person like Yusra Lin would almost die from drinking it.

She was now injured herself, so naturally she couldn't withstand such a stomach pumping ordeal, so the other party would most likely be the first wave, the one that had hit her with their car last time, and only that wave would be the one that was simple and brutal and directly trying to kill her.

The second wave, however, was clearly more like trying to take her alive.

Even though so much time has passed, so far Kitty is actually still

I don't know, who the wave was.

But it didn't matter, since they couldn't help it anymore, the fox tail, sooner or later, would show itself.

Thinking this way, Bella Qiao Fang settled down and called Xiao Yue in, letting her push herself to find Gu Si Qian.

On this matter, she thought about it, but she still needed to get Gu Si Qian to cooperate.

If there was no such poisoning incident today, then she could still go ahead with her original plan.

But now, the other party had already made a move, if she still continued with her original plan and went out alone, the other party would definitely suspect something.

After all, who doesn't know that a holiday like today is a day for couples to go out together.

The street was full of pairs, originally because Gu Siqian had already left the house in the morning, and she thought to herself that she might be able to confuse the other Gu Siqian was off on some errand, so that's why she didn't join her.

It would make sense for her to go out on her own.

But now, if Gu Si Qian stayed in the castle alone, instead of her running out, it would seem less justified.

After all, if the two of them were together, then Gu Si Qian would definitely accompany her out.

He didn't accompany her, but let her go out by herself, which couldn't be justified.

So he really needs to cooperate to be in this scene.

Just unexpectedly, Bella Qiao didn't expect to see Gu Si Qian in the aisle by the side of the secondary building and the main building before she found him.

When we met again, the man's appearance was light, and there was nothing special on his face.

It was as if, the matter of Yusra Lin's poisoning this morning was not important to him at all.

Bella Qiao was silent for a moment, thinking about the bigger picture.

Since his heart had already decided to leave behind such unnecessary things as childishness, there was naturally no need to get cold and angry with him over these things.

Therefore, she pushed the wheelchair and very decently and generously stepped forward, looked up at him and said, "Gu Si Qian, I have something to say to you."

It was obviously no coincidence that Gu Siqian appeared here now.

He nodded, "Just as well, I have something to say to you."

The two sort of coincided.

And Moon, who had been watching the scene from behind, couldn't help but sigh.

What Yusra Lin Lin Xing'er's, June, this pair is the most taciturn, heart to heart.

The rest of them will seem superfluous in their presence.

The superfluous Moon was very observant, and since Gu Siqian had appeared, she had quietly retreated to the side, choosing not to be this electric cannon.

Therefore, it was only natural for Gu Si Qian to walk behind Bella Qiao and push up the wheelchair for her.

There was a bit of a sigh in Georgie's mind.

I don't know when I'll be truly well and whole in this broken body of mine.

According to the doctor, it will take two more months.

Two months, that's a lot of work to do.

In fact, if her own body hadn't gotten her into this state, she wouldn't have chosen to stay in the castle and stoop to the level she was in.

According to her past temper, she might have left long ago, and then, regardless of what he was doing, she would just kill the four corners of the city and go straight to the Yellow Dragon.

But now, she can't.

She couldn't be capricious, not because she was afraid of dying, but because, if she did die, then who would avenge Seven Seven.

Her life could be said to be what Tang Qi Qi traded her s*x for back.

The only family she had, the sister she cherished most in her life, died tragically in the best years of her life because of her.

Chapter 832

What reason could she have for not valuing this one life of hers and avenging her?

Thinking about it, Bella Qiao's eyes went a little colder.

Seemingly sensing the dense gloom emanating from her body, Gu Si Qian also darkened his eyes and said in a deep voice, "Don't worry, I will definitely assist you in taking revenge and wiping out that gang."

For once, it was hard for Georgie not to refuse.

"Thanks."

She knew that the other side was very powerful.

You may be able to make it work on your own, but there is a much higher risk factor involved and a much higher chance of not succeeding.

And it's not the same with Kuskan.

He has the power, the brains, the connections, and as long as he's on his side and the two are a community of interest, then it's like adding wings to a tiger.

They went all the way up to the secondary floor to Georgie's room.

Only when Gus Gan let go of the wheelchair did Bella Qiao turn back to Xiao Yue and say, "You go out first, we'll talk for a while."

Xiao Yue was naturally happy to see it happen, and even said yes with a smile on her face, then hurriedly left.

Bella Qiao knew she had misunderstood her and Gu Si Qian, they were going to talk business, but Xiao Yue thought they were reconciled and in love.

But at this point, she had no desire to explain.

After she left, she let Gu Siqian close the door before saying in a deep voice, "The people who poisoned me this time were after me, but they didn't succeed, and I'm pretty sure they'll keep coming back a second time."

Kuskan nodded, agreeing with her on this point.

"Which wave do you think they are?"

Bella Qiao said quietly, "The first wave."

Speaking of which, her gaze was cold with a whiff of murderous intent.

"They wanted me dead, that's why they used arsenic so powerfully poisonous. In fact, if it wasn't for the fact that Yusra Lin's health was better and there were readily available doctors in the castle, she might have actually died this time because of it."

"And I'm different, as we all know, I'm still recovering from my injuries, my body is already half crippled, and if I get hit by this poison and just add to my injuries, then I'm not far from death, if not death."

Kuskan agreed with her.

He said quietly, "Do you have any idea what you're doing now?"

Bella Qiao's showy eyebrows furrowed lightly.

She said in a deep voice: "Only a thousand days to make a thief, not a thousand days to prevent a thief, the other party made such a big commotion, and used so many tricks, but we didn't even find out their identity, we didn't even touch the tail, I don't think it would be a good idea to continue to wait like this, after all, this time it was Yusra Lin who was poisoned, so what about the next time? Not to mention myself, I don't want to be like a ticking time bomb that will hurt those around me at any moment."

I don't know why, but when he heard this, Gu Si Qian suddenly laughed grudgingly.

Those deep eyes, when looking at her, were even more like a smile, hiding a gimmick of a quick smile.

He chuckled softly, "You don't hate her now? And you're feeling guilty for hurting her by mistake?"

Bella Qiao was stunned, and when she reacted, her face immediately sank.

She said quietly, "When did I get jealous? Don't talk nonsense, Kusken."

The man gave a low chuckle and came over, suddenly leaning over to brace his hands on the armrests on either side of her wheelchair and whispered, "Not jealous? I don't believe it, Ah.

Joe, you'll always be so soft-spoken."

The man's low, cool voice fell into her ears, causing her to tremble at the tip of her heart.

I don't know why, but my face suddenly got a little hot.

She was afraid or unwilling to look him in the eye, so she just turned her head away and looked away in panic.

At the same time, the mouth was still strong enough to say, "I don't know what you're talking about."

Gu Si Qian smiled lowly.

Nor was it reluctant, straightening up and instantly reverting to that cold, self-possessed demeanor.

He took two steps back, leaned against a table behind him, and said, "You go on."

Kitty was stunned for a moment before she realized he was indicating that he was continuing on with what he had been saying.

The mind stumbled, not cursing the man for being such a jerk.

But in the end, he restrained the scowl from his face and continued.

"We can't defend each other all the time, so I'm going to just draw the snake out of the hole, but they haven't been willing to show up, have they? Let's not even touch their tails, in that case, I simply go out in a big way, they hunkered down for so long to come up with this trick of poisoning, it's obvious that all the other methods have been tried, but they can't get close enough to me, that's why they chose such a method of its potential for mistakes."

"In this way, they've been caught off guard, and it's evident that they wouldn't have chosen this path if there wasn't really no other way."

"If that's the case, why don't we just take this as a sign that we don't know that this poison was actually given to me today, and you can even threaten to go out and just plant this poisoning incident on me, just as you say, I was just jealous of your relationship with Yusra Lin and that's why I poisoned her."

"This way, the other side will think that we haven't even noticed their presence, they've waited so long for the chance to make a move, but now I'm out, this is a rare and good opportunity, even if there's some doubt in their minds about our motives, but they won't let go of such a good opportunity."

Gu Si Qian's eyes sank slightly as he listened to her finish.

He said quietly, "So? What do you need me to cooperate with you?"

Bella Qiao didn't sell out, looking up at him and getting straight to the point, "I want you to be a lecherous and faint-hearted ruler for once, and fall out with me in front of everyone in the castle, or even... kick me out of the castle!"

Gu Si Qian's pupils shrank viciously.

The face also went cold.

For a moment, he smirked, "I thought you'd have me play along with you in a love scene and go out to the begging festival of lights together at night, so that we'd have just as much reason to go out and achieve the same effect."

However, Bella Qiao shook her head.

She said faintly, "To be honest, just before, I was thinking the same thing, but it suddenly occurred to me that we haven't even found out each other's identities, so it's too dangerous to go out together rashly like this, so it's better for me to go out first by myself, and if there's an accident, you'll be able to catch it from behind."

However, Gu Si Qian's face completely sank as a result of her words.

"Dangerous? Two would be more dangerous than you going out alone?"

Kitty Qiao frowned.

Obviously feeling the anger of the man in front of her, she knew what he was angry about, but there was no way to respond.

She said in a deep voice, "Gu Si Qian, I don't want you to get hurt because of me."

The man's eyes tightened hard.

Chapter 833

I heard her continue again, "Not because I care about you so much, but because, based on our current relationship, your willingness to help me find those people is already a kindness, and I don't want to owe you any more than that, nor can I afford it, do you understand?"

She speaks the truth and from her own heart.

But Gu Siqian sneered abruptly because of that.

"Don't want to owe me? Bella Qiao, you already owe me, so why do you take it upon yourself to say you don't want to owe me anymore?"

Bella Qiao lagged.

She took a deep breath and faintly said, "Okay, I admit, Gu Siqian, this matter is very important and dangerous, I don't have anyone else I can trust, only you, do you understand? No matter how many grudges we've had in the past, right and wrong, but I know that you're the only one who won't leave me behind when it's really the most dangerous time, so I'm giving you my back, will you promise to bring me back safely and catch those who want to harm me? You won't let me down will you?"

After four years, the woman once again looked at him with such sincere and trusting eyes, causing Gu Siqian to have a long-lost throb.

He looked at Bella Qiao, his eyes deep and rolling in his throat.

It took half a moment before a mute, "Yes."

Bella Qiao smiled slightly.

"Then let me go out alone, do as I say, act, tell everyone that it was I who poisoned Yusra Lin, and after I leave at night, you will secretly follow out with a group of people, remember not to follow too closely, the other party is too cunning, and by this incident of poisoning you can see that they already have someone who has infiltrated the castle."

"Or rather, there were their people in the castle originally, and I know that the people around you have been chosen through careful selection and are very trustworthy, but spare me, this matter must not be made too loud, and I am not afraid of the worst."

She was serious, and naturally Gu Siqian understood that it was a matter of life and death for both of them, and could not be trifled with.

He nodded heavily, "I see."

Jackie smiled slightly at that and turned her head away.

"Go on."

Kusken punched.

He knew that she was sending him out to start a plan.

It was also known that now, as soon as he got out of the house, the two of them would have to meet as enemies for a short time at least, within today.

His mind rose to a sweet and bitter taste for some reason.

He looked at her steadily and said, "Joe, after this is over, when all those people are outed, can we sit down and talk about it calmly and honestly?"

Bella Qiao's heart was shaken a little.

But still, he didn't look back at him, just put his eyes out the window in the distance.

It took half a moment before she said quietly, "Good."

Only then did Gu Si Qian came up, satisfied, and leaned down to k*ss her on the top of her head.

She shuddered a little, hearing his low voice.

"Joe, I'll wait for you to come back."

Joe, I'll wait for you to come back.

Such an ordinary and mundane sentence, why did it suddenly make her eyes wet?

Those days and nights that were once sweet and lingering, as if they were right back in front of you, scene by scene, just like a movie picture, one by one, flashed by.

With red eyes, she forced a smile and nodded.

"Good."

Only then did Gu Si Qian turn around and stride towards the door.

As he reached the door, he suddenly stepped, turned, and with a wave of his hand, a vase placed on the shoebox in the doorway fell with a sound.

"Bang!"

A loud shattering sound startled everyone.

The maids outside the house heard the man's angry voice burst from inside, "Bella Qiao, it's really you! You're the one who poisoned the moon."

Bella Qiao's cold voice came from inside the house.

"I told you I didn't!"

"And you dare to argue! These days you have repeatedly and repeatedly tried to harm her, I have tolerated you many times, I thought you would get better, but I didn't expect you to not only not reflect on it in the slightest, but to intensify it, you've really disappointed me!"

Bella Qiao's voice also sounded tinged with a few hints of anger and more aggravation.

"I let you down? Who's really letting who down? In your heart, am I really no match for Yusra? If she says I did it, I did it? Am I, under your understanding, a villainous and poisonous woman who can poison people because of a little jealousy?"

The words were quiet for a moment.

The House.

Kusken looked at her quietly.

Maybe it was because she was talking too hard, but Bella Qiao's flat eyes swept a little faint red at the end of her eyes.

His heart suddenly clenched hard for some reason.

However, in the end, it was a hard kick to a nearby chair.

The chair was kicked away with a loud thud.

He gritted his teeth and said sternly, "Isn't it? For the sake of your one personal grain debt, you almost killed Moon, and I will not let this matter rest."

Bella Qiao sneered, "Then what do you want? Kill me to avenge her?"

"You think I wouldn't dare?"

"Don't you dare you come without killing me! You wouldn't be a man."

"Georgie!"

Hearing only a crackling sound inside the house, a group of servants outside the house turned pale, and in the midst of their panic, they saw Ober rushing over.

Ober had obviously heard the noise inside and looked very ugly.

Seeing that they were still stunned, they shouted harshly, "What are you still stunned for? Don't go in yet!"

It was only then that everyone reacted and hurriedly pushed through the door.

But the house was a mess, and Bella Qiao was still in her wheelchair while Gu Si Qian stood in front of her, leaning over and choking her hard.

Everyone was so shocked that they all turned pale and jumped to the rescue.

Ober also rushed over and advised bitterly, "Young Master calm down, Young Master don't be impulsive! Even if Miss Qiao is wrong in a thousand ways, she is at least the dean's granddaughter, and the dean is as gracious to you as a mountain, please spare her life even if it's for his sake."

Hearing this, Gu Si Qian's eyes loosened.

The gills clenched, only to finally let go of her.

The sensation of choking loosened up as soon as Kitty Qiao covered her throat and bowed and coughed violently.

A group of maids in the house were shocked and confused, it was the first time they saw Gu Siqian looking so shocked and angry, they didn't dare to speak.

Gu Si Qian, on the other hand, was just standing there, looking at her condescendingly, emitting a cold fury that could almost freeze people.

He said coldly, "Bella Qiao, I'm sparing your life today, not because I'm too soft to kill you, but for the sake of grandpa dean, from today onwards, if I ever find out that you have the slightest intention of hurting Yusra, I'll definitely let you die without a burial place!"

Bella Qiao looked up at him, her eyes fishy red.

The throat had been strangled so hard that speech had become a little hoarse.
