

My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 831

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 831-Still baffled by the sudden turn of events, Luke took the chance to help Susan get into the lift and closed the door.

Susan wanted to speak, but it was already too late.

Once she left, the corridor became silent.

Anthony looked at Charmine by his side, and he hoarsely coaxed, "My mother's vision is blurred and short-sighted. I hope my lady doesn't take her too seriously."

His tone showed that he was concerned about her getting angry...

A faint warmth spread throughout Charmine as she playfully spoke, "Are you not going to seriously consider what your mother said? I can't compare to Waverly. I'm not as great as her."

"If you're actually comparing yourself to that kind of woman, I think you're in need of a lesson," he replied huskily. Suddenly, he lifted Charmine's head by her chin and kissed her passionately. 2

The kiss was so arrogant, it seemed like a punishment.

Feeling her lips aching, Charmine quickly pulled herself away.

"I was just joking! Let's get down to what really matters right now. What do you think your mother would do after getting back?"

"Don't worry. With me by your side, nobody can harm you." His low voice sounded powerful and threatening.

To Charmine, however, he sounded immensely warm and comforting.

Anthony was right. No matter how bad the situation could get in the following days, they could face anything so long as they were together. 1

Charmine was not a woman who would chicken out easily!

She took out her phone and phoned Kay to instruct, "Use the people of the Dragoul. Move out Annabel and Chris, and protect them at all costs."

"Understood!" Kay instantly went ahead to make arrangements.

The Dragoul was a confidential organization specialized in guarding some very important figures and attended international conferences. Since Charmine had once conquered them, they looked up to Charmine. Thus, as long as they had no mission, Charmine could use them all she wanted.

On the same day, Annabel and Chris were secretly moved to Violet Villa where the third floor was transformed into a hospital.

Nial watched and said with satisfaction, "The most dangerous place is also the safest place. They shouldn't be able to find this out in a short time."

"Yeah. Thank you for ensuring Annabel's safety in the following days," said Charmine to Nial.

The people of Dragoul and Nial were in there... Annabel and Chris should be quite safe.

Meanwhile, everyone in the Bailey mansion was in shock.

Senior Bailey, Grandma Bailey, Darryl, and the rest sat together, asking with disbelief, "What did you say? Anthony is with Charmine?"

'Yes! I saw it myself, and Anthony also admitted it. He's always been with Charmine, and his engagement with Waverly is just pure decoy!" answered Susan hurriedly. 1 Senior Bailey slammed the table angrily. "How could he do that? It's bad enough he brought home a wild son, but now he wants to be with a nobody too?!"

"His younger brother brought home a well-cultured heiress, yet as the Bailey family's patriarch, Anthony wants to marry a model? A model who was once engaged and dumped?" Darryl was furious.

Grandma Bailey held her chest, trying her best to stay calm. "Everyone, please calm down. Don't you all know Anthony's temper? The more we insist, the more he wants to fight against US. He was born rebellious, so we need to be soft when dealing with him!"

"Mother, what do you mean?" Susan asked, perplexed.

Grandma Bailey then replied, "How did you send that Annabel girl away? Do the same. Any woman who got close to Anthony is up for his money.

There's nothing in the world that can't be solved with money!" 1

"But... But Charmine is the second wealthiest in Burlington, and she owns a diamond mine. Perhaps she might not be easily persuaded..." Susan was concerned.

"I'll speak to her myself!" remarked Grandma Bailey. 1

Everyone in the mansion was shocked.

Grandma Bailey would speak to her personally?

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 832-Violet Villa.

For safety purposes, Anthony sent Chris to school early in the morning.

Charmine, meanwhile, accompanied Nial to take care of Annabel on the third floor and provided treatment to her.

With her treatment, Annabel was able to obtain up to six hours of stable sleep every day, far more impressive than Waverly's hypnosis! 1

This was a miracle in the medical industry!

"She must be waiting for US to beg her in the hotel! Haha!" 1

Charmine's red lips curled up. "If only that's all she's doing."

Waverly stopped treating Annabel and was not merely waiting for them to apologize. She lured Charmine to go to the hospital, thus revealing her to the Bailey family!

Since she had fought Susan, it was likely that they would make a move soon...

Just as that thought occurred to her...

Ring! Ring!

Her phone rang urgently.

Charmine picked up and heard Kay reporting, "Grandma Bailey is coming to Violet Residence! They're coming to your villa-she's here for you!"

Charmine's eyelids jumped. Grandma Bailey?

If it was Susan, she could refuse to meet her or even have a direct conflict with her. However, Grandma Bailey was an elder with health at risk, and she was respected by Anthony...

Kay said, "She's a hundred meters away from the villa. Do we block them?"

"No need."

Charmine had a thought as she then replied, "Hide yourselves. I'll deal with it."

1

Things that were meant to come, would eventually come. There was no way of running away from it, so why not face it directly? 2

After hanging up, she said to Nial, "Don't make any movement upstairs. Try not to let the Baileys know that Annabel is here."

"Okay, but are you able to deal with Grandma Bailey? Even I can't handle her when she's angry," warned the concerned Nial.

"Don't worry," assured Charmine. "However powerful she is, she still won't bite."

With that, she walked down to the first floor.

They were initially 100 meters away before their car pulled over before the villa.

After getting out of the car, someone politely handed Grandma Bailey her walking stick while another quickly walked to the door and rang the bell.

She stood patiently, waiting.

She thought the bell would ring for much longer, assuming Charmine would pretend she was not in, but little did she expect that the door would open once the doorbell rang.

Charmine stood by the door, calmly greeting, "Welcome, Grandma Bailey."

Grandma Bailey gazed back at her, her eyes darkening slightly.

Charmine was dressed in a simple beige-colored dress. There was no embellishment on her dress-she looked relaxed at home.

However, her face was so charming that her beauty was so captivating even with just a look. Looking closer, her beauty was even more pleasant and alluring.

With just one look, Grandma Bailey already understood why Anthony would fall for Charmine. 1

Supported by her walking stick, she walked into the villa elegantly.

On a table by the window, there were two cups of tea prepared.

The bodyguards around Grandma Bailey pulled the chair for her.

Charmine walked over and sat down opposite Grandma Bailey. She remained calm.

With a wave of Grandma Bailey's hand, the bodyguards understood and backed away. The vast space only housed Charmine and Grandma Bailey left.

She said nothing. She took out a check and placed it on the table.

"Charmine, here's two hundred billion. Leave Anthony." 3

Two hundred billion?

What concept was two hundred billion?!

The Jordan Group had just gotten back up on their feet, though their worth was less than two hundred billion.

To be fair, many of the well-reputed moguls had never seen the sum as large as two hundred billion...yet

Grandma Bailey offered such a huge sum all at once?

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 833- Anyone else would have panicked If it was someone else, the person would have panicked.

However, Charmine remained calm. She took out a check and wrote out two hundred billion and one before pushing it to Grandma Bailey.

"I'll pay one extra buck to Grandma Bailey. I hope you'll allow me to be with Anthony."

The usually calm Grandma Bailey felt her eyelids twitching. "Are you insulting me, Charmine?"

"Aren't you insulting me, Grandma Bailey, insulting love?" Charmine looked into Grandma Bailey's eyes.

Her response stunned her.

After a moment, she asserted, 'Two hundred billion is more than the worth of the entire Jordan family. This is also the sum of money I can get after selling out all of my shares of the Bailey family. I'm hoping to negotiate with you, so I hope you'll appreciate my gesture!"

Charmine looked at her in the eyes as she calmly expressed, "Grandma Bailey is determined, willing to give out all of your shares to ask me to leave, while I'm willing to give out all of my shares to be with Anthony in my determination. You should know how determined I am, Grandma Bailey."

Grandma Bailey saw the determination in her eyes; one that was tough as diamonds.

She had a feeling that Charmine was not in for the money....

She eyed Charmine for a good while before she took back her check, asking coldly, "Charmine, do you know what it means to insist on being with Anthony?"

Do you know what you're going to face? The Bailey family is very powerful!"

"I understand, and I welcome it all." Charmine's red lips curled up, politely and confidently.

She exuded a stunning beauty from within her bones as if nothing could harm her at all.

Grandma Bailey looked at her and was slightly taken back. She had not seen a woman with such courage and confidence like her before.

"As a woman, I admire you and respect your courage. As a senior, I still insist that you're not good enough to be with Anthony. Since you've made your choice,

I hope you can endure what comes next!" Grandma Bailey pronounced each word clearly before standing up to leave with her walking stick.

Charmine stood up and opened the door for her, politely responding, "As Anthony's girlfriend, this is the basic respect I should be showing you. As a woman, I think Grandma Bailey is overly rigid. What's more important than marrying a partner of the same background is mutual love-the support and feelings between the two. What's the point of two people lacking feelings for one another, hoarding a pile of gold?" 3

Back stiffening for a moment, Grandma Bailey eventually walked out of the villa as she spoke, "Feelings can be developed. Waverly's looks and personality aren't worse than yours. Anthony will fall for her eventually!"

With that said, the door to her car was shut and the vehicle drove away.

Charmine gazed at the fading-from-view vehicle, her red lips curling into a small smile.

'Feelings could be developed'?

Background and wealth could all be created.

What Waverly had that she did not was her D'Cruz family.

Charmine would soon triumph over all!

Inside the luxurious car...

Grandma Bailey lowered her authoritative facade as the female housekeeper, Dorothy massaged her temples.

She sighed deeply. "Truthfully, Charmine is a good woman. She's nothing like those fake women out there, and she's got potential." 2

"Is Grandma Bailey saying...you'd allow them to be together?" Dorothy tried asking.

Grandma Bailey sighed again. “A shame that the Jordan family is too small. However powerful Charmine is, it’s her alone. How can she support Anthony? The danger that the Baileys are about to face is only able to be solved by a big family like the D’Cruz family...” she spoke as she rubbed her own temples, eyed closed in tiredness. 4

Dorothy did not understand.

Grandma Bailey suddenly opened her eyes, and her eyes were no longer soft like it was just seconds ago.

“Give me the number of the person in charge of Derby Eway Factory,” she demanded coldly.

Dorothy instantly understood. Between her beloved grandson’s feelings and the family matters, Grandma

Bailey had chosen the latter.

Getting in touch with the Derby Eway Factory meant she would attack Charmine.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 834-Derby Eway Factory produced the most refined materials, and ordinary architecture companies in the market could not get their materials.

Even if they wanted to buy some, they had no connections to do so.

Once the call got through, Grandma Bailey instructed, “I want you all to stop supplying to the Jordan Group.”

The person who picked up the call was not Charles. It was the Vice-President, Jackes Hayes.

He asked suspiciously, “Why so? President Bailey instructed US to supply them everything they needed.

President Bailey would surely be displeased if we stopped supplying for them.”

“I’ll take care of the troubles. He’s my grandson; he can’t do anything to me. You only have to do as you’re told.” Grandma Bailey was determined and serious.

Jackes frowned. “I heard this project is related to the Magpie Bridge Project in Burlington?”

Grandma Bailey frowned. Magpie Bridge Project?

Was this not a grand project appointed by the national association?

Anthony gave up the Magpie Bridge Project to convince Derby Eway Factory to supply to a small company like the Jordan Group?

What did Charmine do to him? How could Anthony lose his rationality?!

Grandma Bailey grew pressed at this. “Don’t worry. I’ll take care of everything else and make sure you won’t have any loss.”

Jackes did not wish to supply to a small company like the Jordan Group anyway, so he agreed right away.

With that, on the same day, Charmine received a call from Adam.

“We have a situation, Charmine. The supplier called, saying that they’ll be taking back all of their supplies from US. They said they’ll no longer supply to the Jordan Group!”

Charmine frowned. Was Grandma Bailey attacking the Jordan Group so quickly?

“Ask them to hold up, I’ll fix it right away.”

She hung up and searched for Charles' contact on her phone. She had negotiated with him before, and Charles should know that she was the Magpie Bridge's bridge, thus he would not simply cancel the deal.

She had to talk to Charles.

However, she was answered with the automated, "Sorry, the number you dialed is unavailable..."

Charmine frowned. Unavailable?

She had no choice but to rush over to the Divine Bird's site to settle the situation.

At the site...

Adam was talking to a few men genially.

"Mr. Jackes, the materials are already here, and we've been collaborating well.

Why pull out suddenly? The Divine Bird will be built in no time-it'll help promote your company too!"

"No point talking me out of it. This is a decision made by the company, so I hope you make way now. We'll bring away the materials by today," asserted Jackes curtly.

He was the Vice-President of the Eway Company. He happened to have come to Burlington for a business trip.

To him, a small company like Jordan Group was not even good enough to polish their boots. He did not understand why Charles would agree to provide to the Jordan Group.

It was good that this would end.

“May I know what decision it was?” implored Adam respectfully. “What did we do wrong? Kindly clarify...!”

Jackes did not want to speak to them any further. At that moment, he looked up and saw Charmine walking toward them in her black suit.

He looked at Charmine. “What reason? Go ask your director!”

Everyone looked at Charmine. It was related to Charmine? Had she offended Eway Factory?

Charmine walked over calmly, frowning when she saw Jackes.

“You’re the Vice-President of the Eway Factory? Why is Mr. Charles’ phone not getting through?”

“Wow, look at you! Are you saying you know our President? Or are you trying to seduce our President?”

sneered Jackes.

“I’ve things to discuss with him,” replied Charmine level-headedly. “The negotiation was agreed to by him.”

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 835-“He did it for the Bailey family, but now that the Baileys aren’t helping you anymore, there’s no use even if you contact our President! You should know what to do now, so stop wasting our time,” asserted Jackes.

When he mentioned the Baileys, Charmine turned to Adam, and understanding the gaze, he led the rest of the people to leave them alone.

Only Charmine and Jackes remained. 1

Charmine looked at Jackes. “Grandma Bailey is crossing business matters with her personal matters. The Eway Factory isn’t a small factory. Are you sure you want to side with her?”

You got only a small company, and if you hadn’t seduced President Bailey and used your relations with him, how would you have obtained our materials? If you want to sell your body, you should be ready to get dumped!” mocked Jackes harshly. 1

Charmine frowned. He was the company’s vice-president, so how could he not know her deal with their company? She had to talk to Charles.

Sizing her up from head to toe, Jackes seemed to have known what she was thinking. He said, “You can’t get in touch with our President. He’s out with a few buddies, and he’ll only be back in five days. Until then, I’m in charge of everything on his behalf. Grandma Bailey wants me to tell you to leave Burlington. If you leave, we’ll keep supplying you with the materials and can guarantee Jordan Group to be fine. If not, this is only the start of something more.”

Charmine’s hand that was fishing for her phone halted.

Grandma Bailey was forcing her head down.

If she could not think of a way, the Jordan Group would be over!

Meanwhile, it only took a few hours before the news went viral in the business section.

[Derby Eway Factory Cancelling Deal With Jordan Group.]

[Derby Eway Factory No Longer Supplying Materials For Divine and Hundred Birds Projects!]

[Jordan Group's Divine Bird, Hundred Birds Projects Will Fail!]

The articles appeared one after another, catching the attention of many as they got in touch to inquire about the matter.

Just like that, the Jordan Group's line service was bombarded with questions from buyers. The situation seemed dire.

Without the supply of the top-graded materials, the Jordan Group would collapse.

At the Bailey mansion.

Grandma Bailey was tasting the finest tea while reading the news on her phone.

Her lips curled up slightly.

As the Jordan Group was facing such a tempestuous difficulty, Charmine would surely come beg for her mercy within three days!

"If Charmine phones me, don't hurry," she instructed Dorothy, "make her wait."

Although she admired Charmine, she was still too young and had not been shaped by society. She had to help Charmine to grow up.

On the other hand, Waverly was also waiting for the drama to unfold as she watched the news with delight.

Even if Anthony insisted on being with Charmine, he would have to first go through the Bailey family without her doing anything. She just needed to sit back and wait.

She instructed Britney who was by the side, "Collect more of Charmine's news for me, especially the news about the Jordan Group shutting down."

When Britney saw the news, her pupils quivered. "Something happened, Madam. Charmine... She turned the tides!" 2

What?

Charmine still could do so even under such pressure? How could it be?

My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 836

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 836-At the Divine Bird construction site...

"You've been stalling for three hours, Charmine, shouldn't you give me a response by now? Look at the news!

Are you sure you want to go on like this?" Jackes handed his phone that had the news online to Charmine, reminding her 'kindl/, "If you keep dragging it on, it's not good for your Jordan Group, and you'll only be hurt in the end of it all. Why bother?" 1 Charmine glanced at the news on his phone but kept her cool. "Let's have a bet. I can continue to gain supplies from your company, and you'll beg for my forgiveness!" 1

"Hahaha! Who are you kidding? Have you gone demented under the pressure, Charmine? I'm Eway Factory's vice-president! Why would I ask for your forgiveness?" Jackes glanced at Charmine mockingly, sneering, "As for you, if you kneel and beg me to keep you as my ninth girlfriend, I might reconsider to continue supplying you with the materials." 2

"Hah!" she scoffed through her red lips, clear and cold.

Jackes frowned. "What was that, Charmine? I gave you an opportunity, so you should feel honored. How dare you scoff at me with such a tone? I'll have you know that all eight of my girlfriends don't look worse than you!"

"Really? And they accepted someone like you? Collective blindness?" Charmine looked surprised. 3 Jackes was so angered that his face was flushed red. "You've offended me, Charmine, do you know that?

Even if the Baileys changed their minds and want me to supply you with the materials, I'll say no! No matter who tries to convince me, our Eway Factory won't supply you with anything!" he scowled.

He then instructed the bodyguards behind him, "Instantly move away all of the materials!"

"Yes, Sir!" Everyone came forward instantly and started moving the materials away from the site.

Charmine stared at Jackes and reminded him, "You should do this in a few more minutes.”

“Forget a few minutes-I won’t let you keep the materials one second more!”
chided Jackes.

“Move them away! Right away!”

Everyone heartlessly moved all the materials, and it only took a while before everything was moved to the truck.

There were many reporters outside, taking photos of the materials moved from the Divine Bird site.

They already had the titles in mind, ready to see Charmine’s project failing!

Suddenly...

Ring! Ring!

Jackes’ phone rang urgently.

He took out his phone and saw it was Charles calling.

Was Charles not attending a gathering with the other moguls and asked him not to phone him for a week?

Perplexed, Jackes picked up and heard Charles panting from the other end of the line. “Jackes, what are you doing? Why did you offend Charmine? Did you run over to her site to move the materials away?”

“Yeah, why? The Baileys asked me to do so; they’re unwilling to support her anymore. You don’t have to supply to such a small company for the Baileys ‘ sake.”

“Who told you I’m supplying them for the Baileys’ sake? I want you to return all of the materials back to where they were! Go and apologize to Charmine right away!” growled Charles, half-yelling as he did. 1

Jackes’ eyes were wide open in disbelief.

Charles made him apologize to Charmine? What for?

“What for? Charmine is the Magpie Bridge’s designer, that’s what! We must get the opportunity to supply for the Magpie Bridge Project! Do you know who I’m with right now? They’re the moguls behind the Magpie Bridge Project. We’re negotiating, and here you are, ruining things behind my back?” 1

On the other end of the call, Charles was panting and almost spat out blood. 1

He tried so hard to gain the opportunity to provide for the Magpie Bridge Project. He was negotiating with the rest of the moguls, with one of them being Senior Max!

The negotiation was well on its way when Senior Max suddenly received a phone. He merely said one thing...

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 837-“Boss Jordan is bullied by the Eway Factory! They’re moving all the materials away!”

The amiable Senior Max shot up from his seat. “We’re not talking anymore, absolutely not. We’ll find other suppliers for the Magpie Bridge Project. I’ll never work with those who bully my granddaughter!”

The thought of it made Charles pant, “What are you waiting for? If we lose this Magpie Bridge Project, you’ll lose your vice-president position!”

Charles hung up subsequently, leaving Jackes rooted on the spot, dumbfounded and unable to react.

Charmine was the Magpie Bridge's designer?

A ground-breaking architecture like the Magpie Bridge was designed by Charmine?

Jackes knew their factory exerted a lot of effort to secure the Magpie Project. Who would have thought that the Charmine he spurned was the Magpie Bridge's designer!

Seeing that the bodyguards were about to move the materials onto the truck, he cried out loudly, "Stop! Stop right now! Bring back all of the materials!" 1

"Huh? Why?"

The bodyguards standing far away exchanged looks.

Jackes smacked the bodyguard's head nearest to him. "I ask you to move things back, so do as you're told! Why ask nonsense? Move, now!"

Never before had they seen him so furious, thus they obediently moved the materials back.

Jackes quickly walked toward Charmine and abashedly spoke, "I-It was a misunderstanding, a complete misunderstanding. You should've told me you're the Magpie Bridge's designer! We wouldn't have so much trouble in the first place." 1

"Didn't I say I want to speak with your President? Did you give me the chance to?" refuted Charmine.

The Magpie Bridge was still a secretive project, so it was only natural she kept it hushed.

Far removed from his hubristic nature, Jackes instantly nodded politely.” It’s my fault, my fault. I hope a prominent figure such as yourself won’t hold it against a small figure like me. Don’t be like me.” 1

Charmine raised an eyebrow and asked, “Didn’t you want me to be your girlfriend? Would you like me to service you?”

Jackes instantly understood. Charmine was challenging him!

He gently slapped his face. “How terrible of me; my mouth is a loose cannon!

Director Jordan, what can I do for you to forgive me? Please tell me!”

“Please tell you?” Charmine’s red lips curled up as she eyed him. “I want you to bring all the materials and place them back to where they were, on your own!” 1

Jackes’ eyelids jumped. All the materials? All by himself?

Even with his strongly-built bodyguards, they only managed to fill up half of the truck!

It would take him two whole days to move everything back!

However, if he did not move them, he would lose his job...

If only he listened to Charmine back then when she said to only move the materials a few minutes later.

Alas, no matter how deep his regret was, he still had to move the materials back on his own.

With that, everyone watched as Jackes moved the materials back one at a time, and he was eventually drenched in sweat then. 2

When Grandma Bailey learned about this, the teacup in her hand jolted.

“Investigate. Find out what happened, now!”

How would the staff of Eway Factory behave so humbly toward Charmine?

Dorothy showed her the latest news. “Grandma Bailey, it’s because...”

Grandma Bailey looked down, and her expression changed. Charmine was..

My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 838

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 838-The latest headline read, [Charmine’s Magpie Bridge] with the following content:

[By the end of 2020, Charmine Jordan will be building the No.1 Tower in Burlington with a height of 1300 meters. It will surpass the current No.1 building in the world, the Khalifa, et cetera. They will incorporate the fourthgeneration architecture...]

After a long introductory passage, the final sentence read:

[According to investigations, the designer of this architecture is Charmine Jordan!]

A few design diagrams of the Magpie Bridge were attached.

No matter if it was the two tall towers that scraped the clouds or the 99- meter long sky-bridge, the architecture looked surreal as if it was a painting from fairytales.

The comment section was filled with astonishment and awe:

[OMG! This amazing international building is designed by Charmine Jordan!]

[Boss Jordan is wild and beautiful. Is there anything she can't do?!]

[I heard the people of Derby Eway Factory went over to move away the materials. Upon learning Charmine's capabilities, it was as if Boss Jordan slapped them herself!]

[Many assumed that the Jordan Group attained the materials due to the Bailey Corporation, but it's actually because of this Magpie Project!] 1

[They said the Jordan Group was collapsing this morning, yet they prospered come noon? How dramatic!]

Negative news regarding the Jordan Group had shifted entirely.

Charmine's design diagram stunned the entire world!

When Grandma Bailey read the articles, her face was filled with disbelief.

The Magpie Bridge had huge influences. After it was designed, the association had many meetings with moguls of various industries, and as the elder of the Bailey family, she had the honor of attending one of the meetings. 1

She was blown away when she first saw the Magpie Bridge's design, unable to comprehend how a stunning architecture could exist in the world...and the designer of such architecture was Charmine all along!

Charmine was the designer of Magpie Bridge!

Noticing her excitement, Dorothy held onto her and asked, "Grandma Bailey, now that Eway Factory has clarified that they'll continue to supply for the Jordan

Group and that they won't cancel the collaboration, what will w

"Let me calm down. Let me calm down..." Grandma Bailey sat before the table, unable to shake off the shock in her system.

She refused to admit Charmine's impressive achievement, how she was able to design a national architecture. Once the Magpie Bridge was built, it would become a landmark, and that meant Charmine's net worth would increase...

"Look at how useless you are!" Senior Bailey suddenly came in, scowling at her.

Grandma Bailey rubbed her temples. "I didn't mean to, but didn't you see how stunning this design diagram is? I didn't expect a young lady like her to be so capable."

"So she can enter the Bailey family just because she can design? Can she solve the impending danger the Baileys are facing?" questioned Senior Bailey firmly.

Grandma Bailey thought of that matter, and her face instantly darkened.

Right, that... It was about to happen. 1

Charmine came from a small family. How would she be able to endure it?

"You're too soft-hearted, you're not built to settle these matters," argued Senior Bailey. "Let Susan deal with it, and you just stay out of it.”

Grandma Bailey frowned, though after a while, she nodded. 1

“Alright. I genuinely don’t want to hurt this young lady. If her family was more prominent, I would’ve asked Anthony to marry her right away. Ask Susan to do it less harshly; don’t harm the lady.”

At Ritz Hotel...

Waverly received the phone from Britney, reading news regarding Charmine.

Charmine truly had shifted the tides despite the pressure, even when under intense scrutiny.

The Jordan Group was about to collapse, but after Charmine’s identity as the Magpie Bridge’s designer was exposed, the entire world worshipped Charmine instead!

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 839-“Although many countries had allowed the Jordan Group to enter their markets, they did not seem too welcoming nor friendly.

With this news, almost every city of every country had given the Jordan Group green lights to establish their business. Within three months, the Jordan Group would then be able to develop into the international market.

The entire internet hailed Charmine with that.

Waverly snapped the flower beside her with one hand. Things did not look good.

With Charmine making such a scene, what followed might...

As if thinking of something, her eyes gleamed as she suddenly asked Britney next to her, “Didn’t you say Grandma Houston invited me over to treat her this morning?"

"Yes, Ricky Houston had been coming here a few days in a row. He said that Grandma Houston's illness is worsening, and all the specialists had no idea how to tackle it," answered Britney.

Waverly kept her phone as she instructed, "Prepare the car. We're going to the Houston mansion."

To the Houston mansion?

Britney frowned. With everything that happened, Waverly still wanted to go to the Houston mansion? Was she not supposed to get back with Anthony?

That evening, at the Houston mansion...

Everyone knew Waverly was coming, thus they waited.

While Grandma Houston did not suffer any serious illness, she did have difficulty falling asleep, only managing to get two to three hours of sleep every day, sometimes even just one. 1

She had consulted all kinds of specialists and tried ten or so different medications, all to no avail.

A doctor even said, "If this goes on, Grandma Houston won't live past ten days."

Grandma Houston was a famous astronomer who once discovered an asteroid and made a big contribution to the astronomy field.

The nation would lose a bright star if she genuinely passed on. 1

Everyone in the Houston family was expecting Waverly to save her.

Just as everyone patiently expected, Waverly showed up elegantly.

McKenzie glowered in disdain when she spotted her, but she quickly stamped it down.

She walked toward her. ‘Thank you so much for coming over, Ms. D’Cruz. If you’re able to treat my grandmother, the Houstons will greatly reward you.’

“I’ll try my best. Please, leave US in here.” Waverly had a graceful posture and looked formal.

Everyone left.

In less than an hour’s worth of treatment, Grandma Houston who had insomnia fell asleep. Furthermore, according to a device, it showed that she was in deep sleep!

The Houstons were elated at the progress as they surrounded Waverly with gratitude, even bringing out an antique vase as a reward!

As she gazed Waverly being cherished like a star, McKenzie walked to the corner and posted on Twitter,

[Thank you, Doctor D’Cruz, for treating my grandmother. You’re a genius doctor, a miracle worker!] 1

After posting it, she instructed Miranda who was by her side, “Give it a push.”

That baffled Miranda. “Madam, why are you helping Waverly? Isn’t she your greatest enemy now?”

To her, Waverly was more threatening than Charmine.

McKenzie merely said, “Waverly is merely a paper tiger, and I have something on her that’s real hefty that I can crush her to death any second!

Charmine... Argh!”

She could tell that Anthony had fallen in love with Charmine. She had to use Waverly to remove Charmine!

Miranda was very confused.

Waverly was so elegant and powerful. With the D’Cruz family supporting her, how was she a paper tiger?

What big secret was there? 1

Nonetheless, she dared not poke around as she did as was told.

[Waverly Successfully Treated Ninety-Year-Old Astronomer]

[Waverly Rewarded With An Antique Vase]

[A Vase Worth Almost A Hundred Million]

These articles became the most heated topics, toppling the news regarding Charmine.

Netizens hailed Waverly as the modern prodigy doctor as she cured the astronomer and won the hearts of the people.

Waverly, reading the news, was satisfied.

She wanted to crash Charmine. She wanted the Bailey family to know that she was more talented than her!

At the Bailey mansion...

After hearing from Senior Bailey, Susan had been thinking of ways to attack Charmine when she happened to see the news as well.

Waverly successfully saved Grandma Houston? No specialist was able to treat her before!

Charmine was just some designer while Waverly was a prodigy doctor! What did Charmine have in her to compete with Waverly?

The thought of her staying under the same roof as Anthony agitated her.

Ridiculous. She had to make Anthony come back to the mansion and make him live with Waverly!

With something in mind, she texted Waverly,

[Waverly, I hope you'll do as I tell you in the following days. I'll help you get to Anthony.]

At Violet Villa.

After the news of Charmine's Magpie Bridge was exposed, Chris acted like he had discovered new land and skimmed through her design books in the room.

Charmine looked at the time. "Mono, it's already nine. Time to sleep."

'There's no hurry. Daddy, Mommy, don't mind me. I'll sleep after reading!' 1

Chris had a very nerdy and proactive look on his face.

Charmine saw how immersed he was and thus did not insist on him sleeping.

Closing his door, she then walked toward her room where Anthony was sitting on the small sofa, legs crossed with a laptop on his lap. His clear-cut fingers typed on the keyboards, exuding an air of seriousness. Seeing that Charmine had come in, he kept the laptop.

“I’m sorry for the matters regarding Grandma Bailey.”

“Why do you sound so formal?” Charmine threw him a strange look and walked over to lay in bed.

Anthony walked over and sat on the bed. “Of course. My family has troubled you quite a lot recently, and I feel guilty. I must make it upto you.”

Instead of laying down, he sat by the side and reached out to massage Charmine’s shoulders.

Charmine frowned. Anthony, the man placed on an incredibly high pedestal, was offering her a massage? 1

He seemed to be even better than she imagined.

As she felt her feeling welling up, his large hands slipped from her shoulder to her spine, and his hands slipped to the sides.

Sensing his intention, Charmine’s body tensed. “You better behave...”

“I said I’d make up to you, so it’s only natural I have to give you a full body massage to show my sincerity,” answered Anthony with a serious tone as his large hands continued to massage her.

Charmine was stunned at that.

He must have bewitched her. She genuinely thought he was a good guy, but it seemed that he was merely finding an excuse to take advantage of her! 1

Just as she was about to scold him, the phone on the bedside rang urgently.

It was Susan calling.

Glancing at the phone, he reached out and was ready to hang up before Charmine held his hand.

“Answer it. Let’s see what she has in mind. It’s better to know what they’re thinking.”

After a moment of hesitation, Anthony answered.

Susan’s voice came out from the phone.

“Anthony, Waverly treated the Astronomer Houston. The staff of the International Medical Association had come to Violet Residence, wanting to interview her. I don’t care what intention you have, but you got engaged to Waverly in public, and the entire world thinks you two are a couple. You must at least be responsible in this current situation.”
