Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 84

"it's me."

"Transfer everyone back and block all the exits of the hospital. Within an hour, I want to see the murderer in Logan Fu's room."

After hanging up the phone, he didn't give Zoey Gu any time to react, bends down and hugs her sideways.

"Go deal with the wound first and leave everything to me."

Anna Yun has made a mistake.

She did not expect that Logan Fu would guard her as soon as she woke up, and wait for her in the ward specifically.

She escaped from the ward all the way, but found that all the exits were blocked by the guards of the hospital and unknown people who emerged from nowhere.

She returned again.

Hidden in the hospital back and forth for a long time, but was pursued more and more closely.

Seeing that she was about to be exposed, her mind suddenly flashed.

Correct!

Alina Yin is on the top floor, and she can hide in Alina Yin's ward.

Thinking of this, Anna Yun turned around without thinking, and rushed upstairs like a gust of wind.

When she reached the corner, she stopped again, tremblingly, took out the phone from her pocket, and called Liam Lu.

The phone rang twice and was quickly picked up.

"Hello? It's me."

Anna Yun tried her best to calm her rapid breathing, and asked softly.

"Liam, it's so late, are you still in Alina Yin's ward?"

There was a mess of footsteps on the phone, and then Liam Lu's voice was as cold as ice.

"No."

Before she could say anything, she hung up.

Anna Yun didn't care about his indifference, a touch of joy appeared on her face, and she walked quickly toward Alina Yin's room not far away.

Without Liam Lu, Alina Yin's ward is the best hiding place!

As for the Lu family's nanny, just send it out at will.

Anna Yun was delighted in her heart.

But when she rushed to the door of Alina Yin's ward, she realized when she reached out to push the door.

The door was locked from behind!

Her face changed, she tried to turn a few times, and suddenly she heard the voice of the little nanny calling Liam Lu in a low voice.

"Hey, is that sir? Someone is outside the door, trying to break in."

Anna Yun's heart sank, her face instantly pale, and she immediately raised his hand in a panic and knocked on the door.

"It's me, you open the door, I…"

The surroundings suddenly became quiet inexplicably.

Anna Yun inexplicably felt a cold wind passing by her back.

When she looked up, I saw a group of people rushing in her direction.

She was startled and turned around and wanted to run in the opposite direction.

A few tall figures suddenly appeared in the corner, directly blocking her path.

Several people didn't give her any chance to struggle, they held her arms left and right, dragged her to the other end of the corridor.

At the same time, the elevator door opened and Liam Lu was surrounded by stars like a moon, and strode towards her in amazement.

Behind him, a few tall men dragged a man who was beaten and bruised.

The moment Anna Yun raised her eyes, he froze instantly, and his blood rushed to the top of his head crazily.

Liam Lu? !

In the next second, she was thrown at Liam Lu's feet.

Behind Liam Lu, the man with a bruised nose and swollen face was also thrown out, and fell beside Anna Yun with a "plop".

Seeing her, the man crawled and grabbed her hand.

"Miss, save me!"
