

Chapter 840

From the beginning, all that warmth and friendship was nothing more than a shrewd calculation.

Everyone knew that those things were fake, except her, who simply died for the warmth of the bond, and went to hell and back for them.

She went suddenly silent.

Gu Si Qian had about guessed what was on her mind, but just didn't bother her.

He knew that she would know the truth about this, and needed to know the truth anyway.

And only after she knew the truth could she understand how she should choose.

The car drove smoothly all the way to the castle.

Getting out of the car, this time instead of hugging her, Gu Si Qian put her in the wheelchair and let her walk forward on her own.

The servants in the castle were stunned to see her return.

What's going on here?

Wasn't Miss Qiao thrown out of the castle because she poisoned Miss Lin, so why is she back?

But among these people, Yusra Lin was not included.

This matter, although Gu Si Qian did not say it to her explicitly, but he also roughly expressed that meaning.

Otherwise, it wouldn't have been possible to get Yusra Lin to cooperate with the act.

Now, seeing that she was really back, Yusra Lin realized that there was really no hope for her.

The two of them, like a pair of pearly whites, are something you can't get into by yourself.

She stood upstairs, her eyes darkening as she watched the two standing and walking side by side, and after a moment, in the end, she turned around and went back to her room.

When Georgie returned, Ober was the happiest man alive.

He said, "Young Master is such a wise man, how could he really be so dim-witted, when it's obvious that someone else was responsible for the poisoning, and even he, the old man's housekeeper, could see it, but Young Master said it was Miss Qiao.

And although Miss Qiao was a little colder in nature, she was definitely a beautiful person with a good heart, so she couldn't have done something that poisonous.

Therefore, he was naturally happy that Bella Qiao could return at this time.

Also reacted to the fact that these two had made such a scene earlier, presumably because of what was playing out.

The old housekeeper knew that as long as they were both well, he was happy and relieved.

So, after leading the two back to their room, that's when they quickly went to work and instructed the kitchen to make some good food today.

Since the last poisoning incident, the kitchen side of the secondary floor has been removed straight away.

In the future, the people there will also have to come to the main building to eat with him.

Both the ingredients and the maids in the kitchen here had been with Gu Si Qian for many years and were absolutely trustworthy.

So there's no need to worry about anything going wrong at all.

Jackie didn't react well to this arrangement.

Yusra Lin was a little happy though, and could meet up with Gu Siqian for dinner every day from now on.

But as he and himself said that the time to go to Nan Mu Rong was getting closer and closer, that kind of happiness gradually turned into the pain and reluctance before parting.

In fact, everyone thought that she was only interested in his power for Gu Si Qian.

But who knew that she was really in love with this man?

This man, too, does have enough capital to be likeable.

Handsome, multi-billionaire, well-built, and most importantly, that outstandingly graceful, and what ordinary man can compare?

Unfortunately, such a man never had her in his eyes.

With a feeling of loss, at noon, Yusra Lin arrived at the dining room of the main building.

But I saw that I was the only one in the dining room, and neither Gu Siqian nor Bella Qiao was there.

She was slightly stunned, and just at that moment Ober came over, so she asked curiously, "Ober, where are they?"

Ober naturally knew who she was asking, and smiled slightly, "Young Master and Miss Qiao are in the upstairs study, and just now ordered to come down, saying that you can use the food when it's ready, and they'll come down later."

The loss in Yusra Lin's eyes worsened at the words.

But in the end, I nodded politely and said, "Thank you, I know."

Then, only then, they were allowed to serve the food.

And now, upstairs in the study.

Gu Siqian and Bella Qiao sat opposite each other.

This time, though, the other had shown up and Bella Qiao was not in any danger, but neither of them was happy.

The reason was simply because, although she had now confirmed that those who had been there in the first place were indeed still alive, and that the wave of people who had attacked her this time did indeed have them outside of them, the rest hadn't made much progress.

Of course, Bella Qiao also told Gu Si Qian about the maid who was drowned in the river.

Gu Si Qian also already knew about this matter.

In fact, but which one of the people who could enter this castle had not been carefully chosen by him?

Usually people with dirty backgrounds are absolutely unable to get in, so as soon as that maid was in trouble, he immediately sent someone to investigate and found out that her background was indeed problematic, and then followed the trail and quickly traced it back to the gang.

So, Gu Siqian actually knew about this even before Bella Qiao did.

Hearing this, Bella Qiao was not silent either.

She said quietly, "I've never quite understood what use I am to them now that they have to keep sending people to get me again and again."

Gu Si Qian frowned slightly.

In fact, this question not only troubled Joe Qi, but also troubled him as well.

The other side's power was so deep that it could be defended for a day, not a lifetime, so if we didn't find the reason for this soon, Bella Qiao could always be in danger.

But what exactly is this reason?

No one knows, unless the gang says so themselves.

Thinking about it, he looked over at Bella Qiao.

Seeing her beautiful eyebrows locked, for some reason, a sudden surge of pity and resignation came over her heart.

He reached out, took her hand, and said, "Don't worry, I'll keep someone on the case, and until then, I'll stay with you and protect you, and never let them get a chance to do anything."

Bella Qiao looked up and met his eyes, seeing in the man's heated gaze some emotions that made her heart beat faster.

I don't know why, but she suddenly felt a very panicky feeling in her heart.

Subconsciously, I drew my hand back while, don't mistake his face for his gaze and whispered, "I know."

Yeah, she knows.

She always knew that no matter what the danger, he would always be behind her to protect her and never leave.

Kusken looked at his empty hand and didn't force it.

Instead, he took his hand back and said in a deep voice, "The traitor in the castle has been caught."

Bella Qiao was startled.

"What?"

She looked up at him, puzzled.

Kusken got up and pulled a stack of papers from the table and placed them in front of her.

Georgie froze, looking down, looking at the stack of information.

Chapter 841

I saw that there was actually Zhang Feng's information on it.

She paused to stare in surprise.

"Zhang Feng? How could it be her?"

Gu Si Qian sneered, "Yeah, I was surprised too, I originally thought that since the poison went down in the kitchen of the second floor, then as a cook, she would be the most suspicious person if something happened, so she should never do something so stupid."

"But in fact, perhaps she expected this, and so went so far as to try to use it as a surprise, to make everyone think that she could not have done it, when in fact it was she who did it, but unfortunately, with a little clumsy tactics, I sent someone to search her room for the unused arsenic."

Bella Qiao shook hard.

Looked up at him.

"Did she admit it?"

Kusken nodded, "Acknowledged."

Bella Qiao's feelings were not complicated at the moment.

To think that when she saw Yusra Lin threaten her and set her up, she was so upset at the time that she stepped in to help her.

But I didn't expect that someone who was only helped by her one second would actually start on her and poison her the next.

What kind of person is it that can be so gracious.

Her heart suddenly burst with anger.

Asked, "Where is she?"

"Dead."

Unexpected answer.

Bella Qiao was stunned, and Gu Si Qian's eyebrows were also knitted up, sighing, "The one who took her own life, after the incident, I guess she knew she wouldn't have a good end, or maybe she was afraid that we would pry something out of her mouth, so she took the poison herself, the toxicity was too strong, although I immediately sent a doctor over to save her at that time, but still didn't save her."

Bella Qiao fell silent.

Her eyes were a little cold, and Gu Siqian knew that she must be very unhappy right now.

It took half a moment before she was heard to say, "Are you sure she's the only one? Does she have any other companions?"

Kusken shook his head.

"She's the only one that's been found so far, and I haven't found any of her companions yet, I've had her place of residence and her usual place of work all searched carefully, but still I don't see anything suspicious, as to whether there are any other associates in the castle, I'm really not sure."

Bella Qiao's brow furrowed tightly.

This was his territory, but even he said something like he wasn't sure.

That means that the other side is really hiding something deep.

Bella Qiao's heart couldn't tell what it felt like at the moment, it always felt like, this matter was like a fog that was shrouded in the present, making it hard to see clearly.

And yet, it was as if, some clue had been given to her, and if she followed it, she would find the answer.

In the end, they couldn't discuss anything out of it.

The only conclusion, and it was only that from today, for the safety of Kitty, she would have to move to the main building to live with him.

Jackie had no opinion on this decision.

Although she was still undecided about what she thought of Gu Si Qian today, she knew that as long as she didn't agree, the man wouldn't do anything to her.

Therefore, living in the main building was no loss to her, except that she had strengthened herself a bit in terms of security.

But spare me, because of this incident, Bella Qiao is no longer as repulsed by Gu Si Qian as she was before.

As for him and Yusra Lin....

That's their business. She's not...

There's talk of getting back together with him right away, so what's it to her?

Thinking this way, Bella Qiao's heart felt comfortable.

Kusken was quick to do what he said he would do.

So after their discussion, when they went downstairs for dinner, he just told Ober to send someone to move all of Bella Qiao's things over.

In fact, it's not much to say that it's something from Jochie.

She'd only packed two suitcases when she left, and they were both still unpacked at this point.

The other things in the secondary building, the clothes, hats, shoes and socks and so on, are on this side, so there's no need to move them separately at all.

Bella Qiao saw him commanding Ober, and subconsciously felt that this would be too fast.

But thinking about it, I had to go back to my room to rest after dinner, so there was no rush.

But it always felt like Ober's face was slightly hot when he looked at himself.

Bella Qiao and Gu Si Qian went to the dining room together.

When we ate, we found that Yusra Lin was no longer here and said that she had eaten back to the secondary building.

Gu Siqian didn't care either, Bella Qiao looked at him and thought about his attitude towards Yusra Lin a few days ago and felt a little strange for a moment.

Nor could I figure out what the man was thinking.

But she obviously wasn't going to ask him.

As she had said before, between Gu Siqian and Yusra Lin, whether it was true or not, that was their own business and had nothing to do with her.

So, after lunch in a calm atmosphere, Ober's efficiency was quick, and he had already taken the room she was to stay in and packed it out, along with all of her things, and had settled in.

Georgie thanked him and led him to her room.

There were three floors on this side of the main building, and the room that Ober had arranged for her was on the first floor, and it was huge, with all kinds of things prepared, so you could tell that it had been prepared with care.

There is a large outgoing balcony at the back, and below that is the back garden, where you can stand and see lots of flowers and plants, as well as the lotus flowers blooming in the pond a little further away.

I have to say that it does have a better view than the side of the secondary building.

After Ober finished introducing her, she was ready to leave.

Bella Qiao politely sent him to the door, and Ober returned and smiled at her, "Young Master's room is right next door to yours, so if you normally have any problems and can't call us, you can just call Young Master."

Bella Qiao was stunned, and for some reason, her heart suddenly throbbed that much.

She pretended not to see the ambiguous urgency in Ober's eyes and said, "I'm fine, thank you very much."

After he left, only then did Georgie fold back into the room.

She made her way around the house first, probably getting a good feel for where things were placed, and then she was ready for a change of clothes for her lunch break.

Just then, there was a knock on the door from outside.

She froze, turned to the door, and asked, "Who is it?"

"It's me."

Little Moon's voice.

Georgie was surprised, but in the next second, she rose to full joy.

"Come in."

Yue was one of the few people she liked and trusted more in this castle, which Gu Siqian probably knew, so this time she was back, and although she had moved to the main building, Gu Siqian hadn't changed her personal maid, but had still called Yue over.

It is reasonable to say that the people on this side of the main building have to be screened again and again carefully.

Chapter 842

Not to mention turning over all of the person's past experiences and background, they must at least have to pass the heavy and rigorous tests designed by Gu Siqian before they can work on this side.

After all, he himself lived on this side, and there were confidential documents about him and the Dragon Corps all over the place, so if he really let someone with bad intentions in, it would inevitably cause some trouble.

But this time, in order for her to feel more at ease and comfortable, he had made an exception and transferred Moon over as well.

Bella Qiao was actually a little worried, feeling if this wasn't good.

But on second thought, a man like Gu Siqian must have already thought of the consequences before making any decision.

Besides, Zi, Xiao Yue is just an innocent orphan and not very young, if he really has any suspicions, he can just check her background and it won't bother him.

So she didn't think twice about it.

When Moon came in, she was happy to see her, too.

Everyone had previously said that Gu Siqian had misunderstood Bella Qiao and thought that she had poisoned Yusra Lin, so he drove her out of the castle.

She thought that she would never see Bella Qiao again, and was sad several times.

But now I realize that Gu Siqian was just lying to everyone, and Bella Qiao is back, isn't she?

She walked in with a smile on her face and said, "Miss Joe, it's good to see you again, I'm so glad to have you back."

This time, perhaps because it had been a long time coming, those who had once been her self-confessed best friends turned out to be a carefully calculated scheme to approach her.

As a result, Georgie took a lot of things in stride.

Seeing Xiao Yue again at this time, even if the other party was just a maid serving her, she could not help but feel a sense of affection.

She laughed, "I've been wanting to talk about you for a long time, you always Miss Bella Qiaoao this way, calling people raw, if you don't mind, from now on, just call me Sister Qi, I'm a few years older than you."

Moon's eyes lit up at the news.

"Is this, really okay?"

You know, many of the rules in the castle are very strict.

By all accounts, Bella Qiao was a guest here, possibly even a future host, and she was just a maid.

Calling her master sister and sister-in-law made her a little afraid to think about it.

Bella Qiao smiled slightly, "Yes, I'll talk to her over at Ober, so don't worry about him."

Xiao Yue's eyes were red with joy at this.

"Okay, I got it."

A pause and a smile came out, "Kitty."

Bella Qiao nodded.

She pointed to her suitcase not far away and said, "Help me get my medicine out for a minute."

"Good."

Xiao Yue immediately helped her get the medicine out, and after Bella Qiao took it, she was ready for her lunch break, so that Xiao Yue could also go to her room to rest and come up to keep her company when she woke up.

Moon nodded, and after she laid down on the bed, this went out gently.

The servant's room on this side of the main building was in a row of rooms on the ground floor behind the main building.

It wasn't too far from where Bella Qiao and Gu Siqian lived, about two to three minutes walk.

After Moon went back to her room to rest, Bella Qiao didn't actually fall asleep.

Perhaps it was because so much had happened in the meantime, her mind was a bit confused, and even when she was lying on the bed, she only felt distracted and had trouble sleeping.

She lay there with her eyes closed, remembering in her mind the words Xu Chang sad said to her this morning before she left.

He said, I'll come back for more.

Why did he come to her?

What else is there in themselves that is worthy of what they see and have been refusing to let go of?

It could be said that the current Bella Qiao was actually a lonely person with nothing but his own skills.

She had no power, no wealth, and no secrets to dazzle.

These people, why do they have to keep chasing her?

And even, because of her, caused the tragic death of Seven.

Her breath was a little unsteady at the thought of it.

The whole person is in a state of extreme remorse and self-loathing.

Xu Changbei, if I really find out that you killed Qi Qi, I will definitely not let you go.

Here, she suddenly opened her eyes.

I don't know if she sensed something or not, but she suddenly turned to look in the direction of the sunrise platform.

Since it was a little after noon at this time of day, the sun was very strong outside, though the balcony was thickly covered by curtains.

But there was still a ray of sunlight in the middle through the gap in the curtains.

She frowned, got up, got out of bed, and went to the balcony in her wheelchair.

As soon as the curtains opened, the harsh sunlight shone in, provoking her eyes to hurt, so she had to raise her hand to block it.

It took a moment before she dropped her hand and looked up towards the outside.

Only outside was a large garden, where Ober was directing several servants to trim the leaves in the garden.

The sun was shining and the temperature was a bit high, so everyone's clothes were drenched in sweat.

She watched the scene, frowning, and suddenly something felt wrong.

No, she'd been poisoned before, and while that poison hadn't really gotten to her, it had indeed been aimed at her.

The reason why the other party could target her was because, normally for meals, she and Yusra Lin had the same food, both to appear fair and to save the cook's time.

And those meals have never been a problem.

But her silver ear soup was out of whack.

What does that mean?

This means that the other person must be someone who knows her habits well.

Because she was feeling a bit on fire during that time, she would ask the kitchen to make herself a bowl of silver ear lotus soup every day, just to get rid of the fire.

This was something that Yusra Lin hadn't commanded.

That is to say, this thing, in the event that Yusra Lin didn't have a sudden idea and go for it, then it would be 100% going into her stomach.

After all, she'd been drinking for days on end before that day.

But offhand, it was the soup that went wrong.

This means that the other party was already aiming for the soup, knowing that it must be hers and she would drink it, so it was deliberately poisoned in the soup rather than in the food she ate every day.

Because the meals are all cooked in one pot and then picked up inside the kitchen regularly every day by their respective personal maids.

If the poison went down in the meal, in the kitchen, that poison would only go down in the pot, then not only would she be poisoned, but Yusra Lin would be poisoned as well.

It would be too difficult again to get down after leaving the kitchen.

After all, the meals were fetched by the two personal maids, and it wasn't far in between, but it was just a short trip from the ground floor kitchen to their respective rooms on the first floor or the ground floor dining room.

In this way, then, it can only mean one thing.
