

My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 841

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 841- Anthony's brows furrowed. 'People from the world's medical research society will be coming, too?'

Charmine did not expect Waverly's incident would cause such huge press.

Susan added again, 'Waverly is at Violet Villa's entrance as we speak, waiting for you to open up the door. No matter how bad your fights get, outsiders still don't know about Charmine's existence. You guys should at least keep up with the act and handle the masses with much care." 1

Anthony snorted at that, calm as he was, and was about to reject the idea when Charmine held his wrist and with her gaze, hinted at him. 2

Anthony noticed that she was against his idea and hung up the call decisively. He asked, feeling crossed, "Are you still not willing to disclose it, my lady?" 1

"It's not time yet. If we're to come out with the truth now, not only will we face the schemes of your family but the entire world's scorn as well. This goes especially for Kansas and the D'Cruz family;

they won't let US off the hook that easily," reasoned Charmine rationally.

"We've already received the certificate," countered Anthony huskily, "why still be afraid of them? No matter what danger lies ahead, I'll settle them."

“But I want that day, the day we disclose our relationship, to be a day the world celebrates it, not one filled with the entire universe’s hate. They wanted to do that live broadcast because they wanted to show the world about how lovey-dovey you and Waverly would be. They want me to know my standing and retreat.

“Since the Bailey family wanted to lay a finger on me, then why not we lay a finger on Waverly first?” 1

Charmine’s eyes gleamed as she talked.

Anthony knew what she was trying to express. He stretched out his hand and ruffled her hair. “You’re smart, my lady. Tonight, I’ll be prepared to enjoy the show.”

“Alright. Wait until the reporters are gone, then I’ll go look for you. You have to have patience no matter what happens,” reminded Charmine.

Outside of another villa...

Waverly was sitting in the car, waiting quietly.

In another five minutes, the people from the medical research center would be coming over to conduct an interview. She was done for if Anthony did not return.

‘Do they have to go overboard when I’ve already gotten some results?!’

As she was deep in her thoughts, the lights in the villa lit up as the main door opened.

Waverly sighed in relief as it happened. Her pink lips like cherry curled up in satisfaction.

'I knew they'd give in. In the end, I'm still Anthony's fiancée!' 1

She walked into the villa elegantly and noticed Anthony sitting on the sofa, with his entire body giving off a calm, prestigious aura.

Such a stellar man could make a person's heart race with just a glance at him.

'Such a regal man should never marry Charmine!'

She concealed her thoughts and, as if nothing had happened, said elegantly,

"Mr. Bailey, the men from the medical research center will be here soon. Rest assured, I'll never reveal any news about Ms. Jordan." 1

"I hope you'll be more honest instead," Anthony blurted coldly, his tone blatantly disdainful.

He had that urge, that itch to reveal his status with Charmine...

Susan then came in from outside with brows furrowed.

"Anthony, is this how you treat Ms. D'Cruz? At the very least, she had helped you guys keep it a secret for such a long time. Because of her kind and generous self, she's willing to return!"

"Why don't you marry this 'kind, generous lady' instead?" Anthony glanced at her coldly. 2

"You...!" Susan was apoplectic with rage.

She was very aware of Anthony's temper and did not wish to speak another word with him. She pulled Waverly and, bringing her to a safe distance, softly coaxed, "Waverly, thank you for your willingness to return. Don't you worry: No matter what feelings Anthony has for Charmine, the daughter-in-law that the Bailey family acknowledges will only be you!

"For the coming days, you just have to be more patient, and you must stay by Anthony's side.

Develop your relationship with him as the days go on.

"As for Charmine, I've already had plans to take her down. You'll just have to enjoy the show!"

Waverly's eyes glinted.

'Susan plans to lay a finger on Charmine? She's a very cruel lady. Surely, Charmine's path would be as rocky as it could get from now on!'

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 842- Waverly's eyes gleamed with anticipation. "Don't worry, Auntie," she said to Susan, 'TH have a fair competition with Charmine. I'll never give in easily." 1

"That's great if you can take it that way. You got to put in more effort tonight! Remember, you're Mrs.

Bailey who everyone acknowledges!" reminded Susan with admiration.

Waverly nodded. 1

The people from the medical research center eventually arrived, and there were a total of three people.

One of them was an old, experienced medical professor from America, another was a photographer, and the last was an assistant.

The interview would be conducted live through a YouTube channel.

The live stream aimed to allow the citizens to have a better understanding of keeping a healthy lifestyle and some knowledge regarding the medical field.

The old professor went forth when he saw Anthony and Waverly, genially greeting, “A pleasure to meet two prominent figures. It’s an honor for me to finally be able to meet you guys.”

Anthony merely offered a calm sound of reply to him.

Waverly was more elegant, but her face was still plastered with a faint smile.

“Professor, you’re a famous individual yourself. We’re the ones who should be honored to have you here.”

“Haha! Is this a business kind of praising each other? Then it’s better to get into the topic. Today’s live stream is to make everyone know in-depth about the importance of sleeping, and also how you can speed up the process of hypnotizing a person.

“There are some questions listed here, please have a look at them first.” The old professor handed a book over to Waverly.

Waverly took a look at it and nodded with satisfaction. “No problem.”

‘It doesn’t matter what questions are being asked, as long as I get to cozy up with Anthony in public and make Charmine so mad that she’ll go crazy!’

The live stream commenced.

Waverly and Anthony sat on the sofa; one at the left and the other on the right.

They both looked graceful, much like angels, like they belonged in fairytales. 1

At the beginning of the live stream, all the old fans of the live stream were stunned when they noted the guests were Anthony and Waverly.

They kept commenting on the page frantically and kept sharing it everywhere, which in no time, the number of people in the live stream was over the bar, breaking through 80 million people.

Anthony was sitting at a side throughout the entire session, flipping through the magazine on his hands calmly, as if he was just a background image. 1

However, in the netizens' view, they were utterly envious of it.

[Ah, ah, ah! Boss Bailey, who never likes to make an appearance, would start operating for Waverly's sake!]

[I kept feeling that he wanted to sleep and was being forced into this! Hahaha, he must be forced into this by Waverly. He really is controlled by his wife!]

[Show us a look of true love!]

The live stream was hyped up.

The old professor was absolutely professional as he conversed with Waverly in incredibly fluent English, "According to the international investigation, there are approximately a quarter of the people in the entire world who have problems sleeping. In every four people, there will be one person having insomnia. You're the world's number one female hypnotherapist. May I ask your opinion..."

Both of them had a series of professional discussions with numerous technical terms and data analysis, which confused many of the listeners.

The old professor asked again, "I heard that today, you managed to successfully treat an astrologer. You managed to make her, who had insomnia throughout the year, slumbered in just half an hour and even entered deep sleep as well.

May I know if this is true?"

"Of course. Treating patients with insomnia is my basic ability. Within ten days, I'll make Grandma Houston recover," answered Waverly elegantly as she spoke in a superior manner.

She was an angel at the top of the hierarchy. What did Charmine have to compare herself with her?

She wanted to gain everyone's respect and admiration!

Indeed, the room was filled with praise and awe.

[I heard that a notification letter about Grandma Houston's deteriorating disease had been given out.

She will not be able to survive for more than ten days!]

[Yet Waverly is able to make her recover within ten days? It's truly like a god in reality! She really is like an angel!]

[I didn't expect that there's such miraculous hypnosis existing in this world!]

[Truly love it! She really deserves to be together with Boss Bailey. This professional status is just fantastic!]

[I wish them both lovely together forever!]

Almost the entire world hailed Waverly.

Susan stood beside and cropped the praise-filled comments during the live stream and sent them to Charmine.

[Are you seeing this, Charmine? The whole world is rooting for them to be together. They're the ones who are a match, a handsome man and pretty lady, and you're just an extra!]

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 843-[If you know your place, then please take the initiative and leave now, or you'll suffer more for the coming days. You'll only get to see Anthony and Waverly showing their love for each other!]

At that moment, Charmine was leaning against the bed's headboard and watched the live stream carefreely.

Her red lips curled into a smile as she read Susan's message.

[I won't be the only one suffering later, then.]

Susan failed to comprehend Charmine's message, yet the live stream...

Anthony, who sat at the side and never spoke a word the whole time, suddenly lifted his gaze toward Waverly next to him.

“There’s a patient that you’ve been treating for almost a month and had not much improvement. How can you overestimate yourself? Please don’t tell lies.” 3

His comments were only words of lecturing her.

“Please don’t tell lies.* These four words kept on repeating themselves throughout the live stream, and the atmosphere within the entire room suddenly froze.

Waverly was evidently stunned as well, evident in her expression.

‘What did Anthony say? Did he just say I’m telling lies? Is he trying to spoil my image?’ 2

The old professor was seized with Anthony’s remark and, becoming a busybody, asked, “The genius doctor, Ms. D’Cruz only needs ten days to treat Grandma

Houston. How can she fail to treat a patient to recovery after spending a month’s time?”

“It’s not guaranteed that in ten days, she’ll fully recover. At most, it could only relieve her symptoms. My fiancée loves telling lies, so I hope everyone can bear with it.” It was a rare opportunity for Anthony to look into the camera lens. 2

The entire room felt ice-cold as though frozen in time.

[Did Anthony just say Waverly loves telling lies?]

[Is he saying that Waverly can’t treat Grandma Houston in ten days? She’s just talking big?]

[Besides, she loves telling lies? What other lies has she said before?]

Netizens bombarded the comment section with one question after another.

Waverly felt so awkward that she just wanted to dig a hole and bury herself in, yet she could only pretend to be calm and turned to Anthony.

“I’m not sure when I’ve told you lies, Anthony. It’s not a good idea to be cracking jokes right now-everyone will get the wrong idea.”

“I’m just stating the facts. How can there be a misunderstanding here?

Outside the shop at the plaza, the things that you lied to me, do you want me to say?” Anthony counter-questioned.

Waverley’s pupils immediately shrunk.

‘Shop? He’s talking about the incident when I’m the one who went to look for him and promised to just pretend to be his girlfriend! How could Anthony mention this during a live stream? Is he trying to tell the whole world about Charmine’s existence?’

People in the live stream had clearly witnessed the change of Waverly’s expression, and that got them thinking.

[It seems like Waverly did tell a lie?]

[I guess so! Please dig deeper into it, go on!] 1

[Let’s not listen to any more professional boasting. We want to hear gossip!]

[So Waverly likes to tell lies, does she now?]

[Boss Bailey, please share more if you can!]

Everyone started commenting frantically.

The crows who were initially respectful of Waverly immediately turned into curious cats. No one cared about her professional medical skills anymore. 1

Anthony said to the camera instead, “That’s all for the live stream. From now on, I’ll teach her well.”

After his comment, Anthony’s cold gaze shifted to Luke who was at the doorway.

Luke immediately got up and cut off the power supply to the live stream.

That was the end of the live stream.

The old professor noticed something odd in the atmosphere between them and immediately got the hint, bidding his farewell.

As for Susan, she was exasperated and went forth to scold Anthony.

“What the hell are you doing, Anthony? You could’ve made it worse for Waverly!”

“Isn’t this your fault?” retorted Anthony coldly, yet his gesture was elegant.

They wanted to use this live stream to broadcast their love and show-off to Charmine, yet Anthony made it worse for Waverly. ‘Let’s see if you’ll still have the guts to pull off all these tricks in the future!’ 1

Waverly was disconcerted and stood there, dumbfounded. Her gorgeous hands clenched harshly.

She had never been treated that way. She had never faced such humiliation before! 4 'How dare

Anthony treat me that way!'

A glint of hatred appeared deep within her eyes

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 844- Waverly's expression was stony and stiff as she looked at Anthony. "Mr. Bailey, at the very least, I've helped you guys get rid of the poison and acted as your decoy for so long. Why did you have to be so cruel?"

"Aren't you the one cruel in the first place?" Anthony counter-questioned coldly.

'If it wasn't for Waverly provoking Charmine, if it wasn't for her making Susan head toward the hospital, how could the event have ended up in such a state?'

Waverly smiled coldly instead. "I just don't want to continue being your decoy, and I just wanted you to marry someone more suitable to be your wife, but how did you and Charmine treat me? Back then at the hotel, you guys nearly let me have it worse, and today you want to destroy my fame? If you're determined to be so cruel, let's cease everything between us!" 1

Having said that, Waverly spun and headed outside.

Seeing everything unfolding, Susan quickly went forth, grabbed her, and said, "Waverly, it's all Anthony's fault. I apologize to you on his behalf.

Please bear with it a little longer, alright?

“Have you forgotten what I said? Now that you guys are engaged, the only Mrs. Bailey that the entire world acknowledges is you...”

“But I don’t want acknowledgment from outsiders. I, Waverly D’Cruz, needn’t beg him to marry me.

Since he loves Chamine, then I might as well give my blessing to them!”
Waverly’s expression

turned icy-cold as she shoved Susan’s hand. 1

‘They’ll think I’m easy to be bullied if I don’t frighten them a little!’

Susan’s eyelids fluttered aggressively.

‘If things become this chaotic and Waverly leaves, the entire Bailey family is done for!’

‘The affluent D’Cruz family and entire Kansas will surely take down the Bailey family. The incident of Anthony cheating on his fiancée after the engagement will for sure invite the entire world’s hatred!’

Susan quickly held onto her and gently persuaded, “Waverly, why don’t you just bear with it just for my sake, hmm? I guarantee you that Anthony will never, ever treat you this way again!” 2

Susan turned to Anthony as she said it. 1

“Anthony, you better say something! Do you really want the entire world to know about the things between you and Charmine if you just let Waverly leave like that? Forget about the Baileys rejecting Charmine-even the entire world won't accept her too. Charmine will only be cursed by everyone!"

Anthony recalled what Charmine said, that she had also been considering this issue.

However, Anthony was not a woman who would consider things in great detail.

His expression was calm. "I want to see who dares to curse around, and I'd like to experience the methods used by the Kansas nation and the D'Cruz family!"

'Judging by his tone, he's really looking forward to havoc...'

Susan was well aware of her son's thinking; Anthony never liked being forced.

Since Waverly had given her word, how could Anthony discard his pride and beg her to stay?

'If things continue as such, they'll end up separating!'

Susan sensed that Waverly was restless still, but as things had progressed to such a state, she had no options but to calm the storm.

"Anthony, didn't you want to be with Charmine? We can agree with that, but with the condition that you have to be with Waverly all day long and really get along with each other for one month! If you still don't like Waverly after that, we'll agree for you to be with Charmine."

Anthony's cold expression changed slightly.

Seeing that there was a change in him, Susan added, "Now isn't the time for you and Charmine to disclose your relationship in public. If after one month, the hype of the engagement has reduced, only then should you announce to the public that you guys have divorced because you realize you two aren't meant for each other. It won't harm any party at all, right?" 1

"Alright," Anthony answered.

He would never like her even if he were to be together with Waverly for his entire life, what more a month.

However...

He raised his brows and looked at Waverly. "But I got a condition. After a month, Waverly has to publicly admit that she had been, from the very start, a decoy for me and Charmine. She shouldn't twist any facts nor create any fake news!" 1

Waverly frowned. Initially, she just wanted to leave the scene to frighten them, but never did she expect for them to give their own requests on their terms. 1

Susan kept eyeing her as a sign. Her eyes vaguely gleamed with irritation.

'If I reject him now, Anthony will never make her stay, and Waverly will forever lose the chance to stay by Anthony's side...'

After giving it a short thought, she said, "Alright, but I don't want anything like what happened today to repeat within a month."

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 845- Anthony acknowledged it silently. 1 'Anyway, once will do. This will make the netizens talk about it for a few months.'

Susan immediately left the scene when she saw the two of them coming to an agreement.

Within a month's time, she firmly believed Anthony would come to like the Waverly, who was such a splendid lady.

It was also more than enough time for her to take down Charmine.

After leaving the villa, she called her assistant and asked, "What's the progress of the arrangement I asked you to do?"

"Don't worry, everything is proceeding smoothly!"

In the villa...

Once Susan left, Charmine immediately brought Chris out of the underground.

Waverly was about to get near Anthony when she saw the two of them. 1

She frowned. "Anthony, don't tell you'll let them tag along within this whole month of us trying to get along?" 3

"Of course," said Anthony in an eminent manner.

Waverly's expression changed for the worse. 'What's the point of spending time together with Charmine and Chris tagging along?' 1

Charmin's red lips curled. "If you manage to gain Anthony's heart under these circumstances, that'll only prove that you have what it takes. Don't tell me you don't even have this much confidence, Ms. D'Cruz?"

"Of course not. You'd better prepare yourself for the days to come!"

Waverly glared at her and spun, heading toward the room beside them.

That room was just opposite to Charmine and Anthony.

She would no longer be staying upstairs. She wanted to live opposite them and stop them from staying together! 2

Chris looked at her retreating figure and frowned, puzzled.

"Daddy, Mommy, is that Auntie getting fatter? Why does her face seem to be bigger after just two days of not seeing her?" 1

Waverly, who just entered the room and was not in time to get herself ready, felt that she was instantly humiliated.

'I haven't done anything yet, but I'm already humiliated with just a comment! I

Anthony purposely answered Momo's question, "You should eat less from now on or you'll end up being fat, just like her!"

"Alright. Mommy is still the prettiest. She won't get fat even after eating so much!" Chris said as though he was swooning.

"You sure know the good stuff, don't you?" Charmine praised and patted his head.

to the big room on the second floor and sleep.” 1

The three of them headed to the second floor happily.

Waverly, still in the room, clenched her elegant fists tightly.

‘They stayed and slept on the second floor before this. Why are they headed up to the second floor all of a sudden? Are they doing this on purpose to ditch me on the first floor?’

She did not want to prove herself weak and tagged along upstairs. 2

However, as soon as she went upstairs, their room was slammed shut with an audible bang.

The corridor turned ice-cold that instant, leaving her alone.

Waverly’s expression was utterly dark.

‘What sort of getting-along is this? How are we supposed to get along in this one month?’

“Oh, Waverly, I know that Anthony will ignore you, but you got to bear with it. In this one month, you just need to keep yourself as pretty as a flower, and I’ll help you get rid of Charmine.

“Within three days, she’ll leave Anthony on her own accord!”

“Really?” Waverly was rather reluctant to believe.

‘How could a shameless person like Charmine leave Anthony on her own accord, after going through so much trouble and finally being together with him?’

Susan smiled softly. “You just wait and see. Soon, she’ll leave!” It was late at night, and it was very quiet.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 846-That night, [Waverly tells lies] trended as the ‘hot search’, garnering a very heated discussion on it.

Anthony had earned the title of being the ‘straightforward iron man’. Many people were throwing guesses as they felt Anthony’s relationship with her was a little odd.

Paparazzi surrounded their perimeter early that morning, and many were bold enough to block the entrance, shouting, “Mr. Bailey, can you please come out and be interviewed?”

“Mr. Bailey, you said that Waverly loves telling lies. What actually is that all about?”

“Does Waverly, the princess to the royalty of Kansas, really tell lies?”

“Did something wrong happen in your relationship?”

Those direct questions kept circling around the entire villa.

When Charmine woke up, she went over to the windowsill and had a look, seeing the crowd outside.

Moreover, there were many reporters from Kansas, all wanting to get an explanation.

The issue that Anthony had caused last night during the live stream had a huge impact.

“I’ll go out through the tunnel,” she said to Anthony. ‘Til come back and look for you during the night.”

In broad daylight, Anthony never once forced it on her.

When Charmine headed downstairs, she noticed all the curtains in the house had been sealed up tightly.

Waverly, sitting on the sofa, had her laptop on as she conducted a longdistance conference, uttering various professional, technical terms.

She had on a dress with a pearl-white collar and long sleeves, making her look prestigious and elegant.

Her red lips curled with disdain when she saw Charmine walking down the underground. She cut off the video.

“It’s already daytime, and the mouse that can’t show herself in public had to leave as well?” Her words were full of mockery.

Charmine smiled instead. “Why don’t you try it out if you have what it takes?

You’re just a passerby with no rights, yet you still think you got the right to run your mouth?”

“You...!”

Waverly wanted to blow up, but she noticed the issues of her image and finally pulled herself together. She said scornfully, “Charmine, why are you so arrogant? The moment you leave, Anthony will be all lovey-dovey with me, even taking extra care of me while all you can do is just watch everything play out!”

‘Lovey-dovey?’

Coincidentally, Anthony came down from upstairs.

Charmine yanked Anthony and got on her tiptoes to kiss Anthony.

Anthony’s body trembled slightly. After some time, he shifted from his passive stance and grew active, French-kissing Charmine. 1

Waverly, standing at the sidelines, was so jealous that her eyes turned red. ‘How dare they kiss each other so passionately in front of me? They don’t even care about my feelings and just kiss each other so heatedly!’ 6

After some time, only Charmine pushed Anthony away, staring at Waverly as she spoke, “Did you see everything? This is what you call being lovey- dovey!

You and Anthony are just putting up an act. At most, he’s just tolerating you and respecting you.

“If you still don’t get it, I don’t mind showing you a few more of it to you on the spot.” 1

Waverly’s expression was apoplectic with rage. ‘Charmine kisses Anthony in front of me just because she wants to agitate me?’

She wanted to vent out her anger, but when she recalled what Susan said last night, she dropped that idea. 1

“You should leave now, Ms. Jordan!”

Only with her leaving would Waverly feel much better. 1

Charmine also did not wish to waste anymore time on her. She then kissed Anthony on the forehead before leaving through the tunnel.

Anthony could feel her warmth on his forehead, along with the breath left from her lips. Suddenly, his lips curled as he said to Waverly, "I quite like it when you stay in the villa." 2

Waverly's heart started pumping quickly.

'Did... Did Anthony just say he like' me?' 3

"I'd have a ninety-percent chance of her kissing me, after all." With that said, Anthony then headed for the kitchen.

Waverly's expression immediately turned dark like a wok.

'He likes me staying, just because of Charmine?'

Of course, she had no idea that before she came over, Charmine was always behaving respectfully to Anthony and always kept the necessary distance between them.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 847- However, ever since Waverly came in, Charmine was always flaunting her love for Anthony at Waverly's face.

Anthony was utterly satisfied with the decision he made last night.

After Charmine left the villa, she headed straight to the company to settle her business.

She could not shake off the gnawing feeling that the Baileys would be onto her. Surely, they would make a move on the company.

However, after she arrived at the company, it was all about good news.

Ever since her identity as the Magpie Bridge's designer was exposed, the entire world hoped to get the opportunity to work with her and had been constantly given the green light to all her projects.

The progression of all of the projects was ten percent faster.

Charmine felt her eyelids flickering, and she could not feel at ease. She might as well go to the Divine Birds and Hundred Birds Tower sites to survey everything.

All the workers were seriously working and building in order, and the huge high-end tower crane that she had to spend a fortune on was extraordinarily eye-striking.

Adam was following behind her and comforted, "Don't worry, everything is well underway. I guess even if the Baileys are to make a move, they shouldn't be able to find a way to do so."

Charmine could not believe it.

Those affluent and prestigious families had plenty of tricks up their sleeves. No one would know what would happen the next day.

When she left the scene, she noticed there were a few workers sneaking a peek at her. Their eyes were as though gleaming with guilt.

However, after she had gazed at it in detail, she noticed that every worker had their head facing the yellow soil with their back against the sky as they were moving the bricks. There was nothing odd going on.

'Was I hallucinating?'

While she was deep in her thoughts, Adam got concerned and asked, "How are things between you and Anthony?"

Charmine snapped out of her mini trance. "Please tell Grandpa that everything is proceeding smoothly, but for the time being, I won't be heading back home as there are lots of things for me to take care of."

The main reason was that she was afraid the Bailey family would use her family to threaten her.

Currently, she had to spend less time with her family and tried her best to show everyone that she was having a bad relationship with her family.

Adam did not question further.

Never did Charmine expect something to happen that afternoon.

"Bad news, Ms. Jordan! Something happened! There's someone found dead at the site!"

Brandon ran in, stumbling and panting.

Charmine's brows furrowed. "What did you say?"

"The company's technician's tower crane suddenly made an error while operating it, and the tower crane just crashed down, right on tens of workers! They're all dead-thirteen people are dead!" 2

Charmine grew tense instantly. 'All are dead? So many human lives...!'

She immediately got up and walked out, ordering, "Activate the first-line defense operation!"

"It's already been activated. All the important members gathered at the scene and are searching for answers. However, with reasons unknown, there are so many reporters nearby coincidentally. At the first instance, they immediately uploaded the news," said Brandon. 1

Charmine's brows knitted much tighter at that.

'Someone uploaded it to the net? Well... Seems like the Baileys have moved now! How dare they mess with human lives, just to take me out?!

For the time being, Charmine was not bothered to settle the issue on the net. She got into the car and immediately rushed to the scene.

It was chaotic at the site of Divine Bird.

Some of the workers expressed their sympathy, some were crying, while some were petrified.

There were many reporters taking pictures of the scene frantically.

The scene at the site was surrounded. The tall tower crane had truly crashed down from the top, and along with the operator of the tower crane, there were a total of 13 people found dead!

Adam had moved all the corpses on the stretcher and covered them with a white cloth.

The moment Charmine arrived, she was swarmed by a group of reporters.

“Charmine, what do you have to say about the accident that robbed thirteen lives, your workers, on your site?”

“Some people said that the pressure in your company is too immense, that the working hours are too long, which summed up the operator of the tower crane losing control. Is that true?”

“How are you going to face the thirteen lives?!”

The reporters shouldered one another from the front and back, pushing each other while surrounding her, effectively trapping Charmine in their midst.

The scene was tense and chaotic

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 848-Though faced with the camera, Charmine was well-composed as said calmly, “The company will settle this issue appropriately. All of you, please show some respect for the dead. Let US settle the deceased first.”

Her cool voice was accompanied by an intense aura.

With just a comment, it made it look like the reporters did not know their boundaries and had no manners at all. 1

Soon, the security guards showed up and forcibly split the reporters to both sides. Only then could Charmine enter the scene.

She went forth to investigate, her gait seemingly free from fear. She stretched out their necks and looked around them.

Eventually, she concluded that they had genuinely died, and it was solely due to the accident.

'How could the Bailey family be so cruel to take out so many lives just to get rid of me?'

A murderous aura gleamed in her eyes. She ordered Adam, "Send everyone to the best funeral parlor. Also, inform their families and arrange a meeting. I'll personally go over and discuss the matter in the future."

"Alright." Adam carried out the order and organized the arrangements.

Soon, everyone was sent to the funeral parlor.

Unfortunately...

In just a moment, the news had spread like wildfire.

As the accident involved migrant workers, it was a highly talked-about topic as the forum was filled with empathy.

[How unfortunate. Thirteen human lives! How cruel this is!]

[Thirteen families were destroyed just like that...]

[In just a single day, kids from the thirteen families had lost their dads, and thirteen ladies lost their husbands...]

[Isn't Divine Bird a high-quality site? How can such a thing happen? Is it because of the inadequate supervision and the tedious overworking?]

Amongst the many empathetic comments, there were many account holders who started leading the tempo.

[It's just me alone who's being concerned. Will there be anyone willing to buy the houses of Divine Bird?]

[There's already thirteen people dead. Surely, they'll be haunted!]

[You guys dare to stay there? Count me out!]

[Ah!!! I bought a unit from the Divine Bird! I request a refund!]

It was obvious there was a hired netizen leading the tempo. Soon, news of had become hot searches as well.

The most terrible thing was...

Families of the 13 migrant workers refused to meet with Charmine to discuss the matter. They brought all their family members and headed over to the site of Divine Bird, bursting into sobs.

Each of them even bought a floral wreath and even lit candles.

In just half a day, the little area of Divine Bird which was initially a high-end area was forced to stop work to undergo an investigation. The scene had turned into a funeral. The family members were even crying desperately. Many took pictures of the scene until night fell. They even purposely put it into a black and white photo, giving it a sad and scary atmosphere.

Suddenly, almost 70 percent of the owners joined forces and called up the Jordan Group, requesting a refund.

In the office of the Divine Bird site...

Charmine looked at how things were progressing and her eyes gleamed coldly.

'Someone's behind this, no doubt. Just to get rid of me, the Baileys dared to sacrifice thirteen innocent human lives!'

Ring! Ring! Ring!

The phone rang and the screen revealed two words-Anthony Bailey.

After hesitating for a moment, she answered it.

Anthony said with a deep voice, "I'll find out who it was and give you an explanation."

"Please make it fast, or I won't mind making a move on my own." 1

Whether it was Susan, Grandma Bailey, or Darryl, as long as those who were involved in this murder case, she would not let any one of them off the hook! 1

Anthony noticed the coldness in her reply as he comforted, "Be a good girl and stay in the office.

Don't go anywhere and wait for my conclusion." 1

Charmine did not reply and hung up the call.

How was it possible for her to sit and do nothing when things had progressed to such a state? She got to head out and settle the issue as soon as possible.

Anthony knew she would not be able to rest assured, so he got up and headed outside.

Waverly immediately said, "There are reporters outside. They're still waiting to get in depth about yesterday's news..."

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 849- Ignoring Waverly, Anthony went straight to the garage and drove out in his car.

As reporters ran up to his vehicle and attempted to surround him, Anthony stepped on the gas pedal harshly to its limit, not once releasing it. Terrified, the paparazzi evaded the car, not daring to block him again.

Waverly watched on with fury, eyes cold with bitterness.

'Anthony had just been in the house for an entire day, yet he can't sit still just because Charmine is in trouble? Just how deep is he in love with Charmine?'

However, the thought of it made her smirk coldly.

She wanted to see how Charmine would settle the issue under such pressure!

At the site...

Charmine had sent her men over to negotiate with the families of the dead, be it money or any other forms-they were free to bring it up.

However, none of them accepted the offer. Tens of children and women bewailed their faith. A few elders were on their knees, burning candles, making the entire site chaotic.

Adam said to Charmine, "Charmine, you should head back to the company. We'll settle the things on the site. They're way too agitated right now."

"No, I must meet them personally."

Charmine headed out of the office and walked straight to the site.

The moment she stepped out, the security guards immediately went up and protected her, afraid that she might be injured.

Some even asked, "Director Jordan, do you want to forcibly chase them out?"

"No. You guys just stand here. You all don't have to follow."

Charmine stopped everyone and headed alone toward those children and women who were crying.

She knew that gazes were turned her way. If she brought the security guards over by force, no one would know for sure what sort of articles would be written.

Above all, she sincerely sympathized with the families of the victims.

Since she was young, because of her status as an orphan, she always wished to have a family that truly belonged to her. After the incident that occurred five years ago, she became more sentimental about matters regarding families.

13 broken families were placed in front of her. They were the fathers of many children...

As the director, she had the responsibility to comfort them and settle the issue.

However...

As soon as she walked over, those who were crying immediately stared at her.

“How dare you still show up?! What right do you have to visit them?!”

“You’re just a woman. Just say if you don’t know how to operate a company or manage one. Why bother trying to act tough?!”

“It’s about so many human lives here! Your faulty management caused them to die, just like that!”

Sobs were heard as words followed, “You must return my husband to me!

Return him to me!”

There was a lady who cried and went forth. She grabbed onto Charmine’s collar and kept slapping at her.

Charmine did not dodge it and just stood calmly, allowing the lady to beat her.

Her gaze glanced at the group of ladies who were crying and said, “Will beating me ease your family? If your husbands are in heaven watching this, will they be willing to see you guys in such a state right now?”

It was supposed to be just an ordinary comment, yet her voice was crystal clear that resonated in their souls.

All the ladies came to a pause.

if our husbands are in heaven watching this, will they be willing to see US in such a state right now?’

'Of course not... Of course they can't stand it. Our husbands will only wish for us to live a better life, taking a huge sum of money, and have a peaceful life.'

'Besides, beating Charmine is indeed useless; futile.'

They were initially apprehensive to come to the site and wail of their fate.

However...

There was a lady who suddenly thought of something. Her expression became very fierce.

"Stop talking all this rubbish to us! If it's not for you failing to manage your company, how can this thing even happen?"

"I don't want your money. No matter how much money it is, I don't want it. I just want you to pay with your life! Give me my husband's life!"

That lady got agitated and picked up a stone on the floor, attempting to smash it against Charmine's head aggressively.

Charmine was about to evade it but before she could even do so, a huge hand suddenly pulled her into a broad and firm chest.

Raising her gaze, her eyelids fluttered in shock.

'Anthony! It really is Anthony!'

'Why is he here?!'

'This is a public scene, and there are lots of reporters hiding around. How could he...?’

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 850-The crowd at the scene reeled back in shock as their eyes were wide open.

Anthony was hailed as the king that everyone in Burlington looked up to. He had attended all international conferences and multinational business conferences as well. He was even engaged with the Kansas’ royal family’s wealthy heiress.

‘Such a mighty man had come to the site belonging to the Jordan family, and even hugged

Charmine?’

‘He is already a man with a fiancée, yet he still embraced Charmine like that?’

Charmine noticed that everyone’s gaze lingered on them, and she quickly pushed Anthony away.

“Mr. Bailey, what brings you here?”

She pretended to be a stranger to him and enquired, immediately burying their relationship from all eyes.

Anthony’s gaze was fixed on her as his eyes gleamed deeply.

Charmine kept feeling that she was not being herself when Anthony looked at her. ‘He looks like he’ll say something he shouldn’t be saying, anytime now...’

Fortunately, when she was perturbed, Anthony finally said, “As the Jordan family’s strategic partner, it’s only natural for me to show up to have a look when such a huge event has happened.”

The onlooking crowd was stunned at the scene and his response. ‘So he’s only here because of work?’

‘Is that solely the purpose of it?’

However, mighty people like Anthony had never been seen making a move to protect a lady. Scratch that, he was never even seen getting close to any lady, yet all of a sudden, he held Charmine like that?

Anthony did not explain to the crowd, only getting closer to Charmine.

His gaze landed on Charmine’s body.

Dust had gathered on her shirt, caused when the maniac lady was beating her.

Anthony placed his hand in his right breast pocket and took out a handkerchief before gently wiping off the dust on her collar, placket, and so on. 1

Suddenly, the scene fell quieter.

Everyone’s eyes widened in astonishment, and it was as if a needle dropping to the ground could be heard as well.

‘What have we seen?!’

‘The always prestigious Anthony wiped off the dust for Charmine?’

‘Are we hallucinating?!’

Charmine’s eyes shrunk and her body stiffened.

‘What the hell is Anthony doing?’

'Everyone is already suspicious to begin with, and he should be staying far away, yet he's doing such a thing?!'

When everyone was astonished, Anthony had cleaned off all the dust from Charmine's clothes.

He took a step back and stood up straight.

"As my working partner, please always pay attention to your appearance."

Charmine and the crowd were speechless.

'So Anthony is here for the company's issue. He wiped the dust off of Charmine because she's his working partner?'

'Can we believe in this excuse?!'

Charmine felt like everyone's suspicious gaze was akin to throwing her into a hornet's nest.

She quickly took the initiative and took two steps back, reminding, "Mr. Bailey, could you please remind me immediately the next time? Your fiancée will misunderstand it, and that'll be worse."

"Don't worry, she's very generous. She won't mind," said Anthony in a prestigious way. 1

At that moment, Waverly was watching the live stream in the villa.

A few live-streamed the Divine Bird site. Anthony's abrupt appearance made them stunned that they forgot to switch off their phones that aimed right at him and Charmine.

Besides, no one was talking at the scene, allowing Anthony and Charmine's voices to be very clear and audible.

Waverly could clearly hear Anthony saying 'generous'. Her expression became very bitter that it could have forced out a drop of water.

'Generous... Generous...? How dare Anthony describe me as such! Is he praising me?'

'Besides, working partner? He thinks using that term could help him protect Charmine from the masses? This is too much!'
