

Super Rich Dad Chapter 844-846

Chapter 844

After knowing the exact location of the team member, Sally hastily contacted Old Black and Ning Kun to bring someone there, and she also informed Jiang Hao.

There weren't many top fighters on the North House side, and Ning Kun was considered an intelligent talent and not a combat type.

It was fine to expect him to formulate a plan of action. But to expect him to fight someone with a brick was just bullshit!

And although Old Black looks like a big, stupid man, he can actually protect Sally, and that's the best he can do.

At the same time when Old Black and Ning Kun were leading the men to the warehouse in the industrial area north of the city. Sally picked up her mobile phone and contacted Jiang Hao.

'Hey, Jiang Hao. Do you have time now?'

After receiving the call Jiang Hao looked at the matter at hand, then hesitated and spoke, 'For now, what's wrong?'

'Shen Tianyang's men have captured one of my men, now their stronghold has been exposed, it's likely that it's Sanniang, the female cadre under Shen Tianyang, you come over with me!'

Hearing that there was finally a possibility of capturing a small leader from the other side this time, Jiang Hao's eyes lit up and he hurriedly agreed to do so.

The two sides agreed to meet at the bottom of Tianzhu Mountain, and when Sally drove to the bottom of the mountain, Jiang Hao was standing quietly by the roadside in a casual outfit, smoking a cigarette.

After seeing Sally drive to a stop in front of him. He opened the passenger door and sat down, then dropped the cigarette in his hand and said, 'When did this happen, is it too late to go there now?'

Sally shook her head slightly while driving and said, 'I'm not sure, Old Black and Ning Kun have already brought their men over, in addition, according to the news from Ning Kun, the other side seems to be splitting up in two ways to find you.'

After saying this, Sally glanced at Jiang Hao somewhat strangely and continued, 'I'm curious, how did you hide under their noses for so long, Shen Wennian and Shen Qingshu both seem to have seen you, right?' One second to remember

Jiang Hao turned his head to look at Sally with a smile after hearing this, shrugged his shoulders and then spoke mysteriously, 'I'll tell you this later. It's kind of a surprise for you, I hope you won't be too surprised!'

Sally simply omitted the question after rolling her eyes, as long as Jiang Hao was safe it would have no effect on her and would have no impact on her plans anyway.

After the two of them drove to the industrial park in the north of the city, the scene had already been cordoned off by Old Black through his connections.

Ning Kun, on the other hand, took out his computer directly in the car and retrieved the surveillance video in the industrial park through some special means.

After seeing Sally bring Jiang Hao over, Ning Kun looked at Jiang Hao and nodded, then pointed to the surveillance monitor in the car and spoke, 'The signal point in the industrial park is now at the third warehouse. But it's not clear if they've moved.'

Sally nodded then said in a deep voice, 'How many people do we have on hand now, I heard you split up all of the beast battalion?'

Ning Kun nodded and then spoke with some difficulty, 'The only number of people I can transfer now are the nineteen people from the Beast Camp. I can't move the others, as they are responsible for monitoring the other three directions.'

Old Black was leaning against the car at this moment, and around him stood more than ten expressionless men dressed in black.

He glanced at Sally with some difficulty after hearing Ning Kun's words, then spoke, 'There are only nineteen of them. There are forty to fifty level one martial artists inside, it's hard to do.'

Sally frowned along with him, then looked at her watch and said in a deep voice, 'If we ask for help from the branch now, how many people can we probably borrow?'

Ning Kun shook his head dryly and decisively, 'It's completely impossible. Even if someone from the rapid response department wanted to get here, it would take more than two hours, and you think they won't run away in two hours?'

As soon as Ning Kun's words fell, the team member's signal source suddenly disappeared, and Old Black Sally all knew what this meant.

The three of them fell silent at the same time, then lowered their heads and closed their eyes and began to mourn silently.

Jiang Hao looked at them a little puzzled and spoke slightly puzzled, 'You guys, what's wrong with you?'

'Since the signal source has disappeared. Then it proves that the other side has found this little thing, do you think they will still let our team members live?'

Ning Kun raised his head and looked at Jiang Hao. Right now here he was the only hope, only he could possibly avenge that team member at the same time. Catch the other team's leader!

Old Black obviously sensed this too, and raised his head to look closely at Jiang Hao. The implication in his eyes was very obvious.

Sally slowly opened her eyes, then without looking back, she reached out and patted Jiang Hao's shoulder and said, 'Jiang Hao, come here for a moment, I have something to tell you.'

After being pulled aside by Sally in silence, he looked closely at Sally into her eyes and the two looked at each other for a moment.

Sally suddenly sighed, 'I know that this is the Northern Province and falls within my jurisdiction, but you have seen the power I have on hand, although I can eat it, but you have seen these men on hand.'

Jiang Hao looked at Sally who looked embarrassed and smiled before saying, 'I thought there was something wrong, since you have already investigated my information, I think you should be clear about the hatred between me and Shen Tianyang, right?'

Sally looked at Jiang Hao and nodded, and after they looked at each other and smiled, Sally said softly, 'Be safe.'

As soon as the words left her mouth, she turned her head to look at Old Black and Ning Kun and shouted loudly, 'Bring me all the equipment, why don't you guys have any eyesight at all!'

Old Black and Ning Kun looked at each other and both saw the joy in each other's eyes!

To be honest Old Black actually felt slightly guilty in his heart towards Jiang Hao, because this matter should have been him leading the men on.

It was a pity that Ning Kun had separated these men from the beast camp in order to better catch them all in one go, otherwise it wasn't as if they couldn't have attacked in one go!

Old Black came over with a heavy bulletproof vest in his hand and then gave it to Jiang Hao to put on, while Ning Kun was carrying a case in his hand.

Only after Jiang Hao had put on the bulletproof vest did he open the case, inside were two long knives and two daggers, as well as a pistol with several magazines.

'This is my personal one, I know you all don't like to carry some weird flying props, but this is still something to take, don't you think?'

Jiang Hao stuck the two on his waist, then placed the two daggers on his thigh area before finally loading the pistols with magazines to check the safety and then sticking them behind his own waist.

After seeing that he was ready, Ning Kun took out another pair of headsets and fitted them for Jiang Hao before speaking, 'Warehouse number three is one of the most remote warehouses in the industrial area, which is often used to store some chemical substances, which is very dangerous.'

Jiang Hao nodded slightly and looked at Ning Kun and smiled, 'It looks like you guys are familiar with this place, huh?'

Chapter 845

After hearing this, Ning Kun stood up straight, then looked at Jiang Hao with a wry smile and spoke, 'Do you know what the chemical often stocked inside is, concentrated sulfuric acid. Do you understand what I mean?'

I don't know why, but after hearing this, Jiang Hao looked at the weird look on Ning Kun's face and shivered all over his body!

Old Black spoke slowly at this time, 'I've already stored the map inside the warehouse into a microcomputer on your arm, which contains the information you need. Also you have an infrared device on your helmet that will help you see the enemy better.'

Sally smiled and gave Old Black a thumbs up. Knowing that he had sort of brought out the bottom of his box this time.

Jiang Hao, who was armed to the teeth, looked as if he was a male protagonist in a science fiction movie at this moment, all in black titanium energy armour, two long swords at his waist, and his feet were even shrouded in armour.

Jiang Hao looked at himself before speaking with some tears and laughter, 'Please, brothers, is this necessary, don't you think it's an insult to a martial artist like me to wear these things?'

In response to Jiang Hao's whining, the three of them stretched out their right hands and then their ring fingers stood up one after another at the will of the heavens to point at Jiang Hao!

Perhaps feeling the concern of the crowd for himself, Jiang Hao immediately felt his eyes flush a little, his lips quirking twice considering that the other party outnumbered him. He finally held back the fragrant words in his mouth!

'I'm going, you guys wait for me here, we'll talk about the specifics after I get inside!' One second to remember

After saying this Jiang Hao disappeared in a flash, Old Black and Ning Kun looked at the place where Jiang Hao had just stood and faintly stared.

‘Although it is said that level four martial artists are somewhat remarkable, but to play like this, why do I feel that it is a bit too much?’

Ning Kun slowly turned his head to look at Old Black after saying this, only to see him looking at himself with a wooden expression.

‘What just happened, where did that kid go, I still have a sentence to say how come he ran away?!’

Sally looked at the two people in front of her and sighed helplessly, then pointed at Ning Kun and said, ‘Did he have a combat recorder on him?’

Ning Kun nodded his head. Then the three of them hurriedly got into the car, and Ning Kun opened his laptop telegram and called up the combat recorder on Jiang Hao’s body.

In fact there was one thing Old Black hadn’t said just now, the miniature combat computer he had fitted to Jiang Hao had another use in that it could help their men on the outside to observe the situation inside so they could decide whether or not to back up.

But since they had seen Jiang Hao’s inhuman speed, Old Black suddenly felt that there was no need to explain this anymore, at least if that kid ran away, no one would be able to stop him!

Just as Jiang Hao entered the warehouse area, Sanniang’s men suddenly ran in wildly. Then looking at Sanniang, he spoke, ‘Chief, the road outside has been blocked off. What do we do?’

As soon as the man’s words left his mouth, another of his men also interjected, ‘Boss Lei’s contact with us inside the city has also been cut off, and there is no mobile phone signal, so we have to wait two hours to find a stable frequency!’

After hearing this, Sanniang looked at the other man and said angrily, ‘I’ve raised you for so long. And when something happens, this is how you behave?’

Hearing Sanniang’s words, all the people around lowered their heads and looked at the ground.

Sanniang rubbed her eyebrows with a bit of a headache and said, ‘Since the road is blocked and we can’t get help, what else can we do, fight our way out! Do I need to teach you all this?’

Just then. A voice suddenly came from the warehouse door.

‘You want to fight your way out? Of course you can, but I’m afraid the difficulty is a bit high, do you really want to do that?’

Looking at the source of the voice, Sanniang was silent for a while before whispering, ‘Have we arranged for men at the warehouse gate yet?’

One of her men whispered after hearing her whisper, ‘Four men!’

To put down four in an instant, what kind of strength was this!

And from the time they captured the member of the beast camp and searched his body for the chip, only just over an hour had passed!

In just over an hour’s time they had made these preparations and even managed to find someone to deal with them!

Thinking of this. Sanniang looked towards the dark place at the warehouse door and said, ‘The Thirteen Sections really live up to their name, I heard that there are thirteen sections in each of the thirteen sections. I wonder which section your Excellency is from?’

Jiang Hao hesitated for a moment at these words, which was funny to say the least. Although Sally had said more than once that she would help herself.

But until now, Jiang Hao did not have a suitable identity, and he had not even contacted anyone else within the thirteen sections apart from Sally!

He had always heard Sally say that there were people from the Thirteen Sects in every place. But up to now, he didn’t know how many people from the Thirteen Sects there were in the Northern Province.

Sally already knew all about him, and all he knew about Sally was that she had a high status and was the future heir to the Thirteen Sects, and that was all.

Thinking of this, Jiang Hao walked out from the shadows after a light sigh, and the crowd's faces twitched as they looked at him all dressed up.

Then he looked at Sanniang and the others and said in a deep voice, 'I'm not from the Thirteen Sects, I'm just here to help.'

A very flat tone, but one that revealed an unparalleled confidence, a confidence that made Sally and the others outside, who were watching the scene through the battle recorder, want to rub Jiang Hao on the ground!

Ning Kun felt a little frantic as he slapped himself in the face!

Old Black was silent as he watched the images on the computer, his face stiffening for a long time before speaking, 'I admit that this kid is a man, really, a man who couldn't be more manly!'

Sally, on the other hand, slammed her two hands on the heads of Old Black and Ning Kun and said, 'Who does this kid think he is? Why don't you just sneak up on them and kill a few of them before you come out?'

Ning Kun rolled his eyes at Sally's action, but since he had just joined Sally's group, he could only swallow his anger.

Old Black was a little confused as he turned his head to look at Sally and said, 'Old Master, why are you hitting me?'

'Then why do you see Ning Kun grabbing his own hair?'

After a moment of silence, Old Black's wooden head pondered for a long time and spoke back, 'Because, exciting?'

For the first time in her life, Sally suddenly wanted to open Old Black's head and see what was inside his head.

And just as they were freaking out, Jiang Hao walked step by step towards Sanniang.

'A year ago, a big man suddenly came to Chu Jiang, Shen Tianyang, and along with him came quite a few brats, namely you.'

Sanniang and the others looked at each other when they heard this, and all of them smelled a hint of something that made them uneasy from these words.

‘Half a year later, the great battle of Xieyang Valley, Shen Haoting led his men to death in battle, Jiang Hao disappeared, meanwhile Chu Jiang Shen Tianyang covered the sky with one hand, and you little fish and shrimps had a much better time!’

Chapter 846

As she watched Jiang Hao step over, Sanniang’s heart lifted, knowing that such a feeling could only come when facing a high-ranking martial artist!

‘Your Excellency. I don’t know how you know these things, but is there some kind of misunderstanding between us?’

Jiang Hao suddenly stopped in his tracks when he heard those words, then looked at Sanniang quietly.

Then he reached out and slowly took off his helmet, then looked at Sanniang and the others and spoke, ‘Misunderstanding? You say. There might be a misunderstanding between us?’

Looking at the other party’s unfamiliar face, Sanniang secretly made hand gestures while doing so. Signalling her men to wait for an opportunity to attack the other party.

While opening her mouth at Jiang Hao, she smiled, ‘Yes, there must be some misunderstanding between us, look, you are not from the Thirteen Sects, and I don’t know you, so why do you have to stand up for the Thirteen Sects?’

After a moment of silence here Sanniang suddenly took out a bank card in her hand and looked at Jiang Hao and said, ‘This card contains a little of my savings, how about you stop here and let us go, senior?’

Jiang Hao looked at Sanniang, and for a moment he actually wanted to laugh out loud! 首发网址 <http://m.26.cc>

But thinking that his face was still wearing a mask until now, Jiang Hao took a deep breath before placing his hands on his own face. Then a rubbing restored to his original appearance.

Only then did he put down his hands and looked at Sanniang with a smile, saying, 'Do you still think that there might be some misunderstanding between us?'

After a moment of silence, Sanniang looked at Jiang Hao with a frightened expression and was actually frozen for a moment!

But she quickly came back to her senses, and the first time she stepped back while her mouth shouted out, 'Do it!'

More than thirty martial artists around her immediately dashed towards Jiang Hao, and Jiang Hao only smiled wickedly when he saw this, he hadn't received any interest from Shen Tianyang for a long time!

These people in front of him could be the interest that Shen Tianyang had paid!

Looking at the people rushing towards him, Jiang Hao lowered his body slightly, and in an instant, the movements of everyone around him seemed to be in slow motion.

All kinds of weapons in their hands, concealed weapons. The movements were all seen by Jiang Hao one by one!

It was this time that made Jiang Hao understand that he had truly stepped into the realm of a Level 4 martial artist, and not as ignorant as before!

In a flash, Jiang Hao rushed into the crowd, his long sword in his hand like a blossoming flower!

The dim light shining in the crowd reflected a somewhat misty glow on the blade, along with the red beads of blood floating in the air.

At this moment, Jiang Hao looked like a god of killing!

Sanniang took out her phone as she stepped back, knowing that there was a good chance she wouldn't get through this, so she wanted to let Shen Tianyang know that Jiang Hao was working for Section 13!

Just as Shen Tianyang had just picked up the phone. Some impatience was about to speak when the first scream finally rang out from the warehouse!

A miserable scream reached Sanniang's side. She spoke with some trembling, 'The target, the target is now a rank four martial artist! Boss! Save me! Save me!'

Sanniang's words had just ended here, followed by a sound of a knife sinking into flesh and bone over the phone.

Shen Tianyang's face turned ugly as he listened to the phone in his hand. And Jiang Hao cleaned up the last stray fish after knocking Sanniang unconscious.

He looked at the phone that had fallen to the ground and smiled faintly, after reaching out to wipe the crimson from his face.

Jiang Hao slowly walked up and picked up the phone, then put it

it to his ear and whispered, 'Hello?'

When Shen Tianyang heard Jiang Hao's voice, he was struck by lightning and suddenly burst out laughing: 'Hello. You're very good, really good!'

There was one thing that all of Shen Tianyang's men knew very well, although Sanniang was a bit of a loose cannon, not many of them dared to have anything to do with her.

The only reason for this was that Sanniang was one of Shen Tianyang's women, and because of this, everyone under Shen Tianyang would give Sanniang some face.

Perhaps it was an illusion that he had not heard Shen Tianyang's voice for a long time. Jiang Hao surprisingly still felt some nostalgia, or perhaps it was out of his own fear of Shen Tianyang back then.

Jiang Hao slowly laughed out. It gradually turned into loud laughter, and then wild laughter!

When the laughter was over. Jiang Hao's face was covered with tear marks.

He spoke into his mobile phone with a somewhat hoarse voice: 'Shen Tianyang, I will come to you. These people, count them as interest first, wait for me, I'll be here soon, hahahaha!'

As soon as the words left his mouth, Jiang Hao threw the phone into the air and then split it in half with a slash.

After doing this, he lay on the ground and took a big breath.

It had been a long time since he had left the Thirty Mile Shop, and today was the first time he had really done it since he had arrived in the Northern Province!

Smelling the faint smell of blood in the air, Jiang Hao had the feeling of being alive for the first time, a feeling that was incomparably real!

Those who were alive would not breathe, those who were alive would not move, those who were alive would have pain in their bodies and would scream out.

He was alive, while those people were already dead.

Of course, this did not include Sanniang, the little leader.

At this moment, after Old Black, who was outside quietly watching the battle recorder, and Ning Kun exchanged a glance, they couldn't help but light themselves a cigarette to take a breather.

Although Ning Kun had been arranged to be a fish in the deep sea since he came out of school, it was not as if he had never seen some tragic images.

And although Old Black had been Sally's shadow from the start, it wasn't as if he hadn't done something either.

But both such men couldn't help but feel a little uncomfortable when confronted with what Jiang Hao had done.

Sally looked at the picture on the computer with a pale face, and after a long time she wiggled her lips a little before leaning over and throwing up!

At this moment, Jiang Hao was lying in a pile of broken limbs, the red blood staining him as if he had crawled out of hell.

The strong smell of blood kept stimulating his nerves, and despite the urge to vomit, Jiang Hao felt nothing but pleasure in his heart!

After a long time, he sat up from the ground, then took off his body armor and said in a deep voice into his headset, 'It's settled, you guys come in and finish up, I'm a bit tired, send me back.'

As soon as the words left his mouth Jiang Hao passed out and didn't even hear Ning Kun's promise.

Outside Old Black gave a slightly bitter laugh at the scene's tragic appearance, then glanced at Ning Kun and then at Sally.

'I'll go in and clean up, you guys wait for me outside for a bit, I'll be out soon.'

Ning Kun smoked a cigarette and nodded down before saying in a deep voice, 'Remember to clean up a bit, if you can't call the cleaning gang to come over, they know what to do.'

Old Black nodded before leading the ten or so men from the beast camp into the warehouse, just as he entered he felt sticky under his feet.
