

Super Rich Dad Chapter 861-863

Chapter 861

After saying this, Ning Kun looked coldly at Old Black: 'If you take over everything on this side of the Northern Province, then I hope you can properly measure your men, if you know what I mean. Right?'

After saying this Ning Kun got up and left, leaving only Sally and Old Black in the hall to stare at each other.

On the other hand, after Jiang Hao arrived at the Lin family, he walked into the Lin family compound looking as normal, only to see Old Master Lin meticulously trimming some flowers and plants while wearing a kung fu suit.

He walked over with a smile on his face. He thought he hadn't made any noise, but he didn't expect to be noticed by Master Lin.

'You're a big boy now. Why do you act like a child? Can't you be more mature?'

After saying this, Elder Lin turned around to look at the gingerly Jiang Hao, and after seeing a hint of embarrassment on his face, he laughed loudly and said, 'Come and do it, try my new tea.'

Jiang Hao shrugged somewhat helplessly and spoke while following behind Elder Lin: 'How did you detect me, I don't seem to have revealed any sound, right?'

'Shadow, although I'm a little older, it doesn't mean that my eyes aren't good anymore.'

As he said this, Elder Lin sat down and began to brew tea while speaking, 'I heard that in the collapse of the Shen family. You also contributed a lot to the collapse of the Shen family, didn't you?'

Jiang Hao looked at Elder Lin after hearing this and smiled in a mysterious manner, 'What do you think, I'm afraid it's not possible to hide the affairs of the Northern Province from you.'

Looking at the look on Jiang Hao's face, Elder Lin snorted and shook his head: 'You'd better be careful, the collapse of the Shen family in the Northern Province and the disappearance of Shen Wennian's father and son, I'm afraid the impact of this matter will not be small.'

After saying this, Elder Lin picked up his cup of tea and spoke with some concern, 'I'm just afraid that old man Chen will run into some trouble this time, ah.'

Jiang Hao listened and fell silent, the collapse of the Shen family appeared to be the handiwork of Chen Jingdao, so many people who cooperated with the Shen family would definitely go looking for trouble with the New City Group.

Although the collapse of a Northern Province Shen family. But don't forget that there is still an overseas Shen family today.

Although they had lost such a partner as the Northern Shen family, but the strength of the overseas Shen family was not a star and a half stronger than the Northern Shen family!

Thinking of this, Jiang Hao could not help but worry about Chen Jingdao.

Although his son had not died directly at his hands, he had a great deal to do with him after all.

Although Chen Minggang was completely to blame, Chen Jingdao shouldn't have to bear these things for his own son.

Thinking of this, Jiang Hao said with a deep sigh, 'There is nothing else I can do about this matter. If Old Man Chen wants to blame, he can only blame his son for being too uncompetitive, I guess.'

Master Lin looked at Jiang Hao and saw that he looked a bit off. So he laughed lightly and shook his head, 'I'm not saying this to doubt that old man Chen can't pass this hurdle, there are still many people who are willing to help him.'

'Then what do you mean?'

'I am hoping that you will stand up and take the responsibility that you should!'

After saying this, Elder Lin smiled and looked at Jiang Hao and spoke, 'Your identity is well hidden though. But don't forget what you just said yourself, I'm afraid it's a bit difficult to hide what's going on in this Northern Mansion from me.'

Elder Lin looked at Jiang Hao at this moment with a hint of shock in his eyes, and a hint of admiration at the same time. There seemed to be a bit of heartache in the depths of his eyes.

Jiang Hao's eyes met Elder Lin's, and the old man and the young man fell silent at once.

Only after a long time did Jiang Hao speak with a bitter smile, 'Perhaps I should indeed stand up and take the responsibility that I myself should take, but now is not the time, I am not that capable yet.'

'Who said that, although the Chu Jiang side is said to be his Shen Tianyang's world, but on the North Mansion side I'll see who dares to touch a hair on your head now!'

After saying this, Elder Lin took a deep breath before shaking his head, 'It's just that I'm old now, otherwise I would take you to Shen Tianyang and ask him personally. Let's see what kind of a person he really is!'

Perhaps Elder Lin was a bit of a neophyte at this point, but Jiang Hao's heart still rose with a hint of warmth when he heard these words.

But the circle of martial artists wasn't so simple. Very often businessmen were just a layer of cover for them, just as Shen Tianyang was.

His inner style of acting was still that of a martial artist. Anyone who dared to stop in front of them would usually face a very simple end.

Thinking of this Jiang Hao shook his head gently. After surveying the surroundings, he spoke, 'This matter of my identity was told to you by Lin Yan, right?'

Elder Lin nodded and smiled, 'In the end, you're still considered not stupid, and don't even think about looking for Yan'er, she's in a bit of a mess right now, so she doesn't want to see anyone for now.'

Jiang Hao smiled a little bitterly and spoke, 'Does this anyone even include me?'

Elder Lin fell silent at those words, then got up and walked over to the edge of the gazebo to look at the flower garden he had just pruned.

'Many times we overestimate our place in the hearts of others, but more often than not, we underestimate.'

Having said this, Elder Lin turned to look at Jiang Hao with a rare glare in his eyes!

'You kid is kind of a different person, overestimating and underestimating you are both guilty of, and on the contrary, you still don't know it, that's what pisses me off the most.'

What kind of heart Lin Yan had towards Jiang Hao, not only Elder Lin, but even Jiang Hao himself already knew it inside.

But on the one hand there was Xue Yu Ning, on the other hand there was Lin Yan, and then there was an additional Sally!

The three were so entangled that Jiang Hao couldn't tell who he actually felt more for, which also made his relationship with Lin Yan and Sally gradually become somewhat blurred and defined into the position of friends.

But for Elder Lin, an outsider, what Jiang Hao was doing at the moment was like having his feet in two boats.

He was not the only one who was tormented by his indecision, but Sally and Lin Yan were also suffering because of him.

Thinking of this, Elder Lin looked at Jiang Hao with a touch more anger in his eyes.

Jiang Hao was not a stupid person either, and when he heard what Elder Lin had just said, he understood what he meant.

At this moment, Jiang Hao laughed bitterly and said, 'I'm sorry, maybe I don't understand it now, maybe I won't be like this when I do.'

Master Lin snorted coldly and then said, 'Wait for you to understand? How much time will it take for you to figure it out?'

Looking at Jiang Hao's embarrassed look, Elder Lin sighed deeply before saying helplessly, 'Forget it, you should go back, Yan'er is not suitable to see you for now.'

When Elder Lin said these words, the look in his eyes towards Jiang Hao took on a hint of hidden anger.

But in reality, he had some helplessness in his heart, after all, he knew best what Lin Yan had in mind for Jiang Hao.

It was because of this thought that Elder Lin was a little angry with Jiang Hao. Angry that he had been unable to respond to Lin Yan's feelings.

After Jiang Hao had walked out of the Lin family compound in a daze, the mobile phone on his body suddenly rang. What's up?'

When Sally heard Jiang Hao's words, she noticed that something was wrong with his tone, so she frowned and said, 'What's wrong with you?'

After saying this, Sally regretted it a little. Then she continued to say, 'Forget it, now you come back, I have something to tell you guys, maybe I have to depart for Chujiang now.'

Hearing this, Jiang Hao's whole body changed, if Sally left for Chujiang, it meant that he should go to Hedong, and he didn't know how Sally communicated with the Xue family.

It seems that apart from Xue Chongli's somewhat minding himself, other things seem to have nothing to do with the Lin family and Chen Daoming, not treating the Xue family as if they were the Shen family alliance in the slightest.

Jiang Hao hung up the phone and hurriedly drove to the villa. When he just arrived he saw that Sally's men were holding twenty boxes and standing quietly behind her.

Old Black was standing respectfully at the door. It was as if he was seeing Sally off.

So Jiang Hao hurriedly ran up and spoke, 'Wait, why are you leaving so quickly, didn't you say that you would have to wait two days before any notice came down?'

Ning Kun looked at Jiang Hao helplessly and stood up without waiting for Sally to speak: 'What do you know, now that Chujiang's branch is disorganized and reorganized, I don't know how many people are staring at it, does the old boss have to wait for them to seize it if he doesn't go there now?'

After saying this Ning Kun looked at Sally with a smile and nodded, 'Old President, you think I'm right?'

Sally, wearing a black fur, gave Ning Kun a blank look, then turned her body around and looked Jiang Hao up and down, reaching out to help him straighten out his collar to wear.

'Don't you worry. I have information on all those friends of yours in my hands, and when I arrive in Chujiang I will try to put your mind at ease while I reorganise the Chujiang branch and help you investigate about your friends.'

Jiang Hao looked at Sally for a long time in silence, then raised his head and said in a deep voice: 'Are you trying to hide something by leaving so soon, tell me.'

Perhaps it was because Jiang Hao's tone was a little heavy when he said this, or perhaps there was something wrong with the words themselves.

Ning Kun and Old Black's faces changed for a moment after glancing at each other, while Sally's movements also stopped. With sunglasses on her face, she looked at Jiang Hao quietly.

After a long time of silence, Sally took off the sunglasses on her face. Then she looked at Jiang Hao and spoke, 'What do I need to hide from, you know? You don't know anything at all, so what qualifications do you have to say about me.'

As soon as the words left her mouth, Sally straightened her clothes. Leading the way to the car, she left straight away.

It looked as if she had intended to say goodbye to Jiang Hao properly, but she didn't expect the two of them to get into a quarrel before they could say a few words just after meeting.

Old Black looked at the back of Sally and the others and walked up and patted Jiang Hao's shoulder.

'What can I say about you, you kid, you don't know anything. On the contrary, it seems like you know everything.'

After saying this Old Black also left on his own, Ning Kun shrugged at Jiang Hao and followed behind Old Black hooked up with him, looking like he didn't want to explain anything to Jiang Hao either.

For a moment Jiang Hao thought that he might be overthinking things, but looking at the back of Sally's group, Jiang Hao's heart somehow always had a slight feeling of unease.

Just as Sally was leaving, outside the North House, Shen Wennian was waiting quietly with Chen Shilong and Zhao Tianzhong.

They had received the news that Sally was leaving for the North House, a message that had been sent by Shen Tianyang.

Originally, Shen Wennian just wanted to go into the North Mansion and find his son. Then he would take Shen Qingshu and leave, not to have any dealings with anyone in the Northern House.

But since Shen Tianyang had received this message. He then asked Shen Wennian to make sure to stop Sally from going to Chu Jiang, which made the burden on him a lot heavier for a while.

I had expected Chen Shilong and Zhao Tianzhong to speak up against it. After all, they only needed to find their friends, but to their surprise, both of them expressed silence on the matter.

Shen Wennian had no choice but to agree. At this point they had been sitting outside on the road for two days waiting, but had seen no movement.

Chen Shilong was sitting on a chair quietly polishing his long knife, with an indescribable gloom in his eyes.

Zhao Tianzhong looked at Chen Shilong and hesitated for a moment, but finally walked up. No matter what, the reason why that kid Jin Shengwu was arrested was not Chen Shilong's fault.

The reason he said that in the office at the beginning was that his anger had overtaken his senses and that's why he said what he said.

Afterwards, when Zhao Tianzhong thought back on it, he also felt that he had wronged Chen Shilong, after all, the three of them had worked together not once or twice, and he understood what kind of person Chen Shilong was.

Chen Shilong, who was polishing his knife, noticed Zhao Tianzhong from the reflection of the knife and shook his head slightly before saying, 'Sit down, I guess they won't come out so early, I'm afraid we have to wait a bit longer.'

He thought that Zhao Tianzhong had come to find himself and was just a bit sullen, so he wanted to come and ask about the situation.

And Zhao Tianzhong looked at Chen Shilong and hesitated for a moment before surprisingly speaking, 'I'm sorry, I shouldn't have said something like that to you that day, I hope you won't take this matter to heart.'

Hearing Zhao Tianzhong's apology, Chen Shilong put down the things in his hands after a long silence, and then turned his head to look at him for a long time.

His lips quirked for a moment as if he wanted to say something, but in the end, he did not say it, turning it into a soft sigh.

Zhao Tianzhong thought that Chen Shilong was still angry with him, so he hurriedly said, 'I know that the matter of Jin Shengwu has nothing to do with you, and you were right to choose to save Shen Wennian, but I... but I just couldn't figure it out at that time.'

Chen Shilong shook his head and said, 'I didn't mean that, I was just wondering how Jin Shengwu was doing and if he could still make it.'

Honestly, they were not sure that Sally would take Jin Shengwu with her, after all, he was a level 3 martial artist, and they heard that Old Black and the rest of Sally's men had stayed at the North Mansion.

In that case, Sally would not have many guards with her at this time.

The twenty guards are definitely going to stay at the North Mansion, after all, twenty have already been lost and they only have a total of fifty on hand, Sally cannot take them all away at once even if she is a big shot!

Chapter 863

Thinking of this, Chen Shilong spoke with a light sigh, 'You misunderstood, that's not what I meant, I was just thinking of some way to keep Sally and the others behind.'

After saying this he took out his mobile phone from his bag. Then opened the text message and handed it to Zhao Tianzhong and whispered, 'The boss's side of the request, we can go back, but Shen Wennian doesn't need to go back.'

As he said this, Chen Shilong gave Shen Wennian a veiled glance.

Only then did he continue, 'The boss intends to use one of Shen Wennian's lives. Stir up the hatred of Shen's branch towards the Thirteen Sections so that the pressure on him can be less.'

Hearing these words. Zhao Tianzhong looked at Chen Shilong in surprise, he didn't expect this to be what it meant!

However, if you think about it, Shen Tianyang's foundation in Chujiang is not very stable, if Sally goes over at this moment, then there is only one thing he can do, pack up his things and leave!

Sally is not like the previous head of the Chujiang branch, she is not that easy to talk to, and this can be seen from the incident in the North.

As long as it is Sally's back garden, no one should think of stepping in it easily.

If this was not a consideration, Shen Tianyang would not have gone to such an extent.

Shen Wennian's status was that of the head of the Northern House Shen Family. He was not a minor figure among the thirty-six families!

If he died because of the Thirteen Sects, the heads of the remaining families would definitely change their minds about the Thirteen Sects when they found out the news, and in turn, they would side with him to support him in his fight against them.

At that time, he would be able to take advantage of both sides, and he would be able to take advantage of the time and place, all he needed to do was to sacrifice Shen Wennian.

If Shen Wennian hadn't lost the huge base of the Northern House Shen family, I'm afraid Shen Tianyang wouldn't have reached such a point, but the moment Shen Wennian lost the Northern House Shen family, his fate would have been sealed!

Looking at the hesitant and shocked look on Zhao Tianzhong's face, Chen Shilong gently wiped the long knife on his hand before speaking, 'Fortunately, Shen Wennian's son, Shen Qingshu, is not here. Otherwise the boss would definitely not have let him go either.'

Zhao Tianzhong looked at Chen Shilong with a bland look on his face, swallowed his breath and then spoke tremblingly, 'Is everything you said true?'

'The phone is there, if you don't believe me you can take a look at the mission the boss gave me, I won't say anything superfluous, you yourself weigh clearly what the consequences will be if you continue to fool around.'

Shen Wennian, as the head of one of Shen's thirty-six families, once he lost the value of his interest, the consequence would only be a death.

Since this was the case, it was even less important to mention such a small fish and shrimp as Zhao Tianzhong.

Perhaps his strength of a third level martial artist was rare. But it didn't mean that Shen Tianyang would put it in his eyes, because he casually unlocked one of the prohibitions within his men's bodies. Then a second or third level martial artist would only be a step away for them!

After the two men bowed their heads in silence for a long time, Zhao Tianzhong looked at Chen Shilong and hesitated for a moment before speaking, 'Then do you think there is still a need for me to go to Brother Zhao?'

Hearing these words, Chen Shilong only glanced at Zhao Tianzhong lightly. Then he inserted the long knife in his hand into its sheath and said, 'If you are not afraid of death, then go ahead and look for him, whether the boss's affairs or yours are important, think it over.'

As soon as the words left his mouth, the man watching in front of him hurriedly sent a message and said, 'The target has left the city. It is now taking a diversion to the interchange highway, and is estimated to be heading to the airport soon.'

Shen Wennian originally wanted to put off this mission, but then he considered that he had already lost the Northern Province Shen family, and he had to show his strength if he wanted to make a living under Shen Tianyang.

So when he heard the scout's words, he hurriedly said, 'How many vehicles, how many convoys, and how many people did you say?'

The spy was silent for a moment, then pointed to the small note and read it out, then hurriedly said, 'The convoy looks like there are about six cars in total, but I can't confirm which one the target is in. The other side is very well protected.'

Hearing this, Shen Wennian couldn't help but curse in a low voice. He couldn't even find out how many people there were on the other side!

Thinking of this, he threw away the scout. Then he walked over to Chen Shilong then called over Zhao Tianzhong.

Looking at the two Level 3 martial artists standing in front of him, the interrogating grandmother had an additional hope at her heart. After all, the two were no weaker than him!

Chen Shilong quietly glanced at Shen Wennian before casually speaking, 'What's wrong, looking for us in such a hurry, did the target appear, or did your son appear?'

Shen Wennian looked at Chen Shilong and shook his head with a smile before he squatted down and opened a map and spoke, 'Here is a map of the Northern Province, the target group has come out, we need to see which way he intends to go.'

Before Chen Shilong could say anything, Zhao Tianzhong casually glanced at the map before speaking, 'You might as well save your breath, they will definitely choose the bypass highway and then go straight to the airport, they won't leave us much of a chance.'

The road down to the airport on the Beifu bypass highway was a six-lane road, and because of this, many plans could not be used in some small corners.

Shen Wennian looked at the map and frowned somewhat helplessly, then spoke to Chen Shilong, 'Since the other side is going to take the plane, and the road to the airport will be our best chance!'

Zhao Tianzhong smiled somewhat sinisterly, Jin Shengwu he didn't know if he was dead or not, but he must have been badly injured!

Sally, as the head of the 13th Section of the Northern Government, now had to go to Chu Jiang to threaten his boss, then naturally Sally couldn't stay either!

After a slight glance with Chen Shilong, both of them saw a hint of ambition in each other's eyes.

When Shen Wennian saw that both of them had turned around, he thought they agreed with his plan, so with two grim smiles he led his men to the road to Beifu Airport, intending to use their car to intercept them by force!

But just as they reached the highway, the vehicles inside caused a commotion as soon as they spotted the men!

The story was quickly relayed back to Sally, who looked at the information in her hands in deep thought, despite the fact that she was surrounded by over twenty people, none of whom were considered to be in good standing.

After just a minute of silence, Sally took out her mobile phone and called Old Black, and as soon as the call was answered she said, 'Address airport highway km, someone is here to intercept me, try to be quick!'

After saying this Sally hung up the phone, as long as she gave Lao a call, whatever needed to be done next, he would take care of it!

After receiving this message, Sally was the first to order the convoy to slow down as much as possible, but not too much, while Ning Kun was rushing to inform Jiang Hao at this time, after all, he was the strongest fighting force in the North at this time!
